SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all porsons add and

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

The Tribune of Duluth, Minn., says: A. McGinnis, an explorer just returned from Itaska county, reports small-pox making terrible work among the Indians in that country. He relates fearful stories of suffering and privations. They are entirely without medical aid, and the disease has full sway. In two small towns eighty-five deaths were reported.

The Chicago Times publishes an article in which it is asserted that secret agents of the Canadian government have been in the city some time shadowing prominent Irish nationalists, and that they have positive information of a premeditated design to destroy the Weland canal by use of explosives. It is further sserted that a request has been made on the United States government to assist in thwarting the alleged conspiracy. In the inquest held at Troy, N. Y.,

the other day relative to the disaster on the Troy & Boston railroad, Johnson, the nightoperator, testified that he did not remain awake nights to wait for trains, but slept, and was awakened by means of a string tied across the track and attached to his chair in the office. When the train came along it would knock over the chair, and wake him. This explains now six persons lost their lives. The Federal authorities of Chicage seiz d the dresses and other wearing apparel

The authorities here assert that the case is not an isolated one, and have sworn out a warrant for her arrest on the ground of perjury. The fire at Vineyard Haven, Martha's Vineyard, Mass., was checked only by the alnost superhuman efforts of the firemen. The village is a sad sight, and is being visited by thousands from all parts of the island and from the murpland. The loss is estimated at $190,000, insurance $64.200. All the stores in the place but one, are burned. The wife of

James Davis, an aged citizen, died from excitement upon the fire. A relief committee has een appointed, and an appeal made for aid. Fully $50,000 are needed for the in.mediate wants of the sufferers. The Hamilton (Ont.) Spectator of re cent date says another victim of the ill-fated Asia was picked up by John Wallace and other fishermen at Equaw Island, Georgia Bay, a few days ago. The head had fallen off, but the clothing had kept the body together. William Beton, of Arran, whose son and wife and two children were on board, had sent a description of the clothing worn by his son and a pair of boots which were newly vamped, all of which

An old building adjoining the new structure was still n use as a hospital and twenty patients theren Lad a narrow escape, as the root took fire from the burning building. The hospital was just under roof and valued in its present condition at $63,000. The loss is estimated at $40,der charge of Architect Charles Brickner, of Fort Wayne. Dr. Passavant is in Pittsburgh, where he has a similar institution. He also has hospitals at Cleveland and at Springfield, Ill. Plumbers were at work on the building the day before, but were not allowed to take their fire pets into the building, which leads the contractors to think the fire was incendiary. Many of the inmates were severely burnel. Dr. Boyd, proprietor of the institution, was killed while attempting to save the lives of patients.

His son also perished in the flames.

Concerning important opium smuggling cases on trial in San Francisco, before the United States circuit court, an official of the United States treasury informed an associated press representative that during the last 10 years over $6,000,000 worth of opium has been smuggled to that port. The business has been systematically conducted by a ring of smugglers assisted by government officials who have been receiving 30 per cent., the smugglers getting 70; that in addition to 30 per cent. officials have received bribes varying from $20,-000 to $5,000, and it is a notorious fact that many men in that city reported to be wealthy made their money through smuggling opium The present stock of opium in the market, large as it is, is not more than three months supply, so under the stimulus of increased duties smuggling will be greater than ever. The treasury agent says that $1,000,000 worth can e smuggled easily, and unless the government takes decided measures to suppress it opium smuggling will continue to be a gold mine for ome officials and their tools. Secretary Lincoln, who is with the esident's party on his western trip, remained at Fort Washakie to press the "bond" scheme. The "bond" scheme is a move of Gen. Sheridan, who has long been working unsuccessfully to secure the transfer of the Indians from the interior to the war departments, and failing hit upon this new method to attain his ends. This startling Indian policy was presented to the assembled red mer at Fort Washakie when the President was there the other day. It proposes to do away with all reservations as such, Mrs. William O'Keefe of Little Rock and the Indian agencies and agents. In the place of lands thus taken the government to ssue bonds bearing interest the same as any other government bonds. These bonds to be ssued in payment for all property lost and the nterest paid semi-annually. Under this act he Indians would be obliged to take up homeeads and live on the interests of the bonds d the product of the farms thus secured. The interests on the bonds would be payable at certain convenient forts by the United States officials in the same way as the army is paid. This would effectually release the Indians from the control of the interior depart. neut and place them absolutely at the mercy of the department of war. There would be no agencies, but the citizens would be protected by existing lines of forts. The scheme will be presented to all the Indians before congress meets. THE CENSUS-No. III.

