Senatorial Convention.

The republican senatorial convention for the 4th senatorial district was held at the court house Tuesday.

[n calling the convention to order the mines of Chas. II. Wines, Ksq., of Chelsea, was proposed for temporary chairman, and \V. J. Clark, of Ann Arbor, as iccretary. The committees were then appointed as follows:

CricUnitaU.—Dorr Hiirues, J. \V. Morris and F'niuk Uuncau.

Adjournment was then made until 2 o'clock p. in.

Upon re-asscmbline the temporary officers were made permanent, and the following delegates reported as entitled to seats:

Delegalts from Waslitenatu County—I. ~S. S. Foster, \V. J. Clark, V. JHnican. J. C Mead, J. A.Willier, C. II. Wines, d o. II. Pond, J. L. Gilbert, P. It. Hsirrlp, Seth Sumner, John McKinnon, N. B. Crifttendeo, J. L. Hunter, U in. Campbell. (I. L. Hoyt, I'has. Treudwell. Mini's L. WilcDx, Andrew (iiinpbell, W. II. Ch:nn iH-rlaln.

Ballotin^ for a candidate was the next business in order. Tlie several ballots token were as foil ows:

	1 8	8 I r.
Andrew Campbell	7 »	I 10 16
Oonrad Krapl	; .	Bs 1

u. Kempt	i> 1
John K. Hunter	#
M. J. Howe		i
I. N. 8. Foster
Total	20 22 2i	M 23

The geotleurui being present arose anil addressed the convention, in a few very excellent remarks, which were well received. He accepted the nomination, and proposed to work not only for MII. but lor the entire republican ticket.

The following senatorial committee was then Chosen, with their pott office address:

Wm. Campbell, Ypsilanti.
M. J. Howe, Kast Milan.
<ieo. H. Pond, Ann Arbor.
1. \Y. Morris, Monroe.
Kred Vogel, Chelsea.

Considering the overwhelming majority, for the democratic party in this district the convention was a remarkably good one, hoth in point of numbers and enthusiasm, which bodes well for the republican party.

The nominee is a resident of Pittafleld, R thorough republican, a man of excellent abilities, and if elected will take rank second to none in the state senate.

Gilbert K. Oiuun the candidate for sec. retary of state, is a man who has come up simply and solely by his own exertions. When the war broke out he went as a drummer boy until old enough to shoulder a musket. Coming home with a painful wound he somehow drifted into journalism, ami made a great reputation for the Detroit Kvening News as its state items editor. He has always been a hard worker, and out of sympathy alone he should receive the votes of all laborers "Gil" is a whole-souled fellow too, and makes frtendl wherever he is known.

Strange bed-fellows, indeed, politics makes sometimes. Prof. Dickie gives Mr. Yaple a fine certificate of character, and vice versa, yet Dickie is a teacher In a Methodist college while Yaple is an intidel of the Bob Injersoll order. Dickie pretends to work for temperance; Yaple works for free whisky. The men are as different as the antipodes in all religious, moral and scholarly attainments, yet both are working for the success of the democracy band-in-hand 1

Mr. Alli?n 1H charuicl with writing a five pnge letter some two yean asjo, enquiring if the prohibitionists would support him pro Tided hecould secure the republican nomination. Mr. Crozler claims to be able to produce this letter. How can Allen secure tlie votes of those opposed to sumptuary laws after it Is sliown that he coquetted with the prohibition vote'.'—Argus.

The charge is a Hat-footed falsehood. No such letter exists or ever existed, and the men who make the charge know it to be a falsehood. Such cheap clap-trap always reacts on the inventor.

If you want to hear tome reliable talk about the issues of the day go over to Salem Station next Tuesday p. m., t^ept. 28, and hear Hon. Cyrus U. Luce. He meets his fusion traducers and slanderers in a manly straight forward way.

Rheumatism
It it an established fact that Hood's Sarsnp.irilla has proven an Invaluable remedy In many severe cases of rheumatism, effect-Ing remarkable cures by Its powerful action In correcting the acidity of the blood, which Is the cause of the disease, and purifying and enriching the vital fluid.
It U certainly fair to assume that what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others It will do for you. Therefore, U you suffer the pains and aches of rheumatism, give this potent remedy a fair trial.
A Positive Core.
"I was troubled very much with rheumatism In my hips, ankles, and wrists. I could hardly walk, and was confined to my bed a good deal of the time. Being recommended to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I took four bottles and am perfectly well. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as one of the best blood purifiers in tho world." W. F. WOOD, JSloomington, 111.
For Twenty Years
I have been afflicted with rheumatism. Before 18831 found no relief, but grew worse. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it did me more good than all tho other medicine I ever had." H. T. HAI.COM, Shirley. Mass.
"I suffered from what the doctors called muscular rheumatism. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and am entirely cured." J. V. A. PROTOFOOT, letter carrier, Chicago, III.

The Cliaiitaiiqna Literary and Scientific Circle.

