ROBUST HEALTH

Is not always enjoyed by those who seem to possess it. The taint of corrupted blood may be secretly undermining the constitution. In time, the poison will certainly show its effects, and with all the more virulence the longer it has been allowed to permeate the system. Each pimple, sty, boil, skin disorder and sense of unnatural lassitude, or languor, is one of Nature's warnings of the consequences of neglect.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only remedy that can be relied upon, in all cases, to eradicate the taint of hereditary disease and the special corruptions of the blood. It is the only alterative that is sufficiently powerful to thoroughly cleanse the system of Scrofulous and Mercurial impurities and the pollution of Contagious Diseases. It also neutralizes the poisons left by Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, and enables rapid recuperation from the enfeeblement and debility caused by these diseases.

Myriads of Cures

Achieved by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, in the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disease, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to it. Whatever the ailments of this class, and wherever found, from the scurvy of the Arctic circle to the "veldt-sores" of South Africa, this remedy has afforded health to the sufferers by whom it was employed. Druggists everywhere can cite numerous cases, within their personal knowledge, of remarkable cures wrought by it, where all other treatment had been unavailing. People will do well to

than AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crude mixtures are offered to the public as "blood purifiers," which only allure the patient with the pretense of many cheap doses, and with which it is folly to experiment while disease is steadily becoming more deep-seated and difficult of cure. Some of these mixtures do much lasting harm. Bear in mind that the only medicine that can radically purify the vitiated blood is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

Sick Headache.

GENTS:—I have been subject to Sick Headache for years, and have tried, in vain, many advertised remedies and several physicians, but all to no purpose. At last I tried your B. B. Bitters—without much faith, I admit—but to-day I can truly say, that after taking the third bottle I have not suffered from it. I recommend it to all my friends; several have been cured by it. My little grandson was permanently cured of Biliousness and Sick Headache, which were so severe as to cause convulsions. They have all ceased since he commenced the use of B.B.B.

Book Reviews.

BANCROFT'S HISTORY OF THE PACIFIC STATES. Vol. XV. California. Vol. III., 1825-1840. By Hubert Howe Bancroft. San Francisco: A. L. Bancroft & Co., 8vo. pp. 792. Price $4.50.

The work being accomplished by this historian is indeed wonderful, both as to the number of volumes given to the public, and the quality and true merit of the work accomplished. One cannot but think of poor Buckle, with death made bitter to him because he was able to show only a splendid portico and rough-hewn stones scattered about in the place of the stately building he had hoped to rear, and contrast his method of writing history, unaided, and its disappointing results, with that of Mr. Bancroft, which is so steadily moving toward its goal. It might have seemed presumption in the San Francisco bookseller to plan twenty five years ago to write a series of historical works in thirty-nine volumes. But with one-third of the work already done, and as much more in an advanced state of preparation, the project seems now to have been no less well considered than daring. 'The Native Races of the Pacific States,' which appeared in 1874, was intended merely as an introduction to his main work, namely, histories of Central America, Mexico, the North Mexican States and Texas, California, and the Northwest Coast.

There are four more volumes to follow this upon California, and the period covered by this volume, from 1825 to 1840, is perhaps the least known of any in its history. But yet it is not devoid of interest, upon the contrary the historian gives many thrilling pages, and much that will impress itself upon the memory of even the dullest reader. The quality of telling the plain and simple truth, without exaggeration, detraction or bias, is exceedingly rare in authorship; yet it seems to be present in an extraordinary degree in the historical writings of Mr. Hubert Bancroft.

Such works, written with the precision, warmth and vigor of the Pacific Histories, are destined to supplant fiction. The unspoiled taste of a child as well as that of the educated man revels in such history, and were our school and public libraries furnished with due proportion of these books, the demand for trashy fiction would cease. Above all, places of secluded and narrow resources, like farmhouses, and camps, should find supplies of such literature indispensable, for such surroundings give the fullest opportunity for the charm and influence of good reading. Let a parent bring home such a book as Mr. Bancrof's Pacific History of the States to which public attention is turned, where probably his children will sooner or later find their home, and read its chapters with the family, or talk over his own reading with them, make it a reference, and he will find in it a strong influence toward correct and active thought. Teachers who want to awaken the interest of their pupils, and put life into their studies, will find their strongest aids in the discussion of such history, with its fund of information on every relative subject. The man or woman of taste needs but to read one chapter to recognize in the History of the Pacific States one of the great works of the century, one of the classics of American libraries.

CHELSEA.

WASHTENAW'S WESTERN VILLAGE —A BUSY, BUSTLING PLACE.

Ye scribe of the COURIER shouldered a "Champion No. 2," pocketed a "block" of note paper, Monday a. m., and took the train for Chelsea. It had been a period of 15 years since setting foot on Chelsea's soil, and he was hardly prepared for the great change he saw. Solid and substantial brick blocks lined the business streets where there were only wooden ones, while many entirely new structures had grown up as the business of the place had developed and required greater facilities and more room. About the only building that looked at all familiar was the old Chelsea house, but alas! that too, will soon be one of the things of the past, for the present proprietor, H. G. Hoag has the walls of a fine new brick hotel all up, and expects to accommodate the public therein sometime this winter.

The first thing to greet the eyes of a visitor in Chelsea is the handsome new station house, or passenger depot, which the M. C. R. R. has erected here. It is a fine structure, giving one a favorable impression of the place at the outset.

BUSINESS.

The business of Chelsea is too extensive to go into minute description. There are several blocks lined with substantial buildings in which will be found all lines of merchandise to be found in any place, dry goods, groceries, hardware, drugs and medicines, furniture, upholstery, everything in fact, is well represented. The two leaders, perhaps, in the dry goods and grocery trade are the houses of H. S. Holmes & Co., and Parker, Kempf & Schenck, either one a credit to the place, while Bacon's hardware store is famous in all that section. There are one is the Chelsea Savings Bank, with that splendid old line gentleman, Hon. S. G. Ives, as president, and the popular young man Geo. P. Glazier, as cashier. The last statement of this bank Sept. 1st, showed deposits amounting to $94,989.75; cash, $22,961.54; and capital and earnings, $55,581.74. Many banks in larger places would rejoice at such a showing.