There are twenty-six cities and towns in the State with a population of over 4,000. We give them in their numerical order, as by 1880's census:

1.	Detroit,	1
2.	Grand Rapids,	85
3.	Bay City,	20
4.	East Saginaw,	19
5.	Jackson,	16

Ann Arbor was the seventh in number by the 1870 census and has since been passed by six cities, but in the meantime it has caught up with and passed Adrian and West Bay City. So it now stands eleventh on the list in total population. As regards colored people it has 301, and is beaten by Detroit, Ypsilanti, Jackson and Grand Rapids, in the order given, our neighbor on the east side of the county having 446.

All of the cities have gained in population except Adrian, Monroe, Niles, Pontiac and Ypsilanti. These have lost.

The native population of Washtenaw county it will be remembered, was given at 33,903. Of these 24,361 were born in the State; 5,881 in New York; 798 in Ohio; 452 in Pennsylvania; 273 in Vermont: 189 in Indiana. The total of foreign born was 7,945, and of these 1,379 came from British America; 1,158 from health measure. England and Wales: 1.358 from Ireland: 3,627 from Germany; 126 from Scotland; 56 from France and 21 from Sweden and Norway.

DR. COCKER'S SUCCESSOR.

After much thought, anxiety, correspondence and consultation a man has been selected by the Regents, through a committee consisting of Regents Duffield and Joy and President Angell, to take the chair left vacant by Dr. Cocker's death. The gentleman is Rev. Jacob Cooper, D. D. professor of Greek and Literature in Rutgers College. We quote the sketch of him from the Bloomfield, N. J. Citi-

was educated there and at Jena and Halle, in Germany. He also pursued special studies in metaphysics at Edinburgh, and was a friend of the celebrated Dr. Caldadded to his already high reputation Thus Dr. Cooper was peculiarly fitted for the academic career he has since pur-

He was first a professor of Greek in Danville, Ky., in 1863, but for the past 12 years he has held the similar chair of Greek languages and literature—at New Brunswick. He has also contributed to many periodicals, and in personal character and pedagogic ability he is held in

There are two sides to every question, and it will greatly surprise us if old Rutgers-whose solid and stable character is thoroughly assured-will easily let her professor go. It will, however, in the ultimate analysis, be the place of the man running to Stockbridge by Jan. 1st. In professor go. It will, however, in the ul himself to determine his own duty. If he prefers ease, good living and steady work, proceed for the future, as in the past, to develop the ideas of the old classic tragedevelop the ideas of the old classic tragedians, and orators, and poets. If he prefers to meet unmoulded material and shape it; if he delights in the largeness and scope of those singularly free and any scope of those singularly free and any scope of those singularly free and any scope of North Manchester, Ind. The sires to shape and influence a very great constituency after the manner of the lamented man who would then be his predecessor-he will go to Ann Arbor.

We wish Rutgers well, but we think that good Greek scholars are far more numerous than earnest, and aggressive, and thoroughly balanced metaphysical teachers, and we are not surprised that so large a vacancy as that left by Dr. Benj. F. Cocker should require as good a man as Dr. Cooper to fill.

From the "Fredonian" published at New Brunswick we make the following

The chair to which the Rev. Professor Jacob Cooper, D. D., is called, is that of "Psychology, Speculative Philosophy and Philosophy of Religion," made vacant by the death of the Rev. Dr. Cocker. This is regarded as the most important profes sorship in the university, and is looked upon with the greatest interest by the religious bodies in the state. An able com-mittee has been searching throughout the various seats of leaning in the country for the proper man, and while a number of names have been presented, no one obtained the favor of the regents until Dr. Cooper was brought to their notice by one of the resident pastors of Ann Arbor. He was ably supported by several minismended by the president and faculty of Yale college, and by distinguished educators in the country. A committee has visited him in this city, announcing his unanimous election by the board of regents, and urging his acceptance. Should accept the appointment he would find a field of usefulness open and a power of doing good almost without bounds. He is a western man by birth and association, and as he was trained amongst Presbyterians he will only be returning to his early home. It is felt that he is the man for the The loss to Rutgers will be very great, but in view of the enlarged opportunities open at the west, and his fitness for the work, the University of Michigan will re-ceive an important addition to its already able faculty should he remove to this

THE CAT-HOLE AGAIN.