The papers have been giving enthusiastic reports about Bay Veiw Assembly, mr Michigan Chautauqua, which has just lield its first session at that metropolis and most delightful of all Michigan summer resorts, Bay View. And this leads us to call attention to the exellent Chautaiuiua Literary and Scientific Circle organized among the young people of this place. For that matter it is for everybody —high school and college graduates and those who never entered a high school or college, for young people, teachers, merchants and mechanics, busy people who had to neglect their education and people of leisure and means—anyone who desires lie scholar's acomplishment and outlook into the world of learning. The course is for four years, each terminating with a written examination and all with a diploma, and for those who can attend the Bay View Assembly, graduation honors on Commencement Day. The course embraces instructive and entertaining reading- wisely selected by eminent people, which is to be systematically pursued at home and which'is to be supplemented by weekly or semi-monthly meetings of the members.. Already there are 2,000 readers in nearly l'>0 circles in Michigan and a Michigan Department ol the national organization. Our department has a magazine devoted entirely to its interests and an annual Assembly at Bay View where concerts, lectures, readings, stereopticMi entertainments of the highest excellence with receptions, illuminations and unnumbered recreations fill the season. Delightful fellowships and enthusiasm are fostered by characterstic O. I.. 8. C. songs, vesper services, class gatherings, mottoes and graduation days. Mr. John M. Hall, of Flint, is Superintendent of the Michigan Department. Write htm and he will give you full information about the aims and plans of the Circle and how to organize one. This is near the season when the reading begins. In large places circles are often formed in churches and neighborhoods, all frequently meeting in joint session. In small towni one circle, embracing everyebody is practicable.

There is a strong circle here, of which Prof. L. D. Wir.es is president and Miss Flora Seymour, Secretary and which will welcome new acquisitions. Still there Is doubtless room for more and this paper will be pleased to co-operate in this movement.

LETTERS FKOM THE PEOPLE.

"Charity" Speaks for Charleston.

EDITOR COURIER:—We hnve a very liberal common council in our city, but I have yet to learn of its taking any action In reference to the poor people down in the earthquake stricken city of Charleston. Gov. Alger Issued a proclamation some time ago, calling upon the mayars of the various cities of the state to call meetings and solicit contributions for the suffering people of that city. But as far as I can learn nothing has been done by our Mayor or council to help those thousands of homeless people in Charleston.

When Vice-President Hendricks died the council appointed a committee to attend his funeral at the expense of the city, and I believe the present Mayor accompanied them.

When the American Association for the Advancement of Science met here the council gave $500 of the city's money to make the meeting a success. The council gave to the Sacngerfest recently held here a like sum of $000!

This body appears to be very liberal with the people's money, but when a pure case of charity comes up our liberal council is silent.

Now, I ask you, Mr. Editor would not the good name of our city be enhanced more by sending a contribution to Charleston, than by sending a delegation to Mr. Hendrick's funeral ?

That suffering is intense there there is no doubt. The editor of the Atlanta Constitution telegraphed the following to the New York Herald, after visiting the unfortunate city:

"The city Is a wreck—a complete, pitiful, hopeless wreck. Its people are wrecked as hopelessly as Its houues. What will become of It? It Is hard to say that It will be wiped out of the system of American cities. That were Incredible, but certainly no American city wan ever in such straits."

Surely our council could not question the source of that information.

Yours truly, CnAUiTT.

An Inquiry Answered.

A lady reader writes for a recipe to remove freckles. A lady In Grand Rapids who has tried the remedy recommends the following: Take Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup before each meal, then bathe the face lightly with cologne water after tea, and about IO P. M. brush both cheeks, the forehead and chin with a carefully selected moustache. If this does not remove the freckles it will, under ordinary clrcum. stances, cause them to *b forgotten.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

Saginaw Courier (Dem.): "The rank and file of the Saginaw democracy are not enthusiastic over their ticket, and feel sore at beiujt delivered bodily into the care of greenbackers."

The Ionia Standard (deni.) says that if the Free Press can't lind anything worse about Mr. Luce than the fact that he has been elected to and held a great many offices of trust in his township and county, that it better shut up.

" Protection," says Senator Edmunds, " leads to the development of every variety of American production and so to the fullest growth ef the nation." And Mr. Edmunds is almost as much of a statesman as George Yaple.—Detorit Tribune.

Grand Haven Herald: " Cyrus (1. Luce —as a dissyllable, Luce, tho ablative singular of Lux, light—by the light. That's lie man and method by which tho republican party will conquer fusionism." If the Herald had added another word, also ihifc the 1 to r in light, it would have been complete.

The Chicago Tribune says: "George L. Yaple, the democratic candidate for governior of Michigan, is a thorough agnostic and believes that Bob Ingersoll is one of tho greatest men of the age. Before he gets through with his canvass Mr. Yaple will conclude that he has made a 'mistake' by the side of which those of Moses will pale their ineffectual fires."

Owosso Times : "The editor of the Times has been In Michigan ever since the Republican party was organized, and has never seen before such perfect unanimity in public sentiment for any other ticket as exists to-day for the ticket noinnated on the 25th ult., at Grand Rapids. We predict, with proper effort. It can be elected by 20,000 majority over the Yaple combination."

The Sturgis Journal, published at the home of Mr. Yaple, gives this sketch of liin from personal knowledge: "Why, that man does not know anything more about genuine labor thau a hog does about war. He hardly ever earned a dollar In his life at labor of any kind that was in any way manual, and is to-day living off the charity of his father. He pretends to practice law, but there is scarcely a lawyer in the country that does not bare a better practice than he. Yes, indeed, if it were not for his 'daddy's dollars,' he would not only be the poor man's friend, but would be one of their number."

