

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

A Republican State Convention, to select four delegates at large and two from each Congressional District, to attend the Republican National Convention at Chicago, June 23, will be held at the Opera House in the city of Detroit on Wednesday, May 13th, 1880, at eleven o'clock A. M.

Under a resolution of 1886, no delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

Under a resolution of 1886, no delegate will be entitled to a seat who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

Whatever else Hayes' administration may have accomplished, it has solidified the ranks of the republican party; and by throwing the olive branch to the southern people, which they have spurned and spit upon, has convinced many democrats that their sympathy for the south was entirely misplaced.

We are glad to see the papers of the state taking the right stand upon receiving back into the ranks of the party those who may have gone astray in search of false gods, or those demagogues who may have become tired of southern domination at Washington.

It is a hot-bed of it. It is nourished by her congressmen, it is talked by her senators, it is the one thing on which the south prides itself. And for those men to howl about the "bloody shirt," is like satan rebuking sin.

NOTES EDITORIAL

The general conference of the M. E. Church meets to-day. He is 37 years of age, and is said to resemble his illustrious father in character.

A woman suffrage mass meeting, to be held at the same time of the national republican convention in Chicago, has been called by Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

The democrats don't like Mr. Omar D. Conger, of this State. They have been and still is a bad thorn in their side.

Gen. Stuart has had two battles with the Afghans in India, recently, each time defeating them with heavy loss. This, it is thought, virtually ends the campaign, and subdues Afghanistan.

A bill has been introduced in Congress imposing an enormous tax upon oleomargarine, or imitation butter, and containing stringent regulations respecting its manufacture. It will practically tax it out of existence.

Macon, Miss., was visited by a cyclone last Sunday night, almost entirely destroying the place, killing eighteen persons outright, and wounding upwards of forty.

The Herald bill to prevent the Canadian railways carrying any American freight, has been reported favorably from the committee, but it is thought will not pass.

Thos. Hendricks keeps on declining the nomination for the vice-presidency, which no one has offered him. He never will have an opportunity to decline the nomination for anything higher. He reached the zenith of his fame in 1876.

Dennis Kearney, who was sentenced to the house of correction in San Francisco, recently, endeavored to get out of duress via on a writ of habeas corpus, but the court denied the same, and he was sent back to prison to serve out his sentence.

John Kelly says if "Tilden is the only man the democratic party hopes to win with, that party isn't fit to live twenty-four hours," and the N. Y. Tribune takes a step farther and says, "It isn't fit to live twenty-four hours any way." But then the Tribune is perhaps a little prejudiced on that point.

Chas. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, who sometime last fall, will be remembered, endeavored to kill Rev. I. S. Kallio, then candidate for mayor of that city, paid with his life for the forty Friday, the 23rd inst., being shot dead while in his office by I. M. Kallio, a son of the mayor.

Wm. H. Kemble, E. J. Petroff, Chas. B. Salter, Jessie B. Crawford, and Wm. F. Rumberger, members of the Pennsylvania legislature, were each sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000, and to one year's imprisonment at hard labor and solitary confinement, last Monday, at Harrisburg, by Judge Pearson. The crime charged was corruption of office.

James McMillan, of Detroit, the present efficient chairman of the republican State central committee, publishes a letter in a recent issue of the Adrian Daily Times, in which he positively declines a re-election to the position. His private business, together with his interest in the completion of the Marquette & Mackinac R. R., makes the declaration imperative.

Oregon instructed her delegation for Blaine as did West Virginia; Missouri and Kentucky instructed for Grant, while Georgia has undoubtedly equally divided her delegation between the two candidates. Ohio held her convention yesterday and sent 54 delegates, of which Sherman is known to have 46 and Blaine claims eight.

The same day South Carolina instructed for Grant. The Arkansas convention adjourned on Thursday.

Gladstone has been invited by the queen to form a cabinet and once more take the reins of government. The great liberal leader will be found a different man from his predecessor, Disraeli, and England's own people will receive some attention, probably, while the aggressive foreign policy will be discontinued. The people move slow but with a firm and steady tread.