MR. EDITOR: It is an encouraging inlication, when any one responsible for the long standing nuisance of the cat hole, shows himself so far sensitive to an arous ed, and healthful public sen1iment, as to attempt a reply in your issue of August 3d, to the article you published the week previous, calling the attention of our city uthorities to the same subject. "Another Tax-payer" while properly commending your article upon sanitary measures in general, and the cat-hole in particular says: "The general tenor of tax payer's communication on the same subject, however, is misleading as to the facts of the situation. But he has not disproved a single fact stated by Tax payer, and can-

It is proper to state that some four or five years since, the owners of the cat-hole at the request of the Board of Health, well aware of their legal obligations, commenced to drain it. It was then destitute of water. They dug a hole near its center, some ten feet deep, and about as many square, About four or five feet at the top was scum, and heavy clay. Then they came to a bed of sand. Soon after the fall rains set in, the water from the streets rushed in, and the hole being small, and unprotected, the scum and clay was washed back. The amount expended was $5.

The first recorded action of the city in relation to this matter is as follows: "Sept. 5, '81." "By Alderman Keech Resolved, That the sum of fifty ($50) dollars be appropriated from the contingent fund for the purpose of draining what is known as the cat-hole, situated in the 6th

"Further resolved, That the same be done under the direction of the Park committee." "Carried."

The above period was a very dry season, and there was little or no water to interfere with the work. Yet the pleasant days, and weeks were permitted to pass, and nothing was done. At last it was thought best to pass over the direction of the drainage to Dr. Smith, a former mayor of this city, and then having a personal interest, and liability in the matter. About that time the late autumnal rains set in, and the cat-hole was flooded with water. Dr. Smith has repeatedly told the writer that had he been furnished with the funds, and authority in season, he was willing, and able to drain the cat-hole.

The next action of our city is under date of "Nov. 6, 1883," rather late in the season as your readers will naturally say to begin a work of this nature. The last action of the city reads as follows: "By permission Dr. Breakev, on behalf of the Board of Health, presented the needs of draining the cat-hole (so called) and requested the Council to aid in accomplishing the work, which was needed as a he has a successor as worthy as Mr. Neat.

By Ald. Henderson, as amended by Ald. Keech: "That the Park Committee be authorized to act in concert with the contingent fund." "On motion, was car-

BALLOON ASCENSION. Thursday proved to be a pleasant day. At about 11 o'clock Wednesday night preparations were begun, the ballast bags having been filled during the afternoon. At 2 o'clock Tuesday morning inflation begun and 15,000 feet, or thereabouts, of gas such as is being furnished to consum ers were run in the balloon before breakfast time. At about 2:35 it left the earth the basket having a solitary occupant. Ypsilanti city band gave him a good send off and the balloon gracefull rose nearly a mile, taking a westward direction, bearing to the north. Since the advertisements appeared stating that a living dog would be thrown out attached to a parachute, not a dog had offered his services, and a bag of sand acted as substitute. It lit on the Case farm, uninjured. Some-where near the M. S. & L. S. R. R. crossing, on the south Ann Arbor road, the balloon came so near the ground that a conversation was carried on. It was then bearing a little south of west. By the aid of a telescope or through an opera glass, we could plainly see the basket and the sand descending. By telephoning the Coursier office it was ascertained that the balloon passed one mile south of Ann Arbor at 3:20, one-half or three-fourth's of a mile high. At 3:40 it came down on the farm of Byron Sutherland, two and one-half miles north of Saline, in a wheat field. The balloon is made of sea island sarcenett, a substance similar to Irish linen. It is 40 feet high, and 25 feet in circumference, will hold 16,000 feet of gas. It