The Adrian Press has tumbled to the fact that the 3d party is securing democratic votes as well as democratic tally, and has commenced to give them a piece of its mind. Here is a paragraph : "The trouble with the third party is two fold. It ignores personal right?, and arrogates to itself sole power of salvation. Thousands of democrats and republicans are as thoroughly temperate as the most rabid prohibitionist. They are as earnest in advocating temperance, as the leaders of the third party. But recognizing that a man can't, by law, be made to believe that it is wrong to drink a glass of liquor, and that appetite cannot be regulated by law, they believe that the best way to promote temperance does not lie in prohibition laws, but by stringent restrictive legislation, and holding men responsible for abusive indulgence of their appetites. Moral sentiment is such now that drunkenness is disreputable and will defeat any aspirant for official position—except 1'. 8. senator."

A Prison Sunday.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,) Board ol Corrections and Ubarltles,)
Lansing, Mich. j

To lite Reverend Clergy of Michigan:

The extended and kind response to our suggestion of a year since, that a Sabbath in October be observed as a "Prison Sunday," on which to have presented from the pulpit, in their wide bearings, prison reform, and the firm belief that great good must result from such a concerted presentation of the subject, and the fact that in other states the same day will be observed, lias encouraged the State Board of Corrections and Charities of Michigan to recommend that again a Sunday be set apart for such purpose.

Ignorance is a great factor in retarding the work of prison reform, ignorance of the relation of the citizen to the criminal; a relation of Interest, of benevolence, and of religion.

The clergy as teachers and leaders of thought who are brought into contact with the people more than any other class, can do much to dispel this ignorance and awaken au interest in these questions of most vital importance, and In so doing hasten the day when the prisoils and reformatories ot Michigan shall be after the best models in every respect.

The State Board would therefor respectfully recommend that Sunday, Oct. 34tb, 188C, be observed as Prison Sunday, and as merely suggestive, mention the following as among subjects of particular interest which may be properly introduced into the pulpit on such an occasion : The Families of those Imprisoned, Provision for discharged Prisoners, Indeterminate Sentences, Employment in Prisons and Reformatories, Juvenile and First Offenders, Our Jail .System and the Tramp Evil.

The Board would also suggest that. :it least extracts of the sermons preached in compliance with this request, be published in the local papers. If this Is done it would be estemed a favor if a copy of the paper was sent to the Secretary of the board, or he be advised by ;i postal tha j ine day was so observed.

Our secretary will be pleased to furnish from the office of the board at Lansing, such printed information as he may have for distribution, on application.

Mr. Smith has made several trips of this kind to that country in former yours, and found his Shipment! profitable.—Ypsilantian.

The Echo gives away some of its Chelsea beaux in this way: " Two of Chelsea's fair young damsels wore down at the depot, the other day, bidding their Ann Arbor beaux good-bye, when they said lo their lovers before the train started, it the same time pressing their sweet lips to those of the young men, " Now, 'boys dont forget to come up often, lor you Ann Arbor chaps are just lively, and know how to treat the jiit Is. Why, some of our Chelsea boys are afraid to say 'booh,' when a girl talks to them, so we are glad to hav< you boys come up to sec u<, as you are um afraid to talk."

The added number of bright new faces on our streets, the throngs in and around the postoffice, the processions to and from Normal hill, and the many questions to be heard from paMlnggroupa, "Have you got a boarding bouse?" " Have you been classified?" "Wasn't that examinatioi in geography a scorcher?" nil indicate t the casual down town observer that the Normal is again in session and tlie students have returned. They have returned, too, with a larger addition of new faces than ever before in the history o the Normal, the number of new students enrolled the lirst week being 240, again; 225 on Wednesday evening of the firs week of last year.—Ypsilnntian.

THE LAW DEPARTMENT.

The Law Department of the University luis jusc Ittaed a supplementary announcement from which it appears that radical changes have recently been made it the method of instruction in that department. Formerly the period of instruction was one of two years of six months each, ami members of both class M heard the nme lectures, reoelring their instruction In common. Not lonj< since, the period of Instruction was lengthened to two years of nine months each, and at a recent meeting of the law faculty the work in the department was graded. During the next year lectures are to bo given to the senior and junior classes separately, and text book work, which has heretofore been with juniors only, will bo required of both classes. A course, also, in the study of leading cases has been added, and both classes will recite daily upon the lectures delivered. For years past the required work of the school has been gradually Increased, and the recent change is a large stride in the direction of thorough and systematic instruction.

The COURIER, Register and other republican newspapers of the district have been charging that democratic dlraf'lection over the nominee for congress exists in this district.—Argus.

Keep tnitli on your side, Uro. Argus, and it will avail you much, perhaps. The COURIEK, never made such a charge. It lms never said a word about democratic disaffection In this district. This "disall'ection," must be something that worries our brother, however, or he wouldn't keep barplng about it so much, and imagining that the newspapers of the district are talking about it when they have not been saying a word.

What would prohibition bo without the offices ?

The Argus appears to have tuned its lyre fur the campaign.

There is an air of contldenceand victory about every republican you meet.

" No greenbacker need apply," is the sign on the democratic door in this county.

The democrats and prohibitionists found that lock of hair in Maine—It was in the soup.

