Adrian Press Washtenawisms.

Fifteen hogs have had cholera inside the city limits.—Ann Arbor Argus.

Only a few persons left there, now, who squeal for protection.

The Argus charges the Courier with not knowing how to spell the name of the Washtenaw candidate for sheriff. Spell it, M-u-d, Mr. Courier; that will be right.

A sick stranger raised a certificate of deposit from $10 to $60 and realized thereon, at the expense of the Ann Arbor Sams, and is now chuckling in some safe obscurity.

Dr. Kotts, of Manchester, for lack of a better subject has been practicing dissection upon himself. He stuck a knife into the calf of one of his legs the other day, inflicting a painful wound.—Ann Arbor Argus.

This process is called auto-vivisection. Really the doctor auto-bemore-careful.

Geo. E. Bull, of Washtenaw, will not vote this fall. The judge has ordered him to Jackson a year for trying to kill one of his sons. Bull thinks "Things have come to a terrible pass, When a man can't wallop his own jackass."

The editor of the Dexter News inquires in a leader heading: "Have we got them?" What are your symptoms? Do you have the "grapevine twist" in both legs? See double? Feel like plucking down the tower of the town clock and picking your teeth with the splinters? Then sir, it is to be feared that a "shot" in the arm is your only salvation.

While we "see the point" easily enough, we regret to have to accept the following apology of the Press for its dearth of Washtenaw items this week: The apology is gracefully made, and is accepted in a like spirit:

We desire at this time and place to announce that having shouldered the main job of saving the country, this fall, our neighborhood notes from now till after election are likely to be somewhat spare about the ribs. We cannot carry a tariff reform musket in each hand, a force bill howitzer in our rear pocket and a pail of hot pitch on our head, for pauper immigration protectionists, without letting go of something.

BY AND BY.

By and by we'll know each other, As we never knew before, When the morn of life is breaking, And the shadows flee away.

By and by we'll cross the river, Enter in the Golden Gates; Hear the strains of angel music Softly falling on the ear.

When the misty veil that hides us From our dear ones gone before, Shall be drawn aside forever, We shall meet them face to face.

By and by our cares and sorrows From the heart shall roll away, And our souls shall rise triumphant When the veil is rent in twain.

When grim death shall cross our threshold, And our dear ones pass away, While our hearts are torn with anguish At the thought that we must part, Heavenly voices whisper softly, "Twill be better by and by."

—E. G. Jones in Pittsburg Bulletin.

Sir James Paget says that he once heard Mlle. Janotha render a presto by Mendelssohn in which she had to play 5,595 notes in four minutes and three seconds!

Nowadays paper is almost entirely made from wood, although, as a manufacturer aptly put it, paper can be made from everything except stone or iron.

Rubber was imported into England, but it was little used except by artists until 1820, nearly 200 years after its first introduction to civilization.

Snuffed Himself Out.

In one of the European parliaments, when the president finds it necessary to end an argument, he gravely puts on his cylinder hat. Though it happened nearly thirty years ago, people still laugh at the recollection of a certain president, who, to close a celebrated debate, took up his neighbor's hat by mistake; it was far too big for him, and falling down about his ears snuffed him out completely from the gaze of the crowded house.—Youth's Companion.

Making Good Investments.

A wealthy old lady in this city has within the past year bought five houses, for each of her nieces and nephews, paying $5,000 per house and furnishing them all at the same expense. She says she wants to see her money doing some good before she dies.—Springfield Home-Stead.

A Regular Falling Off.

Gilhooley—I can't possibly make out what's going to become of our boarding house. I wanted him and poached eggs the other day and couldn't get 'em.

Gus De Smith—Ah! and I wanted credit there the other day and couldn't get that.—Texas Siftings.

Buckland said that it was millions of years since the world was created, and the only question was how many millions.

The Republicans throughout the country are on the run. The prospects of Cleveland's election keep growing brighter.

