WHAT CONGRESSMAN GORMAN HAS TO SAY.

The Farmers' Clubs—A Student Injured—County Physician's Report—No Free Beds at the Hospital—Selected to Teach.

The Junior Ex.

The annual literary exhibition given by the members of the junior class of the high school, will take place this evening at High School Hall, the program being as follows: "A Bit of Historic Scenery," Howard Coffin; "Forgetfulness," Nellie M. Brokaw; "The Great Command," Leila M. Childs; "An Epoch in Our History," William A. Mogk; "Humbugs," J. H. Montgomery; "Borrowing," Cora A. Robinson; "China and the Young Nations," E. E. Osenburg; "Reading the Future," G. H. Paltridge; "The Argentine Republic," A. G. St. John; "On the Fence," G. W. Smith; "Gustavus Adolphus," May E. Thompson.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

Mrs. Eliza Jones, widow of the late James Jones, died at her home on Broadway, Thursday morning at an advanced old age. She has been very feeble for several years and her death was the result of old age and dropsy.

The deceased was born in New York state in 1805 and was in the 85th year of her life. She was married to James Jones in Ontario co., N. Y., and came with her husband to Ann Arbor at an early day, when this city was but a struggling hamlet. She was a bright, kind-hearted Christian woman who counted her friends of a life-time in this city by the hundreds.

She leaves six children as follows: Mrs. Edgar White, Mrs. Helen N. Minnie and James T. Jones, of Port Huron; Charles M. Jones, of Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Sarah Crowell and John W. Jones, of this city.

The funeral will be held at the residence on Broadway, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Will Have Certificates to Teach.

Following is a list of those who passed the examination held by county Board of School Examiners, at the court house on March 3rd and 4th:

SECOND GRADE: Marie Kirchhofer, Mary Agnes Miller.

THIRD GRADE: Lizzie Moore, Carrie Klager, Mabel Wallace, Hattie Bostwick, Walter F. Stimpson, Myrta Baird, Berta Kalambach, Mamie E. Murdock, A. L. Boyden, Blanche A. Gage, Mary M. Polhemus, Mary A. Chalmers, Blanche Forbes, Emma Taylor, Charles W. Miller, Maggie Miller, Maud L. Watkins, Julia E. Coe, Hattie W. Stedman, Callie Kelsey, Ethie Sangree, Bessie A. Loud, Allie Perry, Jacob Schultz, Jessie E. Roe, Helen Duncan, Ben Huehl, Vernon J. Hooper, Agnes Hawkins, Ada L. Roe, Cora E. Lyon, Fanny VanGieson, Irene Mills, Jessie Bush, Frank Detting, Ethel Chubb, Allie Hamel, Estella Forbes.

Struck a Hard Blow.

On Friday afternoon George F. Key, a student in the mechanical engineering department, met with a serious accident. He was working in the mechanical laboratory, in the opposite side of the room another student being engaged at work at a large wood lathe. This student was careless in placing a piece of wood in the lathe, not fastening it tight enough. He then started the lathe running at a high rate of speed, which soon loosened the wood and threw it across the room with the force of a cannon ball. The piece struck Mr. Key on the left shoulder, breaking his collar-bone and cutting his face and ear. He was taken to the University Hospital and his injuries dressed. He is improving but it will be several weeks before he will be able to be about again.

Mr. Key is a married man and moved to this city several months ago. He was for several years a teacher in the Normal school and more recently superintendent of the construction of the sewerage system of Ypsilanti.

Trying to Throw it into Politics.

The Detroit Tribune recently stated that Edward Duffy had written to Chairman Holman, of the committee on public buildings, in which he said that the Democrats of this city were not in favor of having a public building here, and many other similar statements. The report purports to be a dispatch from the Washington correspondent of that paper. Mr. Duffy states that the report is an accomplished juggling of his letter. He wrote to Mr. Holman as a private citizen, opposing the bill, on account of his property interests in the vicinity, but in his letter he mentioned neither of the political parties. There is little doubt but that a large majority of our citizens are in favor of the public building provided for our city by Congressman Gorman's bill and the Tribune report is merely an attempt to bring a matter into politics which has no place there, and by getting up a political strife kill the bill. Both the parties should be above throwing this question into politics and work together for the common interest and welfare of the city.

