THE PRICE OF WOOL.

HOW THE TARIFF ON WOOL AFFECTS THE PRICE.

The Highest Price Under the Lowest Tariffs. The Lowest Price Under the Highest Tariffs. The Reasons Why.

The greatest difficulty met with in discussing the tariff question comes from the diversity of commodities with which we have to deal. The tariff on certain articles increases the price; on certain other articles it has no effect whatever and on certain other articles it lowers the price. The tariff on wool is one of those cases where the tariff lowers the price. The ARGUS has devoted some little time in studying up on this subject during the past few weeks and desires to lay the conclusions at which it has arrived before its readers in a candid manner, that they may be saved the trouble in posting themselves to which it was put. The first fact which may be stated is that a removal of the duty upon wool will increase the foreign importation of wool. That has been the experience in the past and will be the experience in the future, if it should be tried. But this is not an argument that it will lessen the price of American wool. There is not enough wool raised in this country to supply the American manufacturers. To use the American wool to the best advantage, the manufacturer mixes it with cheaper grades of foreign wools. The cheaper he can obtain this wool that he uses to mix with the American the lower the cost of manufacturing or the higher price he can afford to pay for American wool. It has been shown by figures which cannot be disputed that the years of increased importations of foreign wools have been years of increase in the price of American wool and also years of decrease in the importations of foreign woolen goods. In other words the American manufacturer is placed upon a footing where he can the better compete with the foreign manufacturer and instead of woolen goods being smuggled in or sent through the custom houses of the country, the goods are made here, using part American wool. This has created a greater demand for American wool and increased the price of wool.

These are not theoretical statements but actual facts born out by figures. They have been proven by the experience of the wool growers in this country in the past.

THE FIRST WOOL TARIFF

by which a duty was imposed upon wool was in 1824. The price of wool at once slightly decreased and after a year or two the price fell off rapidly so that common wool which sold in 1825, when the tariff went into operation, for from 30 to 38 cents, in 1832, after eight years of protection, sold for from 25 to 30 cts., a loss of eight cents a pound under protection. In the same period, the price of full blooded merino wool fell from 50 to 62 cents to from 40 to 45 cents. The cause of this decline can easily be found. The manufacturers were unable to use the foreign wools profitably for mixing under the heavy tariff and consequently the manufacture was depressed and unable to consume as largely as before, which lessened the demand for American wool. In fact so small was the demand at times that wool at one time sold for twenty cents and for a whole month at eighteen cents. In spite of the fact that at the time a duty was first placed upon wool, the duty on woolen goods was raised, the amount of woolen goods imported at once increased, so that the importation of $8,250,000 of woolen goods in 1824, had increased to over $11,000,000 importation in 1825. This was due to the depression of our manufactures, owing to the denial of a choice of raw material. So that the tariff on wool meant a decrease of the importation of wool but an increase in foreign woolen goods used in this country. How much better for the American grower to have woolen goods used, in which American wool was mixed, rather than foreign goods in which no American wool was contained.

THE TARIFF REDUCED.

In 1832, the evil effects of the high tariff on wool having been by this time demonstrated, it was greatly lowered by a bill which provided for its further reduction from year to year. The price of wool at once began to go up and four years later common wool sold for from 40 to 50 cents, which under the high tariff had only sold for from 25 to 30 cents and merino wool, under the beneficent influence of a reduction of the tariff increased in price to 50 and 68 cents. To what was this increase in price due? To the increase in the manufacturing of woolen goods. In the first five years of this reduced tariff the amount of woolen goods manufactured in Massachusetts increased sixty per cent. This increase created a greater demand for American wool which increased the price.

THE SECOND HIGH TARIFF

on wool was imposed in 1842 and lasted just four years, when the wool growers grew tired of it. The year of the enactment of the heavy duties on wool, the price of the common wool fell to from 18 to 20 cents a pound and four years later it was still only 20 to 21 cents, while merino wool was reduced to 27 and 28 cents. The importation of woolen goods again increased as it had under the first high tariff.

"A BRITISH FREE TRADE TARIFF" is what the advocates of protection called the tariff of 1847, which once more reduced the tariff on wool. Wool increased in price. In the ensuing four years it had increased 13 cents a pound in price, so that the common wool averaged 33½ cents and the merino wool 40½ cents and wool continued at about these prices until in 1857 still another change was made in the wool tariff. The low duties on wool under this "free trade" tariff were removed and in 1857 a period began of when all foreign wool costing 18 cents a pound and under, was admitted free of duty. This gave a free supply of wool for mixing purposes and the price of American wool at once jumped up to 37 cents. The next year came the panic of 1858, when in common with other commodities, the price of wool went down to 30 cents, owing to the stoppage of manufactures. But the next year the times brightened up and common wool brought 35 cents. In 1860, the last year of free wool, common wool brought 34 to 38 cents and merino wool 48 to 52 cents.

THE WAR PERIOD

is hardly a criterion in prices. In common with every thing else a duty was placed on wool and a heavy duty on woolen goods. All prices were inflated. Yet in 1863 number one wool was only worth $3 to 36 cents in gold and in 1864, it brought 31 to 33 cents in gold. In 1866 it had gotten down to 23½ to 27 cents in gold, which was about 12 cents less a pound than during the last year of free wool. The price of wool has since continued to fluctuate under the tariffs on it, until under a high tariff wool now sells at from 20 to 25 cents.]

In the light of history we fail to see how the tariff increases the price of wool. On the contrary the lower the tariff the higher the price to the American wool grower.

A Change in Hospital Management.

The committee to whom was referred the change proposed in the management of the University hospitals has decided to have the hospitals run by the University itself during the coming year. Mr. Joseph Clark, who recently removed to this city from Monroe, will be recommended as steward of both the hospitals at a salary of $1,200. He will have entire charge of them, receiving all monies for the University, buying all provisions, etc. This is an entire change from the old system under which the matrons of the hospitals made their profit out of the patient's board and paid for the privilege.

Why the Colt Ran Away.

A. J. McDonald had his shoulder badly injured by being thrown from a load of hay last Friday. The accident occurred in this way. One of the team McDonald was driving was a colt, which he was going to give a lesson. The colt was driving along as steady as an old horse and McDonald had just remarked to a boy on the load that they "could go to sleep on the load, with that colt." They didn't go to sleep. A lady in the road shook an umbrella at the colt, or at least it looked that way, and it made a break. It didn't take the boy long to slide off the load of hay to the ground, but Mr. McDonald was thrown off and quite badly injured.

Stealing from a Farm House.

Last Thursday morning at six o'clock the residence of John Doody, two miles west of Hudson in this county was entered by a burglar, who cut a hole in a screen of a side door and entered by unloosening the catch. Mr. Doody heard the burglar but supposed it was his sons getting up. The burglar ransacked the parlors and bed room. He secured $40 in currency, a $5 gold piece and some small change, also a dozen knives and forks, two dozen tea spoons and a dozen table spoons. A jewelry peddler had been at the house the day before. The same fellow was at Dexter after the burglary and stated, when asked the question as to where he got the silver, that the farmers were hard up and were giving him silverware in pay for work. He was a tall man and wore a white hat and overalls.

Repairs at the University.

Secretary Wade has marked out considerable work for himself this summer at the University, although the repairs will not be so extensive as last year. A new tin roof will be placed on the museum. Ten thousand feet of new flooring will be placed in the upper balls of the main building. The ceiling of Prof. Spaulding's room will be raised. Room 24 will be thoroughly overhauled as will room G. About $1,000 worth of work will be put upon the two hospitals, the better to accommodate the patients. The new chemical vault will be built. About 150 rods of new tar walk eight feet in width will be built this summer while the walk from the museum to the main building will be raised and enlarged. The new walks will be from the museum east to the mechanical laboratory and from the medical building to the dental building. The other walks will also be repaired. There are many other minor repairs in contemplation.

More Petty Burglaries.

