A JEFFERSONIAN DAY

A Harmonious Democratic County Convention.

HON. JAS. S. GORMAN

Heads the Delegation to the State Convention.

With Other Strong and Representative Men as Delegates.—Every Town is Represented and a Good Feeling Prevails.

The democratic county convention on Monday was largely attended and this in spite of the fact that there was no fight on as had been the case in the convention of Monday. It was a representative convention, made up of excellent men and the spirit which pervaded it indicated that a determined struggle was about beginning to place Washtenaw back in her old place in the democratic column. The only work before the convention was the sending of delegates to the state convention and this duty was well discharged, and an able body of men selected to represent the democracy of Washtenaw. Judge Harriman made an able presiding officer and greatly expedited the work of the convention.

The convention was called to order by County Chairman Arthur Brown at 11:30 o'clock, who introduced Judge W. D. Harriman as temporary presiding officer. The judge's remarks were brief and he proceeded to hustle things through. Tracy L. Towner, of Ypsilanti, was named as temporary secretary and the following committees were appointed:

Credentials—Dr. D. P. McLachlan, of York, M. J. Cavanaugh, of Ann Arbor, James M. Forsythe, Ypsilanti. Permanent organization and order of business—T. D. Kearney, of Ann Arbor, James Taylor, of Chelsea, J. M. Palmer, of Ypsilanti.

A motion for a committee on resolutions was laid on the table, the convention evidently not wishing to harmonize and not desiring to adopt absolutely meaningless resolutions, such as the republican convention had done. An adjournment was then made until 2 o'clock when the convention reassembled.

The committee on credentials reported that they had examined the reports from the several townships and voting precincts had found all the delegations full and the delegates entitled to votes in the convention.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business made report as follows:

1. That the temporary officers of the convention be made permanent.
2. Report of the committee on credentials.
3. Report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business.
4. The election of a delegate at large by the convention to the state convention at Detroit, April 29, 1896.

5. That the convention be divided into the following voting precincts and caucus to elect 18 delegates to the state convention and report the same back to this convention: Ann Arbor city 5, Ypsilanti city 3, Manchester and Sharon 1, Bridgewater and Lodi 1, Freedom and Saline 1, Pittsfield and York 1, Ypsilanti and Augusta 1, Scio and Lima 1, Superior and Ann Arbor 1, Northfield and Salem 1, Sylvan 1, Lyndon, Dexter and Webster 1—18.

6. Adjournment.

The report was adopted without any discussion.

The first three articles of this report having been already complied with, the election of a delegate at large to the state convention was proceeded with. The chair appointed Frank Hammond, of Ypsilanti, and F. P. Bogardus, of Ypsilanti, to act as tellers.

M. J. Cavanaugh moved that Arthur Brown, of Ann Arbor, be the delegate at large and his motion was seconded.

Charles R. Whitman in a few well chosen words put forward the name of James S. Gorman, of Chelsea, to be elected by acclamation to the position.

M. T. Woodruff, of Ypsilanti, moved that both resolutions be laid on the table which was done and then the convention proceeded to elect a delegate by ballot.

When the ballot was announced it was found that 142 votes had been cast, of which Jas. S. Gorman had 74, Arthur Brown 40, J. Willard Babbitt 19, M. T. Woodruff 5, W. G. Doty 2, George McDougall 2.

On motion to that effect James S. Gorman was declared the unanimous choice of the convention at large.

The convention then separated into voting precincts to elect the 18 delegates to the state convention in accordance with the scheme laid down in article 5 of the report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business. The delegates chosen are as follows:

Ann Arbor city—J. F. Schuch, John Kapp, Wm. McIntyre, C. R. Whitman, Edward Duffy; Ypsilanti city—J. Willard Babbitt, John Terns, John P. Kirk; Ann Arbor and Superior, T. V. Quackenbush; Manchester and Sharon, Jas. Kelly; Bridgewater and Lodi, Philip Blum, sr.; Freedom and Saline, Geo. J. Nissle; Pittsfield and York, Dr. D. P. McLachlan; Ypsilanti and Augusta, John Hurley; Scio and Lima, J. V. N. Gregory; Northfield and Salem, Wm. H. Dowgan; Sylvan, James Taylor; Lyndon, Dexter and Freedom, Wm. H. Arnold.

Charles R. Whitman nominated Judge J. Willard Babbitt for chairman of the county committee, claiming that this convention was the proper time and place for it and that the best interests of the party would be subserved by such action.

Thos. D. Kearney moved to lay the matter on the table indefinitely as the call for the convention had not included any such action.

Dr. D. P. McLachlan, of York, and Capt. C. H. Manly and Edward Duffy, of Ann Arbor, spoke against Mr. Whitman's motion after Mr. Kearney had withdrawn his motion in order that such a thing could be done. Mr. Whitman answered them in an impassioned speech.

John V. Sheehan moved to appoint the chairman of the county committee at the convention to be held next the matter to be embodied in the call for that convention.

Mr. Whitman then gracefully withdrew his motion and that of Mr. Sheehan was carried.

M. T. Woodruff, of Ypsilanti, offered a resolution that each delegate who cannot go to Detroit, be allowed to appoint his own proxy. This was ruled out of order by the chair as being contrary to the statutes.

W. G. Doty moved a vote of thanks to the officers of the convention which was unanimously carried and the convention adjourned.

OESTERLIN TURNED DOWN.

The New Council Would Not Confirm His Appointment.

The new common council held its initial meeting Monday evening with President Hiscock in the chair. The members who answered to their names at roll call were: Ald. Maynard, Moore, Koch, Grossman, Laubengayer, Dell, Burke, Shadford, Rhodes, Coon, Soule, Cady, Danforth. Ald. Brown was absent.

Mayor Walker's annual message was read and accepted. The mayor's veto of the printing of the proceedings of the board of public works in the council proceedings, was not sustained.

Ald. Maynard's resolution, instructing the city attorney to give to the council his opinion in the matter of the legality of John R. Miner holding office as a member of the board of public works and acting as a member of the board of supervisors at the same time, was carried.

The appointment of Eugene Oesterlin as a member of the board of public works was defeated by a vote of 7 nays and 6 yeas. Ald. Maynard and Moore spoke against Mr. Oesterlin's appointment, and Ald. Koch and Grossman spoke in favor of it. Ald. Danforth was excused from voting as he did not know Mr. Oesterlin nor anything about the matter.

The board of public works was empowered to finish the crosswalks which had remained unfinished. The resignation of Mr. Ross as a member of the board of public works was accepted.

The street railway was ordered to keep its tracks in better condition. The sewer committee was ordered to investigate and report on the William and Jefferson streets sewer, which has been asked for by the residents of that section.

George P. Ottley was allowed $20 for injuries received by his child through falling on a defective sidewalk. The liquor and druggists' bonds were fixed at $3,000 and $2,000 respectively. A committee of three was appointed to formulate rules for the governance of the council. Of this committee the president is one.

President Hiscock announced the committees for the year as follows: Lighting—Soule, Cady, Danforth. Bonds—Brown, Moore, Grossman. Licenses—Grossman, Coon, Dell. Parks—Burke, Maynard, Shadford. Poor—Rhodes, Danforth, Laubengayer.

Fire Department—Shadford, Grossman, Rhodes.

Police—Dell, Koch, Burke.

X Rays Made Useful.

Prof. Roentgen's discovery of the X rays was put to a practical use at the University hospital on Wednesday afternoon, when Dr. W. J. Herdman and Prof. H. S. Carhart used them for the purpose of locating the position of a bullet in a man's foot.

