A TRICK THAT FAILED

Contemptible Attempt to Deceive Washtenaw Voters.

SHOULD BE REBUKED

Plot to Have Democrats Given Wrong Instructions.

The Ballots Being Changed from the Copy Shown Democrats.—The County Put to the Expense of Reprinting Tickets.

As the end of the campaign approaches honest men should keep watchful eyes to protect the purity of the ballot box. That this is necessary right here in Washtenaw county, is shown by an attempted fraud discovered by the merest accident last Wednesday afternoon. It has made the blood of many voters boil. The facts need only dispassionate statement.

The regular democratic county committee asked for the second place on the official ballot. This the county election commission, composed of the county clerk, county treasurer and judge of probate, two republicans and one democrat, by a majority vote refused to grant and gave the second place to the assistant republicans, labeling their column "democratic ticket." The democrats then asked for the sixth or last column on the ticket. This was agreed to by the commission, and Chairman Cavanaugh and secretary Ward were assured that they should have the last column on the ticket. The ballot was set up in type at the Courier office, and a proof of it was filed with the county clerk in accordance with the law, for inspection by the candidates and the political committees. This proof, which was the only one ever filed, showed the regular Bryan democratic ticket in the last column.

In view of the fact that there was a ticket on the ballot named "democratic ticket," which was not the regular democratic ticket, it became absolutely necessary that the Bryan voters of the county should be fully informed as to where they would find their ticket on the big ballot, which is larger than a page of this paper. The democratic speakers drew diagrams on the blackboards at their school house meetings showing the silver ticket in the last column, the papers instructed the Bryan voters to mark their tickets in the circle under the silver dollar on the last column. This was in pursuance of the understanding with the election commission, which the proof filed indicated they were carrying out.

At about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the printed ballots were delivered at the county clerk's office. John L. Duffy happened to be present at the time they came in and took a look at them and discovered that the regular democratic ticket was no longer in the last column, as had been agreed upon and as the proof showed, but had been transferred to the fifth column, and the last column given to the National Prohibition party so that the democratic voters who strictly followed the instructions given them by the several speakers would lose their votes.

A big racket was raised around the ears of the election commissioners, at first without avail. But when it was found that fair minded republicans were announcing their determination to rebuke the trickery at the polls, and fearing a boomerang, they called another meeting of the commission Wednesday morning and ordered the entire ballot reprinted, at the expense of the county. On the reprinted ballots the tickets are placed in the order they were in on the proof and the Bryan voters will find the silver dollar vignette at the head of the last column.

That the trick has been balked is due only to the fortunate accidental discovery that it was being tried. Had Mr. Duffy not been present when the ballots were carried over by employees of the Courier office, the probabilities are that the democrats would not have discovered it until election morning, when it would have been too late to counteract the instructions they had given their voters.

There must have been an object in changing the place of the regular democratic ticket on the ballot. That object must have been to cause some voters to make mistakes in voting and so lose the democratic national and county tickets some votes. The immediate beneficiaries would have been the republican county officers who were candidates for re-election. They were responsible for the contemptible trick and should be held to a strict accountability for it next Tuesday.

248 More Voters.

SOME QUESTIONS ASKED.

Sheriff Judson Fails to Put in Part of His Bills.

The board of supervisors close their annual session today. Sheriff Judson has not put in his fee bills for the year. If his bills are so small, if he has been such an economical sheriff, why has he not done so? Is he afraid that the Argus would tell the taxpayers the amount of the bills? Why should he wait three months longer before presenting the bills unless for the fact that election will then be passed? If he has been as economical as the Courier has tried to make him out, why has he not shown up his bills so that we could give him due credit? The first nine months' bills as shown by the supervisors reports, showed no saving. The second year's bills were not presented. How then, can the Courier's text this week, "William Judson, as sheriff, has saved Washtenaw county taxpayers $900 in two years. Remember this when you vote on November 3d" be taken as a fact, when no man can tell what Mr. Judson's bills since October 1st of last year are, until he presents them for auditing? The only official figures of expenditures during Judson's administration are those found in the tables in the supervisors' report of last year, published in the Argus a few weeks ago. It makes an exceedingly bad showing for Mr. Judson. Can we then believe that Mr. Judson failed to present his fee bills to this session of the board of supervisors unless they are larger than he cares to have the taxpayers know about.

Every taxpayer should vote for Him Lighthall for sheriff.

FOR CONGRESSMAN.

It is essential that we should have a representative in congress whose services to the district shall extend beyond the distribution of federal patronage and whose influence as a legislator shall not be circumscribed by a small coterie of office seekers. In Thos. E. Barkworth the electors of this district have an opportunity to secure at once the service of commanding abilities and a reputation that is not confined to the state of Michigan. While Mr. Barkworth is a self made and self educated man in every sense of the term, he has never engaged in any undertaking in which he did not win at once a leading place. As a lawyer he stands in the front ranks of the Michigan bar. As a legislator, he, during his terms at Lansing, though a member of the minority party, was easily the most influential man upon the floor of the house. If he is sent to Washington he will go to his duties equipped with a training of experience and a reputation as a parliamentarian and debater that will make the Michigan delegation once more a power in the lower house. Vote for Tom Barkworth and you will secure brains, force of character, experience and all that goes to make a valuable legislator.

HON. E. A. NORDMAN.

Hon. E. A. Nordman, the democratic union silver nominee for the first representative of Washtenaw county, is an old resident of Washtenaw county. He has resided here in the county, Lima township, 61 years, and has been a director of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Co. for twenty years. Although perhaps not so widely known as his opponent on the republican ticket, to the readers of the Argus at least, no man is better known than E. A. Nordman, of Lima. Mr. Nordman is just a plain, ordinary, everyday farmer, but a man of wide experience and knowledge. He has made a life study of political reforms and, while he may not shine on the rostrum as an orator, he has a head chock full of good sound facts and knows where he is at seven days in the week. While there are doubtless many in the community who do not agree with Mr. Nordman politically, a long life of usefulness among them has made Mr. Nordman a host of warm friends and should it be his good fortune to represent the district in the legislative halls at Lansing, no man will be found working harder for the interests of the people he represents than the member from this district.

WATCH OUT FOR BRIBERS.

Watch the polls for evidence of bribery as well as trickery. On Wednesday last an Ann Arbor laboring man had in his possession an official ballot, perfectly regular and the same as had been printed for the election commissioners. It does not need any words to show the unlimited opportunity for bribery the possession of ballots outside the polling places gives venal politicians. An immense sum of money is being sent into this state by Hanna to buy Michigan. A reward of $500 is offered by Senator Jones for evidence for the conviction of any person or persons who bribe or attempt to bribe any voter to vote or refrain from voting. Let every honest man watch carefully. The purity of elections must be preserved.

VOTE FOR THOMAS D. KEARNEY.

Vote for Thomas D. Kearney for probate judge. This is a most important county office as all estates pass through it for administration. Mr. Kearney is capable, honest and faithful, a man with a kind heart and possessed of much plain common sense. He can always be found in his office, which fact those doing business from the country will appreciate. There is not a stain upon his personal character. He is the man for the place and should be voted for irrespective of politics.

A MONSTER MEETING

Was That of the Silver Democrats Last Night.

DISGRACEFUL ACTS

Of a Party of Rowdy Republican U. of M. Students.

They Attempted to Tear Up the Bryan Banner and Followed Vice President Stevenson to His Train With Groans and Hisses.

Straws show which way the wind blows and the several actions of partisans of the republican party show that all kinds of unfair means are being taken to try and down the democratic silverites. The action of a gang of republican students at last night's meeting in the opera house is no exception to the general run of things.

Vice president Stevenson arrived in Ann Arbor at noon Thursday and was at once taken charge of by the democratic committee and driven to Ypsilanti where he addressed 2,500 people in the afternoon. After returning to Ann Arbor the vice president and Thos. E. Barkworth, the silver candidate for congress, were entertained at dinner by the Phi Delta Theta society, after which a reception was tendered the gentlemen at the Cook House. The U. of M. Bimetallic Club formed in a body at the law building and headed by the Light Infantry band, marched to the Cook House, where they were presented to Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Barkworth. A crowd of the rowdy element of the University students, in accordance with prearranged plans, followed the silver clubs, hooting for McKinley, and trouble was in the air. These rowdies monopolized the parquet and aisles in the opera house and when the silver club marched in an attempt was made to secure its handsome Bryan banner. For a moment a general row seemed imminent, but a little judicious and muscular slugging cooled the ardor of the goldbug rowdies and the banner was carried to a place of safety on the stage.

The most disgraceful scenes occurred however at the Ann Arbor depot, when Mr. Stevenson was driven to meet his train. Nearly 1,000 students, mostly the sons of rich men, who have been shouting about patriotism, national honor, etc., for the past three months, followed his carriage to the depot and with the true spirit of intolerant rowdies offered repeated insults to the vice president of the United States. It was an occurrence which ought to put to blush every honest man. The excuse of young blood and buoyant spirits will not go. These young men came from the ranks of life that have been denouncing Mr. Bryan and his followers as the radical and dangerous elements of the community. They are presumed to have been instructed in the ordinary courtesies of social intercourse which are necessary to the preservation of any society. Yet the conduct of the educated rowdies last night was an outrageous demonstration against all the laws of decency and respectable conduct.

Outside of these occurrences the meeting was a grand success. Not more than a third of the vast crowd of people could secure standing room in the opera house, and while Vice President Stevenson was speaking there, Thos. E. Barkworth addressed the overflow from the steps of the court house. T. E. Whitney, a silver republican, from St. Louis, Mich., presided at the opera house meeting. Mr. Stevenson was followed by Col. C. G. Bradshaw, of Kentucky, a union veteran and a silver republican, who made a most stirring appeal to the patriotism of the people and for the cause of the masses led by William Jennings Bryan.

The opera house had been decorated in national colors by Walter C. Mack, and the spirit of the silver part of the audience should be a rebuke to those who imagine that all feeling of patriotism and national pride is confined to goldite breasts.

DEATH OF CONRAD KRAPF.

He Had Been a Resident of Ann Arbor Since 1837.

After a long and useful life of nearly 87 years duration, Conrad Krapf, one of Ann Arbor's oldest and most respected citizens, passed away Tuesday night at 10:25 o'clock. He did not long survive his old friend, Charles Spoor. Mr. Krapf had been lying between life and death from Sunday night until the time of his death, at his home No. 5 E. Jefferson st.