What Gorman Thinks About It.

The Grand Rapids Democrat yesterday printed the following in its Washington dispatches:

"Representative Gorman is greatly surprised at certain new developments in the Ann Arbor public building bill affairs. By diligent work and the cooperation of many of his influential colleagues, Mr. Gorman has succeeded in having the Ann Arbor bill placed in an advantageous position at the head of Michigan measures of a like character. There is an excellent prospect, therefore, that it will be passed by the house when the first batch of new bills is brought in. Mr. Gorman is now credibly informed, however, that J. E. Beal, the owner of the building in which the Ann Arbor postoffice is now located, is industriously engaged in circulating a petition addressed either to the house of representatives or to the committee on public buildings and grounds remonstrating against the passage of the Ann Arbor bill, on the ground that there is no necessity for the erection of the building at this time. This opposition is unexpected. Said Mr. Gorman today: 'It is not of a character to give me much concern. The self interest which actuates this movement is clear to any one and this petition will therefore fail to have any influence with the committee or with the house.' The incident serves to recall the stories current in previous Congresses as to the understanding between the owner of the present postoffice building and Representative Gorman's predecessor in the house, which was said to have retarded this movement to secure a public building for Ann Arbor."

Two Farmers' Clubs Meet.

The Webster Farmer's club met at W. E. Boyden's, last Saturday. Ray McColl read "The Brakeman at Church," and Miss Flora Lincoln recited "Grandmother's Funeral." R. C. Reeves read a paper on the disadvantages the farmers found in the want of an organization to control the market. Other professions had associations. Rev. Mr. Morris thought the man who worked with the contented man. Hon. William Ball said the hardest working men were found in the shops and stores. Mr. Gibbon, of the Michigan Farmer, thought transportation was a great factor in prices. Carbolic acid and water was suggested as a remedy for freeing sheep of ticks.

The Saline Farmers' club met at S. R. Crittenden's, last Friday. It was decided that stinking smut had been known in the vicinity of Saline for thirty years. The proposed creamery and race track at Saline were discussed and contrasted with each other. It was decided that a college education was desirable for farmers' boys and girls. It was thought beneficial for Merino sheep raisers to dip their flocks once a year as a remedy for the ticks. Free delivery of mail in the country was advocated. Congressman Gorman was petitioned to urge an amendment to the free wool bill before congress putting manufactured wool also on the free list. The next meeting was set for April's at George S. Wood's.

POLITICAL HARI-KARI.
Or how the protective tariff works with the farmer.

"The Day We Celebrate."

The celebration in honor of Ireland's patron saint by the congregation of St. Thomas' parish was a greater success than was anticipated and those, especially the ladies, who had the affair in charge are to be congratulated upon the result.

The rink where the banquet was held last evening was a beautiful scene. The banquet tables were decorated with streamers of various colored bunting tastefully hung. Through the center of the large rink three long tables stretched the entire length, the tables being bountifully filled with a delicate banquet prepared by the hands of the ladies of the parish. By 8 o'clock the large hall was comfortably filled and by 8:30 not less than seven hundred guests were present.

In the center of the hall on the west side a large stage had been erected, and from this point an orchestra discoursed sweet music during the banquet. About 8:30 those of the vast crowd who could find places at the tables, availed themselves of the chance and proceeded to enjoy the good things which had been provided. At the head of the table near the stage sat John V. Sheehan, the toastmaster of the evening, flanked on either side by the honored guests who had been chosen to make the responses to the toasts. Covers were laid for 270 and to accommodate the large number present, it was necessary to re-set the tables twice and part of them a third time, so that it was nearly 10:30 when the exercises of the evening began.

