Baking Powder Figures

THAT DON'T LIE.

The Royal Baking Powder Co. try to give the inference that their powder contains more Cream Tartar and that its Leavening Power is greater than any other made, as stated in their advertisement on the "Comparative Worth of Baking Powders," exhibited by black lines. Our name was mentioned in connection with one of our cheaper brands, made of different materials as the trade might demand. Our Cream Tartar brand of Andrew's Pearl was omitted, evidently for a very good reason, judging from the relative merits of ANDREW'S "PEARL" and the Royal, as clearly demonstrated by the Government Chemist, Dr. PETER COLLIER of the Department of Agriculture, at Washington, from samples received by him from dealers who furnished the samples from their stocks on hand in open market.

Showing excess of Cream Tartar in Andrews' Pearl over Royal, ascertained by Government Chemist Collier.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE,
WASHINGTON D. C., March 10, 1883.

C. E. ANDREWS & Co.—Gentlemen: I received by express from Thos. Lydon and J. P. Harkins & Co., Grand Ave., Milwaukee, and Harper Bros., Chicago, Ill., samples of Andrews' Pearl and Royal Baking Powders. The cans were in good condition when received and the seals unbroken. I find upon analysis that Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder contains about four and a half (4½) per cent. more cream tartar than the Royal Baking Powder, and a proportionately larger percentage of carbonic acid gas, and I find it to be free from alum, and any injurious substances.

Sincerely yours,
PETER COLLIER,
U. S. Chemist, Dept. of Agriculture.

Government Chemist Collier's Analysis as to the Leavening Qualities.

ANDREWS' PEARL [redacted]

ROYAL..... [redacted]

No wonder the Royal Co. omitted Andrews' Pearl from their "Comparative List," as Government Chemist Collier's analysis shows conclusively two things: 1st, That Andrews' Pearl contains more Cream Tartar than the Royal, as shown by the cuts above; 2d, That the Leavening Power of Andrews' Pearl is greater than the Royal, as shown by the two black lines above.

CHALLENCE.

We will gsve the Royal Co. or any one else $1,000 or $5,000 if they can prove by any fair mutual test that Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder does, or ever did, contain alum or any injurious substances, and this challenge is open forever. Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder is sustained by a testimonial as to its purity and strength by the only genuine commissioned Government chemist, such as the Royal Co. never have published. Try it!

CUTICURA REMEDIES
Cuticura
THE GREAT SKIN CURES
A Positive Cure for Every Form of Skin and Blood Disease, from Pimples to Scrofula.

THOUSANDS of Letters in our possession repeat this story: I have been a terrible sufferer for years with Blood and Skin Humors; have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disfiguring humors; have had the best physicians; have spent hundreds of dollars and got no real relief until I used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the Great Skin Cures and Skin Beautifiers, externally, which have cured me and left my skin and blood as pure as a child's.

Almost Incredible.
James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, on oath, says,—In 1870 Scrofulous Ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a mere wreck. At times could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed; was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a burden. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1880 was perfectly cured.
Sworn to before U. S. Com., J. D. CRAWFORD.

Still More So.
Will McDonald, 2342 Dearborn Street, Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema, or Salt Rheum, on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to move, except on hands and knees, for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless, permanently cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

More Wonderful Yet.
H. E. Carpenter, N.Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by Cuticura Remedies. The most wonderful cure on record. A dustpanful of scales fell from him daily. Physicians and his friends thought he must die. Cure sworn to before a justice of the peace and Henderson's most prominent citizens.

The Emperor Louis Napoleon smoked only the finest cigars the world could produce. Prof. Horsford says the Emperor's cigars were made specially for him in Havana from leaf tobacco grown in the Golden Belt of North Carolina, this being the finest leaf grown. Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco is made from the same leaf used in the Emperor's cigars, is absolutely pure and is unquestionably the best tobacco ever offered.
Thackeray's gifted daughter, Anne, in her sketch of Alfred Tennyson, in Harper's Monthly, tells of her visit to the great poet. She found him smoking Blackwell's Bull Durham Tobacco, sent him by Hon. James Russell Lowell, American Minister to the Court of St. James.

From the Herald

The Lutherans of this place have decided to purchase or build a parsonage.

The loss of sheep and lambs is very great, and is attributed to the poor quality of hay fed.

During the eight years in which elder Gay has served the Baptist society of this place, only two members have died.

We are informed that a son of John Welch, a former resident of Chelsea, had both legs cut off above the knees a few days ago, by the cars, at Chicago.

Many of our readers are probably not aware that Chelsea has within its borders two very old, and consequently valuable violins, of the Caspered Daffo Pruggar make. After an examination of these instruments by Prof. Luderer, of Detroit, he expressed the opinion that they were the genuine article, and for quality and power of tone were not excelled in Michigan. The instruments are the property of Geo. and James Bachman.

On Sunday morning last occurred the death of Miss Maggie Sawyer, aged 39 years, after a sickness of less than twelve hours. Miss Sawyer prepared dinner as usual, but soon after complained of a headache and laid down to rest. Her mother, not thinking it anything at all serious, visited a neighbor and on returning called to her daughter but received no answer She went to her room where she found deceased on the floor in a fit of apoplexy. Medical aid was at once summoned, but she was beyond help. Deceased was the daughter of Lorenzo and Mrs. Sawyer, who reside north of this village, who have the sympathy of the whole community, as was amply shown by the large number who attended the funeral last Tuesday at the Baptist church.

Ed. Randall of Bridgewater found a young lamb in his flock last week which had two perfect bodies and eight legs The head was perfect, but the bodies were joined at the neck. Had it lived it would have been a great curiosity. A great many have been to see it, and some wish him to have it mounted by a taxidermist.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe returned home from southern California where they have been for about two years, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Rowe has been busily engaged in improving his fruit farm and is looking hale and hearty, and Mrs. Rowe, who is enjoying better health than when she left here, thinks she could not have endured our severe winters. They seem pleased to see their many old friends again.

Washington Letter.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17, 1884.