The British government through Lord Salisbury, has refused to recognize the justice of the American claims in the Fortune Bay case where the United States fishermen were driven from the grounds, contrary to the last treaty. Some papers are in favor of a complete abrogation of the treaty, while others seem willing to submit to arbitration, but nearly all agree that the government must do something about it.

"A man convicted against his will, is of the same opinion still," is applicable to the people of the south. They were not willingly convinced of the injustice of slavery, and so now, fifteen years after the war has closed, we find them endeavoring to enslave the colored people of the south by the cruel chain-gang system, and prison pens as terrible as devilish ingenuity can contrive. The slaves were freed, but to be re-enslaved in a more cruel and heartless way by their old masters.

If the southern people are as dove-like and docile as the democratic papers would have us believe, why in the name of all that is great and good don't they send poor representatives to Congress? Aside from Alex. Stevens, of Georgia, the spinal column of these southern members fly up in a cat-like curvature if a republican ever refers to the southern people of 16 or 18 years ago to properly represent their pacific nature.

They should also do away with the chain-gang system, and stop shooting men for being republicans.

We are glad to see the papers of the state taking the right stand upon receiving back into the ranks of the party those who may have gone astray in search of false gods, or those demagogues who may have become tired of southern domination at Washington.

The Sentinel pronounces this conundrum: "Does the average audience at a piano recital, know whether the player is executing some tremendous feat of art, or simply 'giving them taffy'?"

Samuel M. Putney, of this city, died on April 20th. It will be remembered that he was recently pardoned out of prison because of ill health. Although the past few years of his life have been considerably uneventful, it is claimed that there are extenuating circumstances which will go far toward palliating his offense when made known. He was a brave soldier during the rebellion, and his war record, at least, can be pointed to with pride.

The old "farmers' store" building has been purchased by G. A. Fausell, who is to fit it up for a jewelry store.

Mrs. Clarissa Hudson, of Sharon, recently celebrated her 72 birthday. Her entire family of four daughters and one son were present.

The Enterprise: "A few days ago a ewe belonging to James Gage, of this township, gave birth to a lamb which had two perfect heads and but a single body. The lamb died."

From the Enterprise we clip the main facts of the first sheep shearing festival of the Bridgewater, Sharon, and Manchester Farmer's Club, held in the old wooden factory building, Manchester, on April 21st.

It was for the purpose of showing and selling sheep, and inviting were sent to sheep breeders and farmers generally, both near and far. Variety of sheep was included, and prizes to the amount of $10, divided into three classes, $2, $3, and $5 were offered for shearing. Each person competing for a premium paid 50 cents as an entrance fee, and received 50 cents for shearing the sheep. Each exhibitor paid 50 cents as an entrance fee.

At an early hour wagons loaded with the choicest selections from the flocks of some of the largest and most successful sheep breeders in the state began to arrive, and at ten o'clock there were 104 as valuable a lot of sheep as has ever been brought together in southern Michigan. The exhibit was larger than we had dared to anticipate, and the building was uncomfortably crowded.

The forenoon had been consumed in getting the sheep in place, and preparing for the shearing. It now being high twelve and dinner ready, a "nooning" was declared in order. At 1:54 p. m. those who were to shear for prizes, having selected their sheep, the committee gave the word and the click of eleven pairs of shears in the hands of practical men were heard severing the fleeces from coats from a like number of as fine a lot of sheep as can be found in the country.

We give a full list of shears for prizes also the time consumed, and the names of those who took the prizes:

M. S. Flint, 1 h. 1 m.; D. S. Alvord, 2 h. 30 m.; N. A. Wood, 3 h. 10 m.; William Withers, 1 h. 30 m.; J. E. Wood, 2 h. 15 m.; W. O. Gage, 2 h. 12 m.; L. Dunning, 1 h. 58 m.; W. J. Osborn, 1 h. 50 m.; H. Kennedy, 1 h. 45 m.; J. H. Gage, 1 h. 16 m.; H. A. Trullish, 1 h. 32 m. Some of the sheep were very wrinkly, while others were comparatively smooth. The judges had to take this into consideration, also the quality of the fleeces.