Mr. Krapf was born in Hesse Cassel, Germany, Jan. 10, 1810, where he was educated and learned the trade of cabinet maker. He traveled through Switzerland, Holland, Austria, France and Germany to perfect himself in his trade. From a child he had determined to come to America and in 1836 he came to this country. After a residence of one year in New York, he came to Ann Arbor which had been his home ever since. There being no demand for cabinetmaking here he engaged in building, which he followed successfully for 40 years. He was one of the early abolitionists in this county, was elected poormaster in 1847, and served as supervisor from 1859 to 1866 and from 1872 to 1880. During the war he was enrolling officer. He was a charter member of Washtenaw Lodge, No. 9, I. O. O. F., and was also a member of Ann Arbor Lodge, No. 85, which was the predecessor of Fraternity Lodge No. 262. The funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon and were in charge of Washtenaw Lodge, No. 9, I. O. O. F. His remains were interred in Forest Hill cemetery and were followed to their last resting place by a large number of his relatives and old friends. Three sons survive him, two of whom, Herman and Richard, reside in Ann Arbor; the third resides in the east.

A CAMPAIGN LIE NAILED.

M. J. Cavanaugh's Denial of J. H. Mays' Assertion.

The following letter from M. J. Cavanaugh, chairman of the democratic county committee, denying the false and ridiculous charges published in the papers named below was unavoidably crowded out of last week's Argus. It should receive the careful consideration of every voter of the county as it illustrates the unfairness and falseness of many of the means being used by the republicans to make political capital for their ticket:

Ann Arbor, Oct. 23, 1896.

Editor of the Argus: I see by last night's Detroit Journal, in a communication from Ann Arbor, and also in yesterday's issue of the Ann Arbor Courier, that I am quoted as loaning money on mortgages. I have never loaned a cent on a mortgage in my life, nor have I ever taken any mortgage of any kind with a gold clause inserted therein.

Some weeks ago, one J. H. Mays, a life insurance vendor, met me at the entrance to my office and asked if I knew of any one who had money to loan. I told him that I did; that one of my neighbors had some money which she desired to loan, and Mr. Mays then said that he had issued a $2,000 policy of insurance on the life of a lady here in town, the premium on which was $120; that the lady wanted to get that amount and some more to pay off a small mortgage then existing on her premises, and also to pay for an addition which she was putting on her house; that he was trying to get the money from the New York Life Insurance people, but that it would take too long and then he was not sure he could get it. He asked me to go and see the property with him, which I did, and then he requested that the lady who had the money be shown the premises. She was shown the premises and arrangements were made for the loan through Mr. Mays. It seems that the lady whose life Mr. Mays had insured, was told by him that he could not get her the money unless the gold clause was inserted. My connection with the transaction was simply to inform Mr. Mays where he could obtain the money and draw up the papers for them after they had agreed upon the terms of the transaction through Mr. Mays.

And I was surprised to learn that Mr. Mays had so far forgotten the ordinary courtesies of business intercourse as to try and cover a weak argument with a false representation of a business transaction.

I wish to say to the public that if I had money to loan, I would have no hesitancy in doing so, without exacting its repayment in a metal which all authorities admit is constantly appreciating in value.

M. J. CAVANAUGH.

Here are statements of the parties to the transaction. It pays to tell the truth.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 26, 1896.

I loaned of Mrs. E. M. Sill through Mr. Mays some money and the terms were agreed upon through him. He said he would get the money from the New York Life Insurance Co., but found out after that he could not. I did not loan any money from Mr. Cavanaugh, nor did he have anything to do with the gold clause. It was Mrs. Sill who wanted it. No conversation was had about a gold clause wherein Mr. Cavanaugh was interested. Any statement to the contrary is untrue. Of this money I paid Mr. May $121.44 premium on a policy of $2,000.

MRS. S. A. CARSON.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 26, 1896.

I loaned Mrs. Francis Carson $1,900 and the mortgage was drawn at my dictation after the terms had been agreed upon. Mr. Cavanaugh had nothing to do with the terms of the loan and any statement to the contrary is false.

MRS. ELIZABETH M. SILL.

WASHTENAWISMS.

Eden Ruckman, of Saline, recently sold seven tons of hay for $7.50 per ton.

A ladies' McKinley and Hobart club was organized in Saline Tuesday evening of last week.

Miss Lottie Gentner, of Sylvan, who is very seriously ill, has been brought to Ann Arbor for treatment.

Willie Norris, of Lima, recently found an insane man lying in a fence corner with his throat cut.

George Walter, of Bridgewater, has built a new house for his son just across the road from his residence.

S. M. Bixby & Son, of Saline, are improving their flouring mill by putting in some new improved machinery.

A farmer took a load of apples into Saline, Thursday of last week, and received just enough for it to buy a pair of shoes.

Cornelius C. Post, who died at Belleville, Oct. 9, aged 88 years, had lived in Michigan since the days when it was a territory.

One day last week John Klump husked 118 bushels of corn and bound the stalks in 11 hours, on the farm of A. Hitchcock, in Sharon.

It cost J. Hutchinson, of Ypsilanti, $9.50 to settle with the electric company for the pole he sawed in two when it was placed in front of his driveway.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Berger, of Manchester, celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding, Oct. 17, among a number of their friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Mary Duncan, of Whitmore Lake, died Saturday, aged 74 years. She was a well known and very estimable lady. The funeral held at the Northfield church, Tuesday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Wm. Talford, formerly of Jackson, died at her home south of Rawsonville, Monday morning, aged 70 years. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at St. John's church, Ypsilanti, and the remains were taken to Jackson for burial.

George P. Smith, a shoemaker, of Ypsilanti, dropped dead of heart disease in his barn on Grove st., while building a bin, on Monday afternoon. He was 61 years of age and had never known a sick day in his lifetime. He leaves a wife and four sons.

William Boldman, of Canton township, has gone clear daff on the question of politics. He issued a challenge to Bryan to meet him in joint debate, and then fled to Ypsilanti under the impression that the free silver men were going to kill him. He left Ypsilanti for Jackson Sunday morning. His friends reported the matter to the police.

An exchange describes as follows the difference between an agriculturalist and a farmer: "A farmer gets up at the crack of day, feeds his stock and eats his breakfast at sun up. After his frugal meal he hitches his team to the plow and taking the hard handles in his horny hands he calls 'gee haw' to his team and plows the long and weary day. The agriculturalist gets up at 8 o'clock in the morning, after an easy breakfast he picks his teeth, pulls on his gloves, orders his horse and buggy and drives to town."

John Riley Stafford, a colored man, criminally assaulted a daughter of Peter Sacks, of Saline, one day last week. Deputy sheriff Allen Dillingham went to Bridgewater and arrested the fellow. He asked the deputy if he could go home and change his clothes. Permission was granted him to do so and he then gave the officer the slip by going out the back door and getting out of sight as soon as possible. Stafford eluded the officers for several days but was arrested in Toledo Friday night and brought to Ann Arbor and lodged in jail, Saturday.

The last legislature appropriated $5,000 for the expense of conducting a series of farmers' institutes for the year ending June 30, 1896. Kenyon L. Butterfield, superintendent of these institutes, makes the following report of the distribution of this fund: Salary of superintendent, $650; traveling expenses of the superintendent in arranging for the institutes, $339.59; salary of clerk, $246.60; per diem of institute lecturers, $1,044.95; traveling expenses of lecturers, $2,133.40; printing, $50.46; stationery, $60.70; office postage, $140.13; mailing institute bulletin, $79; office apparatus, including typewriter, $114.80; apparatus for lecturers, $23.30; farm home reading circle, $102.80; sundry, $19.27; total, $5,000.

VILLAGE DOINGS.

Willis.

John Day is out from Detroit for a few days.

Education and Push have been canvassing the neighborhood.

Jay Dickerson and wife were visiting at Charles Thompson's last Sunday.

On Sunday, Oct. 18, Charles Thompson and wife, Will Mortley and wife were visiting at George Hammond's.

In the past four weeks there has been a great deal of political air wasted at Whittaker and Eaton's Mill. Who wins?

The Morgan school has a two weeks' vacation, commencing next week. Miss Dawson is still training the little minds to shoot.

Mrs. Britz expects to move soon to Durand, where her husband is yardmaster. Her home for over a year and a half has been in Pueblo.

A short time ago we were pleased to meet one we used to know when a little boy. He has grown to be a man whom Ann Arbor should be proud of, and he is none other than Arthur Brown.

On Oct. 13, Chas. Alban, a resident of Augusta for many years, died of malarial typhoid fever contracted by going and caring for a sick son in Virginia. A widow, three sons and one daughter survive him.

The presiding elder, Rev. C. T. Allen, of Detroit, will give a lecture at the M. E. church at Willis this morning. Proceeds to go toward church expenses. It will be worth hearing for the doctor always talks well.

Arrivals at Willis—To Fred Swass and wife, on Oct. 18, a baby girl whose weight was 114 pounds. On Thursday, Oct. 22, Bert Lord claimed the possession of $500. It was not free silver, however, but a nice girl of 7½ lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Markham, of Ann Arbor, were the guests of Atty. and Mrs. G. R. Williams, Sunday.

Rev. J. P. Hutchinson, of Ann Arbor, delivered the first of a series of sermons at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Hon. Eugene Allen, of Grand Rapids, addressed the people of Milan from the silver side of the question Wednesday evening.

Friday evening Hon. A. J. Sawyer addressed a large audience at the opera house from the gold side of the question. Chairman Chas. Gauntlett introduced the speaker. The meeting was an enthusiastic one. The Knight sisters sang a fine selection. There were two overflow meetings, one addressed by H. Wirt Newkirk, of Dexter, and the other by Frank E. Jones, of Saline. Proceeding the addresses there was a torchlight procession by the Milan McKinley clubs, Britton and Saline clubs. The village was beautifully decorated and the procession was accompanied by the Milan Cornet Band and the Britton band.

Monday afternoon Charles R. Sligh and Justin R. Whiting, nominees of the silver ticket for governor and lieutenant governor, and President Burt of the Ann Arbor railroad spoke from the porch of the Commercial hotel to a large and enthusiastic crowd. The speeches were fine, strong and interesting. The truth was spoken without fear or favor. Chairman M. T. Woodruff, of the Ypsilanti Sentinel, conducted the meeting in an able manner making the introduction of the speakers in a pleasing manner. The audience although standing, listened with deep and untiring attention. The silver men were out in full force. The Milan Cornet Band played several nice selections. The train left for Ann Arbor about 6 o'clock p. m. amid the cheers of hundreds of voices.

Geo. Buss, who for the past two years has been manager of the Mack & Co. store, has accepted a position at Schairer & Miller's dry goods store.

MRS. GOOLD'S GRATITUDE.

Her Story of How She Was Restored to Health.

Condition Before and After the Birth of Her Child.

From every city, town and hamlet on this vast continent, come letters from suffering women; from those whose physicians have been unable to assist them, or from that numberless class whose confidence in Mrs. Pinkham's advice and the curative properties of her

Vegetable Compound is unbounded. Every letter received from women is recorded, and hundreds of volumes of cases treated aid in furnishing practical information for the women of to-day.

No letters are published without the request of the writer. The strictest confidence is observed. The following letter represents thousands:—

"I always enjoyed good health until six months before the birth of my babe. Then I was very weak; my back ached all the time. My physicians said I would be all right after the birth of the child, but I was not, although at that time I had the best of care. The pains in my back were almost unbearable. I had leucorrhoea in its worst form; menstruations were painful.