The first on the program was a cornet solo by Gerald Collins which was so well rendered that the audience called upon him to play an encore before allowing him to retire.

John V. Sheehan, the toastmaster of the evening, in his introductory remarks, said: "We are called together to celebrate the day which is dear to every Irish heart and which our forefathers have celebrated for centuries before us. All men of Irish descent are celebrating this day and no excuse is needed because we of Irish extraction celebrate this day under the stars and stripes, for in all the battles of the rebellion the Irishmen demonstrated their valor. We therefore extend to you who are gathered together an Irishman's greatest gift, coming from Irish hearts, an Irishman's hospitality."

After "The Star Spangled Banner," by the Business Men's Quartette, Mr. Sheehan introduced Rev. Fr. McLaughlin, of Trinity church, Detroit, who spoke of the sentiment, "The Day We Celebrate." The gentleman, who is a pleasing speaker, said, "The sentiment to which I respond finds a place in the heart of every man who loves justice. It is with the warmest feelings that we greet his honor Mayor Doty and his excellency Governor Winans, and the people whom they represent to our midst. Fourteen hundred years ago the Irish selected the 17th of March and dedicated it to St. Patrick, who brought Christianity to Ireland's shores. This day has for centuries taught the Irish that true sentiment which finds a place in every Irish heart—'Old Ireland Forever, God bless her.' Patriotism and religion go hand in hand in the Irish character. The early sun which rose in Europe this morning found the Irish settled in the eastern countries celebrating this day and as it crossed to this side it finds the same race here offering the same honors. What the Fourth of July is to the American, St. Patrick's Day is to the Irish."

Miss May Clarken rendered a fine harp solo and was honored with a recall.

Gov. Winans, as he was introduced by the toastmaster, received round after round of the U. of M. yell from the students present, much to his enjoyment. His sentiment was "Michigan," and in response he said: "In responding to this sentiment I can safely say that there is no citizen of the state who does not take a just pride in Michigan. To be a worthy citizen of a state which ranks high in the sisterhood of the Union is a greater honor than to have been a Roman citizen. The history of Michigan is unique. It was owned first by France, then by England and then the United States. It was a part of the great Northwest territory, then of Indiana and finally a territory by itself. It was surrendered to the British during the war of 1812 but was retaken. It was the thirteenth new state admitted to the Union, just doubling the original number. Only seven surpass it in manufacturing, four in wool raising, and its stands first in the production of salt, copper, iron and fish. It is a great commonwealth, made so by the intelligence of the people. Among those who came early to this country was my father, who settled at Osborne's mills. Ann Arbor was then a hamlet, it is now a great University town where young men congregate from all parts of the world. The people of Michigan are now denied no privilege which is granted to most favored people on earth."

His excellency was roundly applauded as he retired, the Business Men's Quartette then singing an original composition which they had dedicated to Rev. Frs. Kelly and Goldrick.

"The Prose and Poetry of Ireland" was responded to by Rev. Fr. Halley, of Monroe, who traced the literature of Ireland from the dark ages down to the present time, showing how it thrived under persecution and disadvantages.

"Our Schools" was made the sentiment of M. J. Cavanaugh, secretary of the County Board of School Examiners. He gave some interesting figures and drew out the advantages of the great educational system of the state and its influence on the government.

That popular sentiment, "The U. of M.," was responded to by P. J. Halley, law '91, of Detroit. His response was one of the best of the evening and the thoughts expressed showed deep research and thought.

It being past midnight, it was found necessary to cut nearly all the musical parts from the program, and the responses concluded with the sentiment, "The Ladies," to which Mayor Wm. G. Doty responded in a happy and felicitous manner, paying his respects to the ladies and not forgetting to score a few of the unmarried men in the audience.

The evening was fittingly closed by a recitation by Miss Nona O'Brien.