Stephen Schultz, of Eloise, was brought to the hospital by Dr. J. Marker for treatment, having a bullet in his foot as the result of a shooting accident a few days since.

A sensitive plate was placed beneath his foot and the X rays brought into requisition. The exposure was three quarters of an hour in duration, and the bullet was located near the joint on the first metatarsal bone. The exposure was not long enough to make plain the imprint on the plate, but was sufficiently clear to locate the bullet. Another attempt will be made, and a longer time will be given to the exposure. It is thought that the swelling in the foot prevented a successful exposure without a longer time being given to the operation of the X rays. A lateral exposure will also be made in order to locate the bullet transversely.

Tried to Commit Suicide.

Albert M. Bucklin, who lives on the north side at 133 Broadway, in a fit of drunken frenzy attempted to commit suicide Saturday night by stabbing himself in the neighborhood of the heart.

Dr. Kapp was called in to attend to the man's wound, which though in a dangerous part of the body is not serious. About a year ago while attempting to steal a ride on a Michigan Central train from Ypsilanti to Ann Arbor, he lost a leg. He is a married man and has a wife and several children, dependent on him for their support, but it is said they do not receive much of that. Bucklin's wound is healing and he will soon be around again.

Two Minor Accidents.

Tuesday was a veritable day for accidents in Ypsilanti. Besides the fatal accident to Fred Block, M. R. Ferguson, an employee of the Peninsular Paper Co., had his arm caught in a belt at the mill and bruised, but no bones were injured. At C. E. King's grocery mill Howlett was tending a coffee grinder when the sleeve of his shirt got caught and was ripped off so quick and in such a manner that he was thankful that he was not nearer the belt than he was or he might have had something of a repetition of the Block accident.

Improving Their Property.

Frederick Schmid and Ambrose Kearney are making notable improvements to their property at 31 and 33 S. Main street. Mr. Schmid is extending his store back to the alley 54 feet, and making it three stories high. When finished the store will be 125 feet deep. New flooring, new shelving and a new front will also be put in. The second story will be fitted up and used as a tinshop, while the third floor will be used for storing surplus stock.

Mr. Kearney's addition to his store will also be 54 feet deep, but only two stories high. Its present occupant, John Goetz, jr., will occupy the whole of the ground floor for his business and may also utilize the second floor. Both these additions are laudable improvements, and the gentlemen are to be highly commended for their public spirit and enterprise.

FELL UNDER THE CARS

Conductor Foster Fatally Injured at Ypsilanti.

WHIRLED ON A SHAFT

Fred Block's Limbs Were Mangled and Broken.

His Head and Face Cut and Bruised.—His Arm Was Amputated But He Died From the Shock to His Nervous System.

A fatal accident occurred at the Michigan Central depot in Ypsilanti, Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock, from the effects of which Frank E. Foster, conductor on the switch engine in the Ypsilanti yards, lost his life.

At the time of the accident he was riding on the way car and when opposite the telegraph office he jumped off the car to run in and report, so that by the time the engine had reached the switch and backed up again he would be ready to go ahead without delay.

The sidewalk walk was damp from the rain and quite slippery, and Mr. Foster having on rubber boots did not gain a sure footing. He slipped and fell underneath the rapidly moving cars and three freight cars, which were behind the way car, passed over his legs.

When picked up he was frightfully mangled, one leg being crushed above the knee and the other near the ankle.

He was removed to his home on Grove street, where Drs. Batwell and Hull performed a double amputation, both of his legs being removed. After the operation he rallied and recognized and spoke to his family and friends who had gathered about, but soon lost consciousness and gradually sank until Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock, when he passed away.

A peculiar feature of the sad occurrence was, that Mr. Foster had a presentiment that something would happen to him. The day before the accident he was in conversation with Ike Davis. He said: "I have been on the road a long time, Ike, and I have never got 'pinched' yet, but I feel it that my time is coming." But a few hours afterwards his words had come true.

The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were largely attended. Mr. Foster leaves a wife and two daughters. He had a $2,000 life insurance policy in the Maccabees and $2,000 in the Brotherhood of Conductors. He was a pleasant, kindly man and was greatly respected.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT YPSILANTI.

Caught by a Belt Fred Block Loses His Life.

Frank Block, 19 years of age, an operator in the Sharf Tag, Label and Box factory at Ypsilanti, met with a very serious accident shortly before noon Tuesday. He was working on the wire machine in a room by himself when those in adjoining apartments heard his shrieks. Rushing in they found him prostrate on the floor. He had got caught in the belting in some way and was jerked up to the shafting. Just above the shafting are some steam pipes and he had been whirled around and banged up against these in a terrible manner until the main belt came off. His right hand was cut to the bone. Between the elbow and wrist of the right arm there was compound comminuted fracture with the flesh badly lacerated and bones crushed. The bone above the elbow was broken in two places and crushed, the muscles lacerated, but the skin was not ruptured. At three inches below the shoulder the amputation was made. The left thigh was broken four inches above the knee and the right three inches above the knee, and also three inches below the hip, a fracture in two places on the right leg. Dr. Owen did all he could to save the poor young man's life, but he could not rally from the terrible shock to his system and died at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. The funeral services were held this morning at 9 o'clock.

Fire nearly destroyed the barn of the Ypsilanti Lumber Co., at Ypsilanti, Thursday night of last week. The blaze started in the hay loft, but the horses, wagons and harnesses were all saved. While three of the firemen were working on the second floor it gave way, dropping them down to the first floor. Fireman Kent was buried underneath five or six feet of hay and there was a great hustle to liberate him. DeMar was nearly suffocated and had to be carried out of the building. There were two carloads of baled hay in the barn at the time of the fire.

H. D. Martin, an old and respected citizen of Ypsilanti, died at his home in that city Thursday, of last week, after a long and painful illness with tuberculosis of the throat. The funeral services were held Saturday and were largely attended.

The funeral of Mrs. George Amrhein, of Plymouth, was held at St. John's church, Ypsilanti, last Saturday. It was attended by a large number of the Arbeiter Verein, of which order her husband is a member. Mrs. Amrhein's death was caused by blood poisoning.

A year ago, the young American woodchuck subsidists lobbied through an appropriation of $37 in Ann Arbor town to pay for scalps. Three hundred and twenty-eight dollars worth of scalps were brought in and there is a woodchuck deficiency of $291 and the boys who rounded up the 'chucks from Pittsfield, Soio, Northfield and Superior are swearing mad; and who blames them? The young hunters wanted to see the circus and it was "a case of woodchuck" with them. The deficiency will be raised this year by tax.

The Castalian is a publication by some of the classes of the university. It is a book of more or less merit, sometimes one and oftener the other. Merchants are held up by the gills for ads, and do not dare to refuse, for fear they will not get student trade. They have high grade, first class printing offices in Ann Arbor, capable of doing any kind of good work, but the students regard it as evidence of style, to take the printing to Chicago. Well, the papers there hardly dare kick. Yet it has occurred to us all along that the tuition for foreign students should be doubled by the legislature. We presume the Oscar Wilde sentiment that sends the work to Chicago, is pre-eminently in favor of McKinley, protection, and prosperity. Of course, the home industries are to be encouraged. We advise the Register and Courier to investigate, and ascertain if the young budding brains that are developing into literary protuberances, are not affected with the theory of protection to home industries.

WOULDN'T DRINK PUNCH.

His Temptress Was Rich and Beautiful, but He Stood by His Principles.

We have advanced in one way, at any rate. Nobody argues with or "chaffs" the young man—and there are a great many of him—who says:

"No, thank you. I never drink wine or spirits."