Cleveland is the most accomplished letter writer in this country. His recent letter dedining to be at Chicago because Harrison was unable to attend on account of his wife's illness, was a model.

Hon. A. E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for vice-president, is making a strong canvas. His great meeting in this state will be held in Ann Arbor next Monday. It should be made a great meeting. All that is now needed to make it such is the crowd. Everybody should turn out on Monday.

If the Republican candidate for representative asks a Democrat to vote for him he should be asked the question if he will pledge himself to vote for the Democratic caucus nominee for U. S. Senator. When we vote for legislative candidates this year we are voting for the United States Senator and the control of the United States Senate. No tariff reformer can afford to vote for a Republican legislative candidate this year, no matter how close a personal friend he may be.

The present editor of the Democrat never voted for a Republican, never attended or voted at a Republican convention, caucus or primary.—Ann Arbor Democrat.

She couldn't. The present editor of the Democrat is a woman. She never voted for a Democrat and never attended a Democratic caucus. She couldn't. But the owner of the Democrat, B. Frank Bower, is a Republican and the present editor of the Democrat doesn't know anything about politics. She does not always write her own editorials and is often imposed upon by those who hold grudges or wish to do the Republican candidates some good. In the case of Mr. Suekey, she is simply venting her personal spite because some months ago the Hausfreund poked fun at one of her articles, and now that she finds the Democrats will not follow her lead, she attempts to defend her course by comparing it with the Argus two years ago. Republican papers never quoted the Argus articles against Democratic candidates. The Argus did not denounce Democratic candidates two years ago. It was simply silent as to two names. The Democrat does not even fly the name of one Democratic candidate for county or state office at the head of its editorial columns. It is guilty of the very thing in the case of all these nominees, it charges the Argus with being guilty of in the case of two candidates. And while the Democrat is silent concerning Cleveland and tariff reform it has the effrontery to claim, "The Democrat has been noted for the past fourteen years as the most outspoken and vigorous champion of Democratic interests in Washtenaw county." Probably the Democrat can best advance Democratic cause by keeping silent. It did that most effectively last week. There was not one reason or one word of argument in its last issue why any one should be a tariff reformer, a Democrat, should vote for Cleveland or any other Democratic nominee. If this is the most outspoken champion of Democratic interests in Washtenaw the Democrats must be very hard up.

Wheat is selling for 90 cents per bushel; potatoes, 60 cents; apples, from 80 cents to $1.20 per bushel; eggs, 48 cents; butter, 22 cents.

House cleaning has begun in Milan, so farewell to bright and smiling countenances until after house cleaning time takes its departure.

Columbian memorial services were held at the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, Rev. J. Swindt presiding. The services were instructive and interesting.

The dedication of the Masonic Temple at Milan, Wednesday evening, was a grand event, Gen. Innis taking charge of it, and having assistance from so many able officers from abroad, and also from Milan. The music was fine. The menu was beautifully spread, and the speeches were of the best. The toast-master was the right man in the right place, and the responses were fit for the occasion. Altogether, the opening to the closing of the fair, was a great success in every respect.

A REAL SURPRISE.

What a Former Captain of Police Says About it

An Astonishing Fact that Ought to be Known by Everybody.

Cause for Alarm Unless Immediate Action is Taken.

Alexander Bell is a retired captain of the Portland, Me., police force. He has a strange and wonderful story to tell.

Now Mr. Bell is an old Grand Army man, indeed, was one of the founders of the famous Bosworth Post, A. E. and is a widely known and respected throughout the State of Maine.