THE SONG OF THE "No. 9." My dress is of fine polished oak, As rich as the finest fur cloak, And for handsome design You just should see mine— No. 9, No. 9. I'm beloved by the poor and the rich, For both I impartially stitch; In the cabin I shine, In the mansion I'm fine— No. 9, No. 9. I never get surly nor tired, With zeal I always am fired; To hard work I incline, For rest I ne'er pine— No. 9, No. 9. I am easily purchased by all, With instalments that monthly do fall; And when I am thine, Then life is benign— No. 9, No. 9. To the Paris Exposition I went, Upon getting the Grand Prize intent; I left all behind, The Grand Prize was mine— No. 9, No. 9.

At the Universal Exposition of 1889, at Paris, France, the best sewing machines of the world, including those of America, were in competition. They were passed upon by a jury composed of the best foreign mechanical experts, two of whom were the leading sewing machine manufacturers of France. This jury, after exhaustive examination and tests, adjudged that the Wheeler & Wilson machines were the best of all, and awarded that company the highest prize offered—the GRAND PRIZE—giving other companies only gold, silver and bronze medals.

The French government, as a further recognition of superiority, decorated Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, president of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor—the most prized honor of France. The No. 9, for family use, and the No. 12, for manufacturing uses, are the best in the world to-day.

And now, when you want a sewing machine, if you do not get the best it will be your own fault. Ask your sewing machine dealer for the No. 9 Wheeler & Wilson machine. If he doesn't keep them, write to us for descriptive catalogue and terms. Agents wanted in all unoccupied territory. WHEELER & WILSON MFG. CO. Chicago, Ill.

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY.

Why don't all shoe manufacturers stamp their names on the shoes they make and guarantee them to give proper service? Simply because they do not open their eyes to Shoddy and Inferior Stock to save a few cents per pair, leaving the consumer to take chances of their breaking after a short time.

For over a Quarter of a Century

We have been devoting our energies to making durable and artistic footwear at reasonable prices, and have a standing offer of 1,000.00 DOLLARS REWARD!

For shoddy or spurious leather of any kind found in any shoe of our manufacture. Ten to twenty-five cents per pair is a small amount to save in purchasing a pair of shoes and take chances of poor service, and perhaps spoil your feet by ill-fitting, ungainly appearing shoes, which will be a source of vexation instead of pride.

Nothing Adds More to the Appearance of a Well-Dressed Person than a well-made, properly-fitted shoe, for, as Thackeray well said, "Poverty first attacks one at the extremities." Since the inception of our firm in 1866, our senior partner,

H. S. PINGREE, has had supervision of the entire business, and from a small start it has increased to one of the largest in the West our sales now exceeding Democratic State Convention.

The Democrats of Michigan will meet in state convention in the Muskegon Opera House, in the city of Muskegon, on Wednesday, May 4th, 1892, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of electing twenty-eight delegates to the Democratic National Convention called to meet at Chicago, June 21st, 1892; for the selection of a Democratic State Central Committee to serve for the ensuing two years, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

This convention will elect two delegates and two alternates at large from the Eastern Electoral district; two delegates and two alternates at large from the Western Electoral district; twenty-four Congressional District delegates and twenty-four Congressional District alternates (two delegates and two alternates from each Congressional district). It will also choose two members of the Democratic State Central Committee from each Congressional district, and a chairman of the State Central Committee from the State at large.

According to the rule adopted by the Democratic state convention held at Detroit in 1889 and since adhered to, every county in the state is entitled to one delegate to the state convention for each 500 votes cast for Governor at the last general election and one additional delegate for a fraction of not less than 250 votes. But each county is entitled to at least two delegates. All delegates must be residents of the counties they represent.

The delegates from each Congressional district will meet in caucus at 10 o'clock a. m. on the day of the convention at places to be hereafter designated and select candidates for recommendation to the convention for two district delegates, two district alternates, two members of the State Central Committee, vice president of the convention and one member for each of the following committees of the convention—Credentials, Permanent Organization and Order of Business, and Resolutions.