The prices were awarded as follows:

The following table contains the names of all the exhibitors, with such statistics as the people will be interested in:

Among those present from abroad was Mr. Johnston, editor of the Michigan Farmer, and Mr. Clough, of the Clinton News. The value of stock exhibited was estimated at $7,000 to $8,000. It was pronounced a success.

The band was out on the street playing last Saturday evening, and the music was much enjoyed by the street promenaders. The band will be much more appreciated if it will play regularly once a week. Why not have a regular evening from now till fall? Say Saturday evening.

Reform clubs seem to be on the wane just now. Politics and temperance, or rather temperance as a political issue, has not worked well as far as tried. The experiment thus far has shown which way the wind blows, and will, no doubt be heeded by shrewd politicians in the future.

LOCAL.

May 1st to-morrow. Dr. Stowell lectured at Delhi Mills, Wednesday evening, on temperance.

Go and hear Rev. Jos. Cook, Boston's most eminent clergyman, to night.

The estate of the late Mrs. E. C. Seaman has been appraised at $14,898.14.

The office of city treasurer Webster will be located in the store of Chas. Spoor.

"Wm. Bab lives in Monroe. How do do, Bub?" Borrowed for this issue only.

Co. A's new uniforms are being rapidly completed by Mr. J. Sprague, the tailor.

Has Edison's electric light gone in search of the Keeley motor? That's the question.

The houses of C. Bliss and Elam S. Worden are being improved by a fresh coat of paint.

The president's house will be occupied by Prof. Frieze during the absence of Dr. Angell.

Prof. Samuel Dickey, of Albion college, will address the reform club at the opera house next Sunday.

It is understood that work is progressing upon the extension of the Toledo railroad north of this city.

The pastoral relations of Rev. T. F. Brown with the Presbyterian church of this city has been dissolved.

A woman's heart is like a honeycomb—full of cells. And many a Miss is a dam-sel. Not original.

Repairs on the roof of the court house will be necessary to keep out the water when we have severe storms.

Ann Arbor people can have the privilege of hearing Lawrence Barrett next Wednesday evening, if they choose to.

A careless boy threw a stone and knocked an eye out of Charley Manly's pet hunting canine, day before yesterday.

A meeting of the pomological society is to be held at their rooms in the court house, to-morrow, Saturday, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Early spring "garden sass" has been in market for some time, and is of better quality than usual, considering the season.

Charles Durheim succeeds Jake Berolzheimer in the cigar and tobacco business, who has gone back to Kalamazoo to reside.

The ladies' decoration society are making preparations to decorate the graves of the soldiers. Further particulars will be duly given.

The scientific association will meet at the geological lecture room in the university, Saturday evening, when Dr. Dunster will read a paper.

Arrangements will probably be made by which the Barrett dramatic club will give an entertainment for the benefit of the gymnasium fund.

The Young People's club of the Unitarian church, held their last "evening with Dickens," at the parlors of their church on Thursday evening.

The Ann Arbor city band has received an invitation from the Flint city band to attend the tournament at Flint on the 8th, 9th and 10th of June.

Here is a sentence for youthful grammarians to puzzle their brains over: "That that that that man, is not that that that that I had referred to."

Lightning struck a house in Pittsfield owned by Mr. R. Waterman, during the storm Sunday morning last. Little damage was done. Fully insured.

If the person who exchanged umbrellas at the opera house last Friday night will call at this office they can obtain their own by returning the one taken.

The apportionment of primary school money this year is $482,780, or 40 cents apiece to each child under twenty and over five years of age in the state.

The Lansing Republican says: "A. D. Fralick has been appointed an engineer on the Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad, and his brother Thomas is his fireman."

The wind-mill upon the farm of O. L. Warner, in Pittsfield, was struck by lightning and partially destroyed during the thunder storm last Sunday morning.

Flora has been an exceedingly early visitor this season, not waiting for the traditional May to commence operations, for we have April flowers in abundance.

We read in the papers about "the editor's easy chair," which is undoubtedly good in the light of sarcasm, but we have never been able to run across such an article.

The person who neglects attending the lecture of Rev. Joseph Cook, at University hall, to-night, will miss hearing one of the best pulpit orators and most profound scholars of the age.