I confess to feeling a little glow of pride and approbation rise within me when I hear this, and I want to shake hands with that young man. They tell me that where six fellows "line up" at a bar these days it is no uncommon thing for three of them to take ginger ale or vichy, and nobody says a word either.

At a reception not long ago a handsome young man stood in the marble hall and ladled out lemonade and claret punch to a contingent of pretty women who appeared to dote upon him.

One of them said:

"But, Mr. Morris, ain't you going to have some punch?"

"I'll drink lemonade."

"Oh, pshaw! Drink a glass of claret punch with me."

"Thank you, no."

She was the prettiest girl in the house and the richest.

Her eyes flashed and she said coaxingly:

"As a personal and especial favor to me, please do. I'll give you every dance you want if you will."

The young fellow reddened and then turned pale.

"Thank you very much," he said, "but I couldn't do it."

And then from all those other women went up such a round of applause that, had he been an actor, he would have started out "starring" at once, while the temptress swept into the next room in a blaze of indignation.—Polly Pry in New York Recorder.

An elaborate monograph on "The Speaker of the House of Representatives" will soon be published by Miss Mary Parker Follett of Radcliffe college, Cambridge, Mass. Miss Follett's views are said to be decidedly original.

VILLAGE DOINGS.

Manchester.

Freddie and Hannah Rehffuss, of Ann Arbor, made their old friends and schoolmates a pleasant visit last week.

Clarence W. Taylor, of Duluth, Minn., who is attending the U. of M., spent his vacation with friends and relatives in town.

A gloom was cast over the village last week Tuesday morning upon hearing of the death of Mrs. Deborah Morgan, the oldest resident of the village. In the year 1832 she married Thomas Morgan, at Mendon, N. Y., resided in Richmond, N. Y., until 1835, when Mr. and Mrs. Morgan located at Manchester, having purchased the eastern half of the village, erecting the first frame building in Manchester. In 1862, they went to Milton Junction, Wis., but a fire in 1873 destroyed their home and they returned to Manchester. Mrs. Morgan was in her 84th year, and survived her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Vandergift and Mrs. Wallace, both of Manchester. She was a faithful member of the Universalist church, was well known and leaves many endearing friends who mourn her loss.

A Labyrinth of Sentiment.

The following from the columns of the Ypsilanti Commercial are some of the rambling vagaries of its Willis correspondent, in relation to the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Holland, of Willis:

"As the evening wore away Dr. Post called the attention of the host and hostess to the fact that their guests had accorded to him the honor of presenting to them as testimonials of the high esteem in which they were held by their many friends, gifts that accorded with the promptings of friendship and as expressions of a sincere desire that happiness, the result of their wedded life, might ever abide with them, making of their home life a perpetual feast, as caretakers of a sanctuary pure as child-life, sanctified by verities that tenderness interprets, as the unwritten law finds in their lives, as they went forward to happier hours, the fruitions that the divine in life enthrones and perpetuates in the happy home ever more blessed by the presence of the helpful, the hopeful, that waits at the altar of cheer, to invest the passing moments with messages of good for all."

Miss Willard's Plans.

Miss Frances E. Willard is back in Chicago after a lecture tour of five months throughout the south. She will soon sail for England, to be present at the annual meeting of the British Woman's Temperance association. She will then visit Norway, after which she will return to this country. It is the present intention of Miss Willard and Lady Henry Somerset to take a large company of women on a trip around the world next winter. They will visit every potentate and ruler of importance in the world and will present to each of them the mammoth petition against opium and rum.

LESSONS OF KINDNESS.

Ann Arbor Humane Society Doing a Good Work.

To the Editor of the Argus:

In January last the executive committee of the Humane Society of Ann Arbor appointed what they called an educational committee, the purpose of which was to keep the community informed of the design and working of this class of organization. At an early meeting it was agreed that the most effectual way of impressing the people of the city with the subject would be to suggest the getting up of a series of exercises in the ward schools, in which it should be set forth in adaptation to the several grades of the pupils. The superintendent of the city schools and the teachers in the several wards all showed themselves more than willing to accept the plan suggested, and it has now been carried out by all of them with no other aid than the supply by the committee of some appropriate literature. The round has now been completed, as follows:

Second Ward, Miss Gundert, principal, March 20.

First Ward, Mrs. Plympton, principal, March 27.

Fifth Ward, Miss Goodale, principal, April 3.

Third Ward, Mrs. Edson, principal, April 8.

Sixth Ward, Mrs. Lowndes, principal, April 9.

Fourth Ward, Miss Ayles, principal, April 10.

The first of these exhibitions so impressed the committee that they feared they should have to praise this above the others; but in view of the entire round of the six schools, they do not feel inclined to make such distinction, but simply report their impression of the series as a whole. The children seem to have been so won to the spirit of kindness that they needed only to make its applications. The teachers will now need but to persevere in this kind of lessons to make life be kind to all living creatures, human and brute.

The exercises at the schools consisted of recitations in which all classes from the child of six years to the seventh grade pupils, were represented. The pieces selected were well adapted to teach lessons of kindness, and were pronounced with evident appreciation of their import. Some of these set forth instances of the instinctive sagacity of brute animals, some treated with deserved censure the inhumanity of those who abuse dumb animals. The birds were in all the schools the pets of the pieces spoken. The wanton destruction of these either for mere sport or for the adornment of ladies' head-gear, was aptly set off in the selections, while notes of alarm were sounded as to the danger to land tillage and to nature's musical cheer from the threatened extinction of these insectivorous songsters, which, if allowed freely to multiply, would keep down the greatest pests of the farm and the garden, as well as charm by their ditties all humanity around them.

There were several pretty original essays by the children on the subject of these exercises, while such classic poets as Cowper, Burns, Bryant and Longfellow were made to speak in well pronounced selections their kindly sympathies with the brute creation. Perhaps the highest cheer of these occasions was when a roomful of merry children sang in unison from Mr. George T. Angell's Band of Mercy songs.

Several members of the city school board deemed it worth while to attend and encourage these exercises, as also not a few others. The superintendent of the city schools on several occasions gave the committee the favor of his presence and his earnest aid and approval.

On the morning of the 17th instant members of the committee were most cordially received by Rev. Fr. Kelly and taken to every room in the parochial school of St. Thomas' church, where we found the most perfect discipline and order, and a full sympathy with the purpose of our mission.

Besides the undersigned there are on the committee Mr. W. N. Brown and Mesdames Jenny Vorhees and C. G. Plympton, any one of whom may be consulted on the subject of their action.

Big Robbery at Portage Lake.

Peter Dennis, aged 79, and his wife, aged 82, who reside on the banks of Portage Lake, were robbed of over $1,500 in gold and bills last week. It is believed that there were four burglars in the gang and the details of the crime are given as follows: The residence is a double upright structure, and the sleeping room of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis upstairs has a door which opens on to the roof of a large porch. The men secured a ladder from the club house at the lake and with this ascended on to the stoop. The night being warm the door was left open and only a screen door hooked from the inside closed the way. The robbers jerked the screen door, breaking the staple when the door opened. Not until all four men were in the room did Mr. Dennis awaken, while Mrs. Dennis, who slept in the same room but in another bed, was not aroused until she heard scuffling and loud talking. Mr. Dennis on awakening realized the situation and rushed from his bed for an old fashioned shotgun, which was kept near by for just such emergencies. He was brutally struck square in the eye by the burly fist of the largest of the party and overpowered. With a small rope they bound him, then gagged him with a handkerchief, stood him in a corner of the room facing the wall and behind the door. Mr. Dennis stated that the fellow holding a revolver talked with German accent. He and the others threatened to kill Mr. Dennis if Mrs. Dennis did not give over every cent of the $15,000 they claimed to know was in the house. She took no chances on her husband's life and brought all the money there was in the house, which amounted to over $1,500, but not thousands as the burglars evidently had anticipated.

