UNITY AND CONCORD

and Cleanest Conventions

The democratic) county convention, which was held in the conit house Wednesday, proved to be a well attended, harmonious, and business oonvention. The attendance was all the more gratifying as no contest was being made which would tend to draw the democrats away from their work. Yet the court boose was full and all parts of the oonnty well represented. The of the county well represented. The delegations selected were also widely soattered about the county and the sentiment of the party justly represented In other words no delegates were selected to go to either the state, congressional or senatorial conventions ahead of this oonvention.

The convention was oalled to order by Martin J. (Javanaugh who called Sid W. Millard to the chair, and Mr. Millard did credit to the selection of the county committee. S. W. Baakes was eleoted secretary pro tem. The following committees were then appointed on motion of J. L. Dnflfy:

Credentials: John Clark, York; Frank Dettling, Freedom; C. L. Tuomy, Ann Arbor town.

Resolutions: Chas. A. Ward, Ann Arbor; John Terns, Ypsilanti; Wm. Lehman, Sylvan.

Permaanent Organization and Order of Business: Arthur Brown, Ann Arbor; J. Manly YouDg, Saline; F. J. Hammond, Augusta.

The convention then adjourned for dinner after which the committee on order of business and organization reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent and the election of two delegates at large to the state, congressional and senatorial convention and the remaining delegates by townships and wards according to the apportionment table prepared.

Death Sunday Morning.

Thomas P. Kennedy, aged 23 years, a plumber by trade, was killed on the Ann Arbor railroad at this place late Saturday night or early Sunday morning. About midnight he made arrangements with George darken, jr., to go to Whitmore Lake with him the next morning promising to oall at Clarken's home for him. Another young man named McMahon saw Kennedy on Ann st. at 2:35 Sunday morning and a Mr. Dunn saw him still later going towards his home.

his dead body was found on the Ann Arbor railroad track about 4 o'olock. His right shonlder was badly crushed, his back bruised and his left band was smashed. It is presumed that he was run over by the yard engine as no freight trains bad passed through the yard between the time he left his companions and the finding of bis body. These facts were gathered from the testimony of witnesses at the inquest and all of them swore that Kennedy was sober.

It is a mysterious occurrence and the theory is advanced that his death was not caused by being run over by the cars, but that be was murdered and his body afterwards placed on the track to make it appear that bis death was cansed by being run over.

The inquest stands adjourned until today and a hunt has been made for further evidence in the oase.

> A Clever Girl's Expedient. An impecunious and persistent tramp appeared at the back door of a Chicago residence and asked for food. The daughter of the house was mixing dough for bread, but she kindly wiped her hands and set before him a plateful of eatables. When finished, the tramp asked for some clothing, and the girl replied that there were no men in the house. Then the fellow became insolent and demanded money, and, being refused, seized the girl by the throat and hissed, in true melodramatic style, "Have a care, woman, how you thwart me!" Without exhibiting any alarm the girl picked up the pan of dough and overturned the contents on the ruffian's head. The man uttered a howl of dismay and let go his hold, but the girl held on until she had patted and punched the dough all over his head and face, like a mask. A splutter of bubbles and bulging dough came from the vicinity of the tramp's mouth and he finally clawed away enough dough to see the door, which he made for at double-quick. Then he fell down the back steps, bumped into the gate and ran spluttering into the street. Tb»n, when all was over, the heroic girl ran to her mother and fainted in true woman fashion.

