BITTER RESOLUTIONS OF THE REPUBLICANS.

A Slimly Attended Convention.—A Bold Forger Runs Amuck.—Senator Clark on University Appropriations

Some One Personating Mr. Hiscock.

While cashier Charles E. Hiscock has been strictly attending to business in the Savings bank, some one has been personating him in Chicago, spending lots of money obtained on the strength of Hiscock's name. Six forged checks drawn on the National bank and purporting to be signed by Mr. Hiscock, have been received here. They amount in the aggregate to $211.50. One of them, for $50, was given to a clothing company. They were all certified to by the First National bank, W. W. Case, cashier, the certification also being a forgery. They were payable to self, and were indorsed by the forger's also signing Charles E. Hiscock's name on the back of them. A telegram was received by the Michigan Furniture Company, saying that there was a man in Chicago calling himself Hiscock and pretending to be the secretary of the Michigan Furniture Company, of Ann Arbor, who was acting strangely. A telegram was sent back to have him arrested. Another telegram then came stating that the forger had left town. It is hoped that he may be captured.

Death of Rev. Maltby Gelston.

Rev. Maltby Gelston died at his home on Washington street, from a paralytic stroke, on Sunday last. He was nearly eighty-eight years of age, and was born in Sherman, Conn. After graduating at Yale College and in the theological seminary, he spent fifty-four years in the ministry, never missing a Sunday from his work. He was successively pastor of churches in Medina, N. Y., Clyde, N. Y., Rushville, N. Y., Albion, Mich., and Grass Lake, Mich. In the 60's he removed to Ann Arbor to educate his children, and has since resided here. From here he has done mission work in Saginaw, Tawas, Au Sable, and for ten years he supplied a church at South Lyon, driving there every Sunday from Ann Arbor. He was the father of Rev. J. Mills Gelston, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, of Rev. H. W. Gelston, of Deland, Fla., and of Mrs. Nettie B. Harvey and Miss Sarah B. Gelston, of this city. Mr. Gelston was married in 1834, and his wife preceded him over the dark river by six years. He belonged to a family of clergymen. His sons are clergymen. His was a life well spent.

The Knights of Pythias Banquet.

Last Monday evening the Knights of Pythias turned out in full force, the occasion being the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the order. After the initiation of Messrs. Bumfrey, Russell, Bordeaux, Curtiss, Beggs, Johnson, and Wells into the mysteries of the rank of Page, and Messrs. Cooper, Rayner, and Lamor into the rank of Esquire, the Knights, with the newly initiated members adjourned to the Cook House, where they did justice to the sumptuous repast prepared for them by Landlord McClure. The banquet over, genial Chancellor Commander Rose, who officiated as toast-master, called on various members of the order to respond to impromptu toasts, which they did in a most creditable manner. In the course of their remarks the members dwelt on the past history of the order, its beneficent purpose, its wonderful growth and consequent greater influence for good. At 2 a. m. the Chancellor Commander dispersed the assembly and those present departing for their separate homes, felt that the evening had been most profitably spent inasmuch as it had combined pleasure with the more serious problems of social life and had left them the better for it.

New Theological Seminary.

The Chicago News of Wednesday contained the following very interesting dispatch from Detroit:

A meeting was held Sunday evening at the Central Christian church, under the auspices of the woman's board of missions, for the purpose of raising funds to establish a bible chair at Ann Arbor. This, however, is but the first step toward the establishment of a seminary where the English Bible will be the basis of instruction. The congregation was addressed Sunday evening by the Rev. Charles Young, of Ann Arbor, who has been agitating the matter. Mr. Young delivered an eloquent address, showing the need of such a school.

The speaker said that there was not a theological college in the country which used the English Bible as the principal work from which the students derived their instruction. The colleges laid stress upon other works and the Bible was generally neglected. He had been much encouraged in the movement, which originated in the church in which he was speaking, and had been given various amounts of money from persons residing in all parts of the country. He stated that it would be necessary to raise altogether about $250,000.

This was a large amount, but he believed that it would be forthcoming at the proper time. Other denominations were talking about establishing just such a school at Ann Arbor, where there were so many advantages, but he did not think they would carry out the plan. The denominations that had so expressed themselves already had as many schools as they could take care of and he did not imagine they would want to take the responsibility of maintaining another institution, although the field was so promising. He related at some length the plan and told how far it had advanced. He had secured only about $700 up to date, but from many assurances he believed that the project would soon meet with substantial encouragement. The present age was one of utility and it would be the design of the seminary to teach practical theology. At the coming convention of the pastors of their denomination and their many friends at Chicago a day had been set apart for the discussion of the matter. In the states where there are few schools he had met with much encouragement, although in the other states naturally not much enthusiasm was awakened. The ladies of the church desired to be congratulated for the active work they had done. He expressed his pleasure in thanking them and asked that a liberal offering for the sacred purpose of securing a fund so as to establish an endowment for a Bible chair be taken. Who will occupy the chair has not yet been determined, but it will be occupied by some one who will do honor to the position. A liberal amount was contributed.

Republican County Convention.

