A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back and weak kidneys.

Only One Survived.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—E. B. Wisher, who arrived here from St. Michael's, Alaska, brings confirmation of the previously published report of the loss of the steamer Jessie at the mouth of the Kuskowim river in July.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions.

WASHTENAW'S BIG FAIR.

Some of the Features It Offers to its Patrons and Friends.

The big Washtenaw Fair will take place in Ann Arbor, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 27-30, and in view of that fact the Argus this week devotes considerable space to noticing its different features.

For the premiums offered by the Fair Society, a person who holds a membership ticket can make as many entries as he chooses.

In fairs that are past there has always been confusion and sometimes trouble caused by people bringing in exhibits and making entries on every day of the fair, except possibly, the last day.

The live stock department is always one of the leading features at an agricultural fair, but at our own Fair it has received more than usual attention.

All of the leading breeds of cattle are represented in our farm yards. Bring your favorite to the fair and compare breeds.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—E. B. Wisher, who arrived here from St. Michael's, Alaska, brings confirmation of the previously published report of the loss of the steamer Jessie at the mouth of the Kuskowim river in July.

The poultry department has a superintendent who has brought out big exhibits in the past, but he has had to work hard to keep his department up with the rest of the exhibits.

There will also be a place on the grounds where bicycles can be checked. We can promise that all wheels so checked will be neither borrowed nor stolen and will be kept out of the sun.

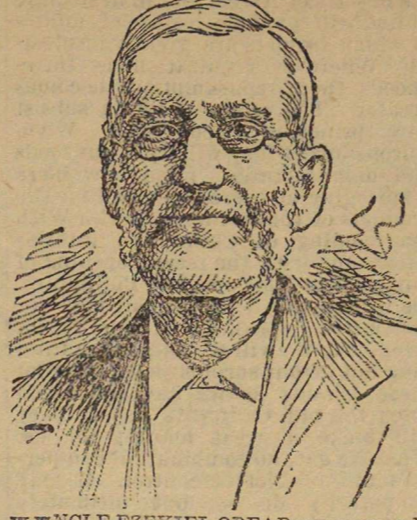

There is no excuse now for not bringing out the chickens. Don't let the fancy breeders carry off all the prizes. There are lots of good-looking old hens running around in the door yards.

Wednesday, Sept. 28, will be School Day at the fair.

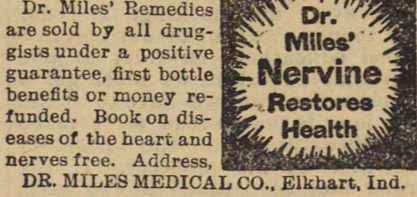

Scrofula, hip disease, salt rheum, dyspepsia and other diseases due to impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

At Four Score.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.

UNCLE EZEKIEL OBEIR, assessor and tax collector, Beverly, Mass., who has passed the 80th life mile stone, says: "Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has done a great deal of good."

DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

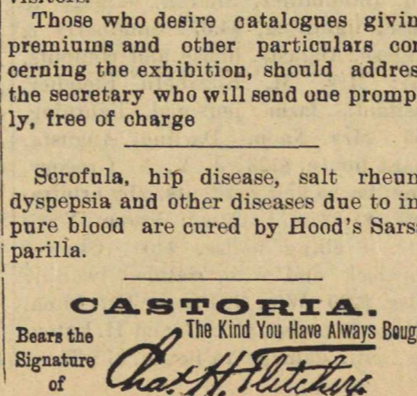

will meet the schools at the gate. The decorated wagons coming from schools within 10 miles of Ann Arbor first, followed by the wagons from schools more than 10 miles from Ann Arbor will form in line.

During the four days of the Fair nearly all the buildings on the campus will be open to give the people living at a distance from the university city an opportunity to visit the institution.

At the fair grounds the directors have arranged a large room well fitted up to be used entirely as a check room. Here visitors at the Fair can be relieved of their superfluous wraps, bundles, lunch boxes and umbrellas.

There will also be a place on the grounds where bicycles can be checked. We can promise that all wheels so checked will be neither borrowed nor stolen and will be kept out of the sun.

Those who desire catalogues giving premiums and other particulars concerning the exhibition, should address the secretary who will send one promptly, free of charge.