Evidently some local talent is at work in the city, earning a term in states prison. Early last Thursday morning, shortly after four o'clock in fact, the residence of Rev. Dr. Ramsay was entered and fifty cents obtained and the reverend doctor's hat. A lady visiting there was awakened by the intruder who proved to be a colored man. The man shook his fist at her and made a rapid exit. At about the same hour Friday morning the residence of Prof. W. H. Payne, on State street was entered, the ladies being awakened by the noise the fellow made in climbing in the second story window and ransacking the house. He made a rapid exit, when a revolver was called for and it was well for him that he did. The residence of Mrs. Dennison, who resides opposite Prof. Payne's residence was entered and $5 secured. The residence of Mrs. Dr. Wells was entered Thursday night, but the burglar was scared away making a hasty exit through a second story window taking screen and all. He secured nothing. The same evening Judge Harriman's residence was entered, the burglar bringing back the Judge's gold watch he had stolen the previous week and liberally helping himself to the doughnuts. The net results of the burglaries seems to have been $5.50 and a hat. A number of watches, quantities of silverware, jewelry, etc., were passed over by the burglars as evidently not wanted. It looks as if the gang at work here were afraid of being caught if they had anything but money.

Additional Hospital Accommodations.

A meeting of a number of our citizens was held at Judge Harriman's office, last Saturday evening, at which S. W. Beakes presided and A. W. Hamilton was made secretary. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering what could be done to secure the needed additional hospital accommodations for the University in this city, so that there would be no further question as to the medical department remaining here. The matter was discussed at some length, the opinion of those present being that all clinical material needed for the students could be obtained if proper hospitals were erected. A committee consisting of Judge Harriman, E. B. Pond, Sedgwick Dean, A. W. Hamilton and Ottmar Eberbach were appointed to take the matter in charge and see the regents at their next meeting as to what could be done.

The members of the medical faculty, now in the city, met with the committee Tuesday and talked the matter over. The outcome of the discussion showed that the doctors thought that ample clinical material could be had here, if the accommodations were sufficient. The graduates of the school always stand high in the profession. The argument for removal to Detroit was that the hospitals there were available for the students. But the private hospitals are private institutions and the students can not avail themselves of the cases there treated. All the cases wanted in obstetrics, the doctors thought, could be obtained if a lying-in ward were built.

The Last Pomological Meeting.

At the monthly meeting of the Washtenaw pomological society the committee on transportation and fruit exchange reported through their chairman, B. E. Nichols, that parties most agreeable to the fruit-growers, whom he had addressed, declined to accept the agency, being otherwise engaged. It was therefore resolved to leave this whole matter in the hands of Prof. Nichols, who will at once make arrangements for transportation and distribution at Detroit.

Shippers of fruit, therefore, would do well to see Prof. Nichols, who has managed so well for us, so that they may get the advantage of his special arrangements. Everyone can ship to whom and where he pleases. Shippers and fruit growers who wish to avail themselves of the special arrangements of the committee, should sign the agreement at L. Gruner's shoe store.

The Ann Arbor preserving company exhibited strawberries and gooseberries, canned by the new process, invented by E. H. Morgan. The berries presented in a neat open glass jar tasted delicious. The fruit aroma is well preserved by this process. The company have expended considerable money in erecting buildings and suitable machinery. Their work is done by steam. Mr. Hungerford, lately from India, a very cheerful looking Englishman, is a member of this enterprising firm. He attended the meeting for the first time and made a very favorable impression. The partners are men of culture and education and have the best wishes of the society.

Apples from Leelanaw county were on exhibition. They were natural fruit and appeared very well kept. N. B. Covert exhibited specimens of apples and pears attacked by the codling moth in different stages. He is a close observer and does very useful work in entomology.

As there was very bad spelling of my June report by some of the newspapers which was generally copied by the press all over the state and far beyond, I would say now in regard to the pear prospect in my orchard: The early pears like Doyenne, d'ete, Rostrezer, Bloodgood and especially Giffard, Clapp's Favorite and Bartlett promise a large yield of fine fruit, while Flemish Beauty, D'Anjon, Lawrence, Bosc and other late varieties do not promise so well. The Kieffer looks very healthy and shows its Mongolian origin when compared with my pear tree, Transit, which the late astronomer, James Watson, had the kindness to present to me on his return from Northern China, where he had observed the transit of Venus. Winter Nellis, my best winter pear, is promising. D'Areberg never fails.

EMIL BAUR, Cor. Sec'y.

Democratic County Convention.

At the democratic county convention held in this city yesterday, Hon. C. H. Richmond was made temporary chairman and Mr. J. L. Duffy was made temporary secretary. On motion Chairman Richmond appointed as a committee on permanent organization and order of business, J. V. Sheehan, C. H. Gregory, A. J. Warner, M. J. Lehman; as a committee on credentials, C. H. Manley, Lester Yost, J. Manley Young, J. L. Duffy, and as a committee on resolutions, Frank Joslyn, E. B. Pond and Dr. D. P. McLachlan.

The convention then took a recess until half past one. It was a representative body of men who were present. After the convention reassembled. They reported that considerable interest was manifested in the town caucuses and that the democrats of the county appeared to be wide awake and enthusiastic.

After the report of the committee on credentials was made, the temporary officers were made the permanent officers of the convention. Chairman Richmond made a ringing democratic speech describing the issues as solely that of taxation. No one wants to be taxed unnecessarily. No one wants to be taxed for more than the support of a government economically conducted. No one wants to be taxed to enrich his neighbor. That is the issue.

The committee on resolutions presented the following resolutions which were adopted by acclamation.

Resolved, That this convention representing the democracy of Washtenaw county approve the platform of principles enunciated by the recent national democratic convention, and heartily and unreservedly endorse the renomination of that model executive, Grover Cleveland for president, and the nomination of that noble old democratic leader, Allen G. Thurman for vice-president.

Resolved, That the coming democratic state convention by emulating the example set both on the presentation of principles and candidates, will deserve and command victory for the democracy of Michigan.

Resolved, That the democratic congressional convention in a spirit of harmony and concession and ignoring any aggressive claims of individuals or counties, may and should name a candidate for representative in congress who can command the entire strength of the party and redeem the second congressional district.

The following delegates were elected to the state convention at large: Hon. James S. Gorman, Hon. Chauncey Joslyn, Hon. John W. Babbitt, Ex-Gov. Alpheus Felch, 1st District, J. V. Sheehan, Chas. S. Gregory, Charles S. Manly, E. B. Pond, M. J. Lehman, John Ryan, F. A. Howlett, 2nd District, F. P. Bogardus, D. E. Rogers, M. J. Kelsey, Philip Blum, F. J. Swain, Harry Heller, Henry T. Coe.

The following delegates were elected to the congressional convention at large: Hon. John J. Robison, Dr. D. P. McLachlan, Hon. C. H. Richmond, Arthur Brown, 1st District, Anthony Burke, Jr., J. S. Gorman, Thomas G. Burlingame, J. F. Schuh, Wm. Geer, Chas. Dwyer, John Duffy, Second District, Wm. B. Osband, C. Woodruff, James Lowden, Jacob Knapp, C. L. Yost, F. Joslyn, J. M. Gross.

He was conductor of the train and in directing its movements, his foot caught in a frog, the cars backing over him. His face was not mutilated. The remains were brought to Ypsilanti.

Says the Ypsilantian: "A drive to Ann Arbor, this week, going by one road and returning by another, revealed more fine looking wheat fields than we had been led to suppose the region afforded. Indeed, we did not see one piece that did not seem to cover the ground with a good growth in apparent good condition. The timothy meadows, too, were simply beautiful—tall, even, clean; and the mower had attacked several of them."