The republican county convention, Monday, was very slimly attended, not more than forty or fifty delegates being present. The second district was represented by less than a dozen. William M. Osband, of Ypsilanti, was made chairman, and Joseph T. Jacobs, of Ann Arbor, secretary. The following committees were appointed:

Permanent Organization and Order of Business—Alex. W. Hamilton, Ann Arbor; D. C. Griffin, Ypsilanti; Jas. L. Gilbert, Chelsea.
Credentials—George H. Pond, Ann Arbor; George C. Smith, Ypsilanti; Wm. Judson, Chelsea.
Resolutions—J. E. Beal, Ann Arbor; J. C. Beemis, Ypsilanti; Geo. H. Kempf, Chelsea.

After dinner the committee on credentials reported delegates from the two cities and eight towns entitled to seats in the convention. The other twelve towns were not heard from at all. The resolutions adopted were as follows:

WHEREAS, We, the Republicans of Washtenaw, assembled in convention, hail with satisfaction and pride the coming again of our great state under full and complete republican rule after the squaw-buck maladministration. We urge upon the legislature to heed the call of the people for a short business session.

Resolved, That the speedy repeal of the infamous Miner law, made by the legislature, meets with the approval of our best citizens, as it was an unfair and partisan measure.

In national affairs, we greet the distinguished and crowning act of Pres. Harrison's administration, about to be consummated on Washington's birthday, of raising the old flag over the finest line of ocean steamships afloat, and inaugurating measures which will again place American flags and American ships and American commerce on every sea, in every port.

As the time approaches for the re-election of a judge of this district, we call attention to the splendid career of Judge Kinne, who has, without fear, given clear and able judgments which have rarely been reversed in the higher court or questioned by the people. We call for his re-nomination and urge upon the voters of this district to elect him without regard to party. This is an office where partisanship is undesirable. We commend the action of the Jackson county republicans in endorsing a good democratic judge for re-election, commending the action of the majority party in Jackson county to the majority party in this county.

The University of Michigan in our midst will ever be our care and concern. It requires careful and able management, which must be given by wise men of business training. It is advisable to have a regent near at hand, and for this important position we present and recommend to the delegates chosen to the state convention the name of Col. H. S. Dean, as a man in every way qualified and fitted for doing great good, both to the State and University. His name will add much strength to the state ticket which will give it a sure promise of success at the polls.

John W. Bennett, Esq., of Ann Arbor, was unanimously nominated for county commissioner of schools, and the following delegates were elected by acclamation:

TO STATE CONVENTION.
At Large—Hon. E. P. Allen, Ypsilanti; Hon. Andrew J. Sawyer, Ann Arbor; Geo. H. Kempf, Esq., Chelsea.

First District—Wm. Judson, W. C. Stevens, E. F. Johnson, J. T. Jacobs, J. E. Beal, Dr. J. C. Wood, Z. Sweet, Nathan Pierce, L. N. S. Foster.
Second District—S. R. Crittenden, Wm. M. Osband, W. S. Carpenter, E. B. Stone, A. F. Freeman, M. R. Raymond, O. A. Sober, Wm. Burtless, A. A. Wood.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

At Large—John F. Lawrence, Ann Arbor; A. F. Freeman, Manchester; D. C. Griffin, Ypsilanti.
First District—Norman D. Gates, E. F. Johnson, A. J. Sawyer, A. W. Wilkinson, A. W. Hamilton, George S. Wheeler, Henry Waldron, C. E. Hiscock, Fred B. Braun.
Second District—W. K. Childs, Chas. Mills, George Scotney, J. B. Wortley, W. R. Davis, George Rawson, H. P. Johnson, Wm. Campbell.

Senator Clark is Sound.

Senator Clark, of this district, made an excellent speech on the one-fifth mill bill for the University last Friday. The bill, passed the senate by a vote of 19 to 10, but was afterwards re-considered. Mr. Clark's speech in full was as follows:

I regret that this discussion took just the turn it did on Friday last. I fully agree with Senator Burt that not quite all the great men come from the University. Further, that not quite all the great men coming from the University are great men. I venture this assertion, notwithstanding it may not be endorsed by all my constituents. You see I am reckless of my future preference.

The enthusiasm of Senator McLaughlin led him out from under cover, where he had to submit to punishment from Senator Burt. Senator McLaughlin did not mean to be understood that his one hundred thousand art gallery should be built out of these proposed funds before the whole requirements of the mechanical department had been fully met; but that out of the savings to be accumulated from this fund, later on, after all the more urgent needs were supplied, the art gallery should be erected. These little tilts lead to mischief where great interests are involved. We all agree that the University of Michigan is the pride of Michigan. There is not a senator on this floor that is not proud of it. Therefore, let us consider its needs candidly, reserving our oratory for political questions, where it is not expected we will agree, and wind concerts are expected.

No one will expect of me, a stranger, a Democratic granger, to encourage extravagance in any appropriations. I will not do this, even for institutions in my own district, knowing by sad experience the backache required to earn a dollar in this avocation. But the amount of this appropriation anticipated in this bill before us is treated as secondary in the course of the argument the other day. The plan of it seeming to disturb the honorable senators more than the amount.

