TRUSTS INCREASING

"If You Don't Remedy Them the Democrats Will"

Said Col. Atkinson.—Sawyer Replied to Pingree's Buffalo Speech and Atkinson Roasted Sawyer. O'Donnell's Big Bid.

The much heralded first annual banquet of the Young Men's Republican Club was held last evening and the expected wordy repartee between Pingree and O'Donnell, Spalding, Sawyer and Wedemeyer, not to mention the lesser lights, drew together a large and enthusiastic crowd. The tickets sold numbered 460 and the Women's Relief Corp served a bountiful banquet in excellent style. The program was as follows:

The Republican Party the Party of Progress
Hon. Andrew J. Sawyer, Ann Arbor.
The People
Col. John Atkinson.
Promises of the St. Louis Platform Fulfilled.
Gen. George Spalding, Monroe.
The Republican Party.—How to Promote Its Success.
Hon. James O'Donnell, Jackson.
Republicanism and the Republic.
Hon. E. P. Allen, Ypsilanti.
Music—"Old Black Joe" Van Der Stucken.
Lincoln's Message to Young Men.
Hon. Edward N. Dingley, Kalamazoo.
President Republican State League.
A Great Leader.
Hon. W. W. Wedemeyer, Chelsea.
The Young Man in Politics.
Hon. H. E. Edwards, Jackson.
Music—"Stars of the Summer Night"
What Constitutes a Republican.
Col. Henry S. Dean, Ann Arbor.
A Protest.
Mr. G. Frank Allmendinger, Ann Arbor.
Hon. John K. Campbell, Augusta.

The Republican Party the Party of Action.
Mr. Frank A. Stivers, Ann Arbor.
Government Ownership of Railroads.
Mr. W. S. Towne.
Hamilton on Protection and Finance.
Mr. Geo. P. McCallum, President U. of M. Republican Club.
Music—"Until the Dawn"
Parks.
Why I Am a Republican.
Judge H. Wirt Newkirk, Ann Arbor.
Toastmaster E. F. Johnson told of the organization of the club and of the great credit due to Mr. S. A. Moran for its organization.

Hon. A. J. Sawyer changed his toast to "Corporations, Trusts and Monopolies." He claimed that the republican party was not the originator of corporations as corporations were created before the republican party was formed and spoke of the inability to change the corporate powers by any change in the political complexion of the national government. He claimed that the republican party had never created a trust nor harbored beneath its wings any fraud or corruption. He denied the charge that corporations controlled the party and so escape their just share of taxation, and instanced the fact that the taxes of the Michigan Central had been raised $17,000 by the last legislature. The speech was an answer to Pingree's Buffalo speech and he thundered forth the question "What trust has fled from the democratic party and taken shelter under the wings of the republican party? What monopoly has been or is now fostered by the republican party?" This was in direct contradiction of the governor. He derided the men who "assume the role of informer and proclaim from the outer wall of the temple that the party is full of all manner of evil."

Col. John Atkinson appeared for Gov. Pingree and stated that Mr. Sawyer's speech was in answer to the governor's Buffalo speech, and he for one did not believe in glorifying corporations and Rockefeller's. The assessed valuation of Michigan amounts to $1,030,000,000. The railroad property of the state, if we take their paid up stocks and bonds, amounts to $1,000,000,000—and having one-half the property they pay one-twenty-sixth of the taxes. What is it about railroad property that makes it more sacred than the merchant's house? Young republicans, are you going to correct this irregularity or are you going to leave it for the other party to do it. He denounced members of the legislature who act for corporations. When the repeal of the charter of the Michigan Central, under which that company extorts $1,000,000 annually from the people, there were 30 votes against it. Twenty-nine of these votes were republican and only one democratic, so we see if we don't correct this, the other party will. He gave Pingree a glowing eulogy.