*Kty CTncle' and 'My Aunt.* An ingenious French writer has been explaining to a curious world why the pawn-broking establishments are called "my aunt" (ma ante), says the London News. The Prince de Joinville, son of Louis Philippe, was kept very short of money in his youth. One day the father noticed that the prince was not wearing a splendid gold watch, that had been given to him by his mother, "Where is your watch?" asked the bourgeois king. "At my aunt's," was the reply. Princess Adelaide was interrogated on the subject, but she knew nothing about it. Then the young scapegrace admitted that he had pawned it. "My aunt," therefore, became proverbial for the Mont-de-Plete. But then, It may be asked, how it comes about that the pawnbroker in England is facetiously spoken of as "uncle," because the French say "aunt." Here in England everything goes by contraries. The French coachman drives on the right, the English on the left; the French soldier has red trousers, the English soldier a red coat; the Frenchman eats an oyster out of the hollow half of the shell, the Englishman out of the flat half; the French epicure drinks champagne after dinner, the English epicure during dinner, and so forth. It is all a case of pure "cussed-

Now please tell us where and when it was that you first met this man." The witness made no reply. "Come, come," urged the lawyer, "I demand an answer to the question I have put. "The witness will please answer the question," said the court, in impressive tones. "Can't," said the lady.
"Why not?" "The court doesn't care to hear what I think, does it?" "No." 'Then there's no use a-questioning me any further. I am not a lawyer. I can't talk without thinking." So they called the next witness.,, Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to oure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustaohian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfeot hearing, and then it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

From Extreme Nervousness.

HAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases, is a fact well known to everyone. Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctively different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mis. L. C. Bramley, 37 Henry St., St. Catherines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in left side, palpitation and a constant niy left side, parpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

TOURISTS ABROAD.

The Money They Spend Amounts t» • 700,000,000 a Year.

The amount of money expended bytourists in Europe has, if official records abroad are to be accepted as authentic, increased enormously of late years. There has been recently filed with the Swiss minister of finance and customs at Bern a detailed statement of hotel receipts in that country, from which it appears that the gross receipts of Swiss hotels rose from 52,800,000 francs in 1880 to 114,338,000 in 1894. The entire annual expenses of the Swiss republic amount in a year to between 80,000,000 and 90,000,000 francs (the budget for this year is given at the latter figure), and it would seem, therefore, very much as if the hotels of Switzerland take in in a year more than the government it-

The Swiss figures are not the only ones furnished in Europe recently on this point A French record shows that every year there are 270,000 foreigners who pass from a fortnight to a whole winter on the Riviera. Every person is supposed to expend on an average 1,000 francs, or $200, iu the country. In other words, the foreign visitors spend in the country every winter the sum of $54,000,000 The English are put down as contributing one-third of this amount; the French themselves contribute another third; Germans; Belgians, Dutch, Russians and Americans contribute the remainder. From being a poor country when it was annexed to France in 1800 Nice has become one of the richest departmeuts of the republic.

Some figures recently compiled of the revenues to hotels from tourists in Paris show the average number of foreign visitors to be 60,000. It is customary to estimate at 10 francs, or §2, a day the hotel bills of strangers in Paris. Estimating at 82 a day each the hotel bills of 60,000 tourists and at about as much more their other outlays it is to be seen that tourists in Paris can be put down for an expenditure of nearly $250,-000 a day.

The total sum expended by tourists in Europe in a year is probably not very far from f700,000,000, and a very considerable portion of this comes from the pockets, the purses and the bankers' balances of Americans, who are proverbially the most liberal among travelers. Russians come second, Brazilians third.—Exchange.

SLEEPWALKING.

Strange Things Men Do While In a State of Somnambulism,

Readers of that charming work of my late friend Wilkie Collins, "The Moonstone, " will remember the sleepwalking feats of Mr. Franklin Blake when under the influence of an opiate. What the novelist describes as a piece of fiction may be paralleled from the sober records of science.

McNish, in his classic volume on 'Sleep," tells us of a shepherd lad who, wrapt in slumber, walked miles to the place where hie flock was pastured, waded through a river and returned home without waking. In another case a lad in his sleep scaled a precipitous cliff and brought home from it an eagle's nest, which was found under his bed in the morning.

rise from his bed in the night is another illustration of the occasionally purposive character of somnambulism, when directed by its private secretaries. when, directed by its private secretaries, of a pure automaton. This individual went to a writing desk which stood in his bedroom, sat down before the desk and wrote for some time. Then, replacing the paper within the desk, he reruxned to bed.