All voters of Michigan who favor the repeal of unjust laws permitting taxation for purposes other than the general benefit of the economically conducted; who desire reform in the prodigal expenditures of the public money and who are in sympathy with the declarations of principles of the Democratic party are cordially invited to participate in the selection of delegates to this convention.

DANIEL J. CAMPAU,

FRANK H. HOSFORD, Sec'y. Chairman. ALFRED J. MURPHY, Asst. Sec'y.

Under this call Washtenaw county is entitled to a representation of 18 delegates.

Second "—18 "

Third "—15 "

Fourth "—15 "

Fifth "—8 "

Sixth "—8 "

By order of Committee.

EDWARD DUFFY, Chairman.

J. E. Beal is at Washington.

Who is to-day the most popular man in the country? Grover Cleveland. Who will poll the greatest number of independent votes? Grover Cleveland. Who will poll the greatest number of democratic votes? Grover Cleveland. The people want Cleveland. The politicians may as well put that fact down as settled, and if they are wise politicians they will not attempt to defeat the will of the people.

The boomerang which the Hon. David B. Hill threw with such force at ex-President Cleveland on February 22, missed its mark, and with the peculiar characteristic of that instrument returned to the thrower, striking him with such force as to knock him clear off the presidential track. The Cleveland wave is now surging from one end of the country to the other, carrying every obstruction before it that has crossed its path. Cleveland is growing in popularity every day, and states that were figured solidly against him in the estimates a few weeks ago, are now divided or have come out solid for Cleveland. One of the most striking illustrations of this is Pennsylvania, which was counted solid for Hill but a few days ago; but the feeling has now changed, and Cleveland will be given more votes by this state in the convention than Hill. In Michigan, Cleveland is almost the unanimous first choice of the party.

The Cleveland sentiment remains unchanged. He is emphatically the living embodiment of the great democratic issue of tariff reform, an issue sure to win if unincumbered by side issues.

It behooves the democrats of the various townships to nominate their strongest men. They owe it as a duty to the people every year. Besides that as this is a presidential year, they owe it, also, to their party.

City politics are exceptionally quiet for this time of year. This means that the city is in good hands. The fact that there is a larger balance in the city treasury than was there this time last year is encouraging. The election this year will be a quiet one. The absence of poll workers will be noticeable, and every one will have an opportunity to cast a quiet vote.

The democrats will open a school of instruction in this city next Wednesday evening at which the regular election forms will be observed. Inspectors of elections from the adjoining townships would do well to make it a point to be present at this school some evening to familiarize themselves with the system of voting which it will be their duty to explain to the voters in their various townships. At the elections so far held from five to ten per cent of the vote cast has been defective. A little practice at this school would largely decrease the amount of defective voting and the practise given will be as good as that obtained at the regular elections.

Meeting of the Regents.

The regular meeting of the Board of Regents was held Wednesday. Those present were Kiefer, Butterfield, Draper, Cocker and Cook.

William P. Walter, having finished his work in the medical department, was given the degree of M. D. J. O. Reed was appointed assistant to Prof. H. S. Carhart for the remainder of the year at a salary of $300.

The remainder of the time was occupied in discussing plans for the erection of the Waterman Gymnasium. The bids were all in excess of the available cash, which is $48,000. It was decided to go ahead and get the walls up at least, which can be done at a probable cost of from $40,000 to $45,000. This will not include the finishing of the inside or placing of the equipment. The secretary was authorized to advertise for amended bids upon the following propositions:

1. For laying the foundation and enclosing the buildings, including the frame work for the running track and all partitions.

2. For laying the foundation and enclosing the department intended for the use of the male students.

3. For laying the foundations and enclosing the buildings intended for the use of the male students, leaving out the building for the young ladies.

Alderman Hall, chairman of the special committee appointed by the council to confer with the Regents relative to free beds in the hospital, appeared before the board and stated the request of the council. The regents stated their inability at present to grant the request on account of a lack of funds.

