THE POLE RAISING.

HOW TWENTY-FIVE POLES WERE RAISED ON THE GRAVEL ROAD.

Where Only Two Democrats Formerly Resided—A Big Democratic Day—Synopsis of the Speeches.

Last Friday was a day long to be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present at the pole raisings on the gravel road between Ann Arbor and Saline. A few years ago only two democrats could be found on the road. Last Friday poles were raised in front of twenty-five residences, whose owners were loyal supporters of Cleveland and Thurman. Some of them will this year cast their votes for Democratic candidates for the first time. Others have grown grey in the ranks of democracy.

Probably no road in the county is more traveled than the gravel road. The travelers will now soon discover by the looks of the road that there are some democrats in this county. Republican Pittsfield cannot be so thoroughly republican with Cleveland poles in front of almost every house on the principal road through the town and democratic poles mark the gains made in democratic Lodi.

The gathering on Friday was full of enthusiasm. It had assembled to assist in or witness the raising of twenty-five poles in one afternoon. Many predicted that so many poles could not be successfully raised in one afternoon, with speeches at nearly every pole. But all was accomplished in good time. The procession started at one o'clock from Dr. Watson's, just this side of Saline where the first pole was raised. As it moved toward Ann Arbor its numbers were continually augmented and a line of carriages was formed a mile long. The carriages were decorated with red bandanas. They were headed by the band and by the working crew of pole raisers. In fact pole raising was reduced to a scientific basis and by the time the last carriage got up to where a pole was being raised, it had been put in place and Chairman F. E. Mills was introducing a speaker.

The second pole was raised in front of Loyal Tower's, the third at Henry Tower's, the fourth at Albert Blaess'. Considerable enthusiasm was here manifested and M. J. Lehman, Esq., spoke briefly, pointedly, and enthusiastically on the issues of the campaign. Here it was that a republican farmer came upon the procession and seeing the Cleveland and Thurman streamer flying from the pole expressed great surprise at its being placed in front of Mr. Blaess'. "What, Albert Blaess going to vote the Democratic ticket? Well, if Albert Blaess can vote that ticket, I guess I can too."

In a jiffy the raising crew were on their wagon and the horses galloping towards the next pole in front of George Zwink's. The band struck up a lively tune and Circuit Court Commissioner McKernan was introduced to the crowd. Among other things, he told of the young man just getting married, being forced to pay $10 on a suit of clothes. That tax was needed, Mr. McKernan thought more by the young man just beginning housekeeping than by a government with a growing surplus in the treasury. Mr. McKernan's speech was cut short by orders to move on. Three poles were next raised near together, in front of Nelson Hogan's, James Carr's and William Wallace's, and it took but very few minutes to raise them. Here S. W. Beakes spoke for a minute or two on the subject of the tariff, as a tax, closing with the questions: Who ever heard of a man being made rich by paying taxes? Who ever heard of a country being ruined by not raising more taxes than the necessities of the government require?

In front of Fred Krause's a large pole was raised and Hon. J. Willard Babbitt of Ypsilanti made a short but excellent and well received address. Every pole, he said, expressed a sentiment. He dwelt upon the sentiment expressed by the Cleveland and Thurman pole and the unfulfilled promises of the republican party. In front of George Sutton's Dr. McLachlan of York spoke against protection. The farmers are taxed from the crown of their heads to the sole of their feet. From the clothes in the cradle to the last screw that nailed the coffin lid—aye, even on the shovel that throws the sod over his body he pays a tax to protect the manufacturers. In front of Edward Hammel's, George B. Greening of Lyndon was enthusiastically cheered for the speech he made. Hon. C. H. Manly spoke by John Cobble's. Mr. Cobble was a soldier and Captain Manly's speech was very properly addressed to the soldier.

At Mr. David DePue's, the pole was quickly raised, horses were tied and many flocked into the yard where they were greeted by Mr. Burnett, of Illinois, who had passed the age of four score years and had been present at the birth of the republican party in Jackson. He had not joined the party, and had at that time left the whig party to join the democratic party. Mr. Burnett made a short but rousing and vigorous speech in which he said that "the democratic party selected the best timber for poles and also the best timber for office. The republicans did not choose their best timber. Gresham or Blaine would have been a stronger or abler nomination than Harrison. Whom did the republican party select? Harrison—a good man. You have as good men in Ann Arbor. Select the best men for the best offices. That's democracy. You might as well attempt to bury the eternal principles of truth as to attempt to bury the democratic party." Here Mr. Philip Blum was called upon for a speech and a very good one he made. He said he was not a speaker but a worker. The day put him in mind of old times when he was the only democrat on the road between Ann Arbor and Saline, Mr. DePue living just a little off the line. Now he could stop at most every house on the road and meet a democrat. The whig party fought until it went to pieces. The republican party was doing the same. It was dying now and on the same issue. Amid cheer after cheer, the cavalcade moved on.

The long procession moved on to F. E. Mills', where, after the pole was erected, Hon. John J. Robison spoke of the question dividing the parties. The democrats wanted just enough taxes raised to sustain the government. The republicans wanted enough so that its monopolistic followers could declare big dividends on their stock. He thought the road could be called the polar road for all republicans. At U. L. Warner's P. McKernan, Esq., made a rousing speech, and Hon. Charles H. Richmond concluded the speech-making under the poles by talking at the home of Charles Kempf. He showed the utter absurdity of Blaine's remarks on savings banks of England and America. Poles were also raised in front of Philip Seyfried's, S. Cole's, John Springman's, John Huss' and Henry Paul's.

At half past five the procession had reached Henry Paul's where every body was invited into the yard for refreshments and for the evening meeting. A bounteous repast was served by the ladies. The hospitality evinced the ardor of the ladies for the success of democratic leaders.

After the refreshments Hon. Charles R. Whitman was introduced to the audience as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Whitman said that never in his political career had he witnessed such a sight as today. Thus early in the campaign he had observed one thing. From no political speaker not even from Blaine himself will come one word attacking the political integrity and honesty of our President, Grover Cleveland, a man of fearless courage and unquestioned integrity. His record as mayor of Buffalo had elected him governor, his record as governor had made him President. He had at all times had in his eyes the wants of the people. To-day, Grover Cleveland was the greatest friend of the people, of the laboring man, the soldier, and the farmer, among all the statesmen of the day.

It is easy for demagogues to charge a man with being an enemy of the soldier, but I believe that soldiers are honest men and will ask for nothing which is not due to them all in common. The wretches were directed against efforts to squander public money by private bills to those not entitled to it. Grover Cleveland, I believe in the sight of God, is a friend of the soldiers. Let the relief due the soldiers come in a general bill to include all deserving soldiers. Grover Cleveland has signed more pension bills than all the presidents before him.

We are taxed by the tariff. That fact cannot be disputed. Democracy requires a government to exist for the benefit of the people. This has been made a republican form of government for the benefit of the people. When it was organized the people gave congress the power to tax the people for the necessary expenses of a government and nothing else. When these representatives of ours seek to impose a tax beyond those necessities, it is no less robbery than when a highwayman stops you on the street and takes your money at the point of his pistol. Last year the amount raised was $100,000,000 in excess of the needs of the government. The consumer pays every dollar of taxes levied at the custom house. He also pays a tax to the manufacturer on goods not imported but which come into competition with imported goods. Mr. Whitman instanced the average knife on which the consumer pays the tax of twenty-five cents.

For every dollar paid the U. S. treasury the people pay $500 in taxes to the manufacturers whose prices are boosted by the tariff. It is estimated that at the end of the year there will be $200,000,000 locked up in the treasury. Why? I ask you, my farmer friend, if you have a farm with a mortgage on it, how long will you borrow money and pay seven per cent interest on it and put in the hands of some unscrupulous person to carry around with them? Would you not rather retain the money to pay off your mortgage?

The farmer every time he buys a dollar's worth of goods, pays 47 cents to the monopolist and has 53 cents to buy goods with, and that's God's truth. It is time we had a change in this system of taxation.

Mr. Whitman devoted some time to the celebrated "fat" circular, which will be found in another column. He said the laboring man was the only man excepting the farmer, even who had no protection. Why the Republican candidate for vice-president is convicted of having gone to Europe and contracted for laborers for less than prices being paid in this country. The American laborer must compete with the world. When democracy sought to protect them from cheap Chinese labor, they found in Harrison and the republican senators defenders of Chinese emigration. Of the half billion bushels of wheat raised in this country, two hundred million are shipped to Liverpool. The price is made in Liverpool on all the wheat raised here. That wheat comes into competition with the wheat raised by the pauper labor of India, where wages are six cents a day. The farmer and laboringman compete in the open markets of the world, but when they want to buy the tariff steps in and says no, you can't buy unless you pay the monopolists a tax of 47 per cent.