The other is the private banking house of R. Kempf & Bro., the present popular state senator from this county, Reuben Kempf, being the active member of the firm, with John A. Palmer as cashier. Mr. Palmer, by-the-way, was a member of the 4th Michigan cavalry, and participated in the capture of Jeff Davis, when that famous ex-confederate tried to play the petticoat dodge and masqueraded in women's clothes in a vain hope of thus escaping. The bright eyes of Michigan soldiers could not thus be hood-winked, it will be remembered. The deposits in this bank, Senator Kempf tells us, reaches $125,000, but being a private institution it is not obliged to publish regular statements.

of Chelsea's business men is astonishing. We are told there has been but two failures in the place in upwards of 17 years, and those were not serious ones. Enquiring into the habits of these men we find them all temperance men, there being scarcely a business man in Chelsea that tastes a drop of liquor. And what is still more encouraging a large majority of them are ardent republicans, as might be expected under the circumstances.

It is said of Chelsea that more wool is shipped from here than from any other station on the line of the Michigan Central, save Kalamazoo, 500,000 lbs. being the figures for one year. The shipments of wheat, corn and live stock is very great, the principal buyers being Kempf Bros., Wood Bros., Gilbert & Crowell, Wm. Judson and Geo. Taylor. There is also a first-class grist mill, doing a big business, the property of L. E. Sparks. One of the important industries here is

FRUIT EVAPORATION.

There are two establishments, one owned by Jas. L. Gilbert, another by Babcock & Bachman. Mr. Gilbert kindly showed us the modus operandi of this particular industry. Apples, of all kinds, sizes and descriptions are brought here, run through machines that pare, core, and slice them up, all at one swoop, so to speak. The fruit is then dumped into a wooden drawer and put into a bleacher and given a brimstone bath. From there it is spread on trays which are placed in immense evaporators, the heat being furnished by wood furnaces, and kept there until thoroughly dry and brittle as a dry cracker. Upon being taken out of these evaporators the fruit is piled in heaps in the storage room above, and undergoes the process of sweating or curing, the same as hay cures in the sun. It is then packed into 50 lb. boxes, the packers taking great pains with the bottom and top layers, making them all even and uniform. Nothing is wasted, the parings, cores, etc., being "cured" and sold to the jelly manufactories in Chicago and elsewhere for 1½ or 2 cts. per lb., and out of this refuse is made the apple, currant, or any other sort of jell which your grocer may have to sell by the pailful. This establishment uses from 135 to 150 bushels of apples per day and employs ten girls and three men in the day time, (and two men at night to keep the dryers going) the girls getting 50 cts. per day. This year 7,000 bushels of apples will be used, about half of which are already evaporated. Last year Mr. Gilbert paid out $2,000 for labor alone. He pays 15 cts. per bushel for apples this year, and sells the evaporated fruit for from 7 to 8 cents per lb.

Another industry is the creamery operated by the Chelsea Creamery Co., Jas. L. Gilbert, superintendent. The butter made here finds ready sale at 25 cts. per lb., at the lowest, and is gilt-edged. It would take a chapter by itself to give a description of this establishment, where everything is neat and clean.

Then comes the poultry business which is extensively carried on here by two firms, the Chelsea Poultry Co., and A. Steger. The former has six acres of ground devoted to the business, and a building some 250 feet long, heated by steam, where chickens are artificially hatched. These firms are constantly shipping chickens, eggs, etc.

There are two printing offices, the Chelsea Herald, published by Thos. Holmes, and the Echo, by A. Allison who formerly owned and sold out the Herald. Mr. Holmes has the old established office, and issues a five column weekly, filled with local and other matter, of a readable nature, and to whose kindness we are indebted for much information relative to the place.

THANKSGIVING.

The following is the Thanksgiving proclamation of President Cleveland:

By the President of the United States of America—a proclamation:

The American people have always abundant cause to be thankful to Almighty God, whose watchful care and guiding hand have been manifested in every stage of their national life, guarding and protecting them in time of peril and safely leading them in the hour of darkness and danger.

It is fitting and proper that a nation thus favored should, on one day in every year for that purpose especially appointed, publicly acknowledge the goodness of God and return thanks to him for all his gracious gifts.

THEREFORE, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 26th day of November instant, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and do invoke the observance of the same by all the people of the land. On that day let all secular business be suspended and let the people assemble in their usual places of worship and with prayer and songs of praise devoutly testify their gratitude to the giver of every good and perfect gift for all that He has done for us in the year that has passed; for our preservation as a united nation and for our deliverance from the shock and danger of political convulsion; for the blessings of peace and for our safety and quiet while wars and rumors of wars have agitated and afflicted other nations of the earth; for our security against the scourge of pestilence, which in other lands has claimed its dead by thousands for plenteous crops which reward the labors of the husbandman and increase the nation's wealth, and for the contentment throughout our borders which follows in the train of prosperity and abundance.

And let there also be on the day thus set apart a reunion of families sanctified and chastened by tender memories and associations and let the social intercourse of friends with pleasant reminiscence renew the ties of affection and strengthen the bonds of kindly feeling.

And let us by no means forget while we give thanks and enjoy comforts which have crowned our lives, that truly grateful hearts are inclined to deeds of charity; and that a kind and thoughtful remembrance of the poor will double the pleasures of our condition, and render our praise and thanksgiving more acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

Done at the city of Washington this second day of November, 1885, and of the Independence of the United States the 110th.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President:
T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

Gov. Alger announces that he is not a candidate for a second term. His friends will regret this determination on his part, for he is making a good and wise executive who gives to the office a business tone which places it ever far above any charge of corruption, favoritism or vacillation. He has strengthened the party in the state, thereby making it again easy for a good nominee to be elected. The precedent is a good one for future governors to follow, for it is purely an honorary position, out of which enough glory ought to be obtained by one term. Then no man can say a governor's acts are shaped with a view toward a renomination.

Col. McKinstry, of Jackson, is appointed pension agent in place of Mr. Samuel Post, of Ypsilanti, who has held the place since he received his commission from President Grant in 1873. During that time he has disbursed some $700,000 a year in pensions and not a cent of it has been lost. He was always popular with the pensioners, many of whom he has been able greatly to help by good advice, and they had hoped that he might remain until the expiration of his term in January.

