THE PROPHET.

An Exciting History. Last December 1883 a book of ninety-five pages was sent us, entitled 'A Political Revelation,' published by Donnelly & Co., Philadelphia.

IT IS A FACT.

Hundreds of letters to our possession (copies of which may be had by return mail) are our testimony to the fact that the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other brands.

GREATEST ON EARTH.

Current Remedies are the greatest need of the world. Had the worst case Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in several instances it had nearly killed her.

The blood has been told us to be the greatest power of the human system. I have paid hundreds of dollars for medicine, never finding anything to equal the CURTIS REMEDY.

Southwestern Immigration Work.

The work of developing the southwest and opening it to settlement has not been arranged as a work of pure benevolence, and it is fortunate for settlers that it is so.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

Kate Sanborn says 'no two women are alike, but the men can be made up in bundles.' United States Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, is the father of eleven children.

THE QUEEN OF HANOVER.

The Queen of Hanover has enough Christian names to start a dictionary. The full list is Alexandra Maria Wilhelmina Victoria Charlotte Therese Henrietta Louisa Pauline Elizabeth Frederica Georgina, although some of them may have got away.

MR. GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS.

Mr. George William Curtis has written many a noble and eloquent oration, and has been elected to the position of Mayor of New York City.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

'I'd hate to be in your shoes,' said a woman as she sat on a bench talking with a neighbor. 'You couldn't get into them,' sarcastically replied the neighbor.

THE WORD 'CALL'.

The word 'call' in poker has a different significance from what it does in society. In poker, if your opponent 'calls' you have got to see him without the help of cards.

THE HILLSDALE STANDARD.

The Hillsdale Standard last week picked up the following horrible narrative: 'Mrs. —, away, while cleaning house, asked her husband to nail up some [] he refused; she looked [] at him, told him his conduct was without [], then beat him with her [] until he saw []'

TELL THE TRUTH.

A gentleman at the theatre leaned over and said to an acquaintance: 'Look here. This morning I sent you a note telling you that I didn't have a nickel, and that I wanted the dollar you borrowed from me some time ago. You replied that you didn't have a cent.'
