STREET RAILROADS.

At last by private enterprise we are likely to have a system of street railroads. At the common council meeting a company, already incorporated, asked for a franchise to run cars either by animals, cables or electricity. The company is composed of our own citizens and the stock will be disposed for sale here to whoever may wish it. The proposition justly meets with general favor, for there is nothing needed so much at this time to make a city indeed of Ann Arbor as street railroads. The city is more spread out than most towns of its population and a cheap method of transportation is most desirable. The cars will probably be run by electricity and will at first connect the depot and the University, running by way of Main street. The incorporators are Thomas J. Keech, Junius E. Beal, Edward Duffy, L. D. Taylor and Zina P. King.

In last week's Argus some one crawls behind the signature of "Liberal Christian" to wiggle over the charge of The Courier that Yapple is an infidel. This "Liberal Christian" is evidently much more "Liberal" than "Christian," and far more excited than logical in his letter. He denies by implication that Yapple is a follower of Ingersoll, then he seeks to excuse it by saying that if Yapple is an infidel so was Bagley, Palmer and Blair. What logic! Why, by that same absurd method of reasoning he might say that Yapple had a large brain because Bagley did. But that does not follow. Of course, if the democratic candidate for governor cannot honestly discern the true Light plain enough, and is satisfied to run after the false lights emanating from decaying vegetation in the marsh of infidelity and agnosticism, then that is his own loss more than that of any one else. The point we make is the absurdity of the position of the Third Party people, who are to a man opposed to such religious precepts as Ingersollism, in helping into office one of the satellites of the arch infidel. If telling the truth about Yapple makes votes for him he is welcome to all he can thus obtain.

If the people of Washenaw Co. want a representative in Congress now is the time to get a good one in an easy way. We have never had a representative since we have been in the district, and the republican convention recognized our rights and gave us our choice in Capt. Allen. But the democrats refused the claims of Washenaw's delegates and Lenawee democrats not satisfied with having had their man for four years, played the boy and tried to get it again. However they have reckoned without their host and time will show them that they made a mistake. Voters, Washenaw should be represented in Congress and the upright Capt. E. P. Allen is the man to do it.

Considerable curiosity has been shown among Captain Manly's friends as to whether, if elected, he would vote for Don Dickinson for Senator. But it is currently reported that he says he will not give his vote to any body who has not got down on him as the Boss Don has. We might see, if he by accident, should get there.

The oppression of labor was what gave birth to the republican party.

A candidate for revenue only with incidental prohibition—Crozier.

"A democrat for office only," is what the Hudson Post says of Mr. Salisbury.

Free speech is all right but free trade is all wrong, and would be a curse to this nation.

It is whispered that Crozier is not very successful in painting his district red. It can't be any fault of his head.

Somehow the democratic papers don't refer to the G. O. P. as much as they did before the Vermont and Maine elections.

The prohibitionists claim they will elect a president in 1892. Thought they did elect one in 1884. Don't they like him?

And still greenback representation on the democratic county and legislative ticket is lacking. Not a greenbacker or a shadow of a greenbacker to be found on either. Querer fusion that.

Will an old soldier of Michigan vote for a man for governor who voted against restoring Gen. Grant to the army? And who did vote to restore Fitz John Porter, at the same session of Congress?

Mr. Crozier is understood to have made his brags about a good boomerang he is to spring upon an unsuspecting and confiding people just before election. He wants to wait long enough so there can be no reply.

A question which agitates many good democrats in this county is: "Did Capt. Manly agree to support a greenbacker for United States Senator in the event of his election?" And if so, is Moses W. Field the man?

Several of our esteemed democratic contemporaries are poking fun at Wiggins' fool predictions, and yet they are predicting great democratic victories and cyclones in November. Therein they imitate Wiggins.

Had there been any magnanimity, any sense of propriety, any great, noble, free-hearted generosity in the late democratic convention, Geo. E. Peters, of Scio, would have been the nominee for the legislature in this district.

"When I go out west and open up a law office it will be a big advertisement for me to put in my business card, 'late candidate for congress in the 2d Michigan district.'" Yes, there is a great principle involved in that Mr. Crozier.