Hon. C. H. Richmond after tracing the history of the tariff laws and showing the good effect of a lower tariff, proceeded to discuss the wool question. During the course of his remarks he said: "When wool was on the free list it brought the highest price to the farmers. In 1882, my father, living in New York state, had two thousand sheep. In June of that year a Boston manufacturer named Merriman, came into my father's barn to buy his wool. I remember the conversation. My father was a democrat and argued against high tariffs. Congress was then in session and discussing the placing of a tariff upon wool. He said he would give so much for the wool then, but if the law passed he would pay so many cents a pound more for the wool. The wool was not sold. The law passed. The next year I went to Boston myself, and into Merriman's office was a sample of the wool. Merriman named a lower price than he had the year before." Mr. Richmond's speech was an able effort. At its conclusion, three rousing cheers were given for Cleveland and Thurman and the pole raising in Pittsfield and Lodi was over.

Trades Council Organized.

Nearly a hundred of the workmen of this city met at Firemen's Hall on Monday evening for the purpose of listening to an explanation of the workings of the trades councils and to organize a council in this city if deemed expedient. Simon Goldwater, president of the Detroit council, and Representative Ogg, vice-president of the same organization, were present and expounded upon the objects of the confederation of trades.

The meeting was called to order, and after W. E. Howe had been elected chairman Mr. Goldwater addressed the meeting. He stated the object of the council, such as it was proposed to organize to-night, to be to improve the conditions of its members both financially and morally; to secure a better livelihood for themselves and families; to secure a better standard of intellectual morality and better education for the workingman and his family. He deprecated the importation of Chinese and other cheap labor to compete with American labor and thought the only method to prevent this was to prohibit it and enforce the laws as the administration was now endeavoring to do. He solved the much talked of free trade and protection effect upon the wages of the workmen of this country problem, stating that free trade and protection had no effect whatever upon them. Free trade would not bring the American workingman down to the level of pauper labor, and protection would not protect them from it. One will not tramp them down or the other raise them up. If protection claims the benefit of raising the workingman's wages, why is it that in one part of the country wages are high and in another part low, for the same work? That a man gets $3.75 a day for his labor in some parts and only $1.00 a day in others? It is not protection that makes high wages. It is where the workmen are organized that they receive high wages, and where they are unorganized that they are low. Protection and free trade have nothing to do with it, as it is organization and supply and demand which govern these. The only method of overcoming the wage question was for the workingmen to unite for protection of their own interests and in opposition to the importation and competition of this pauper labor. He showed how few were the benefits to the workmen of different trades uniting and keeping separate their own unions, and how great these benefits were when these unions were centralized and all working for the good of each other.

Mr. Ogg then addressed the meeting, following in the same vein as Mr. Goldwater had done. During his remarks he paid a high tribute to Hon. C. H. Manly, of this city, for the manner in which he endeavored to protect the workingmen's interest in the last legislature, as his voice and influence were always used in their behalf. In concluding, he urged the members there present to unite in organizing a trades council at once, and his call was followed by a temporary organization being effected, the following officers being elected: Henry Bliton, president; Hugh Jenkins, vice-president; W. A. Groom, secretary; Chas. Houghtby, financial secretary; W. E. Howe, treasurer.

LUTHER JAMES' WILL.

A Quarter of a Million Dependent upon a Marriage.

The will of the late Luther James, of this city and Lima, who died at Waukesha, Wis., on July 25th, was admitted to probate by Judge Harriman on Monday last. The will when read proved to have some peculiar provisions regarding the disposition of a large portion of the estate.

The will was drawn by G. W. Turn Bull, of Chelsea, and was dated June 18th of the present year, but little more than a month before Mr. James' death. The witnesses to the will were G. W. Turn Bull, J. R. Gates and H. M. Woods, all of Chelsea. The executors named in the will were three of the deceased's nephews, Lewis W. James, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; James L. Babcock, of Chicago, but who had lived with Mr. James for a number of years, and Thomas S. Sears, of Lima. It was Mr. James' request that the executors be not compelled to give bonds, and the judge therefore made the amount nominal, $12,000. Under the will, the following legacies were left to his two sisters and twenty-one nephews and nieces:

Elizabeth J. Babcock, Chicago.....	$5,000
Rachel L. Storrs, Chicago.....	5,000
Gen. Claudius W. Sears, Oxford, Miss.....	5,000
Francis M. Martin, formerly of Dexter.....	5,000
Sophia A. Ewing, New York.....	5,000
Elizabeth J. Rowley, Canton, D. T.....	5,000
Thomas S. Sears, Lima.....	5,000
Henry L. James, Williamsburg, Mass.....	5,000
Lyman D. James, Williamsburg, Mass.....	5,000
Mary F. Richards, San Antonio, Texas.....	5,000
James L. Whitney, Boston, Mass.....	5,000
Alice L. Whitney, Northampton, Mass.....	5,000
Henry L. Whitney, Beloit, Wis.....	5,000
Jahelha G. Collier, Kinderhook, N. Y.....	5,000
Darwin R. James, Brooklyn, N. Y.....	5,000
Lewis W. James, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.....	5,000
John W. James, Brooklyn, N. Y.....	5,000
William H. H. James, Orange, N. J.....	5,000
Luther L. James, Dexter.....	5,000
Thomas S. James, Dexter.....	5,000
David W. Storrs, Chicago.....	5,000

To James L. Babcock, who has been so intimately associated with Mr. James in this city for many years past, is left Northampton National Bank stock, Northampton, Mass., $5,000; Geneva National Bank stock, Geneva, N. Y., $2,000; Chelsea Savings Bank stock, Chelsea, $5,000; U. S. bonds (4 per cent. consols), $5,000; real estate mortgages, $13,000, the face value of the behest amounting to $30,000, but which are worth much more than their face. The will provides that the balance of the estate shall remain in the hands of the executors for five years from the date of probate, the interest to be paid to James L. Babcock. If at the end of five years Babcock is alive and married, the entire residue of the estate is to be paid over to him; if he shall have died within the five years and shall leave a widow or children surviving him, one-half of the residue of the estate is to be paid to him and the other half to be divided among the other legatees equally; if he dies leaving neither wife nor children within the five years, the residue of the estate is to be divided equally among the other legatees; if he is alive and unmarried at the end of the five years, the residue of the estate is to be divided among all of the legatees of the will equally.

The will creates no little interest among those who have learned its contents, making as it does the behest of nearly a quarter of a million dollars dependent upon the marriage of the legatees. This behest is peculiar, as Mr. James himself was a bachelor and took but little interest in marriage.

Cavalry Company Organized.

The young men of Lodi township met at the town hall last week Wednesday and proceeded to organize a Cleveland and Thurman company which will be one of the novelties of political organizations during the present campaign. The club will be known as the Lodi Cavalry Company, Cleveland and Thurman Guards, and every member will be mounted, equipped and instructed for regular cavalry drill. There were thirty-two members who attended the first meeting for organization, and within a short time the number will undoubtedly be increased to a hundred or more, as the boys are full of enthusiasm on the subject.

The officers elected at this meeting of the company were Philip Blum, Jr., captain; Wm. Lamborn, first lieutenant; Lester Sweetland, second lieutenant; Michael Sage, first sergeant; Michael Eagan, second sergeant. The roster of the organizers of the company is as follows: Michael Aberly, Martin Aberly, August Binder, Frederick Binder, George Bohnet, Charles Blaess, Charles Bowman, Thomas Burroughs, Christian Brown, Joseph Burkhardt, Edward Clough, Frederick Cofferman, George Dold, William Eagan, John Fritz, George Ghenner, Henry Goltz, Frank Glover, John Grosshaus, Martin Grosshaus, Nelson Hogan, Fredrick Kappler, Fredrick Luckhardt, Manuel Luckhardt, James Steward, Frank Staphish, Gordon Wallace.

The company will hold regular drills until they have gained a proficiency in drill, and will be a leading feature in the campaign parades.

A Narrow Escape.

The boys in the vicinity of Firemen's park, in the second ward, have been in the habit of shooting around the park, much to the annoyance and danger of the citizens residing near, and in violation of the city ordinances. Last Tuesday, Miss Gertie Sanford had a narrow escape from one of these stray bullets. As she stepped from the house, which is not far from the park, a bullet whizzed past her head, through the open door and out the other side of the house. The bullet was found to have been fired from a 56 calibre army musket and was an instrument of sure death. Mr. Sanford took his dog and going to the park found two boys in hiding. No complaint was made against them this time, but the authorities will hereafter arrest all persons who violate the ordinance.