The old couple stated they could not identify the men if they should see them again, but Mrs. Dennis says the fellow who drove her around with a revolver was a little man. None of the men wore masks. They made Mrs. Dennis produce all her skirts and these they tore into shreds in quest of money. The carpet in all parts of the house were taken up and not a collar box, shelf or drawer was left unexplored. On leaving they stated that two men would watch the house from the outside until morning and if either one of them appeared before that time it would mean death.

DON'T KNOW WHAT HE WANTS

Had to give him up, is the way they refer in most Furniture Stores, to a man or lady who walks out without buying.

They are wrong; they know what they want—that's the trouble. People who are hard to please in Furniture Stores are generally good judges of Furniture. They have a gift of spotting bad goods, bad styles and poor work; they know how Furniture should be made.

We complain of such people. Why should we? They are our best and most appreciative customers.

live sometimes when girdled nearly around. Nature ever labors to repair damage, and after a time, the wounded surfaces are nicely healed. Some persons live and fully recover, even after consumption has made cavities in the lungs. In this struggle we can greatly aid nature by giving Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites. The oil supplies needed fat, and the hypophosphites tone up the nerves. The decline in weight ceases. A positive gain begins, and once again there is promise of life and health. It is never too late to try.

Scott's Emulsion has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby.

Castoria is truly a marvelous thing for children. Doctors prescribe it, medical journals recommend it and more than a million mothers are using it in place of Purgative, Bateman's Drops, so-called soothing syrups and other narcotic and stupefying remedies. Castoria is the quickest thing to regulate the stomach and bowels and give healthy sleep the world has ever seen. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, quiets pain, cures diarrhoea and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend.

Castoria is put up in one size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A S-T-O-R-I-A.

Buluwayo Surrounded by Many Armed Matabeles.

THE SITUATION VERY ALARMING.

A Large Number of the Natives Are Within Easy Striking Distance of the City—Besides These There Are About 2,000 of Them in the City Limits Who Claim To Be Friendly but Are Thought To Be Otherwise.

CAPE TOWN, April 23.—[Copyrighted, 1896, by the Associated Press.]—Unless all the news which reaches this place from Buluwayo is misleading, an important engagement between the British forces defending the town and the Matabeles besieging it will shortly take place, or it may already have occurred. It is now known that the force of hostile natives which assembled about Buluwayo after the outbreak of the rebellion was much greater than was at first supposed. The highest estimate placed the number of the besieging force at 15,000, but although a large number of natives, said to number about 5,000 warriors, is known to have struck camp and started southward in the direction which the relief forces from Mafeking must follow, it is estimated fully 10,000 hostiles are still in the vicinity of the beleaguered town.

Within Easy Striking Distance. The natives when they first took up positions about Buluwayo, formed a half circle northward, but gradually this formation has been contracted, and the Matabele army is now only about three miles, or within easy striking distance, on a dark night, especially, of the 3,000 white people in the town, of whom about only 600 can be classed as fighting men. The southern portion of the half circle is mountainous country, and the main pass is held by about 300 whites. It is through this pass that the relief force and supply trains must come. The men holding this pass have been divided into four bodies. The first, or advance guard, is occupying a position at the entrance of the most difficult turnings. The main body occupies the strongest position in the pass itself, where a Maxim gun has been planted behind a well-constructed stone breastwork or fort, commanding the critical turn in the road.

The Rear Guard. This force is also looked upon as being in a position to turn the gun around and defend the pass from an attack from the north. The third body or rear guard is holding the northern end of the pass, which leads to the open ground and road to Buluwayo. The men holding the pass have provisions for one month, but their supply of ammunition is limited, some of it already having been called in to replenish the diminishing store of the town. Both Buluwayo and Gwelo, which is also besieged, have been practically rendered impregnable from an outward, open attack. But in both cases, especially in the case of Buluwayo, a large number of so-called friendly natives, have flocked into the place under the plan of seeking the protection of the whites from the hostiles. These persons could not well be turned adrift or refused the shelter they requested. Consequently they were admitted within the lines and allowed to mix with the natives who regularly inhabit the town.

An Alarming Increase. The number of these friendlies has increased alarmingly, and it is believed that fully 2,000 natives are now being fed from the common stores of Buluwayo. Thus, while it may be true that Buluwayo, thanks to its dynamite mines, barbed wire defenses, strong larger ground, the market place, and half a dozen or so rapid firing guns, is safe from an attempt to carry the place by storm, it is not safe from being reduced by starvation, and it might even be captured if the "friendlies" were suddenly to rise some night and create a diversion within the lines which would enable the native impis to make a dash for the laager. This is the greatest danger now threatening the town of Buluwayo, and signs of preparation for such an outbreak upon the part of the friendlies have long been noticed and guarded against. One Maxim gun has been so placed as to command the native portion of the town or colony, and sentries keep watch over the Matabeles night and day.

INSULTED OUR FLAG.

Two Englishmen Trample the Stars and Stripes in New York.

NORTH TONAWANDA, April 23.—Trampled on the stars and stripes. That is what two Englishmen did at a church social to which they had been invited to attend Tuesday night in Tonawanda. The social was given by the members of the Morgan Methodist Episcopal church, and everything went smoothly until the young ladies present attempted to use two handsome American flags to decorate the room. The two Englishmen, Story and Clifford, stepped forward and snatched the flags from the young ladies and began to wipe their feet on them. The other guests present were filled with indignation and patriotism at seeing the old flag insulted, and had not the offenders realized what they had done and apologized immediately there would have been a row in which two Englishmen would have suffered at the hands of the righteously indignant Methodists.

Paderewski Is Generous.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Paderewski, the pianist, has placed in the hands of William Steinway and Dr. William Mason of this city and Colonel H. L. Higginson of Boston, as trustees, $10,000 for the purpose of establishing the following triennial prizes for composers of American birth:

1. Five hundred dollars for the best orchestral work in symphonic form.
2. Three hundred dollars for the best composition for solo instrument with orchestra.
3. Two hundred dollars for the best chamber music work.

Minister Sentenced to Prison.

NEWTON, Ia., April 23.—Rev. W. W. Hazen, who was convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses in the district court here last week, was Tuesday sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary at Fort Madison. The prisoner was completely prostrated upon hearing his sentence and had to be carried to the jail. He was unconscious for a time, failing to even recognize his wife. Many doubts exist as to his sanity, while some profess to believe that he is shamming.

PENSION BILLS VETOED.

The President Objects to Two Measures Submitted to Him.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The president's vetoes of two pension bills to the widows of Peter H. Allabach and Charles R. Jones, were laid before the senate at the opening of the session Wednesday. Gallinger, chairman of the pension committee, said he regretted that the president had seen fit to veto these bills. Captain Allabach's military services were such that he might have applied for a pension, but did not do so, owing to personal disinclination. While Jones was a photographer yet he received a gun shot wound, resulting in total blindness during the attack on Longstreet's lines.

"The president refers to 'a trivial wound,'" said Gallinger. "I will not discuss and suggest what is my mind—that the message was written without a knowledge of the facts. The pension committee had not proceeded carelessly and recklessly in favoring pensions."