The new man will have to obtain bonds for a quarter of a million dollars, and the bondsmen have to swear to owning real estate unincumbered to the value of twice the amount for which they become responsible.

PLEASE TELL US.

The democrats profess to be greatly elated over the recent elections. Will they please tell us why? The democratic party has gained nothing. To be sure they carried New York, by some 8,000 or 10,000 majority, but two years ago this same Hill who is elected governor now, was elected lieutenant governor by nearly 200,000 majority. It would seem as if there was nothing very inspiring in the reduction, for them. The republicans elect the legislature and secure a successor to Senator Lapham. In democratic New Jersey the republicans also carry the legislature and secure a republican United States senator. Nothing very encouraging for democrats in that. In every other state where an election was held the republicans held their own.

In Virginia Senator Mahone's party, the readjusters, were defeated. But this was expected. The fiat has gone forth in all the southern states that none but democrats must be returned as elected to office, and with all the election machinery in their own hands, the order is obeyed.

The republicans have no reason to be despondent, or democrats to be jubilant over the results of the recent election.

In New York the republicans were not able to tumble down Hill, but in Detroit they've got the Dust.

THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG.

The following quotation is from the Center, the prohibition organ of Michigan. Read it:

"The probabilities are that Mayor elect Marvin H. Chamberlain, of Detroit, (wholesale whisky seller) will be next year's democratic nominee for governor, and—that he will be elected. Is it not also a foregone conclusion that Michigan's next legislature will be democratic, and that Don M. Dickinson will succeed Mr. Conger as United States senator? Under these circumstances, might it not be the part of prudence for James F. Joy, James H. Stone, Robert E. Frazer and other foremost republicans to call at the Center office and inquire on what terms last fall's 22,207 prohibitionists (present number not less than 30,000, to be increased a year hence to at least 40,000) can be secured for the republican party? However, the call will be useless; the prohibitionists of Michigan are not for sale, and can be neither cajoled nor compelled. Distinct party lines have by us been drawn and will by us be maintained. If the republicans wish to join us we will consider their plea. Meantime, the whisky abomination of Michigan must be destroyed."

And so the policy of the prohibitionists is outlined: to put a "wholesale whisky seller" in the governor's chair of Michigan! That is a peculiar way to "destroy the whisky abomination" isn't it? To sober a man feed him whisky, is the prohibition plan! To promote temperance put liquor sellers in power! How absurd. But, "the prohibitionists are not for sale to the republicans," of course not. They have a mission to perform. Republicans must be defeated, whisky dealers must be placed in power!

THE DEED OF A PATRIOT.

Once again has the attempt been made to destroy the monument erected to the memory of the English spy, Major Andre, near Tappan, New York, by Mr. Cyrus W. Field, and this time it has proved successful, the shaft being blown into atoms. The act was the act of a patriot; one who believed the cause for which the revolutionary fathers fought was a just cause, and that the fate meted out to spys and traitors caught and hung, was a fate justly deserved; one who believed that American soil is not the soil on which to erect a monument to the memory of a spy who sought to carry into execution the machinations of that miserable traitor, Benedict Arnold, while thousands upon thousands of graves of the poor soldiers, who sacrificed everything dear to a man on this earth that this nation might be free, were unmarked by even as much as a wooden headstone.

If this spy must have a monument, if Mr. Cyrus W. Field must erect a marble shaft to the memory of a man who sought to conquer and enslave us, let him erect it on British soil where he can have a sympathetic constituency.

A true American would rather build a monument to the memory of the brave men who caught Andre and who saved the nation by exposing the traitorous plans he was endeavoring to carry out.

A "GLORIOUS RESULT," INDEED!

One of Ann Arbor's newspapers has been bragging about the "great moral reform" it claims to have worked in Ann Arbor, and cites to prove its case that a proprietor of a gambling house had agreed to leave the city if allowed to depart in peace which he was permitted to do. The statement was made that "everybody was satisfied."

Let's look the ground over a trifle. What has been accomplished? Has any one been arrested? Yes, one man. Has any one been convicted? No. Has anything been done to help Ann Arbor? Perhaps there has. Read the following from the last Ypsilantian and judge for yourself:

"This is surely a serious subject, and one in which legitimate interest cannot be bounded by geographical lines. Ann Arbor, as the seat of the University, belongs to the state; and the influences to be there thrown around the boys entrusted to the University's care is a subject of vital moment to the whole state, and to the people of other states. The success of the University itself depends upon the proper redress of the grievances shown to exist. It is but a fortnight since one of the most powerful and wealthy religious bodies in the state earnestly discussed the necessity of establishing a college of its own, because of assumed defects in the University, and the subject was merely postponed for one year.

"These grievances cannot be redressed by silence. They cannot be ignored and they cannot be tolerated. Either, they must be removed, or the University itself will be removed. That institution cannot permanently remain, or remaining it cannot prosper, where mobs of students assault religious meetings of any name, with official aquiescence; where students are inveigled into gambling dens that run with tacit official approval; where brothels are winked at by public authorities, and where public officers even participate in habitual violations of the law by licensed saloon keepers."

And this is what Ann Arbor gains! A reputation that is simply damnable. Is there a citizen of this city that can read the above quotation and not feel the blood tingle in his finger ends? If there is such a one in our city we pity him. And to think of such infamous falsehoods being scattered broadcast over this state. The Ypsilantian is perhaps not to blame for drawing such a picture of this city after such articles have been given publicity as have been published here. Are not our people proud of this result? Should not every citizen of this city be "satisfied?"

The paragraph quoted below is taken from the Washington Capital. The portion of it referring to Mr. Parker as being a regent of the University, is indeed news to Michigan people. The only prominence Mr. Parker ever gained in Michigan, was when, as a member of the state house of representatives, he joined the fusion forces that defeated Senator Chandler, and placed Judge Christiancy in the senate. A deed that did not leave him in very good political repute in Michigan, and ever since he has been a remarkably quiet political corpse. But that makes no particular difference with the article referred to which is as follows:

"I have republished several poems by 'Bessie Chandler' from the Century and other magazines, for she is one of the most charming of our poets. Those who admire her verses will be interested to know that 'Bessie Chandler' is Mrs. Le Roy Parker, of Flint, Michigan, the wife of a young farmer of that place, who is one of the regent's of the Michigan University. Their marriage was the denoument of a pretty romance. She was a New England girl, and her nom-de-plume was her maiden name. When Mr. Parker was a college student he read her poems, and addressed a letter to her, which was forwarded through the editor of the magazine in which they appeared. She answered it, and after a correspondence of several months met her at one of the New England watering places, where acquaintance ripened into courtship and resulted in marriage. She is a daughter of Commodore Ralph Chandler, who commands the Brooklyn navy yard."

