LOCAL. It will soon be time for serenades—by the family—cat.

The wheeling is said to be good and the sleighing gritty.

This is vacation week, and the youth of our city are having a right smart good time.

Ann Arbor town republican caucus March 28th, at the court house, 3 o'clock p. m.

Monday morning the county jail had not an occupant. How is that for a moral community?

That festive robin has hung his wardrobe in the willows, and gone where his woodbine twineth.

Those foolish clinic removal business has been emphatically squelched, both in the legislature and the U. of M.

The ward caucuses of the republicans will be held in the various wards on Wednesday evening, April 1st. See call.

It cost something to run the grocery business in this city. Just the delivery department of twenty stores incurs an expense yearly of $7,000.

Rev. R. B. Pope, D. D., of this city, will arrange the program for first week of the annual encampment at Bay View, commencing Tuesday, July 21st.

Many years ago in the last week of March our citizens were making their gardens—setting out onions, planting peas—lettuce etc.—but that was many years ago.

Some wild geese have gone north, says an exchange. They must have been wild geese, and fool geese, too, to go north such weather as this month has given us.

Week before last a St Louis Mo., law student skipped out, having many sorrowing friends. This last week a typo did the same thing. Great events always cluster, you see.

A recent issue of our esteemed contemporary makes this remarkable statement: "Prof. Burr laid two eggs on the editorial table this week."

Some one left a black knit mitten in our sanctum a few days since. Now if the owner will only bring around the mate to it and leave it here, he will confer a very great favor on our chappell hands.

The statement that E. B. Pond, of this city, is to be appointed secretary of the State Board of Charities vice W. J. Baxter, resigned, is denied by that gentleman—who says he is not a candidate for that position.

BACH & ABEL'S COLUMN.

This week we are prepared to show you our entire stock of Muslin Underwear for Ladies and Misses. We have attempted to make a display, although a feeble one on account of the limited space in our windows.

You will favor us with your presence in order to examine closely the medium and lower grades, and see how we have bettered them. The richer garments you will linger over, naturally enough, their neatness, finish, elegance, perfection, will attract every lady. You will find them trimmed tastefully with Hamburgs, Torohons and Medics Lace, and your criticism we freely invoke, that we may learn thereby. We have made better use than ever of our facilities to bring prices to a uniformly lower price, but why say that, when you will so soon see it.

Some people of kindly hearts with whom sentiment is easier than reasoning, fancy that working women are hardly dealt with in the production of Underwear. To such, permit us to suggest two facts:

Steam sewing machines make woman's work so much lighter as her pay is heavier than that of the poor sewing woman. The masses of women toilers, in lieu of using their needles at night when the day's labor invites repose, now can read and improve their minds, or get sweetness out of life in recreation, because we can furnish their garments so very near their cost to them of the material at retail. Taking the range of quality and cost, is not this production a blessing to the daughters of fickle fortune, those of luxury and those of toil?

Ordinarily, however, the low and medium priced garments are of flimsy over-stretched muslin, and carelessly put together. If you examine our Underwear, you will be surprised at the fine sewing and the excellence of materials compared with that you find elsewhere, at same prices.

Night Dresses from 85c to $5.00. Skirts, 50c to 6.00. Drawers, 75c to 3.00. Chemise, 50c to 3.00. Corset Covers, 50c to 2.00. Child's Dresses, $1.00 to 6.00. Infant's Robes, 1.00 to 6.00.

We ask special attention to our Children's Dresses and Infant's Robes. Mull Ruche for rough wear, traveling, etc., 25 cents a box of six yards. Style is plain. Enormous quantities of it are sold. Our lowest prices heretofore has been 25 and 35 cents. We expect to supply the city. Tourist's Mull Ruche.

Remember the masquerade April 3d. The Palace Rink will be open every afternoon and evening during this week and next.

The finest military costume is to take a prize at the masquerade. Now, boys, "dress up."

Don't forget that the foot-ball game on rollers is down on the program at the Palace Rink, appearing upon.

The Three Heine Bros are booked for the rink on April 11th. They are very fine acrobatic and contortion skaters.

To-night is the last opportunity you will have to see the Speedwell & Sewell combination. Their performances are truly wonderful.

The modern lovers that frequent the rink will have an opportunity of comparing notes upon Friday evening, March 27th, when Romeo and Juliet will be produced.

The price of admission to the rink on the occasion of the great masquerade, April 3d, will be only 25 cents, slates and all. Nevertheless, no one will be admitted without a card of invitation.

M. C. Sheehan has resigned as manager of the skating rink, and Will W. Watts has been appointed to the vacancy. We congratulate the proprietor, Mr. Wyman, upon securing so pleasant and popular a young gentleman as Mr. Watts, and hope he will prove a successful manager.

On Friday evening last the Detroit Light Guards defeated the Ann Arbor Polo Club in the third game of the series which they have been playing in the first goal since in 13 minutes, but the second was a hotly contested one, and lasted 37 minutes.

On Friday evening, March 27th, the Princess foot-ball team of Detroit will play the first match game of Rugby on skates ever played in Michigan at the Palace Rink, with the university team of this city. This university team is the regular Rugby team and are experts on the campus. They will therefore do their best to beat the Princess boys and get up a reputation on skates as well as in the field.