This plan suits me. I see no reason on earth why the regents should come before this body each session, to secure funds to run this institution. It is right that they account for their stewardship by making their report in detail, and submit it to the criticism of the Legislature, if you please, or to some authority, who will carefully scrutinize their doings.

This bill does not, it seems to me, place them any farther away from the people or less responsible for their doings. If it did, then I would oppose it. It seems that if we grant a sufficient amount to economically administer the affairs of the University, by so doing we avoid the waste of providing for it at each session. That a certain fund limited to their needs, secure, not fluctuating, nor subject to the whims of differing minds of this legislative body, liable to cripple without previous notice the efficiency of this great institution is right. If this law were repealed at a future session, controlled by members having a spasm of economy, the funds for a year would be in hand, and would be equivalent to a year's notice of a change of policy; in the meantime the board of regents could trim their sails to the change of wind, and tide over the emergency.

The board of regents come direct from the people, as we do, and are responsible to the same source of power, which is not slow to resent a wrong. The point has been made here that this puts the University upon different ground from any other state institution. True, it is differently officered. It is for a different purpose. It should not be on the same basis as insane asylums, or prisons, or any other institution where its officers are the appointees of party organization, in whose intellectuality the voter has no voice. I think you are safe in this, and believe there is force in the argument that more economical administration is possible with a fixed income. Plans of management which look to better facilities are encouraged by the surety of a reward of success by economy. I hope this bill will pass. Throw around it all the safe guards of honesty you please, and reduce the amount if you please to actual needs, but not to a point destructive to the usefulness of the institution. The committee from this body visiting this institution recommend this amount. Not having any personal knowledge in this particular, I shall vote for the bill.

Trying to Defraud Housekeepers.

Respectable grocers are much incensed at the disreputable practices resorted to by a baking powder concern to introduce its goods in this market. It employs a lot of cheap and incompetent people to go around and make what they call "tests" of baking powders, which simply means condemning every kind except the one they peddle. So ignorant and unprincipled are these parties that where two samples from the same package have been given them they have pronounced one very good and the other very bad. They indiscriminately condemn the best known goods of the very highest reputation which in any way compete with their own. All the high class grocers are dealing largely, and have been for years, in the baking powders condemned by these itinerants, and they resent the accusation that they are selling impure and adulterated goods, especially as they know it to be untrue and made for purely mercenary purposes. A prominent grocer has threatened the arrest of the slanderers, and has expressed his determination to sell none of their goods.

An evidence of the fraudulent intent of these parties exists in the fact that in several instances they have been given their own baking powder to examine, when, supposing it to be another, they have unhesitatingly condemned it as adulterated.

Methods of this kind indicate both ignorance of the first principles of business and absence of either honor or morality and will disgust consumers as well as dealers.

Marshall P. Wilder.

The New York Graphic has the following to say about Marshall P. Wilder, who will speak under the auspices of the Students' Lecture Association on March 4:

"Marshall P. Wilder has, of late years, won for himself a unique place in public estimation. Perhaps it would be more correct to say that he has created for himself an individuality in society that is as marked and peculiar as it is pleasant and mirth inspiring. What nature denies him in stature and manly beauty, she has lavishly made up in the marvellous brightness that she has shed around his mental life. Quaint and diminutive of figure, with a face that in repose gives no indication of the laughter-loving spirit that animates him, Mr. Wilder would pass for a kindly natured little gentleman whose specialty in this world was the quiet enjoyment of the good things in life. But the heart he carries within him is full to overflowing with the brightness of life, and he spreads around the sunshine that lightens and blesses his own existence.

He is twenty-eight years old, and he might be but eighteen for all that the big world would know from his looks. He will always be young and he will always be funny. He not only says funny things, but he acts them and he enjoys the fun himself. He was born so and he cannot help it, and the world will always rejoice that he cannot, for the world has gone on laughing more and more the better that Mr. Wilder was known.

A Great Treat.

Those who were so fortunate as to hear Mr. Max Heinrich last season, need not be told what a great treat they have in store in the concert on Friday evening, February 24. This is the fourth in the Choral Union series, and will be one of the best. Mr. Heinrich will sing a choice selection of the finest songs in the whole literature of music. Songs representing all styles of writing are sung by him, with equal effect; and when we add that his own piano accompaniments are considered as artistic as his singing, one can appreciate the fact that Max Heinrich has earned the well deserved title of the first song singer in the world. He is a most consummate artist and an example of what genius can do for a man.

Our best critics are united in this, that in Mr. J. Erich Schmaal, Ann Arbor possesses a pianist who is the peer of any who appear at these concerts. He will play several groups of solos, and will without doubt maintain the reputation which he has already earned. We will print the entire programme later in the week.

Michigan Political Scientists.

The meetings of the State Political Science Association, Tuesday, were of great interest to all interested in that branch of study. Students are not abandoned, but the various professors of Political Economy and History have an active part in the proceedings. Judge Edward Cahill, of Lansing, occupied the chair as president. Judge Cooley delivered the first address on "Federal Taxation of State Banks." T. C. Sherwood, state bank examiner, followed with a paper on "State Bank-note Circulation." The two papers drew forth an animated discussion from Profs. Taylor, McLaughlin, Thompson and others. The paper of Judge Cooley was productive of considerable comment. The judge suggested that the constitutional authority of congress to deal with the state currency was derived from the clause granting power over interstate commerce.

