REPUBLICANS CHARGE

All Democrats to be Office Holders, Office Seekers, or University Professors.

COMEDY OF THEIR COUNTY CONVENTION.

Sentenced to Prison for Cause.—A New Lecture Course.—Nominated for Senator, Etc., Etc.

The Republican Convention.

It is very evident that the Republicans do not expect to elect their county ticket in Washtenaw this fall. Their convention Tuesday did not look like it, and the ticket nominated does not strike one as composed of such political hustlers and vote getters as would be necessary to pull down the heavy democratic majority in Washtenaw. In fact there was a good deal of comedy about the convention. The chairman said he had only one thought to impress upon the convention and that was that majorities in Washtenaw were excessive and when one of the men sought to be nominated declined on the ground that he couldn't qualify if elected, the answer that that need make no difference as he didn't stand the remotest show of being elected, was received with great applause and laughter.

A. F. Freeman, esq., of Manchester, was made chairman of the convention and E. F. Johnson, of Ann Arbor, secretary, after Evert H. Scott had declined the honor because not a delegate to the convention. The credentials committee consisted of E. F. Johnson, H. S. Boutelle and A. J. Waters. The committee on permanent organization and order of business was George H. Pond, Geo. S. Wheeler, George Rawson, W. S. Carpenter and J. T. Jacobs. The committee on resolutions was John L. Hunter, J. F. Lawrence, W. K. Childs, James Martin and William Dansingburg.

After dinner the convention bore a solemn look as if it measured the task before it. Upon the temporary officers being made permanent, the chair in measured tones told what an honor it was to preside over a Republican convention "anywhere and under any circumstances." The Democratic convention had given Ann Arbor all the offices, he said, (forgetting Ypsilanti, Scio, Pittsfield and the other towns whose candidates had succeeded). The remainder of the speech was devoted to the force bill and the doctrine of protection. That it was effective was shown by the fact that the only candidate from Ann Arbor on the Republican county ticket is a coroner.

The nomination for the office of sheriff being called for, A. J. Sawyer in an able effort presented the name of A. P. Ferguson, of Ann Arbor, "the only man he knew of who was willing to put his time and money into the canvas for that office." A third ward delegate jumped to his feet with the assertion that Mr. Ferguson had just told him that he would positively not accept the nomination. Fred Collum, also of the third ward, supplemented this with the remark that Ferguson wouldn't have it but Fillmore would. A delegate asked if William Burtless, of Manchester, who would win more votes in Southwestern Washtenaw than any other man who could be named, would take the nomination. The chair stated that Mr. Burtless told him he would not accept the nomination under any circumstances. W. K. Childs then nominated Frederick Wedemeyer, of Lima, because he had carried that Democratic town for supervisor. Mr. Wedemeyer was not present and couldn't decline. Fred Collum again took the floor to boom Fillmore. He didn't know as Fillmore would take it, but he could get the votes. A ballot was taken which resulted:

Wedemeyer91
Burtless1
Ferguson15
Fillmore10

On motion Mr. Wedemeyer was named as the candidate.

When nominations for judge of probate were called for, a long pause ensued; finally, after three or four minutes, George S. Wheeler, of Salem, arose, stating that he saw the convention had no candidate. He was about to do something he had never done before, and that was to place in nomination a Democrat. It was that of the man he had run against four years ago. He said he had made a sorry spectacle of it in the last campaign and Judge Babbitt had been unanimously elected or nearly so. He wished to name Judge Babbitt for probate judge. This

ST. THOMAS' MUSIC HALL.

The above is a cut of the new St. Thomas' Music Hall on Elizabeth street, near the Catholic school. It is used at present as a Catholic church and owing to its immense seating capacity every Catholic in seemed to rile William Burke, who stated with much vehemence that the convention had better put the whole Democratic ticket on and be done with it. H. D. Platt was placed in nomination. Mr. Wheeler said he saw the convention wasn't going to accept his nomination. The ballot resulted: H. D. Platt.....96

A. J. Sawyer.....5
A. F. Freeman.....7
Judge Babbitt.....3

Mr. Platt, upon being called for, stated that if elected he would take care of the widows, with such a peculiar emphasis upon the word "widows" that the convention roared.

This ended the balloting. John Keppler was unanimously nominated for treasurer. John Cook, of York, was unanimously named for clerk. So was C. P. McKinstry, of Ypsilanti, for register of deeds, and A. J. Waters, of Manchester, for prosecuting attorney. After eulogizing Patrick McKernan, Hon. A. J. Sawyer placed E. A. Pray, of Northfield, in the field for circuit court commissioner. He was nominated. After some trouble the second circuit court commissioner was found in D. C. Griffin, of Ypsilanti. Then Ann Arbor got its only office in W. K. Childs, for coroner. Dr. Owen, of Ypsilanti, was made the second coroner and Jerome Allen, from we don't know where, was named for surveyor. This completed the ticket.

