BRAVE OLD PIONEERS

They Had Their Field Day at Chelsea Wednesday.

DEATH ROLL WAS 168

According to the Report of Necrologist W. H. Lay

During the Year Ending May 31st, 1896.—The Meeting Was One Distinctly of Old People. Very Sudden Death.

Wednesday was Pioneer Day, and the largest crowd of old settlers of this county that has ever met at any meeting of the Washtenaw Pioneer and Historical Society, was gathered in the Congregational church, Chelsea, which had been nicely decorated for the occasion. It was most distinctively a meeting of old people, there being but a very few of the younger generation present. The first settlers of this county are becoming fewer as the years roll by, but it seems that as the number decreases the interest and pleasure in the meetings of the society and in the recounting of their experiences in early days is on the increase. It was reported at Wednesday's meeting that 168 pioneers of Washtenaw county had died during the past year, the average age of each being 72 3-5 years.

It was a most pleasant and enjoyable meeting throughout, the one incident that occurred to mar its perfect pleasure being the sudden death of Mrs. Sarah Barton, of Lyndon township, at the age of 74 years. Mrs. Barton had been suffering from heart trouble for a long time, but was feeling so much better and brighter Wednesday morning that she determined to attend the pioneer meeting. Just before the afternoon session began she became frightened at a lady going upstairs on crutches and was taken with a serious attack of the trouble and fell to the floor. Kind hands lifted her up and gently carried her to the residence of L. Babcock, a couple of doors away where she expired in about half an hour. The event was not generally known in the meeting until just before its close, when the expression of sorrow and sympathy at this sudden death in their very midst, was general among the members of the society.

The proceedings were opened by Rev. Thomas Hulm, president of the society, who called the meeting to order with a gavel which he said had a history and was made from wood that had a history for the use of the pioneer society. Rev. W. H. Walker, pastor of the Congregational church, offered prayer.

President Holmes said it was usual to have an address of welcome and a reply by the president of the society, but as both these duties would this year devolve on him, he would dispense with the response. He said this was the most extraordinary meeting ever held within the walls of the church. It had never been their privilege to receive such an assemblage as this. It was the most honorable gathering ever assembled there. No class of people should be revered so much as the pioneers who had exercised such heroism in their early life. He was glad to see that notwithstanding the large number that had fallen during the year, so many were present at the meeting. "You are welcome today," he said, "and I am glad to be permitted once more to meet you and preside over this body. All the people of Chelsea welcome you."

J. Q. A. Sessions, secretary of the society, then read the minutes of the last year's meeting and Treasurer Reeves, of Dexter, submitted his annual report showing a balance on hand of $22.34, both of which were adopted.

Wm. H. Lay, of Ypsilanti, necrologist of the society, then read his annual report which showed the following statistics: Total number of deaths in 1895, 6, 168; last year, 198; total number where ages were given 153 as against 186 last year; total years of age 1895, 11,064, last year 13,910; average age this year, 72 3-5 years, last year nearly 72. Residents of county for 60 years or more, 28; the oldest resident was Mrs. Daniel B. Brown, of Ann Arbor, 70. Number aged 90 years and upwards 5, last year 11 (the oldest being Mrs. Mary Hakes, of Webster, aged 98); 80 to 90, 49, last year, 42; 70 to 80, 50, last year, 64; 60 to 70, 29, last year, 36; under 60, 20, last year, 31. Deaths by months—June, 1895, 15; July, 7; August, 11; September, 8; October, 20; November, 10; December, 8; January, 1896, 15; February, 22; March, 28; April, 11; May, 12. Deaths by cities and towns—Ann Arbor city, 40; Ypsilanti city, 84; Ypsilanti town, 3; Dexter, 6; Sylvan, 11; Salem, 6; Manchester, 4; York, 7; Lodi, 6; Bridgewater, 2; Ann Arbor town, 2; Scio, 11; Superior, 8; Augusta, 7; Sharon, 3; Saline, 2; Northfield, 2; Lima, 2; Webster, 2; Freedom, not reported. A full list of the names will appear in next week's Argus.

J. W. Wing, of Scio, gave a short biographical sketch of the late Philip Bach, of Ann Arbor, in which he spoke of that gentleman's value as a citizen and what he had done for the public schools of Ann Arbor.

M. T. Woodruff, of Ypsilanti, read a sketch of the life of his father, the late Hon. Charles Woodruff.

A committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year was then appointed as follows: Isaac Terry, Webster; D. L. Godfrey, Ann Arbor; Wm. H. Lay, Ypsilanti; J. W. Wing, Scio; R. C. Reeves, Dexter.

Judge Harriman not being present to take care of his topic "Influence of pioneer life on character," the president made a few excellent remarks on the subject.

Dinner was here called and ample justice was done to the substantial dinner provided by the good ladies of Chelsea and vicinity. About 250 people were served.

At 1:30 o'clock the meeting was again called to order. Mrs. Watkins, of Manchester, read a poem on pioneer days and J. P. Wood, of Chelsea, read an interesting paper on the early history of that town. A male quartet then gave an appropriate musical selection, and this was followed by the report of the nominating committee: President, Harrison W. Bassett, Saline; secretary, J. Q. A. Sessions, of Ann Arbor; treasurer, R. C. Reeves, Dexter; necrologist, Wm. H. Lay, Ypsilanti; vice presidents—Daniel Hiseock, Ann Arbor town, Wm. Dansingburg, Augusta, George Rawson, Bridgewater, W. D. Smith, Dexter, E. A. Nordman, Lima, H. M. Twombly, Lyndon, L. D. Watkins, Manchester, E. E. Leland, Northfield, Henry Preston, Pittsfield, George S. Wheeler, Salem, Wm. H. Davenport, Saline, George A. Peters, Scio, W. S. Crafts, Sharon, Nelson, Fowler, Superior, C. H. Kempf, Sylvan, Isaac Terry, Webster, John W. Blakesley, York, Albert Graves, Ypsilanti town, Erastus Samson, Ypsilanti city; executive committee—A. A. Wood, Lodi, S. R. Crittenden, Pittsfield, J. W. Wing, Scio, Henry Kempf, Chelsea, H. D. Platt, Pittsfield. It was recommended that the meeting of the society next year be held in the village of Saline. The report was unanimously adopted.

A resolution was adopted that the necrologist be instructed to include in his report only the names of those who have been 40 years or more in this county and who have died in the county, and the names of those who are members of the society.