The wild applause which broke out in the House of Representatives on Tuesday, when the result of the tariff vote was announced, revealed the deep feeling which existed underneath apparent indifference. For once, a roll call was followed from name to name with a more absorbed attention, both on the floor and in the galleries, than the most eloquent speech. The importance of the question involved and the uncertainty of the issue, combined to invest the result with extraordinary interest, and when the suspense was happily over, the joy of the victors was expressed in such an uproar of cheers, and screams as is seldom heard in a deliberative assembly. On that day the House of Representatives was almost as much of an attraction as Barnum's circus, which was showing in another part of the city. Immense crowds turned their steps toward the capitol at an early hour and the demand for seats far exceeded the supply. The scene in the corridors, on the floor, and in the galleries was suggestive of adjournment day. The ladies were out in force, the diplomatic gallery was over filled with representatives of foreign nations, and of the 324 members, only ten failed to answer at the final roll call, on the motion to strike out the enacting clause of the Morrison Horizontal tariff bill. The voting began; the result was 159 yeas to 155 nays, and thus the tariff bill received its death blow. The father of the dead issue maintained a seat [illegible] came from the Democratic side, and cheer followed cheer on the Republican side of the Hall. Ladies stood up and waved their handkerchiefs, and men swung papers and hats over their heads. Never has there been a more doubtful or more exciting vote in Congress. The divided Democracy will now transfer its quarrel to the National Convention, where, as the free traders say, there will be no Republicans.

The Siamese embassy which is now visiting Washington and seeing the sights came to this country for the purpose of seeing and examining tools, machinery, and fire-arms. When they called on the President the other day, they made quite an imposing appearance attired in full costume, They wore black helmets, tight fitting coats, with heavy gold embroidery, loose silk knee breeches, white silk stockings, patent leather slippers and gold mounted swords.

The weekly flood of bills that has poured in on Congress ever since the beginning of the session is growing perceptibly less. Still, had these new measures ceased coming in two months ago, the next session of Congress would be likely to receive a rich inheritance of important bills that will go over from the present session. There are now more than 160 Senate bills upon the calendar of the House of Representatives in addition to the mass of original measures awaiting the action of the latter body. Since there is little hope of action by the House upon any new Senate bill that is not of the first importance, the upper House is proceeding in a very leisurely manner with everything but appropriation bills, and others that the House has passed.

Panic stricken Wall street made an unsuccessful effort on Wednesday to secure relief through Congress. Hundreds of telegrams were received by Members and Senators urging immediate action to relieve the financial strain. Just before the adjournment of the House unanimous consent was asked by Representative Springer to pass the Dingley bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to invest in bonds the lawful money deposited by banks for retirement of circulation. It was explained that the effect of such a law would be to put into immediate circulation about thirty million dollars. Messrs. Holman and Weller objected and no action was taken. An effort will be made early next week, however to secure the passage of both the Dingley and McPherson currency bills.

It is so hard for the free trade men to give up, that they have resorted to new tariff bills, three of which were introduced this week. Representative Dorsheimer has prepared an address to the people defining the position of the majority of the Democrats in the House on the tariff, so that there can be no shifting from the straight issue. This practically reads the Randall faction out of the party, and it is understood the idea of the address is fully approved by Messrs. Carlisle, and Morrison.

President Arthur, and Chief Justice Waite, accompanied by a number of Generals have gone on an excursion to the battle-fields of Virginia. They will visit those of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Spottsylvania, and the Wilderness, returning to Washington on Saturday.

Early next week Washington will entertain Good Templars and Bicyclers by the thousand. The former are coming from all countries to hold a session of the Grand Lodge of the world, and the latter are coming to parade, race, and banquet. Fifteen hundred wheelmen are expected.

The Clarksville Panic.

The panic in the Clarksville school has naturally cast a gloom over playground and dormitory, and it will probably be long before the game of marbles recovers its former standing as a reputable though risky game.

The panic was distinctly due to overtrading in marbles. An immense business was done without insufficient capital; and a shrinkage in the value of rabbits or other securities would have precipitated a panic at any time during the last three months. The failure of James Smith was, of course, the immediate origin of the panic, but the firm could not, in any event, have kept itself above water more than a week or two longer.

Master James Smith is not only a skillful marble-player, but he is a financial genius. At the beginning of the present school term he conceived a great scheme for enriching himself and all the boys who had confidence in him. He proposed that he should borrow marbles at a high rate of interest, and pay both this interest and large dividends out of his winnings as a marble-player. To every boy who should lend him six marbles he offered to repay nine marbles within two days, and in case the lender should reinvest both principal and profits he undertook to repay him at any moment with profits at the rate of fifty per cent. every two days.

The offer was so tempting that there was a general anxiety on the part of the boys to lend their marbles to James Smith, and in the course of the week every boy in the school had invested in the marble pool It was understood that James Smith was to win marbles from boys unconnected with the school; but, curiously enough, no one inquired where these boys were to be found or at what hour in the night James Smith was in the habit of secretly getting out of bed and going off to play with his unknown adversaries. The boys were, however, perfectly satisfied with his method of conducting business. He never failed to tender large quantities of marbles to his patrons whenever by the terms of his contracts they were entitled to reinvest the whole amount with him. Each of them decided to make at least a million of marbles before closing their accounts with James Smith, and they were eager, not to draw marbles, but to add to their investments.

The local storekeeper who sold marbles consented, after the boys had spent all their money, to sell them marbles on credit, provided they would place securities in his hands. Most of the boys kept rabbits, and they pledged their rabbits, their tops, their jack-knives, and other negotiable securities, with the utmost recklessness. Last Thursday night the books of James Smith showed that 28,000,000 marbles, in round numbers, were due to the sixty-four boys of the Clarksville school. On Friday night James Smith announced his insolvency, and assigned 203 marbles to the Greek professor in trust for his creditors.

The disaster was precipitated by a shrinkage in the value of rabbits, caused by the breaking out of a distemper among the rabbits hypothecated with the storekeeper. The latter, not knowing at what moment all the rabbits might die, demanded that they should be redeemed. In order to redeem them their owners were compelled to call in the marbles that they had invested with James Smith. The latter was unable to respond to the call; a panic followed, and the unfortunate boys lost both their marbles and their hypothecated securities.

The principal of the school investigated the affairs of James Smith on Saturday afternoon with three consecutive apple-tree switches of the largest size. He found no assets worth mentioning. James Smith had played marbles with the son of the janitor of the female seminary on two or three occasions, and had lost heavily. The dividends which he tendered to his victims were simply the investments made by other victims. He had not won a single legitimate marble during his entire career as a marble financier, and as the principal coldly remarked whenever he stopped to select a new switch, his conduct had been no better than that of a professional pickpocket.

At present the Clarksville schoolboys have neither pocket money, marbles, rabbits, nor any other negotiable property. No one can palliate their folly or feel much sympathy for them in their losses. Nevertheless, although no grown person would for an instant be guilty of like folly, it should be mentioned that James Smith informed the boys that he conducted his business strictly in accordance with Wall street methods, and that they actually believed that he spoke the truth. —N. Y. Times.