The platform wasn't there, and on motion it was considered read and adopted. It arrived a little later and was read by J. F. Lawrence, who apologized for it and took pains to state that he did not compose it. It was short but meaty. After indorsing Harrison's administration and renewing the devotion of the convention to the principles of the Republican party, it contained this remarkable plank.

We condemn the doctrine of free trade as set forth in the Chicago Democratic platform and denounce the advocates of that doctrine as either office holders, office seekers, or university professors, who wish to buy books without paying duty upon them.

This remarkable plank was received with cheers, and yet with a few dubious looks from the wiser members of the convention. Democrats in the county when asked to vote for a Republican may ask themselves whether they are office holders, office seekers, or University professors. And the University professors may ask themselves why unworthy motives should be imputed to them.

The convention then held a sort of love feast to encourage drooping spirits. This was broddly stated by Robt. Campbell, who started it, by saying that he wished to hear some two-minute speeches to wake up the convention. He told how dull the campaign was. Several prominent Republicans made speeches telling how many Democrats were going to vote their ticket. As the delegates were filing out the convention adjourned.

Sentenced to Prison.

A number of prisoners were sentenced in the circuit court, Wednesday. They had plead guilty this week to the various charges brought against them.

William R. Smith, the slick agent who under pretense of being a general insurance agent, got Jas. R. Bach to indorse a draft for him, was given two years in state's prison at Jackson.

Silas T. Kane, guilty of the larceny of a satchel from a travelling man was sentenced to six months in the county jail.

Silas Tolbert, a colored man, was sentenced to a year and a half in Ionia for breaking in a freight car at Ypsilanti and larceny from the car.

Samuel Laws, colored, who plead guilty to adultery with a white woman named Jane Gahan, was sentenced to two years in Jackson prison.

George E. Bull, found guilty of attempting to kill one of his sons, was sentenced to a year in the prison at Jackson.

Joseph Scott, a colored chimney sweep, of Ypsilanti, was fined $50 for resisting Officer Eaton and Mayor Glover, and given three months in which to pay the fine.

Clark for Senator.

The Democratic convention to nominate a senator for the tenth district met at Manchester Friday morning. Capt. C. H. Manly, of Ann Arbor, was called to the chair and made a strong speech, full of enthusiastic predictions. Eugene D. Mosher, of Jackson, was selected as secretary.

Committees were appointed as follows, after which a recess was taken until 1:30.

Credentials—Michael Brenner, T. R. Crosby, Frank Koebbe.

Resolutions—Jno. O'Brien, D. A. Ferguson, Dr. D. P. McLachlan.

Permanent organization—Jas. Kelly, E. H. Howell, B. F. Wade.

Upon reassembling the committee on credentials reported that Jackson county was represented by twenty delegates and Washtenaw by eighteen.

The temporary officers were made permanent.

Dr. E. N. Palmer, of Brooklyn, presented as a candidate M. W. Clark, speaking of him as a farmer, a man of brains and energy.

D. A. Ferguson said his candidate was not a farmer. He named Rudolph Worch. He said he did not present his name as a German but as an American. He came to this country as a young boy, and when his father went to the front in command of the Sixty-eighth New York Infantry, Rudolph followed after and was taken prisoner. He read law; he is a fine linguist, a good speaker, a close reasoner, and a sound democrat.

The nomination of Mr. Clark was supported by E. H. Howell and H. C. Mead.

In behalf of Washtenaw county, N. Schmid said they had no candidate, but would give hearty support to the one nominated.

H. C. Mead and Thos. Jedele were appointed tellers. The informal ballot resulted as follows:

Clark18
Worch7
Blank15

Formal Ballot:

Clark19
Worch5
Blank11

The appointment of superintendent for Hope mission and other business was adjourned until next Wednesday evening.

The nomination of Mr. Clark was then made unanimous.

The nominee was then called to the front and returned his thanks. He said he would do his best to see that the Democratic majority in Jackson county was maintained. He did not claim to be a speech maker but before the campaign was over he would show that he could work.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That in the nominees of our national, state, and congressional conventions we have candidates worthy of our hearty, loyal and undivided support, and we assert that the democracy of the tenth senatorial district will be remiss in its duty should it fail to roll up for each of those candidates a round majority of 2,000.