Mrs. Julia Stannard, of Dexter, on behalf of her mother, Mrs. Samuel W. Dexter, presented the society with the saddlebags in which Judge Dexter, 69 years ago used to carry the mail between Ann Arbor and Dexter. The thanks of the society were unanimously extended to the family for the interesting relic.

Mrs. M. A. Foster, of Sylvan, read an interesting account of the early settlement of Sylvan and the experiences and dangers encountered among the wolves and Indians.

J. W. Wing recited a poem on pioneer life and Wm. H. Lay read a poem written by Wm. Lambie, also obituaries and biographical sketches of Mrs. Sophia Cally and Mrs. Mary Hakes, of Dexter.

The thanks of the society were by resolution tendered to the trustees of the Congregational church, Chelsea, for its use and to the citizens of Chelsea and vicinity, especially to the ladies, for the excellent dinner provided. The meeting closed with the doxology.

For the Cyclone Sufferers.

The attendance at the meeting to consider the raising of funds to assist the cyclone sufferers of Oakland county, held last Friday evening, was neither large nor enthusiastic. C. E. Hiseock presided in the absence of Mayor Walker, and O. H. Butterfield acted as secretary. H. J. Brown, treasurer of the fund, raised to assist the Ironwood miners two years ago, stated that he had $202.45 in his possession left over from that fund. This it was resolved to send at once to Gov. Rich for the cyclone sufferers. On motion of Col. H. S. Dean, a committee of seven was appointed to make a systematic canvass of the city as follows: H. J. Brown, chairman and treasurer, T. J. Keech, Evert H. Scott, John Heinzmann, H. S. Dean, Eli W. Moore, C. E. Hiseock.

New Auxiliary Pumping Station.

The Ann Arbor Water Co. has the foundations laid for a new auxiliary pumping station on W. Washington st., where for some time past the company has been drilling new wells to obtain a further supply of water to that it now has. Twenty-seven of these wells have been put down, three 6-inch and the balance 2-inch and 2½-inch. A new 125 horse power boiler arrived yesterday and is now being put in position. A Dean pump with a capacity of 2,000,000 gallons a day is also on the way. The pump house will be nothing elaborate, merely a frame building; and will be more for use than ornament. Large mains will be laid down Washington st. to connect with the main pipe through which the water now is distributed to the laterals.

All who are eligible to attend the second reunion of the older high school alumni association on the 22d instant, are invited to meet at the residence of N. W. Cheever, 42 Madison st., this evening, to practise singing old songs. Any are eligible who attended the Ann Arbor High School between the years of '56 and '76.

THE JUNE FESTIVAL

Of St. Thomas' Conservatory of Music a Bright Success.

PEDAGOGICAL BALL.

Great Game Put Up by the Teachers and Trustees.

Prof. Perry's Phenomenal Pitching.—Joe T. Jacobs and Evert Scott as Base Runners.—A Hot Game Throughout.

When the statement was made that the entertainment to be given last night and tonight by the St. Thomas' Conservatory of Music would be better and brighter than ever, it was no vain boast. Last night's performance fully proved the truth of this prediction. The heavy, classical style of music usually rendered on such occasions was abandoned altogether, with one exception, and as a consequence the majority of the audience was greatly pleased thereat. It was a fine entertainment throughout and showed the immense amount of patient, faithful work that must have been done to bring the affair to such a state of perfection.

The program opened with a chorus "Victory" in which ten little girls with Miss Ellen Clarken as the Goddess of Victory, participated. It was bright and catchy and the brisk movements of the "playful elves" pleased the audience greatly. A 16 hand piano selection "Czarus Opus 85," Michiels, by eight young ladies and another one "Pas Redouble Opus 86," Saint Saens, followed. They were bright, lively pieces, not too long, well suited to the popular taste and received well deserved applause.

"The Athenian Revelers" next made their appearance on the stage. The drilling of the 12 little boys and the clear sharp commands of their equally small captain pleased the military eyes of all. They were neatly uniformed in blue and white and went through a manual of arms and marching movements with great precision. The other revelers were eight little girls dressed in pink and green who did a very pretty drill in dancing movements which was very pleasing. "Autumnal Echoes," by the St. Thomas' Banjo and Guitar Club brought forth a vociferous encore from the audience, but encores were not in order on account of the length of the program. The fifth number, an overture with harp accompaniment, was also a very fine one. The sixth number, "The Harvest," was a vocal one with solo and chorus. It was very pretty, the stage being set as a harvest field with the reapers and gleaners working amongst the grains with sythes, sickles and rakes, and the gleaners following after, gleaning the grain. Mendelssohn's Opus 25 in G. Minor brought the first part of the program to a close.

The second part of the program was a drama in five scenes entitled "Eudora." It portrays the conversion of a Druid vestal, Eudora, to the Christian religion. The anger of the priestess Althea at her action and her subsequent denunciation of Eudora to the Roman prefect, Eudora is made prisoner and dies at the stake rather than forsake Christ. The principal characters, Eudora, Althea, Lorrinda and Alicea were well taken by the Misses G. Kress, L. Fitchel, K. M. Clarken and N. Brown. Miss Fitchel in particular evincing good dramatic ability. The storm of thunder and lightning in the fourth scene in the rocky glen was the most realistic ever given on an Ann Arbor stage.

The entertainment will be repeated tonight and it is safe to say it will be greeted with as large a house as was present last evening.

JACOBS MADE A HOME RUN.

School Teachers and Trustees on the Baseball Field.

O, what a sight was that—fit for the gods—when on Monday last a "picked" nine from the board of education and the faculty of the high school, battled bravely to down the seniors on the baseball diamond! A shrieking multitude of admirers—both male and female, young and old—enjoyed the game. A thought of the contest drives from the mind the memory of such futile efforts, such trifling events as the games between the "Varsity and Chicago, and brings back to recollection the days of old when the Detroiters were champions of the world.

And why should it not?—for even Prof. Perry dropped his Virgil and grabbed up the beguiling sphere. He took his place in the box like Baldwin of old, while behind the bat was Prof. Pattergill, his brother in the field of classic lore, who Bennett-like, donned the glove and the mask and the other paraphernalia of the athlete, amid the plaudits of the admiring multitude. The athletic superintendent seemed to be laboring under the hallucination that the seniors held bats on each side of them. Accordingly, the portly catcher was kept moving all over the north end of the fair ground in his frantic efforts to get the "inshoots" and the "drops," which carefully avoided all proximity to the plate.