Congressman Spalding congratulated the club upon its organization. He thought when he came here, he was coming to a lovefeast. There were many issues in the last campaign but two were prominently before the people, protection to American industry and working men and the financial question. He told how the party had fulfilled the protection pledge and happiness resulted. He answered the press who were finding fault with him because he did not favor certain systems of currency reform. He had opposed the system because he did not believe the people of this district favored it and the national platform did not pledge the party to put all the issuing of money into the hands of bankers. We guaranteed that the greenback, the silver certificate and the banknote should remain and say to you that the pledge has been redeemed by the party. We said we would do exact justice to soldiers and we appropriated $141,000,000 for them. The republican party favors the annexation of Hawaii and his reference to the expectation of Cuba's coming into the union drew forth loud cheers.

Hon. James O'Donnell made an exceedingly witty speech and touched upon the financial question and prosperity following republican success. He wanted a reduction in expenditures. He said taxes this year were $300,000 higher than last. Taxes in this state ought to be reduced. I believe, he said, this reduction can be made and I would like a chance to try it.

Hon. E. P. Allen said that republicanism is a love of a republic. The keystone to republicanism and a republic is equality. Equality means rights and privileges equal to all. A republicanism that will allow one man or combination to do what another man cannot do is vicious. A wrong to one citizen is a wrong to all. If trusts are wrong, true republicanism will antagonize them. Trusts are wrong. The Standard Oil Co. is a trust, but the Standard Oil Co. with its thousands of millions can ever atone for the wrong it did a man in less than 38 miles of Ann Arbor. It backed up in front of a merchant's store who sold other oil, an oil wagon, and sold their oil at less than cost to ruin his business. Let all taxes be equal. No true republican can exist with a large standing army, and young men must understand that when they when they respond to the tocsin of war, that the government will give them a pension.

Hon. Edward N. Dingley, of Kalamazoo, said the battles of the future must be fought by the young men. He paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of Lincoln.

Deputy Railroad Commissioner Wedemeyer spoke eloquently of the heroes of the republican party, and mentioned the name of the greatest as Abraham Lincoln.

Postmaster H. E. Edwards, of Jackson, said that the young men of this country do not stand for decreased taxation. You can measure the civilization to the people by the amount of money they are willing to be taxed. Are we going to progress or retrograde? Are we going to do away with our schools?

Col. Henry S. Dean said there could be no republicanism unless it was based on conscience.

G. Frank Allmendinger spoke of Cuba.

Hon. John K. Campbell, of Augusta, thought this gathering betokened the continued supremacy of republicanism in old Washtenaw.

Mr. Haskins, of North Dakota, recited a Pingree poem.

Milton W. Guy said that Afro-Americans added a million votes to the republican party and had for a greater quarter of a century maintained a loyalty to party unparalleled in history. He said that the republican party of recent years had not kept its pledges to the black men.

O. E. Butterfield had heard so much about republican differences of which he had no fear that he devoted his attention to the democratic party.

A. F. Freeman, of Manchester, had excellent advice for the office seekers.

A. L. Davis, of South Dakota, spoke of the work of the republican college clubs in getting their members to cast their ballots.

Frank A. Stivers, of Ann Arbor, said that principles were useless unless acted upon, and that the republican party was a party of performance.

W. S. Towne responded to his toast in silence.

Geo. P. McCallum spoke of honest debts paid with honest dollars and deplored the progress of populism.

Judge H. Wirt Newkirk said it was so late that he would repeat his speech after everyone else had left.

The banquet was a decided success.

Adjusted Several Losses.

The directors of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance Co. met at the office of the secretary Friday and allowed several claims for losses by fire. Charles Wheelock and wife, of Salem, were allowed $200; Naomi Darling, Augusta, $123; Wm. A. Danoe, Lima, $15; Edwin Vorce, Ypsilanti, $400. The claim of John V. N. Gregory, of Lima, for the total loss of his barn and contents by fire caused by sparks from a threshing engine in which wood was being burned, was referred to three arbitrators. The rules of the company require that coal shall be used.

FORMED THEIR CLUB

But It Was Not on the Lines at First Laid Out

BY ITS PROMOTERS.

The Young Men's Republican Club of Washtenaw

Had Its First Meeting Yesterday and Elected a Set of Officers.—The Field Secretary's Office Was Knocked Out.