In the morning he told his wife of a dream he had experienced, in which he imagined he had given a satisfactory opinion on the case which was trou-Ibling his mind. He expressed regret that he could not recall the train of :hought represented in his dream. On llis wife directing him to his writing desk, he found therein the opinion in question clearly written out and in every respect satisfactory.—Andrew Wilson, M. D., in Harper's Magazine.

Have Yon Seen It?

Every big railroad in this country has a freight car in its equipment bearing the number 12,345, and yet I'll lay reasonable odds that you may tramp this town over and you will not be able o find a man, I care not how much he llas traveled, who has ever seen a car with that number. Among railroad men it is known as the "sequence car" or the "one-two-three-four-five car." perhaps you never looked for it. I have, use such methods as he may deem for years in my travels I made it a iractice to get out whenever the train topped and take a look at the freight ars in sight, and I have met drummers who told me they did the same thing, jut never a glimpse did I get of that ar nor did I ever run across a man who had been so fortunate. Try it. Go up to the freightyards in this city or across the river. You will find hundreds if cars, but it's $10 to a pint of peanuts hat car 1,345 will not be among them. -St Louis Republic.

Ancient Playing Cards.

through the winter? If so, we are sure it quieted your cough, healed the rawness in your throat, increased your weight, gave you more color, and made you feel better in every way. But perhaps your cough has come back again, or you are getting a little thin and pale.

Then, why not continue the same helpful remedy right through the summer? It will do you as much good as when the weather is cold.

Its persistent use will certainly give you a better appetite and a stronger digestion.

It will cure your weak throat and heal your inflamed lungs. It will cure every case of consumption, when a cure is possible. Don't be persuaded to take something they say is just as good.

Working Easily.

In all of the walks of life you will find that those who suceed best are those who work with the greatest ease and most pleasure. They are those who take time to prepare for the duties which they have to perform. I remember when I was a boy I had an idea that great men were all lean, care-worn, overworked looking specimens ot humanity, but the majority of the distinguished men that I have seen • are hale, hearty fellows, who look as if they had never done anything that was disagreeable to them. We have all heard of students being obliged to burn the midnight oil in order to master the tasks set before them; but I have observed, during a twenty years residence among college boys, that the best and most successful ones rarely lose a moment's sleep for the sake of duty. Occasionally, a wild fellow, who loses one night's rest for mischief, has to take part of the next night to get Ills lessons, and then he has them imperfectly, as a rule. In short, well-timed, carefully-managed rest gives power, comfort, success and happiness. Prof. Skene.

Recovering French Treasure

For many years a local legend in TVankfort-on-the-Main had it that a ibig treasure of gold lay buried in the Main river just beneath the big old bridge. On moonlight nights, it was said, one could see the gold glisten in the water. Recently the fact became patent that there must be a foundation for this old tradition, for skippers steadily fished up gold pieces from the river bed in the vicinity named. At last the Prussian government made a thorough investigation, and within a week one treasure at least was brought to light—about 1,50€ French gold coins of the times from Louis XIV. to Louis XVIII. as well as of the first republic. This is evidently part of a French war treasure lost or buried there during the troublesome Napoleonic period.

Vessels.

"Washington, June 14.-The first division of United States troops to begin the invasion of Cuba sailed from Key West at daylight. The expedition comprises 773 officers and 14,564 enlisted men, all under the command of Major General Shatter. A large force of transports conveyed the troops under the convoy of a strong squadron of warships ranging from the immense battleship to the small gunboat and armed fast-sailing yacht.

New 'York. June 13.—The latest advices from The Journal dispatch boat show that the defeat of the Spaniards at Santiago Friday was overwhelming.