But not to these alone belongs the honor of losing the game! For, Beal and Scott, too, officiated as one for the varied and numerous batteries. Julius threw with the unerring aim of a Watkins, while Evert stopped the ball in its mad flight ere it had winged its destructive way to the grandstand where admiring ladies cheered the thrilling play. Scott caught one ball amid wild plaudits, but he spoiled it all by trying to appear as unconcerned as though it had not been an unforeseen and unavoidable accident.

Beal broke the rules while playing second by catching a ball on the fly. It was at first feared that he might be mobbed for this offense by the surprised and excited crowd. But, partly because it was thought that there was no danger of a repetition of the offense; partly out of consideration for Mrs. Beal, who was present, it was decided that the summary punishment which the crime demanded should not be dealt out to the editorial athlete. Scott's laurels were not won behind the bat alone. As a base runner he earned enduring fame. He and the senior third baseman attempted to occupy the same space at the same time, much to the injury of Scott's knee. But the wily Evert got himself appointed third baseman after that and stood like a solid rock against all comers, who wisely dodged around his stalwart frame.

Wines, too, was there.—Levi D. indeed, incongruous as it might seem, the valiant short stop was he. The ex-president of the council stopped one ball, which proved such a shock to his nervous system that he straightway dropped it; then turned around eight times before he again succeeded in getting it within his grasp. Prof. Montgomery came to the rescue with a fish net, while Prof. Chute came in from center field at a 2:40 gait to be present at the obsequies of the fool-hardy senior, who was endeavoring to reach second. And the senior got there, too! Right here let it be remarked that Chute's work in the field was simply phenomenal. He stood like some Titan of old, his beard waving in the summer breeze, while over him went the whizzing sphere towards the motor line. Then when the runner had reached third, he started for the ball and sought Shields-like, to cut him off at the plate. But all in vain! Perry's similar effort met a similar fate, while Jacobs' acrobatic performance while revolving up in the air, between the blue dome of Heaven and the long grass of left field, was successful in all but getting the sphere.

But wait until the story of the other fielders is told. No English dude ere wore so variegated an outfit as that which adorned the shapely calf and ankle of John R. Miner,—yea even reaching unto the knee. He was the cynosure of all eyes. The fair lasses from the grandstand betook themselves from thence to the field of action so that their eyes might feast the more on the glistening apparel of the nineteenth century Adonis. But when he played,—O, what a sight! Chute and Jacobs and Perry turned green with envy. He ran red well and firmly all that vast stretch of territory upon which his feet were planted. His batting average was not 100, but his fielding was well-nigh perfect. The crowd went wild with ecstatic joy, then wrung their hands in sorrow when his marvellously heroic effort to envelop the evasive sphere within the folds of his capacious hat was marred by cruel failure.

But the "star" play of the game, the supreme effort, beside which all others paled into insignificance was Joe T. Jacobs' home run. "Joe" walked up to the plate with the confident characteristic of the Ansonian battree of every age and clime. His bat collided with the ball, sending the sphere over towards left field. But Joe moved not. He stood motionless as the Statue of Liberty in the harbor of New York, while the crowd frantically yelled to him to move on. At last when the ball reached terra firma Joe T. started for first. But here he tarried not. He moved on towards second, rivaling in his velocity the winds of Heaven. An overthrow to second, a wild shriek from Manager Springer, and the base runner moved on. At third he did not stop to rest—for there were yet other worlds to conquer. With a wild, despairing look in his eye, with beads of sweat standing on his noble brow, the restless Joe started for the home plate—the haven of rest and peace. But the spark of life had well-nigh fled; and his noble form collided with the dust of earth. But valiant aid was at hand. The prostrate form of the member of the board was raised! One more wild, despairing effort! His form crossed the plate, and all was over! The crowd went frantic with delight, and the tally keeper called for another pencil. Joe T. sat himself down, and looked himself over to see whether all was left of the noble form, which but a moment before stood at the plate. Meanwhile, Perry and Chute, Miner and Wines, grew envious, and resolved to go and do likewise. But it availed them not—for this was the climax of the game—this, the high pinnacle, viewed from which, all other efforts were but puerile, child-like and of no account.

The question of the consolidation of Ypsilanti Lodge, No. 128, F. & A. M., with Phoenix Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., came up in the business meeting of the former Thursday evening and was defeated by four votes. In a question of consolidation it takes the unanimous consent of all present to carry it out.

Ypsilanti will have a summer school this year. On Monday, June 29, a five weeks' summer school will be opened at Cleary College. This school will be for the benefit of teachers who may desire extra preparation in particular branches, and nearly all the subjects taught in an ordinary school will receive attention.

The Ypsilanti high school has been placed on the diploma list for admission of pupils to the university for three years. For several years the acceptance was for one year, then in 1894, for two years, and this year places the school among the very best in the state, as three years is the extreme limit ever granted to any school.

Sidney Smith, an Ypsilanti drayman, punished his daughter Mary so severely one day last week that an eye witness preferred a complaint against him for assault and battery. He pleaded not guilty to the charge. Justice Childs was inclined to be lenient with him in order that he could earn money and was going to leave him in charge of the officer, provided no disturbance occurred in the Smith home in which case he was to be locked up. He was, however, just as inclined to be cranky to his honor, and as a result the court fixed the bail at $100 or in default be committed to jail until the day of trial. He could not get the bail so he went to jail.

The festival given Thursday evening of last week by the surplused choir of St. Luke's church, Ypsilanti, was a great success. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost by the large crowd that attended. Master Witter Peabody, of Detroit, and Cyril Tyler, of Ypsilanti, were the attractions, but other numbers were rendered by Master Fred Ellis, soprano; Miss Abbie Owen, violin; and Felix Lamond, organ. Had it not been for Rev. Gardau's injunction to the audience not to applaud, it would have showed its appreciation of the excellence of some of the numbers in a very decided manner. At the close of the festival the choir boys were taken to the parish house and regaled with ice cream and cake furnished by Mrs. B. Goodspeed.

The Ypsilanti whist team came out fourth in the Interstate whist league contest.

There were 228 carriages in the funeral cortege which followed the remains of Emma Moeckel, the murdered Waterloo girl, last week.

Rev. William H. Walker, of Chelsea, has accepted a call to the Congregational church in Emporia, Kansas, and leaves in August to occupy a wider field.