On Monday and Tuesday evening, March 30 and 31, a new entertainment will take place at the Palace Rink. The World's History, a grand, American, European, African and Asiatic, which are worn by the skaters. (This is not a masquerade, and no masks will be allowed.) At 8 o'clock all form a grand march, headed by the American standard, and the others follow, each division being headed by the head of each nation, carrying a banner with the name of the nation. The effect is beautiful, and has not been seen to be appreciated. No extra charge is made for the costumes, and selections can be made at Franklin House on Monday noon.

Lorenzo Young, of Ann Arbor, has had his pension raised from $4 to $12 per month, through O. L. Mathews.

WHO CARRIES THE FINEST LINE OF BOYS' & CHILDRENS' CLOTHING IN THE CITY

This question has been decided the past season by the citizens of Ann Arbor in favor of

A. L. NOBLE.

The proprietor of the "Star Clothing House." While others brought an inferior quality, in material as well as in workmanship to this market, Mr. Noble brought only the very best he could obtain, knowing they would give satisfaction to his customers and credit to himself.

Recognizing the above decision as my success in Boys' and Children's Clothing I have selected my spring stock from the very best house in the country and a now able to show a finer and much larger line than ever before.

The line of Boys' Shirt Waists is complete, ranging from the cheapest to the very best imported, which are guaranteed absolutely fast colors.

Our boys' Polo Caps are new in design, at prices from 25c up.

A. L. NOBLE, LEADING CLOTHIER and HATTER

Hood's Sarsaparilla. In the winter of 1871 I was attacked with Scrofula in one of the most aggravating forms. At one time I had no less than thirteen large abscesses over and around my neck and throat, continually exuding an offensive mass of bloody matter disagreeable to behold and almost intolerable to endure. It is impossible to fully describe my sufferings, as the case was complicated with Chronic Catarrh. After three years of misery, having been treated by three physicians, I was worse than ever. Finally, on the recommendation of W. J. Huntley, druggist of Lockport, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. And now, after having taken twelve bottles, within the last twelve months, the scrofulous eruptions have entirely ceased, and the abscesses have all healed. The blood is purer, the complexion is daily becoming smaller by degrees, and I have done for others, but I do not know that my effective specific indeed. As an evidence of my gratitude I send these facts unobscured, and an ready to verify the authenticity of this cure, by personal correspondence with any one who doubts it. CHARLES S. ROBERTS, East Wilson, N. Y.

This statement is confirmed by W. J. Huntley, druggist of Lockport, N. Y., who calls the cure a grand victory for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Send for book giving statements of many cures. High School Items. Prof. Chute's classes in Physics did not meet last Thursday, having completed the required work.

The gas engine which was purchased in Chicago to run the dynamo does not give satisfaction, and is to be replaced by another.

Mr. Arthur Armstrong, class of '84, now located at Essex Centre, Ont., came home to attend the junior exhibition Friday evening.

The pupils who took part in the exercises at the Junior Ex., Friday evening, afterward passed two hours very pleasantly at the residence of Miss Breaker, the vice-president of the class. Refreshments were served.

Prof. Adams (C. K.) in giving his usual history lesson, a few days since, it was said, digressed from his subject somewhat and got soaring up among the clouds over a new Greek translation, when all at once he was brought to earth by the question: "Prof., whose translation is it?" He blushed and said he didn't know.

A Rare Bargain Refused. ANN ARBOR COURIER.—Dear Sir: Please call upon your County Clerk for one copy of Vol. 1, 2, 3 and 4, Joint Documents of 1882; originally printed in 1883. Report of the State Board of Health for 1882; and Vital Statistics for 1882, which have been forwarded to him or you.

Very Respectfully, H. A. GANNETT, Secy. of State.

All right, Harry, all right! But they're pretty weighty; very heavy to carry, and certainly not worth their weight in gold. Besides, our rag gatherer only comes around twice a year, and he's just been around. The county clerk is not a very accommodating sort of a fellow either, about some things. We tried to get him to give us ten cents for the lot, and he gave us the profits to give from his possession. But he wouldn't. Now, these books would be valuable to him. He's a politician. He could take the Joint Documents and glean out a splendid speech for the next campaign. And then he could take that Agricultural Report and learn how to make political campaigns with ease and profit. He could also take the figures in that Vital Statistics, and arrange them to suit himself—figure out any sort of a political result he chooses. Besides, the Board of Health book! Invaluable to his profession! And all for ten cents! Seven volumes that cost the rag dealer at least $7.00, all for ten cents! What a bargain! And he refused it! There's no such thing as accommodation about some people.

An exchange hits the nail on the head when it says: "When you hear a man sneering at the local papers because they are not so big, cheap and newsy as the city papers, you can safely bet that he does not squander his wealth in assisting to make them better, and that generally the papers have done more for him than he has for them. The man who cannot see the benefit arising to a town from its newspapers, hasn't the interest of the town at heart, and he is of about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list."

A sentence containing every letter in the English alphabet, and a favorite with writing teachers, is: "A quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog."
