The loves and friendships of individuals partake of the frail character of human life; are brief and uncertain. The experiences of human life may be shortly summed up: A little loving and a good deal of sorrowing; some bright hopes and many bitter disappointments; some gorgeous Thursdays, when the skies are bright and the heavens blue, when Providence, bending over us in blessing, glads the heart almost to madness; many dismal Fridays, when the smoke of torment beclouds the minds, and undying sorrows gnaw upon the heart; some high ambitions and many Waterloo defeats, until the heart becomes like the charnel-house, filled with dead affections, embalmed in holy but sorrowful memories; and then the cord is loosened, the golden bowl is broken, the individual life—a cloud, a vapor—passeth away.

Mr. Upton, the assistant secretary, and one of the most efficient officers in the department, is an example; the comptroller of the currency, the United States treasurer, the sixth Auditor, and many of the chiefs of division of the bureaus furnish other notable cases. This looks encouraging, but it only shows how irrepressible genius will triumph over adverse circumstances. Let no ambitious young man build hopes upon it until he

Again, in 1876, one of the results of democratic economy was the discharge of 500 clerks, whose places have never been filled, nor are they likely to be very soon, even if the money appropriated to pay them, because, while a discharge may be made by the wholesale, the work takes such shape that new men

In appointments, everything goes by no longer comes from Quincy or Oshkosh but hails from Illinois or Wisconsin. State associations are kept up, and one of the highest honors a clerk aspires to is to become the president or secretary of his state association. He thus holds a place of commanding prominence, in his opinion in the politics of his state, and when the battle is on he is at the front in the campaign, rallying the "boys" to go to 'work," to go home and to vote, and to subscribe liberally to the torchlight and skyrocket fund. VOLUME XX.—No. 14

If we knew the cares and crosses
Crowding round our neighbor's way,
If we knew the little losses,
Sorely grievous, day by day,
Would we then so often chide him
For the lack of thrift and gain,
Leaving on his heart a shadow,
Leaving on his heart a stain?

If we knew the clouds above us,
Held by gentle blessings there,
Would we turn away, all trembling,
In our blind and weak despair?
Would we shrink from little shadows
Lying on the dewy grass,
While 'tis only birds of Eden
Just in mercy flying past? Let us reach into our bosoms
For the key to other lives,
And with love toward erring nature
Cherish good that still survives,
So that when our disrobed spirits
Soar to realms of light again,
We may say, "Dear Father, judge us
As we judged our fellow men."

THE TWO LIGHTS.

"When I'm a man," is the poetry of youth.
"When I was young," is the poetry of old age "When I'm a man," the stripling cries, And strives the coming years to scan, "Ah, then I shall be strong and wise, When I'm a man!" "When I was young," the old man sighs,
"Bravely the lark and the linet sung
Their choral under sunny skies,
When I was young!"

When I'm a man, I shall be free, To guard the right, the truth uphold." "When I was young I bent no knee To power or gold." "Then shall I satisfy my soul
With yonder prize, when I'm a man,"
"Too late I found how vain the goal
To which I ran,"

"When I'm a man, these idle toys Aside forever shall be flung." "There was no poison in my joys When I was young." The boy's bright dream is all before, The man's romance lies far behind Had we the present and no more, Fate were unkind. But, brother, toiling in the night,

It is true that Mr. Beal was in favor of the renomination and re-election of supervisor Krapf, for two reasons. One is that there is no man more capable or who can transact the business of the office any better than he can, and the other is that it was of great importance that a republican should be elected at this time, because the county is to be re-districted into representative districts by the coming board. The names first mentioned in all of the above tables are republicans. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

For about the first time in the history of the state a constitutional amendment has been received favorably by the people. This time there were three submitted, none of which were opposed to any extent. It isn't a good plan to tinker up the constitution too much. A constitutional convention will be saddled on to the people again, if it is patched a great deal, and heavy expenses will surely follow. The following is the vote:

Relative to penal fines, "Yes," Relative to Wayne Circuit Judge, "Yes,"... Relative to Supreme Court Clerk, "Yes,"

PAY OF FIREMEN.

n the 4th ward, where 89 votes were cast Yes," and one "No." NEXT COUNCIL. The next common council of this city will be composed of five republicans and nine democrats. The following are the Mayor—Dr. J. Kapp, D.

Recorder—W. W. Douglas, D.

2d "H. Huzel, R.; A. D. Besimer, D.

5th "L. B. Kellogg, R.; Archie Wright, 1

The first mentioned in each instance is the alderman who holds over. Township Officers.

We give below a list of officers elected in the different townships, so far as we have been able to obtain them. We should have been pleased to have had the list a bright, green spot in his memory as long so. Each member of congress has control complete, but as no one sent them in, such a thing was impossible.

> ANN ARBOR TOWN. This township never falters, though some good republicans thought they had given it to the democrats this year, but they bragged about it too soon. The following are the officers elected:

Supervisor—Isaac N. S. Foster, 38 maj. Clerk—Lorenzo Davis, 28. Treasurer—John Allmand, 33. Highway Com.—John C. Schenck, 71. Justice—John Geddes, 29. Supt. of Schools—Francis M. Holland, 3 School Inspector—Evart H. Scott, 47. Constables—Chauncey Orcutt, Chas. H. I. istice—John Geddes, 29.

Treasurer—Alfred Lavy.
Justice—Byron Green.
Justice (vacancy)—William H. Arnold.
Supt. of Schools—John Vaughn.

Treasurer—Christian Fritz, 30.
Justice—John H. Wade, 24.

Constables—Christian Fritz, James Downer
James Lewick, Forest Buchanan.

As usual the democrats have run off Mrs. C. B. Hutchins, of this city, is vis- came back home he was a wiser and a bet- with all the offices: and Township Clerk Blaess as usual, was the first one to get his ment office thoroughly eradicated from his official reports in at the county clerk's system. Furthermore he disclaims the office. The following is the ticket :

Com. of Highways—James McHugh.
School Inspector—Patrick S. Purtell.

field pulls true to the republicans every

The republicans saved just one office in this place. Those elected and their majorities are:

Supervisor—J. Manly Young, 85.

Supervisor—John L. Smith, Rep., 27 maj.
Clerk—Volney H. Potter, 20.
Treasurer—Harvey Allmendinger, 10.

SUPERIOR. The republicans of this township have done nobly. They have not only given us a supervisor, but elected the whole republican ticket by majorities that are sufficient, at any rate:

Supervisor—Freeman P. Galpin, Clerk—John F. Packard, Treasurer—George Wilbur, Justice—George McDougall, Jr. Hizhway Com.—Arthur Covert, Supt. of Schools—Clarance A. Lemon. School Inspector—William H. Crippen. Constables—Hiram A. Goodspeed, Wm. Sea-