The Denton baseball team played a game with the Cleary Business College nine at Ypsilanti, Saturday, and came out victorious by a score of 12 to 5.

William H. Barr, of Saline, and Miss Maude E. Congdon, of Chelsea, were married in the latter place on Wednesday of last week. They reside in a new house in Saline.

At Manchester by Sunday's storm, orchards and trees were torn up, several barns unroofed, fences blown down and smaller buildings overturned. A large new barn belonging to C. Schwab was struck by lightning and destroyed.

A terrific wind and hail storm visited Putnam township Saturday between 3 and 4 o'clock the like of which had not been known there for years. Hundreds of rods of fences are down, trees were torn out by their roots and the crops of corn and potatoes are leveled to the ground. The damage cannot be estimated as the downpour of rain washed away entire fields of all that was planted.

The Saline High School won a game of ball from the Manchester High School last Saturday by the score of 16 to 4. The visitors were entirely outclassed. The Saline team was made up as follows: Eber Reeves, '99; Will Barnard, '97; John Mitchell, '96; Prof. Austin; Fred Burkhardt, '99; Fred Pierce, '96; Bert Gillen, '98; Alpheus Schmidt, 8th grade; Harry Gillen, 8th grade.

Rev. Fr. Doman, who has been appointed by Bishop Foley to the pastorate of St. John's church, Ypsilanti, vice Fr. Kennedy, transferred to Niles, preached a very strong sermon on "Unity" in that church last Sunday morning. He surprised everybody present by his brilliancy as a pulpit speaker. It had been stated that the Owosso priest was one of the most learned in the state, but the people hardly expected such eloquence as was displayed Sunday.

P. Elbert Perkins, a Detroit bicycle liverman, had a hard chase to Ypsilanti, Saturday. On Friday afternoon a man and wife (presumably) came into his store in Detroit and rented bicycles. They were not returned as soon as was expected and he started out to track them up. He found they were headed for Ypsilanti and came out there at the rate of 15 miles an hour on his wheel. He overtook them just west of the city and demanded the bicycles which were given up and the couple allowed to depart.—Times.

Clark Williams, son of Friend Williams, was drowned in School Lot Lake, one and one half miles west of Pinckney, Saturday at 11 o'clock. He was bathing with his two younger brothers, and while fooling with a plank fell off into deep water about six rods from shore. Search was at once made for the body, but the water was so deep that the bottom could not be reached and the divers had to give up. The young man was well known and was about 20 years old. The body was recovered Monday near where he went down.

Would anyone wonder at a newspaper telling whoppers when a farmer relates to the editor for an item, that a farmer and his team at work in a field near the road fence suddenly felt the ground giving way under their feet and in an instant they were carried under a barbed wire fence and landed in the highway without receiving a scratch. We might add that an excavation had been made at the side of the road to secure gravel, and the farmer and team slid into it unharmed. It was Mr. Merriman's team.—Manchester Enterprise.

The dangers of bicycle riding have had another illustration at Dexter as witness the following item from the Chelsea Standard: "Harry Ayer, of Detroit, took a leap yesterday at Dexter that he will not soon forget. He was on his wheel coming to Pinckney, and had to dodge a child, and in so doing came violently in contact with the bridge, which smashed his wheel and threw him twenty-five feet into the Huron river. After being fished out his right leg was found to be bruised and lacerated from hip to knee. He now goes on one leg."

George Hayes, a colored lad, aged 10 years, was run over by a street sprinkler driven by Frank Haynes, at Ypsilanti, on Friday last. The team attached to the wagon ran away, as it had done several times before, and the wagon weighing 3,800 pounds passed over the lower part of the boy's abdomen, inflicting internal injuries, which resulted fatally. The Business Men's Association of Ypsilanti promptly notified Mr. Haynes that he would not be allowed to drive the team any longer on the wagon and other horses were put on to it. Hayes died Monday afternoon, general peritonitis having set in.

The Saline senior class will invest $50 in music, $20 in speakers, and $46 in invitations for commencement.

William H. Bird, a young Augusta mulatto with a penchant for white girls, tried to take out a license to marry one in Ann Arbor recently, but was refused. Last week Tuesday they went to Ohio, to endeavor to be married there. Bird two or three years ago married a young white girl but soon separated from her.

A very foolish practical joke was played on an Ypsilanti young lady Sunday evening. A few of her friends thought it would be fun to fix up a ghost in her room to scare her with. Returning to her room about dusk and opening the door, she caught sight of the object, and with a scream she fell to the floor and swooned. She became perfectly rigid and it was over an hour before she could be brought back to her senses. It seems that the young lady had recently lost by death a twin sister and the apparition naturally had the effect that resulted.

Commencement week at Saline this year will closely resemble college commencement week. The program will be as follows: June 21, Evening—Baccalaureate Address, Rev. T. B. Leith. June 24, Evening—Class Day. June 25, Morning—Promotion exercises of grades, immediately followed by dedication of senior stone by the graduating class. June 25, Evening—Commencement Address, Hon. H. R. Pattengill. June 26, Evening—Alumni banquet. The class numbers 14, this being the largest graduating class to leave the school. The original parts written and learned, and all are practicing hard for class day.

The people of this community were shocked last Saturday about noon to learn that Rev. John Shepard, pastor of the Baptist church, was dead. After delivering a very able and patriotic memorial address in the Baptist church, he returned to the parsonage where he was stricken with apoplexy, and before his late audience had dispersed from the church door his life labors were over and himself at rest. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church on Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and were conducted by Revs. Willis, of Fowlerville, (a personal friend of the deceased) and J. Ward Stone, of Milan. The church, which was appropriately draped, was filled to overflowing with the friends of the deceased, and many were unable to gain admission. The pall-bearers were Deacons J. R. Boyden, J. D. Forsythe and W. I. Webster of the Mooreville church, and H. L. Kelsey, Oscar Loveland and E. W. J. Delaware of the York church.—Mooreville correspondent of Milan Leader.

Over in Pinckney, the dogs are given to sheep killing, and do almost as much damage to sheep as do the howlers in republican papers. And notwithstanding the sheep industry is "ruined," the farmers make just as much of a fuss over the work of the dogs, as though the flocks were worth something, instead of nothing.

An Eaton Rapids barber was shaving a corpse, when he suddenly stopped, and leaning over the dead man, softly inquired: "Does the razor hurt you sir?" Then he gave it an extra flipper on the leather strap and said something about the weather, and said something about McKinley, before he happened to think he was shaving a Pinckney man.