Palmer spoke of the embarrassments attending cases in which the applicant for a pension had not been formally enlisted.

"I hold," said Palmer, "that when a citizen voluntarily associated himself with the military forces becomes de facto in the military service and if wounded 'he has the same moral right to a pension as any one formally enlisted.'"

The vetoes were referred to the pension committee. Many petitions came urging action in behalf of Bishop Diaz, arrested in Cuba, and a resolution by Bacon was adopted requesting the state department for information as to the arrest and as to what steps had been taken toward the securing of an impartial trial.

The senate by a vote of 38 yeas to 24 nays adopted the amendment to the Indian appropriation bill offered by Cockrell of Missouri providing that 50 per cent of the appropriation for Indian contract schools should be appropriated in the pending bill for such schools.

Made an Assignment.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 23.—T. C. and J. C. Miller, manufacturer of knit goods at Baldwinsville, have shut down their works and made an assignment to Thomas H. Benton Crane, cashier of the First National bank of Amsterdam and Willis Wendell, also of Amsterdam. The industry was the largest in Baldwinsville and gave employment to 200 men, boys, women and girl. Members of the firm decline to give the amount of their assets and liabilities. Preferences are made for $66,000, exclusive of interest and the pay of employees. The latter have not been paid for seven weeks.

Barracks Destroyed by Fire.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Between 2 and 4 o'clock Wednesday morning the large brick barracks building, 300 feet long by 30 feet wide, at Jefferson barracks, fourteen miles south of this city, on the river bank, was totally destroyed by fire. A considerable quantity of furniture and clothing was also consumed and 10,000 cartridges were exploded. The soldiers also lost most of their personal effects. The total loss is about $60,000. The fire department at South St. Louis went to the barracks but when the firemen arrived it was too late to save the building.

Medill Buys Some Property.

WHEATON, Ills., April 23.—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, Tuesday purchased through E. J. Lewis, a real estate broker of this place, a fine country place of 108 acres, situated two and one-half miles west of Wheaton, adjoining the country place of ex-Judge Prendergast, and across the street from the country home of the late Judge Drummond. Mr. Medill and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCormick will occupy the place this summer. The erection of a large and commodious summer cottage will at once be begun.

Congress of Religious Education.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—There were about 500 people present at the session of the first national congress of religious education. After devotional exercises Dr. F. B. Palmer, principal of the state normal school at Fredonia, N. Y., read a paper on "Religious Education Defined." The most important thing he thought is to teach children the personality of God. Miss Annie T. Smith, of the bureau of education, Washington, discussed "Old Problems in New Lights." The day was devoted to the reading of papers.

Great Strike of Glass Workers.

CINCINNATI, O., April 23.—A special from Anderson says that a strike in the glass industry involving 10,000 men will begin at once. The trouble is that an employee at Hartford City had been discharged because he was the preceptor of the local union at that place. A demand for his reinstatement having been refused the determination to strike was made at a meeting held Wednesday morning. Fifteen hundred here are affected and the strike will be general, affecting all glass works.

Killed While Firing a Salute.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 23.—While light battery F, Third United States artillery, was firing a salute at Fort Sam Houston, commemorating the day Texas achieved her independence from Mexico, the premature explosion of a shell in the open breach of the cannon instantly killed Private George A. Parkhurst, and wounded three other soldiers. Parkhurst's right side and arm were blown away by the charge.

Failure at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Mason & Davis company, manufacturers of stoves and ranges, made an assignment Wednesday in the county court to John J. Whirl. The assets are set down at $73,855.07, with liabilities amounting to $107,588.02. The company has a place of business at 74 and 76 Lake street, and has a factory at 7700 and 7740 South Chicago avenue. The firm was well known as a manufacturer of gas stoves.

Will Go to Michigan City.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., April 23.—The fishing firms which were arrested for using nets with illegal sized mesh have decided to leave this port and go to Michigan City, Ind., where the laws are not so strict in this matter. They say that to buy new nets would cost $100,000. One hundred men were employed last year fishing, and the business amounted to $80,000.

Labor Riot at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Rioting began between the union and non-union lumber shovers shortly after noon Wednesday. The men were armed with knives and revolvers and came together at Pack, Gray & Co.'s docks. Two men were seriously wounded, one perhaps fatally. Many have bruised faces and blackened eyes.

Well Flavored.

Figaro tells an amusing story about M. Ricard, the minister of justice. Some time ago he bought two haunches of kangaroo at a shop where frozen meats from Australia are sold. He had them served up "a la sauce poivade." His guests, who were curious to try this "plat exotique," found it anything but suited to their taste. The kangaroo had a most peculiar flavor. M. Ricard was naturally much vexed. He made a complaint to the shopkeeper and asked him to taste the remains of the dish. It was then discovered that the haunches had been cooked in lamp oil instead of olive oil, but it is not known who made this substitution in the minister's cuisine.

Americans Via London.

The English sometimes grow sarcastic at our expense. The London News vouches for the following: "Scene, Rome. Time, a few days ago. Young English lady wandering near the Coliseum. To her approaches a group of American young ladies. One of them says to her: 'Would you kindly tell me whether that is the arch of Titus? My Baedeker is 2 years old.' " The News unkindly remarks that the American ladies "were probably from Chicago."

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for

A GREAT EXPENSE

To Carry on an Almost Helpless Fight.
—At Last the Fight is Over.

(From the Battle Creek Moon.)

Our representative called at 26 Battle Creek Avenue, the residence of S. I. Robbins, and in an interview with him brought out the following facts: Mr. Robbins tells of his wife's experience in a manner that carries conviction with his words. He says: "I am sorry my wife is not at home this P. M., but no one knows better than I how she has suffered during past years. For twenty years she has been afflicted with the various forms of kidney complaint and an enlargement of the liver. She was often confined to her bed for more than two weeks at a time suffering untold agony. She has doctored constantly, and I have paid out in doctors' bills for her alone as much as $900.00, and then her relief was only such that she would be able to be around for a spell. Some time ago she felt the symptoms of another attack coming on, such as a pain in through the kidneys and back. I hardly know what induced me to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, instead of sending for the family physician; however, I got some and she commenced their use. It was a surprise to us both to see their action; the attack was warded off, and she continued taking them with marked improvement each day of their use. She is better now than she has been in years, the pain in the back and others in the kidneys have entirely gone. Hardly a day goes by that we do not mention the great good Doan's Kidney Pills have done her. I was always opposed to patent medicines, but confess that my wife's experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has done much to change my opinions. If it were not for those pills she would not have been able to be out this afternoon."

Anna D. Clemmer.
Mrs. Anna D. Clemmer, the dairy commissioner of the state of Colorado, is an energetic woman who has done much for the west. She was born in Danbury, Conn. Her husband's health failing, she accompanied him to Colorado. Reared in a home of plenty, an only daughter, Mrs. Clemmer had never known a hardship until called upon to face pioneer life in Colorado. Today she is described as a handsome, self-reliant, progressive woman, whose gray eyes look out frankly upon the world and at the duties of life unflinchingly. She is in the prime of life and a busy woman. She lives at Boulder, where, besides a pleasant home, she has a Jersey herd, and with her own hands makes 200 pounds of butter a month. Two miles from Boulder she has a hay ranch of 160 acres and 1,000 chickens, to all of which she gives her personal attention, besides looking after her office in Denver.—Boston Woman's Journal.

A Change In London.
London Woman affirms that a curious change in London society is the gradual disappearance of the once all powerful American female element. The recent marriage of the Duke of Marlborough and Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt shows that British aristocrats are not yet indifferent to the wealth and wit of the United States, but the long admired, royalty honored and Paris gown American beauty no longer prevails.