COUNTY.

The citizens of Milan have donated $100 to their band to purchase new uniforms.

The fall meeting of the Milan Driving Park Association takes place to-morrow.

Judge Stacy and wife, of Tecumseh, celebrated their golden wedding last week Tuesday.

The Masonic fraternity of Dundee are to give an excursion to Whitmore Lake on Sept. 5th.

The Ypsilanti Dress Stay Company are building a two-story 20x20 brick addition to their factory.

Ypsilanti buyers purchased 127,000 pounds of wool during the season, the average price paid being 24 cents.

The corner-stone of the new Methodist church at Milan is to be laid to-day with appropriate exercises.

Rev. J. H. Hector, a colored preacher of California, is to address the prohibitionists of Ypsilanti next Sunday.

The Second Baptist church society (colored) of Ypsilanti have purchased a lot and will endeavor to erect a church this fall.

Frank N. Bovee, of Ypsilanti, challenges any of the bicyclists of that city to a race from Ann Arbor to the Hawkins House for $20.

Chas. Smith, of Ypsilanti, lost his house on Forest avenue, one night last week, the family barely escaping with their lives. No alarm was sounded and the fire department knew nothing about it until the following day.

The Ypsilantian is loud in its denunciation of the saloon-keepers of that city in their utter disregard for law and morality. It claims that there are but three saloons in the place that pretend to observe the Sunday closing law.

The Dexter Leader (neutral) offered an apology to its readers last week for the appearance of two columns defaming Cleveland on the inside pages of the paper. It lays the blame on the "ready-print" concern who furnishes that part of the paper, and assures its readers that it will not happen again.

The Bridgewater Farmers' Picnic Association have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Geo. S. Rawson; secretary, H. C. Calhoun; treasurer, Thos. Van Gieson; executive committee, Arthur Lowery, Albert Green, James Weir, Wilbur Short, James Kress, Frank Riedel, Mr. Knight.

Nicholas Cordary, of Ypsilanti, who recently made an assignment, appears to be getting deeper and deeper into the meshes of the law. The latest is his arrest on the criminal charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, in securing loans upon property which he represented as his own, but which he had deeded to his wife. The complaint was made by officers of the First National Bank of Ypsilanti. The hearing will be had Sept. 6th, and Mr. Cordary is now out on $1,500 bail.

Bridgewater.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Crane went to Onsted, Saturday, and returned Monday.

T. C. Frost returned home from Caro, last Tuesday. He has bought H. M. Larzell's farm.

Ida and Pearl Larzell, of Napolian, visited at their grand mother's Mrs. C. F. Crane's, last week.

Mrs. J. G. Henry and daughter of Palmira, has been spending a week with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright started for their new home in Minnesota, last Wednesday. We wish them success.

Dixboro.

[Received too late for last week.] Miss Mary Saul is visiting friends at Ida, Monroe county.

Mr. Wm. Saul recently threshed his wheat, it went 24 bushels to the acre, which is a good yield for this year.

Mr. James Hanby has the contract for furnishing the timber for the Geddesburg bridge.

North Lake.

Buckwheat is about one-half killed by frost here.

Mr. Geo. Reid cut a good crop of self-sown rye this harvest.

Campers are very scarce here now. The cool nights make it endurable in the city.

Mr. Sam Mapes has returned to his home in Hanfield, after a month's stay at the lake.

Mrs. Rha Johnson and daughter visited in the old home neighborhood this week.

Miss Tirza Twamley is visiting friends and relatives in Jackson county for a week or two.

Prof. Wood has gone back to Chicago, after a two weeks' stay with his brothers here.

Potatoes are ready to dig, as they will only get soggy and worthless by being left in the ground.

If the drouth continues another week, there will be more hog corn than any other kind this fall.

E. L. Glenn was at the old home Saturday and said it was wetter in Unadilla than at North Lake.

Is there any demand for rye straw at the pulp mills? Owners please answer and give prices for same.

The fall and winter fruit crop will be light, except the fall on the ground, which is heavy and still continues.

Mrs. Wm. Wood is quite sick, but there are hopes of speedy recovery under the treatment of Dr. Palmer.

Threshing is nearly all done around here. Oats and wheat yield about two-thirds of an average crop.

Wm. Wood is making an addition to his evaporating house. He will put in another evaporator this fall.

Dry, dry, dry. You prohibitionists will have to let go your hold on moisture or the country will be ruined sure.

Rye is being sown among the corn for fall and spring. Pasture after that will yield from 20 to 35 bushels grain.

Mr. John Watts had his hand badly cut while feeding Mr. Reason's separator one day last week, but is doing finely now.

Marshes considered nearly worthless a few years ago are the best paying lands for gardening when properly drained and the soil subdued.

Women about here go in for protection, yet quite a few are protecting themselves as yet; whether from choice or no, can't say.

While camping here, Mrs. Rathburn made a very fine picture of the grove and cottages, besides many other sketches worthy of the best frames and mountings.

News reaches here that Mr. Coffin, of Detroit, has struck it rich by his years of study, coming out with a very valuable soldering device. His friends will rejoice with him in his success.

Saturday, when returning home to Leslie from a week's visit with her sister here, Mrs. Wilson and little daughter were thrown from their carriage by the colt they drove turning suddenly into the ditch. The occupants were badly used up and the carriage was quite badly broken.

Ann Arbor ladies seem to know how to enjoy themselves out camping, and seem to enjoy rural life in taking lessons in farming and becoming so proficient as to ride the solid comfort plow and drive the team. They do as good work as a man of forty years of experience in plowing. Young farmers, think of these things when buying a plow and getting out a license.

Pittsfield.

General health of the community good at present.

Dora McCollum is spending a month with friends in Detroit.

Tramps have not been numerous, as far as my observation goes, this year.

Mary Crane and sister, Miss Ida, are visiting friends in Shelby, Oceana county.

Mr. George Perry, of Canada, has been visiting friends in this vicinity during the past week.

The close of summer and the opening of autumn brings us some of the finest weather of the year.

Mrs. Henry De Pue and daughter, Winnie, are spending a few days in Adrian with a sister, Mrs. G. Osgood.

Mrs. V. Dowd and children, of Parma, Mich., returned home last week from a two weeks' visit at Mrs. F. E. Mills'.

The Pittsfield Union Sunday schools hold their annual picnic today (29th). It is expected that there will be a large attendance.

My estimate of the onion crop in this township would place it at no lower figure than 50,000 bushels, quite a number of car-loads.

Next week will see some of the good people of Pittsfield cutting corn. Also seeding will be inaugurated for another wheat crop.

All kinds of shack (as the farmers call it)—that is, acorns and nuts, such as hazel, hickory, butternuts and black walnuts—will be plentiful this fall.

Mrs. Geo. Hadzsits and family, who have been spending the summer with her father, David De Pue, returned to their home in Detroit Wednesday.

Jas. Shooter, who has been working on the northern extension of the T. A. A. & Northern R. R., returned to his home in this vicinity a few days since.

The coming month will probably see all or nearly all the grain in Pittsfield threshed. The steam threshers are doing a land office business at present.

Mr. Baumgartner began work on his onion crop Monday, but work will not be under full headway before early in September. There are 200 acres in all to pull and otherwise dispose of.

Celery is raised on the big marsh as well as onions; also potatoes, parsnips, corn and various other kinds of garden stuff. From being thought almost worthless, the marsh is fast becoming the garden of Pittsfield.

B. T. Burnett and wife, who have been spending some time with Stephen Mills and other friends, returned to their home in southern Illinois Wednesday. Mrs. Burnett slipped from a platform and sustained serious injuries just before starting.

Willis.

Eli Alban is home from Jackson and is on the sick list.

George Beck spent Sunday with his family at this place.

Ed. Dixon and wife, of Romulus, spent Sunday in Willis.

W. H. Willings has the post-office about completed and will soon take possession of the same.

D. Russell has the frame up for his new store and dwelling on the site where the old one was burned.

Wm. Russell and wife, who have been visiting here for some time, started from here on Saturday night for their home in Elliott, California.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me from asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again troubled with the disease, I was promptly relieved by the same remedy."—F. S. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Nebraska.

"Belles" call a great many people to church.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of the Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now on my third bottle, am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store.

A New York hotel proprietor, who thought of raising his rates, has wisely concluded to retain his present price—$5 and $5.50 a day. This will be hailed with gratitude by clerks and others, who make only $5 or $10 a week.