Elmer E. Rouse leaves Saline tomorrow for Benton Harbor, Mich., where he has accepted a position as prescription clerk in a drug store. He has been in Mason's drug store in Saline and has many warm friends in that village. For a long time he has been the ARGUS correspondent in Saline and he has each week given our readers all the Saline news afloat. We have had many compliments upon the quantity and quality of the Saline items, for which the credit is due Mr. Rouse.

A narrow escape from death is thus described in the Sharon correspondence of the Enterprise: "On Monday forenoon Ben Myers was attacked by his black stallion at George Pixley's. The horse threw him down and kneeling down upon him tried to bite him; he then rose up, struck at him with his feet, and finally grabbed him by the calf of the leg with his teeth and was chewing the life out of him, when Pixley came running from the yard grabbed up a club struck the horse a heavy blow which caused him to let go of Myers and run down the road.

The Ypsilantian publishes the following "true" story from one of its correspondents from a neighboring town, for which however we do not vouch: "A citizen going to his home a few evenings ago was alarmed at discovering a man lying by the road, pointing a gun at him. Not feeling quite ready to be shot just then, he fled as fast as he could, and alarmed his neighbor. Hastily arming himself, they went cautiously to the spot, and to their astonishment found crouched upon the ground a lady's bustle. The brass part of the machine shined in the moonlight, looked like a gun".

The latest "victim of tobacco" is a sad case indeed. He is 70 years old, has smoked for sixty years and last week he married a woman four years his senior. Tobacco smoking affected his brain.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Children's Dress in Algiers.

The boys, when running about, wear nothing but a long white chemise and dark blue vest, but of all bewitching creatures in the world the little girls can scarcely be surpassed. They are everywhere, and must strike a stranger, certainly an artist, as a prominent feature of interest. Some are going to the baker's, carrying unbaked loaves piled on a plank on the head, others, with little brass bound buckets brimming with milk; singly in crowds, always fascinating, not only pretty, but arrayed in an infinite variety of costumes, they dart from shadow into sunlight, and disappear in a twinkling round a corner or through a doorway.

They wear first, a white chemise with gauze sleeves, over it a gandoura, or chemise without sleeves, and reaching nearly to the ankles, usually of printed calico, glaring in color, and with spots, stripes, birds, branches and leaves; this gandoura is sometimes of rich brocade or light silk, over the first they often wear a second gandoura of tulle with a design in it, ordinarily nothing more nor less than common white lace curtain stuff. All the materials hang limp and flutter when they run round the waist a broad ceinture, and over the shoulders a little bodice. On the head a conical cap, always of crimson velvet, more or less ornamented with gold thread, children and unmarried girls wear them with a strap under the chin; married women tie them on with a colored handkerchief besides the strap.—F. A. Bridgman in Harper's Magazine.

The inestimable value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a blood-purifier should be known to every wife and mother. It corrects irregularities, gives tone and strength to the vital organs, and cleanses the system of all impurities. The best family medicine.

The new metal turrents with which France has been experimenting have proved unable to stand the new projectiles from modern guns. This, says The London Times, condemns ironclad ships without giving them a chance of showing what they could do.

Cold, cough, coffin is what philosophers term "a logical sequence." One is very liable to follow the other; but by curing the cold with a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the cough will be stopped and the coffin not needed—just at present.

Neuralgic pains are a common affection of humanity, and not a few people would be glad to know that one of the speediest sources of temporary relief is to heat a flatiron, put a double fold of flannel on the painful part and then move the iron gently to and fro on the flannels. "Iron" the painful part thus for a few minutes and the suffering will almost certainly cease.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it.—Trial bottle free at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store.

A Plot to Blow Up the C. B. & Q. Office Building at Chicago.

THREE MEN CAUGHT WITH DYNAMITE

They Are Arrested on a Train and One of Them Throws a Letter Out of the Window—It is Recovered and Is Said to Contain Damaging Evidence Involving the Engineers' Brotherhood.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Three men, who were arrested on a Burlington train, are accused of a plot more terrible than the one that led up to the bloody Haymarket massacre. Its object, it is charged, was to blow up the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy office building and destroy the lives of perhaps 500 men who daily occupy the big structure.

Since the strike of the engineers the Burlington road has had a large force of detectives engaged in watching the movements of the strikers, and several "agitators" have been put under special surveillance. It is said that dynamite has been used in several unsuccessful attempts to wreck trains within the past month, and those suspected have been closely watched. Positive information is said to have been received yesterday of a contemplated concerted attack upon the company's property, including trains and station property, and it is believed Mr. Stone's office was marked for annihilation. Acting upon information given them warrants were sworn out and Deputy Marshal Burchard proceeded with them to Aurora, in company with Assistant Superintendent McGinty, of Pinkerton's force, with a detective. The men were located and shadowed to the 3:15 afternoon train.

Thomas Broderick and J. A. Bowles, two brotherhood ex-engineers of the Burlington, in company with a stranger, were seen to board the train. The train had barely started when the men were placed under arrest. They made no resistance. Under their coats, and lying on the seat between Broderick and the third man, whose name proved to be Wilson, was a package, which, when examined later, was found to contain four dynamite cartridges, each containing about a pound of dynamite.

While the captives were being handcuffed Broderick snatched a letter from his pocket and threw it out of the window. The train was stopped and this letter recovered. It is said to furnish damaging evidence against the conspirators, involving the brotherhood. Broderick and Wilson had little to say, while Bowles was profuse in explanations of his innocence.

The men were brought to this city and taken before Commissioner Hoyne, who held them in $5,000 bond each for examination on the 13th inst. They declare they know nothing of any plot.

John A. Bauerisen, chief engineer of division 32 of the Burlington road, was arrested later at Aurora and brought to this city, charged with being connected with the conspiracy.

He was also placed under bonds of $5,000, and some of his friends came and said they would see that the necessary bail was furnished. By noon the engineer was a free man again, he having given bonds. The men previously arrested are still in jail. The cases are set for a hearing on July 13.

Lawyer Frank P. Collier, attorney for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, has the case in charge and is conducting the investigation leading to the discovery of the men supposed to be concerned in the dynamite plot. Within the next few days it is given out that a large number of locomotive engineers belonging to the brotherhood will be arrested, and by the day of the trial there will be quite an array before the commissioner to answer the general charge placed against those already in the clutches of the law.

The officers who arrested Bauerisen returned to Aurora at noon, and at 7 p. m. arrived in the city, having in custody Alec Smith, who was taken over to the jail, and this capture will be put under bonds like the rest. He is a striking fireman on the Aurora division, a young man of 24, who has lived in Aurora some time. He is said to have also handled some of these dynamite cartridges.

Last night a statement was given out by General Manager Stone, of the Q, which in effect is as follows:

A few days after the middle of May last the company was informed that attempts were to be made to damage its property and trains by the use of dynamite, and that Bowles, the brotherhood engineer who was arrested Thursday afternoon with dynamite in his possession, was about to leave town to put the plan in operation. Bowles did leave Chicago, as was expected, having taken a package of dynamite and caps with him from room 34, Grand Pacific hotel, the headquarters of the grievance committee of the strikers, and occupied by S. E. Hoge, chairman of the general grievance committee. On May 29, at 10:40 p. m., a bomb was exploded under a locomotive between this city and Aurora, without doing any material damage however. Examination of the spot where the explosion took place showed abundant evidence of dynamite, and the name of the manufacturer of the explosive. After a large picnic of brotherhood people at Aurora, June 15, another case of the same kind occurred with similar results. These explosions are attributed directly to Bowles, who then, went to Noblesville, Ind., where he was supplied with funds by means of a draft from John A. Bauerisen, the chief engineer and principal officer of Division No. 32, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who is also the chairman of the local grievance committee at Aurora. Bauerisen is also one of the principal members of the brotherhood on the whole Chicago, Burlington & Quincy system, as well as a leader in the strike.