The smart English woman today rivals the American woman in brilliancy, attractiveness and chic. This transformation is not the sole cause of the American decline. The Prince of Wales, who is the dictator of society here, finds the gentle graces of English aristocrats more agreeable than the laughing loveliness of the daughters of the new world.—New York Sun's London Letter.

BEWARE OF THE ENEMY.

The Moderate Drinker May Hand Down Woe to His Posterity.

The late Sir Andrew Clark, the eminent English physician, said: "Now let me say that I am speaking solemnly and carefully when I tell you that I am considerably within the mark in saying that within the rounds of my hospital wards today seven out of every ten that lie there in their beds owe their ill health to alcohol."

"I do not say that 70 in every 100 are drunkards. I do not know that one of them is, but they use alcohol. So soon as a man begins to take one drop then the desire begotten in him becomes a part of his nature, and that nature, formed by his acts, inflicts curses inexpressible when handed down to the generations that are to follow him as part and parcel of their being. When I think of this, I am disposed to give up my profession, to give up everything, and to go forth upon a holy crusade to preach to all men, 'Beware of this enemy of the race.'"

THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Connecticut Republicans Assemble in Convention.

DECLARE AGAINST FREE COINAGE.

The Names of Neither Reed Nor McKinley Are Mentioned in the Convention—Nebraska Silver Democrats Meet at Lincoln to Select Delegates to the National Convention at Chicago—Congressional Nominations—Other Political News.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 23.—It was fully half an hour after the time appointed for the reassembling of the Connecticut Republican convention, when that body was ready to proceed to business. Ex-Congressman William E. Simonds was made permanent chairman. After a brief address the chairman called for nominations for delegates at large to the national Republican convention, and the following were chosen: Ex-Governor Morgan G. Bulkeley of Hartford, John I. Hutchinson of Essex and Arthur B. Brewer of Stamford.

The platform, which was next read and adopted, opens with a declaration in favor of a protective tariff and the reciprocity plan advocated by the late James G. Blaine. Upon the currency question the convention says:

"We are unalterably opposed to the issue of unsecured paper currency, either by the government or the banks; the free coinage of silver at any ratio, and favor a single standard of value, and that standard gold. We believe that this policy, with a sound and stable currency upon a gold basis, will furnish sufficient revenue to meet all requirements of the government and properly support it."

Pledged to the Nominees.
In other sections the platform declares for discriminating duties in favor of American vessel bottoms, for adherence to the Monroe doctrine, for increased coast defense, and a larger navy, for the exclusion of pauper, insane and criminal immigrants, and for the care of deserving sailors and soldiers of the Union.

The electoral vote of Connecticut is pledged to whoever may be the nominee of the Republican national convention for the presidency. In less than an hour from the time the convention was called to order its business was finished and adjournment followed. Neither Reed nor McKinley were mentioned in the convention. Among the delegates, however, there was considerable enthusiasm for these two aspirants for the presidential nomination. No other candidates seemed to be thought of.

CULLOM WILL BE THERE.

The Senator to Attend the Illinois Republican Convention.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—In response to a number of telegrams from all parts of Illinois Senator Cullom has determined to attend the state convention at Springfield and will leave Washington on Saturday.

SENATOR SHELBY M. CULLOM.

Arrangements have been perfected by which the appropriation bills in which he is particularly interested will be disposed of before that time, and it is his desire to be on the ground to look after his interests personally. Congressman Cooke, with whom Senator Cullom conferred on this subject, expressed the opinion that it would be the wisest course, and it would not act as a stimulus for the delegates to the state convention to rally to his support much more enthusiastically and earnestly than if he remained at Washington.

"I shall start for Springfield the latter part of this week," said Representative Hopkins, "and my headquarters will be established there in due form on Monday morning. While I am not certain as to the outcome of the convention in regard to my candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination, I propose to stick to the fight to the last with a view to convincing 740 delegates that I am entitled to this honor. Assurance have been given me by my friends that they will guard my interests in the congressional district which I represent, and even if I should not receive the nomination for governor they will attend to my return to congress. This makes it plain sailing for me at Springfield, for there does not appear to be the slightest opposition to me in my congressional district, and I can give my time and attention exclusively to the state convention."

NEBRASKA SILVER MEN.

Meet at Lincoln to Elect Delegates to Chicago Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 23.—The free silver Democrats of Nebraska met in state convention Wednesday afternoon to elect four delegates at large to the national convention at Chicago, July 7. Every county is represented, with no opposition from the other faction of the party, which holds its convention in Lincoln one week hence. Many of the delegations had been selected by county mass conventions. This was true in all cases where the anti-silver element had no control of the county organizations.

W. J. Bryan and C. J. Smyth are slated for two of the delegates at large. There will be no visible opposition to them. In addition the district delegates will present the names of two congressional delegates from each congressional district, so that the convention in effect will choose the entire sixteen delegates. Ex-Governor Boyd of Omaha was urged to accept a place on the state delegation, but has positively declined to have his name go before the convention. He is not even in attendance. Boyd is a sound money man, but opposed to the administration. A mass meeting was held at Funk

Wednesday evening at which Governor William J. Stone of Missouri spoke.

Congressional Convention.

PEORIA, Ills., April 23.—The Republican congressional convention of the Fourteenth district effected temporary organization Wednesday. Joseph V. Graff of Pekin will be nominated for congress without opposition. Delegates to the national convention will probably be Judge Israel C. Pinkney of Peoria and Clarence E. Snively, editor of the Canton Register. They will be instructed for McKinley, and a resolution will be passed and probably adopted instructing them to vote for McKinley first, last and all the time.

Republicans Lose One Senator.

LOUISVILLE, April 23.—Elections were held here Tuesday to fill the vacancies in the state senate caused by the expulsion of Dr. C. J. Walton of Hart county, and Dr. James of Greenville, Republicans, at the last session of the legislature. These gentlemen were renominated by the Republicans of their districts. W. J. Bale, Democrat, was elected over W. Walton. Bale is a free silver man. Dr. James, whose only opponent was R. T. Pender, Populist, is returned by about 800 majority.

Claims Pharr's Election.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 23.—The Item bulletin board contains the following: "Pharr has been elected governor. The Item will prove this fact by the evidence of 270 Pinkerton detectives present Tuesday at the polls where fraud was carried out."

"BERWICK, La., April 23.—I have been elected governor by the votes that were put in the ballot boxes and will be inaugurated on the second Tuesday in May. "J. L. PHARR."

Renominated to Congress.

ALLIANCE, O., April 23.—Republicans of the Eighteenth congressional district in convention here Wednesday renominated R. W. Taylor for congress by acclamation. Colonel C. B. Wick of Mahoning county and J. L. Smith of Columbiana county were chosen delegates to St. Louis convention. This is McKinley's old district and the resolutions urged the major's availability for the presidency.

BALTIMORE, April 23.—United States Senator-Elect George L. Wellington, as chairman of the state central committee, called the Maryland Republican state convention to order Wednesday. Governor Lowndes and most of the Republican state officials were present; but Mayor Hooper of Baltimore, also a Republican, was absent. The proportion of colored delegates were small.

The convention was the largest gathering of Republican representatives ever assembled in the history of the state.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Municipal elections were held in many Illinois cities Tuesday. Party lines were in many instances ignored, and the fight made solely on the question of license or no-license.

TRIAL OF SCOTT JACKSON.