A Peculiar Explosion.

Last Friday evening as the household of Alfred Miller were chatting in the family sitting room in their residence, near the depot, a loud report as of the discharge of a gun, suddenly broke upon the otherwise quietness of the occasion, from the pantry. Of course an immediate investigation was instituted, and the artillery was found to have been a seemingly harmless and unwarlike bottle of home-made catsup, which burst without a moment's warning by any "sissing" or apparent "working." The bottle flew into many pieces, some of which went clear into the third room (the doors being open) or entirely through the center room. The contents scattered over the pantry shelves and walls promiscuously, and mixed its contents in 17 pans of milk. A job is now left for the cat(to)sup, when another explosion may be looked for, the result of which will be a shower of fiddle-strings. —Saline Observer.

Description of Property For Sale in the Southwest, Suitable for Stock Ranches and for Colonization.

No. 1—Is a specially desirable ranch property of 60,000 acres. It is part of the Mora Grant. It corners about one mile from a station on the A. T. & S. F. R. R. It is well watered with about thirteen miles of river front and numerous springs and lakes. Is well grassed with the nutritious gramma grass, the best grass for cattle known. Plenty of timber and breaks for shelter during the winter. The improvements consist of the buildings at headquarters, within a few miles of a station on the A. T. & S. F. R. R.; among them are a good five-room frame house, lathed and plastered, with some adobe out-houses, a two story adobe stable for eight or ten horses, with tin roof, and a corral. There are several other buildings located at convenient places on the tract, for the accommodation of herders and assistants. A water ditch, which cost $3,000, carries water from the Mora river to a large lake. There are also ditches to water several hundred acres of rich farming and meadow land. This is a very desirable property, and belonging to a non-resident, it will be sold very low, for $1.25 per acre.

No. 2—Is a desirable water-right on the Pecos river, which has been secured by location and purchase of sixteen forty-acre tracts, so located as to command the most desirable water-rights. The title is United States patent for the land. These water-rights give control of a large area of choice grazing land. Will be sold for $6 000.

No. 3—Is a very desirable small tract of good bottom land, most of it under ditch and cultivation. It has a small grist mill, run by water-power, and several other buildings, located about six miles from the A. T. & S. F. R. R. No. 4—Is a part of the Mora Grant containing 25,919 acres; 10,000 acres are choice tillable land; 5,000 acres are now under ditch: 10 miles of completed wire fence with cedar posts. Enough fencing material on hand to complete a fence around the whole tract. A good three-story mill newly fitted up, with two run of stones, capacity for grinding 30,000 bushels of wheat a year. A store with $3,000 worth of merchandise in it, doing a business of $10 000 per annum, yielding 33⅓ per cent. profit. This business can be very much increased with good management. There are about 50 buildings on the place, one-half of them large and well-built, the remainder suitable for tenement houses for laborers and tenants; 264 grade and thoroughbred shorthorns and horses, a fine[illegible] Jack. The stock, houses, furniture, implements and improvements of all kinds inventory $72,506. The whole tract is finely watered, beautifully located, and is an exceptionally desirable and valuable property. Will be sold with all stock, furniture, merchandise, implements and everything on the ranch for $125,000. We will take pleasure in furnishing a full inventory of property upon application.

No. 5—A patented Spanish grant, containing 378,537 50-100 acres, well located in the Territory, to increase largely in value with the growth and development of the country. Good grass, abundance of water, timber, and shelter-spots well distributed over the tract. This very desirable tract can be purchased entire for $1 an acre, making it one of the best investments offered in New Mexico of a large tract with clear title.

No. 6—A patented Spanish grant of 90,000 acres, coming to the Rio Grande river—having many desirable features, is offered for sale at $135,000.

No. 7—A patented Spanish grant, containing 160,000 acres. Very desirably located for future increase in value from the development of the Territory. Well watered, with good grass. Price, $1.75 per acre.

No. 8—Three thousand acres of very desirable valley land on the Rio Grande river, partly under ditch, with some buildings on it. A specially desirable tract for a colony settlement. Price, $6 per acre.

No. 9—A Spanish grant, confirmed but not yet patented. Title perfect; has been so determined by the courts. Area, 32,000 acres. Has on it more than enough commercial timber to pay for the land. Centrally located in the Territory. Well watered, with good grass. Price, $1.50 per acre.

No. 10—A patented Spanish grant, containing 81,037 67-100 acres. Close to railroad. Good water, grass and timber. Price, $1.50 per acre.

The grants were located at an early day, when the whole country was open to select from, and they were selected specially with reference to good grass, water and shelter advantages for cattle and sheep ranges. They offer the only opportunities in the West to obtain large tracts of land in a solid body. They can be bought now at from one dollar to one dollar and a half per acre, but are rapidly increasing in value, and this year, 1884, will probably see all of them in the hands of strong cattle-men, who will appreciate and hold them. Persons desirous of securing such tracts for cattle raising will find it to their interest to secure them at the earliest day possible.

A new bridge across Niagara River has been opened within a few weeks which makes an important link in a great railroad line, and is itself reckoned an engineering wonder. It is situated a few hundred feet south of the old suspension bridge, and was built to give the Michigan Central railroad a complete line between the New York Central and Chicago. The connection is over the Canada Southern, now a part of the Michigan Central, between Niagara river and Detroit, and whole trains are now run through between the ends of Vanderbilt's famous four tracks and the Garden City. The new route will prove specially attractive to passengers because of the opportunity it gives for seeing the great cataract. There is a fine view of the falls from the bridge itself, and then trains run up by the river on the Canadian side and stop at a station called Falls View, where is a platform from which all can take an observation.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican, April 11, 1884.

"Young man," said an orator, impressively, "do you want to go to a drunkard's grave?" "Well," replied the young man, with the careless grace of a man who isn't accustomed to refusing, "I don't care if I do. Whereabouts is your grave?"

J. E. Scripps, of Detroit, has recently done a noble thing for art by giving $50,000 to the fund for starting a permanent art exhibition in Detroit. Such a generous gift speaks well for the public spirit of Mr. Scripps, as that amount will enable the lovers of the beautiful to do much in educating the public mind in higher and nobler paths. That money will do good, but has any one heard of any good being done by the $20,000 he recently had to donate to the professor of surgery in the U. of M.?