Perfect Wisdom

Would give us perfect health. Because men and women are not perfectly wise, they must take medicine to keep themselves perfectly healthy. Pure, rich blood is the basis of good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. It gives good health because it builds upon the true foundation—pure blood.

Hood's PILLS are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

Well Satisfied with Ayer's Hair Vigor.

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray. I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and was so well satisfied with the results that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It requires only an occasional application of AYER'S Hair Vigor to keep my hair of good color, to remove dandruff, to heal itching humors, and prevent the hair from falling out. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Nebr.

Money for cyclone victims, raised in Washtenaw county will be turned over to Gov. Rich to be handled as he thinks best. With this discretion given the governor, the republican state central committee is winking at him and pointing to its treasury.

It is alleged that Ross, the newly appointed street commissioner at the Washtenaw capitol, has never taken out naturalization papers. Same man who, it is claimed wanted teamsters to run their horses up a steep hill. Let him be first Christianized and naturalized afterward.

The Democrat has been wrongly informed. Mr. Ross never required it of teamsters to run their horses up a steep hill. What he did require, however, was a fair day's work for a fair day's pay, both by men and horses. For that reason he was criticised and objected to by those of whom he required such an absolutely fair condition of things.

A man who had buried five wives, begged charity at the Washtenaw Times office and all he got was "a cool reception." The editor says: "Any man with a record like that should be sent to jail." The editor will have nobody but himself to blame if his inhumanity drives that man to a sixth marriage. In a certain grave yard are seven mounds in a row. Six contain the wives of John Smith and the seventh John Smith himself; and on his tombstone runs the epitaph: "At rest at last!"

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prob. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St. Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at Eberbach Drug and Chemical Co., Ann Arbor, and Geo. J. Haeusler, Manchester.

Death of Michael Wade, of Lima, Michigan Wade died at the home of his son, John H. Wade, in Lima township, on Thursday of last week, aged 83 years. He was born in Dublin, Ireland and came to America a poor boy. He married Miss Mary McNenany, of Staten Island and they had three sons and two daughters. In 1838 he came to Michigan and settled on 80 acres in Saline township. He afterwards removed to Sharon, where he first purchased 80 acres, which he increased until he had 400 acres. He removed to Manchester in 1886 and purchased a $2,500 residence. Three years later his wife died and he sold his Manchester property, retired from active life and went to live with his son, John H. Wade, of Lima township. As will be noticed, Mr. Wade had resided in this county for 58 years and it was in this county that he made his money. He was a good democrat in politics. The funeral services were held in St. Mary's Catholic church in Chelsea, last Saturday morning.

LATER EXCESSES IN MANHOOD
MAKE NERVOUS, DISEASED MEN

THE RESULT of ignorance and folly in youth, overexertion of mind and body induced by lust and exposure are constantly wrecking the lives and future happiness of thousands of promising young men. Some fade and wither at an early age at the blossom of manhood, while others are forced to drag out a weary, fruitless and melancholy existence. Others reach matrimony but find no solace or comfort there. The victims are found in all stations of life.—The farm, the office, the workshop, the pulpit, the trades and the professions.

I had ulcers in the mouth and throat, bone pains, hair loose, pimples on face, finger nails came off, emissions, became thin and despondent. Seven doctors treated me with Mercury, Potash, etc. They helped me but could not cure me. Finally a friend induced me to try Drs. Kennedy & Kergan's New Method Treatment. ## MOTHERS, Do You Know

Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

Pitcher's Castoria. Children Cry for

They Want Divorces.

Lena M. Sweet, of the township of Superior, has filed a bill for divorce in the circuit court against her husband, Robert S. Sweet, of the same township, on the ground of desertion and non-support. The bill states that the maiden name of complainant was Lena May Gorslin and that she was married to Sweet in October, 1888, by Rev. Robert Eip. It also states that for years past Sweet has not contributed anything to her support although amply able to earn a livelihood for both of them, and that for much of the time the couple lived together the parents of the oratrix had to provide them with food and clothing. The bill also avers that Sweet is lazy and will not work and that he makes life a burden to her by his jealousy. The complainant asks for a divorce on these grounds with a sufficient sum for solicitor's fees, etc. Martin J. Cavanaugh is the attorney for Mrs. Sweet. The couple at one time lived in this city and the remembrance of the 'opera' orchestra which played at the opera house one winter under his direction is still fresh in the minds of theater goers. Mrs. Belle Ferguson, of Ypsilanti, has also filed a bill for divorce in the circuit court against her husband, Fred Ferguson on the grounds of desertion and non-support. The couple were married by Rev. Mr. Hill, at Brooklyn, Mich., Dec. 29, 1887, and lived together until April 1, 1892, when he deserted her. She also asks for alimony and expenses. Charles N. Nye, of Salem, has entered suit in the circuit court for a divorce from his wife, Susie M. Nye, she having lived apart from him for two years. The couple have one child, a daughter 21 years of age. In his bill the complainant charges his wife with desertion and cruelty and states that his mother-in-law is unbearable. Wm. Popkins, of Ann Arbor town, is another applicant to the circuit court for a divorce from his wife, Nora S. Popkins. The couple were married at Olivet, in 1892 by Rev. Estabrook, Mrs. Popkins' maiden name being Nora S. Sherthief. He asks for a divorce from her on the ground of cruelty, desertion and excessively abusive language. He says that when they were married, in order to obtain a living, he rented a 200 acre farm to cultivate which he had to hire help and board them. His wife has objected to cooking the meals for him and them and finally on June 4 last deserted him taking with her all her belongings and also some things that did not belong to her. The couple have no children.