"Any work or care would entirely unnerve me. When my babe was 11 months old, friends persuaded me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one bottle I felt the effects. My back did not ache so badly, and I felt stronger. After taking four bottles I felt well. My ambition returned, menstruations were painless, leucorrhoea entirely cured, and I could take care of my babe and do my housework. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound for all women, especially for young mothers."—Mrs. H. L. Goold, Oregon, Wis.

If Mrs. Goold had been well before the birth of her child, subsequent suffering would have been avoided. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should always be taken before and after birth, in order that the system may withstand the shock.

Ann Arbor, and will move to that place.

The attendance at the county convention of the W. C. T. U. at the M. E. church, held in this village last Wednesday and Thursday was good, a number of delegates being present. Mrs. E. Lorine Law, of Detroit, gave a fine address Wednesday evening. On Thursday evening J. B. Steere and H. C. Markham, of Ann Arbor, spoke.

Tuesday afternoon a large number of our citizens, together with all the pupils of the school went to the depot, having received a telegram that an extra train would bring Mayor Pingree, of Detroit, and ex-Governor Foraker, of Ohio, who were in Jackson that day, to speak. To the great disappointment of the anxious crowd the train swiftly sped past them leaving a much disappointed and provoked crowd gazing after the train to catch a glimpse of the men, but all in vain.

You Can Be Well

"DR. MILES,Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows:

"Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothes and strengthens. UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The 'Varsity football team plays Lehigh at Detroit tomorrow.

A Michigan club court has been organized in the law department. It starts out with a large membership.

The All-Freshman team was defeated in its first football game Saturday, the Detroit High School winning by the score 6 to 0.

At the celebration of the 150th anniversary of Princeton college last week, the degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon President Angell.

The following is the board of editors of the Dental Journal: H. Watson, '97, editor-in-chief; F. Charlotte, '97, associate editor; R. W. Forbes, '98, business manager; Dr. Logan, '96, alumni editor.

Round trip tickets on all railroads at one fare rate will be sold to students who desire to go home to vote Nov. 2, and 3, good until midnight of Nov. 3, or for distances exceeding 20 miles from Ann Arbor, until midnight of Nov. 4.

Eddie Shields, '96 law, ex-captain of the U. of M. baseball team, has announced his intention of abandoning the diamond. He is now practicing law with his father in Howell and has been stumping Livingston county for Bryan and free silver.

The philosophical society has organized with the following officers: President, Edson R. Sunderland; vice president, Miss Gertrude Buck; secretary and treasurer, A. O. Olson; advisory committee, Profs. R. N. Wenley, B. A. Hinsdale, and F. N. Scott.

Edson R. Sunderland, '97 lit, managing editor of the U. of M. Daily, has resigned that onerous position. At a meeting held in room 9, Monday afternoon, J. F. Thomas was elected to the office. H. H. Corwin was elected regular editor and Butler Lamb 1900, was made an associate editor.

The 'Varsity won easily from Lake Forest Saturday by the score of 16 to 0. The visitors played a very active game, but were too light to do anything with Michigans line. Consequently after the 'Varsity once got warmed up they scored about as they pleased. Time of halves 25 and 15 minutes respectively.

In addition to the 105,000 bound volumes of books which are catalogued in the general library, 4,600 volumes have been received during the year and are as yet unclassified. This number comprises the Morris philosophical library, 1,100 volumes, the gift of Mrs. George S. Morris, and the Felch library, 3,500 volumes, bequeathed by ex-Governor Felch.

At the meeting of the Woman's League Saturday it was decided to have the opening tea to all the members Oct. 31. A reception to Dr. Mosher will take place some time in November. It was determined to send a representative to the annual meeting of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs, which is to be held in Detroit, Nov. 4 and 5. The resignation of Miss Dodge was received and accepted, Miss Mitts being elected in her place.

The U. of M. Masonic Club has a very encouraging prospect for the coming year. Already there are 40 members and the number is expected to reach 60. Harlow, vice president last year, will act as president till the annual election in the second semester, and George D. Edgar is acting as secretary and treasurer. A house is to be secured and the first banquet will be held Nov. 14. There will be three other banquets during the year.

The sophomore co-eds will give the annual freshman spread in honor of the first-year girls in the Waterman gymnasium, Friday evening, Nov. 6. The following faculty ladies will act as chaperons: Mrs. James B. Angell, Dr. Eliza F. Mosher, Mrs. M. L. D'Ooge, Mrs. V. C. Vaughan, Mrs. Harrison Soule, Mrs. J. C. Knowlton, Mrs. G. W. Patterson, Mrs. R. C. Copeland and Mrs. W. H. Waite. Miss Lillian Keating is general chairman.

The 'Varsity eleven went to Lafayette, Ind., Saturday, and defeated the Purdue boys by the score of 16 to 0. The Michigans showed up in fine shape and both teams played a great game. When the team returned home Sunday night a great display of college enthusiasm was manifested in spite of the nature of the day and the cheering and yelling of the large crowd of students who had gathered at the Ann Arbor depot to meet the team, was heard for blocks away.

A course of Bible chair lectures has been permanently arranged. The classes will meet in room 1, Newberry hall, on Saturdays at the following hours: 10 a. m., Life and writings of Paul; 11 a. m., Christian ethics; 1:15 p. m., Missionary biography; 3 p. m., Great religions of the world; 4 p. m., Life and times of Christ; 5 p. m., Introduction to Old Testament study. The lectures are open to students and citizens of Ann Arbor, and visitors are always welcome.

Michigan students were nearly as much in evidence at Detroit Saturday as on the days of the eastern ball games. Between three and five hundred students boarded the excursion train here and separated into Bryan and McKinley cars. The gold standard men and the silver forces were about equally represented, but the latter were better organized. Headed by their banner, they marched from the Central depot in Detroit to the Campus Martius, where a free silver meeting was being held. A meeting of the University men was held at the Cadillac later in the afternoon and the silver club marched in a body to hear the candidate in the evening. Two hundred seats had been reserved for them, and the officers of the club were given seats on the platform. The train returned at 10:30, arriving in Ann Arbor at 1 o'clock.—U. of M. Daily.

Money Is Created by Law.

Editor Argus: Col. Ingersoll says money cannot be created by law, can he point to any money in existence except beads and wampum that is not the creature of law?

Long ago England enacted by law that gold should be worth $20.67 per ounce, other countries, including the United States adopted the same valuation. In accordance mints were established and part of their duties were to receive gold and return a fixed amount of money. Therefore, an ounce of gold bullion is always worth an ounce of gold money. It cannot go to a premium without gold coin going to the melting pot. It cannot go to a discount so long as a syndicate of nations guarantees its minimum money value.

If England should increase the value of gold bullion by directing her mints to pay the holder ten per cent more money for an ounce deposited, would Col. Ingersoll part with his twenty dollar pieces at their face value? If so it would be the old saying re-enacted "a fool and his money soon parts company."

Under these conditions our gold coin and bullion would seek the English mint to obtain the increased valuation just the same as our silver bullion did when the French mints received it at a the ratio of 15½ ounces to 1 of gold, while our mint valuation was 16 to 1.

Respectfully,

FRANK CAMPBELL.

BRYAN AND VICTORY.The Prospects Are Growing Brighter Every Day.*MICHIGAN WILL WHEEL IN LINE.

With a Rousing Majority for the Leader of the Plain People Whose Masterly Campaign Has Struck Terror into the Hearts of the Hanna-crats.

Bryan's prospects in Michigan are exceedingly bright. The great gain for free silver in the past ten days has been especially noticeable in all quarters of the state. Every day sees accessions to the free silver ranks from life-long Republicans who have made up their minds that now is the time to strike for freedom from England in monetary matters as their forefathers struck for freedom from England in 1776. Bryan's trip through the state left what the Republicans have been calling an ugly trail. Everywhere he gained votes. To hear him was ample refutation of the cry of "anarchist" the Hanna-crats had raised. His speeches proved how true was the remark that the corporations and trusts were pouring forth their millions to defeat him, not because they believed he would not enforce the laws, but because they believed he would enforce the law against the rich as well as the poor, against the corporations and the trusts as well as against the individual.

Such an impression did Mr. Bryan make by his trip through western Michigan that the Republican managers were thoroughly scared, and C. W. Watkins, the Republican leader of Grand Rapids, sent the following telegram to the Republican state committee:

"Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 15, '96. To Hon. D. M. Ferry, Detroit, Mich.: "Good cause for anxiety here.

"This man's presence inspires the weak members of his party to renewed activity.

"Think something should be done immediately to counteract the effects of his incendiary speeches here.

"Meetings were record breakers. "Think Durbin ought to be notified to have press reports cut down.

"C. W. WATKINS."

Bryan's magnificent speech at the Detroit Auditorium made him hundreds of votes. One gold Republican who heard him admitted that he believed Bryan had made 5,000 votes by his Detroit speech.

Traveling men report that never in their experience had they seen such a political upheaval in the state and that everywhere the tide is setting strongly towards Bryan.

Even Governor Rich, stalwart Republican that he is, does not claim Michigan for McKinley, but says that a large percentage of the voters are undecided. These undecided voters which the governor has met are free silver men from convictions but have hesitated about leaving the Republican party, tied to it as they are by old-time love. They recognize more clearly every day that the corporations and the trusts have this year obtained control of it, and most of these men are coming out for Bryan. The undertow is for him.

As an indication of the feeling in the state a few samples of reports on the political condition from the free silver editors of the state, men who are peculiarly fitted to judge of the prospects in their immediate locality, may be given:

Allegan county: "This county has always given a large Republican majority, but with the united forces of the three parties and a large following of silver Republicans, we are confident of giving Bryan and Shigle a good majority." This county gave Harrison 1,076 plurality four years ago.

Berrien: "It looks like victory in this county."

Clinton: "New and valuable accessions to silver are coming from the gold side every day. They are putting watch dogs at the gaps with the fear that the whole flock will break away. Clinton county is sure to give from 200 to 500 majority for Bryan and silver." Genesee: "We have got to carry it."

Jackson: "Jackson county is sure to give Bryan from 300 to 600 plurality. The change is most prominent in the townships, where from 20 to 30 per cent. of all Republicans will vote for silver. Information from Calhoun, Hillsdale and Lenawee counties also indicate a landslide for silver."

Kent: "If the other portions of Michigan give as good results as this, the state will surely go overwhelmingly for Bryan. In Lowell village alone are thirty-nine old line Republicans who will vote for Bryan, and the proportion of converts in surrounding towns is not less. Wherever I have been I found the same conditions existing. In Walker township, this county, Almont, Lapeer county, and Mayville, Tuscola county."

"Mason: "We estimate the majority in this county for Bryan at 350. Over 200 Republican farmers will come over to us."

Oceana: "Here in Shelby the silver cause will poll two-thirds of all the votes cast. We will have a handsome majority in Oceana county."