We denounce, and in most emphatic terms, the efforts of the Republican party, as voted for by their representatives in congress and favored by Benjamin Harrison in his letter of acceptance, to subjugate the ballot to armed force, and we claim that the honest American voters need no safeguard in the exercise of their franchise except against the dangerous elective expedient known as the force bill now threatened by the Republican party.

The following were appointed senatorial committee for the next two years: Jackson county, Sanford Hunt, D. E. Haskins; Washtenaw, Nathaniel Schmid, D. P. McLachlan.

After hearty cheers for the Democratic nominees, national, state and local, the convention adjourned.—Jackson Patriot.

COUNTY.

A harvest home festival will be held at Saline this evening.

The county convention of the W. C. T. U. is closing a two days' session at Manchester today.

William Heller, of Saline, died in that village last week, aged 66 years, after a long and severe illness.

A new Catholic church was dedicated at Whitaker last Thursday by Bishop Foley, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Fr. DeBever.

The population of Ypsilanti is increasing at a rapid rate. Mrs. J. Scott, colored, became the mother of three babies, last Tuesday night—two girls and a boy.—Ypsilantian.

One of Wurster Brothers' horses was discovered a few mornings since to have been slashed in the hip with a knife in the hands of some inhuman wretch.—Manchester Enterprise.

Supervisor Burtless has been mourning the loss of his gold watch. He can't remember when he last saw it and don't know whether it is lost, estrayed or stolen.—Manchester Enterprise.

Dr. Kotts, of Manchester, for lack of a better subject has been practicing dissection upon himself. He stuck a knife into the calf of one of his legs the other day, inflicting a painful wound.

Will Herald raised this year, forty-five acres of beans. Fifteen acres of these beans are for the Sioux City Nursery, of Sioux City, Iowa. They are of the improved red Valentine variety.—South Lyon Picket.

The annual hunt, which is usually participated in by every person in the village who knows how to shoot a gun and can get a day off, will take place next Tuesday. There are about 20 persons chosen on each side.—Manchester Enterprise.

Some time in August, 1890, Ben Huston, who resides near Cherry Hill, left a traction engine in the road while he went into a house near by. Mrs. George Bryant drove along while the engine was standing there, when her horse, becoming frightened at it, sprang one side, throwing her out. The lady, it is alleged, afterwards died from the effects of the injuries received, and now Bryant has brought suit in the circuit court against Huston, claiming $5,000 damages.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

Prof. M. E. Cooley, in speaking of the worms that infest the oak trees and are now attacking the maples, said that the most effective way of keeping them out of the trees was to tie cotton batting about an inch thick about the trunk of the tree two or three feet from the ground. He says that in other cities where these worms have become very troublesome this has proved the most efficacious method of keeping them out of the trees. Tar does not always keep them down, but they can't get over the cotton.—Manchester Enterprise.

Prof. Bellows vacated his house and shipped his goods to Mt. Pleasant last week, and departed for his new field of labor. It could have been no small trial to surrender the key and turn his back upon a place that has been his home so many years, as Prof. Bellows has done. He planted every shrub and tree, and practically made everything that is there. In wishing that he may find plenty of comfort and happiness in his new home, and plenty of friends and sympathetic neighbors, we but express the thought of all the friends and neighbors he leaves here.—Ypsilantian.

A shrewd old farmer living near this city gave an itinerant spectacle man his "come-up-ens" recently. The peddler took up the granger's "specs" and asked him if he could read "them things." Answered in the negative, the traveller offered to fit rustic's eyes for $5 so he could read "as well as anybody." "Do it," said the tiller of the soil, "and I'll give you $10." With all the tricks of his profession the optician tried pair after pair until everything in his stock had been tested. As the old farmer laid down the last pair, he mildly remarked: "Pity I never learned to read, isn't it, it's so hard to fit my eyes." The peddler fainted.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

David Due, driver of Wallace & Clarke's delivery wagon, lost a baby last Saturday night, under peculiar and very distressing circumstances. Mr. and Mrs. Due had gone out in the evening, leaving three or four little children in bed, in charge of an older sister ten years old. She was roused by the little ones awaking and calling for water, and she brought the pail to the bed to serve them, then retired and left the pail standing by the bed. After all were asleep again, the baby rolled out of bed and fell head first into the pail of water, and drowned without awaking the others. When the parents returned, they were greeted by the distressing spectacle of the little one standing on its head in the pail, dead.—Ypsilantian.

The demand for telephone service has increased greatly in Ypsilanti, and ample arrangements have been made to meet the requirements.

The Ypsilanti Woolen Mills are very prosperous, employing an average of 250 hands the year round, and find ready sale for all underwear they manufacture at profitable prices.—Dexter Leader.