Broderick is also a member of the brotherhood and was during this time at Creston, Ia. He had repeatedly asked Bauerisen to send Bowles there, and he accordingly went, met Broderick, and delivered to him the dynamite and caps. Shortly after Bowles left Creston, and a few hours afterward an explosion took place in the west end of Creston yard. The next week another explosion took place just south of Creston, and another on July 5 just east of the town. During all this time the two men were in possession of full credentials from the brotherhood—letters of introduction, etc.—and such were found on them when arrested.

Broderick, before going to the train at Aurora on Thursday afternoon, went to the hall of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and there got the package of dynamite which was afterward taken by him, Bowles and Wilson on to the train with them. This package of dynamite had been taken by John A. Bauerisen, spoken of as being the chief engineer of the brotherhood of the Aurora division, to the Brotherhood hall for Broderick. He was therefore arrested by the United States marshal as an accomplice.

Mr. Stone then gave the press the following circular, which he claimed was issued as it purports to have been:

Chicago, April 16, 1888.—To C. E. & F. A. E. Div. No. —: The C. B. & Q. have only got about one-half of the men prior to the strike. They want about 400 or 500 more engineers. We have called on you to furnish one or two men from your division. We will not call on all divisions throughout the country to come and apply for situations on the "Q" under an assumed name, and, as soon as they get to work, to correspond with John Sowers, National Hotel, Chicago, for instructions. The object is to disable engines in every way they can, and, on a given day, to quit work in a body, after receiving instructions from us. The company is on their last leg, and, by this means, we propose to take the other. We don't want any of them to come here, but to make applications at the following points: Aurora, Galesburg, Burlington, Creston, Plattsmouth, Lincoln and McCook. Be very careful who you select to come—men that don't talk too much, or who are in the habit of drinking. Supply them with plenty of sal soda and emery. Have them get a leave of absence for thirty days or more.

P. S. Please don't let this outside except within yourselves and those you select to come. Please answer on receipt of this. Yours, fraternally, "S. F. Hoge, Chairman C. B. & Q. Room 34, Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago.

At the time, however, Mr. Hoge issued this circular the company was fully supplied with engineers and had a large number of applications from reliable men, with good references, for any vacancies which might occur. A number of attempts were made to carry out the suggestions of the circular, but in all cases the applicants were refused employment. The company, knowing the character of the leaders of the strike with whom they had to deal, had been on its guard against this very sort of thing from the first day of the strike. Mr. Stone explained that the sal soda was to be put into the tanks of the engines, so that the water on being pumped into the boiler would "foam," so as to prevent the engine from getting dry steam, and make it impossible to proceed, and to cause the burning of the crown sheets of the fire boxes. The emery was to be thrown on to the bearing surface of different parts of the machinery, causing the bearings to run hot or even ruin them.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The sixth man has been added to the list of accused, the United States marshal having gone to Aurora and arrested George Godding, a "Q" striking engineer, on the same charge as the others. He was put under bond of $5,000, and not being able to supply it, remained. Before being taken there he was censored for a long time with the commissioner, lawyers and railway officials, but what he said is a profound secret. Godding, however, was not actually put in jail. He was put in charge of a marshal, and says he can get bail, and this fact has started the rumor that he has made a "statement" to the officers. The railway people say nothing further will be known until the trial Friday.

Chairman Hoge says he does not know Godding. He also said that if the men under arrest are guilty the brotherhood has nothing to do with them, but if they are not guilty they will be defended by the brotherhood.

He was asked: "What is there in your alleged statement that there may be a general strike over the country?" "I mean nothing further than that if the "Q" road should arrest some of the brotherhood leaders there would be a complete cessation of work. If Arthur had been arrested when that subject was agitated it would have stopped every wheel in the country. I think it would be the same if I should be arrested. They have gone no further among our officers than Bauerisen, and that's far enough."

CHICAGO, July 11.—Surprises in the C. B. & Q. conspiracy case began early yesterday, and were not completed until the afternoon, when what is claimed as the most important development of the sensation came out.

After a long night's consultation upon the situation by the Burlington officials and their attorneys it was decided yesterday morning to arrest the chairman of the grievance committee of the Engineers' and Firemen's brotherhoods, S. E. Hoge and John H. Murphy, respectively, on the charge of conspiracy. Warrants were also sworn out for the arrest of Engineers John J. Kelly and John H. McGilvery as accomplices.

Before 7 o'clock in the morning Hoge and Murphy had been arrested at the National hotel and locked up at the Central station. They were arraigned before Justice Lyon, before whom a change of venue had been taken from Justice White, and admitted to $1,500 bail each, furnished by William Fitzgerald.

These arrests were made because of the issuance of the circular alleged to have been issued by Hoge, which was printed in these dispatches a few days ago, and Kelly and McGilvery were wanted on the same account, but it was some time before they could be found. They were arrested in the afternoon and taken to the Desplaine street police station, and provided the climax to the sensation.

John J. Kelly and John H. McGilvery, are clerks respectively to Chairman Hoge of the striking engineers' grievance committee and Chairman Murphy of the firemen's committee. The sensation is explained as follows by Inspector Bonfield:

"Kelly and McGilvery were arrested this afternoon," said he late last night. "When arrested they sent for me. I went to see them at the armory, where they had been taken, first sending word to Mr. Stone that I presumed they wanted to talk. He came over, consulted with Attorney Collier with him, overhauled them, they appeared to be very nice young men, intelligent and honest. They told us fully of their connection with the circular. Then, as the result of the conference, they wrote out all they know, and I can say that their statement was perfectly satisfactory to Mr. Stone and Mr. Collier. I had to leave before the statements were fully completed, but understand that they settle satisfactorily, and beyond the possibility of a doubt, the authorship of the sal soda and emery circular. It also settles who John Sowers is, the man none of the reporters could find."

"According to this statement, continued the inspector, 'Sowers is Hoge. When the circulars were sent to the different divisions inquiries as to its authenticity were received in numbers from chief engineers who doubted whether such a radical circular could be sent out by Hoge, and asking if it were genuine. Both these young men answered a number of these inquiries, invariably saying, by the direction of Hoge, that the circular was all right.

Visit the Cincinnati Exposition.

In your schedule of summer travel, don't forget to include the Queen City and the Centennial Exposition. The event is of especial significance to the inhabitants of the Central States, celebrating as it does the development of this great territory, with all its vast industries, agricultural interests and boundless resources. The department into which the Cincinnati Central Exposition is divided considers the whole range of our advanced civilization, government, State and social interests being alike bound together in the endless displays which are promised.

The railroad rates are reduced to a minimum, living in Cincinnati is cheap and good, the best markets in the world being established here, and the sight and objects of interest in this great Western metropolis are unequalled. A few days tarrying there will more than repay tenfold the expenses and inconveniences, which are less now than at any time on the travel thitherward.

For President, GROVER CLEVELAND. For Vice-President, ALLEN G. THURMAN.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democrats of Michigan will meet in State Convention in the Detroit Opera House at Detroit, on Thursday, July 19th, 1888.

At eleven o'clock a. m. to nominate candidates for State Officers and for Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

According to the rule adopted by the state convention held at Detroit in 1880, every county is entitled to one delegate for each 500 votes cast for governor at the last general election, and one additional delegate for a fraction of not less than 500 votes, but any county is entitled to at least one delegate.

All delegates must be residents of the counties they represent.

The delegates from each Congressional District will meet in caucus at 10 o'clock a. m., on day of the convention.

I. M. WESTON, Chairman. W. M. J. MCGEE, Assistant Secretary.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Washtenaw County will meet in county convention at the court house in the city of Ann Arbor on Thursday, July 12, at 11 a. m., for the purpose of electing 18 delegates to the Democratic State Convention to meet at Detroit on July 19, also for the purpose of electing 18 delegates to the Congressional Convention to be hereafter called and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

All voters who are in accord with the present Democratic administration are invited to participate in the selection of delegates to this convention.

The towns and wards will send delegates as follows.

Table with columns for ANN ARBOR and YPSILANTI CITY, listing wards and delegate counts.