Yesterday was the day set for the formation of the Young Men's Republican Club of Washtenaw county and delegates from all over the county were present. The meeting of the executive committee which comprised the presidents of each of the local clubs was held at 2:30 in the hall over the Ann Arbor Music Co.'s store. It had been proposed by the first promoters of the club that the constitution and by-laws should be adopted and the officers elected by this body, but the idea was abandoned and this business was on motion relegated to the general meeting of the club as a whole.

At the general meeting of the club held at the court house yesterday afternoon, Prof. E. F. Johnson called the meeting to order. He said that talk of factions in connection with the formation of this club had been indulged in, but he wanted it understood that there were no such things as factions in the republican party. There had always been harmony and there must still be harmony for a house divided against itself must soon fall.

E. F. Johnson was then chosen as temporary chairman and S. A. Moran as secretary. O. E. Butterfield, C. H. Cady, and W. N. Brown were appointed a committee on constitution and by-laws and while they were to make their report H. Wirt Newkirk, Col. Dean, Chas. L. Stevens, A. J. Sawyer, Frank Stivers and E. F. Johnson told some amusing stories. When the committee did report the constitution as originally drafted had been materially changed. Its "blocks of ten" feature in connection with the formation of local branches of the club had been stricken out, the office of field secretary had been done away with and it was changed in other minor details.

The constitution and by-laws was read as a whole and a motion to adopt it by sections was made. It was finally decided to adopt it "holus bolus," but to this S. A. Moran, to whose work through the county the advent of the club was made possible, objected to the throwing out of the field secretary clause. He stated that it would be found impossible to keep up the organization without some work of that description and no one would be found willing to undertake such a job without pay. Fred W. Green, of Ypsilanti, spoke against the idea of a paid field secretary and stated that with the wrong man in such a position incalculable harm might be done to the party. Mr. Gauntlett, of Milan, favored the idea of a paid field secretary, but when the matter came to a vote it was knocked out completely.

The election of officers followed. E. F. Johnson, of Ann Arbor, and Emery E. Leland, of Northfield, were nominated for president. Mr. Johnson was elected, receiving 90 votes to Leland's 39. For secretary S. A. Moran, of Ann Arbor, and Fred W. Green, of Ypsilanti, were nominated. Mr. Green declined the nomination, but his friends insisted that he stand and when the votes were counted he had 76 to Moran's 66. There was no opposition to John Munn, of Salem, for treasurer, and he was declared the unanimous choice.

O. E. Butterfield, H. G. Prettyman, of Ann Arbor, H. S. Boutell, of Ypsilanti, and W. W. Wedemeyer were chosen delegates to the meeting of the state league of republican clubs at Detroit next Monday.

The meeting then adjourned.

Circuit Court Jurors.

The following is a list of those drawn to serve as circuit court jurors for the March term:

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS

Who Committed Three Burglaries in as Many Days.

A series of petty burglaries in Ann Arbor the latter part of last week and early part of this week, has resulted in a lad 11 years old being sent to the state reform school, and the release of another aged 10 years on suspended sentence.

On Friday night Sam Bluntar's cigar store was entered and a quantity of tobacco stolen from it. Sunday night Eberbach & Son's laboratory was entered, but little if anything was taken. Rinsey & Seabolt's store next received the attention of the burglars, who gained admittance by breaking a pane of glass out of the side window and one out of a window in rear of the store. About $4 in change was taken out of the cash register, several packages of cigarettes and some cigars and fruit.

Suspicion rested on Willie Krug and Henry Golz, both of whom had been in trouble before and the former of whom is a regular little incorrigible. They were arrested and promptly admitted their crime and returned most of the money and goods, the tobacco being found in a vault where the youngsters had thrown it.

The boys were taken before Justice Duffy on Monday. Krug was sentenced to the reform school until he is 18 years old, while Golz who seems to have been greatly influenced by the other boy, was on the earnest request of his parents let off on suspended sentence.

Much sympathy is expressed for Herman Krug, the father of Willie Krug, who has been peculiarly unfortunate. A few months ago he lost his wife, who died of consumption. Dec. 24 he lost his stock of goods and came near losing his life through a gasoline fire, and now his son has been sent to the reform school.

ASKS FOR A RECEIVER.