Shiawassee: "Bryan will have at least 200 plurality in the county. Silver sentiment is growing every day."

Van Buren: "The county has been known for years as the banner Republican county of the state. A majority of the townships have been canvassed and show a clean majority for silver, and if they keep falling into line in the next two weeks at the same rate, Van Buren is sure for from 400 to 800 majority for Bryan." Van Buren county gave Harrison 1,606 plurality four years ago.

Not an unfavorable report was received from any county. Combining all the reports and the percentage of Bryan gain shown would give him the state by 36,708 plurality.

The state committee predict a good majority for Bryan in the state. Their reports are from their county chairmen, a different source from which the above were gathered, yet the results are practically the same. The state committee's predictions are found in the following interview in the Detroit Tribune:

"We are going to carry the state of Michigan," said Chairman Fred A. Baker of the Democratic committee. "The silver ticket will be elected by a plurality of 21,250 or more, but more rather than less.

"I base that assertion on the fact that the vote of the People's party is absolutely solid for Bryan. In 1892 that vote was 20,000, which brings the Democratic vote to an equality with the Republican vote. The silver electors will get at least one-half of the Prohibition vote, which was 21,000 in 1892. This will offset any possible gold Democratic vote that may be cast for McKinley or taken from Bryan.

"The Democratic silver majority in the state will be just as great as the number of silver Republicans in the state. On an average there will be 500 silver Republicans in each of the eighty-five counties of Michigan, and that claim is a very conservative one. That will give us 42,500 majority. Cut that down one-half to cover overstatements and miscalculations and you have the minimum plurality for silver in Michigan.

"This estimate is corroborated by the statements of Professor Bradley M. Thompson. He has been canvassing the state and, in my opinion, can give a more conservative opinion as to the situation than either of the two parties. We have made no regular poll of votes in the state because we could not afford it, but we have received scattering polls which more than support the estimate I have given as to the number of silver Republicans. I received the poll from one township where the Republican majority has been 130, now showing a silver majority of 195."

GOOD NEWS FROM ISABELLA.

A Landslide Coming in That Region and Bryan Hearts Rejoice.

Mt. Pleasant, Mich., Oct. 27.—Unless there should be a great change within the next two weeks this county will give Candidate Bryan and the whole silver ticket a rousing majority in November. There is perfect harmony between all of the allied forces that are working for silver and some predict that the county will carry for silver by 1,000 majority. The county is sure to give a strong majority for the whole fusion ticket.

Most of the prominent Republicans of the county, and on whom the grand old party has always relied in the past, are now out stumping the county for Bryan and silver. Among some of the local Republicans that have been active in the past in advancing the interests of Republicanism are ex-Senator I. A. Fancher, ex-Senator S. W. Hopkins, Rev. C. M. C. Cook, and a score or more of ex-county officials and township officers who are now making the path of the present g. o. p. managers a rocky one to travel.

In some of the townships the silver sentiment is so strong that there will be scarcely a dozen gold standard tickets voted in November. This is notably true in Vernon, Gilmore, Roland, Nottawa, Fremont, Lincoln and Chippewa townships—in the last named township where the Democrats have rarely since the war put a ticket in the field in local elections, the Republicans found themselves without an organization when they came to call their primaries.

This condition has been laid before the state central committee and the county has been flooded with speakers and goldbug literature but of no avail. The more gold standard arguments the farmers hear the more silver shouters they make—even Daniel E. Lyons threw himself into the breach and this did not stop the break for the American standard so gallantly borne aloft by Mr. Bryan.

What Shall We Do To Be Free?

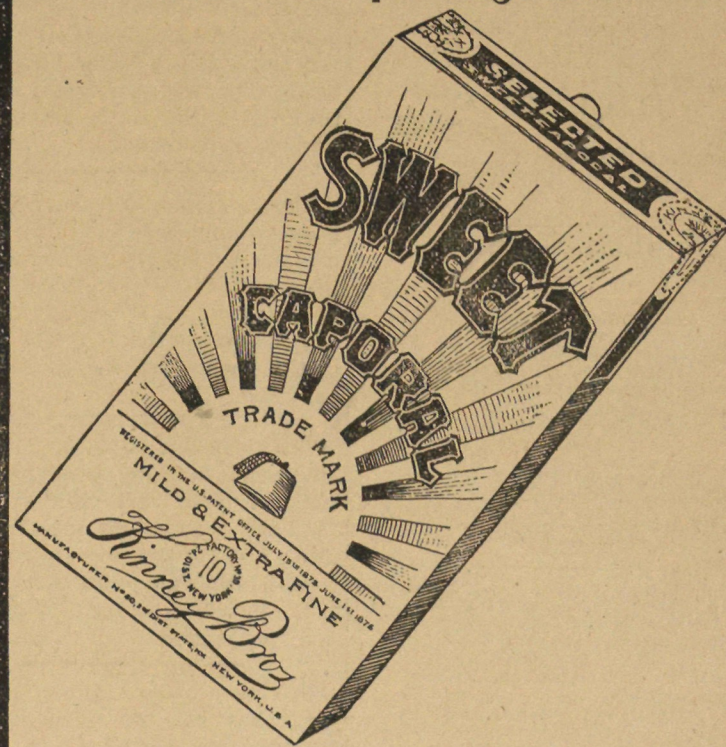

It is said that when Joseph Choate argued against the income tax before the supreme court, he received $100,000 for his services. This shows how and why the poor people of this country are continually fighting the money power at a disadvantage. They cannot make up $100,000 purses to fee big lawyers and buy up legislatures, congresses and courts. They are compelled to take what the bloated bondholders are willing they should have. "How long will this state of affairs continue?" Just as long as the common people continue to send millionaires, corporation lawyers and their tools to make laws for them. Just as long as the producing classes will stand it to do all the work, earn all the money and pay nine-tenths of all the taxes. "What shall we do to be free?" Vote the money power out of office and vote the people in.—Lowell Ledger.

Washtenaw county is solid for silver.

The county funds will be safe in the hands of George J. Mann.

Bryan and silver will be the choice of the people on next Tuesday.

Alfred Davenport will make an efficient and obliging register of deeds.

No one can tell how you vote, when you get in the booth vote as your conscience dictates.

If the voters are careful in marking their ballots Michigan will go 60,000 for Bryan and silver.

E. A. Nordman will make the farmers of Washtenaw county a creditable representative in the legislature.

Don't forget the county silver ticket. They are all good, conscientious and capable men and are worthy of your support.

John A. McDougall is one of the intelligent, thinking farmers of this county. He will make a strong member of the senate.

Put your X in the little circle under the silver dollar and you will make no mistake. You will catch Bryan, Barkworth and all the rest.

Hiram Lighthall, the tall pine of Chelsea, will be the next sheriff of Washtenaw county, and will be elected on his personal merits.

The amount of harmony that prevails in local republican circles is not viewed as a thing of beauty and joy forever by some of the candidates on the gold ticket.

John P. Kirk's administration of the office of prosecutor will insure the public that no guilty man shall escape and that the expenses of that office shall not be unnecessarily increased.

A district of the size and importance of the second congressional is entitled to have a representative at Washington whose ideas of finance are not measured by the discount on a 30-day note.

The democrat who leaves the democracy this year has no conception of the true principles of the democratic faith. He is at heart a republican and should go straight over to that camp.

All thinking men who have an honest and intelligent desire to alleviate the condition of humanity will vote for William Jennings Bryan next Tuesday. Just put a cross under the silver dollar.

The "Republican aid society" headed by "Palmer and Buckner" and tailed by John V. Sheehan, commander in chief for Washtenaw county, will go out of business on November 3rd.

Gen. Spaulding seems to have deposited his theory of "safe" bimetalism in his Monroe bank to the credit of John O. Zabel. At all events Zabel seems to have seen the safe side of somebody's bimetalism.

Don't be deceived by the assistant republican ticket which is wrongfully headed "Democratic ticket." The silver ticket has a silver dollar at the head. The way to vote it is too put the cross in the circle under the picture of the silver dollar.

The so called gold democratic ticket has no county ticket. If you make a mistake and put your X on that ticket thinking it is the real ticket you will not vote for county officers. Be careful. The silver ticket is the last one on the sheet—the one on the right hand side.

The abuse and vituperation that the gold people are unloading just now is sufficient proof that their arguments (?) have been found wanting. It is also a proof of the desperate straights to which they are put to carry the election. People who have a sure thing don't get mad and call names.

The man who thinks the gold party has got the German vote of Washtenaw corralled is talking through his hat. The Germans are a thinking people. They know that the gold standard has ruined the prosperity of the farmer and the workingman and they will vote for a change.

Sized up in all its different bearings the question to be decided by the electors of this great republic on November 3rd may be tersely stated to be "Shall this continue to be a government of the people, by the people and for the people, or a government of the people, by monopolies, corporations and trusts for monopolies, corporations and trusts?"

The man who votes the republican ticket this fall because he believes in the gold standard at least knows what he is doing; the man who votes that ticket for any other reason is throwing away his vote. The honest goldite will vote the republican ticket. There is no middle ground and consequently there is no excuse for the so-called National Democratic ticket.

John V. Sheehan boasts that he has $400 of Mark Hanna's money to spend in Washtenaw county. The knowledge that the republican managers have put money into the hands of the so called gold democrats ought to set men to thinking. Is it for the purpose of advancing the prosperity of the farmer and the working man that these representatives of the moneyed aristocracy are aiding each other?

Chas. R. Sligh, silver candidate for governor had the courage of his convictions and left the republican party after it adopted the gold platform at St. Louis. Beside this record the vacillating course of Hazen S. Pingree is pitiable in the extreme. Even the intelligent gold man must admire a man who has the courage to hold an opinion. Pingree has not been the possessor of an opinion since he came into politics that was built to catch votes.

Organized labor is for Bryan. There are 7,000,000 of them. The farmers are for Bryan. There are 5,000,000 of them. The bankers are against Bryan. There are 20,000 of them. The private coachmen are against Bryan. There are 9,000 of them. The millionaires are against Bryan. There are 4,000 of them. Will the prosperity of the country be best conserved by providing for the twelve million farmers and workingmen or the thirty thousand bankers and millionaires and coachmen? Which crowd are you with?

The democratic ticket on the Australian ballot is the last one on the right. Don't be deceived by the ticket in the second column headed "Democratic," with a flag for a vignette. That is not the democratic ticket but the Palmer and Buckner, assistant republican ticket, and a vote cast for it is thrown away. There is no county ticket under this so called democratic ticket. A X put under the silver dollar at the head of the last column to the right votes the whole Silver Democratic ticket straight.

After November 3rd those eminently respectable and patriotic democrats whose condescending association has in former years given tone and character to a party which has always been composed largely of plain common people, but have of late been identified with the proceedings of a certain questionable organization known as the Republican Aid Society, will be outcasts in the political world. Mark Hanna will then have done with them and the silver democrats—well the silver democrats never did have any use for any mugwumps anyway.