It remains for the new editor of the Washtenaw Evening Times to make the charge that the Argus is afraid to speak out on city affairs. The Argus admits his nerve. And cheerfully accepts the challenge to tell who composes the second or out-of-office board of public works which seeks to hamper the actions of the board in office and to be the power behind the council. It does not tell this because it thinks the Times does not know—for have not the Times editorials on the board of public works, the street commissioner, paving Detroit street, etc., been from the facile pen of the literary private secretary of this out-of-office board of public works. Who does not know that ex-street commissioner and ex-sewer inspector Charles A. Ward, who was popularly known on the streets as the literary secretary of Messrs. Bullis and Clark, and who wrote some of their most valuable reports, wrote these articles for the Times, even though they appeared in the editorial columns? And who has been so blind as not to discover the animus of them? Who does not know that there was an attempt made to prevent good men accepting a position on the board of public works, so that the assertions would be carried out which were made by the former board, or the out-of-office board as we have seen fit to call it, that good men would not accept the position until the powers of the board were enlarged? And now let the Times speak out and tell why it has handed over its editorial columns to this out-of-office board? Is it under contract as their official organ? And while the Times is so fearless as it proclaims itself will it say openly which board of public works it considers best for the interest of the city, the board now in office or the board of last year? Just watch the fearless one equivocate over that question. The Argus hopes the Times may stay fearless long enough to answer it squarely.

The free silverites throughout the country are still howling about the wicked federal office holders and the Michigan democratic state convention. Now most of their complaint rests on mistaken facts. It is true that there were some federal office holders in the convention, men who have for years been in the habit of attending state conventions. It is true also that some of these federal office holders were for free silver. It is true also that there were several times as many disappointed candidates for federal offices in the convention as there were office holders and that many of these went to Detroit and worked for free silver not because they believed in it, but as one or two honest ones expressed it, to get even with the administration. For instance, out of the 11 votes for free silver in the Jackson county delegation, five were cast by unsuccessful candidates for federal office. Had both the federal office holders and the unsuccessful candidates for such offices been eliminated from the convention, the sound money majority would have been larger.

As yet Major McKinley has not taken time to declare his position on the currency question. Is it possible that a man aspires to the presidency who has never given so important an issue sufficient thought to enable him to take a position? What the public wishes to know is what he would do if a free silver coinage bill at a ratio of 16 to 1 was presented to him for his signature, and they have a right to know before placing him in the presidential chair.

A Birthday Surprise. Saturday last was Mrs. Fred Belsler's birthday and it presented a couple of very pleasant surprises to her. The first one was when at the dinner table she came near swallowing a $10 gold piece which had found a resting place from the hands of Mr. Belsler in a piece of strawberry shortcake she was eating. The next was brought about by Mrs. Lew H. Clement having informed her that Mrs. Parshall, of Ann Arbor town, wanted to see her and induced the family to drive out there. When they returned in the evening as Mrs. Belsler stepped into the parlor in the dark, she was greeted with a verse composed by John W. Bennett, the singers being some of her intimate friends. The words were:

"Hear, hear, hear, Birthdays come but once a year! Here we are, here we are, Isn't this quite singu-lar!" The result of this second surprise to Mrs. Belsler was a very pleasant evening spent by all.

A PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

Mr. Robert E. Staebler and Miss Mattie C. Otto Married.

A very pretty and dainty affair was the wedding of Mr. Robert E. Staebler and Miss Mattie C. Otto, at Trinity Lutheran church, Ann Arbor, on Wednesday evening. The altar had been trimmed during the day in a very tasty and beautiful manner with cream colored bunting laid in folds around the altar rail and over the reading desk and stands. This was festooned with ropes of smilax and ferns and fern leaves were laid around the base of the railing. A large bouquet of marguerites were the only flowers and stood on a stand within the railing. Palms and bunches of marsh grass stood around in convenient places. The aisles were laid off by bands of cream satin ribbon stretching from one end of the seats to the other.

Admission to the church was by ticket and as the guests arrived they were escorted to their seats by the ushers, E. G. Koch, Alfred Paul, R. L. Williams, N. Stanger, Ed. F. Schairer and Orlando Reimold. At 8 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played on the organ by Miss Emma Fischer, announced the coming of the bridal party and Mr. Staebler and his best man, Mr. Carl Wuerfel, of Toledo, stepped in at the vestry door and advanced to the altar. The bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. D. F. Schairer, who gave her away, then appeared at the main door of the church, preceded by her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Staebler, sister of the groom, and advanced down the aisle to the altar where Rev. W. L. Tedrow spoke the solemn words that made the couple man and wife.

The bride was attired in a handsome dress of cream gloria silk, with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of cream roses. Miss Staebler, the bridesmaid, was dressed in white mull trimmed with satin ribbons and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

At the conclusion of the wedding ceremony the bridal party marched out of the church to the strains of the march from Lohengrin, preceded by the little Misses Van Kleek and Grace Greenwood, who scattered flowers in their path. The invited guests then repaired to the home of Mrs. J. G. Otto, the bride's mother, where a reception was held and refreshments served. Mr. and Mrs. Staebler took the 10:12 train east on the Michigan Central, but their destination they kept a profound secret. The wedding presents were numerous, costly and useful.

At the depot the newly wedded couple were showered with rice and the good wishes of their friends in which the Argus joins. Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. Frost, son and daughter, of Toledo; Mrs. Samuel Krause, of Grand Rapids; Miss Allie Schairer, of West Point, Neb.; and George D. Schairer and family, of Saline.

UNIVERSITY MASONIC CLUB.

A Good Time and Excellent Speeches at Its Last Banquet.

The third and last banquet of the season given by the University Masonic Club, took place at Prettyman's dining rooms on Saturday evening last and was attended by the members, and honorary of the club and members of the Masonic fraternity in the city to the number of about 80. It was one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable affairs that it has ever been our good fortune to attend. The program was in a measure an impromptu one, no one knowing whether or not he was going to be called on to respond, and it was therefore delightfully informal. F. H. Holzheimer acted as toastmaster (he says it was his first attempt but he did it like a veteran at the business) and he did not allow the long program to lag or lose any of its interest for the lack of a timely suggestion or a witty remark.

Toasts were responded to by Dean H. B. Hutchins, Dr. A. C. Nichols, Prof. E. F. Johnson, Hon. A. J. Sawyer, Prof. A. Ziwet, Thomas Orr, H. G. Prettyman, H. B. Dodsley, George Blum, Elmer Beal, T. W. Mingay, and the following active members of the club: I. J. Truman, C. F. Watkins, C. D. Edgar, W. B. Murdock, C. R. Starkevart, C. B. Turbaugh, C. A. Manning, B. C. Morse, R. J. Covert, G. H. Clementson, G. P. McCollum, B. T. Riley, O. P. Cole and W. P. Harlow.

Most of them were good, short speeches, but the one that will live longest in the memories of those present was that of A. J. Sawyer, who gave a resume of what Masonry was 34 years ago, when he first became a member of the order and what it meant to a man to be a Mason in those days. He also spoke of the antiquity of Masonry, and when he mentioned that he was afraid he was talking too long a time, he was met with vociferous cries of "go on." It was a fine banquet and everybody came away feeling that it was a good thing to have been there.