Our Church Quarterly, published by the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mt. Clemens, Mich., is a neat, clean, interesting little paper, of which Rev. J. F. Berry is the editor. The paper is entirely the work of its editor the type being set and forms made up by him, proving that he is an excellent and tasty printer as well as being a good pastor. This little paper is filled with good things, too, and we wish it could be read by everybody, for no one could help but be benefited by perusing these well filled pages. May the many kernels of wheat sown in these columns fall upon productive soil, and reap a rich reward—not alone in earthly treasures but in heavenly ones as well—for this printer-preacher, this faithful and earnest worker in God's vineyard.

When a republican makes a political speech, and in that speech shows how it takes two and a half or three votes in the north to equal one in the south, he is "waving the bloody shirt," the democrats say. Well, let 'er wave!

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[This column is open to the people to express their opinion upon any subject of interest to the public, and correspondence upon all sides of all subjects is desired. All we ask of correspondents is to keep out of personalities, and use argument instead of abuse. Be concise, don't use more words than necessary to express ideas. The publisher of the COURIER does not hold himself responsible for opinions expressed.]

An Open Letter to John F. Lawrence Esq.

DEAR SIR:—You have doubtless read in the COURIER of Nov. 4 the following extract from the report of the "Council Proceedings" of Monday evening, Nov. 2:

Ald. Martin, by request, offered the following:

Resolved, That in the adoption of Standard time as the legal time it is understood that all drinking places in the City of Ann Arbor, be closed, as heretofore, at ten o'clock local time—or nine o'clock and thirty-five minutes p. m. standard time.

Which was carried.

Immediately upon its passage, Ald. Lawrence, who had been otherwise engaged, called for the reading of the resolution, and moved that the vote by which it was passed be reconsidered, giving his reasons therefor, and his motion prevailed. The original motion was then lost.

I take it for granted that you and the other members of the Board of Aldermen, who, after you had argued the case reversed their former action, voted down this resolution for good reasons, and, as you believe, because its adoption would conflict with the best interests of the city. Of course, you will admit that the addition of nearly half an hour after ten o'clock at night to the time during which these drinking places can be kept open is a matter of grave interest to the whole city, and to the parents and friends of the students who are assembled here. You do not need to be informed that a portion of the community, respectable in numbers and in character, thinks this a misfortune, and regard the action on the part of the city fathers as a serious error. We are however like your fellow aldermen, open to conviction. I write you therefore, to ask you if you will state in the COURIER, the reasons urged for voting down this resolution.

Yours truly,
W. H. RYDER.

Who Are They?

ED. COURIER:—The assertion is freely made, it is alleged, by the police of our city that they dare not make arrests, and crush out bad houses and gambling hells because the council as a body will not uphold them. Is this so?

Are there men on the common council of this city who are in league with criminals? They must be in league with criminals if they will not uphold officers of the law in enforcing the law.

For one the writer of this article would like to see the police make a test case, as lawyers term it. If there are such men on the board the people want to know it, and the sooner the better. Let them be shown up, Mr. Editor, and you can rest assured the people will take care of them.

Yours for the right,
ENQUIRER.

Thinks There Isn't Light Enough.

EDITOR COURIER:—There is always something to complain about in this world and the subscriber has a grievance. His complaint is about the naptha or gasoline lamps.

The lights given the public are not satisfactory. They are so small that they hardly equal the lights given by an old-fashioned dipped candle, the kind my mother used to make in the olden days, before street lamp-posts were known in Michigan, but when we had lanterns made out of tin with holes punched in for the light to shine through, which lanterns would be an acceptable substitute for the lamps that pretend to light the evening pedestrians on many of the streets of Ann Arbor. I am not disposed to find fault with the contractors, for I do not believe they are as much to blame for the lack of light as is the city council. They probably give the public all they can afford to under their contract. The economical streak which all of a sudden struck our city councilmen in getting the [illegible] down below a figure possible for the contractors to furnish, is probably the cause of the miserably poor lights given the public.

As the city has $10,000 or $12.000 "blood-money" paid in by men licensed to peddle liquid damnation to their fellowmen, I suggest that they pay the men who have this contract enough money so that they can afford to give the people of the city a decent light, a five-foot burner instead of a three foot-burner.

Yours truly, GASOLINE.

The Saline Observer is authority for the statement that onions are excellent brain developers. Ha! Ha! Been robbing some one's onion patch, eh?—Ann Arbor Courier. No, we caught the breath of Pond when passing the Courier building the other day, and we know that paper is a good one—by far the best in Washtenaw.—Saline Observer.

After such a graceful compliment as that, worked out of such an oderiferous subject as onions, what argument can one use, but the old, old slang phrase: You're another?

When a man goes out west and strikes luck, the world has to be told of it. And now it happens that an editor has been pounced on by good fortune, if we are to believe this item going the rounds: "A Kansas editor is very much elated over his change of fortune. He recently drew a prize in a lottery, and the very same day his wife had twins—both boys—his mother-in-law was killed by lightning while in transit to pay him a visit, and a man who had owed him nine dollars for subscription sent in the money."

The present infamous license law is the brat of the Republican party. It hugs its brat as a dear little darling.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

And the Ypsilanti Commercial was one of the authors of that "brat" if the above be true. It stood by the republican party in those days. But that was before some of the so-called temperance people had turned cats-paw, for the democratic party, before they had gone clean daft, in fact.

The concert to be given by the Quartette choir of the Central M. E. church, of Detroit, at the Methodist church, Monday evening next, will be one of the musical events of the season. The following are the names of those composing the choir: Miss G. Forsythe, soprano; Mrs. M. Tilden, alto; Mr. C. V. Slocum, tenor; Mr. G. E. Thompson, bass; Prof. Henrich, pianist. This concert will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the M. E church, and will be well worth the time expended in attending, aside from the fact that the proceeds are to be devoted to a good cause.