S. A. Moran's Silent Partner Wants an Accounting.

Somewhat of a sensation was caused in newspaper circles yesterday when Attorney M. J. Cavanaugh and Arthur Brown filed a bill in chancery on behalf of Charles F. Meyers, against Selby A. Moran, asking for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the affairs of the Ann Arbor Register newspaper and printing office. The bill states that on June 20, 1891, Meyers entered into a partnership with Moran putting into the business as his share $250 and his experience. Since that time Moran has never made an accounting to him of the monies received or of the progress of the business. He therefore asks for a final accounting, that a receiver be appointed, and that an injunction be issued to restrain Moran from disposing of or in any way encumbering the property. Judge Kinne has issued the injunction.

A representative of Mr. Moran called at the Argus office this morning and said that Mr. Moran wished it stated that he could easily win the suit brought against him, and that the sole idea of entering the suit at that particular time was to work him injury.

A PENNY-IN-THE-SLOT MACHINE

Brings Ruin to Three Young Men who Stole It.

Alfred Parsons, John O'Grady and Frank Hill, better known as "Humpty" Hill, stole a penny-in-the-slot machine from in front of the Arlington saloon at a late hour Monday night. Marshal Sweet and Patrolmen Armbruster and Collins chased the men to the Michigan Central where they threw the machine into a shed. They then set off across country and led the policemen a hot chase. When they thought they had eluded the officers they returned to the shed and were opening the machine with a coupling pin when the officers again found them and placed them under arrest. When arraigned Tuesday morning they pleaded not guilty and their examination will take place next Monday before Justice Duffy. It is only a short time ago that Hill and a companion held up an old soldier and took his money from him. He was out on bail awaiting trial in the circuit court for that offense when the present theft was committed. It is not likely he will have his liberty again.

Night Mail Collection.

Among the recent improvements in the mail service in Ann Arbor made possible by the establishment of the night mail service is the collection of the mail in 21 mail boxes, commencing at 8:30 p. m. This is made possible by excusing a carrier from window service in the postoffice in the evening, his place being taken by a clerk, which gives the carrier 50 minutes to make the collection and set up the mail. Every evening since this night collection has been made from 500 to 1,200 letters have been brought into the postoffice, and many of them reach their destination from 10 to 24 hours sooner than if they were not collected until morning. The boxes on the night collection are as follows: Main and William, William and Fifth, William and Division, Division and Jefferson, Jefferson and State, State and William, in front of Sheehan's store, State and Huron, Huron and Division, Division and Liberty, Washington and Fifth, Washington and Fourth, Main and Liberty, Main and Washington, American House, St. James Hotel, Main and Huron (2), Cook House, Huron and Fourth, Arlington hotel. Persons having letters which they wish to go by the night mails should put them in these boxes by 8:30 p. m., when they will go east or west by the 9:47 p. m. train, or in the postoffice, in the slot in the side door, up to 12:30 p. m. when they will go out the same evening.

ATHENS THEATER

In order to accommodate those of our citizens who cannot well leave their homes or business in the evening, the management of the Athens Theatre has concluded to play a matinee at least once each month during the remainder of the theatrical season.

Mr. Robert Downing will present "Ingomar, the Barbarian," Marie Lovell's beautiful love idyl, in four acts tomorrow afternoon.

Only tickets of admission to the parquet and parquet circle will be sold at the popular prices of 50 cents for adults and 20 cents for children.

The original Gilmore & Leonard's "Hogan's Alley" company will be at the Athens Theater, Wednesday evening in the play of that name.

HEALTH OFFICER OF DETROIT.

Dr. Heneage Gibbes Elected to That Important Position.

Dr. Heneage Gibbes has been almost unanimously appointed health officer of Detroit to succeed Dr. Duffield.

While it was known that the appointment of health officer was to come up, only a favored few knew that sufficient votes had already been secured to insure Dr. Gibbes' election.

A NATURAL WONDER.

Countless thousands of years ago vast stretches of glacial deposits came sliding across the state of New Jersey, mounted the Palisades, pushed their way across the Hudson river, scoured over Manhattan Island and slid out into the Atlantic ocean, whither they disintegrated and sank into the deep or perhaps glided on to the other shore.