In the evening Judge Cahill delivered an address, followed by Hon. Thos. E. Barkworth, of Jackson, on "The best method of electing U. S. Senators."

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

One case of diphtheria in Milan. The woolen mills at Rausonville will be started up again.

John Gotts, of Whittaker, is now harness making in Ypsilanti.

Ypsilanti had a glove fight last evening, almost a prize fight.

There are twenty-five bicycles in Milan now, and ten more have been ordered.

The M. E. Sunday school library of Ypsilanti made $65 out of the Elder recital last week.

Miss Crockett, aged eighty, of Milan, dislocated her shoulder last week by falling on the ice.

A donation party for Rev. Mr. Boynton was held at W. E. Pease's in Manchester township on Monday.

Ex-State Oil Inspector Platt measured his length in the snow in Ypsilanti last week, his team running away.

The Ypsilanti opera house has a new proprietor by the name of Shutes. If he lives up to his name it will be well not to cross him.

Mrs. Freeman Carr, of Ypsilanti, died suddenly on Wednesday of last week at the doctor's office, where she had called to rest. She was thirty-five years old.

The first robin of the season struck Ypsilanti two weeks ago, and was the most disgusted bird in the country. He had to get close to the school board discussion to keep warm.

Morgan Carpenter, of Manchester, died last Thursday morning. His death was sudden and he expired just after he had had breakfast and laid down on the lounge. He was eighty-five years of age and was very highly respected.

The Ypsilanti telephone exchange has 81 telephones in.

A freak of nature was brought to light at Stevens' Hotel last Saturday morning. In a chicken that was being prepared for dinner was found two perfect hearts, one of normal size and performing its functions in its proper place, the other a trifle smaller and attached to the liver. Mr. Stevens has them preserved in alcohol and on exhibition in the hotel office.—Milan Leader.

There is a certain young man who came to South Lyon last Tuesday who will have occasion to remember St. Valentine's day for some time to come. After tea he donned his best wearing apparel, and most pleasant smile, and called upon a young lady acquaintance. His timid knock at the door was answered by the young lady herself, who ushered him into the parlor. His first words were: "My dear, I neglected to send you a valentine, so I brought myself as one." "Yes," replied the girl, "one of those large ones for a cent." The young man left town via the next freight train.—South Lyon Picket.

A Scio friend informs us that Register of Deeds Hughes made an unusually quick trip from the station, home, one evening last week. He came up from Ann Arbor on the late train, and stepping into the passenger house to light a cigar, he found the only occupant to be a burly stranger who lay stretched out on the seat, apparently asleep. A light flashed in his face convinced Mr. H. that he was too tough a customer for a traveling companion at that hour of the night, so he stole noiselessly away and struck a gait for home that would put to shame a professional sprinter, while the sleeper, a Scio man, continued to snooze on undisturbed.—Dexter News.

One of the most affectionate and apparently happy octogenarians in the whole world, we believe is "Grandma" Smith. A girlish smile plays on her face and a merry twinkle to the eye tell the story of a well-lived life. Her remembrance of the early history of this county is lively, and not one resident in a thousand can relate scenes of so early a date as Mrs. Sidney Smith. Others than she have told of her agility in the saddle when the Indians were in the majority, and the variety of large wild game was big. The picture of those "good old days" can only be told by the few now, and as "Grandma" Smith tells of the startling scenes of the 20's and 30's she must see in her memory scores of old acquaintances who have passed to the other shore to one of her acquaintances of today.—Dexter Leader.

A Great Benefactor.

"Educators are certainly the greatest benefactors of the race, and after reading Dr. Franklin Miles' popular works, we cannot help declaring him to be among the most entertaining and educating of authors."—New York Daily. He is not a stranger to our readers, as his advertisements appear in our columns in every issue, calling attention to the fact that his elegant work on Nervous and Heart Diseases is distributed free by our enterprising druggists, Eberbach & Son. Trial bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve are given away, also Book of Testimonials showing that it is unequalled for Nervous Prostration, Headache, Poor Memory, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Fits, Epilepsy.

Pittsfield.

Trains were delayed on the roads passing through this township by snow drifts, Sunday and Monday. Sunday was a wild day in the country. From noon on Sunday till about 6 a. m. Monday morning, the thermometer sank 40 degrees.

Sleighting is excellent, as it well might be, with so much snow, and such a solid foundation under the snow for the sleds to track on, the only thing in the way is the drifts in certain places.

To Spoon Every Durned Rod.