Harper's Magazine for September is an attractive number, varied in its contents, and richly illustrated. One of the most timely of its articles is that on "Recent Building in New York" illustrated by eighteen charateristic pictures. Frank D. The frontispiece is an engraving by R. Hoskin from one of the drawings by Dore for Poe's "Raven." The fifth part of "A Castle in Spain" is given, with F. B. Marshall tells the story of his part in keeping the English out of Hawaii in 1843. Ex-Mayor Grace contributes a timely and important article on "Municipal Government in the State of New York." The Rev. John B. Thompson traces, in a very interesting paper, the origin of the Rip Van Winkle legend. Mrs. Rebecca Harding Davis contributes Time is received at the central office by an admirable short story, entitled "A Sil-

Editor's Drawer, conducted by Mr. Chas. Dudley Warner, is especially entertaining. The Popular Science Monthly for September begins with a clear exposition of "The Germ-Theory of Disease," by Dr. Gradle. Dr. Eelix L. However they are so numbered that when completed, the volumes of Central America, Mexico, California, etc., will stand together each as a complete history and sep-

This, the last book published, opens with a striking pen portrait of the conqueror, Pizarro, which, to give an idea of Mr. Bancroft's vigorous style, we quote: "In a society like that of Panama, where politics were so unjust and morality so diabolical, we could expect nothing else than that the worst men should prove the most successful. Among those who came early to Darien, and whom we have frequently encountered in the wars upon the natives, was one who now enters the arena as the conqueror of Peru. His origin was of the lowest. Born in bastardy, he was taken by a swine-herd to be suckled by a sow. Escaping this master he fled to Seville and lived no one knows how, until took up 200 pounds of ballast. It is the property of W. W. Carpenter. With a he took ship to Santo Domingo, no one knows when. Thence forward to the day good breeze it would have made a longer trip. This is the first ascension which has of his assassination, his merciless courage ever taken place at Ypsilanti, although found congenial occupation; neither his ignorance nor his beastly instincts nor his infamous cruelty and treachery standing in the way of fame and fortune."

From this on is the story of the results of "that marvellous determination and readiness of resource which carried through one of the most remarkable un- Kidneys, Liver, and Bowels, restoring them dertakings of any age." After that are the exploits in Peru and Honduras of safe, sure, and speedy cure, and hundreds have Alvarado, he who was second only to been cured by it when physicians and friends Cortes as a commander. Everywhere in had given them up to die. Do not delay, try at the recital of this history the interest is held by grapic descriptions, but it is fairly fascinating when one reads of the Buccaneers and buccaneering raids. Their wild lawlessness, and greed for gold, their abominable treachery, their final overthrow and annihilation make so romantic a story as scarcely to be credible. The greater portion of the latter part of this number has its record of events thickly interwoved with the subtle policy of the early Jesuit priests. In all parts we find them urging on the Spanish soldiary with fi ry zeal. By them the miserable native inca or indian, whether accepting or rejecting the cross, was given to the sword. Every thing bowed to greed and lust. As we said above the tale seems most unbut truth is stranger than fiction and with his great literary resources Mr. Bancroft has been able thoroughly to sift it Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Musical and obtain the genuine facts.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient. A Sufferer from Headache writes:

held by the medical profession.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly more my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

Over sixty went to the "Camp" by the Toledo road Monday morning.

The State street book-store of George Moore will also have a stock of drugs. Evart Scott is sending from 12 to 15 bushels of raspberries daily to Detroit. Eugene Beal and Eugene Mann have just introduced the new "Harvard Special" bicycles in town. Judging from the talk about town the excursion of the city band to Detroit next week Friday will be well patronized.

Work has been commenced and is rapidly progressing on the public cisterns recently ordered by the common council.

The officers of Co. A. have received an invitation from the 16th Regiment to be their guests at their encampment at Huron

The coal scales of E. B. Hall & Bro. have been removed to their sheds near the Toledo road track, and the hole on Huron street is being filled up.

During the month of June the highest temperature at the Observatory was 85°; the lowest, 37°; and the average 65°. The rain fall was 4.59 inches.