Bogus gold pieces of the dates of 1844, 1847, and 1875 are in circulation. The coin has the right sound, is exact in weight and size, gold plated, and finely executed, look out for the "queer."

Some young rascals placed some powder in one of the gasoline lamps near the creek on Huron street, which exploded, throwing the same into the drink, and "surprising" the lighter slightly.

The recent plentiful rains have given wheat and grass a remarkable start for this season of the year, and the prospects for abundant returns from haying and harvest were never more encouraging.

Dr. I. N. Eldridge, of Flint, has raised among his patrons funds sufficient to fully equip and furnish a compartment in the homeopathic hospital of the university; for free use, as we understand it.

The Adrian Press remarks: "The Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad has put freight rates up 80 per cent., and the Ann Arborites are swearing mad. Don't blame 'em, as they gave $300,000 for the road."

The stock of G. C. Schutt was purchased Tuesday, by parties from Toledo, we are informed. The goods were in the cigar and tobacco line, in the old Savings bank store, corner Main and Huron streets.

For selling liquor to Frank Davis, son of "Jeff," of the court house, John Raeb was fined $25 and costs amounting to $12, last Thursday. And the janitor says the saloon keepers haven't all heard from him yet.

A surprise was given Prof. Alvin Wilsey, Thursday evening last week, by the Ann Arbor city band and the reform club choir, at the rooms of the club in the opera house. An enjoyable time was reported.

J. E. Sumner is planting a peach orchard of 1,300 trees on his farm just south of the city; and C. C. Clark to the north of the city, on the old Loomis place, is planting twenty acres of fruit trees of various species.

Faint tints of vernal loveliness tinge the outlines of the maples that line our streets, while the earth has clothed herself in a beautiful garb of green wherever she has had half a chance. In fact it begins to look "springy."

"Jake" Martin, of Ypsilanti, as stout as he is, had his hands full with a crazy man, Clark Fisher, who was brought before Judge Harriman, last week Thursday, for commitment to the insane asylum. He was sent to Pontiac.

Wm. Morton, about one and one-half mile out on the Ypsilanti road, is putting out twelve acres to peach trees this spring. This will give him about twenty acres of fruit trees, he having a large apple orchard already.

Twelve of the best shots of Co. A. have been selected for target practice, from which a team of five, with three alternates, will be selected for the competitive "shoot" at the next state encampment. They will practice twice more.

Messrs. Bradford and Needles, of East Milan, were brought before Justice Frue-aud last Saturday night charged with raising a disturbance at the depot and being drunk, and were sentenced to five days each in the county jail.

County treasurer Fairchild has just received the quarter's bill from the Pontiac insane asylum. The bill amounts to $2,837.34, and is for the maintenance of 54 patients. Only one or two are supported now at Kalamazoo by this county.

A weather-wise or unwise-prophet, named Vennor, says that "we shall have hot spells and cold frosts up to midsummer, and a season unfavorable to crops." Yes, and that prophet knows just as much about it as you or I, and no more.

As saloon keepers and druggists bonds are now in order, it will be well perhaps to say that the state furnishes blanks for druggists bonds through the county treasurer, but the saloon keepers are expected to furnish their own. So says treasurer Fairchild.

Prof. Franklin at the homeopathic clinic, last week Wednesday, relieved a patient, coming from Nashville, in this state, of a stone in the bladder which weighed 14 oz. Said to be a very exceptional case, requiring skillful manipulation of the surgical instruments.

Prof. Stowell announced to his medical class that at his lecture Friday (this) evening at 5 o'clock, he would show the beating of the frog's heart on the screen, and exhibit other specimens. And members of the class were invited to bring their friends if they wished.

The bicycle has become a familiar object on our streets, and some of the riders are quite proficient in handling their "steeds." If the price of the "animals" should ever come down within the reach of the common people, they might possibly come into quite general use.

The M. C. R. R. reduces the fare to the republican State convention, to be held in Detroit, May 12th, to one fare and one-third, for all persons, whether delegates or not. Round trip tickets will be issued on the 11th and 12th, good to return up to and including the 13th.