Log Cabins can hardly be considered handsome or elegant, but they were fit habitations for the rugged pioneers of America. Our ancestors were rugged specimens of noble manhood, complete in health, strength and endurance. Their wholesome remedies are reproduced to this later age, in Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and Warner's Tippecanoe.

What's in a name? D. Seaver drives a St. Louis milk wagon.

Electric Bitters.

This Remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.—A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all what is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Salt Rheum, and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers.—For cure of Headache, Consumption and Indigestion try Electric Bitters—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store.

A Texas Judge is credited with the following decision: "The fact is, Jones, the jail is an old, rickety affair; as cold and as iron wedge. You applied to this court for a release on bail, giving it as your opinion that you would freeze to death there. The weather has not moderated, and to keep you from freezing, I will direct the sheriff to hang you at four o'clock this afternoon."

The story is told of a New Bedford clergyman, now dead, who was asked by an Irishman to marry him. "Why, Pat," said the clergyman, "What have you come to me for? Why don't you go to the Catholic Priest?" "I've been to him, yer honor," said Pat, "and he told me to go to the devil, and I've come."

A RUNAWAY MOTOR-CAR.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH ON AN ELECTRIC ROAD.

While Going Down a Steep Grade the Car Becomes Unmanageable and Jumps the Tracks—Several People Badly Hurt—The Neenah, Wis., Disaster—Militia in a Railway Wreck—Other Mishaps.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 28.—At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning motor No. 4, with one passenger car attached, descending Mount Oliver, on the St. Clair Electric road, became uncontrollable and started down the heavy grade at terrific speed. At the sharp curve near Pine street the motor and car jumped the rails, turning over several times before it stopped against a telegraph pole. The motor was smashed to pieces and the car badly wrecked. Engineer John McGibbons and Conductor Smythe jumped from the runaway train, escaping with painful injuries. Mrs. Rachel Herron was the most seriously injured. She was badly cut about the head and sustained internal injuries that it is feared will prove fatal. The wife of Alderman Heinrich was very seriously hurt about the head. Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart and daughter were terribly cut and bruised, but will recover. Charles Morgan jumped from the car window, receiving numerous bruises. That any of the occupants of the car escaped with their lives is considered miraculous. The cause of the accident is attributed to insufficient electric current. The motor was the property of the Daft Electric company, of New York, and had not yet been taken off their hands by the St. Clair company.

THE NEENAH, WIS., DISASTER.

Twenty-Eight Small Children and Nine Widows Left Destitute.

NEENAH, Wis., Aug. 28.—Mayor Lawson makes the following statement: The extent of the destitution occasioned by the Whiting mill disaster was not at first realized. On close investigation I find that those killed leave twenty-eight small children and nine widows, who are destitute, and by the injuries received by others there are eighteen men, women and children, including the injured ones themselves, who have no means of support until they can go to work again. None of these had insurance. Two had no homes, while the aggregate indebtedness upon the homes of the others is $1,530. From the above it will be seen that fifty-five persons will require assistance for at least two months, and thirty-seven of them will require help for at least five years. Thus $10,500 will be the smallest sum that will relieve the absolute wants of these poor, unfortunate people. All those killed or injured were worthy and industrious people. The good people of our little city will make every effort to see that all have proper care, and if our kind neighbors will lend us a little assistance we assure them it will ever be appreciated.

Fifteen Sailors Drowned While Leaving a Wrecked Vessel.

STE. FLAVIE, Que., Aug. 29.—Saturday last the steamer Bratsberg, coal laden, on her way from Sydney to Montreal, struck a rock at Cape Chatte and was considerably damaged. She was headed for shore to keep her afloat and was aground during the night near Ste. Felicie, nine miles below Metane, from which place Capt. Neilson wired Sunday to Quebec for assistance. A fearful storm sprung up Sunday night and Capt. Neilson was forced on Monday to abandon the vessel, taking off with him two lady passengers who were on the boat. The crew, seventeen men, were left on board until yesterday morning, when they began to fear danger, as the steamer began to break up. They got off in two small boats, but shortly after they left the steamer both boats upset and fifteen of the seventeen were drowned. Twelve bodies have been recovered so far, and an inquest has been opened.

DISASTER TO A SAILING PARTY.

The Boat Capsized and Three Children Drowned.

HYANNIS, Mass., Aug. 29.—A boating party, consisting of George Barnard and his two sons, Fred and George; Mrs. H. C. Smith and her two daughters, Bertie and Edna; Miss Jennie Mayer; Stella Hallett; Edward Crowell and Clifton Bradford, all, excepting Mrs. and Misses Smith, of Hyannis, started out yesterday morning for a day's sail. When about three miles from shore the boat was struck by a squall and capsized. The schooner W. H. Lewis, of Chatham, was in the vicinity, and sent boats to the rescue. They succeeded in rescuing seven persons, all of whom were in an exhausted condition, but Bertie and Edna Smith and Fred Barnard, 12-year-old children, were drowned.

Disaster on the Deep.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 28.—Barge Governor Jackson foundered at sea between Cape Henry and Delaware breakwater about 4:40 o'clock last Thursday morning, and the colored cook, Richard Blizard, his wife and children were drowned. Steam tug Raleigh, Capt. Pendleton, with barges Governor Jackson and Seth Low, with coal for the Providence Coal company, left Newport News on the preceding Tuesday, the Jackson being at the end of the tow. They encountered heavy weather outside the capes, and both barges sprung a leak. The Governor Jackson was discovered to be flying her flag union down about 4:40 o'clock Thursday morning though her master, Capt. Atherton, had endeavored to attract the Raleigh's attention during the night by a lantern, and without warning she went down almost immediately afterward, parting her hawser to the Seth Low. The captain and his crew of two men were rescued in an exhausted condition.

Horrible Death of a Saw-Mill Hand.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 28.—Charles Stranberg, an employee of the Murray & Jones saw-mill on Connor's point, was fatally injured at about 7:30 Monday morning. Stranberg's duties were to attend to the edger, a saw used to trim the boards to a uniform width, and while thus engaged a board caught on top of the saw, split, and was hurled against him, striking him in the left groin, entering about six inches. He was also struck in the breast by a silver which entered six inches. Five hours later he died.

Militia in a Railway Wreck.

LIMA, Ohio, Aug. 28.—A freight train and a special train from Ottawa, having on board militia for Columbus, collided Tuesday morning near here on the Dayton & Michigan railroad. Two cars and the engines were wrecked, but nobody was killed. The engineer of one of the trains, a conductor and two passengers were slightly hurt. The accident was due to the negligence of a flagman to stop one of the trains.

An Epidemic of Diphtheria.

CHICOPEE, Mass., Aug. 28.—A diphtheria epidemic is raging at South Hadley, Mass., the site of the Mount Holyoke Female college and seminary. In four days sixty-four cases have been reported, and four deaths have occurred. The college will open for the fall term early in September, and it is feared the attendance will be small till the danger from the disease is passed.

Three Men Killed on the "Q" Road.

FAIRFIELD, Ia., Aug. 28.—A west-bound freight extra on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy collided with the rear of a construction train at Rock creek, nine miles west of here, yesterday afternoon. G. A. Rose, of Burlington, roadmaster; Patrick Ready and Patrick Griffin, section men, were instantly killed, and John Kelly and Timothy Murphy injured.

Young Lady Killed by a Train.

WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 28.—Miss Effie Williamson, aged 18, daughter of the late Daniel Williamson, of Fairfax county, Virginia, was run down by a train and killed Monday afternoon, near Long Branch station, on the Alexandria & Fredericksburg railroad, about twelve miles below Alexandria.

Struck by Lightning.

FRENCHTOWN, N. J., Aug. 28.—Oliver Birch, a young man, was killed by lightning Monday evening while a light shower was passing over the place. He was standing under a tree which was only slightly affected by the stroke. Birch leaves a widow and child.

EMPIRE STATE REPUBLICANS.