But in their onward march these glaciers left indestructible evidence of their grinding stride, and today all along the palisades the trap rocks and boulders are worn smooth where the mountains of ice and sand passed over them.

To the careful observer there are numberless other evidences of the presence of glacial influences in the past, but none is more convincing than the tramp boulder that has finally settled down in the woods in the heart of Englewood borough.

Around this marvelous monument have grown trees that may perhaps be a century old, and they have completely hedged it in, while the rock itself has stood where it stands today for thousands of years.

Estate of William McCollum.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on Friday, the 4th day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

Present, H. Wirt Newkirk, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of William McCollum, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified, of David McHenry, praying that he may be licensed to sell the real estate whereof said deceased died seized, said real estate being worth less than $500.

Thereupon it is ordered that Saturday, the 5th day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered that said petitioner give notice of said estate, as interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Argus, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

Have You a Pet Superstition?

"I don't believe there is a man living who is without his pet superstition," remarked a secondhand furniture man the other day.

"One woman who had sold us her grandmother's clock fairly wept because it was gone before she could buy it in again. This idea is not confined to uneducated or ignorant people by any means.

"At this very time I know a business man of great culture and refinement who is vigorously pursuing an old wooden desk which he owned many years ago—a desk on which he made an enormous amount of money by a few lucky strokes of his pen.

It is not in the saying of pungent things or even witty things that children become interesting, and this is why so often the glimpses of children we have given us are so unsatisfactory.

A lady standing between two beds at a children's hospital not long ago upon the occasion of a small feast opened conversation with one of the patients by saying: "What have you had, dear?"

"The pleurisy, ma'am," came the answer. "And what has this little girl had?" "She's had cake, ma'am."

This was the sort of thing you smile at while your throat tightens, but if you are a woman the heart of love in you is taken captive.—New York Ledger.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. "Slug Religion." The "religious editor" in one of the local newspaper offices came rushing through the editor's room one day, her proofs flying like ribbons from both hands, which she held up in horror.

IN HOUSE AND SENATE

SOME IMPORTANT BILLS PASSED.

One of Them Is for the Protection of Our Seacoast Trade Along the Pacific Coast with Alaska—Another Call Upon the President—The De Lome Letter Not Discussed in Any Manner at the Cabinet Meeting—Presidential Postmasters.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Payne, Rep., of New York, chairman of the committee on merchant marine, called up the senate bill to amend the navigation laws of the United States.

Two Other Bills Passed. The committees were then called. Updegraff, Rep., of Iowa, from the committee on judiciary, called up a bill to amend the act of 1887 relating to the fees of United States officers so as to correct some existing abuses, and it was passed.

In the Senate. Pettus of Alabama offered and secured the passage of a resolution requesting the president, if not incompatible with the public interest, to inform the senate what action has been taken in reference to the murder of Segundo N. Lopez, a citizen of the United States, on the 11th of April, 1896, in the district of San Diego del Yalla Magueralla, Cuba, by armed soldiers of Spain, commanded by Colonel Estruch.

MEETING OF THE CABINET.

The De Lome Letter Not Discussed in Any Manner.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Contrary to common expectation the cabinet meeting did not discuss the De Lome letter in any aspect. The attendance was small, and there was very little business transacted.

Presidential Postmasters. Washington, Feb. 15.—The president has sent to the senate the following nominations of postmasters: Illinois—E. C. Kreider, Jacksonville; Philip Rodenburg, Mount Olive; James R. Morgan, Maroa; John W. Maginnis, Abingdon; Lewis A. Castle, Wyoming; John R. Marshall, Yorkville, Indiana—Frank W. Carver, Angola; Alfred Welshans, Danville; Morton Kilgore, Goodland; Harry A. Strohm, Kentland, Iowa—J. B. Blake, Avoca, Michigan—William McCloy, Bay City; H. B. Laing, Gladstone; S. R. Allen, Homer; R. S. Williams, Niles; George E. Voos, Crystal Falls.

Secretary Alger Feels Improved. Washington, Feb. 15.—Dr. Wood, attending physician to Secretary Alger, has returned to Washington from Fort Monroe, where he went with his patient last Saturday. The secretary was very much fatigued by the trip by rail, but as no fever followed, it is believed that the effect of the journey will not be evil.