A full attendance is requested. J. R. BACH, Secretary.

Democratic Ward Caucuses

The democratic ward caucuses for the election of delegates to the democratic county convention to be held July 12th for the purpose of sending delegates to the state and congressional conventions will be held Wednesday evening, July 11 at seven o'clock in the following places:

- First Ward—Charles King's shop. Second Ward—Eugene Oesterlin's office. Third Ward—Court house basement. Fourth Ward—Fireman's hall. Fifth Ward—Engine house. Sixth Ward—Engine house.

By order of the Ward Committees.

THE republican platform favors keeping a tax on flannel and taking it off whiskey. Who favors a party which can produce no better platform than that?

THERE is a heavy tariff on iron and yet the iron manufacturers shut down because they say wages are too high. How does the tariff raise wages in this case?

THE daily papers yet are filled with criminations and recriminations between the partisans of Sherman and Alger which denotes the bitterness engendered by the Chicago convention. Sherman charges that Alger bought the votes of many southern delegates and thus prevented his nomination, while Alger's friends claim that Sherman did the buying.

THE Ypsilanti Commercial which is owned by two enterprising young men who have hitherto been republicans comes out for Cleveland and Thurman. Last week in speaking of its candidates it says: "We believe they should be elected to the great offices for which they are candidates, not merely because they are men in whose personal loyalty, integrity, and high moral patriotism, all have the utmost confidence, but primarily because the platform upon which they stand declares in unmistakable terms, for tariff revision and reform, a measure which is essential to the future prosperity of the people."

THE Post this week publishes extracts from the leading German papers of the country opposing the nomination of Harrison and denouncing the republican platform. To show how wide spread is the feeling among the German press against the republican candidates, we may remark that these extracts are from such papers as the Indianapolis Telegraph, Wachter Am Eric, New Yorker Staatszeitung, Baltimore Deutsche Correspondent, Illinois Staatszeitung, Cleveland Auzeiger and Cincinnati Volksfreund. The Illinois Staatszeitung says that the Germans in Indiana, republicans as well as democrats, will not vote for Harrison because he favored the adoption of a prohibition amendment to the state constitution.

THE Gratiot county medical society has passed resolutions against the proposed removal of the medical department to Detroit. The Detroit papers, who are fond of insinuating that Ann Arbor is not working for the good of the University medical department, should make a note of this. This is surely disinterested testimony. It is not inspired by any feeling of personal pique, which is the real animus which started the discussion for the removal to Detroit. We say again the medical department is stronger than the man who seeks to tear it down, even if that man does live in Detroit and has the backing of the Detroit press.

THERE has been a great awakening among the farmers of the country on the question of protection in the past five years. Farmers who were high protectionists five years ago, believe in tariff reduction now. They have come to see that they are the producers of this country and that the prices on their products are fixed in foreign markets. They get no benefit of an enhanced price from the tariff. At the same time they are compelled to pay a government tax or a tax to manufacturers on everything they buy. The reason no doubt for much of this change of sentiment is that the trusts and monopolies in this country have become so great and carry on their operation on such an extended scale that it has set the minds of the farmers at work and no one gives the tariff question serious and impartial consideration without coming to the conclusion that the tariff is too high. The tariff is nothing less than a tax and it ought to be a self-evident proposition that a tax greater than the necessities of a government demand is unnecessary and unjust. But when such a tax is so high that it gives opportunities for manufacturers to form combinations and raise prices above what free and fair competition would put them, then such a tax is simply a method of extortion from the farmers, mechanics and citizens generally of the country, put into the hands of iniquitous trusts for the benefit of the millionaires of the country. It gives them opportunity, according to the president of the republican national league "to make fortunes every year," while the farmer toils faithfully, sells his wheat at eighty cents a bushel and puts his hands down deeper in his pockets to allow fortunes to be made by certain individuals every year at the expense of the people.

THE EFFECT OF PROTECTION

Behold then, says the Boston Globe, the happy farmer as he rises in the morning and puts on his common flannel shirt, taxed 95 per cent. It is perchance cool, and he puts on a coat taxed 57 per cent. He cannot go out without shoes, taxed 35 per cent., and the hat that he has on is taxed 65 per cent. He draws water in a bucket taxed 35 per cent., and washes his face and hands in a tin bowl taxed 35 per cent., drying them on a cheap cotton towel taxed 55 per cent.

But still more happiness is in store. He sits down to breakfast and eats from a plate taxed 50 per cent., with a knife and fork taxed 35 per cent. The sugar he puts into his coffee is taxed 82 per cent., and he seasons his food with salt taxed 40 per cent. He looks fondly at his happy wife and children who share his protection with him, and then goes out and fills his pipe with tobacco taxed 182 per cent., or perhaps lights a protected cigar taxed 118 per cent. Meanwhile the sun streams through the protected glass window of his domicile on a tax of 59 per cent.

The thrice happy farmer now takes old Nell out of the stable and puts on a bridle taxed 35 per cent. A neighboring smith shoes her, using nails taxed 50 per cent, driven by a hammer that is taxed 20 per cent. He then hitches her to a plow taxed 45 per cent, with chains taxed 58 per cent, and proceeds to his highly protected labor. The days work being done he read a chapter from the family Bible taxed 25 per cent, and kneels to pray on a humble carpet taxed 51 per cent. At last he lies down and wraps his weary limbs in a sheet taxed 45 per cent, and sinks into the arms of Morpheus under a blanket that is taxed 104 per cent.

The frame work is up for Mrs. L. C. Risdon's new house, on the corner of Fourth and Liberty streets. It will evidently be a very commodious and handsome structure.

The new residence of Wesley Seabolt adjoining Ald. Spokes' new house on West Huron street is nearing completion. The two houses are similar in design and will add much to the attractiveness of the street.

The team of Mrs. Tichnor, who resides on the south Ypsilanti road, near the stone school house, ran away in the field last Saturday. As they neared the barn Mrs. Tichnor attempted to stop them. The hay rack knocked her down and the wagon ran over her breaking a leg.

There are fifty six vacant houses in Howell besides vacant stores. In Ann Arbor, building is going on at the rate of over a hundred houses a year. There are very few vacant houses, practically none, and the new houses are almost always rented before they are completed.

Hon. John J. Adams, a member of the first board of regents of the University, died in Tecumseh, July 4, aged 80 years. He was born in Scotland and came to this state in 1826. He has served in both houses of the state legislature and as state treasurer and auditor general.

Considerable new sidewalk building has been going on this summer. Under the cumbersome provisions of the city charter, the council is compelled to wait for petitions before ordering new walks, otherwise many other walks would probably be laid at once. Petitions are in order.

J. M. Wilcoxson's name is among those who are in the Tribune's list of those who voted for Harrison in 1840, and expect to vote for Harrison this year. This is not true. Mr. Wilcoxson votes for Cleveland. There are a number of others on the Tribune's list, who will do likewise.

Senator James S. Gorman has been presented by Detroit friends, who admired his legislative career, with a full set, twenty-nine volumes of Appleton's Cyclopaedia. The present is a handsome one and as a token of personal regard must be highly treasured by the fortunate recipient.

Editor Woodruff, of the Ypsilanti Sentinel, says he voted for Tippacanoe and Tyler too, but has now arrived at years of discretion and won't vote for his degenerate grandson. He says in the words of an old song, "Things ain't now as they used to be, Mon don't do now, as they used to do then." There are a good many others in the same boat. Among many in this city is Hugh Jenkins.

We have been amused as usual this year with items concerning graduates of the University, who graduated with high honors. One of our exchanges last week in speaking of a recent graduate "with high honors" of the law department, says that "his graduating address is commended as a thoughtful, scholarly production, eloquently delivered. "Probably the young lawyer never expected his puff to reach Ann Arbor.