All the Members of the Murdered Girl's Family in Attendance.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Bryan of Greencastle, Ind., and all the members of their family attended the trial of Scott Jackson Wednesday. There was a very large attendance. Professor Edwin F. Post of DePaul university, the brother-in-law of Jackson, sat by his side. Coroner W. F. Tingley was recalled. A lay figure dressed in the clothing found on Pearl Bryan's body was brought into court, but the bloody dress presented such a horrible appearance that the objection of the defense was sustained. Then Coroner Tingley identified each article as the one on Pearl Bryan's body when found near Fort Thomas. The gashes and blood stains were also identified as being in the clothing then.

Mrs. Stanley, the sister of Pearl Bryan, a milliner, testified to the hat and other articles having been secured by Pearl at their store. She identified each article of clothing and to being with Pearl when she bought the shoes. The bloody dress was one Mrs. Stanley had made. One of the three handkerchiefs found with Jackson's castaway clothing had been given Pearl by Mrs. Stanley last Christmas. Mrs. Stanley identified the valise, also a gold necklace. She finally broke down as these articles were held up before her for identification and there was quite a scene in court. Mrs. Stanley looked directly at Jackson and identified him.

Following Mrs. Stanley several witnesses were called to prove the appearance of the body when found, the evidences of struggle, the blood spurs on the bushes, the amount of blood on the ground, etc. Then Dr. Carothers, who made the post-mortem examination, gave his testimony as already given before the coroner. A peculiar feature developed in the policy of the defense to not cross-examine witnesses. The only suggestion of an explanation of this policy is that the defense of insanity is to be set up.

Denver Bank Fails.

DENVER, April 23.—The American National bank failed to open Wednesday. A notice was posted on the door that the directors had decided to liquidate. The step was taken on account of internal dissension. It is said all depositors will be paid in full. Zeph T. Hill is in charge of the bank on behalf of the government.

EASTERN STAR PARTY.

A Brilliant and Successful Social Gathering.

The second annual reception and dancing party of Ann Arbor Chapter, No. 122, O. E. S., held at the Masonic temple on Wednesday evening, was a very pretty and enjoyable one. About 90 couples were present and they chased the fleeting hours with flying feet to the excellent music of the Chequamegon orchestra until 2 o'clock a. m. Toothsome light refreshments furnished jointly by the ladies of the society and E. V. Hangsterfer, were served in abundance, and those present were sorry when the party finally came to an end.

As it was a leap year year the reception committee was made up of gentlemen and was as follows: Charles B. Davison, Arthur C. Nichols, George H. Pond, W. C. Doty, W. D. Adams, J. W. Bennett, T. W. Mingay, O. M. Martin and H. G. Prettyman. From 8:30 to 9 o'clock the committee received the guests after which filling of programs and dancing was in order.

The drill room was newly decorated for the occasion, some of the designs being very neat. In the lodge room potted plants stood around in profusion and was all the ornament required there. The parlors were furnished with plenty of easy chairs and lounges, making them very tempting places to while away the time between the dances. Piano lamps with dainty shades of various colors stood around in different nooks and corners and added brilliancy to an already well lighted scene. The party was a very successful social event, falling not one whit below the standard of that of last year. The ladies worked hard and were highly deserving of the success they attained.

In the Justice Courts.

Justice Pond has had an unusual stroke of business in his court the past week. Prior to that it has been so quiet for some time past that the judge was seriously thinking of letting the office go into bankruptcy. On Saturday last George Kelly, a horseshoer from Detroit, was taken before him charged with being drunk on the street. He was given three days in jail.

George Higgins and Leander Alley, rival undertakers of Dexter, got into an altercation on account of business rivalry, and as a result Higgins slugged Alley. For this privilege Higgins paid $20 and $3.00 costs on Monday.

Adam Bestel and John Bestel are brothers in name and family, also brothers in their profession of umbrella vendors and in their fondness for the cup that cheers. They were both drunk on the streets Tuesday night. Justice Pond has no particular fondness for this kind of people so he said two days each in jail when they were brought before him.

Charles Bostwick, John McCarty and John Shaw were arrested by Deputies Canfield and Sweet Tuesday night for lodging in a freight car in the Ann Arbor railroad yards and acting in a disorderly manner. They were held until yesterday as it was thought they might have been implicated in a more serious offense in another county and might be wanted there. They were given three days each in jail.

The case of the People vs. Ely was tried before Justice Pond Wednesday afternoon. Prosecuting Attorney Randall for the People and A. E. Gibson for the defendant. It was a jury case and afforded the spectators lots of amusement on account of the interchange of words between the attorneys. Ely was driving through the alley at the rear of Dean & Co's. store when he drove over a horse block frightening a team belonging to the firm, causing it to break some of its harness. Sedgwick Dean demanded payment for the slight damage and had Ely arrested for drunkenness. The jury assessed $1 fine and costs amounting to $15.61. The case was appealed.

Justice Gibson had one lone case the past week and that was when Arthur Poland, of the north side, was brought before him yesterday charged with being drunk and disorderly Tuesday night. In default of $1 and $5.65 costs he went to jail for two days.

Will Be Always Blind.

There is no hope of recovery for Fred Reinhardt, of Ypsilanti, the young lad who blinded himself by looking at the sun through a convex lens shaped piece of colored glass. Dr. Carrow, of Ann Arbor, has made a second examination of his eyes and gives no encouragement that he will ever see again. The Evening Times says: "Two similar cases have been noted in the late medical journals. One happened at Orchard Lake, where several boys tried to see which could look at the sun the longest and one of them went nearly blind as a result, but is gradually recovering. Another case was where a child was nearly blinded by the reflection from a mirror of the sun's rays. In each of these latter cases the paralysis of the optic nerve was not as complete as that noted in the Reinhardt case."

Y. M. C. A. NIGHT SCHOOL.

Its Closing Exercises, Enrollment and Attendance.

The night school of the Young Men's Christian Association held its closing exercises Monday night. The program was especially attractive and was listened to by upwards of a hundred of the members and friends of the school. The address by Dr. R. G. Boone, principal of the Normal School, was one that ought to have been heard by every young man in the city. It was full of practical ideas and apt illustrations.

Some of the work of the mechanical drawing class was on exhibition and elicited many words of praise.

The branches taught the past year have been those elementary studies which every young man needs in daily business life. The instructors were all remarkably adapted to the work and proficient in their respective subject. Young men of all ages and from all pursuits have taken advantage of this rare opportunity for self-improvement. The expense has been slight and each student feels he has been more than repaid for the time and money spent. The following figures are of especial interest showing the actual enrollment and attendance in the night school, together with the ages and occupations of the pupils:

Enrollment—Arithmetic class, 14; penmanship, 10; business correspondence, 6; business law, 13; mechanical drawing, 8; bookkeeping, 19; English, 13; German, 11; total 94.

Occupation of Students—Clerks, 13; mechanics, 13; merchants, 2; professional men, 2; laborers, 3; printers and binders, 9; high school students, 5; college students, 2; farmers, 1; total, 48.

Ages of students—16 to 20 years, 17; 20 to 25 years, 17; 25 to 30 years, 6; 30 to 40 years, 7; 40 to 50 years, 1.

Attendance—Mechanical drawing class, average, 56 per cent; German, 63 per cent; bookkeeping, 64 per cent; business correspondence, 63 per cent; penmanship 59 per cent; arithmetic, 62 per cent; law, 63 per cent; English, 62 per cent. The average attendance for the entire school was 63 per cent.

Attendance at the U. of M.