The Sackett Memorial Organ.

The new Sackett memorial organ of the Presbyterian church, which it has taken three weeks to put in place and tune, is now ready for use, and is a first class instrument in every respect. It is the third in size of all organs manufactured for this state by Farrand & Votey, of Detroit. The casing is made of black walnut and batterned to correspond with the inside finish of the church. The organ is 17 feet in width, 7 1/2 feet in depth and 20 feet in height. It has 1,250 pipes, 27 stops, and a new patented crescendo pedal, worked by a foot lever, producing six different combinations. The motive power will be run by a three-fourths horse power motor, which, when it has filled the bellows or air box with air, stops until the organist commences to use the keys, then it starts again. When the motor is not in use, the air box can be filled by a hand lever. This organ cost $4,000, and is the gift of Mrs. Louisa Sackett, of Ann Arbor. Farrand & Votey are having a large trade in their line. They have put in the 1st Presbyterian church of Detroit, a $10,000 organ, are building one for Staunton, Pa., to cost $15,000, and are rebuilding one in Salt Lake City for the Mormon temple at a cost of $30,000.—Courier.

New Band.

At a meeting of band men, held Tuesday night, a new band was organized, consisting of 18 of the best musicians of the city and college. They have quite a collection of classical music, and under the direction of Prof. Gerald W. Collins are playing some very fine pieces. They have contracted music for several prominent occasions in the future and are open to any engagement and probably when warm weather comes will give some out-door concerts. The new band will be known as Collins' Band.

Colds are quite prevalent again since the cold wave visited us the first of the week.

Mrs. Cora Croman left last Tuesday to join her husband who is at San Barnadino, Cal.

Chas. Cooper has sold his farm near North Lake and will move to Isabella county the first of April.

J. D. Schnaitman, of the Ann Arbor organ works, spent Sunday and Monday with his family here.

F. W. Cooper, and wife, of Saline, spent the first of the week among relatives and friends about here.

The Catholic people have an entertainment at the town hall Thursday night in honor of St. Patrick's day.

Presiding Elder Ryan held quarterly meeting last Sunday morning at Dexter and at Chelsea in the evening.

A large number of our people went to Dexter Wednesday night to attend the revival meetings in progress there.

It is reported that the sharp cold wave that visited us the first of this week did much injury to the bare wheat fields.

Three persons were taken into the M. E. church last Sunday by letter, nine on profession of faith and thirty on probation.

The donation for Elder Conrad Tuesday evening was largely attended and $110 were realized. This is very complimentary to the elder and shows that his labors are appreciated by the people.

Wheat continues on the downward road and probably will not stop till it reaches 85c in Detroit. It now stands at 85c here for red or white, rye 80c, oats 30c, barley $1.10, beans $1.15, clover seed $6.75, dressed pork $5.50, eggs 13c, butter 18c, potatoes 20c.

The election here last Monday was a very quiet affair, though an unusually large vote was polled. There were 278 votes cast and the following officers were elected by majorities from 16 to 116: President, Wm. Bacon; clerk, A. E. Winans; trustees, G. J. Crowell, Wm. Reimenschneider, and J. M. Whitaker; treasurer, F. W. Roedell; assessor, J. P. Wood; constable, Edward Moore. The new voting arrangements seem to have effectually dispensed with bulldozers and ward heelers.

The golden beams of truth and the silken cords of love twisted together, will draw men on with a sweet violence whether they will or no.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the Horse Blanket is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

When L. C. An unmistakable second-term smile discomposd the features of Mr. Cleveland.

Estate of Edward J. Morton. STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Monday the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, J. Willard Babbitt, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Edward J. Morton, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified of Eliza Morton and John W. Morton, praying for admission of said estate may be granted to William H. Morton, or some other suitable person.

Whereupon it is ordered, that Tuesday the 6th day of April next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition and that the heirs at law, of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioners should not be granted. And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the ANN ARBOR ARGUS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

J. WILLARD BABBITT, Judge of Probate. Wm. G. Dory, Probate Register.

GILLETT'S MAGIC YEAST

Quickest and Best.

