Entered at the Ann Arbor Postoffice as second class mail matter.]

office-Nos, 41 and 43 North Main Street.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Baptist Church. REV. S. HASKELL, Pastor, Sabbath services, 101/2 A. M. and 71/2 P. M. Sunday School after morning service. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 71/2 o'clock. Catholic Church. REV. FATHER FIERLE, Pastor

Low Mass, SA. M. High Mass, 101/2 A. M. Vespers, 4 P. M. Sunday School, 21/2 P. M. Congregational Church. REV. W. H. RYDER, Pastor.

Sabbath services, 10½ A. M. and 7½ P. M. Sunday School after morning services.
Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock. Episcopal Church.

REV. WYLLYS HALL, Rector. Sabbath services, 10½ A. M. and 7½ P. M.
Sanday School, 2½ P. M.
Religious services Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock.

German Methodist Church. REV. C. TRANKER, Pastor. abbath services, 10½ A. M. and 7½ P. M. anday School, at nine o'clock A. M. rayer meeting on Wednesday.

Lutheran Church. REV. JOHN NEUMANN, Pastor. abbath services, 10% A. M. and 7% P. M. and 3% P. M. and y School after morning service. ayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, Methodist Episcopal Church. REV. JOHN ALABASTER, Pastor.

abbath services, 10½ A. M. and 7 P. M. unday School after morning service. rayer meeting, Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock. oung People's Meeting, Sunday evening 6. Presbyterian Church.

REV. RICHARD H. STEELE, D. D., Pastor. abbath services, 101/2 A. M. and 71/2 P. M. sunday School and Bible class after morning se

Prayer meeting, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Young People's Meeting, Sunday evening 64.

Unitarian Church. RER. J. T. SUNDERLAND, Pastor Sabbath services at 10½ A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Students' Bible Class at 0115 P. M.

Zions Lutheran Church. REV. H. F. BELSER, Pastor. services at 10½ A. M. and 7 P. M. School immediately after morning service. as services Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

BUSINESS CARDS.

WILLIAM BIGGS, BUILDER

SHOP: CORNER CHURCH AND ORLEANS ST.

W. H. JACKSON,

OFFICE:

OVER BACH & ABEL'S. Entrance by First National Bank.

WILLIAM HERZ,

FRESCO PAINTER. Papering, Glazing, Gilding, and Calcimining and work of every description done in the best style, and warranted to give satisfaction. Shop, No. 4 West Washington Street.

WILLIAM W. NICHOLS, DENTIST!

NEW DENTAL ROOMS

OVER JOE T. JACOBS' STORE. THE ANN ARBOR Savings Bank,

TRANSACTS GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

CAPITAL, $50,000.

Organized under the General Banking Law of this State, the stockholders are individually liable for an additional amount equal to the stock held by them, thereby creating a Guarantee Fund for the benefit of Depositors of $100,000.00.

Three per cent. Interest is allowed on all Savings Deposits of one dollar and upwards, according to the rules of the Bank, and interest compounded semi-annually. Honey to loan on unincumbered real estate and other good security.

Directors—Christian Mack, W. W. Wines, R. A. Beal William Deubel, William D. Harriman Daniel Hiscock, and Willard B. Smith Officers:

CHRISTIAN MACK, Pres. | W. W. WINES, Vice-Pre CHAS. E. HISCOCK, Cashier. 915-966

GET THE BEST

Fire Insurance

$42,000,000

Security held for the protection of the policy holders. CHRISTIAN MACK

Represents the following first-class compa nies, of which one, the Ætna, has alone paid $55,000,000 fire losses in sixty years:

Losses liberally adjusted and promptly paid. Policies issued at the lowest rates of CHRISTIAN MACK.

FERDON LUMBER YARD

JAMES TOLBERT, Prop.,

Manufacturer and Dealer in

SACINAW GANG-SAWED LUMBER.

JACKSON SEWER PIPE CO., AND SELLS FIRE BRICK.

JAMES TOLBERT, Prop. T. J. KEECH, Supt. feb.12,'79

All kinds of Book-Binding done The Courier Offic on short notice.

VOLUME XX.-No. 48.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1881.

WHOLE NUMBER 1067.

THE FIDDLER.

Sometimes if you listen—listen
When the sunlight fades to gray,
You will hear a strange musician
At the quiet close of day;
Hear a strange and quaint musician
On his shrill-voiced fiddle play.

He bears a curious fiddle
On his coat of shiny black,
And draws the bow acros the string
In crevice and in crack;
Till the sun climbs up the mountain
And floods the earth with light,
You will hear this strange musician
Playing—playing all the night!

Sometimes underneath the hearth-stone

Sometimes underneath the hearth-sto Sometimes underneath the floor, He plays the same shrill music,— Plays the same tune o'er and o'er; And sometime, in the pasture, Beneath a cold gray stone, He tightens up the sinews, And fiddles all alone!

It may be, in the autumn.

From the corner of your room You will hear the shrill-voiced fiddle Sounding out upon the gloom; If you wish to see the player, Softly follow up the sound, And you'll find a dark-backed cricket iddling out a merry round?

—Youth's Compan THE LITTLE BEGGAR'S BUTTON HOLE BOUQUET.

ву н. н. 'T was on a bitter winter's day, I saw a strange, pathetic sight; The streets were gloomy, cold, and gray, The air with falling snow was white.

A little ragged beggar child Went running through the cold and storm; He looked as if he never smiled, As if he never had been warm.

Sudden, he spied beneath his feet A faded button-hole bouquet: Trampled and wet with rain and sleet, Withered and worthless, there it lay.

He bounded, seized it with delight, Stood still and shook it free from snow Into his coat he pinned it tight,— His eyes lit up with sudden glow.

He sauntered on, all pleased and proud His face transformed in every line; And lingered that the hurrying crowd Might chance to see that he was fine.

The man who threw the flowers away Never one half such pleasure had; The flowers' best work was done that day In cheeing up that beggar lad.

Ah me, too often we forget,
Happy in these good homes of ours.
How many in this world are yet
Glad even of the withered flowers!
—St. Nicholas, December, 1881.

THE LIGHT ON THE PRAIRIE.

From the Youths Companion I had been traveling all day through the sparsely-settled portion of south-western ouisiana, a country where great prairies and sea marshes alternate, with strips, or ridges, of woodland. A desolate region enough, and principally settled by eattle erders (vachers) who speak very little

Towards evening, I found myself in an immense prairie with no road through it, so far as I could see. Nothing but little cow-paths, which crossed and recrossed each other; a net-work which was bewildering to a stranger who had only a vague idea of the direction he was to take.

Far in the distance I could see a moving figure, which I supposed must be a horse man. I spurred up my tired horse, and, as the man was riding leisurely, I soon over-took him. He was a grave, elderly man with a pleasant face. "Good-evening, sir," I said, in French.

He replied courteously, in the same lan-guage, but added in English, with a keen "I am an American, sir, and I think you are. It's a treat to meet any one who speaks English here in this creole settle-"You don't seem to have any roads in this country," I said. "I want to get to Belle Grove to-night, and I only know the direction to take; at least, that it lies due west from the town I left at noon. Do you know where it is?"

"You mean Colonel Cummings' place, don't you? Well, yes, I ought to know it, as my mill isn't half a mile from Belle Grove. I'm going there, and am very glad to have a traveling companion. It's at least ten miles from here, and we're going to have a stormy night," pointing with his whip to masses of black clouds that were fast covering the heavens.

"Is there no place near where we can find shelter?" I asked, feeling rather uneasy at the ominous hush in the air, and the gathering blackness.

"No, there is not a shelter within six or seven miles." seven miles. You see, the people don't build in the prairies on account of the difficulty of hauling timber and wood. They huddle together at the edge of the woodlands, and when we get there we're almost at Belle Grove. If my horse wasn't so dead beat, we might move on faster; but yours,' with a critical look at my tired animal, "doesn't seem to be in better case. Well, we shall have to take it easy."

"I suppose you couldn't be lost on this prairie," I asked. He laughed, I thought, uneasily. "Well, yes; in the day-time I know every step of the way, but whether I'll go straight through in a storm and darkness, I can't say till I've tried. If we have much lightning, it will help me, but you must remem-ber there's not even a tree, or a hill, for a landmark. Don't look uneasy. I know enough to keep out of the great sea marsh, which extends twenty or thirty miles to the Gulf, and I can avoid the boggy 'cou-lees.' The worst that can happen to us will be to pass the night in the open prairie. Not very pleasant on such a night as this will be."

"Well, if I lived in such a country," answered, dismayed at this prospect, "I'd take great care that night should never catch me on this pathless desert."

"Neither would I if I could help it, though who could have dreamed we should have great to night? Even in a clear story.

have rain to-night? Even in a clear starlight the way is easy to find. My youngest child was taken very ill to-day, and I've been to the nearest town to get medicine for her. No storm would have kept me from getting back to her to-night if possible. But here comes the rain. If you have a water-proof, get it on.

The storm burst and night was soon closed upon us. It was no gradual sprinkle. ncreasing in violence; but the water fell a sheets. The wind almost swept us from our horses, and a continuous glare of ightning, followed by deafening thunder laps, lit up the dreary scene with a livid

The exchange of a single word was impossible, and equally impossible it was to brave this elemental warfare. We stopped our horses and waited until the first violence of the storm was over. In about an hour the wind fell, the lightning flashed at long intervals, but the rain still poured. "We'd better go on," said my companion.
"I'm wet and chilled through, and we must feel our way. I'll go ahead and you follow

Soon the lightning ceased altogether, and Mr. Bruce, as he called himself, would halt LATH AND SHINGLES.

Mr. Bruce, as he cannot be every minute to retrace his steps from the edge of some dangerous coulee. It was literally feeling his way, for he often dismounted to examine better the edges of the mounted to examine better the edges of the little water-courses which intersected the prairie. It is impossible to say how long we wandered about at a snail's pace, for the way and even in still poured and the darkness was inspection, and was only whom he had no affection, and was only whom he had no affection, and was only using as a means to an end. I knew his using as a means to an end. I knew his rain still poured and the darkness was intense. Suddenly he called out:

"Look to the right. Do you see a light?"
At a great distance a tiny star of light was visible—a mere luminous point.

"It's an imus fature a will-of the which

"It's an ignus fatuus, a will-of-the-whisp, isn't it?" I said. isn't it?" I said.

'No, it's too stationary. I declare I believe we're actually turned round and that's the Widow Mansell's lamp. Five miles out of our way, and the great salt marsh not half a mile off. If we had got in it, we never could have got out living. Well, well, to think that we were almost in the lion's jaws in spite of my boast. We must make for that light. We shall soon strike a high ridge now, for that is certainly the

A little more floundering in the mud and water and then the ridge was gained. The rain moderated and one or two watery ushered us into a large front room. Standing in the middle of the floor and bending which opened to admit us.

"Oh, it isn't Paul," she said, in tones of disappointment. "What can keep my boy?
Mr. Bruce, did you see my Paul? Does the lamp throw out much light?"
"Oh, yes, Mrs. Mansell," he answered; "Bu 'you can see it nearly five miles away on "I put two in the window, it was such a a dark night," she went on. "My boy must have plenty of light, you know, or he might get in the salt marsh. What can keep my Paul? I want him so much," turning upon us her piteous eyes.

"Oh, you'll see him soon, ma'am," Mr.
Bruce said, cheerily. "Don't worry about him, for it will come all right."

that light? She tottered to the window and trimmed one of the lamps, and then sat down in an easy chair near it and took no more notice "Is Paul never coming?" and at every sound would bend forward in an attitude of won't go to bed to-night, but will sit up there until morning. I've kindled a fire in one of the bed-rooms, Mr. Bruce, and you and the gentleman had better go there and adored Paul, but she did not allow him to cross her, and he was fully as self-willed as she. She sent him away to school. He returned a handsome, imperious youth of nineteen, who refused to content himself with the narrow life in the old home, and nsisted upon a wider field of ambition in some other country.

"She refused positively. She was well off, and all she had in the world was his, but he must remain there and share it with "As an old family friend, I was often called in to their discussions.
"I can't breathe here,' Paul said. 'It's not life, its mere stagnation. If you wanted me to be satisfied in such a place, among such people, why did you send me away and educate me? Why give me a taste of another life, and then wall me up in this living tomb? I've no taste for cow-herding and hog-hunting, and that's what you want me to do! " 'You've no taste for anything but your own selfish will!' she answered. 'Not a dollar of mine goes into this craze of yours. The life that's good enough for me is good enough for you; and if it don't suit—well, you can go; but without a cent, and you will never return again, I can tell you! I'm no silly mother to make ducks and drakes of my money to gratify the whims of a silly

"He flung out of the room in a fury, and I did my best to persuade the mother to consent to his leaving her, and making a trial of the life he longed for. He would probably fail—I think he wanted to be an artist-and then he would be content with his pleasant home. The nest of the old birds, I told her, did not restrain the young ones who wanted to try their wings. "I spoke to deaf ears. She only said: 'He's my only son, and while I live, he shall never leave me with my consent."
"When I left the house, Paul joined me n horseback. I was interested in the lad, nd I saw that mother and son were making themselves wretched by their own will-fulness. I counseled submission, and told Paul that his mother might yield in time to his wishes. " 'Never!' he cried. 'If I can't be happy her way, she prefers making me miserable." You say she loves me. Perhaps she does, but it's a strange kind of love, isn't it?" " 'Never mind, he added, laughing, 'I've thought of a way. A greater evil drives out a less, don't it? Now what will you bet that before two months you'll hear mother begging and pleading with me to go

"And then he laughed loud and long, but refused to say more. "In a very few weeks I heard, Mrs. Man-ell was wild about her son's attentions to the blacksmith's daughter, Lottie Grey, a bold, pert girl who was the talk of the neigh-As usual, she sent for me to hear orhood. her troubles. 'I can't understand it,' she said. 'Paul hates vulgarity, and she is coarse and vulgar. Why, the creature can neither read nor write! It's a most disgraceful flirtation—for, of course, its only a flirtation—and I wish, Mr. Bruce, you'd give him a good talk about it? talk about it.'

"'It would be better to let him leave here, Mrs. Mansell.' I said. 'You insist apon keeping him among these poople, and oung men who are idle will amuse themelves with whatever may happen to com

n their way. That's at the bottom of half the ill-assorted marriages.'
"You don't think my Paul would marry Lottie Grey?' she cried, angrily. Tim ashamed of you, Mr. Bruce! No, even the dirtation is disgraceful enough. As for going away, Paul is going to stay right here and I'll make him behave himself, too! Speak to him, will you, about his conduct.'
"I'm a very awkward person for these delicate negotiations, but Paul saved me the

'Oh, I know what you want to say; mother's been talking to you about Lottle Grey,' and then he laughed. 'I care as much for Lottle Grey as I do for this weed'—flicking off the end of one with his whip-'I'm not there half so often as she thinks I am, and Lottie's only the means to an end. You know my secret now. Rather than have Lottie Grey for a daughter in-law, she'd ship me to China and never lay eyes on me again.'

"But she don't think you want to marry her,' I said. 'She believes you are only flirt

the Gulf coast, but Paul put on his overcoat and walked towards the door. "'Where on earth are you going?' his mother asked. 'It's dusk, and it's no weather for any one to be out in,'

er for any one to be out in,

"He laughed provokingly. 'Why, mother, you don't think a little rain will keep me from where I spend my evenings. I'm

"He laughed provokingly. 'Why, mother, you don't think a little rain will keep me from where I spend my evenings. I'm

"He laughed provokingly. 'Why, mother, you don't think a little rain will keep the mortal remains of the founder of Pennsylvania. At one time the grave of the sylvania. At one time the grave of the restore Christianity to its primitive purity,
restore Christianity to its primitive purity,
restore Christianity to its primitive purity.

"She never was one to talk of her troubles to servants, so Sarah was not surprised so quietly in the little grave-yard of Jor-washes and dries the feet, it is the single the shutters." way, ma'am, and it's an awful night, raining and blowing.' "For an answer, Mrs. Mansell took the lamp from the window with her own hands, and barred the shutters.

"'Let it be dark to him!' she cried, passionately. 'For the first time in his life, let him see his home-light quenched. Ever since he was a little boy, whenever he was belated, the light was constant and steady to guide him. Now let the disobedient son "Oh, yes, he can't stray, can he, with take it as a sign that his mother's heart is

'He stayed all night at Grey's, Mrs.

he didn't git back, and Mass Gray he say, sartain sure, Paul got in de salt mash, and he's drownded.'