The school board met Tuesday evening and received the resignations of Miss Sperry from the fourth ward school and Miss Taylor from the second ward school. Miss Sperry resigns to enter the university, and Miss Taylor to become Mrs. Pryor. The moneys of the school board were deposited with the Savings bank at 3.1 per cent. interest. The purchase of the coal for the year was left with the finance committee.

While Hutzler's men were at work on East Washington street, some fifty feet from the fence of the old cemetery last week, they struck a box in good state of preservation which turned out to be a coffin. In the course of their digging at the place they also came across two skeletons. These bodies had evidently been supposed safely placed in the cemetery but no attention had been paid to the graves when the street was opened as it now is.

The annual meeting of the business men's association takes place at eight o'clock next Tuesday night. A full attendance of members is requested. The association has done considerable for the business interests of the town and we hope that everyone will be present to set the association on the right track for a year of successful work. There are several things which the association can do which will benefit the city and also its business interests.

The ARGUS will soon commence a series of interesting Novelettes. These stories are from the pens of popular writers and will be interspersed with appropriate and sparkling illustrations. On another page we give a few of the illustrations appearing in the various stories, the titles of which are: "Kit Graill," by James T. McKay; "Treasure of the Three Kings," by James G. Hustin; "A Mere Interlude," by Thos. Hardy; "The Belle of San Miguel," by Forbes Heermans and "The Golden Incubus" by George Manville, Fleen.

A committee of the common council conferred with H. W. Ashley, of the T. and A. road Monday as to the opening of Second street. The committee labored with him to secure a stone depot and stated that public sentiment here was very strong against accepting a wooden depot. Mr. Ashley stated that the road could not put up a more expensive depot and that if Second street was not opened the city would be obliged to put up with the present depot four or five years longer and that then the road would build a wooden depot. The road did not believe in putting up ornamental depots which yielded no revenue. Mayor Beakes, Aids. Allmendinger, Miller and Martin went to Howell Tuesday morning to see the depot there which is the best now on the line of the road. It cost only $1800.

NATIONAL LEGISLATURE.

THE WEEK'S WORK IN BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS.

What the Wise Men at Washington City Are Doing for the Good of the Country—A Summary of the Proceedings in Congress—Bills and Resolutions Introduced—Congressional Record.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 6.—Three pension vetoes were received yesterday by the senate from the president, and in one of them the executive severely criticized the methods of congress in passing private pension bills. The conference report on the agricultural appropriation was concurred in, with the exception of a clause striking out the senate amendment appropriating $100,000 for sorghum experiments, and on this a new conference was ordered. A conference was also ordered on the postoffice appropriation bill, and then the senate adjourned until Monday.

A bill was introduced in the house for the appointment of an assistant secretary of the navy. The land grant forfeiture bill was then taken up, and Holman explained that the house substitute forfeited 54,323,000 acres, while the senate bill only forfeited 5,627,496 acres. The house substitute was adopted, but on the passage of the bill the vote was Yeas, 142; nays, 12—no quorum, so the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 7.—The house yesterday insisted on its disagreement to the senate amendment to the agricultural bill appropriating $100,000 for sorghum experiments. The vote on the passage of the land grant bill was then taken by yeas and nays, and the bill passed—177 to 8. In committee of the whole the Mills bill was resumed, and rapid progress made, all amendments offered by the Republicans being rejected. The duty, however, was retained on wood screws, as was that on penknives and razors, and a clause was inserted taxing new type 15 per cent. ad valorem. Cannon of Illinois offered an amendment reducing the duty on sugars and molasses and providing a bounty to home producers of 2 cents a pound for sugar and 6 cents per gallon for molasses. The matter was discussed for a time, but without action the house took recess to 8 p. m., at which time twenty private pension bills were passed, and the house at 10:30 adjourned.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 9.—The house passed a bill Saturday for the sale of the site of Fort Omaha, Neb., and the purchase of a new site and the construction of buildings thereon. A joint resolution was adopted nominating J. A. Harris of Ohio; John A. Martin, of Kansas, and J. F. Hantrauff, of Pennsylvania, to fill vacancies on the board of managers of homes for disabled soldiers. Debate was then resumed on Cannon's amendment to the Mills bill, taking the duty off sugar and providing bounties for its production. Kelley, Kenna of California, Peters and Anderson of Kansas, and others, opposed the amendment, and Cannon, Bayne, and others, advocated it. Pending a vote the house adjourned. The debate occupied nearly the whole day.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 10.—Stewart of Nevada made an attack in the senate yesterday on the president's frequent use of the veto power in the matter of pension bills. He said the president was not justified in so many vetoes. Vest declared it the president's duty to pay as much attention to small pension bills as to the most important appropriation bill so far as scrutiny was concerned. The bill to amend the inter-state commerce law was then taken up. An amendment was adopted giving United States circuit and district courts power to issue peremptory writs of mandamus in cases of violation of the law, and after considerable debate the bill was passed. The house bill authorizing a bridge across the Missouri just below Kansas City was passed, an executive session was held, and the senate adjourned.

In the house a resolution was introduced calling for all the testimony taken by the manufacturers committee on the matter of trusts; also a resolution providing for a special committee to inquire whether the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor has been evaded; also a resolution making the Blair educational bill special order for July 17. All were referred. A bill was introduced to increase the pensions of Mexican war veterans to $12 per month. The Mills bill was then resumed, and Cannon's amendment relating to sugar and molasses was rejected—108 to 87. Several amendments offered by Republicans were rejected, and one by Mills making the duty on molasses not over 56 degrees 2 1/2 cents per gallon adopted. This completed the paragraph, and the tobacco clause was passed over. A motion to strike out the starch provision was pending at 5 p. m., when the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 11.—Sherman offered a resolution in the senate yesterday directing the finance committee to investigate trusts and report measures to control, restrain or prohibit the same. The resolution was adopted. Vest introduced a bill to prevent the evasion by debt collecting agencies of the law prohibiting the use of the "bad debt" envelope. Everts offered an amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $82,000 for the completion of the monument at Washington's headquarters, at Newburg, N. Y. Hoar then got the floor and spoke four hours against the fisheries treaty, declaring it inimical to the interests of the United States. The conference report on the District appropriation bill was then agreed to, and the senate adjourned.

The house spent the day on the Mills bill in committee of the whole. The amendment restoring the duty on starch was rejected. The duty on rice, flour and rice meal was fixed at 15 per cent. ad valorem. A number of changes were proposed, but rejected, and then the bill was amended by fixing the duty on flax, hickled, at $10 per ton. A motion to increase from 25 to 40 per cent. ad valorem the duty on flax and linen thread, etc., was pending when the committee rose, and recess was taken to 8 p. m., at which time right-of-way to various railroads was granted through a number of Indian reservations.

A Big Iowa Saw-Mill Burned. CLINTON, Iowa, July 7.—David Joyce's saw-mill, at Lyons, was burned with some lumber in the yards. The fire caught in the planing-room, and within ten minutes the mill was in flames. Nine streams of water with heavy pressure were kept on the fire by the firemen but the mill could not be saved, and only after two hours of hard work was the fire controlled in the yards. The loss is estimated at $150,000, though it may fall below that amount. All the expensive machinery in both saw and planing mills was destroyed except the battery of boilers. It throws over 100 men out of employment.

Accident on the Rock Island Road. CAMERON, Mo., July 10.—By the spreading of rails on a fifty-foot trestle ten miles west of here at 6:20 in the evening the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific construction train, with seventeen men on board, was precipitated to the ground, a distance of thirty feet. Foreman Richard Jones was killed outright, Engineer Wilcox was scalded and died a few hours later. Brakeman Peter Cummings' feet were crushed, and he also received internal injuries from which he will die. All leave families living here.

A Royal Pair Divorced. BELGRADE, July 6.—The ecclesiastical synod has annulled the marriage of King Milan and Queen Natalie.

SHERIDAN REACHES NONQUITT.

The Voyage Leaves Him in Good Condition—The Disembarkation.