Warner Miller to Lead the Fight—Proceedings of the Convention.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—There was a full representation of all the counties in the state when the Republican state convention was called to order in the Casino at noon yesterday. In fact, there was more than a full attendance, for there were several cases of contesting delegations, but the credentials committee gave the sitting members their seats. Besides the delegates the building was crowded with politicians and other citizens, not a few ladies being present, their costumes giving a dash of life and color to the neutral shades of the male apparel. A gleeful club made the building ring with melody just before the election of temporary chairman, that honor falling to Gen. B. F. Tracy, of Brooklyn. He made a short address, declaring that the present was the most portentous campaign since 1864, and received liberal applause. A recess was then taken, and when the convention reassembled at 4:30 p. m. George S. Batcheller, of Saratoga, was made permanent chairman, and appropriately acknowledged the honor. In the course of his speech he said the president's promise of reform had proved like faith itself, "the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

William H. Seward and James T. Stranahan were elected electors-at-large, and a resolution in memory of Gen. Sheridan was adopted by a rising vote. For governor there was but one nomination—Hon. Warner Miller—and his nomination was made by acclamation, the delegates rising and cheering enthusiastically.

The convention was about to proceed to the other nominations, and Col. Cruger, of New York, and Col. J. B. Weber, of Erie, had been named, when Mr. Miller appeared on the platform and was received with loud cheers. He accepted the nomination for governor, saying that he did so because he believed the party in the state was a united one and would give him unanimous support. He then proceeded to endorse the Chicago platform, and declared that the question was whether the government should be controlled by a party that had never turned backward, or the party that was a reactionary force in the country. He congratulated the country that it was still, in a measure, controlled by a Republican senate, which had checked free trade legislation, and stood in the path of the president, preventing him from surrendering the rights of our citizens to a foreign government. He informed his hearers that if the Republicans of this state redeemed their promise at the Chicago convention to give the electoral vote to Harrison and Morton it would require constant, vigilant work, and pledged himself to know no rest until that result is accomplished.

Mr. Miller was frequently applauded during his speech, and when he sat down a ballot was taken for lieutenant governor, which decided the matter, Cruger having so decided a majority before the result was announced that the nomination was made unanimous. Judge Rumsey, of Steuben, was nominated for the court of appeals. A short speech by Col. Cruger wound up the proceedings, the platform first having been recorded and adopted, and at 7:45 the convention adjourned sine die.

The platform presents no new features, beyond an indorsement of the rejection of the fisheries treaty and a condemnation of the president's course in the matter and of his recent message to congress. Governor Hill is denounced for vetoing the high license bill, and further legislation is demanded to restrict undesirable immigration.

IN SESSION ALL NIGHT.

Nebraska Republicans Don't Go Home Till Morning—The Proceedings.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 25.—The Republican state convention was called to order Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Temporary organization was effected by making Judge Aaron O. Wall chairman and the temporary organization was made permanent. The convention then proceeded to business, but owing to the large number of candidates the work of the convention was not finished until 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

The following state ticket was nominated: For governor, Gen. John M. Thayer; lieutenant governor, George D. Melkiohn; secretary of state, Gilbert L. Laws; treasurer, Capt. J. E. Hill; auditor of public accounts, Thomas H. Benton; attorney general, William Lees; commissioner of public lands and buildings, John Stein; superintendent of public instruction, George B. Lane.

The platform is similar to other Republican enunciations. One feature of it is a proposition to legalize the labor holiday. After a long and heated discussion the convention by a considerable majority passed a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the Republican party that a legislative enactment should be made submitting to the vote of the people of the state the question of constitutional prohibition.

Ignatius Donnelly for Governor.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 29.—Ignatius Donnelly was nominated by acclamation for governor by the state conference of the labor interests, Farmers' alliance, and others interested in "independent political action," held here yesterday. J. P. McCaughy was nominated for lieutenant governor.

Warden McCaughy Resigns.

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 28.—Just before the board of penitentiary commissioners adjourned Saturday Warden McCaughy sent them his resignation, to take effect Dec. 1. He resigns to accept the position of warden of the new state reformatory at Joliet, Ill., lately offered him.

Washtenaw Pomological Fruit Exhibit.—Our Dying Maples.

At the special session of the Pomological society last Saturday, Prof. B. E. Nichols was requested to see to the fitting up of a car for the transportation of peaches, pears and other fruit and to the proper labeling of said car so that everyone can see even from a distance the Ann Arbor Fruit Car.

The necessity of employing a proper person to see to the accessibility of said car in Detroit and the notification of parties to whom fruit is shipped was readily seen. It was considered necessary to pay the small tax of one penny per bushel to pay expenses.

Some shippers lost enough money through the berry season by two failures of the fruit car to be opened and placed in position for distribution, to defray expenses of transportation through the whole year. Prof. Nichols and J. J. Parrish were requested to find the proper man, either here or at Detroit. As not much fruit will be shipped before the next monthly meeting of the society on September 1st, all shippers of fruit should promptly meet at that time.

FRUIT EXHIBIT.

J. D. Baldwin: LeConte pear from Bolton Mississippi from trees he had planted there himself some years ago. It was larger than the largest goose egg. The flesh was melting, juicy and delicious, but it lacked that flavor which distinguishes our northern fruit.

Also a LeConte pear from his fruit farm was shown by Mr. Baldwin. It was pigmy beside the Mississippi giant and demonstrated that this pear is especially adapted to the south. What it will be here when fully ripe remains to be seen. J. J. Parrish showed a Bradshaw plum nearly ripe, also an early Crawford peach, which was small and hard. The plum was a dark purple of large size with a plain division line. The Crawford will be two weeks later than last year. Mr. Schenk estimates his peach crop 800 bushels. E. Baur exhibited the Rostfizer, Clapp's Favorite and Bartlett pears. The first is a sugar pear of German origin, entirely free from insect marks. Its quality is best in the Michigan fruit catalogue. It will be difficult to produce a pear more popular than the Bartlett, though the Clapp and Femish Beauty and other pears are in some respects its superior.

OUR DYING MAPLES.

The citizens of Ann Arbor may feel sad over their dying shade trees. The ARGUS in its last issue devoted an interesting article on its first page to this calamity. The "Democrat" called for information some time ago.

I do not wish to add to the different theories and practices already recommended, yet I may submit general principles. A well washed, well fed body resists and rejects disease easier than a poorly fed, unclean body. This rule is applicable to the animal as well as to the vegetable kingdom. In the forest the trees are annually fed by the falling leaves, which not only furnish nutriment but also keeps up moisture.

Our trees on the street are not only robbed of this mulch, but every year the street scraper gets nearer the trees and robs them of mother earth. The result is visible. The remedy is plain. On west Huron street, Wm. Herz, E. Oesterlin, W. Stimson, B. C. Crookston but especially B. Davison have set a good example. About six or seven feet from the trees on the street side they filled up with earth which is held by two or three inch plank or bystone. The late Prof. J. F. Nichols, who was a man of the finest tastes, built a stone wall along the road to keep the earth from washing away from his shade trees. As soon as a tree is impoverished, the insect tribes, the fungi and mosses prey upon it. But trees should not only be well fed but also well washed. We scrape off all the loose bark and moss from our fruit trees in June or at any time when necessary. This is followed by a wash consisting of one part soft soap dissolved in hot rain water to which we add ten parts water. To ten gallons of the wash we add two ounces of carbolic acid or more. Let stand over night or longer to combine. The odor is so lasting that no eggs will be deposited. Scrape with a sharp hoe and apply the wash with a stiff broom or a brush with a long handle taking pains to wet inside of all crevices. I have seen maple trees that were killed by mosses. The trimming off of any deceased part of a tree and its destruction by fire is necessary to keep the cause from spreading. You do not need a man from Adrian to save your trees. Do it yourself or have it done.

"A Great Newspaper."

Under the above caption the New York Graphic, some three years ago, published a critical review of the growth of THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, which sets forth so clearly some of the fundamental principles underlying the development of one of the phenomenal successes of later years that it will well repay a reading. To bring some of the Graphic's figures down to the present date, supplemental statements are parenthetically added by the present writer.

"THE newspaper entitled to the distinction of having the largest daily circulation in America is THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS. (Since this statement was made it is possible that the growth of the New York World entitles it to first place.) The Graphic to-day devotes a page to sketches of scenes in and about its establishment. The history of this paper is probably without a parallel in the annals of American journalism. It was founded December 20th, 1875, and was the first low-priced daily successfully established in the West. At the end of its first year it had achieved a circulation of about 10,000. From that time on its growth has been remarkable. It now prints seven editions daily, comprising both morning and evening issues. Its statement of circulation for the year 1884 shows a daily average of 125,178 copies, unquestionably the largest daily circulation on the American continent. (The sworn statement for 1887 shows a daily average of 165,376.)

"In politics THE DAILY NEWS is always independent, never neutral. While its editorial expression is sometimes vigorous to the degree of severity, there is always in its utterances of opinion so manifest a purpose to be impartial and fair to all opposing interests, that it rarely loses the confidence of the reader, however much it may fail to bring him to an acceptance of its own view concerning the matter in hand.