TRIAL BY JURY.

Edmund Burke once said that the highest function of government is the election of twelve good men for every jury, and all down through the successive progression of Anglo Saxon liberties the principle of trial by jury has been prized as the most sacred bulwark of popular rights. Our forefathers recognized this when they provided in the constitution that no man shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law. But there has grown, up of late years, a practice by the federal courts that is not contemplated by the constitution—a practice that not only usurps the rightful functions of the legislative branch of government, but arbitrarily dispenses with the right to trial by jury, and this is called government by injunction. Under this practice the courts have exercised not only their proper functions of passing upon the rights of litigants before the law, but have from time to time made law meet the exigencies of some particular case, and this became at once a legislation executive, judge and jury, responsible only to the caprice of the court itself.

The machinery of government has been invoked for the conduct of private business. The great corporation that finds it difficult to manage its affairs applies to the court for a receiver. The receiver thus appointed is an executive officer of the court and through this officer the court at once assumes the responsibility of managing large business interests, running railroads and operating factories. Did the framers of the constitution intend that federal courts should become commercial agents? The receiver, through the authority of the court to punish for contempt, is clothed with an arbitrary authority over the employees of the business under his control from which there is no appeal but to the mercy of the court. Disobedience to the most trivial decree of this autocrat, offenses for which no justice of the peace would issue a warrant and no police officer would take cognizance, render the offender liable to be seized, taken before the court whose dignity he is presumed to have offended, and summarily punished at the sole discretion of the judge. So far has this perversion of regularly constituted authority been carried that not long since a western railroad company sought to restrain its employees from leaving its service by a peremptory order from a federal court. The English people have fought civil wars over usurpations of popular rights less significant and far-reaching than these. If we are to hand down the blessings of civil liberty to our posterity we must guard well the great principles upon which those liberties are founded and by which they are secured, and each encroachment upon them must be vigorously contested.

The Chicago platform calls attention to these evils and promises by pure constitutional methods to give redress. For this it is denounced by those corporations who profit by this abuse of authority, as opposed to law and order. But this is not true. The Chicago platform stands for the highest ideal of law and order. It stands for law that protects all alike, the humblest citizen and the powerful magnate. It places the civil liberty of the people above all other considerations. It is in defense of those liberties that it proposes to extend to every citizen his constitutional right to a trial by a jury of his peers. It regards the rights of a private citizen as of equal importance to a just government. It regards the infringement of the liberties of the humblest one among us a greater blow to the prosperity of our institutions than the greatest injustice that may be done a great corporation. If this government is instituted solely for the purpose of protecting these corporations in the aggrandizement of wealth then the Chicago platform may perhaps be justly termed as unpatriotic, but if it is, as we have been taught to believe, instituted for the purpose of protecting the people in the pursuit of life and the pursuit of happiness, then the Chicago platform from start to finish is the most patriotic public document that has been issued since Jefferson wrote the declaration of independence.

The courts are but the creatures of the people established for the purpose of dispensing justice according to lines laid down by the people themselves. The judges are but men and not infallible. The people at the ballot box constitute the highest tribunal the court of last resort in this country, and shall they be called unpatriotic if they say with their ballots that the courts have exceeded the authority granted them? Will they be in favor of anarchy if they refuse to yield to a single person the functions of prosecutor, judge and jury? Will they be recorded as against law and order if they refuse to surrender to the arbitrary discretion of the courts the most sacred traditions of civil liberty? To say so is to affirm that the American people have unwittingly placed over themselves an irresponsible authority. To say that we have no right to criticize our courts and demand their reform is to say that we have surrendered the essential principles of free institutions and that popular government is but a hollow mockery. Will you by your ballots say that the American people acknowledge any human authority superior to the sovereign will of the people?

Republicans, is it to advance the cause of protection that Mark Hanna is spending money to win votes for the gold democratic ticket? Democrats, is it for those principles which you have in the past considered essential to good government, that the gold democrats are raking McKinley's chestnuts out of the fire?

The attention of every voter, who has a mortgage on his home, is called to the point being made by goldites that, if Bryan is defeated, every mortgage that becomes due and is renewed and every new mortgage will be made payable in gold. The present law, which bears upon its face evidence of having been enacted for this purpose, makes it possible to discriminate against silver and makes it possible to demand gold by simply putting a gold clause in the mortgage. Free silver will do away with this discrimination against the common people. If you desire to pay that mortgage in gold, vote for the gold standard. If you think any lawful money of the United States, either gold, silver or paper money, is as good for the money lender as it is for yourself, vote the free silver ticket.—Adrian Evening Telegram.

WHAT FIXES PRICES.

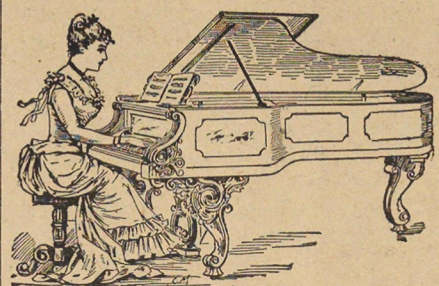

The general level of prices has fallen amazingly since 1873. It has fallen because the value of money has appreciated. The general level of prices is always fixed by the quantity available for use of the material which is made by law the standard of value—or in other words the available quantity of the material which the citizen can convert at will into legal tender money. The only material which you can make into legal tender money at your pleasure at the present time is gold. It follows then that the quantity of gold that can be used for money must fix values and those values will be high or low as that quantity is great or small. No recognized school of political economy will teach any other principle and Mark Hanna with all his millions of corruption fund cannot hire a political economy written that will teach anything else. The educated fellows who are about the country preaching the gold standard avoid these fundamental propositions. They do not dare discuss them.

Hon. Charles F. Crisp, ex-speaker of congress, died at the sanitarium, in Atlanta, Ga., at 1:45 on Friday afternoon. He had been at the sanitarium for several weeks and his condition had been reported very low, but no fatal conclusions had been expected so soon. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure. Mr. Crisp had been declining for several years. His last illness was immediately occasioned by an attack of malarial fever, which he contracted at his home in Americus a few weeks ago, which yielded to treatment when he went to Atlanta. He was considered convalescent and a week ago last Sunday he had ridden out. But, when renewed health seemed within view, he was attacked by congestion of the lungs, which added to weakness of the lungs and heart, caused by two previous attacks of pleuro-pneumonia, resulted in his death. Mr. Crisp was the choice of the democrats of Georgia to succeed Senator Gordon. His death throws the senatorial situation into chaos. The legislature is almost unanimously for free silver, however, and whoever is named will be an advocate of that policy.

The opening of the new terminal station of the Ann Arbor Railroad, corner of Cherry and Seneca sts., Toledo, took place last Saturday evening. The new building is a model of neatness and convenience.

A local republican bet $25 Monday night that McKinley will carry Washtenaw county by 500 majority at the coming election. His money was promptly covered by a silver advocate and the money is up.—Times.

William F., the year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Schneider, of Northfield, died Tuesday morning. The funeral was held yesterday at the Northfield German church, Rev. A. L. Nicklas conducting the services.

Charles Zuera, the butcher, on E. Washington st., had some family trouble again the other day. On Monday he collected up his accounts as closely as he could and on Tuesday morning he left the city, presumably for good.

Thieves were out plying their stealthy business on Thursday night of last week. They got into the Perdon Lumber Co.'s and the Kyer Milling Co.'s offices. In the first named they got 40 cents and some postage stamps, and in the latter their plunder amounted to 80 cents.

The first "section" social of the Epworth League was given Friday night at the residence of Mrs. Bodmer, on N. University ave., and the second at Mrs. A. B. Stevens', on N. Ingalls st., Saturday night. Both socials are spoken of as having been very pleasant affairs.

Mayor Walker, Nelson Garlinghouse, Wm. Lodholz, Reuben Ambruster and George W. Bailey left Wednesday for the north woods on their annual hunting expedition. They will be gone about a month, consequently will not be here to vote at the election. The republicans lose three votes and the silverites two.

A club of young business men and clerks known as the Ann Arbor Dancing Club, was formed Monday evening with Frank Ryan as president, W. L. Walz, secretary, and C. F. Braun, treasurer. A series of six dances is to be given at Granger's academy, the first one to take place next Wednesday evening. The membership is limited to 40 couples and is already nearly filled.

After the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Congregational church last Friday afternoon, a reception was tendered to Mrs. Ann Carpenter, who was one of its first members and most earnest and faithful workers. The cause of the reception was Mrs. Carpenter's approaching removal to Detroit, where she will make her home with her son Dr. Will Stevens.

The "Baesle Klatch" met Monday evening at the home of Miss Charlotte Hutzel on W. Washington st., and enjoyed a delightful evening. The society is made up entirely of unmarried women and meets whenever one of the members has a birthday. Among the presents given on Monday night was an enormous diamond (?) pin. Here is a sample of the foolish election bets that have been made. Two citizens of Hillsdale, one a republican and the other a democrat, have a very novel election wager. One or the other will roll a peanut around the court house square with a tooth pick. If McKinley is elected the democrat will perform the tedious task and if Bryan is elected the republican will accomplish the job.

Some time last week the clubhouses on Island Lake, at Hamburg Junction, were broken into by some mischievous party or parties. So far as known nothing of value was taken. At John Goetz's house a door was smashed in with an ax. At the Cornelian clubhouse entry was effected by prying open one of the shutters and opening a window. A general destruction of cupboard locks, etc., was made.

William H. Hatto died at his home, 67 Forest ave., Sunday, after a long and painful illness resulting from a cancer, aged 49 years. His wife and several children survive him. The funeral services were held in St. Andrew's church, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Henry Tatlock officiating. Arbor Tent, No. 296, K. O. T. M., of which he was a member, had charge of the funeral. His remains were buried in Forest Hill cemetery.

Dr. Smith recently delivered a lecture on "Time," in Ypsilanti. He said that only a few overgrown country towns like Detroit and Ann Arbor stuck to the so-called sun time. All the rest of the cities have followed the government's example and adopted standard time. He said that Mayor Pingree had accomplished a good deal for Detroit in the way of improved street car service, and that he hoped he would take hold of this matter of time.

Jimmie Blithman is again in the toils. On Friday he went into Doty & Feiner's shoe store, with a little fellow, six years old as his companion. Blithman tried to get the boy to tap the till, but the child would not do it, thereupon Jimmie proceeded to do one of his own slick acts in that line and pretty soon a $10 bill which had been in the till was in the irrepressible's possession. The younger boy confessed and now Jimmie will doubtless be sent over the road.