In his recent visit to this county Mr. Salsbury proved one thing: He knows Beau-s.

It is said that Tim Tarsney up in the 8th district has the political nightmare llorr ibly.

No " kid " need apply for votes over at Adrian, Mr. Yaple. Their experience with " Kid " Navin was sufficient.

Referring to the past record of the democratic party the Argus terms " throwing mud." The Argus may be right.

Oh ! no! That wasn't much ol a victory, in Maine, but we notice that it gave our democratic friends a severe attack ol the "blues."

The Detroit kid-gloved boss has sent word to Washtenaw county as to who must be put up for state senator and representatives.

The New York World (dem.) after asserting that there were seven lawyers on the Michigan tusion ticket says that " it should be called the con-fusion ticket."

Hon. Cyrus Q. Luce will speak to the people of this county on the issues of the day, at Salem Station, on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 28th. Go and hear him.

When a man tells you that Mr. Luce is not a farmer, but is a banker, just tell him he is telling a falsehood. Mr. Luce never lived anywhere off of his farm in his life.

It is pretty tough juice that the democratic papers are endeavoring to squeeze out of the Maine and Vermont elections for their prohibition allies. Not at all palatable.

Without a representative on the congressional, county or legislative tickets the greenbackers of Washtenaw must be almost tickled to death over the coining election prospects.

There isn't a man in the 3d congressional district to-day, who stands nearer the hearts of the people than does Capt. E. P. Allen. He is a whole-souled fellow, manly and generous to a fault.

Now that the Dolphin lias been bought and paid lor by the government the aristocratic Don Dickinson might open negotiations to secure her for tiis Salt river senatorial tour next November.

If the south could have a political earthquake it would be or lasting benefit not only to her own people but to the nation as well. It's solidity is a menace to the peace and prosperity of the country.

Mr. Yaple, "by the eternal," wouldn't vote for the restoration of the tariff on wool. But he will have the wool pulled from over his eyes by the farmers and laborers next November, just the same.

The present administration has quietly been opening the books and finds over $£0,000 due from the several departments of the government under republican rule.—Ypsilantl Commercial.

Talk about champion lies and liars! There's both for you.

Dare Mr. Salsbury come out upon the platform to discuss the temperance question, and say whether or not his slips upon the prohibition ticket put on before election were what elected him prosecuting attorney.

The opposition papers that are trying to kick up a row in the republican ranks over the action of the Washtenaw delegation in the state convention can keep right on blowing. They couldn't use their space more ineffectually.

The assertion that Hoscoc B. Dix, the republican candidate for state land commissioner is a lawyer, is another of the Free Press' funny lies. He is the same kind of a lawyer that Capt. Manly of this city, is. He runs an abstract office.

The Democrat thinks that " Mr. Bates, of Lima," was treated badly by the republicans last year. An assertion that can not be borne out by facts. But he and his friends may, possibly, receive better treatment at the hands of the democrats this year. We shall see.

The Methodist church prevented Bob Ingersoll from becoming governor of Illinois, but now the Dickie branch of the Methodist brethren propose to aid one ol Injersoll's disciples to the governor's chair of Michigan by voting against Mr. Luce. Hadn't they better reflect?

A man who preaches prohibition in Lenawee, and plays pedro and drinks beei in Washtenaw is not a safe man to entrust with the honor of a representative in congress. He should be permitted to continue as prosecuting attorney—the prohibitionists have no candidate this year again in Lenawee, we notice.

The democrats of the 1st congressional district havedone an injury to a man who under proper restraints and influences is a bright man. No man knows better than does J. Logan Chipmau his own weakness, and to send him to congress would be to put a curse upon him. For his own sake he should be kept where he is.

Chairman Weston of the democratic state central commlttee.had St. John down for several speeches in this state at $50 per night. Since the Maine election it is understood he has written St. John that lie (St. John) bettter apply to the republican state central committee. Very kind in Mr. Weston, but the republican committee is not running a " boodle " campaign.

The young men of the country, for whose votes our political enemies are so anxious this year, will probably use the elective franchise intell igently, and not be led blindly into either party. The republican party is willing to be judged by its past record, its present attitude on all the live questions of the day, or by the intelligence and morality of the men who compose its membership. It has nothing to be ashamed of.

Had the editor of the Argus attended the republican state convention he would not be making so many false statements about its personnel, which one week he asserts was composed of new men and nobodys, and the next of old men, etc. Wo will match the youth, "silver grays," ability, vigor and enthusiasm of the republican state convention against the aggregated boys, bossism, ability, bluster and Dickinsouianism of the combined fusion state convention, any day in the week, Bro. Beakes.

OUR COUNT! FAIR!

As we go to press the county fair is just commencing business.

The rain of yesterday dampened things a little, but nevertheless exhibits have kept pouring in, and the show will be one equal, if not superior to former exhibits.

The entries show that nearly every department will have sufficient display to make it of interest to the sight-seers while some of them will be very large, indeed.

The entries in live stock were never so great before. This is especially so in the line of horses, the stalls not being sufficient to care for the animals brought in.

In cattle there is a magnificent exhibit, which is also true of sheep and swine.

The sale of stock, it is thought, will be an event of interest to-day and to-morrow, and Friday.