Edgar Leonard Blake. Edgar Leonard, beloved son of Fred W. and Laura A. Blake, of Alpena, passed from earth away, June 4, 1896, of peritonitis, aged 1 year, 9 months, 1 week. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of Leonard Blake, of this city.

A. S. Houghton, formerly choir master at St. Andrew's church in this city, is now performing similar duties for Bethesda parish, Saratoga, N. Y. Houghton, won golden praise yesterday for his skill in the training of the choir."

Last week we advertised the purchase of (1600) Sixteen Hundred (1600) suits of Men's Clothing, which we bought at our own price in the East the week before; and it was a pleasure to see them go out. Every suit is an ad for us and this week we expect to be crowded with buyers.

Dealers who have been slumbering, like Rip Van Winkle for twenty years, must not expect to clothing selling at the old prices when they wake up. We carry an immense stock and are able to make a specialty of every price, from $5.00 Suits to $30.00 Suits. We are anxious to make this the largest year of our existence, and to do this are willing to part with our merchandise at a small margin. It will do you good to see what we are able to do for you in the line of Men's, Boys' and Children's wear.

The University hospitals will be closed from July 1 to September 15. The university authorities are having a well bored on the campus in rear of the old power house. The University Masonic Club will occupy a club house next year, having rented No. 20 N. State st. for that purpose.

Ald. Arthur Brown will build two more small houses for renting purposes on E. University ave. Dr. Charles S. Mack has sold his house on S. State st. to Mrs. J. T. Swathel. The Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters has requested all members of the order to observe next Sunday, June 14, in an appropriate manner.

Ann Arbor lodge of Elks and Goethe Commandery, U. F. of M., have each donated $10 to the cyclone sufferers in Oakland county. Arbor Hive, No. 113, L. O. T. M., also donated $10 to the same purpose. Eleven coaches filled with excursionists from this city and Ypsilanti took in the excursion to Detroit on Saturday. They arrived home in good season in the evening after spending a very pleasant day.

Jacob J. Dupper, who was arrested on Thursday of last week for selling liquor without having paid his tax or filed a bond, has made application for a license, giving as his sureties Louis Kurtz and Fred Brown. Ann Arbor Commandery, No. 13, K. T., will observe St. John's day by services at St. Luke's church, Ypsilanti, on Sunday evening, June 28. Rev. Wm. Gardam, rector of the church, will deliver the annual sermon.

A state teachers' institute for the county of Washtenaw under the direction of the superintendent of public instruction, will be held in Ann Arbor, commencing Monday, Aug. 31. It will be conducted by Prof. E. L. Briggs. Dr. Flemming Carrow recently performed an operation to remove a cataract from the eye of Mr. Harding, of Jonesville, a gentleman aged 88 years. The operation has been so far successful that Mr. Harding has recovered the use of one of his eyes and he is highly gratified thereat.

Nature seems to have developed many peculiar subjects this year. The various diseases affecting the wheat are remarkably strange, and many farmers say that a new insect is troubling the corn, while the seed pods from the elm and maple are very large and unusually abundant. The Ypsilantian says: "The season is so far advanced over the usual, that farmers' work will probably all be done by September, and they will have nothing to do but attend to politics. This is the conclusion reached by the philosophical editor as to the final cause of the early spring."

Rain spoiled the Whitmore Lake excursion Saturday. Only about half the number required to pay expenses took the trip. Joseph Staebler, John Schmid and Walter C. Mack have over 100,000 pounds of wool stored in Mack & Co.'s wool house on S. Second st. St. Andrew's church commenced its summer program of services on Sunday, and the evening service is now held at 6:30 instead of 7:30 o'clock. Marshal Peterson broke the tendons of his right leg while getting onto a street car last Friday evening. As a result he has been limping around by the aid of a cane since.

The members of the K. O. T. M. and L. O. T. M. will attend divine service in a body next Sunday morning at Trinity Lutheran church. Rev. W. L. Tedrow will preach the sermon. Next Sunday will be observed as Carpenter and Joiner's Day by the Y. M. C. A. "What kind of timber to use in building," is the subject to be discussed by some of the prominent wood workers of the association. Those having clothing which they can donate to the cyclone sufferers should send the same to O. M. Martin's undertaking store, 17 S. Fourth ave., at once, as clothing is urgently needed by the poor people who lost all they had.

At its meeting on Tuesday evening, Otsenigo Lodge, No. 295, I. O. O. F., initiated a class of eight candidates. This lodge has made a most satisfactory showing in the way of work during the past year, it having initiated over 40 new members. Wadhams, Ryan & Reule have brought suit against the Western Assurance Co., for $2,000 damages caused by the fire of a few months ago, which damaged their stock so severely. The company is the only one which has not paid its portion of the loss then sustained. The People's Party of Washtenaw county will hold a mass convention at the court house on Saturday, June 20, at 2 p. m., to elect four delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Ann Arbor, July 4, 1896, also to elect delegates to the state nominating convention, the date of which is not yet announced.

Rev. L. P. Goldrick and the congregation of St. Patrick's church, Northfield, will give one of their new justly celebrated picnics at Whitmore Lake, on Saturday, July 4. Fr. Goldrick says this will be his last picnic and that he will after this one retire from the picnic arena and give Ann Arbor a chance if she wants it. Profs. Chas. H. Cooley and H. C. Adams and Rev. J. W. Bradshaw have been in attendance at the charity conference at Grand Rapids the first part of this week. Profs. Cooley and Adams read papers on the "Scientific study of social problems" and Rev. J. W. Bradshaw on "The treatment of tramps in small cities."