NONQUITT, Mass., July 9.—The Swatara came to anchor off the village at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a run of seven hours from New London. About two hours afterward Gen. Sheridan was brought ashore without any apparent discomfort, and is SAILORS BEARING THE STRETCHER. now in his own cottage. He was somewhat restless Saturday night, and consequently was rather nervous yesterday; nevertheless his circulation continues good and his general condition is quite as favorable as when he left the Capes of Delaware.

A large crowd of citizens and visitors watched the transfer of Gen. Sheridan from the Swatara to the shore. The general lay on a couch in a small boat which was towed by the Swatara's steam launch. When the boat reached shallow water a dozen sailors waded out and lifted the bed, bearing it carefully to the shore. Mrs. Sheridan and two Sisters of Charity, who have faithfully attended the general, were brought ashore first, and were ready to receive and care for the patient as soon as he was safely borne to the cottage. The general is much pleased with his new quarters. He wanted to inspect the whole cottage as soon as he arrived, but the doctors would not let him leave the bed.

"IMPERIAL FEDERATION."

Parnell Willing to Go into It Added to Home Role—A Big Contribution. LONDON, July 9.—Parnell has received a letter from Mr. Rhodes, a Cape colony deputy, who is a firm supporter of the imperial federation scheme. Rhodes assures the Irish leader of large additional colonial support to the Irish home rule scheme if the Irish deputies will retain representation at London, this plan furnishing a precedent for colonial representation at the English capital. Parnell replied that the Irish wished to receive Gladstone's bill in the same spirit in which it was offered in good will, but trusted if the Liberal leader, in his next home rule measure, provided for retention of representation in London the Irish members would cheerfully concur, vouching the position that would be given them in the imperial system. This would facilitate imperial federation, which depended upon colonial opinion. "If the colonies desire representation in London," continued Parnell, "it should be accorded them." Rhodes then wrote Parnell, offering £10,000 from himself and £1,000 in behalf of Mr. Morrogh, an Irish resident of Kimberley, as a contribution to the Irish party. Rhodes is at present visiting London, and is the chief shareholder in the Debars Diamond mine.

Texas Fever in Indiana. WABASH, Ind., July 10.—Farmers along the line of the Lake Erie & Western railway in this state are greatly alarmed over the appearance among their cattle of the dreaded Texas fever. A road-load of Texas cattle passed over the car a few days since; several of the animals died en route and were buried in Tipton county. The infection appears to have caught and is spreading rapidly. In one neighborhood near Tipton ten head of valuable cattle have since died, and a similar disease has made its appearance among the cows of Kokomo. Farmers fear that the scourge will become general.

A Whole Family Insane. PRINCETON, Ills., July 10.—The two grown daughters of Jacob Nye, a well-to-do farmer, living eight miles south of Princeton, were adjudged insane here and will be sent to Jacksonville for treatment. The father and mother and another daughter are also insane. The family of five were all stricken with this strange malady on the same day, and physicians are unable to account for the cause, as all were as well as usual a few days ago and there has been no unusual excitement in the neighborhood. They spend their time singing and praying and seem to fear being poisoned.

Robbed of $2,000 by a Highwayman. CLEVELAND, O., July 7.—A special from Franklin, Pa., says that Jack Kilgore, a farmer, while on his way home from that city, was robbed of $2,000 by highwaymen. The money was the proceeds of a farm sale, and there is no clue to the robbers.

Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

"To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the Efficacy of this preparation."—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, La.

"I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color."—(Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bernice, Ind.

"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, however, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and firmly set."—J. H. Pratt, Spoford, Texas.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

James Purdy, a 18-year-old Brighton boy, has plowed and put forty acres into crops, this season. There's ambition to succeed.

A Barryville boy of 11 years tried his hand at brushing a fly from a horse, but the equine was even more frisky than the fly, and the boy died three days later. The horse was a hard kicker.

A Stockbridge baby was born with a full set of teeth. Inquiry developed the fact that its pa was an editor, whose children are supposed to be obliged to rustle for a living at an early age.

Newspapers can no more exist without patronage than the merchant can without trade. That's the reason why The Homer Herald came to an early and untimely death.

Three Ishpeming boys (brothers, from 9 to 12 years old), named Grass, seem to have been turned out to pasture early in life, as they were detected in trying to rob a house there one day last week.

A $12,000 fire played smash with Kenyon's dry goods business and the grocery stock of L. L. Flint, two of Dundee's merchants. Light Insurance.

Stark Durfee, who died at Plymouth at the age of 74 years, had been a Wayne county citizen for sixty-one years. He never had a lawsuit, although one of his ten children was a capable attorney.

Let those who seek office just for the "honor" of the position beware of the fate of John Pringle, Jr., mayor of Detroit. By virtue of his official position Mr. P. was obliged to attach his autograph to city bonds that made it necessary to write his name 30,500 times. Think of an official task like that.

Good common sense seems to be terribly scarce in spots in this world. A couple of Lenawee county farmers couldn't agree as to which one of the two should repair a gap in a line-fence, and so they've been indulging in lawsuits over the matter.

John Prince, a Whitehall denizen, gave his wife a drubbing because she preferred to attend a different church than the one at which he worshipped. Seems as though we had read somewhere about religion making its followers "first pure, then peaceable."

A Lakeview dealer was comforted during the hot June wave by an order from Pennsylvania for 20,000 snow-shovels, a sort of happy reminder of the coming January blizzard.

John Murphy, the bad boy of Grand Rapids, who assaulted two little girls, has been given a steady job of ten years at the Jackson prison.

Leslie's Baptist church has struck a new light. It will be kept radiant by a $125 chandelier.

The sidewalks of Muskegon, the city of sawdust, slabs and sand, are said to be so poor as to be positively dangerous for pedestrians.

Mr. Westfall, the Ithaca man accused of taking money not his own from the American Express company at that place, was honorably acquitted by a jury of his peers.

Mrs. William Pettit, of Grand Rapids, showed her wifely devotion by pawning her sewing machine to raise money with which to pay a fine imposed upon her husband for cruelly beating her. There's some things that are beyond the ken of our philosophy, and this is one of 'em.

Mary Jane Miller, a resident of Grand Rapids, has been granted a divorce because her liege lord was too almighty stingy to feed and clothe her. Here's hoping that Mary Jane may have better luck the next time she tries the matrimonial lottery.

Dunham, Peters & Co., East Saginaw lumbermen, have been informed by a jury that a $3,500 cash payment to Will E. Smith, who lost his hand in their mill a year or so ago, will be a just and proper thing to do.

A Mancelona man is the owner of a cute cat. The feline discovered its master's store on fire the other night, and by a succession of nocturnal screeches, as only a healthy cat can make, awoke him in time to give an alarm and save his property.

Robert Hunt, a Belle River farmer, bored a deep well and got such a bad-smelling article of mineral water that it is sure death to almost every form of disease. At any rate a number of his sick neighbors drank it, and were not only healed on the double quick, but have been spry'n kittens ever since.

The perfumery collector of Pequaming, who killed twelve stunks in two days, is said to take his meals in a tannery and lodges in the local cemetery. A great fate is doubtless in store for him.

Fire got in $15,000 worth of work on R. C. Ogilvie's salt block and cooper shops at Port Hope. The proprietor was in Washington territory at the time. No insurance.

Dr. Kendall Brooks, formerly of Kalamazoo, is in demand. Alma college wants him for a professorship, and Oakland (Cal.) university has a similar position it would gladly have him fill.

Charles Freebur, a young man working on a farm in Washington county, took along a gun when going to his work the other morning, for the purpose of bagging some red squirrels, but the gun shot the wrong way, and Charles, and not the squirrels, was killed. Weddings do not always pass off as "merry at a marriage bell." One at Crystal Falls ended in a murderous row, Jacob Bender being fatally injured.

Anthony Grohman, a farmer of Saginaw county, is the owner of a calf that closely resembles a sheep. Its pelt is covered with wool instead of hair.