The speed trials to-morrow and Friday will be of great interest, as the entries testify.

At Floral Hall everything is bright and attractive. Demand for space has never been as great ns this year, and our merchants arc out doing each other in making the hull attractive.

It you do not attend the fair you will certainly miss a good thing.

CONSISTENCY THOU AKT, ETC

The Ann Arbor Argus of Sept. 17th, has ttlis assertion:

The Argus has never accused Mr. Allen of being a poor man, For that, certainly is no crime. Wo simply say that Mr. Allen, being a poor man cannot afford to make a losing canvass.

Now if the readers of the Argus will turn to the issue of Sept. 3d, they will find this language used:

I am sorry for Capt. Allen. He Is poor, and his friends will again have to chip in and raise money wherewith to meet necessary expenses.

The reader can judge for himself whether or not that was intended as a fling at Oai>t. Allen for being a poor man.

Then again, the Argus in its last issue says this:

The COUBIKH ot last week said It Is but a lew years si nee the democratic party hounded laborers with blood hounds. And yet It talks abuut slinging mud. -Argus.

In the issue of the Argus for August 27th the following paragraph occurs:

The republican party is the party of great moral ideas, yet Kiodleberger, one of Its Southern Semuors was so drunk upon the floor of the Senate, that his colleagues lmd lo adjourn in order to get rid of him. He represents a great moral idea.

There's no mud about that, is there Mr. Argus ? That is kind, gentlemanly, refined, polished political sweetness, especially as liiddleberger is not a republican.

And now Bro. Pattison of the Ypsilanti Commercial, has been putting his foot in it, also. We quote from the last Commercial:

The Ypsilanti Commercial calls republicans ^'scape goats' in one ankle and then right under it ;isks them to come over and vote with its party. Comment is unnecessary. — ANN ARBOK COURIER.

Now then, do you aspire to be the champion liar of Michigan, Mr. COUBIEK? We do urge conscientious republicans to net off the "beer keg" and rally to the suppression of tlio liquor traffic. We shall not call them "scape goats" if they do not.

If the editor of the Commercial will turn to his issue of August 27th, he will find this dirty item:

The republican scape-goats are still at It. At Unadllta they huhg 'in effigy lley. O. N. Hurst, a Presbyterian minister, and pastor of the church, because he Is a prohibitionist. The 'good olit days" of November and December, '81, when the republicans hung st John lu effigy for "beating Blalne," liavo come.

And in the same issue he will find this:

Now, republicans, why throw away your votes? Vote for Dickie, and he Is the next Governor. We repeat, why throw away your vote this fall and help place democrats In power.

Who aspires to the champion liar-ship now, Bro. Pattisou ? We would like to have our brother editors understand that it isn't necessary for the COURIER to resort to falsehoods. We always strive to keep within strict truth. Those who tell lies are sure to get caught at it, as the above proves, and besides there is nothing made by it.

A long and ardent howl has been seut to the skies for a long time past, against the traveling grocer, the retail sale agent and the auctioneer. Our city merchants have claimed—aud with justice, too, in which we have ever given them our hearty support and weighty influence—that the community should not patronize these nomadic and untrustworthy scalpers, but do their trading at home. We were thanked (In some cases) for our support and It was all right to help drive from the community the evils that were hurting the interests of our fine and flourishing little city. It was all right, too, when we changed free of cost every week or so, their advertisement and gave liberal "puffs" and^noticed the artistic changes in their show windows. But here comes along a traveling printer and instantly the small favors of the home printer are forgotten and before the enormous reduction of a few cents and much well directed talking, the printing agent carries off merchant's, banker's, artisan's and others job printing to be done not a whit better than can be done at our home offices and in many cases not a cent cheaper. Gentlemen, is this doing the fair thing? Is this treating with any degree of human charity, the only enterprise by which you are made known to your customers or by which our flourishing city is represented outside of our own borders.—Eaton Rapids Journal.

The "Star Mountain Silver Mining stock" is still being worked off on the fish that take it in. When a dividend is ever declared they will be apt to know about it. They will also have a chance to know when the assessments strike them.

Everybody Likes Good Things.

Starting out on this principle Geo. L. Moore, who has purchased the grocery establishment of II. & R. Granger, Xo. 48 S. State st., has put in a line of the very choicest and finest teas, coffees, spices, crackers, cheese, in fact everything to be found in a first-class grocery store, and proposes to make a bid for the trade of the people in that part of the city by giving them the best the markets afford.

By prompt and personal attention to business he hopes to draw custom. Drop in and see him whether you want to buy or not.

A greater farce was never attempted than the one in which those aristocrats, Don Dickinson and John Enright, pose as the great friend of the laboring man. They, nor their creature Yaple, never did a stroke of manual labor in their lives, and are noted for their extremely aristocratic airs.

Mack & Schmid have an elegant display of Shawls and Cloaks. Among some we notice a real India Shawl from the valley of Kashmir, where the choicest quality Is made. A tribute has to be paid to the Muhariajar of Kashmir before these shawls can be sold by the men who make them. They are made by hand, in a tent, and with a needle in little pieces each of which are put (or sewed) together after years of work. We also notice elegant Heal Seal Victoria with real Black Lynx Fur Trimming. Also real Seal Wraps and Sacques) besides the elegant assortment of Seal Plush Mantles, Wraps, Sacques and Victorias.