Michigan Republicans in convention assembled at Grand Rapids did not waste time and words in empty resolutions of a long list of what they intended doing. However bad the Democrats feel over the matter it will be found that the Republicans of this State are to be relied upon in the future as in the past for an honorable and distinguished discharge of all duties entrusted to them. Moreover, although they did not go through the form of a verbal endorsement of the administration, it is now affirmed by those who ought to know that Arthur will receive the votes of more than half of the Michigan delegation. That kind of an endorsement would speak louder than words.

Thousands of men all through the country who have been speculating in stocks on Wall street, had their sleep disturbed badly last week by the bank failures and fears of a general panic. Many men who were millionaires, in their anxiety to get more, and men who had a little, in their rush to get rich had been buying beyond their means, and the enormous shrinkage even of good dividend paying stocks had brought them into straits. Banks making loans on securities often found them below the loans, and a sudden distrust of values possessed capitalists to such an extent that money, as plenty as it is, commanded one per cent a day or 365 per cent a year. However, with money easy over the country it is not likely there could be a panic as in 1873 when money was scarce, so confidence has been partially restored. The disturbance really is only among the speculators and does not extend to the solid business interests of the country.

The business men of New York seldom care much for politics and do not interest themselves readily in the fortunes of any candidate. So when they do leave their books and offices to discuss men and political measures it shows a strong urgency. They like a safe, conservative administration, for their business interests are rendered unstable by what is termed a brilliant and aggressive policy—one that at any time may provoke a riot or even a war. For that reason President Arthur's wise course meets with their hearty endorsement, and last night the leading merchants of New York assembled to express their wish to have him continued in the chair he is ably filling. Now, these men are not speculators, but men engaged in [illegible] and York but all over the country, the Arthur forces are steadily gaining and he may be nominated on the first ballot.

The colored men have had a convention at Pittsburg, and some curiosity has been felt as to its purpose. That has not been settled yet, we believe, and concerning it the N. Y. Tribune says: "The convention of colored men which met yesterday in Pittsburg is hardly a representative body, as the call was confined to those States in which the colored race, "wields a measure of political power that is both recognized and felt, and without which neither of the two great political parties can achieve success so long as their present status remains unchanged." It is interesting to know the States concerning which that is said to be true. They are Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and the District of Columbia. It is not clear just what is the object of the convention, unless it be to obtain political recognition, which is a euphonism for offices. It is quite possible that a meeting of able colored men from the above named States may be beneficial to the colored people, although some of their ablest leaders, among them Frederick Douglass, seem to fear that the convention will be used by designing demagogues for their own selfish ends. There is no color line in politics, and the sooner the colored people themselves recognize that fact the better.

Decoration Day.

At a meeting of Welsh Post, G. A. R., last Friday evening, the following were appointed a committee on Memorial Day: H. S. Dean, E. N. Gilbert, W. B. Smith, Wm. A. Clark, and Eli S. Manly.

At a special meeting of the common council, Monday evening, the following resolutions were passed, and Alderman Henderson, Kearns and Luick appointed a committee to act in connection with the committee of the G. A. R.:

Resolved, That the common council will cooperate with the Grand Army Post of this city in the commemoration services of Decoration Day.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to cooperate with a like committee of the Grand Army Post, in making all proper and necessary arrangements for the occasion.

Resolved, That the University, the public schools, and the various civic societies of the city be invited to take part in the services.

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to issue a request to our citizens to close their places of business during the progress of the procession through the streets and during the exercises at University Hall.

Following the adjournment of the council, the joint committee met and selected Col. H. S. Dean, chairman, and Wm. A. Clark, secretary.

Committees as follows were appointed: Invitation, E. N. Gilbert, Thomas Kearns, and G. Luick; vocal music, Prof. W. H. Dorrance and Alvin Wilsey; printing, H. S. Dean, J. S. Henderson, and E. N. Gilbert; instrumental music, E. N. Gilbert and William A. Clark; finance, W. B. Smith and H. S. Dean; reception of speaker, W. B. Smith and J. S. Henderson.

President of the day, Col. H. S. Dean. Marshal of the day, Major Harrison Soule, Jr.

The University and public schools will probably be closed for the day. The program has not been fully completed as yet, but Ex.-Governor Austin Blair will deliver the address, probably in the afternoon, in University Hall.

The Orchard Lake cadets have been invited to attend in a body to take part in the exercises of the day. Company A will parade as elsewhere stated.

The joint committee meets at E. N. Gilbert's office, next Monday evening, at seven o'clock, to complete the arrangements for the day.

OUR UNIVERSITY GIRLS.

A Reply to Mrs. L. H. Stone's Criticism.

From Detroit Every Saturday, 17th inst.

In your issue of the 10th instant there are some remarkable statements made by Mrs. Stone in her "Club Talks," and I cannot let them pass unchallenged. I hardly think the writer fully understood the conclusions that could be drawn from the following:

"As yet in our institutions, in our own University even, there is a great want unsupplied. . . Without the amenities of life, without courteous, cultivated manners, without some conversational skill, they might almost as well be without the boasted learning."

However, I desire to call particular attention to some erroneous ideas presented concerning the college life of our girls. Mrs. Stone says:

"At present the situation of the girls in our own University is simply pathetic. It is in a manner that of the 'lone, lorn woman.' Many of them, it is asserted, go through their whole four-years' course without making the acquaintance of a single woman outside the college girls and the woman where they may chance to board or room. These four years are during the period which will set its seal upon their manners, their social accomplishments, and in reality their heart-education for life. . . Until these defects in our colleges and our own University are remedied, I would say, 'Girls, go to Vassar or Smith's college (I would not go to Wellesley until men may share in the work of teaching), rather than go where you are to live entirely isolated from the society, sympathy, and influence of good and superior women for four years, or where you can not have for occasional association and counsel some few women at least, not only to whose attainments you can look up with reverence, but in whose hearts you can find something of a home.'"

Now what is the "lone, lorn," pathetic situation of the girls in our University? The University is situated in the heart of a city of ten thousand inhabitants. There are 180 ladies engaged in University work, and 117 of these are in the literary department. It would be difficult to find any one house in the city furnishing rooms for more than six lady boarders; so the homes of the college girls are scattered over the different parts of the whole city. One result inevitably follows from this, an acquaintance with a number of our best families; for it so happens that many of the best families receive college girls into their houses and their homes.

But there are other and better opportunities for making these acquaintances. Those who have any musical talent will find the "Choral Union" open to welcome them. I am not aware of a single existing organization in this city that so generally includes the wealth and aristocracy as this Choral Union; and yet an attendance at any recital will show that a large number of our "lone, lorn" girls take an active part.