Dr. S. W. Cohen, of Waco, Texas, says: "I have used your Emulsion in infantile wasting, with good results. It not only restores wasted tissue, but gives strength, and I heartily recommend it for diseases attended by atrophy.

The assertion is being freely made that the laws of our state and city are not enforced in Ann Arbor, by the police, because the members of the council will not uphold them in enforcing the law! A correspondent in another column refers to this and asks some pertinent questions. With him, the COURIER would like to know if there is any truth in such assertions. For one, we do not believe it. The council as a body are libeled by these assertions, and we believe that there is not a man on that board but would uphold the enforcement of our laws. The assertion that gambling dens are run in this city with "tacit official approval" is a falsehood; that religious meetings are disturbed with "official acquiescence" is another falsehood; that "brothels are winked at by public authorities" is another outrageous falsehood; and that "public officers, even, participate in habitual violations of the law by licensed saloon keepers," is a still greater falsehood; all of which have been asserted in public prints, and sent broadcast over this state.

LOCAL.

The telephone exchange now numbers 118.

Rev. Dr. Ramsey will exchange pulpits with Dr. Steele next Sunday.

It doesn't pay to "blow" too much about the faults of one's own home.

The beautiful warm weather of Saturday last made the butchers fly to the ice house.

Rev. W. H. Ryder of the Congregational church will deliver the Thanksgiving address.

One of the new songs is, "Only My Love and I."—Ex. What more could be desired?

These long continued rains are putting a velvet green on our lawns as though spring had come again.

Twenty names were added to the membership of the Presbyterian church at communion last Sabbath.

Monday 67 carloads of steel rails passed through this city for the northern extension of the T., A. A. & N. M. R. R., from Hamburg to Owosso.

In the suit of Mrs. M. E. Foster, of this city, against the Detroit Post and Tribune Co., for libel, the jury awarded the plaintiff six cents damages.

For the first time in its history a woman conducted the services in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. Mrs. Hartwell, a missionary from Siam, gave her experiences.

The following item is taken from Our Church Quarterly: "A private note from our friend, Rev. Russel B. Pope, reports that he was warmly welcomed to his new charge at Cleveland, Ohio, and that the new year opens well."

Lyman D. James, of Williamsburg, Mass., who is largely interested in real estate here, was elected last week to the Massachusetts legislature. It would be a good thing for every legislative body if it could be made up of just such live business men.

People who are in the habit of hanging their overcoats out in the hall of their boarding houses, when going in to their meals better stop it. In two or three instances lately sneak thieves have appropriated these coats to their own use. Look out for them.

Mrs. Julia Dix Holmes died at Dover, Lenawee county, Oct. 28th, aged 70 years and 5 months. The deceased sailed up the waters of Lake Erie to Detroit in the old Superior steamboat, and came to Washtenaw county in June 1831, and was for many years a resident of this county. She is a sister of Mrs. N. A. Prudden of this city.

The committe on the reception of the A. A. A. S. find and unexpended balance of 36⅓ per cent., so they declare a dividend of that amount to be divided among those who contributed. It is now payable by Christian Mack, Esq. What is not called for inside of two months will be paid to the Ladies' Library as a donation.

Despite the unfavorable weather on Friday night the Students' Christian Association had a largely attended and enjoyable social in the M. E. church. A musical program by Mr. Wines, Miss Whedon, Mrs. Hall and Miss Knowlton was highly appreciated, as also were the refreshments bountifully provided by the ladies of the church. It speaks well for the enthusiasm of the members that so many were present.

The meeting of the pomological society held in the basement of the court house last Saturday, was quite instructive and entertaining. The delegates from this society to the National pomological convention held in Grand Rapids were astonished at the splendid displays of fruit there, so large, so perfect in shape, and so free from all imperfections now common to fruit. Ellwanger & Barry had 160 varieties of pears on exhibition and Marshall P. Wilder, or Boston, over a hundred.

There is no use of talking, Ann Arbor must take the construction and repairing of sidewalks in her own hands. The present chairman of the sidewalk committee is an industrious, pains-taking officer, but is hampered on every side. Let the sidewalks be placed with the streets in the hands of the city, completely, and a change will soon come over our ways. It cannot be done too quickly. There are many dangerous places for which the city is held responsible should any damage occur through them to life or limb.

A rush occured at the post-office Monday evening while the students were waiting for their mail. The police attempted to stop it but could not without making an arrest. This they did, taking a law student to Justice Freuauff's office. The crowd followed and amused itself for half an hour out in the street shouting and yelling. Finally they heard that the student arrested was gone, whereupon they marched around town until their feet got cold, then they went home. Although, as is usually the case, the one arrested may have been innocent, some one had to be for an example, as such rowdyism as rushing where property is thereby endangered is not to be tolerated. The police do right in arresting whoever shows a disposition to create a disturbance, and they will be supported in doing so by the city authorities.

L. Rohde, the coal dealer, puts in the 118th telephone.

Moses Seabolt is building a new barn upon his property on N. Fifth st.

Fr. Duhig, of Chelsea, changes pulpits permanently with Fr. Considine, of Northfield.

Geo. Lutz and Miss Minnie Pardone, both of this city, were married last Monday evening.

Cramer's new house on Division st. is fast coming to a finish. That George Orcutt is a rusher.

The statement is made on semi-official authority that trains will be running from Toledo to St. Louis, Mich., over the T., A. A. & N. M. R. R. by Dec. 5. Hope so.

John W. Keating of this city, lately visited Milan, and was badly shaken up at the depot, by stepping off a platform six feet from the ground in the darkness of the night.

Rufus Cate has sold the homestead on Maynard street, with one lot only, to O. L. Matthews, who has already moved in. The vacant lot adjoining is reserved by Mr. Cate.

G. Sukey, the late purchaser of the famous celery lands, is supplying not only our own city trade with a superior article of celery, but is shipping large quantities to other cities.

Mrs. N. Arksey died Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, at her house in the 4th ward, aged 69 years. The funeral services will be held Thursday, at the house on Pontiac st., at 1½ o'clock p. m.

The new house of Station Agent Hayes, on N. Ingalls St. is being pushed by the contracters Messrs. Gates & Gates. It will be a large brick-veneered house, with something new in the chimney line, that looks as if it might be a capital nice thing.