"Mrs. Mansell sank io the floor without sigh or a groan, and when she recovered consciousness her mind had lost its bal-

"From the moment she heard he had tarted for home, she knew perfectly what his fate had been. His remains were not ecovered until the next summer-a very ry one—when he and his horse were found a 'coulee.' which had literally swallowed Mrs. Mansell's disorder is a quiet manis the seems to have forgotten all that passed between her and her son on that terrible evening; in fact, I think she supposes him boy, and looks for his return every even ng the business of her life seems to be to keep the lamp in the window trimmed and ourning, and her trembling solicitude about t seems the only half-conscious link to conect her with the past.' I asked. "Has she ever been put in an asylum?"

"Yes, her relatives tried that, but it made ner worse. She is quiet and docile when she is allowed to tend her lamp, and you can't tear her away from this place. I don't think sanity would be a blessing to her under the circumstances. She is quiet and calm during the day, but as night comes of she gets restless, though when her lamp is ready she will sleep part of the night." I looked at the unfortunate woman the next morning with deep sympathy. Her poor frail life was evidently near its close, for a more worn face I never saw; and those teous, imploring eyes were dim with death "If you meet my Paul, Mr. Bruce," she said, "tell him not to be late to-night. My head aches so," patting her hand to her forchead. "when he doesn't come early. I'm so silly," with a quavering little laugh, "that fancy all sorts of things about his losing his way. He couldn't do that, could he, with that lamp in the window! No, in-deed. He'll see it, and he'll know home and mother are waiting for him. But waiting, waiting is hard on me."

We looked at her and I felt the tear moisten my eyes as we rode away. Her weary waiting would soon be over, and the bitter tragedy wrought by unbridled pas-

Public Spirit.

There is no point at which persons neanness betrays itself so strongly and surely as it does when brought into rela-tion to schemes of public improvement. set a subscription paper going through a community, to raise money for some pub-ic object, and it will usually sift out the ean men as certainly as a screen will sift he dust from a bushel of coal. We have great many men who are not stingy with their families, who are by no means pars monious, yet who have insuperable objections to giving away anything that does not minister directly to their personal comfort or gratification. A church is wanted or a public library, or a park, or somethin else for the common benefit, and the wan and the effort to meet it furnish a very read the common benefit and the common benefit and the wan and the effort to meet it furnish a very read the common benefit and the c liable test of the character of those appealed to. We have rich men in every community so notoriously stingy, and so unfriendly to all schemes of public improvement, that they are not even approached for a contribution. On the other hand, we have men in every community who have what we call "public spirit." Nothing that can minister to the general good ever receives a cold welcome from them, or a niggardly response to its spread. they cannot see that membership in a family involves certain duties toward the family—support, protection, mutual assistance. The head of the family, no matter how selfish and stingy he may be, recognizes the fact that he owes to that family shalter. Very few men are so stolidly selfish that the fact that he owes to that family shelter ustenance, clothing, education, etc. Very few, too, fail to see that, as citizens, they owe certain duties to the town they live in, to the state, to the nation. They pay their taxes, and expect to pay them. It cannot be said that they always do this willingly or honestly, but they know that they must bay something for the laws that protect hem, for the roads that give them passage them, for the roads that give them passage across the country, and for the support of the Government. As heads of families and citizens of the state, they apprehend the fact that they owe duties whose fulfillment costs money. What is necessary beyond this is that they should see that membership in a gooing community involves duties

The Grave of William Penn.

Of all places of pilgrimage in the "old ome" dear to Americans none should be

"Take that light from there and close he shutters."

"But Mr. Paul won't be able to find his way, ma'am, and it's an awful night, rainthe sequestered beauty of this spot. It stands in reality upon rather high ground, but its immediate site is in a wooded dell surrounded by meadows. Only one house, a substantial farmstead, is within sight of Jordans; and one may ramble for some distance on either hand without passing more than an occasional habitation. One wonders what could have brought a place of worship in so solitary a spot, until one remembers two facts—first, that at the time members two facts—first, that at the time Jordans was erected the rural districts of England were more populous than at presto guide him. Now let the disobedient son take it as a sign that his mother's heart is ght?

to guide him. Now let the disobedient son take it as a sign that his mother's heart is closed to him.'

"Sarah said she looked so awful, she was farid to open her lips, and when Mrs. thair near it and took no more notice Every now and then she whispered, and never coming?" and at every would bend forward in an attitude of would bend forward in an attitude of the next table. The same order to the towns. Moreover, in those days, to the earnest religious, a tramp of a few miles to a place of worship frowent on. Breakfast time came, but no sign of Paul.

The turn to his neighbor, and thus it is passed along the line, and by the last is carried to the next table. The same order in the capture of the rural districts of England were more populous than at present; and secondly, that the church rates carried to the next table. The same order to the next table. The same order to the first kiss is applied by the minister to the first sister's hand.

The Dunkers live in peace with one another, and seek no redress, for injury done to them by recourse to law. Disagreements among themselves are settled by the elders, or the common of the line, and by the last is carried to the next table. The same order to the next table. The next table. The next table is observed with the women, with the women, with the women, with the was a not to the next table. The next table. The next table is observed with the women, with the women, with the women, with the women, with the carried to the next table. The next table. The next table is observed with the women of its observed with the women, with the carried to the next table. The next table. The next table is observed with the women, with the women, with the women, with the women, with the women of the next table. The next table. The next table is observed with the women of the next table. The next table is observed with the women of the next table. The next table is observed with the women of the peace and justice," which was not of infre- among themselves are settled by the elders, here, which rarely occurs more than once will of God that the unfortunate brother or twice a year, Friends come long distances out of the neighboring counties to attend, and the nearest railway station is nine miles away. In front of the meeting-house, and divided from it by a low fence and wicket, is the "dead garth," an oblong piece of ground, bounded on two sides by the lanes leading to Chalfont St. Giles and Chalfont St. Peter respectively. Meeting-house and burial ground are embosomed amid magnificent limes and beeches, which, when the writer paid his last visit to the spot, were in their richest summer foliage, and vocal with the songs of birds. On entering by the little wicket into the grave-yard the eye at once lights upon two sets of graves, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. The group on the right consists of eleven graves arranged in three rows, there being five in in the third. The group on the left, with one head-stone, consists of five graves oc-cupied by five children of William Penn. The grave farthest from the wicket in the first row of graves on the right is that of Penn and his second wife. It bears the inscription, "William Penn, 1718, and Hannah Penn, 1726." The grave next this is that of Gulielma Maria Penn, his first wife, who died in 1689, while the next two are occupied by the remains of her mother and step-father respectively. In the second row are the graves of two other of Penn's children, those of Letitia and Springett Penn. In the third row is that of Thomas Ellwood, the simple-hearted man who read to Milton when blindness had befallen him;

also that of his wife. For periods of from one to two centuries all these grayes were without memorials, as are still many others in this out-of-the-way burial-ground. A few years ago it might have been said with entire truth, in the words of Wordsworth:

"In our church-yard Is neither epitaph nor monument, Tombstone nor grave; only the turf we tread, And a few natural graves." A few graves and flower-grown hillock within a narrow inclosure fronting a plain cottage-like structure, over which the tree swayed and the birds sang in their season earthly resting place of one of the world's noblest heroes, surrounded by those he loved. The simple head-stones they now bear were erected some seventeen or eighteen years ago by those who have the custody of the little meeting-house and its atached burial-ground. The records of the listrict meeting contain the minute that in July, 1862, a committee was appointed "to place grave-stones over such of the graves at Jordans the identity of which had been ascertained." The committee reported in June, 1863, that this had been done. The graves of the Penns, Peningtons, and Ellwoods are fitly placed close together: all formed one community when living, re-joicing and suffering in common. Isaac Penington lived at the Grange, in the eighboring parish of Chalfont St. Peter. He became the second husband of Lady Springett, the mother of Penn's first wife, and was one of the intimate friends of Milton. Gulielma Maria Springett, the future wife of Penn, is described as being a most accomplished woman, "as good as she was beautiful, and as beautiful as good." The friends who knew her best were they who testified to her worth. Ellwood, who had known her from a child, and who early fell in love with her, though without daring to confess his affection lest he should be recerted, speaks of her "as wanting nothing to render her comely both in outward per son and in the endowments of her mind which were every way extraordinary. Again he speaks of "being sensible of th real and innate worth and virtue which adorned his excellent dame."-Harper's Magazine for December.

A Mislaid Letter.

Five years ago a maiden fair, whose home vas in a little town near Macon, Ga., anxiously awaited an important letter from her absent lover. Days passed wearily. The sighing lass haunted the postoffice, but the postmaster's face always bore that look of exasperating quietude common to those from whom expected things never come.

push matters this very evening. Shell sis that they should see that membership in a social community involves duties for footland to a superscription in a dulying with a young girl for whom he had no affection, and was only using as a means to an end. I knew his mother well enough to be assured that if each in off, and then break her heart. She could never be forced into yielding anything.

Shell sis that they should see that membership in a social community involves duties for into dailying with a young girl for whom he had no affection, and was only using as a means to an end. I knew his mother well enough to be assured that if the community to make it, so far as he community to make it, so far as he companying to make it is from John in a great many duties. He owes it to the hole, with the rat at his heels. A moment later the weas elemerged from the other side, ran quick-she marked 1876. The lady spanks the ball was a tomato or love apple, and it would be found wholesome and nutri-from the town of her youth there comes to he reality preserved and distributed the place sate of the passage of the wassel's bady. The was early and distinctly as family to make it, so far as he really as a means to an end. I knew his maked name that derived from the other side, ran quick-said many the friends and neighbors of the latty of the passage of the wassel's bady. The was early and thus this now popular esculety of the realing again entered the hole, with the rat at his hells. A moment later the weas elemerged from the other side, ran quick-said many the friends and neighbor of a letter case the marked nearly to make it, so far as he really add distributed the place some time the felling, and thus this now popular esculeth that it the same threat the passage of the wassel's bady. The waster the weasel canned th

Customs of the Dunkers.

The Dunkers profess all the fundamen home" dear to Americans none should be held in more reverent esteem than the little not, however, believe in the eternal pedimenting house and entering the state of the state neeting-house and grave-yard wherein lie tion of souls. They have no creed apart the mortal remains of the founder of Pennrain moderated and one or two watery stars peeped out, so that the darkness was not so intense. The light grew brighter, and at last we pulled up at the gate of a large, comfortable-looking farm house.

"You'll find Mrs. Mansell a queer woman," said my companion, as we unsaddled the horses and turned the mose in the yard. "I'll tell you about her when we get under shelter."

"He walked off whistling, and Sarah said Mrs. Mansell's face scared her, it was so white and set. She sat for a long time as if she was petrified, and then commenced by an elderly woman, evidently a servant, who called Mr. Bruce by name and ushered us into a large front room. Standing in the middle of the floor and bending les to servants, so Sarah was not surprised at her silence. When bed-time came, as was woman with snow-white hair. She leaned on a stick, for she seemed very infirm, and her eyes were fixed eagerly on the door which opened to admit us.

"Oh, it isn't Paul," she said, in tones of disappointment. "What can keep my boy?

"I she that light from there and close of the floor and bending for ward in an attitude of expectation, was a the silence. When bed-time came, as was at the risilence. When bed-time came, as was at each risilence. When bed-time came, as was at the risilence. When bed-time came, as was at the risilence. When bed-time came, as was at each risilence. Washes and dries the feet, it is the single data for over a century and a half would be a desceration. All probably will see the matter in that light when they come is experted to a separate person, they call it foot-washing the matter in that light when they come is experted to a dans for over who had entered again.

"She's always worse stormy nights. She won't go to bed to-night, but will sit up there until morning. I've kindled a fire in an eff the gentleman had better go there and try your clothes. She won't speak to you again to-uight, poor soul."

"Lordy, ma'am,' he answered, 'Mass Grey ase' Bruce satisfied my curiosity about our singular hostess.

"Lordy, ma'am,' he answered, 'Mass Grey ase' Bruce satisfied my curiosity about our singular hostess.

"She had an only son, Paul," he said, "and both mother and son had violent tember and better the same and did not try to control them. She

Easy Lessons.

Here we have a Democratic mass meeting. How many people can you see?" Three Yes, that is right. Why do you smile. You are smiling because you think three people should not be called a mass meeting, Alas, dear children, you do not know what it is to be a Democrat, and if you are good you never will.

This is an hired girl. She has something in her hand. It is a can, and there is coal oil inside, The hired girl is going to light a fire in the kitchen stove. She has been lisappointed in love and desires to die. She will put some of the oil in the stove and light it with a match. In about half a minute she will be twanging a golden harp among the elect in heaven, What is this nasty looking object? It is a chew of tobacco. Oh, how naughty it is to use the filthy weed. It makes the teeth black and spoils the parlor carpet. Go quick and throw the horrid stuff away. Put it in the ice cream freezer or in the coffee pot, should never chew tobacco. What smells so? Has somebody been What smells so? Has somebody been burning a rag, or is there a dead mule in the back yard? No, the man is smoking a five cent cigar. The cigar has a breath on him like the chimes of Normandy or a salivated cheese factory. It is strong enough to raise a mortgage or lick a postage stamp. The man will chew a piece of assafetida by and by to take the taste of the signed at and by to take the taste of the cigar out of his mouth. Here we have a baby. It is composed of a bald head and a pair of lungs. One of the lungs takes a rest while the other runs the shop. One of them is always on deck all of the time. The baby is a bigger man than his mother. He likes to walk around with his father at night. Little girls, you will never know what it is to be a father. Here is a castle. It is the house of an edtor. It has stained glass windows and manogany stairways. In front of the castle a park. Is it not sweet? The lady in the park is the editor's wife. She wears a costly robe of velvet trimmed with gold face, and there are pearls and rubies in her hair. The editor sits on the front stoop, smoking an Havana cigar. His little children are playing with dalmond marbles on the tesselated floor. The editor can afford to live in style. He gets $75 a month wa-Ullulyn.UU1

See the lamp-post. By its dim rays you can behold the electric light across the street. There is a man leaning against the lamp-post, Perhaps the lamp-post would fall if it were not for the man.

VIII. This sorry spectacle is a plumber. He is ragged and cold and hungry. He is very, very poor. When you see him next spring he will be very, very rich, and will wear diamonds and broadcloth. His wife takes in washing now, but she will be able to move in the first circles by the time the weather there washer and the passies weather turns warmer and the pansies bloom again.

A Weasle's Strategy.

An incident which occurred near Santa Barbara, California, illustrates the sagacity of the weasel. A gentleman's farm was ingradually disappearing, however, during the past few weeks.

The gentleman finally discovered the cause of their probable disappearance in a very wide awake weasel, which was engaged at the time in a vigorous combat with an unusually large-sized rat. The latter proved too much for his adversary, and finally chased his weaselship out of the barn. A few mornings later the gentleman found the same animals engaged in

The weasel at last ran away, as before, and the rat followed in hot pursuit. This time, however, the weasel ran into a hole it had burrowed through a pile of hardened The hole was quite large at the entrance now a happy wife with two children. She has forgotten the faithless one of her days but the outlet was scarcely large enough to it would be found wholesome and nutri-

STATE SIFTINGS. The Midland Sun has turned Green-

Union City is said to charge $10 per day icense for selling goods on the street. The carcasses of thirteen deer were shipped from Vassar recently in one day. O. L. Frazer, of Reed City, is soon to plied tables, give them a taste of thanksgivopen a glove and mitten factory at Petos-

Ex-State Senator J. G. Waite, of Sturges, elebrated his seventieth birthday, November 23d.

Cedar lands in the vicinity of Kalkaska are salable and there is a demand for such

The old cemetery at Muskegon is to be fittted up as a park. There won't be many moon-shiners around there. The Michigan Central railroad demand $50,000 of the P. H. & N. W. Company for permission to cross their track.

The Commerce mail carrier is reported to have been arrested for carrying whiskey to the minor cadets at the Military Acad-

Captain Glover, the new post-master at Grand Haven, is making decided improvements for the better in the room occupied behind its orders at date. The second semi-annual session of the $52.19. Sixth Congressional District Press Association will be held at St. Johns, on Friday, December 9th, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

power each.