The newly wedded couple boarded the train at a village station and a crowd of about a hundred people saw them off. The groom was a strapping young fellow, with sunburned face and hands and bear's grease on his hair, while the bride might have been the "hired gal" on the same farm. They had no sooner taken a seat than he put his arm around her and began to caress one of her hands. A voice in rear of them cried out "Spoons!" but the bridegroom gave no sign. Pretty soon he pulled her head over on his shoulder and there was a titter from the rear of the car. The head stayed right there, however, and Josh got both her hands in his one paw. Three or four voices cried out "Oh!" and "Ah!" but it was fully two minutes before he tenderly pushed her away and rose up and said: "We are married. It was a case of luv. We sparked for seven sweet years. She's my violet and I'm her towerin' oak. We've got 180 miles to go and we are goin' to spoon every durned rod of it and if thar's any critter here who thinks he can't stand it he kin git out and walk."—The Shears.

It is Strange

That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel, and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

When Carlyle went to sit to Sir John Millais for his portrait, in Millais' grand new house, he turned on the stairway to ask: "Has paint done all this, Mr. Millais?" and, getting a smiling answer in the affirmative, remarked: "Ah, well, it shows what a number of fools there are in the world."—Argonaut.

Terrible Seize—Sciatic Rheumatism

Mr. Arthur Simon
Of Galaten, Ohio.

"They said I was incurable, the doctors did, but the result has proven that Hood's Sarsaparilla was able to cure. I had Sciatic Rheumatism and was confined to my bed six months. Three physicians did not help me and

I Was Given Up to Die
When I was in this terrible condition, unable to move hand or foot, I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle had a little effect, and while taking the second, I gained so rapidly that I could sit up in my chair. My system had been so run down by other medicine, that it took me quite a while to recuperate. By the time I had taken four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I could walk around, and now, as I have taken six bottles, I feel cured and can do a good day's work. I do not feel I can praise enough."

Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allison, a well-known citizen of Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in left side, shoulders, smothering spells, etc.; one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and one box of Nerve and Liver Pills, cured him. Peter Jaquet, Salem, N. Immediately after using the New Cure he felt better and could lie down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also Free Book, by Eberbach & Son.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1893.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democrats of Michigan will meet in state convention at the Auditorium, in the City of Detroit, on Tuesday, February 28, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for Michigan, and two candidates for regents of the university, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. Each county in the state will be entitled to one delegate for each 500 votes cast for Governor at the last general election and one additional delegate for a fraction of not less than 250 votes, but no county shall have less than two delegates in the convention. Under the rule long adhered to, all delegates must be residents of the counties which they represent in the convention.

The delegates from each congressional district will meet in caucus at 10 o'clock a. m., on the day of the convention, at quarters to be hereafter designated by the central committee, to recommend persons for service in the organization of the convention. Each district is entitled to one vice-president of the convention and one member each of the committees on credentials, permanent organization and order of business and resolutions. All electors who are in sympathy with the principles expressed in the party declarations, who have voted in the past with the Democratic party, who find themselves desirous of associating with it in the future and who sympathize with its principles, although not heretofore identified with its party name, are cordially invited to participate in the caucuses for the election of delegates to this convention.

DANIEL J. CAMPAU, Chairman,
FRANK H. HOSFORD, Secretary.

Under this call Washtenaw is entitled to twenty-one delegates.

The Republican county convention this week was a tame affair. Only eight towns were represented and Ypsilanti only sent five delegates. The enthusiasm thus indicated is not such as will make any break in the Democratic lines this spring.

The Courier is forced to admit that Mr. Cavanaugh is an "efficient incumbent of the office of school commissioner." If there is any office in the category of offices that should be strictly non-partisan, it is a school office. And yet the republicans put up a candidate of their own, proving conclusively that their platform was buncomb. If they can afford to vote the republican ticket, the democrats can afford to vote the democratic ticket.

The Courier evidently is either not in accord with the republican leaders in this county, or it is simply striving to find fault with the action of the democratic convention last week from purely partisan grounds. In speaking of the democratic convention it terms the election of three delegates at large "a shrewd device of the politicians." The republicans must have admired the "shrewd device of the politicians," for they also elected three delegates at large.

Col. Dean was eulged out of the Republican nomination for regent by a clique of Detroit doctors, Wednesday. The Republicans put up a ticket, Hooker for judge, and Fletcher and Keefer for regents, which makes it very easy for the Democrats to put up a better ticket. This is no reason, however, why the Democrats in their state convention next Tuesday should not put up the best men in the party. The nominations should be such as would command the vote of every independent voter.

The Detroit Free Press has the following editorial comment on the Washtenaw convention last week:

The Democracy of old Washtenaw is sound as ever and never hesitates to condemn such acts of legislation as merit its disapproval. The contemptible act of the senate in unseating Mr. Jordan gave them a splendid opening, of which proper advantage was taken. The Republicans will find that their rank injustice in this matter will prove a damaging precedent.

The Lansing Journal also comments editorially on the resolutions as follows:

The gallant Democracy of Washtenaw county met in convention yesterday, and adopted among other resolutions the following:

We denounce the unseating of Senator Jordan, elected by an undisputed majority of 326 votes, on a flimsy pretext contrary to recent decisions of the Supreme Court.

We denounce the waste and extravagance shown by our state legislature in the creating of unnecessary offices to provide places for relatives of Republican legislators.