The Egan Truss Co. have organized under the state law as The Egan Imperial Truss Co. with a capital stock of $25,000. The stockholders are: P. L. Rose, E. B. Lewis, Geo. A. Douglas, Dr. G. A. Hendricks, Louis J. Taylor, Carl Hendrickson, and T. Y. Kayne.

A man was thrown down stairs out of a gambling hell, in Ypsilanti, in the day time, but was too drunk to be seriously injured—but that was nothing! Suppose some of the Normal students are enticed into those places and fleeced! "it helps enrich Ypsilanti just so much you know," so "tha's all righ."

The disgust and horror with which the information was received in Ann Arbor that Robert McKinstry had been appointed pension agent at Detroit, in place of Samuel Post, of Ypsilanti, can not be well described. It is the general impression that a weaker appointment could not have been made.

The Detroit Evening News is responsible for this item: "Prosecuting Attorney Norris, of Washtenaw county, had his salary increased from $1,000 to $1,500 a year for saving that county from $10,000 to $20,000 in prosecutions the past year." Ezra is in a shape to accept congratulations, certainly.

Capt. Connitt, formerly of Chicago, but who removed to this city some months since, died at his residence on State st., cor. of E. Catharine, this morning at 10½ o'clock. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Wm. Loomis, of this city, and a man who in his prime had taken a prominent part in the affairs of his place. We are unable at this time to give further particulars.

It may not be generally understood by our citizens that the Ann Arbor Water Co. lays service pipe free to the curb for all those making application before Jan. 1st next. This is a saving of $12 or $15, and every one wanting water will do well to act accordingly and quick. The water furnished is pure and wholesome, fit for domestic and culinary purposes, and that much money isn't saved every day.

The Saline Observer thinks so to:—"In regard to the supposed wickedness and sins of Ann Arbor in general, and the bold display in cold print of all such rumors, the Courier takes a reasonable and sensible standpoint, in that it does not believe in publishing all the gossip current. It might harm an innocent person and do good to no one. The morals and honesty of the Courier is built on good substantial christian rock."

Dr. Hale, the new manager of the Ypsilanti Sanitarium connected with the Mineral Springs, was formerly the superintendent of the Mineral Springs house in this city, and was a popular citizen while here. He is a graduate of the medical department, class of '64, and went from here to Eaton Rapids, where he run a sanitarium for fifteen years, until it was destroyed by fire recently.

Isn't this, taken from the Adrian Record, astonishing? Just think of it, that such things should occur anywhere outside of Ann Arbor! How preposterously strange: "The number and miscellaneous character of the Holloween exercises by Young America Saturday evening, required official notice to be taken of them. A house in the Fourth ward was smeared with ink, gates taken off, carriages driven off by hand, etc., etc." Can it be that there is wickedness and transgression of the law in other cities?

An Ann Arbor paper announces that a certain cider mill, that "is ready to furnish cider in any quantity," will be open on Sundays for the accommodation of students and others wishing to purchase by the glass." How is that for encouragement to parents to send their sons and daughters to Ann Arbor to obtain an education?

The above from a county paper, only goes to show how papers of the county and state pick up even the advertisements which in their own columns would be thought nothing of, to fling at this place. No one's sons and daughters are obliged to tramp out to any one's cider mill. And even if they did there are worse things they might do; and probably often do, at their own home.

HOW IS THIS? Supervisors Yost and Mc Cormick inform us that the city of Ann Arbor charged and collected $24 for special night watchmen. What authority has the Mayor or City Council of Ann Arbor to employ night watchmen and pay for their services from the funds of Washtenaw county? Will the boarding house people please explain?—Ypsilantian.

If the above is true, which we very much doubt, what were Supervisors Yost and McCormick doing when that bill was allowed? They could not have been attending to their business very well to let the "boarding house people" whom they so thoroughly detest, get the start of them that way!!

Dr. Will G. Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asher A Terry, of this city, died Sunday a. m., at about 1½ o'clock, after a four month's illness, of inflammatory rheumatism. Dr. Terry was born in this city, (in the old Schumacher house, on Main st., removed last fall to make way for Oscar Sorg's new block) on the 4th day of March, 1853, the day Franklin Pierce was inaugurated president. He grew to young manhood in this city, and graduated from the medical department in 1876. After this he practiced one year at Otter Lake and three years at Warren, Macomb Co., afterward returning to this city. He was for a time a clerk in the pension office at Washington. He was well known among our citizens, who will deeply sympathize with his parents in this great affliction that has been sent to them.

PERSONALS.

Dr. O. C. Jenkins spent Sunday in Detroit.

Will Watts spent the Sabbath with his parents.

J. J. Goodyear is in New York this week buying goods.

Hon. J. M. Ashley spent last Sunday with his family.

David Rinsey is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

S. C. Andrews is taking an extended business trip about the state.

Mrs. E. A. Phillips recently returned from a two week's visit in Kansas.

Mrs. M. Sill and Miss Mabel Beal of Dexter, visited relatives in the city last week.

Mrs. G. E. Smith, nee Miss Belle Earl, of Detroit, is visiting at Will Hatch's for a time.

Chas. S. Ashley is reading law with a prominent Toledo law firm. He was home Sunday.

L. A. Barnes, president of the Peninsular Paper Co. of Ypsilanti was in the city Monday.

Allen S. Whitney, lit '85, and superintendent of public schools in Mt. Clemens spent Saturday in town.

Ed. Vogel, formerly with Mack & Schmid is now with H. S. Holmes & Co., in Chelsea, and is as happy as a lark.

Jacob Schaible, who keeps a bakery on Detroit st., is very sick, as is also his wife, which makes it very hard for the family.

Mrs. J. Good, of Naperville, Ill., and Mrs. J. Nadelhoffer, of Joliet, Ill., mother and sister of Mrs. D. F. Schairer are visiting in the city.

M. V. K. Jones, a former resident of this city, was in town looking over his old home during the week. He is now a J. P. and a P. M., up in Huron Co.

Mrs. Lyman Rich, daughter Minnie and son Ebert, of Sheridan Montcalm county, were visiting at Mrs. H. E. Church's on Monday last. Tuesday morning they started for their home.