Dismissed from the Navy. Washington, Feb. 15.—Luther G. Billings, pay director in the United States navy, has been found guilty by a court-martial which has been in session at the Washington navy yard for the past few days, of falsehood and scandalous conduct, and has been sentenced to dismissal from the navy.

De Lome Leaves Washington. Washington, Feb. 15.—Senator Dupuy de Lome, late Spanish minister, left Washington at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on the congressional limited for New York. When asked if he had anything to say on the eve of his departure, he answered only with a final "good-by."

A MORNING GLORY CULT.

This Flower Taking the Place of Chrysanthemums in Japan.

Miss Eliza Ruhamah Seidmore has an article on "The Wonderful Morning Glories of Japan" in The Century. Miss Seidmore says:

As a floral sensation the chrysanthemum may be said to have had its day, the carnation is going, going, and seekers after novelty among flower fanciers are sighing for a new flower to conquer. It is hardly known, even to foreign residents in Japan, that that land, which has given us so much of art and beauty, has lately revived the culture of its most remarkable flower, the asagao, our morning glory.

We who know and grow the morning glory as a humble back yard vine on a string—a vine with leaves like those of the sweet potato and puny little pink or purple flowers—are as far in the floral darkness as the Chinese, who know it chiefly as a wild thing of fields and hedge rows, the vine of "the little trumpets" or the "dawn flower," that is entangled with briars and bushes for miles along the top of Peking's walls.

The asagao was brought to Japan with the Buddhist religion, that particular cult of early rising. Scholars and priests who went over to study the new religion brought back the seeds of many Chinese plants. The tea plant came then, and Eisai brought the seeds of the sacred tree, and Tai Kwan, the Chinese priest at the Obaku temple in Uji, who may have introduced the flower to Japan, was one of the first to sing of the asagao in graceful outas, classic poems which scholarly brushes repeat to-day.

MRS. WAGNER'S CASE. Dodd's Kidney Pills Rescued Her When Doctors Said She Must Die. Port Huron, Mich., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Etta Wagner, whose husband keeps a hotel at 64 Huron street, this city, was seen in reference to her remarkable recovery, after three years of illness: "Yes, she said, I am completely cured and I am sure you will understand how hopeless my case seemed when I tell you I had Kidney Disease in its worse form and also had Heart Disease. My doctor said I could never recover, because when the Kidneys and Heart were both affected, there could be no hope; he could do nothing for me. I tried another doctor and he also told me that to cure my complication of disease was beyond the power of any human physician.

MADRID POPULACE ENRAGED.

Would Prefer War to an Apology to the United States.

London, Feb. 15.—A special from Madrid says the populace of that city is greatly enraged owing to the belief that the Spanish cabinet has apologized to the United States. The populace, the dispatch adds, is bitterly opposed to such a course and exceedingly hostile to the government, and may make a demonstration. In conclusion, the dispatch says: "The people prefer war to an apology, thinking that Spain will suffer the least thereby, as war would be exceedingly disastrous to the large commerce of the United States.

Consumption in its advanced stages is beyond the power of man to cure. It can be prevented though by the timely use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's own remedy for coughs and colds.

Mother's Friend. What is it? Much has been said and written about it but the half has not been told. It is a remedy which if used by Expectant Mothers robs the ordeal through which they all have to pass of an incredible amount of suffering and makes her recovery more rapid.

Canvassack Ducks.

The present writer has paid $5 for a canvassack duck in the Maryland club in the city of Baltimore, the city which is the home of the canvassack connoisseur, and situated in the district which is the haunt of the canvassack.

In San Francisco, on the other hand, it is possible to partake of an excellent dinner at one of the many French restaurants wherein a canvassack shall figure and a dinner can be secured with ordinary wine at from $1.25 to $1.50—less than one-third of the single item of duck at the Baltimore dinner.

It may be said by captious critics that the canvassacks in San Francisco are not so good as the canvassacks in Baltimore. Error! They are not only just as good, they are the same. All of the canvassacks in the United States come from the same district, the vast breeding grounds in Alaska.