The Alpena Reporter of the 19th ult. Alpena will soon be lighted by twenty electric lights. The city has purchased a Brush electrical generator that is capable dropped her anchor on the lee side. In the morning the life saying crew run a line A new dodge that burglars are trying to play is to go from place to place attending prayer meetings in the fore part of the evening and breaking into buildings later in the night. The Saginaw, Huron & Tuscola railroad has on its line the locomotive that was used on the narrow guage railroad on the exposition grounds at Philadelphia at the time of furnishing forty lights of 2,000 candle of the centennial. The Kalkaskaian says that Jas. A. Drake some in our midst to feast on faith. The has threshed 12,578 bushels of grain this latter article may be essential in some cases season-7,981 bushels of which was oats, but it is entirely out of place on a Thanksand the balance mostly wheat. Ten years giving bill-of-fare. was a wilderness.

said to be arranged in strata as follows: Muck, 2 feet; quicksand, 6 feet; clay, 8 feet; hard pan, 42 feet. The last stratum pox and diphtheria and the prespective is so hard that it is barely possible to bore six inches a day. In the trial of Benjamin Trego for the murder of Martin Texter, that has been things are no worse.

going on at Hastings for some time past,

The soil to the depth of 58 feet at Vassar

the jury brought in a verdict of guily of manslaughter. Judge Hooker will pronounce the sentence to-morrow. John Harmon, of Detroit, for many ears speaker of the "third" house of the Michigan legislature, and who has been present at the organization of every congress for the last 40 years, will spend the winter in Washington. His family is with him, and they have rented a house and will go to housekeeping.—Ex.

A party of hunters in Oscoda county were warned that they must not hunt with dogs in that vicinity. Not heeding the warning one George Sanford, a settler, started out on a dog hunt. He had killed five hounds when one of the party coming upon him shot at him, the ball just grazing Sanford's temple. As the hunter hastened toward him Sanford rolled over and discharged a large load of buck shot in the hunter's knee injuring the whole lower part of the leg. The names of the hunters are not

It is reported that Mayor Grace, Chaun cey M. Depew. Judge Brady, Jesse Selig- even the whole turkey be suddenly landed man and about 50 other prominent citizens, in the lap of the dear young maiden who man and about 50 other prominent citizens acted as a committee to arrange for a concert that was given in Steinway hall, New York, Nov. 11, for the benefit of the Michigan fire sufferers. The following artists volunteerily participated: Mme. Jennie Claus, violinist; S. B. Mills, pianist; the Philharmonic Quintet, and Mme. Fleuri, elocutionist. The Messrs. Steinway gave the use of the hall for the entertainment. the use of the hall for the entertainment. Samuel T. Colville, J. H. Haverly and P. S. Gilmore will each give one or two performances soon, the receipts to go to the Michigan sufferers.

The Brighton Citizen is responsible the following story: "The order of Knights I'm thankful I ain't a girl. Girls can't of Pythias at Bay City, had a strange ad-slide down cellar doors, or hitch on, or venture, not long since. A young and pre-possessing looking clerk in one of the large clothing stores in that city, petitioned the order for admission, and was elected. He boxed. took the first and second degrees, with some I'm t reluctance, one of his employers a young member of the firm with whom the young clerk was a great favorite being very solicitude of the snow and thawing out the pencitous for him to do so. He was still more stock. reluctance, one of his employers a young member of the firm with whom the young eluctant to take the third degree but was I'm thankful I'm not in the grave, where finally prevailed upon to do so, and had got nearly through the ceremony when the members found they had initiated and passed on the higher degrees of the order, a young lady. The lady fainted when her sex was discovered, and had to be conveyed to her boarding house, where a physician attended her. She still remains in Bay we are a little off on finances this year. City and it is rumored will marry the junior member of the firm, all of which is strange

History of the Tomato.

A good many years ago a man who had recently arrived from the Bermuda Islands was sent to York county, Pennsylvania, jail for some offense committed against the laws of the commonwealth. He had with him a few seeds, which he planted in the thankful it didn't hit her in the head. I rich soil of the jail yard. Before the plants found a dog and sold him for a pair of which sprang from the seeds reached matu-rity he was discharged, and no one knew hide it when I went to bed, and ma never rity he was discharged, and no one knew the name or nature of them. They grew luxuriantly, bearing fruit of a large size and unusual appearance. As this strange fruit ripened, its color changed from green to a brilliant red, and became an object of was blowed sky high with gunpowder. A fested with rats, and he was greatly annoyed by their depredations. They had been to a brilliant red, and became an object of wonder and admiration to all the immates of the jail. Mrs. Kliuefelter, the lady keeper, cautioned all the prisoners against eating any of the fruit, as she was sure it was points. Was blowed sky lingh with gunpowder. A boy in Cleveland swallered pizen. A boy in Syracuse got burnt up. A boy in St. Louis got in fron't of a cannon.

You bet I'm thankful! I kinder wish I any of the fruit, as she was sure it was poisonous, and besides she had promised the Just when the fruit was fully matured, the Bermuda prisoner revisited the jail and asked to see the plant. This request was granted, he next called for pepper, salt and vinegar, and to the horror of the good lady commenced to eat of the supposed poison-ous fruit with a relish that astonished the beholders. After enjoying the strange repast, he informed the lady that the fruit or

The Ann Arbor Courien

ADVERTISING BATES. SPACE. | 1 w. | 2 w. | 4 w. | 8 m. | 6 m. | 1 yr. squares....... 1 50 2 00 3 50 7 50 10 00 15 00

Business cards, $10 per year—six months, $7—three months, $5. Advertisements occupying any special place or peculiarly displayed, will be charged a price and a third.

and a third.

Marriage and death notices free.

Non-residents are required to pay quarterly in advance. On all sums less than $10, all in advance. Advertisements that have the least indelicate tendency, and all of the one-dollara-grab jewelry advertisements, are absolutely excluded from our columns.

Only All-Metal Cuts Inserted.

JOB PRINTING.

We have the most complete job office in the State, or in the Northwest, which enables us to print books, pamphlets, posters, programmes, bill-heads, circulars, cards, etc., in superior style, upon the shortest notice.

BOOK-BINDING. Connected with THE COURIER office is an extensive book-bindery, employing competent hands. All kinds of records, ledgers, journals, magazines, ladies' books, Rurals, and Harper's Weeklies, etc., bound on the shortest notice and in the most substantial manner, at reasonable prices. Musicespecially bound more tastefully than at any other bindery in Michigan.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

Thanksgiving. Ingham Co. News: We hope that in the midst of the festivities of the day, our citizens will remember the poor in our midst, and from the over-flowings of the well-sup-ing cheer. Three Rivers Tribune: Judging from the size of the audience at the thanksgiving services, the citizens of Three Rivers are a thankless crowd, not over one in 30 of the population hearkened to the injunction of the speaker. Adrian Times: On Thanksgiving day a colored woman, a great big one too, sat in the same pew, in a Washington church with President Arthur and his sister. Now, what do the bourbon "nigger haters" propose to do about it? Lansing Republican: The inmates of the reform school in this city, the State public school at Coldwater, and many other charitable institutions on Thanksgiving day sadly missed the generous contributions and cheering words of the late ex-Gover-nor John J. Bagley.

Eaton Rapids Journal: Thanksgiving turkey and the usual accompaniments so demoralized this office, yesterday, that we The basket factory of Muskegon has an order of one million butter plates from New Orleans. It is about a million and a half to $28.34, to which was added $23.85 from the "Land of Nod" fund, making a total of Marine City Reporter: Then let the charity of the day not stop at home but tet those who have no reason for thankfulness gaze upon the silver lining of the cloud that surrounds them as the result of your The Alpena Reporter of the 19th uncomes to us in mourning. Its late editor, Johnson A. Corbin, died on the 13th of Nov. He had been seriously sick but a few a commodity so cheap why distribute it sparingly? Grand Haven Herald: The John Bean in trying to make the harbor Sunday night struck the north pier, swung around it and > from her around the pier and a tug pulled her out of her dangerous position, all of which is the reason why her captain was so thankful yesterday. Hastings Banner: He who can be thankful to-morrow for his own and his friends prosperity, may with great good grace make his needy neighbor rejoice as much thereat as he himself possibly can. While we dine on turkey it is not fair to allow some in our midst to feast on faith. The

Cassopolis Vigilant: Notwithstanding the assassination of President Garfield, the treason of MacVeagh, the Western floods and Eastern drouths, the horrible devastapox and diphtheria and the prospective visitation of Asiatic cholera, we are officially notified by President Arthur and Gov-ernor Jerome to give thanks to-day—that Ovid Register: It is fitting then, at the proper season, in avowal of our secret hopes, we lift our hearts in uttered gratitude to the Being that loves to hear glad tidings from mankind. And what can be a more graceful sign of winning courtesy and cheery good will toward our fellow men than to offer up the fragrant incense of heartfelt thanks in fellowship with the common brotherhood of a common land? Lansing Republican: Of course everybody was thankful, but it will take fully a week for many a poor overloaded stomach to regain its normal condition. Turkey and cranberry sauce, mince pie, potatoes, oysters, preserves, pickles, rich cake, candy, nuts, tea, coffee, and about 40 other things, too numerous to mention, which go to make up a first-class Thanksgiving dinner, are a fearful array for a poor, weak stomach to contemplate.

Tuscola Co. Pioneer: Be thankful that you are not the young man who to-day for tne first time sits at the head of the table and carves. In a frantic effort to find some hidden joint, should a wing, or a limb, or even the whole turkey be suddenly landed

A Boy's Thanksgiving. I believe a boy can be as thankful on Thanksgiving Day as a man, if he tries awful hard. Some boys are too mean to try, and they generally die off in the spring.

I'm thankful I ain't a girl. Girls can't throw snow-balls worth a cent. They can't take bumps like boys, and if they roll off a sled and their mothers find it out they get I'm thankful that dad is still alive. When

We're going to have chicken and mashed taters and pickles, and them's good enough for us. I'm going to pass my plate twice, whether it's fashionable or not. I think a boy with half a chicken in him feels more tony than the boy who didn't get anything but the neck.

The more I think of it the more I see to be thankful for. I fell into the river twice last summer, and didn't stay there either time. I fooled with dad's revolver, and sent found it out. I guess I'll put that in among sonous, and besides she had promised the man who planted the seed that she would endeavor to preserve specimens of it for him should he return in time.

Just when the form of the form of the content of run any boy I can't lick.—Detroit Free

> No spectacle can be more sad or heartsickening than that of a man or woman who is the slave of passion or appetite, who avoids every form of self-denial, who is devoted to pleasure and abhors duty. Whatever be the condition of such a person, whether he be rich or poor, learned or ignorant, coarse or refined, he is but a pitiable specimen of dwarfed humanity.

Mechanics, Manufacturers, Farmers, and Families generally. 60 THE PART AND

Congress assembles next Monday.

for bonds for redemption. It is in point of number the 106th call. There are several candidates for speakership of the House in the field. Hiscock,

Secretary Folger has issued his first call

Keifer and Kasson are among the most

GUITEAU THE RESPONSIBLE.

The trial of an assassin has probably never before attracted the attention of the civilized world to such an extent as has the serio-comic farce that is now going on at ive course. He will use the enormous Washington. There seems to be no possible way of keeping the prisoner quiet. He does more talking than all the counsel and witnesses -put together. There is no proof in all of his antics that he is insane. "There is reason in his madness," as every remark shows. All testimony that is detrimental to his case, he at once pronounces false. It is reasonable to suppose that the witnesses are sane men and that their testimony under oath can be relied upon. Still the prisoner is allowed to insult them and even give them the lie in the very presence of the Court. The Court itself is corrected and interrupted in a very undignified and offensive manner. London papers are inclined to sneer at the proceedings and to claim that it would be unpardonable leniency to allow the assassin to escape the gallows. The divorced wife of Guiteau will be a witness in the trial, and Their longest day's journey was 59 miles the prisoner has threatened, in open court, and the shortest 18 miles. The average to riddle her character if she testifies againt | daily expenditure for both was $2.69, and him. Is this insanity? Is it justice to allow the total expense for repairs was 60 cents. a prisoner to browbeat or intimidate a witness in this manner? If this cold-blooded assassin escapes his just deserts it will be an endless stain upon the good name of a justice loving people. The prisoner shows that he is responsible and should be so held by the courts. We do not take this stand through any feeling of revenge, but in his shot at Guiteau should take a course sincerely believe that it is for the safety of lessons under Dr. Craver, and the govthe people that this wretch should be made | ernment ought to pay all the expense. If an example of warning to other would-be Secretary Blaine has any qualms of con-

THE TRIAL.

Last Friday was the tenth day of the trial. Upon the opening of the court Mr. Scoville stated that Guiteau had a statement to make and the court permitted the prisoner to speak. He arose and read from manuscript as follows:

manuscript as follows:

"I propose to have all the facts bearing on this case go to the court and jury, and to do this I have been forced to interrupt the counset and witnesses, who were mistaken as to supposed facts. I mean no discourtesy to them or to any one. Any fact in my career bearing on the question who fired that shot, the Delty or myself, is of vital importance in this case, and I propose that it go to the jury; hence my personal, political and theological record may be developed. I am glad that your Honor and the opposing counsel are disposed to give a historical review of my life, and I ask the press and public to do likewise. All I want is absolute justice, and I shall not permit any crooked work. They are often mistaken on supposed facts, and I shall have to correct them. Last spring certain newspapers in New York and Washington were bitterly denouncing the President for breaking up the Republican party by unproper appointments. I would like those newspapers to reprint those editorials now and see how they would look and sound. In attempting to remove the President I only did what the papers said ought to be done. Since July 2 they have been defying the President to share with me the odium of his death. I never would have shothim of my way ny very vigitation. resident to share with me the odium of his teath. I never would have shot him of my lown violation, notwithstanding those newspapers, if I had not been commissioned by the beity to do the deed; but that fact does not elieve the newspapers from the supposed discrace of the President's removal. If he had seen properly treated he would have been alive o-day. It has been published that I am in ear of death. It is false. I have always been a eligious man and an active worker for God. some people think that I am a murderer, but he Lord does not, for he inspired the act, as n the case of Abraham and a score of other ases in the Bible. The assault made upon me aturday last by a 'crank' has been condemed by the press. The eyes of the civilized world re watching this case, and it behoves this ourt and the Metropolitan Police to protect ne at all hazards. I hereby warn 'cranks,' of high or low degree, to keep away from me, under the penalty of instant death. He would have been shot dead Saturday but for the rearning of the horses in the van as the officer was hooting. The horses shook the van so he lost his aim, and though the van pursued him he emporarily escaped. I waste my arguments n' cranks.' All they can see in this case is a oliceman's revolver. Again I say, if they value her lives they must keep away from me. I estre the court and jury to dispose of this case, and the facts and iaw and leave all responsibility about it to the verdict."

The witnesses examined on Friday were John A. Logan, Joseph B. Smith, of Free port Ill.; E. O. Foss, Chas. H. Reed, of Chicago, who testified as to Guiteau's career as a lawyer; H. B. Amerling, of Williamsport, Pa.; and Thomas Worth, a lawin the same direction, namely, that the mind to be well balanced enough to make sponsibility. him responsible for his acts. At the first insane when he was attending school here because, as he thought, at some period of try and our laws, it may not prevail. his life the prisoner had voluntarily surcome there to testify for him "with ordi- egotistic fool by shooting him. nary force, as a brother usually does come.' In answer to the question as to what he meant by saying that his brother was pos- Washington. The counsel for the defense sessed of a demon or devil the witness bases his case all upon the insanity of the gave his religious theory as follows:

A.— The religious theory as follows:

A.— The religious theory is there are two five devil and one under Satan, or the devil and one under God, or Jesus Christ. My father held the view that there were living in the world those who were seized of the devil or of Satan, and of Ghrist, or God. He believed these two forces at war one with the other, and that at present and since the fall of man and Satan had to a great extent the dominion of the earth, and possessed himself of all those how were not absolute believers in the Lord Jesus Christ as Sayior, and who had not been saved from the power of sin by complete union with Lord and Savior Jesus Christ: that all evil, all disobedience, all deformity, all infirmity were the result of sin on the admission of those who had a free will teat they were under the dominion of Satan or the evil spirit, or of evil nature. That was my father's theological view; it was my brother's, and it is mine, and so believed as my brother had a free will to choose good or evil, he must have through his evil; through his williuness, through his subborness; through his perversity of nature allowed Satan to gain such conrough his evil, through his willfulness, rough his stubborness, through his perver, you nature allowed Satan to gain such conditions of the state one on which I based yopinion that my brother was morally responsible to God, but perhaps not responsible cording to human or legal responsibility, begin in one sense insane."

roam at large?