These resolutions have the ring of righteous indignation. They are an invocation to Democratic courage. The utterly lawless partisan proceedings of this Legislature present a timely subject for Democratic denunciation, reproof, and warning. The creation of unnecessary petty sinecures, the shameful practice of nepotism, and the unspeakable outrage perpetrated in the unseating of Senator Jordan and Representatives Griffin and Rusch, should be constantly held up to the gaze and the execration of the people. If the latter are kept fully informed as to the reckless, vicious, and high-handed acts of the party in power at present in this state, there will not be another Republican administration in Michigan for the next quarter of a century.

After resolving concerning the "squawbuck maladministration" and the "Infamous Miner law," the republicans of Washtenaw have the effrontery to ask the democrats to support a republican for office, on the ground that there is no democrat as good as he is. The republicans believe that no one has a right to be a partisan but a republican. They also, even while asking a favor from the democrats, fail to forego the pleasure of calling the democrats names. If the democrats in this judicial district of 2,000 democratic majority will side in with the republican platform, they will deserve the most opprobrious terms the republicans can apply to them.

CHANGED CONDITIONS.

The Republican organs that pretend to have discerned a weakening of Mr. Cleveland's purpose to secure a reform of the tariff probably do not deceive themselves. They certainly will not deceive the country. The man who risked defeat for an otherwise sure re-election to the Presidency by forcing the issue of tariff reform because he believed it to be right, and who has adhered steadfastly to that issue ever since, is not at all likely to weaken in its support now that he has been sustained by the people and put in power to carry out his policy.

To the sneering inquiry whether Mr. Cleveland now thinks that "it is a condition that confronts us, not a theory," the reply is: Yes, but, thanks to Republican profligacy and misrule, the condition is different and more perilous.

When Mr. Cleveland spoke in 1887 the condition was thus: A surplus of $60,000,000 in the treasury and an annual revenue of $100,000,000 in excess of the needs of the government; a strong gold reserve; a silver coinage which the business of the country absorbed without serious consequences, and a war tariff after twenty-five years of peace.

Today, after four more years of Republican rule, the condition is this: An exhausted treasury; a revenue insufficient to meet the expenses of the government; the free gold reduced to $8,000,000, three-fourths of which has been loaned by the banks; a compulsory silver purchase and paper inflation which have driven gold out of the country and impaired public confidence, and a worse than war tariff that has been twice condemned by the country.

Obviously the first duty is to meet the dangerous condition created by an empty treasury and a demoralized currency. All other reforms must wait upon these. If there shall be any delay in reforming the tariff it will be due not to Mr. Cleveland but to the men who have thus far refused to get the hindering Sherman act out of the way.—New York World.

Pe-ru-na is a specific for every case of catarrh—for the Acute and the Chronic. The dose of Pe-ru-na should be a large tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. This dose should be gradually increased to tablespoonfuls. Women and some delicate men should begin with a teaspoonful, and as slowly and gradually increase to the above full dose. In some cases of Acute Catarrh (cold in the head), where the case is severe, a teaspoonful of Pe-ru-na should be taken every hour.

Every one should send for a free copy of treatise on catarrh, coughs, colds and consumption, by the Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, of Columbus, Ohio. Sent free during February and March.

33 per ct. difference. Royal Baking Powder Strongest, Purest, Most Economical.

As to whether any of the baking powders are equal to the "Royal," the official tests clearly determine. When samples of various baking powders were purchased from the grocers, and analyzed by the United States Government Chemists and the Chemists of State and City Boards of Health, the reports revealed the fact that the "Royal" contained from 28 per cent. to 60 per cent. more leavening strength than the others, and also that it was more perfectly combined, absolutely pure, and altogether wholesome.

As most of these powders are sold to consumers at the same price as the "Royal," by the use of the Royal Baking Powder there is an average saving of over one third, besides the advantage of assured purity and wholesomeness of food, and of bread, biscuit and cake made perfectly light, sweet, and palatable.

The official reports also reveal the presence, in other powders, of alum, lime or sulphuric acid, by which their use is made a matter of grave danger to the consumer.

Whenever a baking powder is sold at a lower price than the "Royal," or with a gift, it is a certain indication that it is made from alum, and is to be avoided under all circumstances.

While in the University he took advantage of every occasion to preach good Democratic doctrine, and we are pleased to say that notwithstanding the recent magnificent success of the Democratic party he still indulges in the habit.

Annual Meeting S. C. A.

The opening event of the celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Students' Christian Association occurred Saturday evening, a reception being tendered Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer at Newberry Hall.

THE SUNDAY EXERCISES.

The second feature in this celebration occurred at 9:15 Sunday morning, which proved to be an interesting meeting.

Professor Barbour, of Ypsilanti, president of the association in 1878, gave a description of the work at that time and of the earnestness and spiritual greatness of some of his fellow-students, warmly commending them, the Association, and the University, for what they had done for him.

Dr. D'Ooge told how the S. C. A. had come to be organized, of chapel exercises in 1877, at which attendance was compulsory, and gave reminiscences of the first president of the S. C. A., Mr. Little, of Dr. Ford and Daniel Kloss.