But there are other opportunities. If our girl does not possess musical ability, she may be interested in church work. The churches of this city have again and again given public receptions to all members of the Students' Christian Association. I have seen scores of our college girls mingling freely with the ladies of the church at these receptions, forming new and lasting friendships. Then, too, there are the regular church socials, at any one of which Mrs. Stone could be introduced to many happy and contented University girls. The churches of Ann Arbor, which include many noble and [illegible] as a Christian home to the girls.

But there are other opportunities. Entertainments are given exclusively for the college girls. I recall one at this moment, where I spent a delightful afternoon, only a few weeks ago. The entertainment was given by one of our representative women, who has as elegant a home as can be found in the city. The lady is in no way connected with the University. She has no children attending, neither is her husband in any possible way connected with or especially interested in the University. Only one reason can be given why the 117 ladies of the literary department were invited there, and that is the very thing of which Mrs. Stone so deplores the absence,—to give our college girls "the society, sympathy, and influence of good and superior women, whom they can have for occasional association and counsel."

But there are other opportunities. There are local societies, not connected with school work, for the study of literature, art, German, etc. At their meetings mingle college and city girls, and "good and superior women with social accomplishments."

But there are other opportunities. The "Senate reception" of each commencement week brings together the whole college and city, to say nothing of visiting friends.

Thus, if it be true, as Mrs. Stone states, that "many go through their whole four-years' course without making the acquaintance of a single woman outside the college girls and the woman where they may chance to board or room," then these same girls must have deliberately committed social suicide.

In view of these opportunities, and should we accept Mrs. Stone's statements where does the blame rest? Does it rest on the University, or on our "superior women," or on the college girl?

I believe the girl herself is to blame. If the genial, warm-hearted element, the "heart education" of a girl's nature has not been cultivated in her own home, and is left to receive its first education after she has arrived in this city, at eighteen or twenty years of age, then her situation is truly "pathetic." She would be "in a manner that of a lone, lorn woman." She would doubtless pass through college "without meeting a single woman," and she would have to remain through life a singular single woman still.

If it be true, as Mrs. Stone asserts, that "these four years set the seal upon the manners and social accomplishments," then she has to attend but a single "class-day reception" to convince her that for these qualities "our own University has a great want" supplied.

I have not mentioned the opportunities given for the ladies to become acquainted with each other, with their classmates, and with the members of the faculty. These are not regarded in Mrs. Stone's charges. There might be mentioned the frequent class socials, the class suppers, the lectures, concerts, the reading-rooms, the waiting-rooms, the college literary societies, and other entertainments, all fitted to teach "courteous, cultivated manners and conversational skill," the amenities of life.

Mrs. Stone has certainly been misinformed on some of these matters; for instead of this great want being unsupplied, it is supplied in such abundance that all the advocates of rigid study to-day fear lest the social life of the college girl will become so great that she will be unable to maintain the high standing she has so grandly acquired.

MRS. C. H. STOWELL.

A CALL TO PRAYER.

Issued by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union in View of the Pending Presidential Conventions and Campaign.

HEADQUARTERS N. W. C. T. U.,
16 East 14th St., N. Y.

To All Christian People:

"Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Our nation is to-day a legal partner in the business of selling intoxicating liquors as a drink. This fact defines the greatest, most immediate, most vital issue in National politics. Governments of the people cannot successfully co-exist side by side with a traffic protected by law, whose result is to render the individual incapable of self-government. The homes of America are imperilled by the saloons whose patronage is constantly recruited from the fireside and the cradle. We, therefore, mothers and sisters wives and daughters, beseech all who believe in God, to join with us in solemn, earnest and importunate prayer that the hearts of the people may be so turned unto Him upon whose shoulder the government shall be, that by some party such principles may be declared, and such candidates chosen, that Christian men may conscientiously cast their ballots for the same, being assured that they have thus struck a blow for the National Prohibition of the traffic in strong drink.

We name Tuesday, May 27th, as this Day of Prayer and urge all our local Unions to observe this date, enlisting all pastors and churches to cooperate, so far as possible, with us, and respectfully requesting pastors to preach on the subject of God in Government, on the Sunday preceding or following this day of prayer.

We suggest the following programme:

Tuesday, May 27th, 10 to 11 A. M. Subject: For the Leaders of the W. C. T. U.: That they may be wise as serpents and harmless as doves in this great controversy; that they may have the courage of their convictions and be true to the National motto, "For God and Home and Native Land;" that a divine charity may pervade all their utterances, that they may meet argument with argument, misjudgment with patience, and all their difficulties and dangers with prayer.

11 to 12 M. For Christian Pastors and Editors: That their trumpet may give no uncertain sound; that they may so speak and write as those who shall give account to God; that as leaders in our Christian civilization they may demand the outlawing of the liquor traffic.

1 to 2 P. M. For the Platforms of Parties: That they may not seek to revive sectional issues, or glitter with old-time generalities, or conceal thought under subtleties of expression, but that they may pointedly declare that The Saloon Must Go.

2 to 3 P. M. For the Presidential Candidates: That they may be men of such personal habits as the mothers of this Nation might safely hold up as models for their sons; men committed by character and public pledge to National Prohibition; men who fear God and work righteousness.

3 to 4 P. M. For the Christian Voters of the Republic, with whom rests the balance of power: That their spiritual insight may be greatly quickened; that their consciences may be alarmed; that the cry from broken hearts, defenceless homes and ruined souls may stir their whole being to its noblest possibilities; that they may see that there is no postponement of duty which does not involve irremediable loss; that they may be convinced that the right is always expedient, and resolve to walk worthy of their high calling, and to make no compromise with wrong; that they may be inspired to see their duty to their Home Constituency, and to represent the women whom they love and honor by outlawing the Saloon and protecting the Home.

Let the leaders be—one for each hour—duly chosen and announced. Bible texts, illustrating and enforcing the five general topics here given, may be readily collated.

Yours for a Republic whose rulers shall be men of God.