Miss Carrie W. Beardsley, of Clarkston, and Morris D. Larned, of Ann Arbor, were married at the home of the bride, in Pontiac, on Wednesday evening, June 3. Rev. W. S. Jerome officiating. A large company of relatives and friends were present and the occasion was one of much pleasure and interest.—Oakland County Post. As the date of the second reunion of the older Ann Arbor High School Association is fast approaching—the twenty-second instant—all who are eligible are invited to meet at N. W. Cheever's, 42 Madison st., Friday evening, June 12, to practice singing old school songs. All are eligible who attended the Ann Arbor high school between the years '56 and '76. At the meeting of the soldiers' relief commission for Washtenaw county, held at the city treasurer's office last Friday afternoon, 14 claims amounting to $53 were allowed. Three of these claims were to parties living in Ann Arbor, seven in Ypsilanti, and one each in Scio, Superior, Manchester and York. The next meeting of the commission will be held July 2, at City Treasurer Manly's office. Mr. Edward April, of Scio, and Miss Emma Lindauer, of Freedom, were married at the home of the groom's parents, on Thursday of last week. Rev. Julius Klingmann performed the marriage ceremony. Several residents of Ann Arbor attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. April will at once commence housekeeping on the Sweetland farm in Lodi, four miles west of Ann Arbor. B. B. Johnson, general secretary of the local Young Men's Christian Association, has received a letter from the association at St. Louis, Mo., stating that its work has been seriously crippled there by the recent cyclone, several of their buildings being either partially or wholly destroyed, and earnestly appealing for aid. A subscription paper has been started, and anyone desiring to aid in this work of relief can do so by leaving whatever amount they feel able to give with the general secretary at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms.

They are wrong; they know what they want—that's the trouble. People who are hard to please in Furniture Stores are generally good judges of Furniture. They have a gift of spotting bad goods, bad styles and poor work; they know how Furniture should be made.

darting, cutting pains are terrible. You are hardly sick enough to keep in bed, yet you are unable to go to work. It is severe suffering in every place and all the time. This is Neuralgia. It is chiefly caused by malnutrition, overwork and nervous exhaustion. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, feeds the exhausted tissues and strengthens the nerves. Opium and similar drugs may quiet pain to-day, only to have it return again, for these drugs weaken. Scott's Emulsion permanently cures because it feeds and strengthens.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby.

Value of Gold Bullion.
Frank Campbell, postmaster of American Falls, Idaho, in renewing his subscription to the Argus for another year writes as follows. Mr. Campbell is evidently a close reader of its columns:

"American Falls, Idaho, May 26, 1896.
"Ann Arbor Argus, Ann Arbor:
"Gentlemen,—Laying on my desk I notice the U. S. Mint reply to L. Gruner. The reply would have shown a better knowledge of bullion values had it stated that the value of gold bullion is fixed by law, and is always interchangeable for coin at the mint valuation. The money value of gold bullion could be raised at any time by legislation. For instance: Should England and France open their mints to free coinage of gold at a higher money valuation than our mint valuation, all gold bullion would flow to those mints for conversion into money, also the American coined gold would be recoined at the French and English mints. Therefore the claim of intrinsic value is misleading. The money value of gold bullion is arbitrarily fixed by law. Therefore if by law the English and French would recoin one of our $20 pieces and return to the owner $22 in money it would certainly follow that our gold coin would be raised in value accordingly.
"To those who believe in having one dollar just as good as another, it would be interesting for the mint to quote the value of a paper dollar when mutilated or destroyed.
"Money is the leading political question of the day. Therefore let us have all the information possible.
"Respectfully,
"FRANK CAMPBELL."

A Correction.

The Argus is in receipt of the following communication from Mrs. Kate B. Joslyn, of Muskegon, grand chief of the Grand Lodge Decree of Honor, A. O. U. W., of Michigan:

"Muskegon, Mich., June 1, 1896.
"Editor Argus, Ann Arbor, Mich.:
"Dear Sir—I clip the following from your issue of May 29th, and same is erroneous as to number of deaths, which as given places our death rate in a very unenviable light, respectfully request a correction:
"Statistics submitted at the recent meeting of the grand lodge of the Degree of Honor, the ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. U. W., show that although the order has not been long organized in Michigan, it has had a phenomenal growth. The membership in 1894 was 2,735 and in 1895 it had increased to 5,138. There were 12 deaths last year and $8,565.60 was paid out in death benefits. Mrs. John Baumgardner was the delegate to the meeting from the local lodge.
"The fact is the order is now on its fifth year in Michigan, and the total number of deaths have been 12, not 12 in '95, as your article states. Please correct in justice to the D. of H., and oblige:
"Yours respectfully,
"MRS. KATE B. JOSLYN,
"Grand C. of H."

Little Public Interest in House Proceedings.

SPEAKER BESIEGED BY MEMBERS.

They Wish to Secure Passage of Bills Under Suspension of the Rules Before the Adjournment of Congress—Funny Speech Made by Allen of Mississippi—The Contempt of Court Bill Passed by the Senate Without Division.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—When the house reconvened at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, still in continuation of the legislative day of Saturday, the general feeling was that congress would reach a final adjournment by night.

Bills were passed for the protection of the forest reservation from fire; to make Santa Barbara, Cal., a sub-port of entry; to authorize the establishment of a life-saving station on the Massachusetts coast between the Hampton and Merrimac rivers; to direct the secretary of war to improve the roads in Gettysburg Military park; to make Erie, Pa., a port of immediate transportation.

Allen Makes a Funny Speech. During the consideration of a resolution to print 10,000 copies of the bankruptcy bill, Allen of Mississippi, the wit of the house, got the floor and delivered a humorous speech which convulsed the house with laughter.

"I desire to say, however," said he, "that there has been little at this session of congress to inspire a Christian man to be loquacious. [Laughter.] And I want to say further that I am not the only great statesman whose recent career has been distinguished by his silence."

The house passed the bill appropriating $300,000 for a government exhibit at the Omaha exhibition of 1896.

LAST HIGH SCHOOL RECITAL. TEACHERS AND SALARIES.

Some More Good Work by Mrs. Trueblood's Pupils.

The 15th annual elocution recital of the Ann Arbor high school was given by the members of the advanced class under the direction of Mrs. T. C. Trueblood, at high school hall last Friday evening.

The program was opened with a recitation, "Bay Billy," by Lee Scholler, followed by "His Mistake" by Miss Maud Salisbury, both of which were very good.

One of the best numbers on the program was "The quarrel scene between Brutus and Cassius" by R. A. Whitten. His representation of the two men, so different in character, was excellent and his transitions from one character to the other, were easily made.

The mandolin solo by Miss Hattie Long accompanied by Miss Boileau, was very good and they responded to an encore with the waltz song "Doris."

As a variation to the program followed a banjo duet by Miss Long and Mr. Watson. Miss Grace Swindler's recitation "La Marseillaise" the French national anthem, was very good.

As a whole the recital was very good but not so well attended as might have been had the weather been brighter.
