HOME RULE FOR IRELAND. A Rousing Meeting at University Hall Indorsing Gladstone.

Friday evening last witnessed something unusual for this city, a meeting in which English politics was the object of the gathering...

Prof. Henry Wade Rogers was the presiding officer, a position he filled with much grace and credit to himself. He was assisted by an array of vice-presidents that contained much of the dignity, honor and brains of the city and state...

In opening the meeting Prof. Rogers endorsed the policy of Mr. Gladstone and stated that the object of the gathering was to express sentiments in relation to the question now uppermost in the minds of the liberty-loving people of the world...

Prof. Rogers presented to-day the awful spectacle of a land flowing with milk and honey, peopled by a race that is tax-ridden and oppressed. In this crisis England's greatest statesman seeks to grant by legal methods what may otherwise be wrested by revolution...