During the shower of last June, when the Baptist church was struck by lightning, an oak tree was struck by a bolt of electricity. The tree subsequently died. A few days since some workmen attempted to saw it down. Their task was well nigh completed when their saw encountered some hard substance which stopped further proceedings. When the tree fell, an axe was found in it which the saw had encountered; when, and by whom placed there, will remain a mystery. There had been a crevice in the tree where the axe was placed, which had grown completely over. The stump is hollow, the edge of the axe extending into the cavity, while some six inches of wood covered the head of the instrument.—Clinton Local.

There isn't a young man of any degree of respectability that would be seen walking up and down the streets in company with a drunken girl. You might search with a fine-tooth comb and not find a young man who would lock arms with a young lady and go off promenading, who was puffing away on a cigar or who was squirting tobacco juice around on the sidewalk. Girls have no hesitancy in accepting the company of the two latter characters, and too many of them are only too anxious to accept the company or the heart and hand of such young men. Society will become refined when girls will demand of boys who wish to pay them attention the same purity of character that boys today demand from girls. Over the heads of the young ladies of the land hang the possibilities of the greatest moral reform that ever swept over this country.—Chelsea Standard.

The Irish Neighbors' show at the Dexter Opera House last Friday evening failed to give satisfaction.

Davis Bros. & Co. now have one of the nicest delivery wagons in town. It was manufactured by Reider Bros.

The old sidewalk in front of L. D. Alley's store was torn up one night last week, but it was soon replaced by a new one next day.

Clover seed is a poor crop this year. Although it is only partly filled it is being cut on account of the high price being paid for the seed.

L. Tubbs, drayman of this place, was badly hurt by the western train last Thursday evening. Mr. Tubbs was standing close to the track when the train was moving and was thrown in such a manner that he broke his leg and collar bone.

Jessie Parsons had a mid-night visit last Saturday night in the shape of a bare-footed thief, who had gained entrance through the pantry window by cutting the screen, the window having been left open. Mrs. Parson awoke just in time to see the robber reaching for her dress, in which she had placed about thirteen dollars the evening before. When the thief found he was discovered he jumped out of the window and was tracked towards town next morning. Who the guilty party is is unknown.

A Michigan Central Railroad Employee Wins His Case, after Seven Years' Contest.

While employed as agent of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, at Augusta, Mich., my kidneys became diseased, and from an impoverished and impure state of the blood, my general health was entirely undermined. I consulted the leading physicians of this city and Ann Arbor, and all pronounced my case Bright's disease. In October last, I began taking Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and am to-day a well man. Deserving Praise.

We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Eberbach & Son, Ann Arbor; Geo. Haussler, Manchester. duggl-ts.

If the foreign producer pays the tax what point is there in the charge of the Washtenaw Republicans that "University professors favor free trade because they wish to get books free of duty?"

CONGRESSMAN O'DONNELL can make no votes by his long discussion and object lessons on wild cat currency. No party would go back to the wild cat currency system, and consequently voters cannot be scared with that bugaboo.

MR. SUEKEY, the democratic nominee for county treasurer, is doing valiant services for the democracy in Wisconsin, under the auspices of the national committee. While Mr. Suekey is making democratic votes in Wisconsin, all good democrats will see to it that his personal canvas in this county does not suffer.

In the Republican county convention on Tuesday the Hon. A. J. Sawyer vouched for the Republicanism of Judge Cooley and pledged his vote for Harrison. Who is the sponsor courageous enough to vouch for Mr. Sawyer and guarantee that he will not vote for Cleveland, Morse, and most of the Democratic county ticket?

THE majority of the English vote in this city is republican. It will vote the republican ticket. If it did not O'Donnell must be snowed under in this district worse than he will be, and that will be bad enough. And yet last evening O'Donnell used these words, "The French people are happy and progressive. The English people are not very happy, and not very progressive." After slapping the English voters in the face, he relies upon getting their votes.

It may be well for the public to understand, now that the Republican papers have commenced taking extracts from the Ann Arbor Democrat, that the real owner of that paper, B. Frank Bower, is a staunch Republican. With this understanding it will be seen that extracts from it can afford no comfort to the Republicans. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is a staunch Republican paper, and the name Democrat adopted by the Ann Arbor paper to get Democratic readers does not necessarily mean that the paper is Democratic.

During the past week Judge Gresham, who showed formidable strength in the Republican national convention of 1888, and who is widely known and respected, and Wayne MacVeigh, Garfield's attorney general, have both come out for Cleveland. These are two very noticeable accessions from the Republican ranks. Judge Gresham especially has a very strong following who will hardly stand with equanimity the abuse some Republicans are attempting to heap upon Gresham's head. Cleveland is gaining the votes of the best element of the Republican party.