Mortgage Sale. DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Oliver Johnson and Elizabeth Johnson to the Ann Arbor Savings Association, dated November 10th, A. D. 1892, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Washtenaw and state of Michigan, on the 14th day of November, A. D. 1892, in favor of the said mortgagee, on page 100, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of one hundred and sixty-eight dollars and ninety-two cents, and an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars provided for in said mortgage, and no suit or proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the money secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and the statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 16th day of January, A. D. 1897, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, I shall sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the east door of the Court House, in the City of Ann Arbor, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for Washtenaw County is holden), the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage, with seven per cent. interest, and all legal costs, together with an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars, convenient for therein, the premises being described in said mortgage as all that certain lot, piece and parcel of land situate in the City of Ann Arbor, in the County of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan, and known and described as follows: Lot number sixteen (16) in James B. Gott's addition to the City of Ann Arbor.

How to Keep a Warm House

Look at all the doors and windows and see that there are no cracks left open. If there are such, they can be easily stopped up with some of our WEATHER STRIP of which we have all kinds, and so cheap.

There may be some lights of glass to be replaced and as we make a specialty of glass and carry nothing but the best brand, you can not afford to go to any other place but our store for them.

See if your stove or furnace pipe doesn't need replacing and if so, you want it done right. As we employ nothing but experienced workmen we are the people to do it.

It may be that there is nothing lacking in your house but a good HEATING STOVE and in order to fill this vacancy nothing will do it more satisfactory than an ART GARLAND.

TO MARK YOUR VOTE.

Look for the Bryan Silver Dollar Vignette.

MARK THE CIRCLE UNDER THAT.

Don't Be Deceived by the Spurious Democratic Ticket Put Up to Deceive the Regular Democrats When They Get in the Booth.

The voter should post himself as to the ballot to be used next Tuesday before going to the polling place. Owing to a partisan decision of the Republican supreme court in Michigan, the assistant Republicans have been permitted to steal the name "Democratic ticket," and one of the columns in the ballot will be headed Democratic ticket with a flag for a vignette. This is not the real Democratic ticket, but the name is used by a number of real supporters of McKinley, formerly Democrats, who wish to fool many Democratic voters into voting the "decoy" ticket, thinking they are voting for Bryan. The only Bryan ticket is the column headed with the following vignette:

See that all your silver neighbors are shown this vignette, so that they may recognize it when they see it in the ballot, which will be an unusually large one, about the size of this page of the newspaper.

On the ballot the Republican ticket will be placed first. The other tickets will be placed in different order in different counties, but owing to the Republican partisanship, in no case will the Democratic ticket with the Bryan electors be placed second. In all counties this ticket is in the column headed with the above vignette.

The state ticket is placed first, beginning with governor, so that the first name on the Republican ticket will be Hazen S. Pingree. The first name on the Democratic-Union, Union Silver ticket, or the Bryan ticket will be Charles R. Sligh.

All Democrats, free silver Republicans, Populists, Prohibitionists, or any person desiring to vote for Bryan should stamp a cross in the circle under the silver dollar Bryan vignette, the same vignette as shown above. This should be done whether the voter wishes to split his ticket or not, as there are fourteen electors to be voted for, otherwise the voter would have to stamp a cross in front of the name of each one of these and mistakes might be made. If you desire to vote a straight ticket, nothing further need be done than to stamp a cross in the circle under the silver dollar.

If there is some candidate on other tickets that you wish to vote for, first stamp the circle under the silver dollar, then, and not till then, stamp a cross in the square in front of the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket.

Before leaving the booth fold the ballot so that the initials of the inspector, which are placed on the back of the ballot, may be seen on the ballot when folded.

A WHOLE CLUB TURNED
And Trampled on Their McKinley Buttons.

Clarion, Mich., Oct. 22.—A free silver rally with great enthusiasm was held here tonight. The people from the surrounding country turned out en masse to hear A. D. Cruikshank of Charlevoix talk on the absorbing question. The McKinley club was well represented at the opening of the speech, but when the speaker laid down facts that could not be denied, and produced evidence to verify his statements, down went gold hats, buttons, tin cans and badges upon the floor. They were trampled upon, and cheer after cheer was given for Bryan and free silver.

The speaker at no time indulged in any language that the most critical could take exceptions to, and the cleanness of the argument was commented upon by all. At the close of the meeting about twenty of the old-line Republicans followed the example of their Boyne City brothers, and declared themselves for free silver and better times.

"One of your bankers called a farmer into his office and told him that if I was elected his mortgage would be foreclosed, and the farmer replied to him that if Mr. McKinley was elected he could have the farm, but that if I was elected he could not foreclose the mortgage, because then he would be able to pay the mortgage."—W. J. Bryan.

Strong Contrast.
There is a breeziness about the style of Bryan's oratory that is in strong contrast with McKinley's cold storage utterances.—Philadelphia Item.

THE LIST IS GROWING.

C. H. Hall of Ypsilanti, always a Republican, has offered his services to the Washtenaw county committee. He recently made a convincing argument at the Judd school house in York, telling "Why I shall vote for Bryan and Sewall."

Utica.—A. F. Martin of Port Huron, a life-long Republican, addressed a free silver meeting at Fraser last night.

Alma.—A Bryan club was organized last night with 283 members, of whom over one hundred are old-line Republicans.

Battle Creek.—The silverites will carry Calhoun county by a good majority. A canvass of seventy-five school districts gives Bryan a majority of 1,400.

Mancelona.—H. B. Hudson contradicts the stories of the overwhelming McKinley majorities among the factory laborers here. There is a silver club of 200 members, nearly all laboring men, fifty of whom are ex-Republicans.

Concord.—Hon. Seth Bean of Adrian addressed a large meeting in the interests of free silver at Pulaski tonight. There are at least two silverites to every goldbug here, and Mr. Bean's arguments made many more converts.

Ithaca.—Colonel C. G. Bradshaw of Kentucky spoke to a large audience. He appealed to the old soldiers to stand for the old flag and the old dollar, and when he asked if they were going to "vote for McKinley and their doom," cries of "No, no," rang out all over the house.

Marquette.—George Arthur Brown, a prominent lawyer, who was elected president of a McKinley club early in the campaign, declares himself for free silver. In a letter to his stepfather, who lives in New York state, he says: "I cannot be driven from my position with charges of dishonesty, idiocy and lunacy; they are not legitimate weapons in argument, and only exhibit the weakness of those who make them."

Clifford.—A large and enthusiastic silver meeting was held in this village and a fine pole raised, 95 feet in height, from the top of which floats a Bryan and Sewall banner. Hon. O'Brien J. Atkinson of Port Huron delivered the address. The silver movement is gaining daily and Burlington township, which has always been a Republican stronghold, will on Nov. 3 give a majority for Bryan and Sewall.

Grand Ledge.—At a wedding a few days ago near here nineteen voters were present. Of those fourteen were old-line Republicans and five Democrats. When those present compared their views every man was for Bryan. That evening H. S. Maynard addressed 200 voters at Delta Center. At the close of the speech an old-line Republican and a venerable Bryan man asked those who intended to vote the straight silver ticket to rise. All but four got up. It must be they have no pine land owners in that county.

WELL POSTED FARMERS.
Not To Be Hoodwinked by Goldbug Sophistries.

Thomas A. Wilson of Jackson, state representative of the national gold Democratic committee, met an attorney in this city yesterday whose name has been published and republished in the columns of The Free Press as that of a gold Democrat vice president. This attorney is a redhot advocate of Bryan, but Mr. Wilson did not know it. The News is indebted to the attorney for one of the really good things in the campaign as told by Mr. Wilson.

"We did not comprehend the magnitude of the silver sentiment around home until Bryan made his appearance there," said Mr. Wilson. "When the crowd was sized up and its numbers were so great that they could only be roughly estimated, we had a chance to watch those who appeared to be enthusiastic. It was surprising to us."

"During Bryan's speech myself and a friend stood on the outskirts of the crowd where we could hear the speaker. Near us was a little, weakened, dried-up old farmer who was not strong enough in the lungs to yell, but he was continually throwing up a faded hat in the air. My friend knew him and spoke to him.

"Why, Bill, you don't mean to say that a life-long Republican like you will support Bryan?"

"Y-e-e-s I will."

"What would you think of McKinley if he were to go traveling around the states showing himself off at every station?"

"Don't think he'd do it."

"Tell me honestly, now, why wouldn't he do it?"

"I don't pretend to know what the laws of the state of Ohio is, but I spose they're the same as in Michigan, and I know there's a law here prohibitin' the removal of chattel mortgaged property out of the state."

"That," remarked Mr. Wilson, "is what I call one of the most clean-cut bits of the campaign, and from one who did not look like a man capable of marking his ballot."—Detroit Evening News.

WANT HIGHER PRICES.

The Farmer Is Interested in Free Silver Coinage.

LABORING MEN ALSO WANT IT.

But the Plutocrat Wants Money Higher and Prices Lower—Capital United for McKinley—Let the Plain People Unite for Bryan and Prosperity.

As the campaign draws to a close, it may be well to see what has come out of the mass of argument with which the country has been deluged. A few things may be granted:

1. That under free silver prices will be higher. The orators on both sides agree to this proposition. Who would benefit from higher prices but the man who has something to sell. Who has something to sell? The producer. Who is the producer? First, the farmer. He produces from the soil that which sustains the life of the teeming millions of the world. Does he want higher prices? Who else is the producer? The laboring man, who works with his hands and fashions that which is of use for the comfort of mankind. How will he get higher prices? By increasing the consumption of his products so that there is no longer an overproduction. How can the use of his products be increased? By giving the farmer such a price for his products that he can afford to buy the comforts of life.

2. The producer should be for free silver; the non-producer for gold. This is true if the non-producer looks at it from a purely selfish standpoint. The producer is interested in getting a higher price for his products. The non-producer on the other hand is interested in lowering the price of these products so that he can buy more of them for a given amount of money. Business men who sell to the farmers and laboring men are interested with them in higher prices.

3. A gold standard lowers the price of products. The price of everything, excepting taxes, interest and fixed charges has fallen steadily for twenty-three years, under low tariff and high tariff. The gold standard has been in use twenty-three years. This is because gold has raised in price.

4. Gold has raised in price. Why? Because the use of silver as standard money was discontinued and gold has since been required to act as the sole standard to measure wealth. Because in the past twenty-three years more gold has been coined into money than was produced in that time. Let the consumption of any article exceed the production and its price goes up.

5. The millionaires, the trusts, the corporations, the bankers and the stock gamblers want a gold standard. This is shown by their unanimous support of McKinley, no matter what has been their previous political faith. They benefit by manipulating gold, or by falling prices which increase the value of their money, by decreasing the value of what their money will buy.

6. The farmers are interested in getting better prices for their wheat, their corn, oats and other products. When such Republicans as ex-Governor Luce leave the Republican party because it goes in with the bankers, the millionaires and trusts, it is time for other Republican farmers to put on their thinking caps. The farmers have nothing in common with the men who seek to sustain a standard of money which lowers the price of their products.

7. The laboring man's interests lie with Bryan. United labor is almost solid in his support. The labor leaders, who have devoted their time to the study of the labor problems, are for Bryan, irrespective of their past political beliefs. The capitalists understand this as witness their great efforts to coax, cajole and coerce the laborers to vote the capitalistic ticket.