Auditor General Stevens is staying a few days at Whitmore Lake. Tuesday he persuaded a 11 pound pickerel to get into the boat and ride ashore with him.

The city schools open a week from next Monday. The children are counting the days and by next week they can tell how many more hours of freedom they have.

Yesterday morning when the Temperance excursion started for Fremont the train had between three and four hundred excursionists from here and South Lyon.

The Three Rivers company with their nobby drum corps of little boys stopped over and took dinner at the St. James Tuesday afternoon on their way from Camp Grimth.

We understand from one of the bondsof ten days has been granted him, and by next week's issue we hope to be able to give the terms of settlement.

A few weeks ago we uttered a plaint that there were no excursions being put on foot. That seemed to stir up the backward and now we are having them every week to and from every direction.

The children of St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum of Detroit, were given an excursion here yesterday. They had a picnic in Miller's grove and a dinner was furnished them by the people of the town.

The County Clerk has a large number of county orders for various small amounts and for various persons. Probably the majority of them have been forgotten, and that will leave the county so much ahead.

Ann Arbor was represented in town last week by 5 printers, 2 lawyers, 4 masons, several drummers, besides several business men who came to size up the general situation of South Lyon.-South Lyon Excelsior.

Mr. Herbert Spencer of London was last May chosen a member of the Institute of France, as a foreign correspondent of the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Henry P. Tappan, president of Michigan University from 1852 to 1860.

The Lutheran church of Toledo gave a large excursion to this city Wednesday and passed the day at Relief Park and in riding around town and viewing the campus. There were eleven car loads of them and it was the best looking and most orderly excursion party we have seen in a

On Tuesday and Wednesday some 300 delegates from the temperance organizations, representing all the congressional districts, met at Eaton Rapids, appointed a State committee and subscribed $1,000. stock for campaign purposes. Dr. Wilson, O. R. L. Crozier and Rev. Spence went from Ann Arbor.

Law abiding people who have occasion to pass through the business streets Sundays wonder why the saloons and cigar stores are allowed to be open and trade carried on just the same as upon any other day. A free cigar or a glass discreetly tendered goes a great ways in some parts of this hemisphere. Four hundred and five men, women and children went from the city to "Camp Griffith" Sunday. The forenoon, was hot and dusty; the afternoon, rainy; drunkenness was rampant, and but few women were present who were not insulted. The general demoralization attending such

Sunday excursions is hard to estimate. In commenting on our recently published article about "Too Many Papers," the Montcalm Herald, edited by E. R.

Powell, says: We worked as a jour printer in Ypsilanti as long ago as 1838. The place then had about 1,000 population. It now contains a population of between three and four thousand, with several manufacturing industries, two railroads, and the best water power that exists anywhere within twenty miles. We quote the above paragraph not for the purpose of giving any valuable information to our readers, because everybody knows that there are too many newspapers everywhere in the United States. Ann Arbor has a population of 9,000, and the foregoing indicates that six newspa- do. Carpenters are out of jobs and are per offices has surely overdone the busi-

The G. A. R. Post met Friday night and decided to give an excursion to Orchard Lake as soon as the new road is opened to that place. The boys have received their caps, so long expected, and are pleased with them. Owing to the delay in their reception they secured them at $1.35-15 cents lower than contract price.

It is reported with good foundation that the Register has flopped again and when t comes up next time it will be owned by Mr. Kitredge, until about four months ago editor of the Eaton Rapids Journal. $9,000 is said to be the price at which it is given away. The last management has run it over a whole year; we wonder how long the next will kick.

The bicycle club take a "run around the Triangle" this afternoon. They first go to Saline, then across to Ypsilanti, thence home by moonlight. The distance is about twenty-seven miles, and as it is ver the best gravel roads in the county the time will be probably three and a half hours. This will be an easy pace with stops at Saline and Ypsilanti. The Saline club has been invited to join in the run.

John Burke, a Northfield farmer, was snocked down on Detroit street Monday night by three foot-pads, who hit him with a slung shot. A lady who saw the occurrence screamed for help and also was knocked over. Fred Wallace came upon the scene and the highwaymen suddenly left. Two suspicious fellows named Tom Condon and Dave Norton have been arrested and identified. The third has not been found.