VERY rarely indeed have the Republicans of Washtenaw county held a more enthusiastic and harmonious convention than that in this city, Tuesday, and it is a not less truthful statement that the ticket which it made there for the suffrages of the electors of Washtenaw county, has never been excelled by any party in the history of the county.—Ann Arbor Register.

The Register evidently wishes to say something good about the Republican county ticket, but has some compunctions of conscience while doing so. It tells how enthusiastic the convention was, and as everyone knows this is sarcasm, the Register goes on to say, "it is a not less truthful statement," etc. We think they are equally truthful. The convention was a comedy. And while we shall not indulge in personalities concerning the ticket, candid republicans admit that it is not a strong one.

We desire to impress upon our readers the great importance of electing a Democratic legislature this year. The United States Senate is very close. The Democrats will gain one or two senators in other states. If they gain one in Michigan, they will control the United States Senate. It is extremely important that the Democrats have the Senate as well as the President and the House. Hence no effort should be spared to carry the Michigan legislature. The Michigan legislature will be very close. From a careful review of the legislative districts, we are inclined to the opinion that chances are about even as to which party carries it, and that the majority is not apt to exceed five either way. Every Democrat, when he comes to vote his legislative ticket, should remember that he is voting in a United States Senator and the control of the United Senate, and that the contest will be very close.

The Jackson Patriot has the following pertinent observations on the political situation in this congressional and senatorial district:

The second district Democratic congressional convention at Monroe, in nominating Hon. James S. Gorman, of Washtenaw, selected a man eminently qualified to make an energetic canvas of the district and force Hon. James O'Donnell to abandon his jokes and discuss live issues. The two candidates met in joint debate at the Adrian fair, Friday, and the Republican candidate now heartily wishes he had been unable to be present. The people are beginning to realize that the rate of tax imposed by the McKinley bill is too high a price to pay for jokes and Mr. Gorman's presentation of facts produced an excellent impression on the citizens of Lenawee county. As well as being a strong debater and a man of sound judgment, Mr. Gorman has the proud record of having never been beaten in a political race, although he twice ran for offices where the district was overwhelmingly Republican and no one else had the courage to make the run in the face of such conditions.

At the senatorial convention at Manchester, Friday, the Washtenaw delegates conceded the nomination to Jackson county and M. W. Clark, chairman of the Democratic county committee, was chosen, although Rudolph Worch made a very creditable run. In the selection of Mr. Clark the southwestern portion of the county is given a representative on the ticket and the nomination is equivalent to election. While Mr. Clark will have a walkaway, his nomination will add strength to the entire ticket, which is probably the strongest selected by any party in Jackson county, the tenth senatorial and second congressional districts, the state of Michigan or the United States for many years.

TWO IN ONE FAMILY.

Very Interesting History of Husband and Wife.

Both Have Had a Very Sad and Serious Experience.

But all is Joy and Brightness in Their Home Now.

Never to our knowledge has the old adage of a silver lining to every cloud been so wonderfully exemplified as in the home of Mr. James Meehan and his excellent wife, Mary.

The facts in the case are so remarkable that we shall give the whole matter in the exact words of the persons interested. It seems that Mr. Meehan, who resides at 57 Granite-st., Quincy, Mass., was the first to be suddenly taken sick. "I was taken sick with liver disease and ulceration of the bowels," he says. "My heart was also affected. I was confined to my bed three months. A consultation of physicians was held and I was pronounced incurable."

MR. JAMES MEEHAN.

"After that I stopped taking their remedies and began the use of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

"Previous to this I could not sleep, my nerves were excitable and spasmodic, my stomach could not bear food, vomiting almost constantly. Soon after beginning this remedy I slept better, and my stomach would bear light food."

"I continued to gain until I could get out. I now work all the time, and feel that Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy saved my life."

It is needless to say that his faithful wife, Mary Meehan, was profoundly thankful for the unexpected recovery of her husband to health and strength through the wonderful curative virtues of this great medicine, but even in the midst of her great joy, she herself was prostrated by an alarming attack of rheumatism.

"It is only just, and may be of great service to the afflicted," she says, "that I should state publicly my serious trouble and how I was cured."

MRS. MARY MEEHAN.

"I was sorely afflicted with rheumatism for more than six months, and it seemed to effect my whole system, pains and stiffness of muscles and joints to which was added the more acute pains of sciatica."