"As a newspaper proper, THE DAILY NEWS has earned a reputation for enterprising news-gathering second to none in the United States. It is the only cheap paper in the West that is a member of the Associated Press. It gives its readers all the news worth giving and gives it for two cents. (Now it does it for one cent a day.)

"Aside from its own deserving merits as a complete and cheap newspaper, it is doubtless

It seems hardly possible that an endorsement of merit could be framed in stronger terms than the foregoing analysis, and yet how much greater is not the achievement now that such a journal as THE DAILY NEWS is placed in every man's hands at the reduced price of ONE CENT A DAY.

The truly marvelous enterprise of American journalism can hardly go farther. Certain it is that THE DAILY NEWS leads the van. THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS is sold by all newsdealers at One Cent per copy, or it will be mailed, postage paid, for $3.00 per year, or 25 cents per month. The attention of farmers is especially called to the fact that this metropolitan daily now costs but little more than the old time weekly. The shrewd farmer will now have his daily market reports. Address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher THE DAILY NEWS, CHICAGO.

THE tariff is a tax. The republicans affect to be tired of hearing that but before the ideas of November come they will be more tired of hearing it. It makes them weary. The tariff is a tax. It is a heavier tax than is needed to support the government. It takes money out of the poor man's pocket which ought to be left there. It is a tax, and like all too heavy taxes, it should be reduced.

THE Courier writes very nonsensically concerning the tariff. It says if the tax is reduced, the reduction will come out of the pockets of the laboring man and farmer. What utter nonsense. When a tax is reduced it does not take money out of the pockets of those who pay it, it leaves the money in their pockets. Reduce the tariff taxation and the farmer and laboring man will have more money in their pockets.

THE Courier reminds one of the saying about fools who rush in where angels dare not tread. Its latest break is in commenting upon the president's recent retaliation message to Congress. The Courier denounces the president, who has shown himself possessed of more back bone than any president for years, as a coward, etc. etc. We shall not comment on this. The statement is too ridiculous for comment.

MR. BLAINE'S remarkable speech on trusts last week, when he stated that trusts were "largely private affairs with which neither President Cleveland nor any private citizen has any particular right to interfere," has created quite a furor in political circles. Mr. Blaine seems to have the idea that these gigantic trusts fostered by the tariff should not be interfered with in any manner and that the tariff laws which shut out competition ought to be maintained for the benefit of trusts. But the American people ought to have no such idea. They ought not to be so chained to the worship of millionaires to longer consent to pay tribute to them. The accumulation of so much wealth in the hands of so few people has long been regarded as an evil but Blaine does not so regard it. He wants the millionaires protected. The people have something to say about that, Mr. Blaine.

FOR CONGRESS—WILLARD STEARNS.

Our candidate for Congress has been named and wisely has the convention chosen. Willard Stearns, editor of the Adrian Press, is a man who has opinions and who expresses them. He has long done battles for the principles of democracy and shown himself fully equipped for battle. He is a strong man, with a great deal of personality. A wordy encounter with Senator Omar D. Conger, in which the Port Huron man was completely used up, lives in the traditions of Adrian. He is a strong man in debate, quick to reply, and a point made is made with such force that there is no reply. He will prove a host upon the platform.

The nomination of Mr. Stearns means an aggressive campaign on the part of the democrats in this district. They will fight to down Ed. Allen by 1,000 majority and in that fight Washtenaw will be called upon to do her part. Her share means at least 1,500 majority for Stearns.

There will be no shilly-shallying in this campaign. Everybody will know what Mr. Stearns believes. It will be a square campaign. There will be no carrying of water on both shoulders.

Mr. Stearns is a man physically well developed. He has a clear and penetrating voice, fitted to address large audiences. He can stand the fatigues of the campaign well and can, if necessary, make two speeches a day from now till the end of the campaign. It is now time to redeem the district. Let us all put our shoulders to the work and roll up a rising majority for Stearns, our next congressman.

THE TARIFF AND WAGES.

Artemus Ward once asked a stranger in Toledo: "Say, friend, can you tell me where I can get a square meal for a quarter?"

"Oh, yes," said the man addressed; "right over across the street."

"Hold on," said Artemus, as the other turned to walk on; "one more question: Can you tell me where I can get the quarter?"

Mr. Ward, on the lookout for his breakfast, was very much in the position of the grand old party. She would like to make a square meal off the labor vote. "Doesn't the tariff make wages higher in this country than they are in free trade England?" shrieks the old lady.

"Oh, yes," respond the ready reckoners; "wages in this country are double the amount of British wages."

"One thing more, you rascals! Can you find me any blooming idiot who will believe that the tariff makes the difference?"

There is no report of what answer Artemus got to his last inquiry from the citizen of Toledo; but esteemed contemporaries are on the diligent lookout for the blooming idiots who will believe that high wages and low wages depend upon the tax rate.

There are high wages in New York and low wages in North Carolina, both states enjoying the same benignant rates of custom-house taxation. There are high wages paid in Kensington and low wages paid for the same work in Fall River. There are high wages in some parts of the United States and low wages in some parts of England—the United States having a protective tariff and England a revenue tariff. The rate of wages is higher in England than in Germany or France or Russia, although the labor of the three latter countries is highly "PROTECTED." Again, the rate of wages is higher in Australia than in the United States, although Australia is blessed with a multifariousness of tariffs, both high and low.

By what corkscrewing method of reasoning do they expect to so put their readers asleep that they shall overlook these notorious facts? Any chit big enough to go to school knows that a three-cent apple is dearer than a two-cent apple. It does not require a greater breadth of intellect to understand that the only way in which tariffs affect wages is in the extent of their influence in raising or lowering the cost of living.—Philadelphia Record.

NEW YORK, MAY 25, 1888.

MY DEAR SIR: I have been requested to submit the enclosed communication to you, and I do so with the greatest pleasure. With my knowledge of practical politics, I unhesitatingly say that this is the most important undertaking in the campaign of 1888, and I confidently rely upon your prompt endorsement and assistance. Will you kindly subscribe and return the enclosed subscription list to me as early as a day as practicable, as the work is, outgrowing the resources of the league, which now contains over 5,000 clubs, with a membership of half-a-million voters?

Very truly yours,
ALBERT DAGGETT.

HEADQUARTERS
REPUBLICAN LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, MAY 25, 1888.
MY DEAR SIR: The Republican League of the United States desires to bring you face to face with the startling fact that the coming Presidential election is not to be fought on the old party lines which have heretofore divided Democrats and Republicans, but upon a direct issue of free trade vs. protection.

The League stands for protection and is fighting in your interest. It is no fourth of July organization for dress parade, but is an every-day working force of practical political workers, who have in four months enrolled an army of over 400,000 men to fight against British free-trade ideas, British gold, and Democratic Hessians, who are fighting under her banners. It is useless to argue the case; Democracy stands for free trade and against your interests, and you know it, no matter whether you have heretofore been a Democrat or a Republican. High-sounding platitudes of words cannot gain this fact, nor fool you unless you wish to be fooled.

The coming campaign will be fought for protection under disadvantages never before encountered. Ninety-nine per cent. of the Federal officials are Democrats, and will contribute financially to the hoped-for success of the free traders. Never before has the Democratic free trade or "tariff-reform" party been in so fortunate a position.

The Republican League is not composed of theorists who are forever promising to do something and never keeping their promises. It has already done more than any other political organization ever attempted before the Presidential candidates had been placed in the field. As our patriotic volunteers sprang to the countries defense when section threatened its destruction, so at the call of the League vast armies have been enrolled to fight the thousand times more dangerous foe to the country's continued prosperity—free trade.

We will win this fight if you will do your share and help us to finish what we have begun; we want money, and want it at once. We are overwhelmed with calls for tariff documents and for speakers and organizers. We propose to organize and fight against free trade in every doubtful Congressional and Legislative district in the United States. To-day there is but one majority in the Senate of the United States when the lines are drawn between the Democrats and Republicans, and unless much is done, the next congress will see a free-trade House, Senate and President, and then good bye to your prosperity.

It may not be of your personal knowledge, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that the manufacturers of the United States who are most benefited by our tariff laws have been the least willing to contribute to the success of the party which gave them protection, and which is about to engage in a life-and-death struggle with free trade.