W. T^emaine: "There isn't a place In this city now where a farmer or other person can water horses. It seems to me as if the council ought to make some provision for this want, uow that we have water works."

The good Methodist people of Dexter are to be congratulated upon having secured Dr. S. IT. Adams, as pastor of their church for this conference year. We trust his pastorate will prove a great blessing to them.

The Ypsilanti fair people and the Chelsea fair people have been distributing tickets about the city where they would do the moat good this week. They know how to work up a crowd, and generosity quite often pays if discreetly used. It is always ahead of parsimony.

By reference to the proper column the call for a representative convention for this dlstrict will be found. As has been customary heretofore, the convention will bu held the same day as the county nominating convention. Delegates to both conventions may be elected at the same caucus.

Dr. Arthur Worden has recently made a successful operation of the removal of an ovarian tumor from a lady in Des Moines. It weighed 100 pounds and had 07 pounds of solid matter, but the lady is doing well. The Iowa State Register speaks of it as *'a remarkable surgical operation."

The call for the republican city caucuses, to elect delegates to the county nominating convention to be held in this city Tuesday, Oct. 5th, and to the representative convention of the 1st district, comprising the northern half of the county, on the same date, are called for Friday evening Oct. 1st.

The republican nominee for governor of this state, Hon. Cyrus G. Luce, will speak at Salem Station, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 28th. His speech will be worth hearing, too. We advise our brother of the Argus to go over there and listen to it, and to propound to Mr. Luce that question of his about Bohemian oat notes, etc.

There was a great crowd of people down to the depot last Sunday p. m., to witness the departure of the members of the Ann Arbor Commandery and their friends who went to the great conclave of K. T's at St. Louis. The car was handsomely decorated with bunting and finely executed pictures In oil of the commandeiy badge and emblems. The car looked very fine, and the excursionists went off in the jolliest of spirits. That they are having a grand time no ono doubts.

Red raspberries this time of year are something of a wonder, but Spencer Sweet has them down in his garden, in proof of which he brought in a handful yesterday, as large and as sweet as though in season.

The office of the School of Music will be open for the transaction of business and the entrance of pupils on Wednesday and Thursday, to-day and to-morrow, and the session of school will commence Friday. An extra room has been rented tor the use of the school, and a new Chickering piano also furnished.

Ed. J. Morton, for a year or so foreman of the job room of the COURIER office some years since, has purchased a half interest in the Ann Arbor Argus. We are told that it is the intention of the new firm to add a complete job printing department, and make a strong bid for a greater share of work.

Dropping into Willis Boughton's place of business on Washington street the other day, we were happily surprised to rind him so nicely situated, and with such a huge lot of books on hand. He tells us also that his list of subscribers to the library is rapidly increasing. Just think of it, two year's reading for $1.50. Drop in and have a chat with him.

Hon. Chas. II. Richmond will not have a walk-away for the senatorial nomination. Hon. Jas. S. Gorman, of Lyndon, the silver-tongued orator of Washtenaw —than whom there are few better speakers in this section—is a candidate, and we learn that Capt. Chas. H. Manly would also be pleased with the nomination. Then, again, Monroe may have a word to say.

Last Sunday's Free Press says there is considerable talk about Mayor Robison, of Ann Arbor, serving his party as senator from this district. Well, Mayor Robison is a pretty good man, and would serve the interests of the people of this seuatorial district well, notwithstanding his democracy. But how about the election? Could he outrun a Campbell? That's the question.

J. P. Judson Is erecting a two story brick veneer store on State street, having bought a lot off the south end of the Dr. Suger property for that purpose. Mr. Judson will occupy one-half of the ground floor for an office for his wood yard, and keep on hand flour, feed, etc. The other half, it is understood, will be used for a drug store. State street appears to be booming In a business way.

A vile wretch in human form was arrested Sunday afternoon for indecent conduct toward a little five-year old girl. He claims to come from Oakland county, and is a man 01 years old. Since the above was in type we learn from Justice Pond that the charge on which the arrest was made was not substantiated, and that a new charge of assault and battery will be preferred.

UNIVEKSITV ITEMS.

President Angell returned home last eveuing.

Mrs. J. M. Lee, of Rochester, N. Y., has returned to her studies in the medical department.

Postmaster Willard Stearns, of Adrian, was over to Ann Arbor Monday, with his son who enters college this year.

Prof. DePont looks as if he had received the most benefit of any of the summer tourists. He reports a magnificent time.

Miss Hilda Lodeman, who was a member of the Normal graduating class of '80, will enter the university this year.—Vpsilantian.

Dr. MacLachlan ami family have returned from their summer stay In northern Michigan, and are busy moving to a Thompson St. residence.

The homeopathic faculty arc elated over the prospects for their department this year. It looks now as if their classes would be larger than ever before.

The raising of the state assessment from $810,000,000 to $945,000,000 will increase the l-20th of a mill tax which goes to the university from $10,500 to 147,360. And still the allowance is a miserly one for such a great and magnificent university.

Milo D. Campbell, of Branch Co., who made such an onslaught on the university and its appropriations in the legislature two years ago, has been left out In the cold on a nomination this year. He aspired to be a senator but he didn't get there, and few mourners there'll be.