Three Rivers Tribune: The country will not be satisfied with the plea of insanity as a reason for not hanging Guiteau. Sane or insane, hang him, is the sentiment that his honest testimony unprejudiced by ties | watching his trial with interest. of relationship. After examining a couple

The testimony on Tuesday amounted to very little. The prisoner was called to the was blamed by the popular voice for poor witness stand but was let off on the plea of marksmanship rather than for unsoldiernot feeling well. He seemed to enjoy the idea of being allowed to talk all he wanted to. The prisoner was continued on the best wishes of thousands for his estable assassin to show goods whether to show goods whether to show goods whether stand on Wednesday. The manner in which he told the story of his life and wanderings has done more to turn public opinion proposes to prove Guiteau's insanity by against him than anything else that could showing that his father was not a man of have been done. His memory is extremely | well balanced intellect, that his two uncles good and he has himself proved himself sane. Still he sticks to the idea that he was inspired to remove the President and claims that he was not influenced by the fact that he did not get a government apfact that he did not get a government apposible.

were insane, and that two admits also did.

crazy, and both these aunts had insane children. If they prove all this, the sooner Guiteau is hung the better; it wouldn't be safe to leave him alive. That sort of breed of humanity ought to run out as soon as possible.

SSO A MONTH

Made selling my Novelties, needed in every house an agent wanted in Ann Arbor, and one for the county. Address W. B. ALLISON.

1001-70 good and he has himself proved himself were insane, and that two aunts also died

NOTES EDITORIAL.

Mrs. Abraham Lincoln is said to have saved $5,000 from her income since returnng from Europe about a year and a half

The young English princes, sons of the Prince of Wales, were guests of the Japanese Government for several days the first of this month. It will be remembered that they are serving on board of an English naval vessel.

It is reported that 800 converts to mormonism have been made in Georgia within the past two years. Some of these have returned and are said to be poorer and wiser men. The state papers are calling upon the government to drive Mormon missionaries out of the State.

Secretary of the Treasury Folger it is reported will assume a bold and even aggresssurplus fund locked up in the treasury vaults to liquidate as much of the public debt as possible. From $30,000,000 to $50,-000,000 can be thus used now. His plan is to go into the market and buy government

Thanksgiving was the biggest day yet at the Atlanta Exposition. Since its opening 19,320 persons registered at the turn-stiles among whom were 8,600 college students. This exposition has met with the greatest to the taking of human life.' possible success. Every Southern State is sending her people to see it. The benefits that will accrue to the South from this can not be estimated.

The Rev. Arthur Edwards, editor of the accompanied by his son, wheeled over 1,200 | ber 19, 1881, as follows: miles of Great Britain and the continent

GUIFEAU.

How the State Press Sympathizes with

Hastings Banner: The fellow who made such a poor exhibition of marksmanship science in the matter we'll head a subscrip Tuscola County Pioneer: The tardy and uncertain meeting out of justice in the courts, to the depraved assassin of the president, doubtless arouses this spirit of revenge in the public mind. If there was a feeling of certainty that crime would be promptly and certainly punished as it desons taking the work in hand. Lynch law prevalence of bronchitis, pneumonia, inis to be deprecated; but it usually grows fluenza, and diarrhea; and a marked deout of a lack of confidence in the prompt crease in that of typhoid fever. Small-pox and certain dispensation of justice in the (one case) was reported at Harbor Springs.

tinctly understood that he was insane when ham township, and one death from smallhe shot Garfield, hence should not be pun- pox in Kasson township, Leeland county, ished; but that the man who shot him the and that the disease is present in Elk other day is sane he does not doubt, and Rapids. Antrim county.

has been shown by his remarkable perform ance in court. The possibility that the poor fool is not responsible for his behavior keeps one from impatience over the fact that the officers treated him decently. and did not welt him over the head with a club until he learned to keep his mouth

Deaf-Mute Mirror. As Guiteau was be ing moved from the court house to the prison last Saturday, a man rode up to the van on horse-back and fired a revolver at him. He was not hurt much, merely receiving a scratch on the wrist, but he was as badly scared as though he had been shot | December 3rd. through the heart. Perhaps if the thing is kept up some one may be able to scare him kept up some one may be able to scare him to death after a while. He ought to be got rid of in some way.

Grand Haven Herald: Probably the Grand Haven Herald: Probably the American press never found itself so unanimous as in its pronouncement upon the guilt of this assassin. Occupying such various points of observation it would not be strange if diversities of opinion should be strange if diversities opinion should be strange if diversities opinion should be strange if diversities opi yer of Chicago. The testimony all tends appear. But such indifferences do not appear. The conviction seems universal that prisoner has not a well balanced mind, but however badly deranged he may be, he is every action of the criminal proves his not so deranged as to shield him from re-

Leelanau Enterprise: This, to the uninitiated, looks like a stupendous farce, and his mind on the Beecher question. Guteau's one cannot fail to detect an inherent weaksister, Mrs. Scoville, was the principal wit- ness in our constitutional laws, when the ness on the eleventh day of the trial. She head and representative of a free governtestified that she pronounced the prisoner ment can be cut down without a moment's notice by a dirty clown who is not worth at Ann Arbor. Her testimony was inter- the powder it would take to blow him into rupted by the adjournment of court. She eternity, the government, during the incontinued her testimony on Monday and terim of anguish preceding the death of followed by C. S. Jocelyn of the Onedia of the victim, furnishing immunity and head Germantown Mohairs, for which we followed by C. S. Jocelyn of the Onedia of the victim, furnishing immunity and community. He thought that Guiteau's the best of board to the dirty dog marked characteristic was intense egotism. | and furnishing him with money for his de-Jno. W. Guiteau was the next witness. fense. The plea of insanity is the thinnest Though a brother of the prisoner, he did dodge that was ever interposed between a not hesitate to testify that he believed him murderer and even handed justice, and we responsible but not sane. "Responsible, sincerely hope, for the honor of our cour

Adrian Times: The Guiteau trial i rendered himself to evil practices rather sorely trying the patience of the country. than good: The prisoner was very much | The conviction is gaining ground that the put out with this statement and expressed result will be an assertion of insanity, and t as his opinion that the witness did not then some man will put an end to the

Fenton Independent: The trial of the assassin Guiteau still progresses slowly in accused, with little chance of his showing

Three Rivers Tribune: The country will Silver Ware, n one sense insane."
Prisoner— You have that thing wrong finds almost universal expression. He has sense enough to know what it all means, as It is very evident that the witness gave has many another worthless crank that is

Litchfield Gazette: Guiteau says he will more witnesses, the court adjourned until lecture after his trial. Presume that the devil will not charge him any hall rent. Cassopolis Vigilant: Sergeant Mason

Montcalm Herald: Guiteau's counsel

WHAT IS INSANITY?

The Inter Ocean, Nov. 28th, says: "Several years ago, when an insane man fired at Queen Victoria, the British House of Lords, sitting as a court, defined the grounds of insanity in relation to the crime murder as follows:

"We are of the opinion that notwithstanding the party did the act complained of with a view, under the influence of insane dilusion, of redressing or revenging some supposed grievance or injury, or of producing some public benefit, he is nevertheless punishable according to the nature of the crime committed, if he knew at the time he was committing such crime that he was acting contrary to law." "This has a direct bearing upon the Guiteau case, as do also the principles laid down by the Supreme Court of the State of New York, as follows: 'The law does not recognize a form of insanity in which the capacity of distinguishing right from wrong exists, without the power of choosing between hem,

"That species of frenzy which is induced by violer assion, unless settled down into a state of total de angement, will not excuse the commission of crime.

To acquit on the ground of insanity, it is not enough that there be a doubt as to the prisoner's sanity; his insanity must be affirmatively established.
To establish the defense of insanity, it must be shown that the prisoner, at the time of committing the crime, was so far deprived of reason as to destroy the consciousness of the distinction between right and wrong, in reference to the act charged.

The large way little doubt that Mr. Soo.

"There is very little doubt that Mr. Scoville, in case Guiteau is convicted, should carry up the case to a higher court, and, perhaps, it is important that he should do so, in order that the highest judicial authority in the land may fix the degree of responsibility, and draw the line at which

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the State Board of Health, Lansing, by fifty observers of diseases in Chicago Christian Advocate, has returned different parts of the state, show causes of from his European bicycle tour, having, sickness during the week ending Novem-

Diseases, in order of greatest	Number and per cent of observers by whom each disease was reported.
AREA OF PREVALENCE.	Number.	Per Cent
I Intermittent Fever (Ague)	41	82
2 Rheumatism	38	76
3 Neuralgia	34	68
4 Consumption, of Lungs	33	66
5 Bronchitis	32	64
6 Typho-malarial Fever	31	62
7 Remittent Fever	25	50
8 Tonsilitis	25 25	50
9 Diarrhea	23	50
10 Pneumonia	22	46
11 Influenza	21	44
12 Diphtheria	11	42
13 Erystpelas	8	22
14 Typhoid Fever (Enteric)	7	16
15 Scarlet Fever	6	14
16 Whooping-cough	6	12
17 Inflammation of Bowels		12
18 Cholera Morbus	4	10
19 Dysentery	4	8
20 Membranous Croup	3	8
21 Cholera Infantum		6
22 Inflammation of Brain	3	6
23 Puerperal Fever	2	6
24 Measles	2	4
25 Cerebro-spinal Meningitis	1	4
26 Continued Fever	1	2
27 Diphtheritic Paralysis		2
27 Pharyngitis	1	2
28 Small-pox	1	2
29 Catarrh	1	2
29 Laryr gitis		2 2
30 Spasmodic c oup	1	2

For the week ending November 19, there is a considerable increase in the area of Special reports state there have been 33 cases of small-pox, with 18 deaths in Bing-

HENRY B. BAKER,

See C. Bliss & Son's new advertisement in another column. Black and Colored Silks, the richest goods J. J. GOODYEAR'S in the city at Wines and Worden's. Read D. F. Schairer's Holiday Adver-

tal faculty is prepared to see any wishing his services at his office, No. 13 S. Main street. Hours, 8 to 12 a.m. and 5 to 6 pm. Saturdays, all day. 1064-67

A full assortment of Silk Plushes, Bro-cades and Velvets in Black and all the new shades at Wines and Worden's. Our stock of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Mats, Matting, Crumb Cloths, etc., is al-ways full and prices the lowest.

Ladies! Don't fail to attend D. F. Schairer's Grand Holiday Opening, Saturday,

Those desiring a nurse for the sick, will

The best, cheapest and largest variety of Bleached and Brown Damask Table Lin-

Cloaks cheap at Wines & Worden's.

It will pay to see Wines & Worden's enormous stock of Ladies' and Children's Gloves and Hosiery; the best in the city. The Fonillion French Kid Glove is the best Kid now in market. A complete assortment of this beautiful Kid always in stock. Also the best $1.00 Kid in the city WINES & WORDEN. In Wines and Worden's stock of Dress Goods you can find Black and Colored Cashmeres, Cashmere Plaids, Roman Stripes, have the exclusive sale in this city.

a complete variety of the celebrated Man-chester Malanges and Cashmeres. Ladies in need of Mourning Goods will find it to their interest to see our assort-ment of Bombazines, Australian Crape, Crape de Lion, and all grades of the wellknown Courtland English Crapes. WINES & WORDEN.

To purchase your

Holiday Goods,

If so we can show you the largest stock of Ladies and Gents

WATCHES

JEWELRY,

Opera Glasses. Clocks and

Fancy Goods, We have ever carried,

the Holidays.

bought expressly for

C. BLISS & SON.

you purchase or not.

NO. 11 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ANN ARBOR.

THE DETROIT

The Leading Newspaper of Michigan.

RADICALLY AND CONSISTENTLY REPUBLICAN.

The Detrioit Post and Tribune has an established reputation as one of the leading newspapers in the great North-west, and in the foremost exponent of Republican principles in Michigan. During the coming year no effort will be spared to mantian its proud pre-eminence. The year will be one of great commercial and political activity, and the paper should be read in every family in the state.

The news department of The Post AND PRIBUNE will be especially full and complete. Its large force of state correspondents, its special representatives in New York, Washington, Chicago and other news centres of the county, and its large and well-organized force in the home office, leave it without a rival in Michigan in its facilities for gathering and presenting the news of the day, whether local, state or national.

in Michigan in its facilities for gathering and presenting the news of the day, whether local, state or national.

By the railroad construction of the present year the different sections of Michigan are more closely linked than ever before. It will be the aim of The Post and Tribune to furnish full and timely information of all industrial movements, and of all material progress made in every portion of the state.

The editorial page of the paper will keep abreast of the events of the day, and will discuss with candor and with the best information that can be obtained from every available source, all issues suggested by current events. It will support zealously the principle of the Republican party, and will aid to the utmost of its ability in securing a pure, honest and economical administration of public affairs.

Its commercial reports have been recently extended and will be kept full and accurate.

In its miscellaneous department it will furnish the choicest of reading matter, both in prose and verse, original and selected. It will be kept pure in character, elevated in tone and in sympathy with the best moral sentiment in the community.

For the rural and village community The Weekly Post And Tribune is especially valuable. The Letter Box furnishes in the course of a year a vast amount of valuable information on immense variety of topics. The Hearth and Hall furnishes an admirable medium for exchanging views upon home subjects. The Abricultural Department and Farmer's Letter Box, which have recently been enlarged in their scope, are invaluable to all tillers of the seil. In short, no effort or expense will be spared in making The Post and Tribunes the most attractive, best arranged and most complete FAMILY NEWSPAPER ever published in Michigan, a state, the sterling worth of whose people it admires and in whose progress and prosperity it has shared.

TERMS:

Per Six Three annum. months.

THE WEEKLY POST AND THIBUNE will be sent on trial to new subscribers three months for 25 cents. This offer is intended to introduce the paper to readers unacquainted with its merits, and no one now taking the paper can take advantage of the offer, which applies only to new subscribers.

All postage prepaid. Specimen copies free. Remittance may be eent at our risk by drafts on Detroit banks, money orders or in registered letters. Eight Hundred Dollars in Premiums to THE POST AND TRIBUNE,

EVERYTHING NEW

CLEAN AND NEAT AT

NEW

One of the freshest, finest, largest and best stocks

Drugs and Medicines, Wines and Liquors, And all other goods kept in a first-class drug store to be found in the city of Ann Arbor.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Accurately and carefully prepared at all hours of the day or night. We give this our especial attention CALL AND SEE US.

J. J. GOODYEAR,

NO. 5 SOUTH MAIN STREET. Estate of Sarah A. Renwick.

CITATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw. 81 At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Friday, the 25th day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one. Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah A. Renwick deceased. Temperance Renwick, the administratiry of said estate comes into court and represents that she is now prepared to render has finely account as such administratiry. shels now prepared to render her anal account as such administratrix.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Saturday, the 17th day of December next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed. And it is further ordered, that said administratrix give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said account, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county, two successive weeks previous to said day of hearing. (A true copy.)

WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN.

Judge of Probate.

WM. G. DOTY, Probate Register. 1067 69

Estate of John Henley.

CTATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one. Present, William D. Harriman, Judge eased died setzed.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Thursday, the twenty inth day of December, next, at ten o'clock in the renoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petion, and that the heirs at law of said deceased. tition, and that the heirs at law of said decased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the city of An Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted And it is further ordered, that said petitioner givenotice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive week revious to said day of hearing. (A true copy.)

WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN,

Judge of Probate.

WM. G. DOTY, Probate Register. 1067-70

Mortgage Sale.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT having been made in the conditions of a certain indenture of mortgage executed by Hughey McLaughlin and Mary Ann McLaughlin, his wife, of Sylvan, Washtenaw county Michigan, to Rice A. Beal, bearing date the Twenty-Third day of May, A. D., 1878, and recorded in the office of register of deeds for the county of Washtenaw, in the state of Michigan, on the twenty third day of May A. D., 1878, in liber 56 of mortgages, on page 324, by which the power of sale contained therein has become operative, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due on the 23d day of May, A. D., 1881, two yearly installments of interest on said principal sum, being $414, together with an attorney's fee of $30, provided for in said mortgage, in all the sum of four hundred and forty-four dollars ($444), and no proceedings having been instituted to recover said sum or any part thereof. Notice therefore is hereby given, that on Friday, the 18th day of January A. D., 1882, at 10 o'clock in the foremoon, at the east front door of the court house, in the city of Ann Arbor, in the said county of Washtenaw, said mortgage will be foreclosed by virtue of the power of sale therein contained, by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the mortgaged premise described in said mortgage, or so much thereof a may be sufficient to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage, viz: The south-east quarter (½) of the south-west quarter (½) of section thirty-five (35) it township one (No. 1) south of range three (3) eas in the township of Lyndon. Also the north part (the north-west fractional quarter of section two it the north-west fractional quarter of section two it. and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the north-east corner of said section three, running thence west on the north line of said section about seventy rods, thence south parallel with the east line far enough to include within a line drawn east parallel with the north line of said section to the east line of said section, thence east to section line, and thence north to the plac of beginning, being in all one hundred and sixty-eight and 28-100 acres of land more or less. more or less.
Dated, October 21st, 1881.
R. A. BEAL,
Morts

SAWYER & KNOWLTON, Attorneys for Mortgagee.