8. The interests of the country merchant, or the business men in the smaller cities lie with the farmers and the laboring men. When these have money, the business men can sell. Give the farmer higher prices for his products and prosperity once more returns to this country.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO PARTY.

Vote for Bryan and the Restoration of Silver.

Strange how party prejudice will warp individual judgment. Thousands, yes hundreds of thousands, of people charge such men as Teller with being traitors to the Republican party. These men stand exactly where they have ever stood. The fact, which is apparent to all who honestly investigate, is that the monied interest controlled the St. Louis convention and made it declare directly opposite to its former declarations on the money question, made it indorse the very principle that it had been condemning the Democrats for. The Democrats at Chicago were wise enough to discard Cleveland and his policy and to accept the issue, and thus William J. Bryan, as a leader of a new Democracy, is the champion of the interests of all the people. Party names mean little, and we should all be wise enough to see that to follow the Republican party at this time is to forsake a principle that is paramount at this time. William McKinley's platform advocates just what he, in a speech at Cleveland, O., Feb. 13, 1891, arraigned Mr. Cleveland for. Mr. McKinley then said of Cleveland:

"He was determined to have a single medium and diminish one of the coins of commerce and limit the volume of money among the people and make moneyscarce and therefore dear; he would have increased the value of money and diminished the value of everything else—money the master and everything else the servant."

Don't be a slave to party. Stand for principle and vote for Bryan and silver's restoration.—Charlotte Tribune.

WHAT CHANGED MCKINLEY'S VIEWS.

In no speech or letter has McKinley ever attempted to give any reason for his radical change of opinion on the silver question. If Mr. McKinley will inform the public what change has taken place for the better in monetary affairs, either in this country or in any other nation, having a single gold standard, we are ready to give his explanation careful and fair consideration. A part of McKinley's silver record while in congress is as follows: In November, 1887, he voted for the Bland bill, providing for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. Later, in 1878, he voted to pass over the president's veto the Bland-Allison act, which provided for the purchase of silver to the amount of $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 a month. Congressman McKinley did this against the wishes of a Republican president and a Republican secretary of state, both Ohio men. In January, 1878, he voted for the Matthews' concurrent resolution declaring the bonds payable in silver. In March, 1891, in a speech at Toledo he arraigned President Cleveland for his continual attacks on silver and as late as 1894 in a speech at Findlay, O., he reiterated his arraignment of Cleveland for his war against silver. The question which Republican voters want answered is how did the gold syndicate effect such a radical change in Major McKinley's views.—Independent Democrat.

A BACK BLOW.

The Weapon Small—but None More Certain or Effective.

In these times when backs are lame, when almost every other one we meet has now and then, or all the time, a back that aches or pains—"a weak back," "a bad back," a back that makes their life a misery to bear—and still they go on day by day in pain and suffering. Now this is the easiest thing in the world to give this played out back "a blow" that will settle it, and put in its place a new one equal to any. It's just like this: hit at the cause; most backaches come from kidney disorders. Reach the kidneys, start their clogged-up fibres in operation; when this is done you can say good-bye to backache.

Here is a case from Battle Creek: Mr. Josiah M. Shoup lives at 51 Broad Street, he was a member of the Battle Creek police force for many years. As a member of the force he served the city well, but the rough weather he was often subjected to laid the foundation of kidney disorder, which has troubled him very much. Here is what he says about it:

"About three years ago, while on the police force, I contracted from exposure a kidney trouble, which has since given me no end of trouble. The pain was right through my kidneys and across the small of my back; if sitting down and I wanted to stand up, I had to arise very slowly and gently to avoid increasing the pain; I had such tired-out feelings all the time, and I was steadily getting worse. About two months ago, hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. Their action and effect was most complete, they removed the old aching pains for good. I can now get around as quickly as anybody. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly as represented."

COCKRAN ADMITS OUR CLAIMS.

A dispatch of the 16th in the Chicago Tribune, that pre-eminent advocate of the gold standard, is a "stinger" for the Hon. Bourke Cockran of New York, who is making "sound money" "Democratic" speeches throughout the country for patriotism and pecuniary profit. In reporting his speech at Toledo The Tribune dispatch says: "He then went on to prove that while the farmer, mine owner, and manufacturer might profit by free silver and higher prices the workingman could not profit," etc. Mr. Cockran, therefore, the most eloquent and perhaps the most unscrupulous of all those orators who are working for the gold standard in this campaign—for patriotism or pecuniary profit—Mr. Cockran, who has bolted the Democratic party and yet claims to be the very quintessence of Democracy himself—Mr. Cockran, upon whom more than any other speaker Mr. Hanna depends to help out his candidate by the power of his eloquence—admits in a speech before thousands of people that free silver will benefit the farmer; that free silver will benefit the mine owner; and that free silver will benefit the manufacturer. And having made these admissions which alone are sufficient to condemn the idea he supports—for patriotism and pecuniary profit—he has the unmitigated assurance to declare that labor will not be benefited in like measure. Mr. Cockran, what does labor desire if not steady work at remunerative wages? Mr. Cockran, what insures these if it be not a healthy production of the farms, mines and factories? Mr. Cockran, what stimulates production in all branches except good prices? Mr. Cockran, your case is too vulnerable. You have devoted your great talents—for patriotism and profit—to a cause which you are well aware must fail because of its inherent weakness, injustice and inconsistency. We are not surprised that your hearers on this occasion hissed your abuse of Mr. Bryan so that for a minute and a half you could not make yourself heard—in the interest of patriotism and pecuniary profit.—Hillsdale Democrat.

Serious Election Riots.

Buda-Pesth, Oct. 27.—Serious election riots have taken place in different parts of Hungary. At Tynau a detachment of hussars, while attempting to restore order, was stoned by the mob and one trooper killed. The hussars thereupon charged with drawn swords and several of the rioters were wounded. Troops have been sent to the various disturbed districts.

Reward for Train Robbers.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 27.—Governor Stone has offered a reward of $200 for the arrest and sentence to the penitentiary of each person who robbed the Chicago and Alton train at Blue Cut Saturday night last, and $300 for each one sentenced to be hanged.

Coal Miners Go to Work.

Cincinnati, Oct. 27.—A Times-Star special from Athens, O., says that all the coal miners in that district went to work Tuesday at the 40-cent rate with the expectation that the rate will be soon restored to 61 cents.

TYNAN IN AMERICA.

The Alleged Dynamiter Lands in New York.

TRAVELS UNDER HIS OWN NAME.

Man Who Is Known as "No. 1" to the English Police Arrives on American Soil and Tells an Associated Press Representative How He Fared While in Prison on the Other Side—Says His Business Was Legitimate.

New York, Oct. 27.—Patrick Tynan, the alleged "No. 1," who was recently released from a French prison at Boulogne-Sur-Mer, despite the efforts of the English authorities to have him extradited to England, arrived here Monday evening on board the North German Lloyd steamer Saale. A number of newspaper representatives met him after boarding the steamer from a revenue cutter opposite quarantine, but further than to say that he had been treated very nicely by the French authorities Tynan refused to say anything in reference to his recent incarceration. Tynan traveled under his own name. He looked to be fully fifteen years younger than when he was last seen in this city. He had shaved off his beard and whiskers which were so conspicuous in photographs taken when he was a member of the Middlesex volunteer regiment, and with a soft felt hat, a light English suit of clothes and a covert coat, could have passed easily for an English cattle dealer. He was met at the pier by Mrs. Tynan, his six daughters and two sons. Mr. Tynan was extremely reticent, and told the newspaper reporters who met him that statements made by him after his release from the prison in Boulogne had been distorted to such an extent as to be almost untrue in every respect.

Business Was Legitimate.

To a representative of the Associated Press he said: "I cannot say anything with reference to my business in Europe. It was of a legitimate character and I am glad to say that my mission was successful. I don't know yet why I was arrested. I presume the English government wanted to get me into its clutches by any means. I was treated with every courtesy by the French government, and the sub-prefect of the department of Calais called on me when he learned I had been arrested and told me he had instructions that anything that could be done to alleviate my position should be done. The prison officials from the governor of the jail down treated me most courteously, but of course, I had to obey the prison rules with regard to the hours of confinement and exercise. I got my meals from the prison canteen. "The American minister sent the United States vice consul at Boulogne to see me, and his assistant, Mr. Byle, did all he could to have me released. "They asked me several questions as to the American political state of affairs, but did not hold an inquisition as to the reason for my arrest and imprisonment. Ambassador Eustis had an interview with M. Hanotaux, the French minister of foreign affairs, who called to see me in my prison cell several times. Mr. Eustis' efforts had, I believe, a very great deal to do with my release.

His Arrest Denounced.

"The French press were unanimous in denouncing my arrest as unjustifiable and in congratulating me on my release. I knew for some time before I was arrested that I was watched by British spies, but did not expect my arrest when my room was broken into. I was awakened by the landlord, who had two English detectives and a crowd of gendarmes with him, and one of the detectives, the moment I awoke, had a revolver at my forehead. I simply got up, dressed myself, and went to prison with my captors. I knew it was no use to say anything. The British government was determined to get me on British soil if it could do so, and my friends told me that every effort was made to induce the French government to hand me over to England's mercies. The French government refused to do so, and I am here again—a free man."

"What do you think would have happened you if you had been extradited from France to England?" asked the reporter.

"What do you think?" retorted Tynan. "Why, everybody knows. I would have been either executed or imprisoned for life. The English government never hesitates to manufacture evidence when an Irishman's life is to be sacrificed. Why, one of the charges against me—that I was connected with the Phoenix Park business—was disposed of thirteen years ago by the French government, but the English government tried to take this charge up again."

"Do you believe in the policy of dynamite?" Tynan was asked.

Scared Out of His Dinner.

"A fellow-passenger on the Saale, who sat beside me at dinner the day after we left Cherbourg, said to me: 'Do you know who we have on board?' I said I did not, and he replied, 'Why, Tynan, the famous dynamiter.' I felt a little shocked, but told him that I was Tynan. He did not eat any more dinner and looked seasick. The next day I met him and told him that the only dynamiter that I had ever met was Zalinski, who was a most charming fellow, and who was the inventor of the dynamite gun which was so generally admired and extolled by the war departments of all European nations. Now," continued Tynan, "I wish to say that I am a detestor of anarchism, and cannot believe that the freedom of Ireland can be achieved by anarchistic methods. All the statements made as to my desire to have the czar of Russia blown up are villainous and infamous. The day for Ireland's attack on England will soon come, and our enemy will then learn what our methods are and feel their effects. As to all the stories published about me I can only say that they are Scotland Yard 'fakes,' got up for the purpose of injuring me. I think their object has failed."

Emma Field, victim of Robelia Starke, who shot her because she refused to accompany him home from a political meeting, died at her home at Jeffersonville, Ind.

SUPPORTING BRYAN.

A Republican Editor Gives His Reasons for Doing So.