The following officers of Ann Arbor Lodge, 320, I. O. G. T. were duly installed Tuesday evening . W. C. T., E. B. Lewis ; W. V. T., Mrs. Jennie Traver; W. S., S. T. Speechly; W. T., H. Richards; W. Charges Against Company A. Not a little indignation has been stirred up among the members and friends of Company A, over an article published in the Jackson Patriot, which, in speaking of the local company on the day of going to camp said; "A majority of them seemed to be sober, but a few were going from one saloon to another, and judging from their hilarity were rapidly 'filling up' with intoxicating beverages." The above having been brought to the attention of the Brigade Commander, a written enquiry was made of Captain Manly as to whether he permitted the visiting of liquor saloons by his men when in uniform. The Captain at once replied: "After a careful examination of the charges made, I am prepared to refute them, and in behalf of my company, do most respectfully request a full and thorough investigatian." At receiving this the General commanding expressed his entire satisfaction as to the untruth of the report, and the Colonel of the First Regiment congratulated Captain Manly and his company upon the satisfactory termination of the case. In the article referred to, the other companies which passed through Ann Arbor on that day were also charged with disorderly conduct and with drunkennness. So it seems as though their commanders also should have been called upon for explanations. men of Mr. C. G. Clark that an extension | Had this been done we presume they would have had more difficulty in proving the untruth of the charges than did Capt. Manly. The charge of intoxication against some of the soldiers on our streets last week would not have been without foundation, but we are confident the members of the town company in no ways disgraced themselves by drinking.

Adulterated Lard.

In its account of the recent gathering of microscopists in Chicago, the Times gives the following:

Dr. W. T. Belfield exhibited a series of micro-photographs, recently presented to the Chicago Board of Trade during the McGeoch-Fowler lard investigation. The photographs, represented specimens of lard, pure and adulterated, showing how adulterations of lard can be detected by the microscope. This is rendered possible by the differences between the crystals of lard and of tallow-a discovery made two years ago by Dr. P. B. Rose. The crystals of lard are long, thin plates with beveled ends, while the crystals of tallow are plume-shaped, resembling somewhat an estrich feather. In adulterated lard the feathery crystals of tallow can be detected among the thin plates of lard. The two kinds of crystals were plainly shown in several of Dr. Belfield's photographs representing adulterated lard.

Townsend's Tale.

A few weeks ago we chronicled the departure of Emory Townsend for the West. We are in receipt of Denver papers from him which tell of the G. A. R. reunion. He arrived there, and yet he does not seem perfectly happy from the tone of a letter recently received from him by a friend.

We quote :-Cheyenne, the town I first went to, has about 4,000 inhabitants. There are 136 saloons in the place. They know no Sunday; have been trying to build a church for two and a half years, and it is only half completed for the lack of funds; yet there are quite a number of men there worth millions. Not a tree of any kind in the whole city, and not even an onion or house plant is or can be raised there. Well, I have said enough about Cheyenne, as I do not intend to go there again. have been to Greeley, Ft. Collins, Loveland, Boulder, Brighton, Denver, and a lot of other towns. This is a hard country, and not much work to be done. Men ask for work by the dozens, but find it not. They tell me that every week there are 500 applications for work at the Union Pacific railroad offices. Wages are not as high as they are in the east. A man was shot the other night at Denver, but that was nothing, and it caused no stir, it is too mmon an affair. But if a bank breaks the old scratch is to pay. I am not homesick in the least; but this in a God-forsaken country, I tell you, There are no trees except a sort of cotton wood, and not one of them makes a nice shade tree. I have seen thousands upon thousands of acres of nothing but cactus and sage brush. Step outside of any town and that is what will meet your view, no matter which way you look. The atmosphere is very hard on the complexion. The women are as dark as Indians. Yet there are some fine views here. I have but to step to the door to see Long's peak, over 1,400 feet high and covered with snow. Pike's peak, 150 miles away, can be seen here on a clear day, We are 40 miles from Long's peak.

BOILER HOUSE REPAIRS.