All kinds of printing and job work will be done at THE COURIER office in better style and at cheaper rates than at any other house.

GREAT

AND

READ!

AND REMEMBER THAT MY

SPECIAL HOSIERY SALE

COMMENCED

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, '81

AND WILL CONTINUE FOR TEN DAYS.

I INVITE ALL TO ATTEND THIS GREAT SALE!

WOOLEN SOCKS FROM 25 CENTS UP.

CLOTHING

——AT——

GREADURY REMOUDED PRICES

The stock must be sold out by

January 1, as it is my intention of refitting over my establishment exclusively for

MERCHANT TAILORING

All those desiring GENUINE

BARGAINS will do well by selves.

No. 9 Main St., Ann Arbor.

I will sell my entire stock of

READY-MADE

HOSIERY JOE T. JACOBS,

THE CLOTHIER,

ANN ARBOR

READ!

CREAT EXCITEMENT

-AT THE-

CASH DRY GOODS HOUSE

OF BACH & ABEL.

Everybody, old and young, rushing to examine their new fall goods. The arrival of new purchases at our great establishment has eclipsed those of every other occasion. The eastern markets have been thoroughly searched and a greater quantity of excellency in Dry Goods secured for our sales than ever before.

We are acknowledged as the LEADING HOUSE FOR FINE GOODS calling and judging for them- AND RICH NOVELTIES in every department. Our stock was never in such good condition to maintain our reputation as it is at the present

We shall make prices so low that parties will not find it necessary LITTLE MACK, to go to Detroit to purchase, as we have No COMPETITORS HERE IN PRICE, QUANTITY OR STYLE.

Our ability to please the community, without exception, is unlim-BACH & ABEL.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 3

Is the Day, and the Place.

D. F. SCHAIRER'S

POPULAR

CASH STORE

VAST AND IMPOSING EXHIBITION OF

Displayed in Every Department, and calculated to interest, amuse and delight beliensed to sell the real estate whereof said decased ded seized.

Therewere it is ordered that Thursday, the twenty. old and young alike.

THOUSANDS OF TEMPTATIONS!

A Tremendous Lot of Useful Toys, Articles for Ornament, and Useful Necessities. We are going to sell them

MEASUNSING

Our Windows and various portions of our Store will be filled with Novelties. Special Counters

AT 10 AND 15 CENTS

Many goods worth double the money. Grand Evening Sales. Store open until 9 P. M. All are invited.

D. F. SCHAIRER.

No. 4 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

KOCH & HALLER,

52 SOUTH MAIN AND 4 WEST LIBERTY ST.. MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN

PEROPER PROPERTY

UPHOLSTERY COODS,

FANCY CABINET WARE,

MATTRESSES, SPRING-BEDS, ETC.

Come and see our stock, which is large and more complete than it has ever been before since we opened up. Most of our parlor goods we make ourselves thus saving you the jobber's profit, besides giving you better work. We make anything to order, from the smallest foot-stool to the finest Turkish suit.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

We also pay particular attention to all special orders in cabinet-work.

Respectfully,

KOCH & HALLER.

CENTLE MEN

Who want a suit of clothes or any other garment gotten up with taste in the lastest style with elegant trimmings will consult their own interest, by going to

Where they have more fine English, French, Scotch, German and Domestic goods, to select from, than all other houses in Washtenaw County combined. Our goods were all selected in May, while jobbers stocks were complete with all the novelties of the season. No. 11 S. Main St.

p. m. Jackson Mail and Way Mail between Jack-son and Ann Arbor distributed at 11:15 a. m. Monroe and Adrian pouch, 10:00 s. m.

GOING NORTH.

Travelers' Guide.

Trains arrive and depart from the Micnigan Central Depot in this city as follows: TRAINS EAST.

Kalamazoo Accommoda Grand Rapids Express... Day Express. Day Express......... Frand Rapids Express. Local Passenger. 5.59 a. in.
All trains are run by Chicago time, which is fi teen minutes slower than Ann Arbor time.

Friends of The Courier, who have business at the Probate Court, will picase request Judge Harriman to send their Printing to this office.

LOCAL.

Thanks for wedding cake received. Annie Louise Cary at University Hall to-

There was skating on certain ponds on Thanksgiving day.

Wood is coming into town lively this piano recital in Detroit. week, and there is a great demand for it.

River bridge at Swift's mill on Tuesday

Mark Wade, traveling passenger agent for the Grand Trunk railway, was in the city last Tuesday.

agency for the Columbia bicycle. They intend to start a riding school soon. Several dollars worth of clothing were stolen from lines between Main street and the Park, on the night of the fire. Through the kind remembrance of Mr.

J. E. Field of Alpena, we have been enjoying a treat of very choice venison. The Fenten Independent is responsible Arbor attended a hop there Thanksgiving The Knights of Maccabees will meet next Monday night in Odd Fellows hall for the transaction of important business. A full attendance is desired. like the poor Indian himself finds the pro- | them. pensities for foul weather too strong for making much of a show. J. Hauser now sleeps in the engine house and has his teams in readiness to draw the steamer to fires, thus saving the boys many a long and wearisome pull.

As an instance of petty thieving, S. James had stolen from his carriage, during the first part of the week, a shawl at one time and a good whip at another.

$3.00 per cord at Chelsea, while it has been almost impossible to get the same article for $7.00 here during the past week.

A colored man, by the name of John Robinson, was severely injured last Wednesday, from being struck by a plank at Swift's mill, and knocked into the river.

The Hon. J. V. Campbell will deliver an address on the life and character of the late Dr. Williams in University Hall, on Sunday next, Dec. 4th, at 3 o'clock p. m. again, Charles H. Davis of this city went down to help them out. Three of the firm | Lohr. It goes by the name of Eintrachts are recovering from an attack of typhoid Verein, and will meet every Saturday. The Lansing Republican says, Geo, W. Knight of Ann Arbor, formerly principal of the high school in this city, ate his Thanksgiving turkey with his Lansing Mrs. S. Hinman was taken with a severe

McDowell. The Banker's Daughter troupe cancelled an engagement at Fenton to give a second entertainment here. The Fentonites don't seem to be very well pleased about the

there is considerable sickness in that neigh- over. The fire proved to be in the beer borhood, mostly from typhoid fever, There hall, and it was entirely consumed in a have been five deaths in that vicinity with- short time. This structure was built one in the past two months.

We received a copy of the action taken by the University Senate in regard to the death of ex-President Tappan too late for it in full next week.

Two weather doors have been erected in front of the St. James Hotel. This does not add much to the beauty of the street, however much it may add to the comfort of the inmates of the St. James.

Judging from the store windows we are inclined to the opinion that Christmas and New Years will euchre Thanksgiving's lone hand out of all claims to remembrance on the part of the juveniles of Ann Arbor.

Last evening Golden Rule Lodge F. and A. M. elected officers as follows: D.C. Fall, W. M.; C. H. Stowell, S. W.; Jas. B. Gott, J. W.; B. F. Watts, Treas.; N. D. Gates, Sec.; Jno. N. Gates, S. D.; G. Monroe, J. D.; Jas. Peacock, Tyler.

As the Holidays approach it should be remembered that the COURTER office is prepared to do anything in the printing or binding line. Music can be preserved only by being bound and we have a special binding for that class of material.

The members of the Ann Arbor Musical Society are requested to meet at J. R. Sage's music store, No. 4 Washington St, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. This not waiting to say good bye. We have will be the first meeting this year and the known young men to tell such stories when secretary requests a full attendance.

Poor master L. Davis reports 70 inmates nishing the University with quite a number of bodies. Tramps when healthy and strong are allowed to pass on, and find free

No. 127 was pulling out of the east switch, two cars in the middle of the train jumped hours, No great damage was done, how-

From the Lansing Republican we learn that Mrs. Scoville, sister of Guiteau, was once a pupil of the artist, Mrs. Laura E. Burr of Lansing. Mrs. Burr at that time was teaching a class at Ann Arbor, and Guiteau's sister lived with her aunt, Mrs.

On Monday evening next there will be a nusical at the residence of Dr. Frieze for the benefit of 'the Ladies' library. An essay on Beethoven will be read and music from that composer rendered an admission fee of fifteen cents will be charged. All

Fond parents should not censure their tardy

The class of boys that Mrs. M. L. Clark, nee Miss King, has taught in the M. E. Sunday School called on that lady on Wednesday night leaving a beautiful present as a token of the respect and kindly feeling with which they regard her and have listened to her teachings.

George Lutz and Miss Mary Clinton were y the Rev. Father Fierle. The wedding entertainment. took place at the residence of the bride's parents on Catherine street. Monday even ing the happy couple were treated to a grand old charivari.

The weekly recital of the A. A. School of Music will take place in the general lecture hall next Monday afternoon at the usual hour. The public are cordially invited. Miss Ida Belle Winchelll will repeat a portion of the programme of her late public

C. P. Russell, of Detroit, organized The first teams crossed the new Huron the following officers: W. C. T., J. A. lodge of I. O. G. T., Monday evening, with Buss; W. V. T., Miss M. Brown; W. Sec. P. D. Woodruff; W. Treas., C. Boylan Mrs. Johnson, the fortune teller, is mak- W. T. Sec., A. O. Crozier; W. I. G., Miss ing money now, the marriage season is at M. Sessions; W. O. G., James G. Price.

The Toledo, Ann Arbor & Grand Trunk railroad will have a new general superintendent after December 1st. M. D. Woodford is the man that has been appointed Wagner and Taylor have procured the to that position. He has heretofore held a similar position on the Fort Wayne & Jackson road, which he also will continue to

The first of the series of Civil Service lectures will be a lecture by Prof. C. K. Adams before the University Civil Service Society the law lecture room on Saturday evening next. His subject will be the "Civil Service of England, the Old and the New." these lectures are free and ever one is infor the statement that parties from Ann vited to attend.

Walter O'Brien of Ann Arbor town in M. C. R. R. to pass him near the city mills a few days ago was struck by the step of break one of his arms. He says that the sidents of Ann Arbor for quite a number Indian summer is on the war path, but cars came very near drawing him beneath of years but expect to make Detroit their Fraternity lodge F. and A. M. elected the following officers last Wednesday evening: W. M., Judge W. D. Harriman; S. W. C. B. Davison; J. W., Sed James; Treas. W. B. Smith, M. D.; Sec., Wm. Stimpson; S. D., C. J. Durheim; J. D., S. McLaren Tyler, Thos. Taylor.

Rev. Mr. Sunderland speaks next Sunday on the following subjects: Morning, "True Faith, or the Faith that really Saves Men." Bible class, (12 m.) "Has God made a Reve-Cord wood is reported to be selling at lation of Himself? and if so, in what form?" Evening, "The Genesis Legend of the manners have recommended them, will go cent utterances of Rev. O. B. Frothing- work.

There was a new German society organized last Saturday at the residence of the Rev. H. F. Belser. The purpose of the society is to assist the members in learning to talk and to read German. The society starts out with about twenty members, and with the following officers: President, E. a few days last week. The South Lyon Excelsior has appeared T. Lohr; vice-president, Victor Peters; secretary, E. Grieser; treasurer, Miss M.

The University Musical Society will render in University Hall on Friday evening, December 9th, the "Oratorio of Creation," by a grand chorus of about ninety voices. Mich. The soloist will be Miss Emma Hekle, of Chicago, soprano; Rechob Tandy, of Buffalo, tenor; Franz Remmertz, of New York, Iron Co. attack of erysipelas on Thursday of last basso, The people of Ann Arbor ought week, and lies in a critical condition at not to let the fact that this is given by the present. She is a daughter of Mrs. J. S. University Musical Society prejudice them against the entertainment, but their should be a large audience to listen to this con-

Wednesday morning at a quarter before three o'clock, fire was discovered in the direction of Relief Park. An alarm was sounded but owing to the scarcity of water Rev. Mr. Shank of Dixboro reports that in that place, the fire company did not go year ago last spring at a cost of $700, and was insured for $300. At the time of the fire there were stored in the building a number of lamps used for illuminating the publication this week. We will publish grove, also a large can of kerosene oil was in the house. This aided in making a very bright light.

Company A intends to fit up her new hall so that it will be the finest armory in the State. There will be at the east end three rooms; a ladies' waiting room, a gentlemen's dressing room and a store room. Both rooms will be supplied with warm cold water. The musical instruments when not in use will be kept in the store room. There will be thirty-nine closets on the north side, each large enough to accommodate two men. The guns will be kept in racks made for that purpose and placed in the south part of the hall arranged in a cir- 30th. This time he came for the purpose all children until it is know whether they cle. It will be heated by steam and will suing year and such other business as may the presents were displayed. These were of the zinc sulphate and two ounces of 1064-68

A young lady residing on Liberty street visited Detroit recently to make some purchases. While roaming about the streets "seeing the sights," her attention was attracted by a fine display of candies and nuts in a window. Desiring to purchase some of the sweetmeats she entered and found herself in the midst of a lot of topers and in a saloon. She turned and bolted into the street leaving the door open and ingly, as much as to say "we understand." bride appea fore.

jects will be discussed: The Coming Bee- ents. The China ware was beautiful. We east, and the Day express west, about four Prof. Steere, University of Michigan; spun by Elizabeth Rawson, the great great-Blacks vs. Italians-O. Douglass, Livingstone county; Uniting Bees-N. A. Prud-Bodwell, Ann Arbor; Cypron Bees-Chas. Davis, Chelsea, and Wintering Bees-J. H.

The next entertainment in University Hall will be given by Annie Louise Cary assisted by the Boston Temple Quartet. Miss Cary's powers as a vocalist are too well known to need mentioning here. She is drawing large houses everywhere this season. An exchange says: "The popularity of Annie Louise Cary is quite phenomenal. She gave a concert in Washing-The smiling face of the town clock did | ton on the 13th ult., and even the window not beam forth upon the outside world as sills were engaged at big prices." Whousual last Sunday and Monday nights. ever fails to hear her will miss the best entertainment of the season. Carlyle Petersons and daughters for not being in earlier | silea is the pianist. The following from on those nights as they could not see what | the Lowell Mail is one out of the many recommendations that he calls from the press. "Few artists possess the power to interest an audience as he does. In the Rubinstein etude, op. 23, he made a crecendo that for intensity of power we have never heard equalled but by the composer himself." The Temple Quartet consisting of Messrs. Geo. J. Parker and Geo. W. Want, tenor, and H. A. Cook and A. C. Ryder, basses, will assure the citizens and narried Thursday evening, November 24th, students that they can not afford to miss the

Personals.

Ex-Governor Blair, of Jackson, was in Mr. Joe T. Jacobs and wife were in Detroit last Wednesday. Wm. H. Hendrick, of Ontario, Ind., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. A. Allison, of the Chelsea Herald, paid us a visit last Saturday. Miss Lizzie Shadford, now of Detroit, is visiting her parents in this city. Wm. Arntz, of Chicago, is spending few days with friends in this city. Lawyers Mitchell and Morse, of Ionia, vere here on legal business yesterday.

Miss Florence Watts, of Jackson, spent of Chelsea, called at the Courier office on National bank, is slowly recovering from a return on Monday. Miss Lillie Josenhaus, of Toledo, was in this city Thanksgiving and Sunday. She returned home Monday. Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Jackson, nee Miss Hayley, of Ann Arbor, is spending a couple of weeks here with her parents.

Hon. Harry Haven, for two years register of deeds at Howell, Livingstone county, gave us a pleasant call last Friday.; Mrs. Sarah A. Rice, who has been visittrying to step aside to allow a train on the ing relatives here for some time past, left for her home in Ohio Thursday morning. D. B. Bentley and family go to Detroit one of the cars in such a manner as to the last of this week. They have been re-

> Among the relatives from abroad, present at Miss Nelly M. Whedon's wedding, was the Hon. H. E. Turner, of Lowville, N. Y., who is an ex-member of the upper house of the New York legislature.

Misses Mary Hutchenson and Sarah Beal who have been engaged in dressmaking in this city for some time past, will leave for Detroit on Monday, where they expect to enter the training school for nurses connected with the Michigan Medical College. The best wishes of many friends, to whom their habits of industry and their kindly Flood." The evening dircourse will be with them, and there is no doubt but that prefaced with some remarks upon the re- they will become efficient in their chosen University Items.