NONE BUT MAGIC WILL MAKE BREAD THAT PREVENTS DYSPEPSIA.

NO OTHER EQUALS OR APPROACHES IT IN LEAVENING STRENGTH, PURITY, AND WHOLESOMENESS.

NEVER A FAILURE.

The Red River Valley of Minnesota and North Dakota has never had a failure of crops.

It produced 30,000,000 bushels of wheat besides other cereals in 1890.

Farms can be had on the crop plan, or long time cash payments.

It is not an uncommon thing to pay for a farm from the proceeds of one crop.

It has all of the advantages of an old country in the shape of school, church, market, postal & railway facilities and all the chances of a new country in the way of cheap lands, rich soil, and increase in values.

It is one of the most fertile and promising regions in America not yet fully occupied.

In the rush to the far west, however, this rich valley has been over-looked.

It has room for a million more people.

The Saturday Edition

The Chicago Herald

Is a handsome sixteen-page weekly newspaper, filled with the most entertaining reading that brilliant minds, well trained in every department of literature, can produce. It has the advantage of the fast-mail service and is delivered at the majority of post-offices on day of publication.

THE CHICAGO HERALD is the foremost journalistic champion of Western interests, and believing that these are assailed by the protective tariff, it is an uncompromising opponent of a system that takes from the many to enrich the few. THE HERALD is broadly and progressively democratic in politics, but it is bound to no party, save as that party stands for principle and justice. Believing that the safety of the republic now demands a return to constitutional methods, to economy in administration, to the obliteration of war passions and to the summary defeat of the powerful interests that have allied themselves with the leaders of the republican party for the purpose of promoting selfish interests at the expense of the whole people, THE HERALD favors return of the democracy to power and will labor intelligently to that end.

A special feature of THE SATURDAY EDITION OF THE HERALD, and one to which much space is devoted, is the weekly record of the progress of the World's Fair, with fine illustrations. This alone makes it indispensable to those who intend to visit the fair, and to those who do not a comprehensive description will be the next best thing.

In addition to this THE SATURDAY EDITION OF THE HERALD contains a synopsis of the news of the week, full Market Reports, a Household Department, Completed Stories by popular authors, Book Reviews, "Gossip of the Stage," Base Ball, Turf and Athletic Sports, and last, but by no means least, the news of the world attractively presented and truthfully told. No better investment than a year's subscription can be made.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