A Tribune dispatch says that the Spaniards at Santiago are landing cannon from Cervera's fleet and preparing to make a desperate resistance to the land forces. Admiral Sampson is arming the insurgents.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 13.—News has been received here to the effect that a force of American marines has landed on the shores of Guantanamo bay and that the stars and stripes are now floating from a Spanish flagstaff.

New York, June 10.—A special cable from Cape *Haytien says: Admiral Sampson has forced his way into Guantanamo harbor, forty-five miles eas't of Santiago, securing a safe anchorage in case of hurricane and a landing place for troops. Another dispatch says that reports indicate that the fighting has been continued on the heights around Santiago.

New York, June 11.—The ticker service sends out the following dispatch: "Havana-The American fleet bombarded Santiago again today, the engagement lasting from 8 to 11 o'clock. No details have been received."

AN EVENTFUL WEEK.

War Programme for the Next Few Days Is Interesting:.

are scheduled for this week in the war a:ilhor:tifcs. I have myself just seen programme. The army is finally to land on Cuban soil and the progress that will be made with the Porto Rico expedition will be such as to insure its starting very soon, in ten days at the latest. By the end of the week also the first detachment of troops for the Philippines ought to reach Admiral Dewey and an attack upon Manila will be at once ordered if the city has not surren-

The work for the troops when they have reached Sampson's squadron is already definitely planned. The first point of attack will be the city of Guantanamo, some fifteen miles inland from the bay of the same name, and connected by rail with Caimanera, the scene of Saturday morning's battle be-tween the United States marines and Spanish troops. The latter place is already under the American flag and it is not likely that Admiral Sampson will Russia is only 16,289,000, or about 13 allow the adjacent city to remain in the possession of a Spanish garrison.

Guantanamo bay is to be the base of supplies and a shelter for the American fleet and consequently must be absolutely free from any menace of danger. On the shores of the bay will be dumped thousands of tons of fuel, and this will obviate the necessity of frequent returns to Key West, or even of coaling at sea.

The main attack of the army will be at Santiago. The movement upon Guantanamo will be only a diversion, so to speak, and will not require a very large force for its accomplishment. The seizure of Santiago, it is thought, will not be a difficult undertaking. There can not be, in the first place, any serious opposition to the disembarking of troops. Every point which presents the least availibility as a landing place has been thoroughly shelled, so that all shore batteries have been silenced and nothing now remains to be taken except the fortifications along the inner harbor of the city itself.

The latter, so far as army reports show, is not a strongly fortified place, and the Spanish garrison consists very largely of volunteers who have been drafted into the service and who are not to be depended upon to put up a stout resistance.

SHELLS PLAT HAVOC.

Sampson Does Great Damage to the Forts at Santiago.

New York, June 11.—A special from Santiago de Cuba, via Kingston, Jamaica, says: Rear Admiral Sampson is confident that in addition to the great damage done to the forts and earthworks at the entrance of Santiago harbor more than one-half of the Spanish r.ble rain of shot and shell becomes fully known.

It is announced that Admiral Sampson has landed marines in front of Santiago under protection of the fleet and the city is at his mercy. It is not known whether or not he will take the city before the arrival of General Shafter's army. The belief is that he drove the Spanish soldiers from the forts by the fire of his guns and that he has landed a force of marines to prepare the fortifications for the American troops.

It has been learned that during the bombardment of Monday the Dolphin wrecked a railroad train with a shell from one of her guns. The train was filled with Spanish troops, and it is known that many of them were killed.

WARNED NOT TO SINK HIS FLEET. Admiral Cervera Will Be Notified by Admiral Sampson. Washington, June 13.—The navy department has sent orders to Admiral Sampson to notify Admiral Cervera that if the latter destroys his four ar-mored cruisers and two torpedo-boat destroyers to prevent their falling into our hands, Spain at the end of the war will be made to pay an additional indemnity at least equivalent to the value of those vessels.