We will let him tell his remarkable story in his own way:

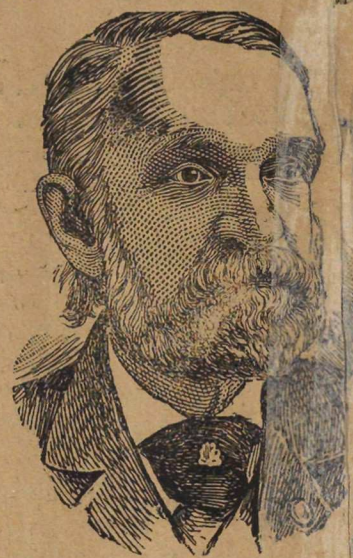

"I have had two strokes of paralysis the first about four years ago, the second of January, 1891. My left leg was completely paralyzed; face, arm and leg immovable.

"On account of my advanced age, 75 years, and this being a serious case, my physician pronounced me hopeless.

"I was finally induced to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and soon began to improve.

The muscles of the face straightened, then my arm began to gain I began to walk after having used three bottles of the remedy.

"My arm I can now place to my head and have fair use of it, and with the help have walked as far as two miles a half.

MR. ALEXANDER BELL.

"From being a helpless parlalying to be dressed and cared for by others, I now care for myself, can walk about the city and enjoy fair health.

"I would state that after beginning the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I used no other medicine.

"The result surprised and astonished all my friends, and they have urged me to make this statement as a matter of justice and to encourage others who may be similarly afflicted.

"I will also state that I was a soldier in the late war and served 15 years on the police force of Portland, Me.

This is indeed a most remarkable cure by a wonderful medicine—a medicine which is, beyond all doubt, the greatest nerve remedy and health restorer ever discovered. The Portland doctors are astounded at its effects in diseases which have baffled their skill. Mr. Bell's restoration should make everybody suffering from paralysis or any nervous disease use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy without delay.

But do not wait until you are actually paralyzed before using this great remedy. It will always prevent paralysis, nervous debility and nervous prostration if taken when the first symptoms appear.

Take it if you have a weak and tired feeling and weariness of the limbs, numbness, trembling palpitation of the heart, prickling sensation in fingers or toes, headaches, dull feeling head, confused mind, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory. It will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia, regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world, and should therefore be used by all.

It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease you will use it if you are wise. We would add that, although sold by druggists, it is in no sense a patent medicine, being the prescription and discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th-st., New York, who is the most eminent specialist in the country in the treatment of nervous and chronic diseases. Sufferers have the privilege also of consulting the famous doctor free of charge personally or by letter.

Miss Gelston has the pleasure, last Sunday morning, of addressing an audience of 1,200 people. His structive effort on the Columbian centennial year.

The University School of Music, for Franklin Hinckley for prosecuting attorney, and Francis Stofflet and R. C.

Reeves for circuit court commissioners.

Mr. Clement appeared before an Ann Arbor audience for the first time last Saturday night. That he pleased his audience can be inferred from the fact that he was called before the curtains after the entertainment was over.
A very rare compliment to any actor in Ann Arbor.—Courier.

Rev. J. T. Sunderland will speak ration of the 50th anniversary of Chan-

Professor A. A. Stanley gave a very fine organ recital at the Unity Club last Saturday evening, to a large audiwho preaches to the largest congrega-lecture before the club next Monday

It's being kept a close secret but it's true just the same. At a meeting of a portion of the Republican committee held Friday, A. W. Hamilton was selected as a victim to take the place of John F. Lawrence, who was chosen some time ago to make the run for state senator from this district, an honor which Mr. Lawrence declined with thanks.

The bazaar of the Ann Arbor Rifles, which began at the Palace rink on Tuesday evening, is proving a social and financial success. The decorations surpassed all previous efforts, and the general arrangement was most excellent. The dancing, from 10 to 11:30, is an attractive feature for the young people. The music is furnished by Otto's band and orchestra.

An unique entertainment will be for the occasion. Lovers of clean fun should attend. There will be no charge for admission. A supper will be provided, for which fifteen cents will be A suit has just been tried in the circuit court between Chas. Dietas, sr., and Mrs. Haas, widow of the late Thomas Haas, both residing on Ashley street, to compel the latter to remove a high board fence which she had built between her property and that of Mr.