A movement is on foot to organize a U. of M. camera club. The DePauw University Quartette will appear in this city April 16. The competing photographers for class pictures are already in the field. The Cornell Glee and Banjo Clubs will give a concert in this city, March 31st. The baseball team will take a western trip, provided guarantees of expenses can be made. The Inlander offers two prizes, $50 and $25, for the best story and the best literary article. The March number of the Inlander is an "Alumnae" edition, all the contributions being by ladies. The University Republican Club, following the example of its Democratic brother, will give a big banquet, May 1st. About 160 dents and medics have applied for admission to the course in practical anatomy which commences Monday. The Cleveland Athletic Club has cancelled the date set for a game with the U. of M. ball team, offering June 4th instead. Prof. Stanley has had a number of applications for membership to the Choral Union from parties living outside this city. The Athletic Association needs more money. It has not enough on hand now to insure the expenses of the baseball team on the eastern trip. The president of the freshman class has appointed a committee of ten to collect the tax of fifty cents per capita recently levied for the support of the baseball team. The Glee and Banjo Clubs' concert on Friday evening was only a partial financial success. The concert was good and the audience highly pleased. A game has finally been arranged with the Cornell baseball team. It will be played on May 30th, either on the D. A. C. grounds, in Detroit, or on the new athletic grounds in this city. A. C. Gormley, one of the law quiz-masters, left Sunday evening for White Sulphur Springs, Montana, where he will engage in practice with one of the leading attorneys of that state. A joint debate was held Saturday evening between the senior and junior laws. The subject for discussion was "Resolved, That the World's Fair should be open to the public on Sunday," the seniors, who had the negative, winning the debate. The University Glee and Banjo Clubs received over $400 for the part that they gave at the recent "benefit" for the Woman's Annex to the gymnasium, at Detroit. The Clubs received considerably more of the "benefit" than the annex fund will. The address of Rev. Washington Gladden, under the auspices of the Political Science Association, Monday evening, was one the best ever given in University Hall. His subject was "Abraham Lincoln," and it was well handled. As an orator, Rev. Gladden has few peers. Oratorical Contest. The second annual contest of the U. of M. Oratorical Association takes place in University Hall this evening. The winner will be the U. of M. representative in the Northern Oratorical League contest which takes place at Evanston this year in May. The League is composed of Oberlin, Northwestern University, University of Wisconsin, the U. of M., and the University of Iowa. It is quite probable that the University of Minnesota will be admitted before the contest, so that her representative can take part in the contest. A great deal of interest has been manifested as to who will be the winner this evening. The seven contestants represent three literary classes and two law classes, so there is rivalry between the departments as well as between classes. The contest will be one of the best entertainments of the year. The Freshman Glee Club furnishes the music. Remember that S. L. A. season ticket holders will be admitted on those tickets. The program is as follows: "Castelar, the Democrat"—I. B. Lipson, law '93. "The Man in the Statesman"—C. A. Bowen, lit. '92. "The Growth of Internationalism"—N. J. McGuire, law '92. "Education and the State"—D. F. Wilcox, lit. 94. Music—Freshman Glee Club. "American Materialism"—J. E. Roberts, law '92. "The Relation of the State to the Christ"—J. B. Johnston, lit. '93. "The Tendency of Modern Dualism"—W. A. Cutler, lit. '92. Music—Freshman Glee Club. Report of Judges. Horses For Sale. Parties wishing to buy horses will find it to their interest to call on Wallace, Noyes & Co., at Kittredge's barn, Ann Arbor, Mich. All horses guaranteed or money refunded. 6-12 WALLACE, NOYES & CO. IMPORTANT TO TENANTS. We have so many inquiries concerning the recent adjustment of the suit against us for rent of the building we occupied as a shoe factory, and which was destroyed by fire March 30, 1887, and there doubtless being many tenants who do not understand the law in relation to the effect of a fire on leased buildings, that we take this opportunity of explaining the matter fully. Our lease, at the time the building was destroyed, had about two years to run at an annual rental of $3,200. This was half of our factory; the other half in the rear owned by other parties being separated by a brick wall. The landlord of the burned building collected an insurance of about $20,000, which left him the lot valued at $24,000; and, as he had awhile before offered to sell us the property for $38,000, he was gainers by over $10,000 through the fire. We were very much surprised to receive bill for rent after the building was destroyed and the property of no possible use to us, and, of course, would not pay the same until the matter was contested in our courts. A trial in the Wayne County Circuit Court resulted in a verdict against us for the full amount of the rent for the unexpired time of the lease. It developed, however, in course of the proceedings, that the lease was signed by the landlord's attorney and good for but one year, as the fact was established that he did not have authority in writing to sign leases. On this point, we appealed to the Supreme Court of Michigan, and were sustained, so that we were relieved from paying rent through this technicality. Recently the plaintiff commenced suit again on same lease, claiming to have discovered new evidence relative to its validity, and while our attorneys were confident that nothing could be collected by suit we settled the claim for $750, which was just about what we figured it would cost us to contest it. It behooves all tenants to see that there is a fire clause in their leases providing that in case of destruction of the buildings, rent shall cease until they are replaced by the landlord. Why not have this law changed at next session of Legislature, as it is in Massachusetts and New York? Ask your next Representative about it. PINGREE & SMITH, Shoe Manufacturers. DETROIT, March 4, 1892.