It has been realized all along that the Spanish admiral, rather than permit his fine fleet to be added to the United States navy, might at the last moment, when he saw that further resistance was useless, prefer to blow it up. It was assumed at first that if Cervera cared to do this nothing could bedone to prevent it. Even now he may prefer to send his ships to the bottom, and let the country exact such reparation as it may see fit. The navy department hopes, however, to convince him by the above argument of the folly of doing anything Fleets Awaiting Shafter.

Mole St. Nicholas, June 14.—The expedition from Tampa under General Shafter, convoyed by American warships, is anxiously awaited by the fleet off Santiago de Cuba. Operations will begin immediately after the arrival of the transports, which are expected this week. When the Associated Press dispatch boat Dauntless left Guantanamo bay Sunday morning, the cable steamer Adria was grappling for the Haytien cable. The cable is to be spliced and Admiral Sampson will hold it for direct communication with Washington.

Expedition to Porto Kico. Washington, June 13.—Orders have been sent to General Coppinger at Tampa directing him to push preparations for the Porto Rico expedition. So much delay has been occasioned in getting off to Santiago that the department has decided that both expeditions may go close together. General Coppinger is directed to report to the department the earliest time in which he can prepare his troops for the long voyage to San Juan. General Lee will be second in command of the army of in-

Torpedo Kills Three Men.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 11.-- A torpedo in the St. Johns river at St. Johns bluff, eighteen miles below Jacksonville, exploded, killing three men and badly wounding Lieutenant Hart of the United States engineer corps, in charge of the work of fortifying the river at that point. One of the killed was John O'Rourke, an electrician, married, one child, of Jacksonville, who was at work with a force of men wiring the torpe-does placed in the river. How the accident occurred is not known.

PANIC IS WHEAT PIT.

Joseph Letter Lets Go of 16,000,000 Bushels of the Grain.

Chicago, June 14.—After a brilliant campaign stretching over months King Wheat has suddenly met with a reverse and the market is all in confusion. There was a veritable panic among the bulls, who have been so strongly intrenched that few believed that their position could be successfully attacked. This panic struck the pit on the board almost before the bell had stopped resounding through the big chamber and with a whirl and rush the price began to drop.

In brief, the July option sold off 11 cents from Saturday'3 close, September slumped 4% and December 3% cents. When the market opened in the morning July opened all the way from 85 cents down to 80 cents and before long it was down to 75 cents. Of course the name of Joe Leiter could be heard on all sides as being one of the prime factors in the trouble of the day. L. Z. Leiter, his father, was in the city and all sorts of stories were afloat. The one which gained the most credence was that Leiter the younger had, on the advice of his parent, parted with some 16,000,000 bushels of the product.

Joseph Leiter is embarrassed but temporarily, according to his own state-He was compelled to unload some of his holdings. Exaggerated rumors quickly spiead about the streets and the report was soon spread broadcast that the great wheat speculator had assigned and that his father had withdrawn financial support.

"I have not made an assignment," said Mr. Leiter, "nor do I believe such will be necessary. I am embarrassed, however, but only temporarily.

What is done with the great quantities of gold dust which comes out of the Klondike. The miner when he comes back with his dust can change it to money at the banks, and they in turn sell it to the United States government to make it into money. The gold is sent to the assay office at Helena, the place where the government tests the gold to find its true value, and pays for it by a government cheque. After the government has' bought the dust or nuggets of gold, the gold is melted in a crucible in a flre until it is liquid. Then it is poured into a mold and hardened. At this point it is called a bar. After this it is subjected to treatment that will separate the pure gold from every impurity, and then by hydraulic pressure it is made into a cake worth about $80,000. These cakes are melted again to be mixed with another metal to make the whole hard enough for coining. Again it is pressed to the thickness of a coin, and cut into the sizes to make the varying denominations of, gold coin issued by the government.

Second Expedition Under Command of General Otis About Ready to Sail for the by the Monitor Monadiiock.

