The little girl baby left upon the doorstep of Mr. Jasper Imus, in the third ward, spoken of in a recent issue of the COURIER, died last Sunday, to the sorrow of its adopted parents.

The COURIER office is indebted to T. E. McDuffy for a basket of luscious early peaches. They were of an excellent variety and not troubled with the "clingingstone" as much as most early varieties.

Alonso Gretton, for many years connected with the Ann Arbor agricultural works has formed a partnership with R. K. Ailes in the foundry and machine business, under the firm name of Ailes & Gretton.

A couple of Ann Arbor boys in sailing across Whitmore Lake last Sunday were caught by a gust, and tipped overboard, but saved themselves. Boys, you shouldn't sail on Sunday.

Miss Mary Botsford, sister of Mrs. P. Boed, died at the residence of the latter last Monday, July 26th, of consumption. The funeral occurred last Tuesday, and was attended by a large concourse of friends.

A large audience assembled at the M. E. church last Sunday night to listen to Mrs. D'Arcambel, who spoke under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Her address was well received.

The annual harvest festival of the farmers of Sharon will be held August 12. The address will be delivered by the Rev. A. B. Allen, of Allegan, a Sharon boy, and brother of Mayor Allen, of Ypsilanti.

"J. C. Bontecou, of Ann Arbor, dropped in upon us last Monday," says an exchange. Guess not. Mr. Bontecou is a tip top man and an honor to any city, but he is a resident of Jackson, and not of Ann Arbor.

Where that glorious Hancock and English banner which was strung across Main street for a few days during the first spasm of delight. Has it, too, gone with the enthusiasm of the party: "up the spout."

The Ann Arbor Democrat moved from the Maynard block into the third story of the opera house, last Monday, where its editor will hereafter be found ready to receive subscriptions and expound democratic doctrine to the untiring.

An old fellow who was begging in our village on Monday is said to be the owner of two fine farms near Ann Arbor. He is badly crippled and seems to be paralytic. Newaygo Reporter. Who is he? Let's find out the truth about the fellow.

Last Monday night Prof. J. W. Langley tested his electric light at Ailes & Gretton's shop on Huron street, with excellent success. The machine already manufactured is to be sent to Memphis, Tenn., and three more are in the course of construction.

Last Saturday forenoon A. V. Robinson's iron-gray team, attached to one of his nice hacks, came flying up Detroit street, from the depot, without a driver. They were stopped near the stable, on Washington street, without doing a great deal of injury.

Emancipation day is to be celebrated in Detroit, and the Central railroad will run a special train on that day, Tuesday, August 3d, from Jackson to Detroit. The train passes through this city at 8:55 a. m., and the fare will be 35 cents for the round trip.

The farmers of this county have generally secured their wheat crop in good condition, though the weather has been extremely "catching." We understand that the barley crop is a complete failure for market. It will do to feed out, but is not merchantable.

The republican meeting at Goodyear's hall, Manchester, last Saturday evening, was an excellent one. Hon. A. J. Sawyer spoke to a large audience, and the republicans of that place seem to be alive with enthusiasm. They will have a good report to make next November, sure.

It is said that adulterated sugar may be detected by a very simple test. A little pure sugar is taken into the mouth and when dissolved is replaced by a little of the suspected article. If the latter contains starch, glucose or chloride of tin, a distinctly bitter taste will be present.

The apple trees in this vicinity were never known to blossom more full than this year, or the young fruit to set better, but it looks now as if many of the full and winter trees would not have an apple left upon them when the time for maturity arrives, so rapidly are they falling off.

The Zion's German Lutheran Church Sunday School picnic is to be held on Thursday, August 5th, instead of the 4th, as previously announced, because of the excursion of Co. A. It will be held in the vicinity of the lake, and there will be a picnic of the school children.

The craton picture executed by S. Grant Haywood, of Ypsilanti, which was on exhibition at the office of Judge Harriman last March, has been sold to a Detroit artist for the sum of $125. P. Allen, Mrs. O. B. Schuyler, R. E. Frazier, J. C. Bontecou and Rev. Dan R. Shier. The people of that section propose to have a rousing time.

Quite a serious runaway occurred just south of the city last Friday, caused by the horse becoming frightened from a steam threshing machine. Mrs. John Baumgartner had an arm broken, and Michael Schuh had a forehead bone smashed in, and his life greatly endangered thereby. A little child in the buggy escaped without injury, though thrown over a fence.

Fitzsimmons of the 1st regiment, to take effect on the 20th of August next, but at the request of the Colonel, the same is withheld from the military board until after emancipation at Kalamazoo. Capt. Manly's reason for taking this step is imperative, and much as it is regretted by the company, we fear there will be no reversing of the decision.

The Burlington Hawkeye man, who always has a kind word for the young ladies, says: "Yes, daughter, you should go somewhere this summer. You cannot stay home during warm weather and live. To be sure, your mother, who hasn't been out of town since she was married, can stand it, but then she is old-fashioned and doesn't know any better, and besides, she has fun enough doing the washing and ironing. By all means go. Get a linen duster and a basket and go at once."

Thursday's Post and Tribune has this to say editorially of one of our citizens: "The accession of Robert E. Frazier of Ann Arbor to the republican ranks is a political event of no slight importance. Mr. Frazier is a man of many gifts and an exceedingly effective speaker, and is widely known throughout the state. For many years the Washenaw county democrat cranked him as one of their best leaders. His personal abilities and influence make his addition to the republican fighting force in this campaign a noteworthy reinforcement."

Gazing out of our office window the other day we saw a farm team drive up to the blacksmith shop just opposite and stop. In the buggy was a man and woman. Both jumped out, and the woman, instead of marching for some store or waiting for her husband to unhitch the team, herself took hold and assisted in unhitching, doing her work as quickly and as well as her husband, and after doing this led one of the horses into the shop. And seeing this we wondered how many women in the country could or would do the same.

From the Scientific American of July 31st, we clip the following, relative to a patent just issued to one of our well-known citizens: "An improved fence-post put out by Mr. Andrew Clinch, of Ann Arbor, Mich., combines the advantages of wood and stone, and to produce a tie that is substantial and practically indestructible. It consists essentially, in a post or sill made of concrete, and provided with an iron rod for strengthening it longitudinally, and with transverse branches of the rod for attaching the fence-rails to the post or the planks or boards to the sill."

Bontecou of Jackson, will address the meeting, to be followed by Hon. R. E. Frazier, and Mrs. O. B. Schuyler, of this city. Good music will be in attendance.

The last Ypsilanti has this item: "On Friday last, Mrs. John Ellsworth was driving a reaper on her husband's farm just west of the city, carrying her six-year old daughter upon her lap. By running into something in the field, the lady and child were jolted off just in front of the knives, and before the team could be stopped, the child had a finger cut off, and a very bad cut in the leg above the knee. Not only was the flesh cut but the bone also. The wounds were dressed by Dr. D. A. Post, who was immediately sent for, and the little one is doing well. Mrs. Ellsworth narrowly escaped injury, her dress being cut into shreds."