The new university calendar for 1895-6 has been received at the Argus office. From it the following figures have been gleaned:

The faculty roll contains 173 names, eight of whom are non-resident lecturers on special topics in the law department. The total enrollment exclusive of the summer school is 2,917, with the summer school included, 97 more, or 3,014.

The 2,917 are divided among the several departments as follows: Literature, 1,204; engineering, 331; medicine, 452; law, 675; pharmacy, 27; homeopathy, 27; dentistry, 189. In these numbers, however, 44 names appear twice, from students enrolled in two departments.

The summary by states is as follows: Michigan, 1,628; Illinois, 335; Ohio, 194; Indiana, 109; New York, 87; Pennsylvania 85; Iowa, 76; Missouri, 51; Wisconsin, 37; Kansas, 2; California, 22; Colorado, Massachusetts and Minnesota, 21 each; Nebraska, 20; Kentucky, 19; Montana, 14; Oregon, 10; New Hampshire, 8; North Dakota, Washington and Wyoming, 7 each; South Dakota and Tennessee, 6 each; Arkansas and District of Columbia five each; Maine, New Jersey, New Mexico, Rhode Island and Texas, four each; Maryland, Nevada, and West Virginia, two each; Arizona, Georgia, Oklahoma, Vermont and Virginia, one each. From outside the United States 16 students come from Ontario; China, England and Japan are each represented by four students; three are from Germany, and two are registered from the Hawaiian Islands, while Austria, the Barbadoes, Bulgaria, Norway, Quebec, Russia and South Africa are each represented by one student.

A Ride With a Madman.

A passenger on the Fast Eastern Express over the M. C. Sunday night graphically describes an experience with a lunatic on the train west of Jackson. The man was from Chicago, where he had been employed by a publishing house and was going to Ypsilanti, where he had friends. He was a large, dark complexioned man, and an easy conversationalist. While talking with a passenger this side of Kalamazoo he suddenly became violently insane. He ran about the train frightening everyone by his wild actions and words. Finally he conceived himself to be Jesus Christ and tried to force the passengers to kneel before him. Then he started to leap from the moving train to certain death. The trainmen and several of the passengers were at their wits' ends to subdue and control him. When the train reached Jackson the poor fellow was arrested, taken from the train and locked up. The Ann Arbor gentleman who tells the story says that the memory of the ride with this madman will haunt him asleep or awake for years.—Washtenaw Evening Times.

Board of Public Works.

At the meeting of the board of public works Wednesday night the city attorney was directed to begin proceedings for abolishing what is known as the Hunter pond, on W. Washington street. This pond is a nuisance to that neighborhood.

The Electric Light Co. was granted permission to remove its wires from Miller ave. and a part of Liberty st. in order to avoid trees.

A recommendation was made to the council to have bridges 1 and 2 over the Huron river re-planked.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

ONE OF MINNESOTA'S CULTIVATED WOMEN LEADERS.

Taleswomen In South Dakota—Basques and Coats—Beneficial to Australia—A Missionary Heroine—A Woman's Rights Decision—Passing of the Skirt.

Miss Margaret Evans, president of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs, is one of the most cultured ladies in the west. A thoroughly traveled woman, she has remembered most of what she has seen, and her early and complete training in the classics gave her a keenness of appreciation of what she saw in Europe that is the good fortune of few travelers. "You must take the Pantheon with you," said Professor Snider, and certainly if any one that has gone abroad has had a genuine feeling for the classics it is Miss Evans. She has spent most of her life in Minnesota. Her academic education was given her at Winona. Thence she entered the Lawrence university at Appleton, Wis. Before entering college she taught four years and spent her vacations in her capacity as pedagogue. She has a fine appreciation of the excellent points of a teacher in the classics. After some experience in the seminary at Fox Lake she returned to her university to assume the important position of teacher of German, Latin and Greek.

At present her forte is English literature, and her lectures on this topic make up an important part of the commentaries on letters in America. Miss Evans has made several trips abroad. On her last literary pilgrimage to Europe she took with her a party of Americans interested in English literature. This party visited the homes of the great English poets and studied their works under the informing influence of the scenes that environed the authors when they wrote. Since that time, which was five years ago, Miss Evans has spent a year in study at Berlin, Heidelberg and Oxford. For 15 years she has been president of the woman's board of missions for the interior. At present she is the lady principal of Carleton college, and prefers the work appertaining to that post to other fields more attractive.—Chicago Herald.

Taleswomen In South Dakota.

If straws show the way the wind blows, the action of the court of divorce in Brookings, S. D., whereby a jury was made up of six men and six women is the inaugural of the peaceful revolution in American jurisprudence. To any one familiar with the jury practice of modern courts the innovation will be welcomed by all believers in judicial reform. The jury is one of the few ancient institutions which have not progressed with society and civilization. Originally it was the greatest bulwark of a man's safety. He was entitled to be tried by 12 of his peers and neighbors, by the men who knew him and could therefore the best judge of his character and his motive. There was at the same time in those olden days a matrons' jury for special occasions and emergencies.

With the process of the years, challenges for favor, challenges for technical reasons, challenges without any reasons, were allowed in ever increasing numbers. At the same time exempting laws were passed whereby the most intelligent men were free from all jury duty. Soldiers and sailors, lawyers and clergymen, physicians and dentists, public officials and newspaper men, firemen and even militiamen were excluded from the jury list. It is obvious at a glance that this set of practices on the one side and laws on the other resulted in bringing the ignorant and worthless into abnormal prominence in the jury box.

Worse than this was the practice, which has grown steadily throughout the United States, of excluding everybody who betrays any intelligence, who has formed any opinion or who has read the papers and seen any notice of the litigation in their columns. The consequence is a disgrace to the administration of justice. In great lawsuits like those of Tweed and of Becher 1,000 jurymen were drawn and really tried before the necessary 12 could be secured. In numberless cases you have jurymen who never read the newspapers, who do not know the name of the governor, president or the mayor, who cannot read and write, and who are frequently but one remove from the poorhouse or the asylum.

The action of the South Dakota court in basing its jury upon intelligence and selecting the members equally from the two sexes, in order to better understand and judge upon the merits and demerits of the husband and wife, is a progressive action which cannot be too highly praised or its momentous consequences be overestimated.—Margherita Arlina Hamm in New York Mail and Express.

FOR THE WOMAN'S BUILDING.

The Ann Arbor Road Gives a Free Train to Toledo.

Even the railroads are turning in to give the fund for the woman's building an upward boost. The Ann Arbor Railroad, with unexampled generosity, has tendered to the Woman's League of the U. of M. a free train to Toledo, On Saturday, May 9, the proceeds from which are to be devoted to their entirety to the erection of the building. On that evening the University Dramatic Club will present "Julius Caesar" at the Valentine theater, which has been specially engaged for the occasion. The alumni of the U. of M., resident in Toledo, have taken hold of this matter and one gentleman alone has agreed to take 150 tickets for the performance. The price of the railroad tickets to Toledo has been placed at $1 each, which includes admission to one seat at the theater. The train will leave Ann Arbor at 10 a. m., May 9, and will be a through train to Toledo with no stops. Returning there will be two trains, one at 5 p. m., and the other at 11:30 p. m., after the theater performance.

There are 500 ladies connected with the Woman's League, each of whom it is expected will take two tickets, one for her own use, the other one to sell, and at least 1,000 people should take in this trip. Every ticket sold is just $1 added to the building fund as the railroad company pays all the expenses of the train and crew and the Dramatic Club gives the proceeds of its performance. The fund should be increased at least $1,000 through this generous act.