What would Rev. C. R. Pattison, the prohibition candidate for senator, say if a republican who would go down to Ypsilanti and hold a political meeting on Sunday afternoon? Yet he comes up here and holds a political meeting on that day, and electioneers for himself. Isn't it sacrilegious?

"Salisbury is Allen's superior in intellect, his superior in manly integrity," etc., says the Adrian Press. We are glad to know the Press's idea of "intellect" and "manly integrity." It consists in securing prohibition votes in Lenawee and slipping into saloons and taking beer etc., in Washenaw county. That is "manly integrity."

Does any one suppose for a moment that Prof. Dickie will poll as many votes for governor as did David Preston? Or does anyone suppose for a moment that Mr. Crozier will poll as many votes for congress as did the Hon. Chas. Mosher? The men in either instance are not to be compared for ability, strength of character and popularity.

The report is being circulated in Washenaw county, in the interest of Mr. Salisbury, that he will make a great run in Hilldale county. This is incorrect. As far as the canvass is toward from the republican ticket in Hilldale county will show up better in the coming election than two years ago, and Captain Allen will lead the ticket on majorities.—Hudson Post.

Don Dickinson's presence is needed in Ann Arbor. When a democrat is recommended for office by greenbackers there is a cool in the fence somewhere. This time the cool is said to be Moses W. Field for the U. S. Senate, in accordance with a great scheme cooked up to put him there should the two or three greenbackers that may be in the legislature hold the balance of power.

In all of the exchanges which come to our table some 250 in all, we have yet to find a paragraph in a republican paper alluding to labor or laborers in an unfriendly manner. But the democratic papers are continually flinging at them the Adrian Press refers to them as "anarchists," "socialists," etc., and our Ypsilanti neighbor of the Sentinel doesn't let a week slip by without digging into the Knights of Labor.

The democratic senatorial convention for this district met at Dundee last Thursday and nominated James Gorman, of Lyndon, for senator. We understand that Monroe county came there expecting to nominate their man, and when the Washenaw delegation refused to take a ballot but told the Monroe delegates that their chairman was instructed to cast 30 votes for Gorman, the Monroe men went home very grouchy.

The Ypsilanti Sentinel, in the following, gives the greenbackers a wee bit of satisfaction: "The democratic county convention Tuesday adjourned for fifteen minutes, to learn the wishes of some what greenbackers, and to hold a convention in the court house somewhere. On reassembling the committee reported that all they asked was the representative of the first district, with which they desired to have perfect satisfaction, and proceeded to make a clean democratic ticket. At the subsequent meeting of the district convention, the greenbackers proposed the name of Capt. Chas. H. Manly, with which that convention was perfectly satisfied, and so harmony reigned all round—the court house at least. We don't approach any democrat will kick."

Justice Labell, of Mt. Pleasant, the man who defeated Mr. Free Estece, thus making him a senator and a natural consequence sending him into the fusion camp, has come out in an open letter publicly joining the republican party and giving as one of the principal reasons the fact that the democratic party has become a party of aristocrats like Don Dickinson, et al., and of monopolists generally. Mr. Labell is also joined by Dennis Ryan, one of Mr. Pleasant's most prominent merchants. Estece ought to have left the party before for the party's good, it seems.

Free trade with British India, China and the rest of Asia means 40 cent wheat, instead of even 70 cent wheat. For those countries with their pauper peasantry can raise wheat at that price and send it here at a profit. Ask any merchant or any business man you choose whether he rather see wheat bring 40 cents in preference to 70 cents or $1.00 per bushel, and you will not answer you get. Free trade when necessarily utters ruin trade at home. Free trade would build up foreign farmers at the expense of American farmers. Who wants to do that?

THE ST. LOUIS CONCLAVE.

At the Texas headquarters, which were near to us, they proudly showed us a banner with this inscription: Michigan and Texas; let us (then a picture of two men shaking hands) and bury the (a picture of a bloody shirt). Thus did the St. Louis Knights fraternize.

RIVER EXCURSIONS.

The generous and hospitable Sir Knights and citizens of St. Louis had provided numerous steamers on the Mississippi to take all the visitors on excursions up and down the river. We boarded the "Chautau," the largest steamer on the Mississippi or Ohio rivers. It is 300 feet long and 80 feet wide, and although it can carry 2,200 tons it only draws 8 feet of water.