Mrs. John Thompson leaves Ann Arbor to-day to spend the winter in Florida. She will go first to Jacksonville, but remain the greater portion of the winter at DeLand, on the St. Johns river.

Ald. Biggs has gone to England for a short stay among old friends and relatives. It is rumored that fortune has favored him with a handsome financial smile, and we hope that rumor is not at fault in this instance.

UNIVERSITY ITEMS.

The Hobart Guild has 68 charter members.

President Angell is down for a lecture Friday evening next, at Olivet, before the Phi Alpha Pi society, of Olivet.

The McMicken university, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was damaged $25,000 worth, by fire, last Friday night. Fully insured.

The university printing bid which secured the contract this year was for $1,200, and not $1,400 as stated in several papers.

Canon Farrar has postponed his engagement here before the Students' Lecture Association from the 21st to the 25th instant.

Ira A. Leighton, homeop., class of '85, was quite sick at Boulder, Col., when last heard from, where he had established a good practice.

The freshmen declining to play in the rainy weather of last Saturday, that famous foot-ball game was given to the sophomores. An easy way to win a victory.

The junior students of the law department have had a memorial handsomely engrossed and framed, and sent to Judge Campbell, setting forth their admiration of him, and their regret at his resignation.

The admission of Miss Alice Jordan to the law school at Yale stirred up a hornet's nest in the faculty, and President Porter told the professor who signed the admission papers that he "mustn't do so no more."

Professor Calvin Thomas will give a lecture on "Goethe and the Conduct of Life," Saturday, Nov. 14, at 8 o'clock p. m. in the university, room 24, under the auspices of the Philosophical Society, to which all are invited.

The university Rugby team went to Windsor last Saturday and played a football game with the team of that place, defeating them by a score of 8 to 2. A return match will be played here next Saturday. The boys were handsomely entertained.

The last Chronicle has a splendid description of the Rugby game at Windsor, Ont., played last Saturday, and besides went to the trouble and expense of securing from New York a full page engraving giving a picture of Bonine, as he appears while making one of his phenomenal races, F. W. Stevens being the artist. It shows how wide awake the boys are.

The following item is taken from the Kalamazoo Telegraph: "The president of the finest and most flourishing of New York city's preparatory colleges, I. N. Schermerhorn, is a former Grand Rapids boy and a graduate of the University of Michigan, class '81, and numbers among his patrons some of the first families of the United States, South America and Mexico. For a boy only 34 that is a proud record."

There is no necessity for any "feeling" to be worked up between the student community, and the citizen community. A little forbearance and consideration on the part of both, students and towns people, would result favorably no doubt. The boys should curb their enthusiasm so as not to inconvenience the public, or destroy property, a thing their gentlemanly instincts usually restrain them from engaging in. Human nature is about the same the world over, and calm counsels are the wise ones.

Amusments, Entertainments, Etc.

THE QUARTETTE CONCERT.

Do not forget the concert at the Methodist Episcopal church next Monday evening. The opportunity to hear these noted singers in a program of rare selections will not probably be offered again soon to the citizens of Ann Arbor. The concert will consist of solos, duets, bringing into desirable prominence the peculiar strength and beauty, for which each voice is noted, but the delight will culminate when in quartette, there is that harmonious blending and skilled expression which belong to those with whom music is more than art, with whom it is an intuition. These singers have been heard in this city before, and those who were so favored will be among the most anxious to hear them again. The admission price will be but 25 cents. It is therefore hoped that all who can will avail themselves of this opportunity.

KEENE COMING; TO APPEAR AS RICHARD III.

No play by Shakespeare, and indeed none in the English language, has been so universally and uninterruptedly popular as "the Life and Death of King Richard the Third." Verplank in noting the fact remarks that "few of Shakespeare's plays passed through more than two or three editions, as they originally appeared separately in the customary form of quarto pamphlets. Of 'Hamlet,' which seems to have been the most popular of the other tragedies, there are but six of these editions; while of 'Richard III.' between 1597 and 1634, we have in addition to the copies of the first two folios no less than eight separate editions, still preserved, and it is possible that there may have been yet another, no longer extant." The play has kept perpetual possession of the stage since it was written, either in its primitive form, or as altered and adapted to the tastes of the times by Colley Cibber or by John Kemble. In one or other of these forms "Richard III" has been the favorite character of all the eminent English speaking tragedians from Burbage, the original "crookback," who was identified in his day with the part, through the long succession of the monarchs of the stage—Betterton, Cibber, Quinn, Garrick, Henderson, Kemble, Cooke, Kean, the elder Booth, John Wilkes and Edwin Booth, and many others. Mr. Keene uses the Colley Cibber version. He will appear at the Ann Arbor Opera House Tuesday Ev'ng Nov. 17th as Richard III. which announcement will undoubtedly be received with much pleasure by our people. Seats are now on sale at the post office news depot. Those wishing to make up parties residing out of the city; can secure seats by telephone, letter or telegraph on application to the above place or to Manager Sawyer.

An Art Exhibition, containing a rare and choice collection of Engravings and Etchings from Keppel, New York, will be will be given at the Ladies' Library Building, on Huron street, Wednesday evening, Nov. 18th, and through the day on Thursday and Friday following. Wednesday evening a lecture upon "Engraving and Etching" will be delivered by Prof. Denison. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance upon the lecture and exhibition, as they will both be very interesting.

UNIVERSITY MUSICAL SOCIETY.

We have just received the announcement of the five concerts to be given this year under the auspices of the University Musical Society and cannot but commend the society for offering such a carefully selected course. The society has undertaken to fill the place left vacant among the entertainment of the Students' Lecture Association in regard to music, and it would be difficult to secure the assistance of better known and more pleasing artists than announced in the following series:

First—On Nov. 20, the Rosenbecker String Quartette, of Chicago, which has won for itself a lasting reputation in the Phœnix city.

Second—On Dec. 9 the wonderful Hungarian Band, of 16 pieces, will give selections illustrating their national airs and musical thought.

Third—After the holidays the ever welcomed Mendelssohn Quintette, with the charming and most popular prima donna, Mme. Giese. They are too well known to need praise.

Fourth—The Choral Union, larger than ever, considerably better in quality, will render some time in February, with a chorus of over 100 voices, Gounod's sacred master-piece, "Solennelle" and the legendary, "Erl King" by Gade.