"It was with the greatest difficulty I could keep about my house. I tried many remedies without relief. Having in mind the great benefit my husband received from the use of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I concluded to resort to it. To my great joy it was completely successful and by the use of only three bottles I was entirely cured, and my health has been perfect since."

There is no mistake about it, Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is a wonderful medicine and effects some most remarkable and surprising cures. Every sufferer from disease should try it, for the chances are that it will just hit the trouble and restore the long sought health. All druggists keep it for $1 and it is purely vegetable and harmless to use. It is the prescription and discovery of the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th-st., New York, who can in all cases be consulted free, either if you call or write him a description of your disease.

Mr. Suekey in Wisconsin.

Der Seebote, of Milwaukee, of October 4, contains the following notice of Mr. Suekey, which, translated, reads:

Mr. Paul G. Suekey, editor of the Hausfreund, a prominent German-American, one of the ablest speakers in the state of Michigan, is in the city with the purpose of making a trip through the state and delivering a number of speeches in the interest of democracy. Mr. Suekey is not a stranger to the state of Wisconsin, for two years ago he, by his excellent speeches in the fight against the Bennett law, helped to win the great victory over the narrow-minded Republicans. In Michigan, too, Mr. Suekey has always worked indefatigably in the interest of his party, and has thereby won the thanks and recognition of his German-American fellow citizens, among whom he holds a very respected position.

Mr. Suekey said, yesterday, that he was certain that the Democrats would elect at least half of the fourteen presidential electors of Michigan, and that the people are very well satisfied with the economical Democratic state administration, that the taxes have been noticeably reduced, and that it is the public opinion that a change in the administration is not desirable. The People's Party in the state is not to be feared as it has no great following.

Mr. Suekey also confirmed the fact that the Republicans of Wisconsin sent false dispatches to the foreign papers, in which it was asserted that the Democrats of Wisconsin had united with the People's Party. Such dispatches were printed in many Michigan papers and indeed with the purpose of hurting the Democrats.

Mr. Suekey will speak today in New Cassel, and on Saturday in Milwaukee.

In Memoriam.

Whereas, Arbor Tent, No. 296, K. O. T. M., is called upon to mourn the death of our beloved Brother Sir Knight, George Washington Allmendinger, who departed this life on the evening of Wednesday, September 14, 1892; and

Whereas, his gentle and unassuming manner, his purity of thought and unselfish devotion to the fraternal interest of his companion Sir Knights, having been ever willing to do all in his power as a Maccabee to enhance the general welfare of the order whenever an opportunity offered or occasion arose endeared him to all who knew him but more especially to us; therefore be it Resolved, That we the members of Arbor Tent unite in expressing our sincere sorrow at the grievous loss of this true and faithful Brother, who was an agreeable companion, and a loving husband and father.

Resolved, That we mourn his loss as few can outside the family circle to whom he was so justly dear and desire to express to those who will constantly view his vacant chair in the home which he loved and adorned the tenderest condolence of every member of this Tent; and be it further

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of this humble but sincere tribute to his memory be engrossed and sent to the family of the deceased and that the same be preserved in the archives of this Tent and spread upon its records and also sent for publication to the city papers and the Michigan Maccabee.

Scott, of Ypsilanti, smiled last week, when told he was a father. He smiled again, but a little gastly, in half an hour, when informed that he was twice a parent. Later the physician announced to him that last returns showed triplets; but he "never smiled again," and would have licked the doctor had he put another stroke on the tally sheet.

The Press congratulates editor P. G. Suekey, of the Deutsche Hausfreund, on his nomination by the Democrats for treasurer of Washtenaw county. Mr. Suekey is an editor of ability as we know. We exchange with the Hausfreund and have never seen anything in the paper that we disapproved of. In fact we can't read it at all and if Mr. Suekey can, we know he must be capable of holding the office to which he will be elected.

Justice J. V. N. Gregory, of Dexter, effected his first matrimonial splice a few days ago. He sentenced the parties for life in the most urbane manner, but where he made his bad break, was in wishing the bride "many returns of the present happy occasion." Two dollars, the strictly legal fee, was all the groom would give him after that.

The Sylvan Center postoffice, Washtenaw, has "busted," for want of business. Liabilities—Ten per cent of salary, for republican campaign purposes and responsibility for carrying the town, under penalty of dismissal. Assets:—One stove, levelled up with bricks (account of broken leg); box of sawdust with nicotine discoloration; printed sign, "Don't spit on the stove." Besides the foregoing—are some withered expectations of future greatness, never to be realized, and a dozen blank sheets for making out quarterly reports. The postmaster thinks he will engage in some active business.