E. E. White, 1it '82, is laid up with a sprained ankle. Miss Jane Eyer, lit '81, is at home at Highland Park, Ill. H. A. Fitzsimmons, lit '82, was back for W. C. Miller, lit '81, is in the engineering business in Kentucky. F. P. Jordan, lit '79, is 2nd assistant in the Battle Creek high school. C. B. Thomas, lit '60, is at present superintendent of schools at Saginaw. Frank Mead, lit '79, is in town visiting friends. He is practicing law at Houghton, G. H. Miner, lit '81, is at Oximoor, Alabama, where he is chemist for the Eureka Homer H. Kingsley, lit '81, teaches nathematics in the high school at East

C. M. Wilson, lit '80, from Ionia, spent Thanksgiving among college friends in Geo. Hempl, lit '80, is principal of the nigh school at Saginaw. He gave us a very pleasant call a few days ago. Dr. Winchell's new book entitled "Chips from a Geologist's Hammer" is in the market. It is written in the Professor's usually attractive style. P. S. Dodge, law '73, and family, are in the city. Mr. Dodge is editor of the Stanton Clipper. He gave us a very pleasant call on Monday.

C. T. Thompson, of Detroit, lit '81, law 80 comes up to spend a day or so with the boys occasionally. He was here about Thanksgiving time H. E. Tinsman, lit '83, who was obliged to discontinue his work in college on ac count of trouble with his eyes, has returned and is able to continue his work. Annie Louise Cary, assisted by the Bos ton Temple Quartet, will appear in University Hall to-night. This, no doubt, will be the best entertainment of the season and should be heard by everyone.

Hymen Again. Hymen made his appearance in our midst again last Wednesday afternoon, November of presiding at the nuptials of Dr. W. J. make a number one ball room as well as Webb, of Lowell, Mich., and Miss Nelly M. infected, isolate till after complete recovery Whedon, eldest daughter of W. W. Whedon of this city. About half-past 2 p. m. the guests began to assemble at the residence of the bride's parents, on Thompson street, and by three o'clock about fifty friends and relatives were anxiously await- son sick or from the sick room. All dising in the finely decorated parlor the appearance of the bride and groom. Among the relatives trom abroad we noticed the sulphate of iron (copperas) and then, in Hon. H. E. Turner from Lowville, N. Y.; cities, thrown into the water-closet; else-Mr. and Mrs C. H. Holland. East Saginaw, where they should be buried at least 100 Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hill, East Saginaw, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, is impracticable they should be received on Dexter, Mich.; and W. T. Whedon, Bos- old cloths which should immediately be sociates wink at each other and nod know- ton, Mass. A few minutes after three, the burned or disinfected and buried. in the county house at present, a smaller number than usual. There have been made in the county house at present, a smaller of the have been made in the county house at present of the have been made in the county house at present, a smaller of the have been made in the county house at present, a smaller of the have been made in the county house at present, a smaller of the have been made in the county house at present of the have been made in the county house at present of the have been made in the county house at present of the have been made in the county house at present of the have been made in the county house at present of the county house at present of the have been made in the county h number than usual. There have been more deaths than usual this year, this county furnishing the University with quite a number.

We do not, however, remember of ever having heard such a story from a young sister, of the bride, then took their places as sister, of the bride, then took their places are the bride, then took their places are the bride, then took their places are the bride, the bride, the bride, the groomsman and bridesmaid, and the ceremony began. Rev. J. Alabaster, D. D., been in contact with the sick person and is for the return of the tools. Any one given read the marriage service, and in a very not too valuable to burn. Garments, in information of the tools. Any one give The annual meeting of the South East- short space of time the two were made one. sheets, blankets, etc., that will not be in- ally rewarded. board at some other lodging house. The ern Michigan Bee Keeper's Association The congratulations that followed were jured by bleaching, should be boiled for sick and the feeble are often given a ticket will meet at the court house in Ann Arbor, very earnest and showed the high esteem half an hour in a zinc-solution made by

Last Friday morning, as freight engine | come before the meeting. All interested | many and beautiful. The silver ware was | common salt to one gallon of water. Hang are invited to attend. The following sub- very costly as were many of the other pres- up and loosely spread out clothing, bed the track, delaying the Jackson express Dr. Ashley, Ypsilanti; New Races of Bees noticed in particular a linen table cloth zinc-solution, or spread it loosely over Bee Killers-J. Collins, Lyndon; Queen great grandmother of the bride. It is over stead and other furniture in the room. Rearing-C. K. Bennett, Whitmore Lake; one hundred years old. There was but Close all openings to the room very tight. just time enough, after partaking of the For a room ten feet square place two usual refreshments, to prepare for the hacks | pounds of sulphur in an iron pot or pan den, Ann Arbor; Feeding Bees-L. W. that carried the happy couple and many supported on bricks. Set the sulphur on friends to the 5 o'clock eastern bound train. They expect to reside in Lowell where Dr. Webb has a very good practice, and many | not to breathe the sulphurous fumes. Leave friends. We, who have known him for the room tightly closed for several hours, years, can assure the bride that she has a then air it thoroughly. For a large room husband distinguished for kindness and all | use a proportionally larger quantity of sulthe characteristics essential to true manliness. In losing Miss Whedon Ann Arbor 1,000 cubic feet of air space, and try to has lost one of her most charming daugh- burn as much as possible of the sulphur ters who will be missed by a large circle of used. friends. May a kind Providence smile upon their future lives.

Challenge Accepted.

The Ypsilantian of November 25th contains the following allusion to an item in last week's Courier: The local editor of the Ann Arbor Cour-IER saw Snelbaker's variety entertainment, and—probably because their extravagant bills advertised an immodest show—was disappointed. He goes for us in this style: appointed. He goes for us in this style; the moral tone of The Ypsilantian is plainly shown the manner in which such entertainment as that in by Snellbaker's variety tronpe is upheld, not, but recommended. In a city where so many the are attending school as there are in Ypsilanti a paper has a very elevating (?) and emobiling affect upon the minds of boys and young men, ely a journal that has such regard for virtue and ality as to speak of that company as "a very enble and good variety troupe" ought to receive the onage of the fond parents in that city.

Now, we attended the entertainment Now, we attended the entertainment, after the manager assured us that the bill-boards belied its character, simply to see what it was. Nothing immoral was given, nor was anything done at which any one need blush. Nothing suggesting evil was done, and the troupe appeared as gentlemanly and decent as any. While we wouldn't give a piecewat testing suggesting evil was done, and the troupe appeared as gentlemanly and decent as any. wouldn't give a picaqune to attend variety shows, we challenge the writer of the above to point out one vulgar or indecent act in the whole performance.

As we were not present at the entertainment, we can accept the chgllenge only so far as to tell why we call Snelbaker's variety show an immoral entertainment. We claim that it is immoral: First, because Snelbaker is proprietor of the Vine Street opera house of Cincinnati and this is considered anything but moral in its tendencies. This troupe is traveling through the country under his name and Thanksgiving and the Sunday following in | claim to come from that center of corruption of one of the most corrupt cities in M. J. Noyes and Warren Cushman, both | America. Second, we claim that it is immoral in its tendencies, because the crowd that assembles to hear such an en-W. R. Price, collection clerk in the First | tertainment has no respect for the actresses, nor does the general character of the programme rendered tend to create a feeling W. T. Whedon, who came home from of respect for any one connected with the Boston to attend his sister's wedding, will troupe. There is nothing ennobling or elevating in the exercises. Third, we hold that it is immoral because no gentleman can, or would, take a sister, a wife or a daughter to such a class of entertainments. No, Mr. Ypsilantian, not even after havbeen assured by the manager that there was nothing immoral about the entertainment, would you have dared to go there in the company of a lady friend. Nor could you have sat there by the side of a lady during the progress of the entertainment without "blushing," for shame at its immorality. We maintain furthermore that an entertainment that is unfit for a lady to attend, without an escort even, is an immoral entertainment, but a lady would have been insulted there, not only, but would hav been hooted from the room. The above are sufficient reasons for calling it an im-tenance anything of the kind. Obituary.

moral show and sufficient reasons also for claiming that newspapers ought to discoun-

Marcus R. Crippin died at his grandfather's house, (Ichabod Crippin, lately deceased) near Dixboro, Nov. 23d, 1881, of heart disease. He was a young man, aged 23, respected and beloved by all. During the last four years he has been engaged as clerk in a responsible position in the grocery business in Detroit. Early last spring his health began to fail him and he was at length forced to quit work and come home. His ambition, capacity and integrity had already secured to him promising indications. Such is life.

Contagious Diseases.

The State Board of Health have issued the following general rules for the prevention and restriction of scarlet fever, diphtheria, small-pox, typhus tever and other contagious diseases

1. Avoid the contagium or special cause of the disease. Do not take the breath of one sick. Unless you are needed to care for the sick, or are protected by having had | will remain for us to cherish. the disease, or in case of small-pox by thorough vaccination, do not go near the sick person. Do not allow your lips to souch any food, cup, spoon or anything else that the sick person has touched or that has been in the sick room. Do not wipe your face or hands with any cloth that has been near the sick person. Do not wear auy clothing the sick person has worn, during, just before, or just after his sickness. Keep your hands free from discharges from the body or skin of the sick person. Do not touch him with sore or scratched hands. Particularly avoid inhaling or in any way receiving into the mouth or nose the branny scales that fall off from one recovering from, or apparently wholly recovered from scarlet fever. 2. Restrict the contagium or special cause of the disease. Isolate the sick. Separate those sick with any of these diseases, even if they are but mildly sick, from all persons except necessary attendants. A person sick with any of these diseases should not be permitted to suffer for want of care, food, or comfort; but all his wants should be attended to by adults, or by those who are protected by proper vaccination or by having had the disease. Children and those who are not thus protected, should be kept away from these diseases. Do not go from the sick-room to a child or other unprotected person until after change of grazed his haad. The horse finding himclothing, and thorough washing of hands, self loose ran away, shattering the cul face, hair, and beard. Always wash the vert and leaving the empty boxes scatter hands thoroughly after any necessary handling of the sick person or of anything that has been in contact with the sick person. Keep those who have been exposed to any of these diseases away from schools, churches, and other assemblies, and from are infected, -and if they are found to be and thorough disinfection. 3. Destroy the contagium or special cause of the disease,-

a. By thoroughly disinfecting or de stroying whatever is removed from the percharges from the patient should be received into vessels containing a strong solution of feet distant from any well; or where this ured leaning on the arm of the b. By thoroughly disinfecting the sickto some place toward the end of their desunation. Feonomy is the properties of four current.

Will meet at the court house in Ann Arbor, very earnest and showed the high estects and high estects are highly estects and high estects and high estects are highly estects and high estects are highly estects and highly estects are highly estects and highly estects are highly estects and highly thation. Economy is the watchword at the election of officers for the ending, etc., that cannot be boiled in the chairs in the sick-room, leaving the bedfire with live coals or with a spoonful of alcohol lighted by a match. Be careful phur at the rate of two pounds for each

4 Keep your house and premises and everything connected therewith clean, but remember that the contagium of these diseases may attach to the cleanest article of clothing, food, drink, book, or paper if it is exposed thereto.

The law requires householders and phyicians to notify the local board of health of the first case and of every case of these

When the death of a person who has died from scarlet fever, diphtheria, or smallpox is announced in print, the notice should state the cause as "from scarlet fever," diphtheria, or small-pox as the case may be, to prevent attendance at the funeral or visits to the house by persons liable to take the disease.

COUNTY ITEMS.

CHELSEA.

own-but of a mild type.

Chelsea has a singing school, a dancing school, and two cornet bands. What next? The Michigan Central railroad company is raising and leveling up the track west of

The corn crop is about all secured around here, and has turned out better than was expected before husking. F. S. Whitaker, of Lima, sold his farm to Jacob Sleminer, of Freedom, 821/2 acres for $95 per acre, and gives possession in about six weeks. The above is a part of the old Whitaker homestead Died at Aberdeen, Dakota, of typhoid fever C. Foster, aged 26 years. The body arrived at Chelsea last Monday evening, and was conveyed to Sylvan. The deceased was a son of Michael Foster of Sylvan, and brother of John P. Foster, of this viller. Two brothers (Bauisters) employed by the Grand Trunk railroad, have taken the level of our new railroad. The road will run either through Stockbridge or Lyndon, most likely the latter, because of right of way secured and $100,000 laid out in grading, and 2½ miles less railroad to build between Pinckney and Jackson, a distance of DEXTER. Albert J. Valentine and Miss Evarts, only daughter of J. H. Evarts, Esq., were married on Thanksgiving eve. From the Leader. E. Vinckle is slowly recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. George Fleck died of cancer, last Friday night. The remains were taken to Cold-water for burial.

Thanksgiving was very generally observed in Dexter and vicinity yesterday. The stores, many of them were closed, and there were very few in from the country. The inhahitants of Dexter were awaken ed between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning (Nov, 25th,) by an alarm of fire, sounded first by allocomotive whistle, and soon after by the ringing of the Baptist bell. The ately back of the depot. The house belonged to Alex. Soulier, and was occupied by Jas O'Neal, his wife and three children. It was discovered first by the night watchman, who aroused the family and just succeeded in getting them out in their night clothes. Very little of the furniture was saved. Soon the citizens were around with their ladders and buckets, but too late to save the house They were in time however, to save the surrounding property; and the only other damage done was the scorching of the adjoining house, belonging to Mrs. Brass.

SALINE. the season of 1881. From the Observer The roads in some places, about here, are John LaRue has returned from Texas all right side up with care." John Lindenschmidt, of Ann Arbor smiled on Saline friends Thanksgiving. Some of our citizens are hauling their coal from Ann Arbor. Can't get it here. A two year-old son of Mr. Geo. Litchard of York, was buried on Monday last.

The wife of Wm. Emmert, the merchan and post-master of Bridgewater station, is very low with consumption. During the past week three aged and re spected pioneers in this vicinity have been called to their final rest. Thus it is, one by one of those who struggled against trial and privations to convert a lonely wilder ness into the pleasant homes and surround ings we now enjoy, are taken from our midst, and in a few years only the past deeds and records of our beloved pioneers YPSILANTI.

From the Ypsilantian. F. A. Earl was son-struck Thursday morning. The little fellow was hungry for a Thanksgiving dinner. Robt. Stevens will make Whitmore Lake his headquarters this winter having joined the orchestra there. Sides chosen by Lieuts. Manning and Pattee of the Light Guard, yesterday, 24th, shot a match for an oyster supper. Pat-tee's men won by a score of 47 to 29. R. A. Beal and W, S. Hicks of Ann Ar bor were in the city Tuesday night, having come from the west on the New York Ex-press, which makes no stop at their vil-

Hiram Allen had a narrow escape Friday night last. While on he track near Gilbert's crossing, he stopped to learn the rea-son of a freight engine's incessant whistling near the depot. When an express train dashed by and left nothing of his lantern in his hand but the handle, he realized how close a call he had met. It is safe to say h could not sleep that night.

From the Commercial. Jonathan G. Morton, one of the pioneers of Washtenaw county, after a long illness died at his home in Ypsilanti town last Monday, Nov. 21st, in his 80th year, a residen

Johnny Keeland had a narrow escape tas Monday morning, opposite our office. He was carrying on his dray some empty boxes. A box falling off he dropped his lines to reach it and loosing his balance fell on ed in the street. A friendly drayman took him home and he is doing as well a took him home and he is doing as well as could be expected. Johnny says that the horse ran away once before, but that time he was not in fault. He will sell him now. Johnny is the oldest drayman in the city, having been in the business thirty-eight years. He thinks he will quit draying, though he was in hopes of making out an even forty years.

MARRIED.

BROWN—TAYLOR—At the bride's residence one and one-half miles north-west of this city, No 18, 1881, by Rev. C. W. E. Gillimore, pastor of the A M. E. Church, John Brown and Miss T. Taylor. WEBB-WHEDON-At the residence of W. W Whedon of this city, Nov. 30th, 1881, by Rev. J Alabaster. D. D., William J. Web, M. D., of Lowell Mich., and Miss Nelly M. Whedon. Frank Potter, Tuner, from the establish ment of Roe Stephens, Detroit, will be in town about Dec. Sth, leave orders at Mc Millens fancy store, Huron street, or by card in post-office. Next door to Krause's Boot & Shoe Store. We shall e pleased to see all our old Costomers and many New ones. Our deportment for repairing Clocks, Stolen, Oct. 30th, from a chest belonging to Aaron Dean, of 4th street, the following Watches, etc., will be more Complete than ever and named tools: 3 handsaws. 1 jointer plane, 1 smoothing plane, 1 iron brace and augur

A Bicycle, Columbia Standard, 50 inch, for sale, for $65.00 cash, or on time with good security. Address,

> AT THE COURIER JOB ROOMS. Coldwater, Michigan

AT A. L. NOBLE'S,

CLOVES AND MITTENS

SIGN OF THE RED STAR.