In the cotton trade between Memphis and New Orleans she has carried at one time 8,544 bales of unaccompressed cotton piled up on her tiers high. With such a load nothing is visible of the immense boat save the smoke stacks and the pilot house. It has three decks and can accommodate 5,000 people. About half this number were aboard the boat on the day we took our ride and it was by no means crowded. All sandwiches, ice cream and lemonade. During the ride on the muddy current of this old "Father of Waters" several bands dispersed the best of music while the men and ladies chatted, exchanged cards and badges, lunched and viewed the country above and below the city. Many pleasant acquaintances were thereby formed.

THE BRIDGE.

Every traveler to St. Louis has a chance to see the great bridge across the river. And although the center span is 55 feet above the water it appeared as though the smoke stack of our boat were about to strike it. But it is a huge one and seems to be the largest in the States—until one sees the Brooklyn, of course. With its approaches its length is over a mile and its cost was six and a half millions. A toll of five cents is to be paid and the revenues therefrom make it pay handsome dividends on the original investment.

A BREWERY.

One of the great sights of St. Louis is the largest brewery in the country. The Anheuser-Busch brewery covers thirteen blocks in the heart of the city and its owner built it up from $100,000 to its present valuation of seven millions, and where 350,000 barrels are sold in a year, averaging $10 per barrel. The private stable of the president of the company is finer than any residence in this city and cost $35,000. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

They make their own bottles to the extent of twenty-five millions a year, and the beer is exported to Mexico, South America, Spain, China and other countries. By the means of huge ice machines the cellars where it is stored have a temperature of freezing and ice hangs all over the ceiling, pipes and tuns. Many of these tuns hold one hundred barrels and they stretch away in long runs through the cellar.

Over a thousand men are employed about this institution and each one is allowed two glasses of beer an hour during each working hour. This 20,000 glasses thus consumed is as a "drop in a bucket" compared to what is daily manufactured. The whole establishment is wonderfully complete and a tour through it is very interesting. Visitors there were handsomely entertained by an old graduate of the U. of M.

SHAW'S GARDEN.

The pride of St. Louis is a magnificent park and garden of some 331 acres donated to it by Mr. Shaw, an old bachelor who lives there. It is thrown open to visitors free. The garden itself has 54 acres and it contains almost every known variety of plants in the world. In fact, we understand that a prize is offered to any one bringing one that he does not have. Near by is Tower Grove Park also given by Mr. Shaw. Here are statues of Columbus, Shakespeare, Humboldt and others, while the grounds are laid out with excellent taste.

For Conclave week it is estimated that 125,000 went into the city by the railroad trains. The Pullman Car company furnished 200 extra cars beyond their usual number on the regular trains. $100,000 was spent by the citizens and it is estimated that their guests left a million dollars in the city.

So it was a complete success and it is doubtful if any other organization could command such parades, such lavish entertainments, such drills, such crowds, such uniformly fine companies of men and withal such good order. For, although the saloons had stocked up heavily in expectation of a large trade, their owners became very much disgraced and declared that they had rather have a democratic convention of a thousand men than this Knight Templar crowd of twenty thousand.

THE COURIER has no fault to find with Mr. Yapple or any other man's religion. It is irrelevant that all Christians should deprecate, whether they are "Liberal" or otherwise.

How do Mr. Sutton's friends like the way he has been left out in the cold on a renomination? Harper was again put up in the other District, but Sutton thrown overboard. Evidently the powers that be in Washenaw Democracy had no further use for him.

The coming to the front of so many of the common people and declaring their intention of joining the republican party is an auspicious omen. The aristocrats are going to the democracy, and the men who live by the sweat of their brow are joining the republicans.

Senator Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, was in the city yesterday, to speak on the political issues of the times. During the day he visited the University. Upon going into the Hall and standing in line he declared it the finest hall he had ever been in. He was much pleased with the city, as well as surprised at the magnitude of the University.

Saline republicans have shut out prohibition speakers from the Saline schoolhouse, except by the payment of heavy rental. Perhaps they think the school should be used for a republican party—Ann Arbor Argus.

Another campaign fabrication. The meeting was made and argued before the school meeting, by one of the leading democrats of Saline—Osweyer.

One by one the democratic boomerangs come home to them.