COMMUNICATION.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish to use a small space in your valuable paper for the purpose of letting those people know, at least those who are not already aware, of the nefarious action of a certain lawyer in this city. Said lawyer is in the habit of sitting in his office and waving his handkerchief at women passing by, but to-day his audacious spirit could [illegible] sewing girl was walking up street, to her place of work, he undauntantly followed after her, and almost entered the room in which she had gone, only missing it by not being acquainted with the location of the premises. The sequel of this is, that if he does not desist, her relatives will be informed, and if he ever does the like again, the landlady of the house will give him a shower of hot water, etc. A word to the wise is sufficient. In the five mile race at the rink last night Mr. Kline took the first prize, a pair of Fenton club skates, and Lawrence Sweeney took the second prize, three dollars' worth of rink tickets. Time of Mr. Kline, 32 min. and 35 seconds. There were seven entries.

Professor Henry Wade Rogers, of the law department, has an article in the June North American Review entitled "Harboring Conspiracy." The nature of the paper may be seen from the following sentences found early in the article: "It is claimed that evidence exists which proves that these conspirators [dynamiters] against the lives and property of the people of England have their base of operations in the United States. If this be so, the important question for us is whether the United States is thereby placed under any obligation to interfere in the matter."

Three fires in the city since our last issue. The first broke out shortly before twelve o'clock Thursday night, and proved to be in the tailor shop on the second floor over Wm. Wagner's clothing store, 21 South Main. It is not known definitely how the fire originated. Mr. Wagner this week received $1,000 insurance on the injury to the stock, and $200 to cover the building's damages. By the early checking of this fire our city escaped what might have been a very disastrous night's work. Saturday night about ten o'clock a $300 fire destroyed a barn belonging to the Jas. B. Gott estate, near the Toledo road. The origin of the fire is uncertain. Last night at ten o'clock a barn belonging to Wm. Groves, of Northfield, standing near the old Calvert house in the third ward burned. Loss, perhaps $500. It was probably set afire, is the general opinion.

The Circuit Court.

Divorces were granted last week in the cases of Lydia A. Hawker vs. Buell G. Hawker and Laura Alderman vs. Freeman Alderman.

In the matter of the appeal of Oscar Briggs from the decision of commissioners in the estate of Russell Briggs, deceased, a verdict of $857 for the claimant was rendered on the 16th inst. The defense were given until June 3 to move for a new trial, and forty days to draft and serve bill of exceptions; all proceedings to be stayed in the meantime except taxation of costs.

Under the same date the following further business was transacted:

Samuel McLaren was admitted to citizenship.

In the case of Osborn R. Keith et al. vs. Mrs. M. M. Tuttle & Co., assumpsit, judgment was rendered for $479.02.

Court adjourned until Wednesday at 9 A. M. Up to the time we go to press business as follows has been transacted in court this morning:

The People vs. Thomas Doyle, Thomas H. Kelley, Chas. Anderson, Peter Miller, and Chas. A. Morgan, for unlawfully entering freight car with intent to obtain carriage, plea guilty; each received a sentence of six months at Ionia.

A decree was granted in the case of Addison Fletcher vs. David Beaubien et al.

In Re. Appeal of executors of the estate of Hiram Arnold, deceased, from the decision of the commissioners allowing the claim of Sarah Ingersoll against for continuance.

From his stock Mr. Doty missed thirteen pairs of ladies' fine shoes, twelve pairs being of the same make. Something over $20 in cash was taken from the safe, which seems to have been left unlocked.

When Mrs. Arthur Worden of Des Moines, Iowa, was here on a visit last summer she saw the crazy quilt which netted the Methodists $140 by autographs and auction sale at their May Festival, and she returned home with the idea of getting up a crazy quilt for the Des Moines M. E. church. A fine one was made, and $300 cleared on it. As it was to be presented to some one, Mrs. W. worked for the pastor and he for her to have it. She gained the victory and it was given to Dr. Young. Then to get even with her the ladies of the church made another, and recently presented her with it "in testimony of their appreciation of her excellent work in behalf of the one that paid for their piano." It is a beautiful present and worthily bestowed. We are glad of this new evidence of Mrs. Dr. W.'s popularity.

Company A parades here on Decoration Day in accordance with the following order:

HEADQUARTERS FIRST REGIMENT,
MICHIGAN STATE TROOPS,
LANSING, May 8th, 1884.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 2.

The Companies composing the First Regiment will parade in uniform, under arms at their respective stations on the 30th instant, as required by Paragraph 91, Rules and Regulations, Series of 1883, it being Memorial Day.

Soldiers, these comrades of ours sleep in silence on the hills and in the valleys, from the Lakes to the Rio Grande. Their graves are a sacred trust that should be honored and preserved. If no stately column or monumental pile rears its height upon the spot where these heroes lie buried, it is meet and proper that their comrades in arms, their friends, and the friends of loyalty should assemble, and on each returning anniversary strew with flowers the places that mark their last abode. To this they are entitled by their deeds of devotion to their flag and country.

By command of
D. H. McCOMAS,
Col. Commanding Regiment.

WILLIAM P. APPLEYARD,
1st Lieut. and Adjutant.

Last Saturday afternoon Sheriff Wallace received word from Detroit, that the authorities there thought they had some stolen property of residents of this county. Mr. Wallace accordingly went into Detroit the same evening, and among fourteen horses brought to the Central stock yards late Friday night preceding, for shipment east Saturday morning, the same having been withheld by Detroit detectives as stolen, the horses of O. Lathrop and L. Sanford were found. It will be remembered these gentlemen together lost two horses on the night of April 28th. The sheriff of Oakland county identified eight of the horses as belonging to different parties in his county, and the Macomb county sheriff claimed two. Three of the fourteen at last report remained in the hands of the Detroit officers. The stranger in charge of the stolen property at the Central yards escaped. The horses seem to have been stabled at different barns in Detroit after being stolen.

THE KING OF SIAM

Presents to the British Ambassador a Few Hairs of the White Elephant—They are Presented in a Golden Box—Fifty Thousand Dollars Could not buy the Animal.

Sir John Bowring, in his work upon "Siam, And its People," states "that $50,000 hardly represent the pecuniary value of a white elephant—a hair from its tail is worth a Jew's ransom. It was my good fortune," says he, "to present to the King of Siam, the gifts with which I had been charged by my royal mistress (Queen Victoria). I received many presents in return; but the monarch paced in my hand a golden box, locked with a golden key, and he informed me the box contained a gift far more valuable than all the rest—AND THAT WAS A FEW HAIRS OF THE WHITE ELEPHANT!" Forepaugh's will be here May 31st.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Is designed to meet the wants of a large portion of our people who are either too poor to employ a physician, or are too far removed to easily call one, and a still larger class who are not sick enough to require medical advice, and yet are out of sorts and need a medicine to build them up, give them an appetite, purify their blood, and oil up the machinery of their bodies so it will do its duty willingly. No other article takes hold of the system and hits exactly the spot like

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

It works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and energy.