The Italian who keeps the fruit and peanut stand, on Huron street, opposite the court house, has induced Miss Mary Garre, a Detroit lady, to become Mrs. Schiap-pacasse. The bride can swear by Schiap-pacasse—if she has time—and he will of course swear by Garre!

The examination of John Sears, on the charge of forgery, took place before Justice Granger last Friday, and he was bound over to the next term of the circuit court. His bail was fixed at $1,000, and in default thereof he was remanded to confinement in the county jail.

W. W. Bliss, at his tobacco and cigar store, No. 7 East Huron street, reports business booming. He has recently renovated and re-arranged things, and now has a capital nice store. It will be remembered that he does a jobbing as well as retail trade. Go and see him.

Vanderford & Werner, at their rooms in the Chandler house block, are to have a billiard tournament, open to all amateur players in Washtenaw county, to last one week, commencing next Monday. The game is to be the three-ball French carom, and the prize a $25 billiard cue.

Bach & Abel have purchased the stock of goods belonging to S. Sondheim. Mr. S. is to leave the city, in which he has been in business for some twenty years, and will take up his residence in New York city. He has been an honorable and upright merchant, and leaves a good name behind him.

The Huron County News has the following: "F. Crawford, Esq., has been figuring with the Toledo & Pontiac railroad for the extension of that road to Caswell; and it is given out that he has arrived at an agreement with them, and that considerable work is to be done on the Caswell end of the line yet this season."

The Barrett Dramatic club of this city are to appear at the opera house in Ypsilanti, this Friday evening. They have rendered the play "Dollars and Cents," twice at the opera house in this city, and each time to full houses. Their play is excellent, and it is to be hoped that they may have a full house. We feel quite certain that no lover of theatricals will regret attending.

The Grass Lake News says: "The average Ann Arbor man will find the bicycle club, just being started, and break his neck." A sad mistake on the part of our contemporary. The average Ann Arbor man keeps himself from the dissecting table and picking up just as long as possible. He takes no chances on his neck.

A report having gained credence in the city that the office of the Ann Arbor Democrat was for sale, the editor thereof not only denies the story, but publishes a card from Dr. Kellogg, of the lower town, stating that the advertisement appearing in the Evening News, which caused all the misunderstanding, was for his own benefit. The Democrat insinuates that it proposes to live many years yet, and if it dies at all, to die of old age.

In another column will be found an article headed "Southern Religious Teachers," to which we invite the especial attention of our readers. Those who are inclined to think the northern stalwarts are too severe in their criticism of southern men and southern deacons, are especially invited to read the article. It proves, from official sources, beyond dispute, what the spirit of the south is. It shows up the devilish hatred of that section of the country for our free institutions.

The committee of the Ann Arbor fire department have contracted for a Burton 31 class engine and boiler for the sum of $1,000. The engine is to be plain instead of being nickle-plated and ginger-bread mounted. Now look at the horse, the horse carts, the "trikes," the engine house, and the and, and, and, that constitute a fire department.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

The latter sentence is purely an error on the part of our Ypsilanti contemporary. The hose, hose carts, engine house, etc., have all preceded the steamer, and are not to follow. The Ann Arbor fire department commenced at the bottom round and worked up instead of the reverse, as is certainly too often the case in cities.

William Schiede, who for the past 22 years has resided in this city, died at the residence of his son Frederick, in the third ward, on the 23d inst., aged 78 years, 11 months and 16 days, of old age. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Bethlehem Lutheran church. His son Fred. has been employed in the bindery connected with this office for 15 years, the past 12 as its foreman. He also leaves one other son and four daughters, all residents of this city, who will receive the sympathy of their friends in their affliction.

Personal Notes.

J. G. Lang has withdrawn from the German band.

Col. John L. Burleigh, of the Democrat, has gone to New York.

Wm. Doty, of South Lyons, visited the city and the COURIER office, last Wednesday.

J. Ashley Keith and wife, of Dexter, spent last Sabbath in the city with relatives.

Prof. Olney will address a temperance meeting at Summit, in Salem township, next Sabbath.

"Jack" Casement, of Colorado, known to many of our citizens, was in the city one day this week.