The legislature appropriated at the last session $8000. to increase the capacity of the steam-heating plant of the university. This was made necessary because of the addition of the Library Building, and because difficulty has been experienced in heating the Museum building proper-

y. Two new tubular boilers, sixty inches in diameter and fourteen feet long,

are to be added to the present plant at the central boiler house, making six boilers in all. It is probable that the east end of the boiler house will be excavated and the new boilers put down so as to connect the library and museum buildings on the low pressure gravityreturn system. And if these boilers are put down, the others will no doubt also be put down within a year or two. The present system of heating is a very expensive one, as the steam which is condensed in the radiators and pipes is allowed to run into a cistern open to the atmosphere, and from this it is pumped about twenty-two feet back into the boilers. The temperature of the water in the pipes is about 250°; and after it is cheaper than you will ever have an opdischarged into the open cistern, it is, of portunity again. Come and see what we course, only 212°. By putting the boilers are doing. No trouble to show them. low enough to allow the condensed water to follow directly back into them, a saying of about (250°-212°)=38 heat units will be realized for every pound of steam used besides the saving in the cost of the money better than we can the Lawns. pumping the water back into the boilers. The furnaces of the present four boilers are to be increased in size, and so arranged as to secure a great efficiency in the consumption of fuel. Their arrangement at present is entirely contrary to what is considered the best practice in steam engineering. A coal shed 42 by 60 is to price, 28c. be built on the north side of the central boiler house and tracks are to be laid from the boiler house into the coal shed, a car being provided to enable the fireman to get his own coal as wanted. For years the 1000 or 1500 tons of coal burned on the university campus has been mostly stacked out of doors, and it has been no uncommon sight to see men prying the coal from the piles in large frozen chunks. As all of the water contained in the coal had to be evaporated in the furnaces, a great loss of fuel has of course attended

Mount Union College.

This college is free from debt, and its permanent growth and greatly enlarged facilities and usefulness at Mt. Union are assured. The past year has been the most successful and aggressive it has enjoyed in its thirty-seven years of remarkable history. The college has a full and competent Faculty and an enterprising body of students and alumni. Number of dif ferent students the past year, 512. This Fall term of 13 weeks begins August 28, 1883; winter term of 13 weeks begins December 4th; spring term of 13 weeks begins March 4, 1884. and summer term begins June 3d and ends with commencement, July 31, 1884. The winter term ac commodates those not teaching, enabling them to gain a term. By means of apparatus and specimens all the studies are illustrated and applied. Its distinctive features are: to make a thorough, liberal, practical education accessible to all; enabling students to defray their expenses, and equal privileges to ladies. By having erected buildings this college regulates and heapens cost of students' rooms and board, their chief expense. Table or club board is $1.75 to $2.10 per week; good board and furnished room, $2.85 to $3.50 per week. Tuition is but a trifle in any charges. All published prices guaranteed. FEATS UNDER WATER. What May Be Accomplished by an Expert. Those who have not fallen in love with the water and learned to trust it as a farmer boy trusts the hay-mow in his father's barn, into which he fearlessly jumps, will be astonished to hear of all the many things that the accomplished swimmer, the variety artist of the wave, can do beneath the surface of the water. For instance smoking a cigar under water is a common pastime with the acquatic expert. Men can and have eaten under water, and women kissing each other, and no doubt a man and woman could do it, too, if they dared. Men can write under water, and women sew, and both writing and sewing have actually been done when the entire body of the operator has been under water. But the strangest thing of all that can | rapid motion. be done beneath the waves is talking, and the words spoken can be heard and understood. For instance, if two persons are at the bottom of a pond they can converse together. At the same time, however, a person speaking below the surface of the water cannot be heard by a person out of the water, though as close together as the persons who hear each other when standing at the bottom of the pond. And yet a means has been contrived, and a very simple one, for a person out of the water holding converse with a person considerbly below the surface of the water. The help of a stick or a piece of board is all that is needed. Each one takes hold of this voice, so that the words spoken by the persons in the water can be heard by those above the water. All these three

The Long Island Heathen. In the recent discovery on Long Isand of a community of full blown heathen, the boasted civilization of the nineteenth century has received a severe shock. Right under the nose of the foreign missionary society paganism rears its horrid seven story front.