The annual meeting of the S. C. A. at University Hall Sunday evening proved to be very interesting. About eighteen hundred people were present.

The service was opened by the rendition of one of the choruses from St. Paul by the Choral Union. This was followed by scripture reading and prayer, when the Union sang "Happy and Blessed are They," giving it such fine shading and perfect expression as to make it exceptionally pleasing.

Dr. Angell spoke of the Association being the first of its kind in the world, of its moulding constitution so as to admit women when the University was made coeducational, and introduced one of the first women to enter it, one whose career has been brilliant, useful, varied, Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer.

Mrs. Palmer is a woman of fine appearance and easy in address, having no trouble in filling the hall and retaining the attention of her audience. She gave a sketch of work and benefits of the society, saying that "a book written twenty-five years ago had become an old edition, but thirty-five years of prayer and help by the S. C. A. had only brought it to its beginning and that many hearts gave God thanks that the fire had been kept burning on the altars of the S. C. A. through nine generations of students."

"In the past thirty-five years ideals have changed, college ideals have changed, colleges, such as are known today, did not then exist, for in that time men and women have poured out their millions at the feet of boys and girls."

The business of the university is to train leaders, the business of the S. C. A. is to train spiritual leaders.

Mrs. Palmer drew vivid pictures of needy women and children who are in want of aid of enlightened men and women. In want of the assistance their views of social matters and economics can bring, and urges that in the present time, in all time to come, the members of the Students' Christian Association will "reach out warm hands and hold open doors to young men and women, of whatever belief, who eagerly seek righteousness."

The doxology, followed by a chorus from St. Paul was sung. Rev. Mr. Bradshaw pronounced the benediction, and the service closed with an evening hymn by the union.

Clara Morris.

The following brief criticisms show the regard in which Clara Morris is held in New York.

"Mesmerism, hypnotism, strong words; but perhaps the best to use in speaking of her power."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"The Fourteenth Street theatre was crowned with the admirers of this remarkable actress, and from the beginning to the end of the play, her impersonation was watched with breathless interest. Her marvelous powers are revealed in their completeness."—Sun. In superb health she essayed the role last night, and because of its emotional requirements, carried the audience along with her upon the surface of her passion."—Herald. "Clara Morris gave convincing proof last night that she still possesses that subtle force which makes her unapproachable and matchless in the rank of American actresses. Her art had won her a new triumph."—World. Miss Morris appears at the opera house next Thursday night, in Rence de Moray, a play of intense power, and will doubtless receive the plaudits of an audience only limited by the seating capacity of the house.

The National Lead Company, the largest manufacturers of white lead and lead products in the world, begins this number a series of advertisements that any, who contemplate painting during the coming season, will do well to read. They are not a new firm introducing a new article, but are the owners and manufacturers of the standard brands of white lead that have given white lead its character as the standard paint. Many of the brands were already old when our fathers were boys.

In Paint

the best is the cheapest. Strictly Pure White Lead is best; properly applied it will not scale, chip, chalk, or rub off; it firmly adheres to the wood and forms a permanent base for repainting. Paints which peel or scale have to be removed by scraping or burning before satisfactory repainting can be done. When buying it is important to obtain properly made. Time has proven that white lead made by the "Old Dutch" process of slow corrosion possesses qualities that cannot be obtained by any other method of manufacture. This process consumes four to six months time, and produces the brands that have given White Lead its character as the standard paint.

"Armstrong & McKelvy"
"Beymer-Bauman" "Eckstein"
"Fahnestock" "Anchor"
"Kentucky" "Morley"
"Southern" "Shipman"
"Red Seal" "Collier"
"Davis-Chambers"

are standard brands of strictly pure Lead made by the "Old Dutch" process. You get the best in buying them. You can produce any desired color by tinting these brands of white lead with National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

For sale by the most reliable dealers in Paints everywhere.

Dexter is said to "have an eye out" for modern improvements. It is thus seen that she will have to be very careful of the remaining eye.

Milan hens, lately combined, reduced the output and rushed the price of eggs up to 40 cents a dozen, just like some other great manufacturing institutions.

Taka Kawada, a Jap., is lecturing in Washtenaw on "The Status of Women in Japan." "Taka Kawada," in English, signifies, "Take a coy widow."

Dr. Huff of the University, will soon lecture on "Dental Prosthetics"—something new in the college. We are not now prepared to state what "dental prosthetics" is—or are. Some new species of torture, we suppose.

The Ann Arbor street railway company gets ripped up the back by the Argus "Lounge" in several particulars. Serves them right. The "Lounge" should have had the benefit of the pass long ago.

The Ann Arbor health board has recommended that all citizens not heretofore vaccinated, be touched up immediately. The small-pox is around in Washtenaw with its overcoat off, looking for situations.

Another saloon may go in at Petersburg. The Sun says Petersburg doesn't need it, and evidently regards the Englishman's spelling of "saloon" the correct one viz.: "with a 'hess' and a 'hay' and a 'hel,' two 'hoses' and a 'hen.'"