Four Things That Are True. If you are bilious, Carter's Cascara Liver Pills will cure you. If you have Dyspepsia, Indigestion, or are troubled with chronic constipation, Carter's Cascara Cordial will restore you to health.

A Godsend. The Kennebec Journal tells this story about a Maine man named Godsend Lufkin: "His grandfather died before he was born, leaving in trust a large property to the first grandson, then unborn. None of his four sons were at the time married, but they hustled around and soon removed that impediment.

ANTI-SALOON MOVEMENT.

It Was Fairly Launched in Ann Arbor on Sunday.

Sunday was Anti-Saloon day in Ann Arbor and in the morning the pulpits of the First M. E., Congregational and Baptist churches were severally occupied by President Slocum, of Kalamazoo, Rev. J. F. Brant, of Saginaw, and Prof. O. A. Wright, of Detroit, who delivered strong sermons against the saloons and outlined the work of the Anti-Saloon League in Michigan and other states.

In the afternoon a meeting of business men and faculty members was held in the lecture room of the M. E. church for a conference on the best and most effectual means of suppressing the saloons. Rev. J. F. Brant, superintendent of the state league, minutely detailed the plans of that organization, and a free discussion of the situation in Ann Arbor followed, and several plans of operation were formulated, but it was decided not to make them public until they were ready to spring them.

A students' meeting was also held in the afternoon and a Students' Anti-Saloon League was formed with quite a large membership.

A union young people's meeting was held in the Unitarian church at 6:30 p. m., which was addressed by President Slocum.

At 7:30 p. m. two mass meetings were held in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. At the first named Prof. Wright and Supt. Brant delivered the addresses and at the latter President Slocum and Supt. Brant were the speakers. Both meetings were largely attended.

What the harvest of these meetings will be is not easy to conjecture, but it may probably result in a wholesale prosecution of saloonkeepers as no sooner was Mr. Brant in the city Saturday evening than he organized a party who went out and investigated the saloons. They claim to have found nearly all of them violating the liquor law in some way or the other.

A SAD DOWNFALL.

Rev. M. M. Goodwin Has Been Deposed From the Ministry.

Word reaches here that Rev. M. M. Goodwin, formerly rector of St. Luke's church in Ypsilanti, had been deposed from the ministry. The utmost of sympathy is expressed on all sides in this city, but it seems that nothing else was left for the church to do. The cause of the action was as follows: When Mr. Goodwin was transferred from U. S. S. Columbia, on which boat he was chaplain, he went to the training ship "Wabash," which was stationed at Boston harbor. Soon there appeared an item in the Washington papers stating that the captain of the ship had filed charges with the navy department stating that Mr. Goodwin had been guilty of conduct unbecoming to his office and made it more specific by saying that he had been intoxicated on board the ship. The department served a copy of the charges on Mr. Goodwin and instead of demanding an investigation he asked permission to resign from the navy, which was granted. In an interview with some Washington paper he admitted taking liquor, but stated it was for medicinal purposes. This happened last fall. What had since become of him nobody here seems to have known, but this latest news of his having been deposed as a minister seems like the last act of a melo-drama.

No minister ever came to Ypsilanti who became as suddenly popular as Mr. Goodwin. He was lionized fairly and identified himself with secret societies so enthusiastically that it increased his popularity outside his church. His downfall is regretted sincerely here.—Times, Ypsilanti correspondence.

THE ROUTE IS FIXED.

The D., Y. & A. A. Ry. Will Run on Congress st., Ypsilanti.

On Tuesday evening at a special meeting of the Ypsilanti city council the question of how the Detroit, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor railroad should come into the city was definitely settled. The committee recommended that the railroad use the Congress st. route from Washington st. to the west of Congress st. bridge, and from the east end of the bridge to the city limits; the bridge is to be widened at the expense of the company; tubular iron poles, jointed and painted, to be used from Washington st. to River st.; the company to be required to pave with paving brick inside the rails and with concrete 18 inches outside the rails on all extensions made within the city limits, and to give a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $10,000 binding themselves to locate and maintain a power house in the city during the life of their franchise.