More and more the people are coming to appreciate the value of a season of rest during the heated term. Fifty new cottages have already been built at Bay View this season.

Grasshoppers are getting in their perfect work in the neighborhood of Ishpeming, and upper peninsula farmers are praying for a snow storm.

Columbiaville thinks herself a right lively wool market, her buyers taking in 100,000 pounds in a single week.

A 3-year-old colt, the property of William Rolfe, of Vevay, had a fit of the "blues," and going to a creek near by, waded in, lay down and held his head under water until the last spark of life had fled.

The principal street of Ironwood is used as a race track, the common council voting money for its improvement for that purpose.

A colored child carried off the first prize at a Boyne City baby show, and the ma's of the white entries are sad beyond expression.

A wild man is rambling around loose in St. Clair county, greatly to the dismay of the small boy who has a moonlight eye on the watermelon patch.

A Harbor Springs man, a namesake of David of old, narrowly escaped lynching for assaulting his little niece, 8 years old. The time may come when such brutish practices will be decidedly unhealthy.

Lansing has a model mayor who evidently considers a "public office is a public trust." A resolution of the city council to increase certain salaries, including his own which was to be doubled, was promptly vetoed by that official.

A Kalamazoo man who captured an escaped lunatic from the asylum there, was rewarded by the payment of a single dollar. And the Kago man says that the next time he runs his legs off to capture runaway lunatics, it will be when he needs exercise more than he does now with the mercury in the 90's.

A Jackson youth, named Casey, bottled up some firecrackers with which to celebrate the Fourth. The scheme was a success, so much so that Casey hasn't seen a thing since—his eyesight being ruined by the explosion.

One person killed, three badly wounded, and four fires were the net results of East Saginaw's celebration. But the small boy with his firecracker had a good time.

Three years ago Noah Ruple, of Bronson, lost his barn by lightning and soon afterward rebuilt on the same site. A year or so later the electric fluid struck the new barn, reducing it to ashes. Still another barn was built on the same spot and the other day lightning got in its work on the end of the third building. Ruple seems to be located in a streak of bad luck.

James Lincoln, a Brookway Centre citizen, went over to Illinois some months since for employment. Returning home to spend the Fourth with his family, he found that the wife of his youth had flown to greener pastures.

A Girl Ruined by Her Mother.

DETROIT, Mich., July 9.—A girl named Ismie Martin, 16 years old, the daughter of a builder until recently prosperous, has recently been detected in the passing of a forged check upon M. S. Smith & Co., the leading jewelers of this city, and in other irregular transactions. The total amount involved is not great, but the youth of the girl and the great ingenuity shown indicated an older hand behind the child. It has been developed that the mother has for years been in the habit of ordering goods from merchants on approval or other pretexts, and retaining them, and that the girl has been her agent in many of these purchases.

Death of Hon. John J. Adam.

ADRIAN, Mich., July 6.—Hon. John J. Adam died at his home in Tecumseh, aged 80. He was born in Paisley, Scotland, educated at Oxford, came to America in 1836, taught languages and mathematics at Meadville academy, and came to Michigan in 1831. From 1851 to 1868, when he resigned, he was general auditor of the Lake Shore road, and during his residence here has been member of the legislature, state senator, auditor general, and regent of the university. He was both an able and deservedly popular man.

Lake City, Mich., Nearly Wiped Out.

LAKE CITY, Mich., July 6.—Fire started in Vanarsdale's saloon at midnight and soon spread and got beyond control of the home department. Aid was promptly sent from Cadillac and the fire controlled, after a loss of $75,000 had been sustained. A pile of kindling, well oiled, was found in the rear of the Vanarsdale building, giving rise to a strong suspicion that the saloon was set on fire. Most of the merchants will rebuild at once. Lake City is the county seat of Missaukee county.

A New Railway in Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 9.—The new Grand Rapids, Lansing & Detroit railroad is completed, and the first train with Manager Mulliken and a party of friends arrived in this city Saturday, traveling one stretch of eleven miles in twelve minutes. Regular trains, three daily, will begin running July 15.

Burned to Death in Her Bed.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., July 6.—Mary Paine, an Englishwoman, was burned to death while asleep in a cheap boarding-house on the outskirts of the city. The building took fire from a smudge in the house and was quickly consumed. The woman's husband escaped. Both were somewhat under the influence of liquor.

Called an Extra Session.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 9.—Governor Hill has called an extra session of the legislature July 17, at 11 a. m.

It is understood that the sole object of the extra session is to provide an appropriation to prevent prisoners in the various state prisons remaining in idleness after July 15, when the appropriations now available for the purposes of their employment will have been exhausted, the last legislature having neglected to make the necessary appropriations.

Robert Garrett Coming Home.

NEW YORK, July 7.—A special from London says that Robert Garrett and party left for Liverpool, their party having taken passage on the Umbria, which sails for New York. Garrett looked in better health than when he appeared for years, and has thoroughly enjoyed his trip around the world, which has been so beneficial to him. He looks ruddier now than at any time since the death of his father, when the management of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad devolved upon him.

Train Wreckers Kill Three Men.

JOLIET, Ill., July 7.—The Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad has a line from Joliet to Aurora, and is building a branch from near Plainfield to Elgin. While the construction train was bringing in its employees to Plainfield, the train struck some pinks supposed to have been placed on the track by persons who oppose the road. Three Italians were killed, and Engineer Tom Knight went over with his engine, being scalded on back, breast, and neck.

A Woman Burned to Death.

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 10.—Mrs. Frederick Spittellhouse, residing at 1119 Chestnut street, this city, while carrying a lighted lamp in her hands to secure the windows before retiring, was seized with an apoplectic fit and fell to the floor. The lamp exploded, scattering the burning fluid over her clothing. She was burned to death before she was discovered.

An Old Lady Walks Off a Train.

KINGSTON, Can., July 7.—An old lady, 73 years of age, en route to Detroit in charge of her granddaughter, walked off the Grand Trunk road express between Prescott and Cardinal. The train was making forty-five miles an hour. She was found and removed to Prescott. She is greatly injured. Her name can not be obtained.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or I did eat little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

THE AGE OF SCIENCE.

According to insurance statistics more fires are extinguished by the use of pails of water than by all other means. Cavendish in 1786 discovered hydrogen, and between 1774 and 1779 Priestley discovered oxygen, azote and nitrous gas. Asbestos clothing has been used by the Paris fire brigade with success, and is soon to be adopted by the London firemen. The Electrical Review says the lightning rod is a relic of superstition, and will soon be regarded in the same light as a horse-shoe over the door. The Russian petroleum is said to be vastly inferior to the American, emitting an unpleasant odor and a black smoke even when used in the best of lamps. Japanese engineers propose to adopt a system of earthwork defenses protected by an iron shield one foot in thickness, and extending twenty-five feet each side of the gun. A new theory is that shaving the beard, if long continued, tends to weaken the hair of the head and causes it to fall out. The increasing number of bald heads has to be accounted for in some way or other. As a wood preservative naphthaline is now largely used in Scotland, its action being to destroy all inimical compounds in the wood, leaving it dry and clean to handle, and with only a faint aromatic smell. The naphthaline is melted in a vessel capable of being tightly sealed, and in this the wood is saturated. Evidence exists that deaf mutes are not confined to the human race. In a farmer's herd for twelve years was a cow which never gave any signs of hearing, and the evident attempts of which at lowing had resulted in only a feeble guttural. Nothing abnormal could be discovered in the ears or the vocal organs. The average watch is composed of 175 different pieces, comprising upward of 2,400 separate and distinct operations in its manufacture. The balance has 18,000 beats or vibrations per hour, 12,960,000 in thirty days, 157,680,000 in one year; it travels 143,100 miles with each vibration, which is equal to 9 1/2 miles in twenty-four hours, 222 1/2 miles in thirty days, or 3,658 1/2 miles in one year.