My friend, you need not take our word. Ask your neighbor, who has just taken one bottle. He will tell you that "It's the best dollar I ever invested."

LEBANON, N. H., Feb. 19, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co.: Dear Sirs—Although greatly prejudiced against patent medicines in general, I was induced, from the excellent reports I had heard of your Sarsaparilla, to try a bottle, last December, for dyspepsia and general prostration, and I have received very gratifying results from its use. I am now using the second bottle, and consider it a very valuable remedy for indigestion and its attendant troubles.

Yours truly,
F. C. CHURCHILL,
(Firm of Carter & Churchill.)

☞ A gentleman who has been suffering from the Debility and Languor peculiar to this season, says: "HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA is putting new life right into me. I have gained ten pounds since I began to take it." Has taken two bottles. Gained 10 Pounds

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA is sold by all druggists. Price $1 per bottle; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Regeneration for enfeebled systems, suffering from a general want of tone, and its usual concomitants, dyspepsia and nervousness, is seldom derivable from the use of a nourishing diet and stimuli of appetite, unaided. A medicine that will effect a removal of the specific obstacle to renewed health and vigor, that is a genuine corrective, is the real need. It is the possession of this grand requirement which makes Hostetter's Stomach Bitters so effective as an invigorant.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

BACH & ABEL'S COLUMN.

A backward spring has somewhat retarded trade with us, though nothing like as much as could reasonably be expected. Our spring stock is complete in every department, and is the largest stock exposed for retail in this city or any other city in this part of the State. Strangers are invited to visit the store, though their only errand be to see.

Having reccently announced novelties in black dress goods to the exclusion of staples, let us remark that in all the leading staple fabrics in Cashmeres, Tamise, Camel's Hair, Grenadine and Nun's Veilings we have been and are to-day exceedingly strong in all of our lines and justly confident in our prices. Our silk Warp Henrietta at $1.50 "is a rare bargain."

Combination suits are "en regle." The patterns piled on the counter in the southeastern part of the store you can multiply by about four, to get at the variety. Here are modest plaids and stripes, gray mixtures, melange effects., etc., etc.. prices $1.25, $1.35 and $1.75.

You are quite satisfied that "home-made underwear" is an unwise investment of time and toil. Can't be otherwise, if you have turned over carefully the masses of delicate drapery and tried the tucks and trimmings, to see if we have really been successful imitators of your home-made work. If we have, it won't take long to figure the difference in cost, if your own time is not cheaper than factory wages. Ladies' skirts at $1.40, $2.00, $3.00 and $4.00 are worthy of inspection.

The parasol season has opened with a rush. It finds us prepared with everything desirable in coaching, Lace Trimed, Carriage, &c., &c. Look at our black brocades at $7.00 and $10.00, our colored brocades at $15.00.

Jerseys are still the popular thing, we have twenty styles for ladies. Some are plain as plain can be, and others are braided and beaded until they sparkle and dazzle. Prices begin at $2 00 and end at $20 00. Splendid presents they are for the girls, and not much bother to secure the proper fit.

A recent purchase enables us to make an exceptional offering in Women's Hosiery. To quote prices hardly seems useful, it tells so little, for instance, for us to say we have ladies' hose full regular made solid colors, the reader would naturally say, why, every store have such, but the fact remains, that no house but ours has Schopper's solid colors, unbleached heel and toe full regular made with French feet at 30cts. it is a quality universally sold at 40 and 50cts. The motto in this department is quality first, always quality. Prices adjusted on that basis. "We incline to the opinion that most people follow the crowd, but who starts the crow? BACH & ABEL.

The above depicts a very pleasant feature of bicycling as a sport. The club have ridden from their headquarters in the city, to a suburban village some twenty miles away, where they await the arrival of the racing members who were to start just thirty minutes later.

Five minutes more and the two foremost of the racing men—Fri, on his "Harvard," and Yonson on his "Yale," appear in sight. The pace is tremendous: the men are neck and neck, and Dodges, the captain of the club, whom you observe is leaning on his "Shadow" light roadster, in the foreground, declares the race a tie.

"Where are the other men?" he asks.

"Oh, behind, somewhere," is the reply.

"Are there any 'Harvard's' or 'Yale's' or 'Shadow's' among them?"

"Not one."

"Ah! that accounts for it," says the captain.

American bicylers as a body will realize the force of the captain's last remark, but the thousands of new riders which the coming year will produce, should each one of them realize that the only true economy in choosing a bicycle is to be content with nothing less than the very best that money will procure. Each should find out all he can about bicycles before making his choice, and in order to assist enquirers in their search for information, we will, on receipt of a three-cent stamp, send to any address, a copy of our large illustrated catalogue by return mail.

The Indian Appropriation bill was completed and passed....In the House the Senate bill providing for civil government in Alaska was passed. The bill provides for the appointment of a Governor and a District Court with civil and criminal jurisdiction.

A lengthy debate took place in the Senate on the 14th on the bill for the establishment of a Bureau of Labor Statistics, but no action was taken....In the House resolutions were reported unseating Mr. McKinley, from the Eighteenth Ohio District, and Mr. Peelle, from the Seventh Indiana District. DOMESTIC.

Up to the 13th the total exports of gold from this country since January amounted to $35,925,497.

The stock speculative dealings in New York opened in a disturbed condition on the 14th, and soon after the Exchange began business rumors of failures created a panic, the following concerns closing their doors: Nelson, Robinson & Co., Gaff & Randall, O. M. Bogart & Co., bankers; J. C. Williams, Hatch & Foot, Donnell, Lawson & Simpson, Hotchkiss & Burnham, the Metropolitan Bank, and the Atlantic State Bank of Brooklyn. Prices suffered seriously, some shares touching the lowest figures for years. The Clearing-House Association adopted measures by which the banks were to stand by each other, and, in a manner, this restored confidence, values showing an improvement at the close. It was confidently asserted that the Metropolitan Bank would soon resume, and that a continuance of the "scare" was beyond the bounds of probability. At leading trade centers there was comparatively no excitement, and a feeling of confidence that no general panic was impending was expressed.

A hurricane, accompanied by torrents of rain, prevailed a few nights ago in Jackson County, West Virginia. The rushing streams swept away fences, outhouses, and in some instances dwellings. At Frankland Mrs. Collins and her two children were drowned.