A Republican United States Senator, from a State which never had a Democratic representative in either house of Congress or a Democratic State officer, in speaking of the well-known disposition of the manufacturing interest to look up its money, fold its hands, and look on while somebody else fights for its success, says:

"The campaign which we are about to enter, will concern more than anybody else, the manufacturers of this country. They have heretofore been very laggard in their contributions to the Republican cause. In fact, if I could punish them without punishing the cause of protection itself, I would consign them to the hottest place I could think of on account of their craven parsimony. If this class of people do not care to contribute to the success of the Republican party, they are welcome to try their chances under a Democratic administration; I can stand it as long as they can." And again: "I was solicited to contribute to a protective-tariff league, and I replied that if the manufacturers of the United States in their associated capacity were to give me a pension, that I would not propose myself to contribute money to advance the interests of men who were getting practically the sole benefit or at least the most directly important benefits of the tariff laws. I am in favor of protection, not precisely the kind we are having, but I might be willing to keep even that rather than not to have any, but I am sure I can get along without any of it fully as well as the manufacturers can, and if they think the republican party is going to maintain a high protective corps for their benefit, and the men who do the work in that party are going to keep up the expenses of a campaign out of their own pockets, leaving them to reap the fruits of the tariff policy without any deduction for political expenses, they are very greatly mistaken. I understand that in a general way the manufacturers of New England have been more liberal in their contributions than those of Pennsylvania."

"In fact, I have it from the best possible source that the manufacturers of Pennsylvania, who are more highly protected than anybody else, and who make large fortunes every year when times are prosperous, practically give nothing towards the maintenance of the ascendancy of the republican party. Of course, I shall not violate what I consider to be a proper principle of action; but if I had my way about it I would put the manufacturers of Pennsylvania under the fire and fry all the fat out of them. If the Mills tariff bill comes to the senate there will be some votes cast there which will open the eyes of some of these people who have, while gathering their millions, treated the republican party as their humble servant."

These are strong words, and bitter, but they are true, and it now remains with you and your associates to determine whether they are to be reiterated after this campaign is over, and protection has, through your apathy, been struck its death-blow. If you give us the means to win the victory, we will do it. Are you willing?

Yours very truly,
JAS. P. FOSTER, President.

Notice of Drain Letting.

Notice is hereby given, that I, John A. Stoll, township drain commissioner of the township of Lodi, county of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, will on Monday the third day of September, A. D. 1888, at the outlet in said township at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day proceed to receive bids for the construction of a certain drain to be known as the Fletcher and Brown drain, located and described as follows: Commencing at a certain point in section twenty on the northeast corner of the lake known as Arnold's lake, thence east through lands of Eagan's, thence east through lands of George Gether, thence east through lands of Eagan's, thence east through lands of Luckard, thence east and south through lands of John Berkle, thence south through lands of George Braun, the width and depth will be made known on the day of sale. Said job will be let by sections or divisions. The section at the outlet of the drain will be let first, and the remaining sections in their order up stream, and bids will be made and received accordingly. Contracts will be made with the lowest responsible bidder giving adequate security for the performance of the work, in a sum to be fixed by me. The date for the completion of such contract, and the terms of payment therefor, shall be announced at the time and place of letting. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by me. Notice is further hereby given, that at the time and place of said letting the assessment of benefits made by me, will be subject to review.

Dated this 20th day of August, A. D. 1888.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

A Shelby parson who started out in the country to marry a couple kept the interested parties anxiously looking for more'n two hours, because a borrowed mustang wouldn't let him ride it, compelling the man of God to "huff it."

The Romeo camp meeting closed on the 22nd with political addresses by Republican, Democratic and Prohibition speakers. Quite an innovation.

Mrs. Phoebe Clarke, a colored lady, died at Detroit on the 19th at the advanced age of 108 years.

A Marquette farmer's cows drank from the refuse of a nitro-glycerine factory and went off—dead.

Postmaster Wilson, of Galesburg, wasn't feeling well and got a drink at a local drug store and has been blind since. He drank belladonna.

A fifteen-foot vein of soft coal has been discovered near Hopkins Station, Allegan county.

William Jackson, a Grindstone City farmer, gets $150,000 by the death of an uncle in England. Jackson was already well-to-do.

Comstock, Kalamazoo county, is to have a $75,000 manufacturing enterprise for making Kible engines.

George Thompson, the Isabella county farmer who is supposed to know just how his neighbor, Albert Herrington, came to his untimely death, has been bound over to the circuit court to answer to a charge of murder in the second degree.

Jennie Vandennoot, a Grand Haven lassie, sued Anthony Leopoeck $1,000 worth because Anthony didn't keep his matrimonial promises, but a jury decided that $150 was enough for him to pay.

Nearly 1,000 Jackson children of school age didn't attend school at all last year.

George Ferguson, an Echo man, shot himself through the head because he felt so badly about getting into a quarrel at a dance.

The Detroit syndicate that invested in the Rogers City marble quarry have discovered a gold mine on the same property. "In luck."

Burglars made a light haul from the Farwell depot one night last week, as the amount of "cash on hand" was limited; but they got all there was.

Indications point to a plentiful crop of game this fall and lots of fun for the sportsmen.

A Muskegon parson avers that he shouldered his rod and line the other morning and hid himself away to the lake where he caught seven fish in a jiffy that weighed thirty-six and a half pounds. And yet the ordinary sinner is censured by some folks for telling a good fish story.

At Negaunee, Mich., Sunday night, John Bauer and a companion quarreled, and the latter, who refuses to give his name, stabbed Bauer seven or eight times. Bauer is in a hospital, and may recover. His assailant is in jail.

At the burning of Hawley & Son's sawmill near Mancelona Cole McKenzi was caught under a falling tramway and seriously, if not fatally, injured. Incendiaries are suspected.

Just before the late Bishop Harris left Detroit for his European trip he took out $20,000 worth of life insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd, Hudson folks, drove in the way of the Lake Shore fast mail but will recover. The buggy was reduced to kindling wood, though, in a twinkling.

A steam thrasher got in its warm work on Col. Saylor's barn near Bridgeport. Loss, $3,000, with light insurance.

Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic magnates have decided to make Marquette division headquarters of the line, and will build new railway shops there, all of which please the average Marquette man.

More'n 1,000 bushels of cucumbers were sold at Pinkney one day recently, and yet most of the citizens escaped the colic. This is explained by the fact that a pickle factory digested the most of 'em.

L. J. Wilson, an Eaton county farmer, is the proud owner of a haystack that's 30 by 95 feet and is eighteen feet high. There's many a nibble in a pile like that.

Various devices have been resorted to in the dry section of the state to bring rain. Prayer been tried, but without avail, while the festive picnic hasn't succeeded any better. Even the camp-meeting didn't bring the much-desired moisture.

More than one-half of the burned district at Alpena has already been rebuilt, the ninety new dwellings now up being better than those so recently destroyed by the great Third ward fire.

Samuel J. Medler and three daughters, East Saginaw excursionists to Orion lake, came within an ace of being drowned while in bathing, but were rescued by some young men who happened along in a boat.

Miss Mary Rolofson, a Bunker Hill girl who had lots of spare time on her hands, has put 11,000 pieces of cloth into a bed quilt.

Jeremiah Nickerson, a Sarnia citizen, and a naturally spy one too, attempted to cross the Grand Trunk tracks at Lapeer ahead of a swiftly approaching train, and left a widow and two fatherless children to mourn his failure.

It only took a jury five minutes to convict J. G. McCaffrey, a Macomb county man, of perjury. The spynews with which the job was done may be accounted for because a Macomb jury never had such a case to tackle before.

THIEF AND GAY LOTHARIO.

A Hillsdale, Mich., Man Skips with a Woman and $50,000.

HILLSDALE, Mich., Aug. 28.—Charles W. Waldron, of this city, who, with B. Northrup, owns a savings bank at Reading, and with the Hon. Ezra L. Koon, a private bank in this city, left this place last Wednesday morning. Yesterday afternoon a great sensation was created when it was learned that he had gone to Canada with Mrs. Bidwell, of Quincy. He took some of the assets of both banks—about $50,000 in all—and disposed of most of his personal property. Mr. Koon is abundantly able to satisfy depositors if a shortage exists, and all claims will be paid. There was a run on the bank yesterday morning, but all is quiet now, as the First National bank stands ready to come to Mr. Koon's assistance. Mr. Northrup will meet all the obligations on the Reading bank. Waldron leaves a wife and two children. Before going away he deeded his wife a small amount of property.

