The following accounts of the recent oncert at Saline, have been received: The citizens of Saline had the pleasure of listening to he Mozart Quartette assisted by Miss Sarah Rounds, e.ocutionist. The entertainment was of a high character and showed talent and study. Space will not permit of our mentioning each performance, but all in all, it was a program well rendered throughout. Miss Rounds' rendition of 'Why he wouldn't sell the farm," deserves special mention. Mrs. A. K. Rouse, in her solo, the "Dalsy," shows her possession of a splendid voice, and well under courtoi. We should be pleased to listen to them again.

The people of Saline were by no means disappointed in their expectations in regard to the entertainment given by the Mozart quar tette, April 1st. Her music was fine showing an excellent taste in selection, and was rendered with feeling, especially. 'Hush, there my baby," and 'The Manager's troubles.' brought down the house with laughter. Miss Rounds, being no stranger here was well received. She repeated by request, "The Bird Singing Lesson," and rehearsed several other pieces to the great satisfaction of the audience. To say that she shows great proficiency in her profession of elocutonist, bears out a natural aptitude and liking for work which is apparent to all who hear ner. G. B. MASON.

ANN ARBOR TO BE HONORED.

Our citizens are to have, during the summer, an opportunity for commending their hospitality and their intelligence in a manner never before offered. The "American Association for the Advancement of Science" which meets here for its 34th session, on the 28th of August next, has paid our little city an unprecedented itants or over, though strangely, no meet- missed from the literary world. ing has ever been held in New York. The ciety of the place of meeting, it considers that quite secondary. If it were not so, we might contemplate with some terpidation the prospect of being host to the same guest who has been so royally entertained by Chicago, and Boston, and Montreal. The truth is, the association will be pleased with a quiet business-like session. They tried at first to step off to some remote watering place, with only fresh air, plenty to eat and comfortable hotels. But it happens that the last of August is precisely the time when watering place hotels are least prepared to receive a convention. Luckily, that is the very time when our capacity for entertainment is least taxed. week. We may expect about 500 of them. They will need quarters and subsistence while they remain, but they intend to pay for their accommodations. Many families, however, will be pleased to invite selected

The common council, who joined their invitation to that of the university, will undoubtedly take some steps soon toward organization for the timely completion of public meeting of citizens. It should embrace a hundred of our public spirited ganize in sub-committees for specific branches of the preparation; and a part or this committee should consist of a committee of the common council, appointed specially to represent the city govern-horn in good company who said "I know arouse our interest.

A LEADER WANTED.

The republicans of Michigan are lacking in two essential things to political sucess. A man who has good executive ability to take charge of its affairs in a political campaign, and a thorough organization. These two things would have shaken off the apathy and lethargy that enveloped a great portion of the republican party at the late election, and given victory in place of defeat. The great principles on which the repubican party was founded are not dead. The ssues of the war are settled, to be sure but when one of the departments of state at Washington goes into mourning for FOR SALE—One Sorrel mare seven years old weighs 1,100 one buggy, single wagon and harness and outer. With principles of human liberty; with the rights of every human being guaranteed in every portion of this great land; with freedom of thought and freedom of speech for its bed rock, the republican party can never die. It may meet with reverses. It may be temporarily deprived of power; but it will rise again. As long as the republic lasts the republican party will last also. But new men must come to the front. A leader in this state must be chosen who has ability, energy, and activity. We need a Chandler at the helm, and thorough organization in every county and township, and school district.

Petitions are being poured in to the legislature by prohibitionists to submit the prohibitory amendment to the people. It was the influence of the prohibitionists that defeated its submission a couple of months ago, and in so doing they have sinned away their day of grace. They have made grievous errors as a party and stand little chance of coming to the front as such. And the republican party by joining hands with them has suffered sore lisaster. The time to have carried the submission project was when everything was ready, and the republicans in the legislature stood up and redeemed their promise. Now many of these legislators may feel that having been trifled with once they can not again be so treated.

If the people desire to express their ppinion upon a subject they certainly ought to be granted the privilege, but this blowing hot and cold has probably defeated the people's privilege in this tra

A drive well over 75 feet deep has thus been contaminated by a vault some 20 feet distant. Four hundred and seventy-five families are now using fil tered cistern water for ordinary purposes. This week we are prepared to show you our entire stock of Muslin Underwear for Ladies and Misses. We have attempted to make a display, although a feeble one on account of the limited space in our windows.