Vienna, June 14.—The Neue Frele Presse says Spain has requested the powers to urge the United States to oc-at the latest the second expedition for Manila will have embarked at San Francisco, say the army officers. General Otis will command and General Merritt will remain behind to go with the last expedition. Efforts are being made to recruit the regiments of regulars and volunteers up to the maximum standard before their departure. It is now thought that the entire expedition army force will aggregate 20,000 men of all arms of the service.

Guns for Coast Defenses.

As in the case with the Cuban expe-ition, the artillery will form an impor-tant part of the force to be sent. In addition to siege guns, a number of heavy guns for coast defense, to be mounted in the harbor of Manila, will be taken, a large number of artillerymen from the Atlantic and Pacific coast beingsent to man the batteries. In response to the earnest demands of General Merritt much larger quantities of supplies than were first decided upon will be sent to the Philippines. If Hawaii is annexed or seized by order of the president it will be made a supply station where large steamers will be located. Should this be done it is understood that heavy guns for the protection of the military station will be at once mounted in Honolulu harbor and a garrison located at LOOKS TO GERMANY.

Spain Thinks the Kaiser Will Prevent Bombardment of Manila.

Madrid, June 14.—The Spanish press lias increased its optimism, based on the belief that Germany intends to prevent a bombardment of Manila by making a naval demonstration. The newspapers Tirge sacrifices with the view of securing Germany's assistance, and political leaders express themselves in favor of offering Germany the following concessions in return for her "taking the initiative in checking America:

Firstly, naval stations and coaling depots in Spanish Oceanica; secondly, Spanish concurrence in the development of Germany's commercial and political relations with Morrocco.

Fighting at Manila.

Berlin, June 14.—Advices received *rom Shanghai by the Frankfort Zeitung says news has been received there from Manila to the effect that there is fighting every night around the town. The insurgents, it seems, are trying to capture Manila and establish an independent government before the Americans land. The German consul at Manila, it is further reported, has 300 Germans and Swiss on board a refuge steamer in the marbor

German Squadron at Manila.

London, June 14.—The correspondent of The Telegraph at Berlin wires that paper that the entire German east Asian squadron is concentrating at Manila. The ships are the Kaiser, Kaiserine Augusta and Comoran, which have a total of 1,605 men. It is apparent that Germany is resolved to effectively protect her interest in the Philippines, as the German firms in Manila petitioned the government some time ago to do.

Astor Battery Travels in Style.

Pittsburg, June 14.—The Astor battery of New Tork, consisting of ninetyeight men and three officers, reached "Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania rail-road at 8:55 a.m. and left an hour later for the west. The train was made up of three Pullmans and two baggage cars.

Three rounds were fought with swords and M. Turot was wounded in each round, twice slightly and the third time severely, in the right forearm, thus ending the duel.

At 5 o'clock the engagement became general all along the lone, guerrilla bul-lets passing thick as insects about the of the men on duty and over the main body in camp. Lieutenant Colonel day and night, producing 155,000,000 Huntington. with an artillery company, miles of thread every twelve hours, it had just landed from the Panther and would take them 200 years to spin i his men, with a six-pounder, were thread long enough to reach from the thrown across the rear of the camp. Captain Elliott led half of Company C My busband has suffered with sick headache ever sinoe a little boy and has tried everyttbing he ever board of headache everyttbing headache ev fighting with extraordinary determina-tion and bravery throughout all the night, although for a good part of the time he was completely enveloped by the enemy's guerrillas. As darkness came on the fire of the enemy ceased We are very thankful and take and the men in camp went to mess, great pleasure in recommending Carter's Casoara Cordial as a splendid medicine. MRS. MAY SANDERS, Volley was resumed by the enemy from a more advanced position. Volley upon volley was turned in his direction, but apparently without avail.
Killing of Smith and Gibbs.