John Cook, a Milan coal heaver, is said by the Leader to have become worth a million dollars, as that is the value he places on his new-born daughter, and he has stopped work. Better keep right on heaving coal, John. Comparatively few sons-in-laws turn out worth a cent.

Gov. Rich tumbled out the democratic county agent in Washtenaw county, at the tick of the clock, and appointed D. B. Green, of Ypsilanti. Mr. Green is about a hundred years old, and has been in office 97½ years. He knew Josephus before he wrote his history.

Abner Gregory, who kept a gambling place in Ann Arbor, placed his confidence on the wrong card, when he supposed the authorities wouldn't jerk him up and make him pay $25, for they did. Alas, how little faith can be placed in human nature! Who would have thought Gregory would have been arrested?

Quite a little bump of the genius is carried under the hat of Walter Simpson, of Milan. He has invented a thing which when attached to a scale, not only indicates the weight of the article, but figures up the price per pound. With a slight adjustment to circumstances Simpson's contrivance might be worked for the missionary cause, by attaching it to a phonographic contribution box, which would then announce to the congregation just how many shingle nails and brass buttons had been thrown in for the heathen, and who threw them. It would also act as a check on the rapacity of the deacons who might otherwise embezzle these articles for themselves and defraud the cannibal of Christian charity, thus compelling him to eat a missionary or two, in reimbursement of damages.

The Ypsilantian cryptologist and professor of ancient literature, has discovered the origin of the word "snolligostor," "sno," in Hebrew, meaning snow, and "goster," gasty, the connective "ili" adding intensity. By this it appears that a cold, snowy day was a "snolligostor," the word being closely allied to, if not derived from Noah's remark about the flood being "a regular rip snorter," an expression equivalent to our modern exclamatory of "Beats the devil!"

The Ypsilantian complains of the brutality to horses, and asks if there is no remedy. There could be by the removal of the whipping post. Cruelty to animals should be punished with the lash. Our contemporary further inquires, "Where are our ladies always quick to do a deed of mercy?" The ladies! At the risk of being hurled down from the pinnacle of their esteem, like Lucifer from heaven, we declare that ladies themselves are not the gentlest and most considerate of horsemen.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS.

Foreign Delegates at Battle Creek to Attend the International Conference.

BATTLE CREEK, Feb. 18.—The general conference of Seventh-Day Adventists began here Friday. The roll called showed 150 delegates seated and others still to come. A congregation of 2,000 people attended the opening of the conference. The delegates come from every state in the union and from England, Ireland, Norway, Denmark, Holland, France, Russia, South Africa, Germany, Switzerland and South America. The address of the president, O. A. Olsen, proved by facts and figures that the work of the church was rapidly progressing all over the world. The enforcement of the Sunday laws is agitating the Adventists deeply. Their earnest endeavor is to establish religious liberty.

ly progressing all over the world. The enforcement of the Sunday laws is agitating the Adventists deeply. Their earnest endeavor is to establish religious liberty.

BATTLE CREEK, Feb. 21.—At Monday's session of the Adventist conference cheering reports of progress were made by delegates from all parts of the world. The reports of the secretary and treasurer show the following: Out of thirty-nine associations in the world there are 1,552 schools, with a membership of 33,323. Sabbath schools, missionary offerings foot up the past year to $18,455.96. The net loss for the past year was $260.40.

"PRINCE MIKE" MUST STAY.

His Attempt to Get Out of the Michigan State Prison a Failure.

LANSING, Feb. 17.—The attempt to get a new trial for "Prince Mike," alias Michael K. Mills, has failed. The late head of the latter house of Israel will therefore remain in the state prison at Jackson until his five years' sentence is completed. The application for a new trial was based upon the claim that Bernice Bechel, whom "Prince Mike" assaulted, was of unchaste character before he knew her and that the judge of "Prince Mike's" first trial was in error when he charged the jury that such claim was without foundation. The supreme court sustains Judge Kinne in every point.

Boundary Lines.

LANSING, Feb. 20.—A strenuous effort is to be made by the Civil Engineers' associations of Michigan, Ohio and Indiana to have the legislatures of those states take some prompt and definite action this year looking toward the establishment of definite boundary lines. This matter has occasioned considerable controversy in the past, and it is predicted that unless it is given immediate attention will lead to serious interstate litigation. The monuments of the survey of the boundary lines, it appears, have been partially destroyed or misplaced, or have become indistinct, so as to cause great inconvenience.

Lost in the Storm.

CADILLAC, Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Holt, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Donquist, while driving to Jennings, a distance of 12 miles, on Sunday, lost their way. On Monday one of the horses was found at Jennings. A search was instituted and the missing parties were found in a badly frozen condition. The hands of one of the ladies will have to be amputated. The horse had been cut loose in the hope of his traveling to Jennings, and thus giving the alarm.

Gold Found in Michigan.

BATTLE CREEK, Feb. 18.—Gold has been found on Newton H. Huston's farm in Calhoun county. Mr. Huston has certificates of an assayer showing that the rock carries as high as 2 and 43.100 ounces of gold and 50.100 ounces of silver to the ton. The results range from these amounts down. A large quantity of the ore will be taken to the Michigan Mining school at Houghton to be assayed.