Fifth—To crown all, Rafael Joseffy, the eminent pianist, will again hold all lovers of music in perfect rapture, on the evening of April 2.

Surely no more inviting program could be devised by the most difficult dilettante; and when we are informed that a season ticket for the whole series can be had for only $2 we wonder at the cheapness of the offer and urge all who love and care for music to secure one at once. Tickets are on sale at Osius & Co's. and George L. Moore's. Ticket holders will have the privilege of securing a reserved seat for the concert in University Hall, when the boards are open for the Hungarian Band concert.

Several times there has been such a rush at the opera house ticket office that people have had to stand in line some 15 or 20 minutes to obtain tickets. This discomfort can be easily avoided by purchasing tickets at the [illegible] depot of Boughton & Payne, without extra charge. This is a hint for you in the Keene engagement next Tuesday evening.

Three Peculiarities

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier and regulating medicine, is characterized by three peculiarities, namely:

SIGN OF THE RED STAR

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great value as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.

In the revised Bible, published at Oxford, only three printer's errors have as yet been discovered in all the editions. In the pearl 16mo. edition there is an error in Ezekiel, xviii. 26, where an "e" is left out of righteous, and the word is printed "right ous." In the parallel 8vo edition there are two mistakes. In Psalms, vii., 13, "shafts" appears instead of "shafts," and in Amos v., 24, in the margin, "overflowing" should be "everflowing." The usual guinea will be paid to any person discovering a printer's error in the book and pointing it out to the Controller of the Press before any other discoverer.

A mineralogist bought at Auburn, N. Y., recently, a quartz crystal, limpid and beautiful, with the faces and angles well preserved, but showing through a translucent plane which made upon the largest face of the crystal a peculiar formation which, he thinks, knocks geology all askew. Beneath the surface are several pieces of hay or straw stubble. It lies perhaps a fourth of an inch below the smooth surface of the crystal. It is clear and bright in appearance, showing the hollow stem of the grass, as well as the surface of the stems. There can be no question as to the identity of the hay or the straw stubble. It is distributed quite widely through the crystal, showing in fifteen or twenty places.

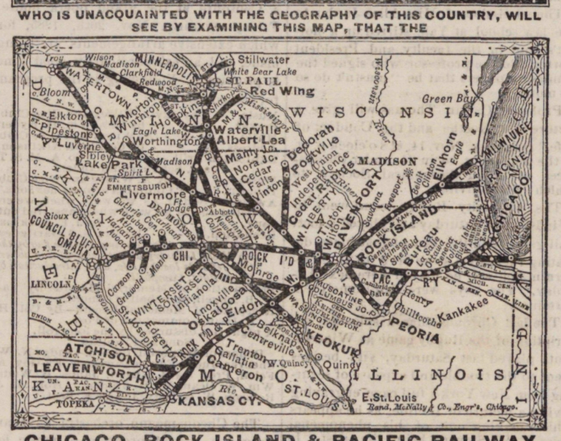
MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE



CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILWAY

By reason of its central position and close relation to all principal lines East and West, at initial and terminal points, constitutes the most important mid-continental link in that system of through transportation which invites and facilitates travel and traffic between cities of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. It is also the favorite and best route to and from points East, Northeast and Southeast, and corresponding points West, Northwest and Southwest.

The Rock Island system includes in its main line and branches, Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns, villages and stations.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees its patrons that sense of personal security afforded by a solid, thoroughly ballasted road-bed; smooth tracks of continuous steel rail; substantially built culverts and bridges; rolling stock as near perfection as human skill can make it; safety appliances of patent buffers, platforms and air-brakes; and that exacting discipline which governs the practical operation of all its trains. Other specialties of this route are Transfers at all connecting points in Union Depots, and the unsurpassed comforts and luxuries of its Passenger Equipment.

The Fast Express Trains between Chicago and the Missouri River are composed of well ventilated, finely upholstered Day Coaches, Magnificent Pullman Palace Sleepers of the latest design, and sumptuous Dining Cars, in which elaborately cooked meals are leisurely eaten, "good Digestion waiting on Appetite, and Health on both." Between Chicago and Kansas City and Atchison, are also run the Celebrated Reclining Chair Cars.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct and favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul, where connections are made in Union Depots for all points in the Territories and British Provinces. Over this route, Fast Express Trains are run to the watering places, summer resorts, picturesque localities, and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. It is also the most desirable route to the rich wheat fields and pastoral lands of interior Dakota.

Still another DIRECT LINE, via Seneca and Kankakee, has been opened between Newport News, Richmond, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Lafayette and Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Minneapolis and St. Paul and intermediate points.

Supposing.

Suppose you were a married man—as perhaps you are—and had a good business—as we trust you have—and you were not laying up much money—as you often declare you are not—and you had several fine children—as we hear you have—and your wife should wake up crying some night—as we trust she may not—and say—as possibly she would in such a case—"I dreamed that you were dead and we were turned out of the house, and the baby was sick, and I had no money to pay the doctor, and Harry's clothes were ragged and I had no way to get more, and Minnie had gone to the Orphan asylum! Oh, dear! I'm so glad it was only a dream!" What would you do in such a case?

Captain Mitchell, of the bark Antonio Sala, New York and Havana trade, came home in May, entirely helpless with rheumatism. He went to the mountains, but receiving no benefit, at his wife's request began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. He immediately began to improve; in two months his rheumatism was all gone, and he sailed in command of his vessel a well man. Hood's Sarsaparilla will help you: Sold by all druggists.

We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from four very remarkable brothers, They were Messrs. A. G., J. W., H. J. and D. P. Hightower, and aged 79, 77, 75, and 73 years—a total of 304 years. They have in all 34 children, 61 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. The four brothers are in good health, and there is not 13 pounds difference in weight between the heaviest and lightest. The most remarkable thing is that none of them was ever drunk or played a game, or took a dram in a bar-room. They are all members of the church and lead pious, good lives.—La Grange (Ga.) Reporter.

A Walking Skeleton.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess on lung, and reduced to a walking Skeleton. Got a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles, found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with a hearty appetite, and a gain in flesh of 48 lbs." Call at Eberbach & Son's drug store and get a free trial bottle of this certain cure for all Lung Diseases. Large bottles $1.00.