Toward midnight, when the men were lying down for the first sleep of the der along the coast of the gulf of Mexico, from Rea river to the Sablne, and which are called sometimes the "seamarsh parishes," are nine in number. These sea-marshes remain as testimothers the integrated expectations of the surface of the surfac ny to the interrupted operations of the Mississippi river—Interrupted by the building of levees on the river's banks—which, before the age of civilization

Smith and Eleutenant Globs were kined. Both died almost instantly, but the marine corps, true to its reputation as a fighting organization, stood firmly by its ground in defense of Its camp. After the property of the property the first few assaults at midnight they held their fire with wonderful cool-ness, awaiting the enemy to show him-At daybreak an assault was expected, but beyond a few random shots from the retreating figures taking to cover in the mountains behind the camp nothing was done. The men took coffee and hardtack on their arms and at the first opportunity took relief to gallant Lieutenant Neville two miles away on the picket line.

ESI MATING THE SILO.

Mathematical Processes "Boiled Down" to Suit Practical Farmers. How to ascertain the capacity of a tub silo of given dimensions is a question of frequent occurrence just now. writer in Rural New Yorker has sought a cross cut to the results obtained by mathematical calculations involving decimal and vulgar fractions, and he says that, while no two consecutive fillings are likely to weigh exactly the same and the best we can do is to find an approximate average, this can be readily accomplished by the majority of American farmers with the aid of the following rules:

Having determined the height and diameter of the silo, if one desires to ascertain its capacity, all that is necessary is to multiply the height by the diameter, the product by one-fourth the diameter and then divide the total product by 16. For example, if the height be 20 feet and the diameter 12 feet our problems are her resolved into feet, our problem can be resolved into the following figures: 20x12x3-16=45. In other words, a silo of the above dimensions will have an average capacity of 45 tons, the answer always designating the number of tons.

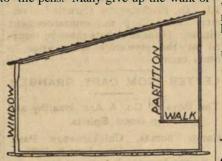

Other problems likely to arise in building a silo are answered as follows by the writer mentioned:

Sometimes a farmer knows how many tons of ensilage are necessary for his amount of stock, and he may also know how high he is able to build his silo, and then the question arises, What diameter will suffice? In such a case multiply the number of tons by 64 and divide by the height. The quotient will be the square of the diameter. Extract the square root for the diameter. Tor example", if we want to store 120 tons of ensilage and are able to build our of ensilage and are able to build our silo 30 feet high, what must be the diameter? We can reduce our figures to the following: 120x64-^30=256, the square of the diameter. Extracting the square root, we get 16. In other words, a tub silo 30 feet high to store 120 tons a tub silo 30 feet high to store 120 tons a tub silo 30 feet high to store 120 tons a feet high to store 120 tons are silved must have a diameter of 16 to mount of work they expect from a of ensilage must have a, diameter of 16 to a given diameter, and the question then is, how high must the silo be built to have a given capacity? Multiply the capacity in tons wanted by 64 and. divide by the square of the diameter. In case we wanted to store 88 tons and were limited to a diameter of 16 feet we would figure for the height as follows: 88x64+16x16=22 feet, the required height of our silo. That is, a silo 16 feet in diameter and 22 feet high has a capacity of 88 tons of ensilage.

A Cheap and Handy Henhouse.

The form of henhouse shown in the cross section given here is coming to be very common everywhere that hens are kept in quantities. It is the cheapest form that can be built and can be extended to any length. Such a house ought to have a walk, so that much of the work can be done without going into the pens. Many give up the walk or passageway because it takes needed oom out of the pens. The walk is on the highest side of the building. Elevate it 18 inches and have two steps down into each pen. The fowls can then have all the floor space. Above all, whatever else you do, build your henhouse large enough for a human being of average size to move around in comfortably.—Farm Journal.

Setting Celery Plants.