No person should be trusted to kill a dog unless he thoroughly understands the business. If he has had no experience, let him practice on a dead dog till he becomes proficient. If he has no dead dog, he must kill one for the purpose. The Ann Arbor officers have the thing down to a pat science, as shown by the Washtenaw Times. It seems that some bull dog there had swallowed his under lip, and was acting so strangely that officers Collins and Schott were summoned. Collins had a lantern, and Schott shot the dog three times, thus making a sure thing of it. After the executioners came two undertakers. They found the dog digging for a rat under the sidewalk, and promptly let four charges into him. The animal then sat down to rest, and so did the undertakers. Finally the dog arose and resumed rat hunting, and was so engaged when one of the undertakers killed him with a club and hastily buried him, lest revivification should set in.

NEVER A FAILURE.

The Red River Valley of Minnesota and North Dakota has never had a failure of crops. It produced 30,000,000 bushels of wheat besides other cereals in 1890. Farms can be had on the crop plan, or long time cash payments. It is not an uncommon thing to pay for a farm from the proceeds of one crop. It has all of the advantages of an old country in the shape of school, church, market, postal & railway facilities and all the chances of a new country in the way of cheap lands, rich soil, and increase in values. It is one of the most fertile and promising regions in America not yet fully occupied. In the rush to the far west, however, this rich valley has been over-looked. It has room for a million more people. Write to F. I. WHITNEY, St. Paul, Minn. for particulars. Publications sent free.

WITH A STEADY RUSH.

The "Two Sams" Are Closing Out Their Ready Made Clothing.

From the Daily Times.

For the last week there has been a sight at one of the prominent business palaces of Ann Arbor that can usually be witnessed only in much larger cities than our own. In viewing the scene the writer was puzzled for a time to know if he was in the metropolis of the west or not, the surging mass that thronged the portals of this great trading emporium was wonderful to behold. It is hardly necessary to mention the firm's name to our readers as every merchant as well as citizen from the county and city, stranger and students know at once that it was the popular Two Sams who were putting their very best efforts forward to supply the community with their wares.

Upon entering this great establishment we were informed that a change would soon take place, that they were closing out their entire ready made stock of clothing at cost. This alone brought in thousands of people who made purchases without delay. There were not salesmen enough upon that day to tend to all parties, but we were assured that an additional force would be placed in the different departments at once. Our readers will soon see this store entirely remodeled and changed into one of the largest merchant tailoring establishments in the state. It is also contemplating adding a shoe department which, no doubt, will increase the volume of business. With their already popular and well established furnishing goods and hat trade which they will enlarge and continue, they will endeavor to place before the public the most exquisite line in the four departments, all under one roof.

The outlook for the success in their new lines is very encouraging and all their friends and customers congratulate them upon their new departure. It is a well known fact in Ann Arbor, as well as in other cities where L. Bliz—the Two Sams—are known, that they are and have been leaders in their line. We overheard a remark from two very prominent Chicago merchants, and no doubt it's seconded by many others, that The Two Sams are ten years ahead of the times. This, of course, came about by these well known gentlemen casting an eye upon the class of garments now kept in this establishment. If this be so in the ready made and furnishings line now we can readily judge the character of their new departments. It is a well known fact with the public at large that whenever the Two Sams made an announcement it was worth looking into. Now that there will be a change and they are closing out their line overcoats and suits at perhaps the largest saving ever made to any purchaser in their line, we would be doing you an injustice not to ask you to call upon them during the next few weeks.

Proceedings of the Board of Public Works.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 5, 1892.

Regular meeting.
Board met and was called to order by President Keech.

Roll called. Present, Messrs. Keech and McIntyre. Absent, Mr. Schuh.

The Sidewalk Inspector reported that he had personally inspected the sidewalks, which had not as yet been constructed: On the east side of Fourth avenue, in front of the property of the Lucy Morgan estate; on Traver street, in front of the property of John C. Allmendinger, W. N. Cooper, and Nelson Rogers; on Geddes avenue, in front of the property of Joe. T. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. James and Jane Ottley, Fred Schmid, Olivia B. Hall, Frances St. James, Catherine Parsons, and Rachel A. Glasier; on Third street, in front of the property of Christian Eberbach, Mrs. Catherine Krause, Elizabeth Richenecker, Louis Rhode, and John Pfisterer, or by any person on their behalf, and that said sidewalks are in poor condition and ought to be rebuilt without delay.

Mr. Keech moved that the report be received and filed, and the Street Commissioner is hereby ordered to take the necessary steps to build all sidewalks so reported not built to this board.

Yeas.—Messrs. Keech and McIntyre.

The matter of how to build sidewalks on the west side of the Waterman Block, on Fourth avenue, was referred to Mr. McIntyre and Street Commissioner.