READING, Mich., Aug. 29.—Hundreds of farmers from northern Indiana and southern Michigan stood in line before Waldron's bank at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. They had been led to believe that Cashier Northrup would have $50,000 for distribution, and that first come first served would be the order of the day. The Preston bank, of Detroit, has $8,000 which belongs to depositors in this section. Monday the Detroit institution telegraphed that the sum named would reach Reading yesterday morning, but not a dollar came. Ezra Koon, the Hillsdale lawyer who was Waldron's partner and who will lose about $200,000 by the missing banker, has tied up the money in Detroit, and has also levied on $10,000 which the Reading bank loaned the Salmon P. Chase bank of New York. The Hillsdale bank was open all day. It has had the support of the other bank there, and will probably be able to weather the storm. Koon will beggar himself to maintain the credit of the institution, and his brother, Judge Martin Koon, of St. Paul, will assist him. Cashier Northrup, assisted by a score of accountants, completed his examination of the books of the Reading bank. The showing is highly encouraging to depositors. At a low estimate the value of the mortgages and mortgageable papers on hand is $135,000, while the deposits do not exceed $135,000. Waldron evidently intended to leave the Reading bank in an insolvent condition, his main object being to ruin his partner, Koon.

Mrs. Waldron, who had begun proceedings for divorce, had retained Koon as her counsel and the lawyer, in his zeal for his fair client, incurred the hostility of his partner. Waldron threatened to get even with Koon and teach his wife a lesson. It is believed here that Mrs. Bidwell, the married woman with whom Waldron was infatuated, has the banker completely in her power. He has given her two large sums of money and advanced the capital on which her husband recently began business. She is 24 years old, a graduate of Hillsdale college, and a woman of great beauty. The man who sold sixty blooded horses for Waldron on Tuesday last returned last night. He says Waldron borrowed money wherever he could, pledged the credit of the bank that he might, to use his own expression, "catch that Koon up a tree." He declared that Koon, in becoming counsel for Mrs. Waldron, had betrayed him, and that no punishment was too severe for him. The defaulter borrowed $22,000 in Chicago, $46,000 in Detroit, and $38,000 in New York. Koon will probably lose $150,000. Having disposed of his seven farms and overdrawn his account in both banks, it is estimated that Waldron carried away between $500,000 and $600,000. Much sympathy is expressed for Koon and Cashier Northrup.

RICHNESS IN MICHIGAN.

Gold-Bearing Quartz Estimated as Worth From $10,000 to $15,000 a Ton.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Aug. 27.—Saturday night from the workings of the Michigan Gold company the richest of the gold-bearing quartz was brought into the office here. One of the officials of the company says there is 135 pounds of it. From other sources it is stated that there is 275 pounds. It carries free gold in large quantities, and is valued by reliable assayers as worth $10,000 to $15,000 a ton. Assays are unnecessary, as the gold shows in seams all over the rock. The rock was taken from a quartz vein only a few feet below the surface, 300 feet west of the east boundary line of the property. It was found in a "leader" only eighteen inches wide, which diverges from the main vein. Only four men are working on the property pending the decision of Grunnot to appeal his case to the supreme court or give up the fight. Possession was awarded the Michigan company by Judge Grant, but Grunnot's backers announced that the case would be appealed. The Lake Superior Gold shaft is now down fifty feet, but no rich discoveries have been made since last month, though the entire quartz body is good bearing rock.

Death of Oglesby's Father-in-Law.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., Aug. 25.—John D. Gillett, the cattle king of Illinois, father-in-law of Governor Oglesby, of that state, died here Saturday morning of a complicated kidney and heart trouble. He leaves a widow, one son, J. F. Gillett, and six daughters, Mrs. Oglesby, Mrs. David T. Tittler, Mrs. J. E. Hill, and Misses Jessie, Amy and Nina Gillett.

Fatal Derrick Accident.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 27.—While a flat-car was being raised to the track on the Michigan Central railroad Sunday afternoon, the derrick used for the purposes fell over into a crowd of sight-seers. Two brothers named Collier were instantly killed, and several others were injured. Some of the latter will die.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion.

ALLEGAN, Mich., Aug. 21.—The tenth annual reunion of the Southwestern Soldiers' and Sailors' association is in progress here. Nearly 300 tenters are on the field. Among the people present are Governor Lapeer, Washington Gardner, and Col. Carr, of Illinois.

The Draft Was Worthless.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 27.—A man calling himself E. S. Burns and representing himself to be a lawyer for Savage & Green, of South Omaha, Neb., bought 118 steers from Cunningham & Haas, of St. Paul. Burns is a very smooth talker, and presented a draft on Savage & Green for $3,374.20 in payment for the steers. He then disappeared and sold the steers, realizing a nice little sum by the transaction, though he could afford to sell them for a loss, as the draft which he gave proved to be absolutely worthless. Savage & Green disclaim having any such man in their employ, and know nothing of the transaction. A warrant was issued, requisition papers on the governor of Nebraska were made out, and Detective Dan O'Connor started for Omaha, having learned that Burns had fled to Nebraska.

A Female Tramp Arrested.

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 27.—A female tramp, dressed in male attire, was arrested here Sunday. She at first denied her sex, but her hand and voice betrayed her. She then said her name was Jennie Sanford, alias Burns. She is 20 years of age, has her hair cut close, and possesses fairly good features. She said her home was in Jackson, Mich., where she has a step-mother and brother and sister living. She said she was born in Camden, N. Y., and has an aunt living at Taberg, Oneida county.

Stopped Work on a Railroad.

ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 28.—Orders were given out Monday morning to Henry & Balch to stop work on the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic extension to West Superior. That road has made an agreement to use the Northern Pacific tracks. The immediate cause of this is supposed to be the president's retaliatory message, as the South Shore is virtually owned by the Canadian Pacific.

Reception to a German Princess.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A reception was given by prominent German residents of New York at Terrace garden Monday evening to Professor Von Esmark and his wife, Princess Henrietta of Schleswig-Holstein. The princess presented a purse of $300 to be used toward the relief of the poor natives of Schleswig-Holstein residing in New York. Much enthusiasm was displayed.

The New Bishop of Detroit.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 28.—The papal brief appointing Rev. Dr. John S. Foley to the bishopric of Detroit was received by Cardinal Gibbons. No day has yet been set for the consecration, but it will take place before November.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, sores breaking out on them in various places. My little boy, three years old, has been a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we have all taken it. The result is that all have been cured of the scrofula, my little boy being entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. ATHERTON, Passaic City, N. J.

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

PROTECTION OR FREE TRADE?

An Examination of the Tariff Question with Especial Regard to the Interests of Labor.

BY HENRY GEORGE.

CLOTH, $1.50. PAPER, 35 CENTS.

This is the clearest, fairest, most interesting and most complete examination of the tariff question yet made, and will prove invaluable to all who wish to understand the subject.

The most thorough investigation of the subject that has yet been put in type—New York News.

The appearance of this book marks a new epoch in the world-wide struggle for free trade. Henry George has a power of putting economic truths in such a clear and simple language that any child can understand him, while the most learned man can enjoy the accuracy of his statements and the suggestiveness of his thoughts.—Thomas G. Shearman in New York Star.

A book which every workingman in the land can read with interest and ought to read.—New York Herald.

Whoever wants to see the strongest argument—no only against protection, but against all tariffs—will find it here.—Christian Union.

The singular success of Mr. George's that he has made political economy interesting.—Unitarian Review.

CAUTION.

Beware of Fraud, as my name and the price are stamped on the bottom of all my advertised shoes before leaving the factory, which protect the wearers against high prices and inferior goods. If a dealer offers W. L. Douglas shoes at a reduced price, or says he has them without my name and price stamped on the bottom, put him down as a fraud.

W. L. DOUGLAS

FOR GENTLEMEN.

The only one that is made without tacks or nails. As stylish and durable as those costing $5 or $6, and having no tacks or nails to wear the stockings or hurt the feet, makes them as comfortable and well-fitting as a hand sewed shoe. Buy the best. None genuine unless stamped on bottom "W. L. Douglas $3 Shoe, warranted."

W. L. Douglas $4 Shoe, the original and only hand sewed welt $4 shoe, which equals custom made shoes costing from $6 to $9.

W. L. Douglas $2.50 Shoe is unequalled for comfort and durability. It is worn by all boys, and is the best shoe in the world.

All the above goods are made in Congress, Button and Lace, and if not sent by your dealer, write W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

Estate of Chester Parsons.
STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, ss.
At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw held at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on Tuesday, the 21st day of August 1888, the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.
Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.
In the matter of the estate of Chester Parsons, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alfred D. Parsons, praying that the docket of said deceased, widow of said deceased may be admitted and assigned to her and that commissions be appointed for that purpose.
Thereupon it is ordered, that on Tuesday, the 19th day of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the ANN ARBOR ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