A man from the Seventh Ward, New York, was over the Island last week, and while leaning on a fish-cart interviewed one of the elderly and most reectable of the down-east heathen When the old animated mummy fetched to in his starboard tack to windward the Seventh Ward man accosted him. and the enraged gentlemen thrust his

A Daring St. Louis Reporter.

Chicago Saturday Herald. Judge Barnum of this city had a brother-in-law, who was a very daring reporter on the St. Louis press. It is related of the scribe that during the great riots at St. Louis, in the disguise "Must have been. Have another of a workman, he secured the orders to the mobs and published them daily, discomfitting all plans. One day the leader of the mob offered a reward for the head of the offending reporter, and suddenly called out, "If you see him now, seize him." The scribe glared around fiercely with the rest, but was church militant got around. At another earned that the execution had been stayed, sent word to the office to that effect. By some chance the message was not understood and the account of the execution appeared in full the next day. Judge Barnum has since heard another trial of the same felon, who is still at large. This reporter was sent to look after the yellow fever at Memphis, and is said to have escaped contagion by living at odd hours in a diving bell at the bottom of the river. He made two balloon ascensions, and in one with Wise floated across the lakes near the water, and finally landed in a tree. When the airship caught, all the baggags had been thrown out and the pair were just about to cast lots to see which should jump out to lessen the weight The daring of this reporter is rather above the exploits of his profes sion. Facts About Friday.

Arthur's Magazine. From time immemorial Friday has been frowned upon as a day of ill-omen, and though this prejudice is less prevalent now than it was of yore, when superstition had general sway, yet there are many, even in this matter-of-fact age, who would hesitate on a day so inauspicious to begin an undertaking of momentous import. And how many brave mariners, whose hearts unquailed could meet the wildest fury of their ocean home, would blanch to even bend their sails on Friday. But to show with how much reason this feeling is indulged in, let us examine the following important facts in connection with our own settlement and greatness as a nation, feats eating, smoking, and talking below the surface of the water are accomand we will see how great cause we Americans have to dread the fatal day. plished by simply bearing in mind the On Friday, August 3d, 1492, Christo-pher Columbus sailed on his great voying water, and consequently be choked

On Friday, January 4th, 1493, he sailed on his return to Spain, which, if he had not reached in safety, the happy results would never have been known which led to the settlement of this vast continent.

On Friday, March 15th, 1493, he ar rived at Palos in safety. On Friday, November 22d, 1494, he arrived at Hispaniola, on his second voyage to America.

On Friday, March 5th, 1495, Henry VII, of England, gave to John Cabot his commission, which led to the dis covery of North America. This is the first American State paper in England On Friday, September 7th, 1565, Melendez founded St. Augustine, the oldest settlement in the United States by more than forty years. On Friday, November 10th, 1620, the Mayflower with the Pilgrims, made the harbor of Providence town, and on the same day signed that august compact, the forerunner of our present Con-

On Friday, December 22d, 1620, the Pilgrims made their final landing at Plymouth Rock. On Friday, February 22d, 1732, Geo. Washington, the father of American freedom, was born.

On Friday, June 19th, 1775, Bunker Hill was sieged and fortified. On Friday, October 7th, 1777, the surrender of Saratoga was made, which had such power and influence in inducing France to declare for our cause. On Friday, September 22d, 1780, the treason of Arnoid was laid bare, which saved us from destruction.

On Friday, October 10th, 1781, the surrender of Yorktown—the crowning glory of the American army. On Friday, June 7th, 1776, the motion in Congress was made by John Adams, seconded by Richard Henry Lee, that the United Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free and independent. Thus, by numerous examples, we see that however it may be with other nations, we Americans need never dread to begin on Friday any undertaking, no matter how momentous it may be.

They Were There. "Sir!" he called over the fence to his neighbour, "your hens are in my gar-den again!" "Is that possible?"

"Yes, sir; you can see them if you step this way a little." "Oh, never mind -I'll take your word they are in there. If the man on the other side would only have a little public spirit in him and spade up a few beds my hens would do well this sum mer. Twelve hens require at least two gardens for a running ground. Can you lend me your wheelbarrow and shovel, and rake and hoe?"

"Undoubtedly the most perfect bicycle now made is the 'Columbia.'"—Scientific American.