Dietas. The trial resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff, and an order that the defendant remove the fence within twenty days.

On Monday evening, some thief stole twenty-five bushels of corn from the field of Michael Braun, on the Whitmore Lake road. The thief's horse and wagon were traced half a mile towards Whitmore Lake. It had then turned around and come towards this city, towards which it was tracked for a couple of miles, when the tracks were obliterated by passing vehicles. Several other farmers have recently suffered similar losses.

Sometime on Monday night a burglar pried open a back window in the store of Bowditch & Dietas, on State street, and stole eight pairs of shoes, a shirt, and a liberal number of neckties. A man who had been in the store during the day trying to trade an old pair of shoes for a new pair, is suspected to be the thief, but like the Arab, he has "silently folded his tent and stolen away," and is probably sporting his newly acquired gorgeou-sness in some unknown locality.

At Unity club next Monday evening, those of Hon. T. W. Palmer, of the World's Fair commission; ex-Gov.

Ashley, of Ohio; Rev. Anna Shaw,

Lloyd Jones, is twenty-five cents, while the season tickets are only one dollar, and include nineteen other evenings.

The second of the series of entertainments given by the Inland League will consist of an elocutionary evening.
Mrs. E. Flower Willis, of Boston, will, on next Monday night, give a number of selections, including both serious and humorous. Mrs. Willis is undoubtedly one of the finest readers now before the American public. Remember that this series of entertainments is given on Monday evenings, at the Church of Christ, on South University avenue, and that the hour is 8 p. m. sharp.

Hon. John P. Allen, member of congress from Mississippi, who was billed for a speech under the auspices of the Democrats at the Opera House, Saturday evening, is laid up with a sprained ankle at Chicago and will be unable to be present.

The sale of tickets for the Students' Lecture Association course will be restricted to members of the University and High School until next Wednesday morning, because the number of season tickets must be limited to the seating capacity of the hall.

Tomorrow evening, in Alpha Nu hall, the Adelphi and Alpha Nu societies will, between them, forever settle the disputed question as to whether the Homestead strike was or was not justifiable. It will be a good thing to have it effectually laid to rest.

The bazaar of the Ann Arbor Rifles, which opened Tuesday evening, is proving a success. Among the features that are interesting to the public, is a vote for the most popular candidate in the county, the winner to be presented with a handsome gold-headed cane.

Miss Helen Terry, who formerly was clerk in J. R. Bach's insurance office, and had a host of friends among the young people of Ann Arbor, died on Sunday night, at her home in Toledo, after several months' illness. Her funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, and was attended by a number from this city.

Dr. Austin Flint is a physician of vast repute, and he declares that it is all nonsense to follow the old fashioned rules restricting diet in order to avoid dyspepsia. He says: "Dyspeptics are chiefly persons who eat regularly, restrict their diet to simple food in small quantities and constantly have their stomachs on their minds. I tell my patients to eat whenever they are hungry, even if it is just before going to bed—to eat as much as the appetite demands, to appease the thirst in the same way and live as sumptuously as possible. Gourmands may have gout, but they don't have dyspepsia."

How the Sierra Indians Make Bread.
They make it of acorns. The shells and inner skins are carefully peeled off and the meats are ground up into a pulp between smooth stones. Large holes are then dug in the ground to answer for kettles and the pulp is put in. Water is poured over it, after being heated to the boiling point, until the whole mass is about the consistency of cream. A squaw stirs this up carefully with a fir bough, skimming off any specks that may float.
The mass is then left standing till the water is all absorbed by the earth. It is then carefully removed, especial pains being taken to separate it from the soil.
It is then dried, and when needed for use is mixed with water and baked before the fire in thin cakes.

The following recommendation was made by the Board of Public Works, as requested by the Common Council, asking for a plan for draining East University avenue, at the intersection of Monroe street.