Dr. S. A. Richmond's Medical Company at St. Joseph, Mo., failed on the 14th for $150,000, with no assets. The money was mostly owing to newspapers for advertising.

The Metropolitan National Bank of New York resumed payment on the 15th, and an improved condition of affairs prevailed at the Stock Exchange until about fifteen minutes before the close of business the failure of Fisk & Hatch was announced, causing a sensation, as Mr. Hatch was President of the Stock Exchange. Then prices tumbled, and the market closed in a chaotic condition. No serious disturbances were reported throughout the country, the feeling prevailing that the storm could be weathered.

President Arthur on the 15th issued a proclamation restoring to the public domain the lands set apart by an executive order as a reservation for the Jicarilla or Apache Indians in the northwestern part of New Mexico, embracing 307,000 acres.

The Tuna Valley Bank at Bradford, Pa., closed its doors on the 15th.

Senator Sherman stated at Philadelphia on the 15th that in his judgment the country was not on the verge of a panic, and that the present troubles were merely local. He said that reckless speculation was the cause of the existing difficulties, and the remedy was for people to refrain from dealing in securities or products which they did not hold or control. He thought the present flury would make the people more cautious, and would turn their attention more toward legitimate business enterprises.

A. A. Shaw, Treasurer of Clare County, Mich., was bucked and gagged on the night of the 14th, at Harrison, the county seat, and robbed of $5,000 by unknown men.

At the ninth annual meeting of the National Temperance Society and Publication House in New York a few days ago it was shown that the receipts for the year were $72,600; expenses, $72,000. Tin in large quantities was recently found in Mason County, W. Va., causing much excitement.

The excitement in the New York Petroleum Exchange on the 16th was never equaled. Prices opened at 74, and a little after twelve o'clock fell to 65½. Many men who went to the exchange rich went home poor.

Two brothers named Pope and a man named Kukendall were lynched near Little Rock, Ark., a few days ago for murdering a peddler named Ward.

Riley Anderson and James and Alfred McCullough, father and son, colored, were hanged on the 16th at Greenville, S. C., for murder, and George A. Horn and William Gribben were executed at Ashland, O.

There were 222 failures in the United States and Canada during the seven days ended on the 16th, against 152 the previous seven days, distributed as follows: Middle States, 39; New England, 32; Southern, 32; Western, 58; Pacific States and Territories, 26; Canada, 35.

At the opening of the New York Stock Exchange on the 16th considerable excitement was caused by the announcement of the failure of several firms of brokers and the suspension of the Newark (N. J.) Savings Bank, but before the close of business confidence had been restored and the panic was considered at an end.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Cyrus H. McCormick, the inventor of the reaping machine, and one of the most notable men of this generation, died at his residence in Chicago on the morning of the 13th, in his seventy-ninth year. Judge A. C. Thompson has been nominated for Congressman by the Republicans of the Twelfth Ohio District.

The National Anti-Monopoly Convention met in Chicago on the 14th, twenty-one States being represented. B. F. Butler was nominated for President, and a platform was adopted declaring that labor and capital should be allies, not enemies; that corporations should be controlled by law; that there should be the greatest reduction practicable in public expenses; that Bureaus of Labor Statistics, State and National, should be established; that the National Eight-hour law should be enforced; that the importation of foreign labor under contract be made illegal, and that the present tariff should be reformed, because it is oppressive and in the interest of monopolies, and not of labor.

Want of Faith.

If Eberbach & Son, the Druggist does not succeed it is not for the want of faith. He has such faith in Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup as a remedy for Cough's Colds, Consumption, and Lung affections, that he will give away a bottle free to each and every one who is in need of a medicine of that kind.

Lifted Up

A happy surprise it was to Mr. A. R. Norton, of Bristol, Conn., when Athlophoros put him on his feet, and sent him cheerfully about his business. Let him tell his own story:

"About three weeks ago I was taken with a severe crick in the back. For four days I was unable to turn in bed without help, and when lifted up could not stand on my feet. I was induced to try Athlophoros, after all the usual remedies failed. In 20 minutes after taking the first dose I could bear my weight upon my feet. In two days I was able to get about and attend to business. In two other cases which have come to my knowledge its use has been attended with the same results."

A poor man in Philadelphia had to borrow a dollar to buy a bottle of Athlophoros. On account of his poverty his name shall remain a secret. He had suffered terribly from rheumatism. He gratefully writes:

"I took my first dose Tuesday afternoon, and on Wednesday, after but seven doses, I had not a sharp or severe ache left. Then I reduced the dose one-half and took the remainder of the bottle. I was able to be steady at work till Saturday, when I took a severe cold and was unable to use my left hand. I purchased another bottle and by bed-time I found relief. The medicine is all you claim for it."

Investigate Athlophoros all you please! Find all the fault you choose with it! and yet the fact remains, that it is doing what no other medicine ever could do for Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

If you cannot get Athlophoros of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

COMFORT, ECONOMY AND SPEED.

The time when the seeker of a new home in the far West and his wearied family were required to suffer the fatigue and discomfort of a long journey in a regular day coach, with no beds but the seats, has long since passed by: a great majority of such passengers being unable to provide their families with the luxuries of Pullman Palace Sleeping cars, on account of the expense. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R. R. Co., began, several years ago, to equip its lines with sleeping cars which would afford comfortable sitting room for its passngers by day, and agreeable sleeping apartments at night, and to open these accommodations without extra charge to all persons traveling, even on the low fares uniformly furnished to seekers of homes in the new country now opening along the line of the road, as well as to the Pacific coast. These sleeping cars are not upholstered, but are finished on the interior in hard woods, and after each trip are thoroughly washed, and made as clean as when they first came from the builder's hands.

These cars are also well lighted and ventilated, provided with closets and lavatories, and are liberally supplied with water and fuel, so as to make them comfortable at all seasons of the year.

The agent of the Company at Kansas City will take especial pains to locate passengers of the same nationality together, and classify passengers with some consideration of accommodation and congeniality, so as to make their trip as companionable and enjoyable as possible. The train men are also instructed to look carefully after the comfort of these passengers. Assignments of berths are made at Kansas City, by which passengers may be assured of retaining their places through to the Pacific coast if desired.

These cars form a part of the express trains between Kansas City and The Needles, and Kansas City and Deming, and passengers thus have all the privileges of these comfortable cars at the extreme low rates of fare, and arrive at their destination as promptly as if traveling in Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars.

Parties desiring any further information will, by addressing the undersigned, receive prompt and courteous attention.