Mrs. Dr. Lewitt, formerly of this city, is to locate in Leadville, Col., after visiting her sons in San Francisco.

Dr. F. Hoeck, who has been residing in Northfield the past year, removed with his family yesterday, to Albion.

John Schmidt, formerly of this city, and son of ex-alderman Schmidt, is now doing business at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Dr. A. B. Palmer called from New York for Europe last Wednesday. He expects to be accompanied by his wife when he returns in the fall.

Frank F. Bassett, of Flint, who publishes the Clipper, one of the most meritorious amateur papers in the state, was in the city last Tuesday and visited our sanctum.

Chas. R. Pattison, of the Ypsilanti Commercial, was in the city last Wednesday, and called at the COURIER office. He has commenced a new building for the Commercial office.

Rev. W. H. Ryder, of this city, was elected a delegate and J. Austin Scott an alternate, to the next Congregational national council to be held in St. Louis, by the conference of that church, recently held in Jackson.

A. C. Bliss, better known as "Lon," has returned from Colorado, and says that the country is not all his fancy pictured it. He reports seeing U. B. Wilson, at Leadville, and also brought some beautiful quartz and silver ore specimens with him, which may be seen in the window of C. Bliss' jewelry store.

R. D. S. Digges, advertising and subscription agent for the Adrian Daily Times is in the city in the interest of that paper. As this is the only daily paper in the district, it may be to the advantage of those interested in politics especially, to give him a favorable hearing. The Times either daily or weekly is an excellent paper.

D. B. Tracy, of Detroit, the efficient passenger agent of the C. H. & D. R. R., was in the city last Tuesday looking after the interests of the road, and made this office a pleasant call.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

The following cases closed up the business of the court.

First National Bank of Ann Arbor vs. Walter S. Hicks, et al., venditor for plaintiff, $1,137.45. Judgment entered.

G. W. Vail vs. James C. McGee, et al., decessor granted and signed.

John J. Haney vs. George C. Kanouse, jury discharged.

Editor of appeal of George H. McLean from the commissioners of the estate Sarah C. McLean, jury discharged.

John J. Haney vs. E. Z. McGee, et al., decree entered.

William J. Millage & Millage, judgment of restitution.

John J. Haney vs. Jessie Hanson, decree granted and signed.

weeks go by there will be many a cold sitting room, and generally desolate, not to say sick, household, for this very reason. There are pleasant days in April and warm, sultry ones in May; but they are followed by cold spells, which call, and often loudly, for heavy underclothing and a fire in the room, for the comfort and health of the inmates. In our changeable climate, there is hardly a month without a day on which a little fire at night, or in early morning, is not only desirable, but absolutely necessary, especially for invalids; and there should be some room other than the kitchen, where one may be started at a moment's notice.

Last Wednesday Hon. John M. Ingersoll, editor and proprietor of the Shiawassee American, published at Coruna, came into the office of the COURIER, being led by a little boy, so rapidly had sight failed him within the past few days. He had consulted eminent oculists in various parts of the country, and came here to consult Dr. Frothingham, who after a careful and rigid examination, gave him little hope for recovery. His age is now 63, which together with the virulence of the disease—contraction of the pupil of the eye—are greatly against him, and it is thought the remainder of his life must be passed in total blindness. Mr. Ingersoll is one of the veteran and honored editors of Michigan, and this affliction which has come to him in his declining years, is indeed a terrible one. Friends and foes alike will learn of it with feelings of pain and sadness.

The Manchester Enterprise jumps at a couple of errors made by us in giving an account of the river Raisin mystery as eagerly as a trout does for a fly. The mistake in locating the little station makes no very material difference with the facts of the "mystery," and we acknowledge we owe Sheriff Case an apology for imputing to him words he never uttered. Mr. Enrick gave us our information and to him we intended to give the credit, but by one of those mysterious contrary streaks of the type—incident sometimes to all offices—the word "latter" crept in where "former" should have been. As to terming what was said "a flimsy lot of bosh," we would merely say that as long as a thing remains a mystery one man's theory is as good as another, if it is as plausible, and as the case stands to-day the "flimsy lot of bosh" is as applicable as an argument to one opinion as another, and isn't very convincing to either. Another thing goes far towards supporting the theory advanced, and that is, no one is missing from the vicinity or surrounding country. If a murder has been committed, who was murdered? That's the question.