The law library room U " a daisy," as the slang expression of the day goes. With its new door, new windows, new cases, and new arrangements everyway, It is made over from a dingy old room into a light, bright, neat and inviting room. Librarian Vance probably appreciates the ohange as much as any person, and he hopes to put an end to many of the abuses that crept in by tricky students last year. The books are now being placed back in their places, and everything will be in tip-top shape when the department opens.

Those Marriage Veils Xs&'uu

At the residence of the bride's mother, on W. Huron St., on Thursday evening, Sept. Kith, Miss Mittie Mny Curtis, and Mr. c. II. Grealhousi[1], were united in marriage, Rev. VV. II. Ryder performing the ceremony. The couple left on the evening train for Chicago and St. Paul, from whence they go to Louisville, Ky., where their future home will be. The groom was formerly a student here, and graduated in the lit. class of 71), and the bride with the class of '82. There was a pleasant gathering of friends to witness the ceremony, and to bid them God speed on their journey of life together.

Last Sunday afternoon, at \)i o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Ann Arbor town, by Rev. S. Harp, Miss Mary A. Iliuldy and Leonard A. Blake were united in marriage. At SJ4 o'clock p. m. the couple left for St. Louis, Mo., accompanying the Ann Arbor Commatidery, (of which Mr. Blake is a member) on its excursion to the 38d triennial conclave.

Invitations have been issued announcing the marriage on Thursday evening, Sept. 30th, of Ida M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Curtis, to Mr. George J. Greene. The ceremony to take place at the residence of the bride's parents No-S3 Washington st., at 7:30 p. m.

Peter McNalley and Miss Maggie I'hurston, both of this city, were married this a. m. at 9 o'clock, at St. Thomas' church, Rev. Fr. Fierle officiating.

By what we deemed the very best of authority we announced the marriage of Albert Mann and Miss Emily Gwinner, last week. Mr. Mann informs us that it was an error, and we hasten to correct it. But there is something peculiar about the fact that all the other papers of the city except the Democrat and Post fell into the same error. They couldn't have copied it from the COURIER? Certainly not!

Amusements.

Our play-going people know something of the brilliancy, grandeur and excellence of that beautiful play, "The Ivy Leaf." It has few equals upon the stage, and it is with feelings of pleasure that we can announce its performance here on Saturday night Sept. 25th by VV. II. Power's company. It Is one of the purest and best plays ou the stage. Of its performance iu Des Moines, the Iowa Messenger says:

During the past week the theatre-goers of Des Moines were treated to something ditferent from the stereotyped Irish comedy. In the drama of "The Ivy Leaf," which was presented for two nights at Foster's Opera House, it Is indeed a play that all Irishmen should patronize, as the tendency Is to elevate the character of the representation of his people on the stage. There Is none of that mean, low, contemptible slum. omedy that has been resorted to so much In the past to bring forth a coarse lauuh, but represents the Irishman as he really Is, witty, big-hearted, wholesouled aud true to his friends. The scenery is the best that has been put upon a Des Moines stage In some time. The plot is "A No. 1, abounding In bright, witty dialogues and sayings. Any Irishman wishing to see a good, pure, spicy Irish drama, should not fail to see "The Ivy Leaf." W. II. Power, the genial proprietor and manager of the company, is ft member of Dly. No. I, A. O. H., of Detroit, Mich., aud called on the members of the organization while In Des Moines. He has made hosts of friends In our city, and when he comes to the capital city nexteeasou, he will meet with a rousing reception.

Probably the most genuine amusement can be realized out of John T. Kaylond's "For Congress," of any piece that has ever been put upon the stage. Mcn have been known to laugh until quite exhausted over the comical situations and sayings. The Louisville Courier-Journal says of the play:

John T. Raymond appeared as General Limber in his new comedy. "For Congress," at Macauley's Theater last night. The comedy Is In four acts, the last three being wildly circlcal, and from the time the curtain rose on the second act, which discloses the workings of a political convention, the audit orium was a scene of extravagant laughter. The plot Is rather Ingenious, and there Is material enough for a play of considerable romantic, as well as comic interest. The serious scenes nuhl luwebeen Improved by more skillful treatmeut, but all such opportunities are sung to the winds, and comedy runs riot. Raymond's Impersonation of the General is animated and highly ludicrous, and he succeeds in Investing the old humbug with a sort of universal amiability, which to some extent redeems his political atrocities. These, however, are, in a measure, atoned for by his timely uumasklng of the villain of the play, and so saving the fortune and the good name of their common victim.

Manager Sawyer says he thought he knew something about tho inside workings of politics, but Raymond can give him points right along. This will be one of the rare treats of the year. Monday eveiling, Sept. 27. Reserved seats $1.00. Can be secured at Yale's P. O. news depot.

Calling iu at Bach & Abel's store yesterday, we found them in a happy frame of mind over the prospects for the fall tradc. Although they had been shut out at the fair grounds after having for several years made a handsome display there, yet the opportunities for home advertising is so great that their trade appears to be starting more briskly than for any previous fall for years. They have received their new fall stock, which is larger than any previous purchase ever made by the firm at this season of the year, and they propose to make every inducuiont possible for an honorable firm to make in the way of choicest and most desirable goods, at the lowest possible prices. Their display is really elegant, Call iu and see them if you would know how desirable their inducements are.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

FURTHER returns on the Hth from tho Maine election gave Bodwell (Rep.) for Governor a plurality of 13,000. The Senate would probably contain 36 Republicans and 5 Democrats and toe House 120 Republicans and 31 Democrats. All four of the Republican Congressmen woro re-elected by increased majorities.