With this understanding the company commenced digging trenches for the foundation of their new power house on Wednesday. The site selected is the John Lang property and the old creamery on Congress st. and it cost the company $5,300. The power house and equipment will cost $91,000.

St. James Hotel Changes Hands.

George M. Hawes and his son Clark C. Hawes, who are well and favorably known to the traveling public through their long connection with the Arlington hotel, from the management of which they retired last year, have again gone into the hotel business in Ann Arbor. On Monday they purchased from George B. Shetterly the furniture and goodwill of the St. James hotel and at once entered into possession. The rates will remain as heretofore $1.50 per day, and the service will be kept up to its present standard of excellence. Some changes will be made in the arrangements of the house and it is anticipated that an addition will be built on the west end of the house in the near future.

Mr. Shetterly, who has been proprietor of the house, almost all the time since the house reopened in 1896 leave the hotel with the best wishes of its patrons for his future welfare. He has made the St. James what it is today, and the Messrs. Hawes will keep up its good reputation.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Louis J. Lisemer has sold the Hausfreund-Post to Theophilus Stanger who has been connected with the paper for some time past. Mr. Lisemer founded the paper in 1879.

Martin Seitz, aged 44, of Lima township, died Wednesday of pneumonia. When his father, John Seitz, aged 86, heard of his death, he threw up his hands and fell dead in the presence of his aged wife.

Hon. A. J. Sawyer will commence an action in trover against Joseph Doane, of Salem, and others on behalf of Howard Stockwell, the young man who on Jan. 19 yielded up over $500 to settle a criminal charge brought against him. At the time of the settlement Stockwell appeared anxious to settle, but he now claims that he was told if he did not settle it up he would be sent to Jackson prison for life.

Round Up Farmers' Institute.

The third annual round-up Farmers' Institute will be held under the joint auspices of the Michigan Agricultural College and Michigan Farmers' Institutes at the Agricultural College, Lansing, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, Feb. 22-25.

Among those who will deliver addresses are the following, who are well known in Washtenaw county: Wm. Ball, of Hamburg on "The Stock Feeders' Side of the Fertility Question"; Mrs. Mary C. Spencer, state librarian, on "Traveling Libraries"; Dr. Mary Wood Allen, Ann Arbor, on "The Bequests We Make Our Children"; and "Ideal Womanhood"; Prof. E. B. Hutchins, Ann Arbor, on "Higher Education and the People"; Gov. E. S. Pingree, on "The Farmers and Their Public Duties."

The Michigan Passenger Association has granted excursion fares from all points in Michigan for all parties attending the State Round-up Farmers' Institute, at the rate of one and one third fare for the round trip, on the following conditions: Each person desiring the rate must purchase a first class ticket to the place of meeting, paying the full fare, and requesting and securing from the ticket agent a printed certificate of purchase. If through tickets can not be secured at the starting point, purchase to the nearest point where such ticket can be obtained, and purchase there for Lansing. Request a certificate from the ticket agent at each point where a purchase is made. Tickets for the return journey will be sold in Lansing at one third the first class fare only to those who hold certificates signed by the ticket agent, counter-signed by I. H. Butterfield, Secretary of the College, and stamped by the special agent of the Passenger Association. Tickets may be procured on any day between Feb. 19 and Feb. 24 inclusive and will be good to return to and including Feb 28. The certificates are not transferable and no refund of fare can be expected without certificates.

The Frankfurter Zeitung states that among 72 agents who make it a business to secure engagements for German actors no fewer than 15 were found to be men who had been punished for some crime or other.

The annual increase of the German nation during the last five years has been more than five times as much as that of the French.

NOT ALWAYS UNDERSTOOD.

A fact often overlooked, or not always understood, is that women suffer as much from distressing kidney and bladder troubles as the men. The womb is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and for that reason any distress, disease or inconvenience in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort.

The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided by setting urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need doctoring. If you have pain or dull aching in the back, pass water too frequently, or scanty supply, with smarting or burning—these are also convincing proofs of kidney trouble. If you have doctored without benefit, try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. The mild and the extraordinary effect will surprise you. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures. If you take a medicine you should take the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention The Ann Arbor Argus, and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