Mr. Keech moved that Mr. McIntyre and the Street Commissioner be hereby requested to bring into this board an estimate of the cost of grading North Brooks street. Adopted.

Mr. McIntyre reported that Wm. McCreery would give a written guarantee to this Board to build his sidewalk in six months from this date if such request is granted.

Mr. Keech moved that the request of Mr. McCreery be granted. Adopted. The Board then adjourned.

TIN PLATE HISTORY.

THE DIVERSIFIED USES TO WHICH IT IS APPLIED.

Its Use as a Food Wrapper—How the McKinley Tariff Is Injuring the Tariff Industry—What Tin Plate Is and How It Is Manufactured.

Tin plates since the tariff discussion concerning them have become an item of public interest. There seems to be a surprising ignorance on the part of the people concerning their manufacture, the diversified uses to which they are applied, as well as to the qualities which make them important in the economy of living.

Briefly stated, tin plates are iron or steel sheets cut to a convenient size plated with tin; in other words, iron or steel plates painted on both sides with a tin coating.

Ninety per cent. of all the tin plates consumed in the world are made in Wales. For 170 years that little country has defied all competition in their manufacture. Added to a thorough knowledge of the practical features of the trade, the Welsh manufacturers have proved great inventors in bringing into use labor saving and material saving machinery.

As iron and tin constitute the entire bulk of and 90 per cent. of the entire cost of tin plates, their price and fluctuation are the history of the tin production of the world and the sheet steel industry. Owing to the scarcity of tin, prices advanced from 1864, when it was £87 per ton, to £159 in 1892. There was nearly as marked an advance in iron during the same period. This sent the price of tin plates up to 26s. per box. In 1878 tin reached the exceedingly low price of £52 10s. per ton. Iron reached a correspondingly low price, Philadelphia pig being quoted in 1876 at $16.50, as against $53 in 1872. The cheapness of these ingredients lowered the price of tin plates to 13s. 1½d. Since that date the decline in plates has been in strict keeping with the price of iron and tin down to June, 1890, when speculation incident to the McKinley tariff on tin plates set in.

The cheapness of tin plates, together with their durability for certain uses, and their adaptability as wrappers for hermetically sealed canned food has greatly stimulated their importation. In 1850 the importation was only 500,000 boxes; now it has reached over 6,000,000 boxes. Our natural increase in consumption of plates since 1887 amounts to 500,000 boxes each year. This increase is directly traceable to the development of the canning industry, which now consumes more than 3,500,000 boxes yearly.

These cans or wrappers for canned produce are made up with a large percentage of tin for soldering, as the solder needs to be strong and noncorrosive. From 15,000 to 18,000 tons of pig tin are required for this purpose annually.

The canning industry would never have developed to its present status had it not had the advantage of cheap tin plates. Glass was found to be too expensive and the matter of its breakage too extensive to prove economical as a wrapper for a food product. Tin cans were found to be as wholesome as glass, proof against breakage and less than one-third the cost of the glass jars.

Under the stimulus of these cheap wrappers made from tin plates the canning industry has made wonderful development, and being a direct evolution of agriculture has stimulated a class of intensive farming in the older settled portions of the country which has not only rescued farmers from an actual retrogression, but has made their farms remunerative. One million acres of land are now under exclusive cultivation for these canneries. As a farmer on an average devotes from eight to ten acres of his farm to this class of culture, it is shown that 100,000 farmers, or 500,000 people, are interested in the cultivation, growing and picking of these fruits and vegetables which these can wrappers convey to the consumers of the country.

It was under these encouraging conditions of the canning industry, and the advantages thus created by a home market for the farmers' produce, that the supposed prohibitive duty of 1890 on tin plates was inflicted.

Put forth as a protection pure and simple to a few sheet roofing men in order to drive out a competing article, the law utterly ignored the canning industry, which, unable to substitute galvanized iron or sheet steel for tin plates in its manufacture of hermetically sealed food products, hence had no alternative but to pay the enhanced price or go out of the business.

Reports from all sections of the country indicate clearly the effects of this arbitrary interference on the part of the government with an established industry. Letters received from over 100 concerns, both canners and manufacturers of tinware, and of all political shades, and scattered from Maine to California, set forth in most emphatic terms the injury of the increased duty on tin plates to their business.

The policy of spoliation, however, has been perfectly vindicated. The sheet iron mills have been able to advance the prices of their products according to programme, and American consumers of tin plates have been taxed $21,000,000 to create an industry which up to date has supplied us with less than twenty-two hours' consumption of American plates made of 90 per cent. imported material and by imported mechanics.