University Items.

The sophomore supper and hop comes off to-night.

The Chronicle editors have elected Mr. G. W. Borden to fill the vacancy on the board caused by Mr. Pond's resignation.

The university choral union have a public rehearsal next Tuesday evening. Members of the university can receive tickets from the librarian.

Another body has been found in the pickle at the medical college. It is the body of Mr. Johnson, of Paw Paw, and was identified by his son by marks on the feet.

Last Monday Prof. Langley found out what his class knew about heat. It was the first examination on that subject. This explains why the congregations were not so large the day before.

Prof. P. B. Rose delivered his first lecture upon general diseases before the entire medical department this week. His efforts were unusually excellent, and his friends are all more than pleased at his great success.

The students' Christian association have secured the services of the Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, who will speak in the hall this evening upon the "Certainties of Religion." The lecture will probably be largely attended.

The Alpha Nu literary society last Friday evening accepted the resignation of Mr. H. Hodge, who was elected president, but was compelled by sickness to leave college the first part of the semester. After the acceptance of the resignation, Mr. S. L. Williams was elected president and Mr. F. H. Hall vice-president.

Bicycling is now quite the rage, and to meet the demand of the times a school has been started on State street, where professors and scholars may be seen tumbling around at all hours of the day. The animal is no respecter of persons, as he will throw the stately prof. over his head as quickly as the little cub.

A few years ago a medical student married a young lady who lived in this city. The ceremony was performed at one of our churches, after which the newly married couple descended to the Sunday school room where they received the congratulations of their friends. At the time it was noticed that directly back of them on the wall was the motto, "Suffer little children to come unto me." By the Coldwater Republican we see that the second one came last week.

Saturday the seniors and freshmen indulged in class meetings. The seniors accepted the resignation of M. C. H. Campbell, their toast master, and also decided not to have any literary exercises on class day. However, it is the opinion of many in the class that this will be rescinded and that as soon as things get straightened out in that much troubled class they will yet have their regular programme. The freshmen at their meeting appointed a committee of twelve to make arrangements for a big feed, which will devastate the town about the latter part of May.

The public rehearsal of the choral union next Friday evening is the first of a series of concerts, three or four of which will be given each semester. The object is not only to revive an interest in music among our students and citizens, but to have all those so interested meet socially. It is proposed to have it entirely gratuitous and to furnish tickets to the students through the librarian, and to the citizens by invitations through the members of the union. They have spent much time in diligent practice, and the entertainment cannot fail of being a rare treat to those who are so fortunate as to attend.

Business Locals.

Lawrence Barrett, after whom our local dramatic club is named, will appear in this city, next Wednesday evening, in the play of "Richard III." This play is one of the very best of the eminent tragedian's, and this is his last appearance for the season in this city. It is quite needless for us to try to tell our readers who Lawrence Barrett is, as they all know him too well, and we will merely add that he is supported by an excellent company, and you will have to speak early to secure a seat. Reserved seats may be secured at the usual places. Don't fail to improve this opportunity.

TONY DENIER'S HUMPTY DUMPTY.—The pantomime company of the above name will appear at Hill's opera house, in this city, on Thursday evening next, with Geo. H. Adams as clown (Grimaldi). Every-where they have performed audiences have gone into raptures. At Minneapolis the Pioneer Press says: "only one better house has been known since the theatre was built." If you want to laugh go and hear them.

You can buy No. 9 fine wire for 61 cents at J. F. Sohler's hardware store.

The Davis sewing machine will do nicer work, and finer work, and better work, and heavier work, and a larger variety of work than any other machine made. It is now, without a doubt, the leading family sewing machine in America.

MARRIED.

LAIRD—WOODS—At the bride's residence, Ann Arbor, Mich., April 28, 1880, by Rev. J. Albaster, Mr. THOMAS F. LAIRD, of Hyde Park, Ill., and Miss RACON. WOODS, of this city.