HATS and CAPS

AT A. L. NOBLE'S,

85 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

There are a few cases of fever reported in RARE BARGAINS in Suits for Men, Boys and Chil-dsome Goods, Elegantly Cut and Nobby Styles, for

EN, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

We have a Splendidly assorted stock of

CLOTHING

HATS, CAPS,

LADIES' FURS, GLOVES, MITTS AND UNDERWEAR,

Which we are offering at Very Low Prices, Everything New and First Class.

SHEEHAN & CO

37 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

lection of HOLIDAY Goods for THE GREAT ATTRACTION

NOW IS THE LARGE AND ELEGANT STOCK OF

PREMIUM GARPETS

OIL CLOTHS, MATS, RUGS,

DRESS GOODS

TRIMMINGS,

THE ANN ARBOR BAKERY. GLOVES, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR

CLOTHS, FLANNELS,

quality of bread that has And all the novelties of the season in quantity and variety too numerous to mention. All to be sold at bottom prices.

& WORDEN A good assortment of gro-ceries and provisions will be WINES

NO. 20 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

All In! The Ripe Fruits of Two Weeks Work in the New York Market.

Notable Bargains, Bonanza Bargains,

Positive Bargains, Wonderful Bargains.

NOW OPENED UP BY MACK & SCHMID

Who, in their late most extensive purchases lay flat all attempted competition. 'Tis competition, nerve and ready money do it. French Novelties. All-Wool Colored French Cashmeres, All-Wool Colored Camels Hair Cloth, All-Wool Lupins Novelties, Faile Cloth, High Life, Cleopatra, Savoyardy, etc. in black and all the choicest shades of bronze green, myrthle green, Carnet, Navy and Plum.

"SILKS"

Black and Colored Velvets, Black and Colored Plushes, Cloaks and Walking Garments, buy where you can get the choice of the best manufacturers and where they are sold low. Keep Warm One of one hundred and twenty acres, and one of one hundred acres; both near the Ann and buy your Blankets where they are sold low and where they Arbor and Toledo R. R., and also near the are shown in great assortments. Keep Warm and buy your Flannels where they are shown a choice equal to the stock of Two Stores in the city all put together. All Departments are replete with the latest Novelties. Do not foolishly waste your time and money in buying Dry Goods elsewhere, but show your good solid sense in paying cash for your goods and buying at the Acknowledged Headquarters, the Popular and Progressive One-price Cash House

MACK & SCHMID.

OVERCOATS AND ULSTERETTES

THE LEADING CLOTHIER.

AT A. L. NOBLE'S.

BIG DRIVES IN UNDERWEAR at all prices.

iren. Big Driv	ES
ANN ARBOR MARKET. We shall give especial attention to the weekly corcition of this market report. OFFICE OF THE ANN ARBOR COURIER ANN ARBOR. December 1, 1881. hitte Wheat. 120 at 125 our, $\frac{1}{2}$ 100 lbs. 2 00 orn, $\frac{1}{2}$ 100 lbs. 300 at 35 orn, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. 380 40 at 34 at 1000 at 100	ON Har MI car load lots.

COAL.

VISITORS to DETROIT are invited to an inspection of our rare col-

Jewelers and Diamond

Importers.

DETROIT.

We have secured the services of a first-class baker and pastry cook, and are furnishing never been excelled in this city.

the nicest articles in the line of pastry, many of them entire

All orders for goods in our line will be filled and promptly delivered to any part of the

A liberal discount will be

HALL & MOSELEY,

OSCAR O. SORG,

NO. 11 EAST LIBERTY STREET.

All Work Done Promptly and Neatly.

REMOVED! REMOVED!

Having removed our large stock of

CLOCKS,WATCHES, JEWELRY

SPECTACLES AND SILVERWARE, to

OUR LARCE NEW STORE

No. 46 South Main St.

J. HALLER & SON, Jewelers.

TWO FARMS FOR SALE.

A LL KINDS OF BLANKS

PRINTED ON SHORT NOTICE

Detroit and Lansing Road.

Salem October 5th, 1881.

No 23 North Main St.

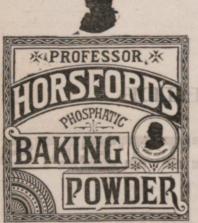

novelties in Ann Arbor.

found at our store.

made to clubs.

We are also making some of

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED.

Rumford Chemical Works, Providence, R. I and 83 Lake St., Chicago. 1028-79

MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM, OF LYNN, MASS.,

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

for all those Paintul Complaints and Weaknesses so common to our best female population.
It will cure entirely the worst form of Female Complaints, all ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulcera tion, Falling and Displacements, and the consequent Spinal Weakness, and is particularly adapted to the Change of Life.

It will dissolve and expel tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development. The tendency to cancerous humors there is checked very speedly by its uss. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroyall craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indication. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use.

It will at all times and under all circumstances act in termony with the laws that govern the female system.

For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex this Compound is unsurpassed.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND is prepared at 233 and 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price $1. Six bottles for $5. Sent by mail in the form of pills, also in the form of lozenges, on receipt of price, $1 per box for either. Mrs. Pinkham freely answers all letters of inquiry. Send for pamph-let. Address as above. Mention this Paper.

No family should be without LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S LIVER PILLS. They core constipation, biliousness, and torpidity of the liver. 25 cents per box.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY RELIEF OF

Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, etc., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh or miasmatic poisons, twenty-five years, in the treatment of these distressing diseases, and with ch unvarying success that it has gained the reputation of being infal-lible. The shakes, or chills, once oken by it, do not return, until the disease is contracted again. This has made it an accepted remedy, and trusted specific, for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South.

Ayer's Ague Cure eradicates the noxious poisor rom the system, and leaves the patient as well as efore the attack. It thoroughly expels the disease, so that no Liver Complaints, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, orders of the Liver and Bowels have occurred from Missmatic Poison, it removes the cause of them, and they disappear. Not only is it an fectual cure, but, if taken occasionally by patients exposed to malaria, it will expel the poison and protect them from attack. Travelers and temporary enabled to defy the disease. The General Debility, which is so apt to ensue from continued exposure to the interest. A few years ago, one gentleman bought 400 acres of land For Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

PHYSICIANS, CLERGYMEN, AND THE AFFLICTED EVERYWHERE. THE GREATEST MEDICAL

TRIUMPH OF THE AGE. SYMPTOMS OF A

TORPID LIVER.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED. TUTTS PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.
They Increase the Appetite, and cause the body to Take on Flesh, thus the system is nourished, and by their Toute Action on the biggestive Organs. Regular Stools are pronourished, and by their Tonic Action on the Digestive Organs, Regular Stools are pro-duced. Price 25 cents. 35 Murray St., N.Y.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE. Office, 35 Murray St., New York.

Dr. TUTT'S MANUAL of Valuable Information and Useful Receipts will be mailed FREE on application.

Bernadotte's Spirit.

The following story is told as an instance f the spirit of Carl (Johan) XIV, King of Sweden: A Russian man-of-war was seen passing the fort of Waxholm en route for stockholm without having given the customary salute. The orders of the fort comlant were distinct that in a case like this, two warnings were to be given. The first, that of firing a ball in the rear of the vessel. If this were unheeded, another was to be sent in advance of its bow. In case both warnings were disregarded, a ball was to be sent into the most vulnerable part of the ship. In the present instance both warnings had been given without re-spouse, and the commandant, a young, beardless lieutenant, though shaking in his boots, cried out to the cannonier, "Do you

Send a ball into it, in God's name!" This had effect. With crushed wheel-house, the Russian stopped perforce. A mo-ment later two boats were seen setting out for Stockholm; one with the frightened young commandant in it from Waxholm and one from the disabled man-of war, each rowing with ut most speed in hope of reaching the royal presence first. The Swede arrived just enough in advance to obtain the first audience. He gasped out his

"Well," said the King, "it seems that she wouldn't salute, and you fired?"

"Where did you hit her?" "Oh, your Majesty, be gracious!"
"Did you hit the wheel-house?"

"Ye—es."
"Good! You're a major." The Russian was permitted to rebuild its wheel in Stockholm.—Harper's Magazine

Visits.

if a tiresome fellow, after wearying all his friends, grows at last weary of himself, and aims to bestow his tediousness upon you, pull out your watch with restlessness, talk about your great occupation and the value of time. Politeness is one thing; to be made a convenience of, is quite another

When you call upon a man, staying at a acquainted, the most convenient method or presenting yourself is this. Call one of the servants, place your card in his hand, lesiring him to give it to the person whom you wish to see, and to let him know that you are there. The servant will return, panied by the object of your visit, and will point out to him the person v hose ard he has received.

omit it, if you leave a card for another in city where you are a stranger. By the way, there are many occasion and this one of them—on which it is absolutely necessary that the name on a card should be legible at a glance. The Gothic letter should therefore not be used for this ourpose, as there are many who cannot at all decipher a name so printed, and few who can do so instantly. The card of a man should be small, plain, inglazed, and ungilt. A gilded and glazed card is agreeable only as belonging to a

Mourning eards should not be used by any but families of distinction.

Annual visits are paid to persons with whom you have a cool acquaintance. They visit you in the autumn; you return a card in the spring. In paying a visit under ordinary circumstates a leave a circle.

The learned doctor says: "Keep some kind of a tonic medicine always in the linary circumstances, you leave a single If there be residing in the family a married daughter, an unmarried sister, a transient guest, or any person in a distinct situation from the mistress of the house, you leave two cards, one for each party. If you are acquainted with only one member of a family, as the husband, or the wife, and you wish to indicate that your visit is to both, you leave two cards.

When a gentleman is about to be married, he sends cards, a day or two before the event, to all whom he is in the habit of the event, to all whom he is in the habit of visiting. These visits are never paid in person, but the cards are sent by a servant at any hour in the morning; or the gentle.

Any druggist will procure it for you if you man goes in a carriage, and sends them in After marriage, some day is appointed and made known to all, as the day on which he receives company. His friends then call upon him. Would that this also were performed by cards!

A visit and an umbrella should always be returned .- Commercial Advertiser.

Flowers in Mexico.

Mexico is the greatest flower market in the world. All the year round the gardens bring forth brilliant blossoms, the fragile, peautiful children of this tropic zone. historians who write of the Mexicans as Mexicans, speak of their love of flowers as one of their principal characteristics. Nor is this trait diminished in the present generation. From the days before the cruel Conquest, all through that merciless time, when the Mexicans bore the heavy yoke under their violent masters, the Spaniards, they remained faithful to their love of flowers; the passion is innate.

During even the coldest days that are known in this mild climate one may go to market and find the simple Indians seated on the sidewalks with their baskets of flowers. I have seen them sitting thus closely together for a whole block, offering at almost rediculously low prices great bundles of roses, heliotropes, violets, ger-aniums, heartsease, pinks, and, in short, almost numberless varieties. For twentyfive cents one may nearly always buy a large, elegantly arranged bouquet, composed of the most exquisite flowers, the price of which, in New York, would vary, according to season, from $3 to $5 or $6.

In the full flavor exacts one may often buy for six and a quarter cents as many flowers as can be disposed of in a parlor of ordinary size.—Philadelphia Press.

Thousands of ladies to-day cherish remembrances of the help derived from the use of Lydia E.Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It positively cures all female com-plaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 283 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for Small Farms.

One of the most encouraging signs of better times in Georgia is the change gradually going on from planting to farming, and the conversion of large plantations into small farms which accompanies it. The Enthusiasm seems to have got the better are cited where farms as small as 10, 20 and fifty acres are common. In Oglethorpe county there are four times as many farms of 100 acres as there were in 1870, and there is a steady demand for land from persons who gradually accumulate money to buy with. The large land owners are favoring the change because they find that proved too large for one man and the owner divided it in two farms. These were still too large and the tract was di-vided in six farms, each with a family on-it, and it is found that one farmer makes more on 70 acres than the first tenant made on the whole 400. The tenants have earned and saved enough money to buy farms of their own, and the proprietor must either sell them the places they live on or they will go elsewhere and buy.

The general advantage to a community of small farms over large ones is exhibited in more ways than one. Not only does it insure better cultivation and a larger yield from the same amount of land, but it invites immigration, multiplies the number vites immigration, multiplies the number of tax-paying farmers, enhances the value of land, and materially reduces the class of shiftless renters unattached to the soil, who have little interest in the general welfare of the community. There is not a Southern State that would not be largely benefited by the change that is going on in Georgia.—St. Louis Republican.

"My Back Aches So, and I feel miserable," said a hard-working man. The doctor questioned him and found that he had been habitually costive for years, that now his kidneys were disordered and his whole system deranged. Kidney-Wort was recommended and faithfully taken and in a short time every trouble was removed. The cleansing and tonic power of this medicine on the bowels and

Not every one knows what a normal pulse is. It is a variable element. The

In inflammatory or acute diseases, the pulse may rise to 120 or even to 150 in the adult, and become so frequent in the child that it cannot be counted. Muscular exertion, mental excitement, digestion, alcoholi drink, and elevation above the sea level, accelerate the pulse, and, as a general rule, it is more frequent in the morning than in the evening. It is lower in sleep, and from the effect of rest, diet, cold, or blood-letting. The pulse of a grown woman exceeds that of a man of the same age as much as 10 to 14 beats a minute, and, according to some authorities, is less frequent in the tall than in the short person, the variations being about 4 beats for each six inches in height.

The quieting, rest-procuring qualities as well as the far-reaching and powerful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

It was at the hotel of Dumbarton. I had just got up and rang the bell for hot water for shaving. A waiter answered my call. "I want some hot water, if you please." I said. "And what for do you want the hot water?" "For shaving," said I. "Ye canna have hot water on the Lord's day for sich a thing as shaving," said the waiter, horror struck at the idea. I insisted again, but with the same effect. "Na, na," he said, "ye canna have it." Necessity is the mother of invention. 'tis said, and this Respectable visitors should be received and treated with the utmost courtesy. But range the order in such a away that it would not affect his religious scruples, he would bring it directly. I' therefore proposed that I should like some toddy, and told him to bring me the materials for making it, consisting of whisky and boiling water. These he brought without the least demur. I gave him the whisky, which he drank, and I used the hot water. So conscience was satisfied.

Millions Given Away.

Millions of Bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have been given away as trial bot-tles of the large size. This enormous out-lay would be disastrous to the proprietors, were it not for the rare merits possessed by this wonderful medicine. Call at Eber-In leaving a card for a stranger, do not bach & Son's drug store, and get a trial bot-orget to add your address; and do not the free, and try for yourself. It never

The Printer's Devil.

A correspondent asks: "What is a print-r's devil?" A printer's devil is a wicked boy kept in every newspaper office for editors to throw mucilage bottles at when he shouts "copy," which he does nineteen times a day. It is also a part of his duty to consume all the green watermelons and un-ripe fruit that the editor's agricultural friends present to him. When he grows up he usually becomes a pirate.

kind of a tonic medicine always in the house, and if anyone feels unwell, make free use of it. But first be sure that it is both harmless as well as meritorious. Put no trust in alcoholic preparations: their use will lead to intemperance; neither be partial to any remedy that produces a severe cathartic effect, for prostration of the nervous system and digestive organs is sure to follow. The mildest and best medicine ever invented for strengthening every cine ever invented for strengthening every part of the body and restoring impaired or lost organic functions to their normal con-dition, and one which is having an unparfinds you cannot be persuaded to take some and is the only preparation of Iron that cures headache and does not blacken the teeth. It is a sure reviver, a true strength-ener, and the very best medicine ever in-vented for permanently strengthening the pulmonary, urinary and digestive organs, and preventing consumption, kidney dis-eases and chronic dyspepsia, often curing these diseases when all other remedies have failed; for it is truly nature's best assist

Some in Subtraction.—"Now," said the teacher in a primary class to one of his pupils, to whom he was trying to impart a knowledge of division, but with little success, "if you had a pie, and I should ask you for a quarter of it, and you should give me what I wanted, how much would you have left?" "I wouldn't have any left!" quickly responded the little girl, who seemed to think that the teacher's wants were by no means small .- Yonkers States

Prof, Horsford's Baking Powder s made from Horsfork's Acid Phosphate, n powdered form. Put in tin cans, mixed,

The last literary work done by the late Dr. Holland was a short poem for the Youth's Companion, which was not published until after his death, and now carries a peculiar interest with it. The lines are as follows:

If life awake and will never cease On the future's distant shore, and the loss of hose and the life of Shall bloom there forevermore—

Let the world go round and round, And the sun sink into the sea; or whether I'm on or under the ground, Oh, what will it matter to me?