The editor of the Charlotte Tribune in a recent issue of that paper said: "The writer has never been a Democrat. Under all the circumstances surrounding the present canvass he finds no other course open than to stand for Bryan and the rights of the great mass of the people and the welfare of all. He does not believe that the Democratic party, as organized under Bryan, has less love for our common country than any other party. In fact it seems to him that in supporting Mr. Bryan he is not only holding to the convictions of a lifetime upon the greatest issue before the country but that he is in perfect accord with the attitude of the Republican party a couple of years ago."

To prove his assertion of the change of attitude of the Republican party at the behest of the monopolists, he runs the deadly parallel column in this fashion:

"Why blindly follow your party, especially when forsaking its past record it comes out squarely for monopoly and against the interest of all the world's toilers? Don't be afraid of being denounced as a traitor. No great cause was ever won by cowardice. Read the following and ponder well before you consent to follow the gold men in the move which they have forced upon the Republican party."

Republican platform 1888. Republican platform 1896.

The Republican party BELIEVES in the free use of both gold and silver as standard money, and condemns the present Democrat-leasing nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote, and until such agreement can be obtained the existing GOLD standard must be preserved.

We are, therefore, in favor of the free use of both gold and silver as standard money, and condemn the present Democrat-leasing nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote, and until such agreement can be obtained the existing GOLD standard must be preserved.

The Republican party DEMANDS the use of both gold and silver as standard money.

Ingalls Says It Was True.

Jan. 14, 1891, about the time Major McKinley delivered his fiery philippic against Cleveland for his "continued attempts" to demonetize silver, Senator John J. Ingalls, in a speech in the United States senate, said:

"It is historically true that this great blight that has fallen upon our industries, this paralysis that has overtaken our financial system coincided in point of time with the diminution of the country. The public debt was declared to be payable in coin, and then the money power of silver was destroyed. The value of property diminished in proportion, wages fell, and the value of everything was depreciated except debts in gold. The mortgage, the bond, the upon and the tax have retained their value and vigor. They have not depreciated. The debt remains, but the capacity to pay has been destroyed."

Since that time no change for the better has come to the toiling masses of the country.—Kalamazoo Gazette.

The Republican Nomination for the Presidency.

The Republican convention at Chicago have nominated Abraham Lincoln of Illinois for president of the United States—a third-rate western lawyer, poorer even than poor Pierce. * * * The conduct of the Republican party in this nomination is a remarkable instance of small intellect growing smaller. They pass over Seward, Chase and Banks, who are statesmen and able men, and they take up a fourth-rate lecturer who cannot speak good grammar, and who, to raise the wind, delivers his hackneyed, illiterate compositions at $200 apiece. Our readers will recollect that this peripatetic politician visited New York two or three months ago on his financial tour, when, in return for the most unmitigated trash, interlarded with coarse and clumsy jokes, he filled his empty pockets with dollars coined out of Republican fanaticism.—New York Herald, May 19, 1890.

Plenty of Money Prosperity.

When you make a demand for the products of a factory, then you can give men employment to meet the demand.

No money, no demand for goods, nothing to buy with.

Plenty of money, plenty of purchasers.

Free coinage means plenty of money. Legal tender laws make it as good as gold.

Plenty of money, plenty of buying.

Plenty of buying makes a demand, and calls for labor.

Plenty of labor, with good pay, means plenty of prosperity.

Vote for free coinage and plenty of honest money.

This means business. The enemy of silver is the enemy of his country, and of all factories and wage-earners.—Adrian Press.

In 1873-4, as it was two years and more later discovered, the coinage of this silver dollar was forbidden, and silver dollars were demonetized by law. This act, which was done secretly and stealthily, to the profound ignorance of those who voted for it, and of the president, who approved it, had, without the knowledge of the country, removed one of the landmarks of the government; and, under cover of darkness, abolished the constitutional dollar, and had arbitrarily, and to the immense injury of the people, added heavily to every form of indebtedness, public and private.—Chicago Tribune, Feb. 23, 1878.

A correspondent asks us why we give so marked a preference to the silver dollar of 371 1/4 grains of pure silver, and reject the proposed "Christianity dollar," or the "Blaine dollar," or the trade dollar. We shall not undertake now to repeat or restate all of them. But the first reason is that the dollar of 371 1/4 grains of pure silver has been the monetary standard or unit of value in this country from 1792 until 1873, a period of eighty-one years. It is the ancient, unchangeable dollar of that country.—Chicago Tribune, Feb. 11, 1878.

The prime object of remonetizing silver is to add to the solid, substantial, intrinsic money stock of the country. There can't be too much hard money—ready money—in circulation. Such an inflation is stimulating and invigorating. It is at once a sign and prop of national and commercial prosperity. The simple remonetization of the silver dollar, with proper provisions for its coinage, will contribute a steady stream to the money resources of the United States.—Chicago Tribune, Jan. 23, 1878.

WAS BURIED ALIVE.

Terrible Fate of Carleton F. Wells of Portland, Ore.

UNDERTAKER THOUGHT HIM DEAD.

The Victim Had Made a Stake in the Arctic Gold Fields and Just Prior to His Apparent Death Had Forwarded the Greater Part of His Little Fortune to His Wife in Trenton, N. J.—His Agony in the Grave.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 27.—According to a letter received by George P. Wirtz of this city, Carleton F. Wells, who left Oregon almost two years ago for the Arctic gold fields—where it is said he succeeded in accumulating $20,000—was buried alive after his apparent death from heart disease in Juneau last May. Just prior to Wells' apparent death he forwarded the greater part of his little fortune to his wife, who is now living at Trenton, N. J. A little more than a month ago the undertaker who buried Wells received a letter from his widow, asking that the body be exhumed and shipped east for permanent interment.

Body in a Cramped Position.

When the coffin was opened the body was found to be in a strangely cramped position, the face turned toward the side. A close examination showed beyond any doubt that Wells had awakened from a death-like trance after burial. The skeleton of the right hand clutched a gutta percha plate, bearing three false teeth, which, in his agony, Wells is believed to have torn from the roof of his mouth. Near the place where his right jaw rested in the coffin was found a plain gold ring, which Wells had worn on the fourth finger of his right hand. In view of this terrible discovery the undertaker and the doctor who had attended Wells decided not to send the body east unless forced to do so by a legal process.

PASSENGERS' NARROW ESCAPE.

Express Train Is Derailed at South Norwalk, Conn., but No One Is Hurt.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 27.—The express train leaving New York at 11 o'clock Monday night was saved from a disastrous, and, perhaps, fatal wreck at South Norwalk by the prompt working of the automatic derailing device at the drawbridge.

This train makes but two stops between New York and New Haven—Stamford and Bridgeport. The train consisted of an engine, baggage smoker and three sleeping cars. It left Stamford on time and was going through New Haven at a thirty-mile rate, when the train was thrown into the automatic siding, and the engine, tender and baggage car were thrown from the rails, the engine turning completely over. The engineer, Harrison by name, and his fireman jumped from the cab and escaped with a shaking up. None of the passengers were hurt.

SCHWEINFURTH IS BACK.

The Alleged Messiah Returns to His Home in Rockford.

Rockford, Ills., Oct. 27.—George Jacob Schweinfurth's much heralded return from the west occurred Tuesday morning, the bridal party coming over the Burlington. They were met at the depot at 8 o'clock by one of the faithful with Schweinfurth's famous team and after a very affectionate greeting immediately drove to Celestial farm.

When questioned about his intended removal to Minneapolis or any other part of the west, Schweinfurth was courteous, but displayed the same old faculty of saying nothing that would give any information about his affairs.

"Time will prove," he said. "I have had an exceedingly pleasant time during the five months I have been away." He was very deferential to his wife, and handed her into the carriage like an ordinary bridegroom.

James and John McCourt, of Northfield, had six head of cattle stolen from them Wednesday night of last week. The loss was not discovered until next morning. A complaint was laid with Prosecuting Attorney Randall and the officers started out to find the cattle. Within an hour it was found that the thief had sold the cattle to Rehfuß & Sons for $120 and had skipped with the money. He is still skipping.

For variety and sustained interest of contents the November Scribner's Magazine is a notable number. The opening article, by Capt. C. J. Melliss, of the Ninth Bombay Infantry, "Panther shooting in Central India," gives not only a vivid impression of the habitat of these great cats, but it is also a stirring narrative of adventure in their pursuit, drawn from personal experience. The illustrations by Van Muyden, whose remarkable animal etchings have been praised for their accuracy and truth to nature by the author of the article, will serve to make its brilliant artist of animal life more familiar to American readers.

Goethe Commandery No. 28, U. F. of M., gave a social in its hall over B. St. James' store, Wednesday evening, which was well attended and much enjoyed. During the evening the following program was rendered: Music, Mr. and Mrs. Stilson; singing, Harugari Mannerchor; recitation, Caroline Sauzi; Zither, Guitar and Mandolin club; gramophonic selections; recitation, Ella Trojanowski; music, Mr. and Mrs. Stilson; declamation, John Eibler; chorus, Harugari Mannerchor; gramophonic selections; Zither, Guitar and Mandolin club; dissertation with variations, A. Fred Gauss; music, Mr. and Mrs. Stilson. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The official ballot this year is a very complicated affair with its six tickets. Every voter should carefully examine the instruction ballots before he goes into the booth to vote. In Washtenaw the democratic silver ticket occupies the last column on the ballot and is headed by a picture of a silver dollar with a bust of Bryan in the center and around the edge the words "Democratic, People's Union Silver Ticket." The gold democratic ticket occupies the second place on the ballot, just where it ought to, alongside its friend and upholder the republican ticket. Caution all your friends not to be misled, and make sure that every friend of the democratic silver ticket understands how to vote it aright.

INSTRUCTION BALLOT.

In all cases stamp a cross (X) in the circle under the name of your party at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote a straight ticket, nothing further need be done.

Where only one candidate is to be elected to any office, and you desire to vote for a candidate not on your party ticket, make a cross in the square before the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket.

Where two or more candidates are to be elected to the same office, and you desire to vote for candidates on different tickets for such office, make a cross in the square before the names of the candidates for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket; also erase an equal number of names of candidates on your party ticket for the same office for whom you do not desire to vote.

If you wish to vote for a candidate not on any ticket, write or place the name of such candidate on your ticket opposite the name of the office. Before leaving the booth fold the ballot so that the initials may be seen on the outside.

This instruction ballot is reduced in size from the regular ballot, which is larger than this page of the paper. The republican vignette in the regular ballot has the portrait of Lincoln in the place of that of Harrison. The vignette of the Palmer ticket, in the next column, has the word "democratic" over the flag instead of on it. The prohibition vignette has a flag around the state arms, and we have been unable to give the vignette on the National ticket. But the general appearance of the vignette is as given.

PUT YOUR CROSS (X) IN THE CIRCLE UNDER THE SILVER DOLLAR ON THE LAST COLUMN.
