First wool in; unwashed, 20 cents. Sunday afternoon Mrs. J. T. Sunderland speaks in Crosey's hall. Washenaw county only gained 408 inhabitants in the ten years between 1870 and 1880.

The population of Washenaw is nearly equally divided as to male and female inhabitants. The Oracle has struck a long-suffering but patient public. It is of unusual excellence this year.

On State, Ann, and other streets improvements are being made in the direction of new sidewalks. J. J. Goodyear has rented the house of Mrs. Cheever. At his store he has some live alligators to play with.

Ex-Gov. St. John of Kansas speaks on temperance in the Methodist church on the evening of the 23rd inst. Wallace Bliss and Frank Minnis went to Independence Lake, Tuesday, on a fishing trip which met with good luck.

The new county directory was delivered this week. It is a neat volume and we presume it will be found to be tolerably correct. Charlie Wagner, the bicyclist, has a young cry-crylet. He is going to build a house on Packard street in which to house it.

The juvenile temperance society will have a picnic on the premises of Mr. J. B. Saunders, (the Frazer grove) Saturday afternoon. We have received several communications in regard to the Sunderland-Cook controversy but with the former's letter in this week's issue we will close discussion on that subject.

The Episcopal church has raised $1,500 to put in heating apparatus for next winter.

The alumni association of the H. S. holds its exercises next Friday evening in the Unitarian church. Toasts will be by the following: Prof. Perry, W. D. Harman, J. F. Lawrence, Capt. Richards, Prof. J. B. Steere, John Kelley, Jr., Edward Donovan and others, including ladies.

In the line of building on State street, Judge Cooley is adding a large library room to his house; the Alpha Delta Phi house is building; Mr. Crane's house is about completed; the parsonage of the Unitarian church, and a house for Mrs. Warner, south of Mrs. Burd's have just been begun.

The Christian Association of the High School observes its tenth anniversary Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the H. S. hall. There will be given a short history of the association by Prof. Perry, addressed by Rev. R. B. Pope, Mr. Newman, secretary of the Detroit association, and by Mr. Smith, secretary of the railroad branch of Toledo.

Mr. A. T. Hill of Detroit was at the Observatory Saturday night, and at midnight he changed the Canada Southern railroad time from Buffalo time to Detroit time. At 9 Sunday morning the Michigan Central time was changed from Chicago time to Detroit time. The clock at the Observatory now regulates the time for over a thousand miles of road.

At the concert by the Choral Union, Amphion Club, and the University Male Chorus given this evening in University hall the program will be carried out with Christian Schaefer, recently from Leipzig, as pianist; Miss J. C. Mahon, violinist; Solos by Mrs. Gen. Hunt, Mrs. G. S. Morris, Miss Jennie Pease and Mrs. G. R. Haviland and with C. B. Cady, director and O. B. Cady, accompanist. Portions of the "Stabat Mater" will be rendered.

Children's Day at the M. E. Church last Sunday passed off with a large attendance and pleasurable exercises. The pulpit and choir were profusely decorated with flowers, and above was suspended an arch with a text of letters in immortelles. The exercises consisted of singing, recitations, responsive readings and reports. That of the secretary showed the total number of members of the school to be 352, with an average attendance of 302. This is exclusive of the Pastor's Bible class which averages 95.

At the Manchester pioneer meeting last week, Wednesday, one subject for discussion was whether it would not be better to change the name from "Washenaw Pioneer Society" to "Washenaw Historical Society," from the fact that the old pioneers are nearly all dead, over sixty having passed the "flood" since the last meeting which occurred three months previous. Soon all will be gone, then the work will necessarily fall into younger hands. After much discussion it was decided to recommend to the next meeting—which will be held in the court house in September next—that the name be changed to the "Pioneer and Historical Society," thus retaining the original name as a memorial, and at the same time giving stability to the enterprise.

The reason why two H. S. seniors were not at the class social Saturday evening was because two wicked friends of theirs put up a job on them by inveigling them off to look for chipmunks. They took them out about two miles into the dark woods where they had never been before, and got them to hold an open-mouthed sack between them, each with a candle in one hand to attract the game, and in the other hand a string to draw shut the mouth of the sack when the chips ran in. The jokers started off as they said to drum up the game but after their victims had waited without hearing from them for half an hour, they concluded it was a base deception, and started back home reaching there after many wanderings, sadder, yet wiser men.