Will'you favor us with your presence in order to examine closely the medium and lower grades, and see how we have bettered them. The richer garments you will linger over. naturally enough, their neatness, finish, elegance, perfection, will attract every lady. You will find them trimmed tastefully with Hamburgs. Torchons and Medicis Lace, invoke, that we may learn thereby. We have made betties to bring prices to a uniformly lower price, but why say that, when you will so soon see it.

Some people of kindly hearts A. L. NOBLE, with whom sentiment is easier than reasoning, fancy that working women are hardly dealt with in the production of Underwear. To such, permit us to suggest two facts:

- Steam sewing machines make woman's work as much lighter as her pay is heavier than that of the "poor sewing woman." The masses of women toilers, in lieu of using their needles at night when the day's labor invites repose, now can read and improve their minds, or get sweetness out of life in recreation, because we can ost to them of the material at reta not this production a blessing to the daughters of fickle fortune, those of luxury and those of toil?
- dium priced garments are of flimsy overstarched muslin, and carelessly put together. If you examine our Underwear, you will be surprised at the fine sewing and the excellence of materials compared

For many years Mr. Southard was a martyr to rheumatism in its most afflictive form. Up to July, 1883, he was nearly helpless, and could move only with great pain. At that time Bishop Bowman, having seen how greatly the Rev. Mr. Keely, of Indianapolis, had been relieved by the new remedy, Athlophoros, brought Mr. Southard a bottle of that medicine, and advised him to try it. advised him to try it.

Mr. Southard's experience, resulting from his trial of Athlophoros, was thus stated at a recent interview. Bishop Bowman happened to be visiting Mr. Southard at the time, and the exchange of ideas and opinions as to rheumatism and the radical remedy for it, was free and

Said Mr. Southard: "I had for years been suffering with rheumatic pains. My arms and legs were swollen, and the pain was sharp and constant. I was unable to dress myself, or even to put on my stockings. My wife had to lift me and turn me in bed. Bishop Bowman brought me a bottle of Athlophoros. I hardly dared to hope for any benefit from it, for I had taken so many medicines. had taken so many medicines.

"I began to take the Athlophoros first s directed. At that time I was suffering frightful pain. In a few hours there was a remarkable change. I broke out into a profuse perspiration, and had a strange feeling of relief. In a few hours more all my pain was gone. I could stretch my legs and move my joints as I had not been able to for a long time. It seemed wonderful, after all my experience, that any medicine could have such effects. I feared that this was of such power that it would go to my vital parts and end my life. Knowing not what might be the result, I quietly prepared myselffor the final change and calmly awaited it. But instead of putting an end to me the Athlophoros only put an end to the pain. What a new and delightful experience it was to be without

"I gave a letter to the Athlophoros con-cern, which was published. It brought me a great many inquiries by mail from various parts of the country. I wish I could show you some of those letters, but I was clearing out my desk the other day, and I destroyed the whole pile of them. One was from a man in Winchester, Indiana, whose wife was suffering agony. I directed him where to get the medicine and it soon made her well. The wife of Prof. Gobin, of the University, was suffering with rheumatism, and Athlophoros cured her, as well as a good many others.

"At times I would have return of my rheumatism, but nothing like that I formerly had. Each attack was lighter. Each time I fought it with Athlophoros, and got the better of it. Now I have for a year enjoyed good health and freedom from pains. I took in all ten or twelve bottles of the medicine, and if I were again to be attacked by rheumatism would take more.

Bishop Bowman, on being asked "was the relief which Mr. Southard experienced more than you had expected?" replied: "Certainly it was, for I had not expected anything. I brought him the Athlophoros because I had seen that it had done so much good to Mr. Keely and others in In-dianapolis. It seemed a last resort, for Mr. Southard's case was such a severe one that I had little or no hope of even giving him relief. But seeing the completeness of his cure I have recommended the medicine to others. I have not had occasion to use it myself, for I have not had rheumatism and am in excellent health. Of all those to whom I have recommended it I have heard of only one instance in which decided benefit was not gained. I consider Athlophoros a wonderful medicine.'

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your drug-gist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York