A Sure Cure For Piles.

Do you know what it is to suffer with Piles? If you do, you know what is one of the worst torments of the human frame. The most perfect cure ever known is Kidney-Wort. It cures constipation, and then its tonic action restores health to the diseased bowels and prevents recurrence of

Enthusiasm seems to have got the better of logic in a presumably Irish advocate of State Commissioner of Agriculture says of logic in a presumably Irish advocate of that "there are twice as many men who total abstinence at one of the late meetings own small farms in Georgia now as there were five years ago," and many counties was telling the meeting that he was eightywas telling the meeting that he was eighty-one years of age, and had never been an abstainer, when he was greeted by the ex-clamation which "brought down" the house. "You might have been a hundred by this time if you had."

Col. A. Wood Merryweather, whom everybody in Scranton, Pa., knows, writes and says: "I had long suffered from a derangement of the bladder and kidneys; it had made my general health very pool I also was troubled with severe indigestion pills gave me only temporary, relief, and I experienced great anxiety of mind, as well as physical distress. A friend recommend-Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used it with most gratitying results, and just now my health never was better, and I feel that Perfectly Safe in all Cases. For diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, etc., Downs' Elixir is a sure, reliable, and effectual remedy.

DR. BAXTER'S MANDRAKE BITTES act upon the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, reove all secretions, purify the Blood, and fortify the system against disease.

Horsemen. Ask your merchant for HENRY & JOHNSON'S ARNICA AND OIL LINIMENT, and keep it always in the stable, to use in case of accident.

Physicians say Hops and Malt Bitters

Rescued From Death. William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 1 was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I was so weak at one time as to be unable to leave my was removed. The cleansing and tonic power of this medicine on the bowels and kidneys is wonderful.—Congregationalist.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by Eberbach & Son.

$1,500 per year can be easily made at home working for E. G. Rideout & Co., 10 Barclay Street, New York. Send for their catalogue and full particulars.

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

1061-1113

A man cannot be true to himself and not follow his conscience, and yet he may be conscientiously wrong in many things. Conscience needs education in the way of right and truth. Conscience uninformed

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an Incurable Lung Disease or consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bron-chitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speak-ers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and have always given per-fect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Are you disturbed at night and broken your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cut-ting teeth! If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING render it the very best remedy known for sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is sufferer immediately immediately—depend upon it; there is sufferer immediately imme is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who It was at the hotel of Dumbarton. I had late the bowels, and give rest to the mother and relief and health to the child, operat ing like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

PILES! PILES!! PILES!!! A Sure Cure Found at Last. No One Need Suffer.

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itch ing and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy),called Dr Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic eases of 25 and 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, Instruments, and Electuaries do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at a sight after getting warm in held) acts, as aniays the intense tiching (particularly as night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poltice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else, Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores that it of the cores but it offerds me pleasure to of pile cures, but it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found any thing which gave such immediate and permanen relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment." For sale by all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price $1.00.

JAS. E. DAVIS & CO. Wholesale Drug gists, Detroit, Mich., Agents. For sale by H. J. Brown & Co.

N. H. DOWNS VEGETABLE BALSAMIC Is a sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, and all Lung Diseases, when taken in season. People die of consumption simpy because of neglect, when the imely use of this remedy would ave cured them at once. Fifty-one years of con-tant use proves the fact that no ough remedy has stood the test Price 35a, 50a, and $1.00 per bottle.

For Sale Everywhere. Dr. Baxter's Mandrake TOUR Will cure Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Indigestion, and all diseases arising from Bil-iousness. Price 25 cts. per bottle. For Sale Everywhere.

HENRY & JOHNSON'S ARNICA AND OIL LINIMENT For Man and Beast. The most perfect liniment ever compounded. Price 25c. and 5oc. For Sale Everywhere.

LOOSE'S EXTRACT

Red Clover Blossom,

The Great Blood Purifier.

rysipelas, rheumatism, and regulates the bowels. Loose's Red Clover Pile Remedy-sure cure. Blossoms 50c per pound or $1.00 per pint bottle. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists, or address J. M. Loose & Co., Monroe, Mich. Send for Circular.

PRICES PEOPLE CAN AFFORD to PAY. Largest and newest assortment of Backgrounds and accessories. INSTANTANEOUS 'GELATINE' WORK

For Babies Pictures. Best Card Photographs, - $2.50 per doz. Best Cabinets, - 6.00 220 & 222 WOODWARD AVE., · MICH. 1056-1083.

BROWNS

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS are certain cure for all diseases requiring a complete tonic; especially Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Intermittent Fevers, Want of Appetite, Loss of Strength, Lack of Energy, etc. Enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache. Sold by all Druggists at $1.00 a bottle. BROWN CHEMICAL CO.

Baltimore, Md.
See that all Iron Bitters are made by Brown Curmicas.
and have crossed red lines and trade mark on wrapper.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

GET THE BEST!

LEAD ALL OTHERS!

Every Style & Price. Guaranteed Unequaled

OPERATION, ECONOMY, DURABILITY and

WORKMANSHIP. Improvements and Conveniences found in no others. Always Reliable.

POPULAR EVERYWHERE. For Sale in Every City and Town in the United States. And by John Pristeren, Ann Arbor, Mich.

W. TREMAIN

GENERAL

OFFICE

OVER CASPER RINSEY'S GROCERY STORE,

COR. HURON AND FOURTH ST.

North British Insurance Comp'y (of London and Edinburgh.) Capital $13,000,000, Gold.

Springfield Ins. Comp'y. of Mass.,

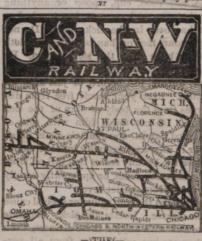

Detroit Fire and Marine Ins. Co.

Cash Assets $1,800,000. Howard Ins. Co., of New York. Cash Assets $1,000,000.

Agricultural Insurance Comp'y WATERTOWN, NEW YORK,

Losses liberally adjusted and promptly paid.

Cash Assets......$1,200,000.

CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the OLDEST! BEST CONSTRUCTED! BEST

EQUIPPED! and hence the LEADING RAILWAY WEST AND NORTH-WEST. t is the shortest and best route between Chicago and all points in

COUNCIL BLUFFS, OMAHA, DENVER, LEADVILLE, SALT LAKE SAN FRANCISCO DEADWOOD, SIOUX CITY,

At Council Buffs the trains of the Chicago & North-Western and the U. P. R'ys depart from, arrive at and use the same joint union depot.

At Chicago, Gose connections are made with the Lake Shore, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Fort Wayne and Pennsylvania, and Chicago & Grand Trunk Ry's, and the Kankankee and Pan Handle Routes.

Close Connections Made at Junction Points. It is the ONLY LINE running Pullman Hotel Dining Cars

Chicago and Council Bluffs. Pullman Sleepers on All Night Trains. Inle road. Examine your tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over the Chicago and North-Western Rallway.

If you wish the Best Traveling Accommodations you will buy your tickets by this route

AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER. All Ticket Agents sell tickets by this Line.

COFFINS AND CASES FULL STOCK AT MARTIN'S

All orders promptly attended to.

1031-83 2d V. P. & Gen'l Man'gr, Chicago,

MARVIN HUGITT,

IMPORTANT

TO GROCERS, PACKERS, HUCKSTERS, AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC

The King Fortune - Maker,

OXONE

A New Process for Preserving all Perishable Articles, Anima and Vegetable, from Fermentation and Putrefaction, Retaining their Odor and Flavor.

"OZONE-Purified air, active state of oxygen."-WEBSTER. Preservative is not a liquid, pickle, or any of the old and exploded processes, but is simply and ZONE, as produced and applied by an entirely new process. OZONE is the antiseptic principle substance, and possesses the power to preserve animal and vegetable structures from decay. There is nothing on the face of the earth liable to decay or spoil which OZONE. the new Preservative, will not preserve for all time in a perfectly fresh and palatable condition.

The value of OZONE as a natural presever has been known to our abler chemists for years, but until now no means of producing it in a practical, inexpensive, and simple manner have been discovered.

Microscopic observations prove that decay is due to septic matter, or minute germs that develop and feed upon animal and vegetable structures. OZONE, applied by the Prentiss method, seizes and destroys these germs at once, and thus preserves. At our offices in Cincinnati can be seen almost every article that can be thought of preserved by this process and every visitor is welcome to come in, taste, smell, take away with him, and test in every way the merits of OZONE as a preservative. We will also preserve, free of charge, any article that is brought or sent prepaid to us, and return it to the sender, for him to keep and test.

of charge, any article that is brought or sent prepaid to us, and return it to the sender, for him to keep and test.

EGGS can be treated at a cost of less than one dollar a thousand dozen, and be kept in an ordinary room six months or more, thoroughly preserved, the yolk held in its normal condition, and the eggs as fresh and perfect as on the day they were treated, and will sell as strictly "choice." The advantage in preserving eggs is readily seen; there are seasons when they can be bought for 8 or 10 cours a dozen, and by holding them can be sold for an advance of from one hundred to three hundred per cent. One man with this method can preserve 5,000 dozen a day.

FRUITS may be permitted to ripen in their native climate, and can be transported to any part of the world. The juice expressed from fruits can be held for an indefinite period without termentation—hence the great value of this process for producing a temperance beverage. Milk and cider can be held perfectly sweet any length of time.

VEGETABLES can be kept for an indefinite period in their natural condition, retaining their oder and flavor, treated in their original packages, at a small expense. All grain, flour, meal, etc., are held in their normal condition.

BUTTER AFTER BEING TREATED BY THIS PROCESS WILL NOT BECOME RANCID ers.

trace of any foreign or unnatural odor or taste.

The process is so simple that a child can operate it as well and as successfully as a mair. There is no expensive apparatus or machinery required.

A room filled with different articles, such as eggs, meat, fish, etc., can be treated at one time without comble or expense.

The fact there is nothing that OZONE will not preserve. Thick of everything you can that is liable to sour, decay or spoil, and then rem muer that we guarantee that OZONE will preserve it in exactly the condition you want it for any length of time. It you will remember this, it will save asking questions as to whether OZONE will preserve this or that article. It will preserve anything and everything you can think of.

There is not a township in the United States in which a live man can not make any amount of money, from $1.000 to $10,000 a year, that he pleases. We desire to get a live man interested in each county in the United States in whose hands we can place this preservative, and through him secure the business which every county ought to produce.

A. C. Beven, Marion, Ohio, cleared $2,001 in two months. $2 for a test package was his first investment. Woods Brothers, Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio, made $6,000 on eggs purchased in July and sold Nov. 1st. $2 for a test package was their first investment.

F. I. Baymond, Morristown, Belmont County, Ohio, is clearing $2,000 a month in handling and selling Ozone. $2 for a test package was his first investment.

D. F. Webber, Charlotte, Euton County, Mich., has cleared $1,000 a month since Angust. $2 for a test package was his first investment.

J. B. Gaylord, S0 LuSalle St., Chicago, is preserving eggs, fruit, etc., for the commission men of Chicago, charging 1½c. per dozen for eggs, and other articles in proportion. He is preserving 5,000 dozen eggs a day, and on his husiness is making $3,000 a month clear. $2 for a test pickage was his first investment.

The Cindinali Feed Company, 498 West Seventh Street, is making $5,000 a month in handling brewer's mall, preserving and shipping it as feed to all pate for the country. Malt unpreserved sones in twenty-four hours. Pre erved by OZONE it ke ps perfectly swell or months.

These are instances which we have asked the priveling of publishing. There are scores of others. Write to any of the above parties and get the evidence direct.

Now, to prove the absolute truth of every thin we have said in this paper. We propose for place in your hands the means of proving for yourself that we have not claimed half enough. To any person who double any of the statements, and who is interested sufficiently to make

HOW TO SECURE A FORTUNE WITH OZONE

Don't let a day pass until you have ordered a Test Package, and if you desire to secure an exclusive privilege, we assure you that delay may deprive you of it, for the applications come in to us by scores every mail—many by telegraph. "First come first served" is our rule.

If you do not care to send money in advance for the test package, we will send it C. O. D.; but this will put you to the expense of charges for return of money. Our correspondence is very large; we have all we can do to attend to the shipping of orders and giving attention to our working agents. Therefore we can not give attention to letters which do not order Ozone. If you think of any article that you are doubtful about Ozone preserving, remember we guarantee that it will preserve it, no matter what it is.

REFERENCES: We desire to call your attention to a class of references which no enterprise or firm based on any thing but the soundest business success and highest commercial merit could secure.

We refer, by permission, as to our integrity and to the value of the Prentiss Preservative, to the following centlemen: Edward C. Boyce, Member Board of Public Works; E. O. Eshelby, City Comptroller:

THE MOST VALUABLE ARTICLE in the WORLD.

The $2 you invest in a test package will surely lead you to secure a township or county, and then y way is absolutely clear to make from $2,000 to $10,000 a year. Give your full address in every letter, and send your letter to PRENTISS PRESERVING CO., Limited,

IF YOU WANT THE

BEST PAPER. LARGEST PAPER,

THE NEWSIEST PAPER, THE SOUNDEST PAPER, THE MOST POPULAR PAPER, THE LIVELIEST LOCAL PAPER.

IN THE COUNTY OF WASHTENAW SUBSCRIBE FOR THE

IN THE LINE OF

BB BBB BB BBB BBBBBBBBB 000

AT BED-ROCK PRICES.

FINE BOOK AND PAMPHLET WORK, FANCY BILL AND LETTER HEADS STATEMENTS AND CIRCULARS, STREAMERS AND POSTERS, AUCTION BILLS, DODGERS, BUSINESS, WEDDING, INVITATION AND

CARDS.

ADDRESS

SURE REWARD

HALF MILLION ACRES

SPLENDID

Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad Company Railroad Completed Through

Center of Lands.

Do not go West or South until you learn what Michigan offers intelligent farmers. You can do better with less money nearer home.

Lands rich, dry, and gently rolling, Timbered mainly with Sugar Maple, Rock Elm, Basswood, Ash, Beech, Hemlock, etc., and are well watered by lake. lock, etc., and are well watered by lakes, rivers and spring brooks. Strong soils, fine crops, healthy ellmate, schools and churches, intelligent population, mainly from Eastern States and Canada.

For Books, Maps, etc., addre W. O. HUGHART. GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

The Leading Toy & Fancy Goods House OF MICH.

HEYN'S BAZAAR,

ALHAMBRA DOLLAR STORE. Toys, Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Plated Ware, Whitney Children's Carriages Velocipedes, Express Wagons, &c., &c.,

H. HEYN & BRO., HEYN'S BAZAAR, 92 WOODWARD AVE.

DETROIT, MICH. 1044.

New Illustrated Price-List ter of 1881. Free to any address. Contains full description of all kinds of goods for personal and family use. We deal directly with the consumer, and sell all goods in any quantity at wholesale prices, You can buy better and cheaper than at MONTGOMERY WARD & CO. 27 and 229 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

RAILROADS. Time Table.-Nov. 13, 1881.

S. E. CORNER RACE AND NINTH STS., CINCINNATI, O. Battle Creek | P. M. | 1.55 | 3 | 8.41 | 12.47 | 2.02 | 10.38

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR & G. T. B.B. Time Card of Oct. 16, 186

†Daily, except Sundays. *Fiag stations.
The Local Freight, going north, leaves Toledo a. m., arriving at Ann Arbor at 9.40 s.m., and South Lyon at 10.55 a.m.

The Local Freight, going south, leaves South Lyon at 2.40 p.m., and Ann Arbor at 3.50 p.m. artist at Toledo at 7.45 p.m.

Trains will be run by Columbus time, as shown in the clock in the Superintendent's office at Toledo
H. W. ASHLEY, Superintendent

CINCINNATI, HAMILTON AN Arrive at Cincinnati: 3:35 p. m., 7:10 p. m., 6.00 a. D. B. TRACY, Pass Agent. 1042

FORT WAYNE & JACKSON R. B. Detroit & Indianapolis Line. By Michigan Central Railroad from Ann Arl to Jackson. Trains leave Ann Arbor as follows: All trains lerve by Chicago time.

> M. D. WOODFORD, Gen'l Sup'l $500 REWARD!

with West's Vegetable Liver Files, when are strictly compiled with. They are pare Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Seconded. Large boxes, containing 30 Fills, 25 contents of the property of counterfeand imitations. The genuine manufactured and imitations. The genuine manufactured by JOHN C. WEST & CO., "The Pill Makers," & 188 W. Madison St., Chicago. Free trial packs ent by mail prepaid on receipt of a 3 cent stamp-