Wednesday evening the races of the Ann Arbor Bicycle Club were given, under the auspices of the L. A. W. The slow race was for 100 yards, and for it Messrs. Lee, Hatch, Nichols, Beal, Frank, and Crawford entered. It was won by G. W. Lee, all of the others falling off before they reached the line. There were four entries for the first fast race, Messrs. Hatch, Frank, Lee, and Nichols. This was very exciting, and, considering the track, excellent time was made by Mr. Hatch, who won, making the mile in 3:28, Mr. Frank in 3:29. The second fast race was contested by Messrs. Taylor, Wagner, and Beal, the former winning in 3:50. The crowd assembled was a large one, and after the regular exercises they thoroughly enjoyed the fancy riding of Lee and Hatch. Chief Consul of the State, C. D. Standish, and the League Representative, George Root, both of Detroit, were present, and with Sidney Culver acted as judges. A. T. Packard and W. F. Word were the time-keepers. A moonlight run was taken about town by the club and their guests, the Detroit and Saline boys, and after that they adjourned to Hank's. B. P. Davenport, F. D. Ford, Elmer Briggs and Fred Cordeur, who were from Saline, rode home later in the evening, while the Detroit boys started for home at four the next morning on their wheels. The first races of the Ann Arbor club were thus successfully and pleasantly concluded.

Lewis, at Hyde Park, Illinois.

Dr. Stone and wife of Wahoo, Nebraska, stopped over a day or two with Wallace Bliss, on his return from the Medical convention at Cleveland. The inside cornices are being put into the new Library building. Extra evening sessions are held by the Art classes for the reading of essays.

The Amulet board and a few special friends had a set-up at the St. James Saturday night. On the 26th and 27th inst., examinations for admission to the University will be held at the Grand Pacific in Chicago, and at the office of the superintendent of public schools in St. Louis. The University nine have gone to Port Huron where they play to-day. Saturday afternoon the teams met again on the Recreation Park grounds, Detroit, for a third game. Quite a number are going down from here to witness the Saturday game.

All of the State High Schools which were allowed to send their graduates to the University on diploma last year, have so maintained their standard that they are retained on the list this year. Four new schools are added, viz. Port Huron, Charlotte, Adrian, and Somerville. The sophomore class supper, for some reason did not take place, but the ladies of the class got up a spread last week by themselves at the home of Miss Carrie Bell, and a right good time they had of it. Miss Benditt, of Saginaw, read a very amusing prophecy of the class.

After the ball game of Saturday when it was found the Port Huron club would be invited to give them a banquet at the St. James. Although it had to be gotten up in such a short time Landlord Stone did himself credit in the way of the two clubs and their invited friends who sampled it could testify to. After satisfying the inner man, the following toasts were called for by Captain Packard: "Our Guests," J. C. Moore; "Base-ball," J. E. Beal; "The Future of Base-ball," Ralph Metcalf; "The Defeat," W. J. Abbott. Songs and a few impromptu responses from the guests concluded the jolly supper, and the Port Huron men, who were very genial and gentlemanly fellows, were escorted to the train.

The prettiest game of ball seen in the city for a long time was played Saturday afternoon on the Fair grounds between the University nine and the Port Hurons. Owing to the fame of the latter club the home nine hardly expected to win a victory from them, so they were satisfied at holding them down so well. Notwithstanding the frequent rains, the grounds were in good condition and the fielding on both sides was sharp, the Universities especially effecting three brilliant plays at critical times. One was a single-hand catch by Blackburn, another a pick-up of a low liner by Miller who caught a fly in the center field and made a perfect throw to the home-plate in time to save a run. The terrific speed of Mountjoy prevented the home club from making more than a single base-hit, and while Packard was partially disabled by a sore thumb, only seven hits were made off from him. Mountjoy has developed such pitching qualities that he has had offers from the Philadelphia and Detroit League clubs. Up to the fourth inning both sides had been retired with blanks when Pirie, having been given a base on balls, scored with the aid of a passed ball. The game was of great interest throughout, and the score was such a good one we will publish it:

BACH & ABEL'S COLUMB.

Hardly. It's too long to wait for a big elephant or any other advertising dodge while there is so much to do at home. You see the spring months are gone and summer is at hand. Nearly ten days ago the fairy foot-fall of June was heard on the eastern and southern hills-top as she treads in her flowery pathway closely on the heels of early May.

The meantime, let us suggest that we look around us and see the beautiful sights on the streets of our fair city. We will not ask too much of you, lest you weary with sight seeing and forget that there are also some sights to be seen inside of the Cash Dry Goods House of Bach & Abel.