Tns following Congressional nominations were made on the Hth: Republicans—Indiana, Ninth district, Joseph Cheadle; Illinois, Eighth district, Ralph Plumb (renominated); Wisconsin, Ninth district, Isaac Stephenson; Missouri, Fourth district, Byron Dunn; New Hampshire, Second district, J. H. Gallinger. Democrats—Illinois, Eleventh district, William Neoce (renominated); New York, Nineteenth district, James J. Franklin. Prohibition—New Hampshire, Second district, J. M. Fletcher.

THE Wisconsin Democrats met in State convention at Madison on the 15th and nominated the following ticket: For Governor, Albert A. Woodward; Lieutenant-Governor, J. W. Putnam; Secretary of State, John C. Ludwig; Treasurer, John A. Johnson; Attorney-General, George W. Bird; Superintendent of Schools, Edward McLaughlin; Railroad Commissioner, James Meeban; Insurance Commissioner, John Kerrel. The platform adopted endorses the President's Administration; denounces convict labor and the importation of foreign contract labor; opposes monopolies; denounces sumptuary prohibitory liquor laws and declares for a reduction of the tariff to a revenue basis.

AT the seventh annual convention of the American Agricultural and Dairy Association at Philadelphia on the 15th the mem"bers characterized the passage of the Oleomargarine bill as the greatest victory ever won for the farmers.

GENERAL SHERMAN presided over the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee at Rock Island, 111., on the 15th.

CONGRESSIONAL nominations were made as follows on the 15th: Republicans—Wisconsin, Second district, E. C. McFetridge; Third, B. M. La FoHette (renominated); Ohio, Twelfth district. J. J. Pugsley; New Hampshire, First district, M. A. Haynes (renominated) ; Pennsylvania,Nineteenth district,!.. Marsh. Democrats—Missouri,Tenth district, Martin L. Greenbaekers — Illinois, Eighth district, George U. Laeey; Tenth, W. T. Wallace; Pennsylvania, Fifth district, Dr. Stelye.

THE National Anti-Saloon Republican convention held in Chicago on the 16th had nearly two hundred delegates, ropresenting eighteen States. Senator Blair, of New Hampshire, was made temporary chairman, and announced that they met to organize for the destruction of the rum traffic throughout the country. Ex-Senator Windom, of Minnosota, was elected permanent president. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the liquor traffic as •it exists to-day is the enemy of society, a fruitful source of corruption in politiao, the ally of anarchy, a school of crime and a menace to the public welfare, and should be extinguished altogether at the earliest possible moment; that the people should be permitted to vote on constitutional prohibitory amendments; and that the Republican party should see that all liquor laws or constitutional amendments are observed. A National Committee was appointed.

THE Wisconsin Labor party met in Stat« convention at Neeoah on the 16th and nominated John D. Cochrano for Governor; George A. Lloyd for Lieutenant-Governor; J. P. Jasperson for Secretary of State; Frederick Hoenig for State Treasurer ; John E. Thomas for Attorney-General; Henry Zinn for Railroad Commissioner; J. K. McGregor for Superintendent of Publio Instruction; and Rittner Stephens for Insurance Commissioner. The platform denounces the use of violence in settling disputes; advocates labor bureaus; arbitration in place of strikes; the prohibition of child and convict labor: a graduated income tax; the forfeiture of all land grants and the abolition of alien ownership in land, and a rigid enforcement of the law against the importation of foreign labor.

THE Pennsylvania Greenbackors in State convention on the 16th at Harrisburg nominated a full State ticket, with Robert J. Houston for Governor. It was a Maine girl of whom the story is told that she refused to marry a most devoted lover, until he should have amassed a fortune of $10,000. After some expostulation ho accepted the decree and went to work. About three months after this the avaricious young lady, meeting her lover asked: "Well, Charlie, how are you getting along? Oh,'verv well indeed, Charlie returned cheerfully, I've got $18 saved." The young lady blushed and looked down at the toes of her walk-Ing hoots, and stabbed the inoffensive earth with the point of her parasol. "I guess, said she faintly—1 guess, Charlie, that's about near enough."—Harper's liazar.

THE PLANET JUPITER.

The Brightest and Largest Star In tlta

Early in the evening, a brilliant star comes looming above the Eastern horizon. It is the brightest and largest star in the firmament, and illuminates the sky with its soft light, during the whole night. This beaming star is Jupiter, the Prince of Planets. He is in the constellation Leo, east of its leading brilliant Regulus.

But no help is needed to recognize him; a glance at the heavens is sufficient, for he so far surpasses the other members of the starry throng, that lie is almost as readily known as the moon.

He will rise earlier and increase in radiance as the months roll on, reaching the culminating point in January, and continuing to be throughout the winter the most conspicuous star in the heavens.

Even a small telescope will bring him out as a very beautiful object, with his quartet of rnoons and his belts of prismatic hues. In a powerful telescope, he is beautiful beyond expression, with his stately and majestic bearing.

The men of science will improve the present favorable