The plants may be set where the crop is to grow any time in July or up to the middle of August. Celery is usually grown as a second crop, following early beets, peas, cabbage or potatoes. Great pains must be taken in transplanting at this hot season of the year to have the soil thoroughly firm at the roots ol' the newly set plants, and the roots should be well puddled before setting. This puddling I have found much better than watering and it requires much less labor. By puddling we mean dipping the roots in a mixture of clay earth and fresh cow manure which is wet and stirred until of such consistency thai it will adhere to the roots and coat them thoroughly. The cultivation can be largely done with a horse hoe, but the earth must be drawn to the plants and pressed firmly with the hands in order to keep the leaves in an upright position and prevent them from spread-

The more common way of growing oelery is to plant a double row every six feet and use the earth between to bank it up to blanch it A double row consists of two rows planted within about one foot of each other, with the plants about one foot apart in the row. This • would give something over 14,000 plants to the acre. It is never safe to attempt to grow a orop of celery without an abundant supply of water and some arrangement for irrigating. In conclusion to the foregoing directions, given in The Prairie Farmer, Waldo F. Brown advises aDy one without experi ence in growing and marketing celery to begin on a small scale and increase it if they find it profitable.

Bed Spider.

This is very familiar to orange grow's ere, though in popular usage the name covers a multitude of evils. The true red spider is the six spotted mite (Tetranchus sexmaculafrus), and may be destroyed by a thorough spraying with a sulphur solution or even with water. It is exceedingly resistant with the fumes of cyanide gas.-Professor Rolfs, Flor-

Weald Prefer "Gold" Instead of "Coin." It is impossible, even in the face of g;rim war, to keep down the ghost of gold monometallism. Secretary Gage llas recently stated to the cabinet that he was assured in his interview with New York bankers whom he lately visited, that the government could have floated its war loan at a much lower rate of interest if the word "gold" instead of "coin" were placed on the

However, the secretary recommended the higher rate of interest and to adhere to the wording prescribed by congress on the ground that it was not best to "arouse the hostility of a controlling silver sentiment in the senate" trolling silver sentiment in the senate.'

You can trust a banker every time to insist on gold bonds and gold contracts of every kind unless compelled to adopt a different policy. But the stubborn fact which our banker-secreary is forced to recognize Is that the United States senate is not yet willing to renounce bimetallism. To take one more step In fastening old monometallism on the country would just now partly counteract the tendency to better prices for all products of labor. To have money plenty and widely circulated among the peo-ple and the farmer able to sell the produce of his farm at a profit, seems to act like a red rag to a bull to the money syndicates and their subservient

The Mary Rabbitt will case from Dexter occupied the attention of the probate court Monday and Tuesday and Judge Newkirk finally decided not to admit the will to probate. The oase will be doubtless appealed to the oir-ouit court and will oome up for trial in October.

When Mrs. Mary Rabbitt died, besides her family of two sons and three daughters, she left an estate the estimate the estimate of the state of the st mated value of which is $60,000. She also left a will by the terms of which her daughter Mrs. Mary Catherine Miranda, of Detroit, Mrs. Marica Schuler, of Chicago, and Miss Rosa Rabbitt, of Dexter, were to receive $500 eaob, her insane son Joseph Rabbitt $5, and the entire balance of her estate to her son Thomas Rabbitt.

The children who are thus left out in the oold contested the will on the grounds of incompetency and undue influence. Mrs. Maria Schuler swore in her testimony that John McGuinness, her mother's brother was insane and look of the structure of th her mother's brother, was insane and that Joseph and James, her own two brothers were insane. The most important part of her testimony from the contestants' standpoint was as follows:

"Mother acted queer at times. Called it colic. She was siok for an hour or so. Her mother had it. Would have it once in four or five years. It would be very severe. She had raving spells. About 10 years ago she was off for 18 months. She was afraid that somebody was going to kill her and that somebody was going to kill her and that somebody was going to break into the house. She also thought her son Joseph was president of the United States. After James died she said she bad seen him and that he had changed so much she would not have known so much she would not have known so much she would not have known him. Just before this will was made cludes "Kate" the queen of African the girls' and be said 'Yes, mother, I will do what is right.'