A gentleman who is perfectly reliable tells us that Crozier is to create a terrible sensation just before election. He has his plans all laid and documents nearly prepared to strike a savage blow at Mr. Allen so that Mr. Allen or his friends will have no time to make reply. Well, his honorable warfare is not a new one. But people are so accustomed to these just before election dodges that they pay little heed to them. Mr. Crozier's fight appears to be all against Allen too. He chums it with Salisbury. "Birds of a feather," coincidentally.

Council Meeting.

Regular monthly meeting of the common council Monday evening. Full board present.

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

Of A. H. Holmes, T. F. McDonald and ten others, asking for a sidewalk on the west side of Forest avenue, between Orleans street to the south line of the lot owned by A. H. Holmes; also a crossing on the west side of Forest avenue, across Willard street.

Of Alfred Baker, Rachel S. Smith and M. Seery for a sidewalk on the west side of Thayer street, the south 8 rods on the east side of block 4. [This walk has been carried on for many years, and the neglect of the council to compel its construction is a thing to be regretted].

Of Alex. W. Hamilton Chas. E. Lowrey, John Ferdon and N. W. Cheever, asking for a plank sidewalk on the south side of Madison street, from Thompson to Grove street; and also four crossings on south side of Madison street, one across State, one across Thompson, and one across Grove street.

All above referred to the sidewalk committee with power to act.

Petition of John Flynn, A. G. Schmidt and 13 others asking for the cleaning out of a ditch dug by the city on Pontiac street some 25 years ago.

Referred to the street committee with power to act.

A communication was received from Chief Engineer Sorg advising the sale of three fire hand engines owned by the city, and the investment of the proceeds in other necessary apparatus for the fire department.

Referred to the committee on fire department with power to act.

Samuel Dett and wife appeared before the council complaining that their cow had been taken from their cow pen on premises and put in the pound. Chief Sibley said a good many complaints had been made of this cow and Policeman Amsien had taken the same while on duty upon the street and feeding there. On motion of Ald. Alldeminger the amount of Policeman Amsien's fee, $2.00, was remitted.

On motion of Ald. Alldeminger the matter was laid upon the table until next Monday evening.

Ald. Alldeminger moved that the Recorder be instructed to draw a warrant on the contingent fund in favor of Lewis Seyler for $115.50, being the unexpired time of his liquor tax. Carried.

Council then adjourned.

Republican County Convention.

The republicans of Washtenaw county met in convention by delegates, at the City Hall, Tuesday forenoon, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State convention, called to order by Wm. M. Osband, of Ypsilanti, chairman of the county committee. Geo. D. Crippen, one of Superior's bright young Republicans, was called to the chair, and Wm. Dan-ningburg, of Augusta, was chosen as temporary secretary.

A committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of M. M. Wood, of Sylvan, Geo. C. Smith, of Ypsilanti and M. H. Goodrich, of Ann Arbor.

Committee on permanent organization and order of business—E. W. Foster, of Ann Arbor town; Geo. H. Pond, Ann Arbor city; Perry L. Townsend, Superior.

Adjourned until 6 o'clock p. m.

Upon re-assembling the temporary officers were made permanent, and an order of business adopted.

The committee on credentials reported nearly 50 delegates from the various precincts.

Upon motion of Hon. A. J. Sawyer, Frederick Braun, of Ann Arbor town was nominated by acclamation for the office of sheriff, with a whoop.

Frank Pettee, moved the suspension of the rules and the nomination of Wm. A. Clark, of Ypsilanti, by acclamation for county clerk. Carried unanimously.

Peter W. Carpenter, of Ypsilanti, was nominated by acclamation for register of deeds, amidst great enthusiasm.

The name of Stephen W. Fairchild was presented and unanimously nominated for the office of county treasurer.

What is fame? Our friend of the Argus calls him "Fred Estece."

Saline News. Mrs. F. C. Bush has returned from her visit at Ann Arbor.

Sam Barnard, wife and daughter were in town the 4th inst.

The remains of C. E. Ford of Minneapolis, were brought here on the 4th inst. The funeral took place at his father's, E. W. Ford, and the remains were interred in the McCreery cemetery.

A notice in the issue of the A. A. Argus of the 24th inst., regarding "Saline News" has been shut out prohibition speakers from the Saline school house except by the payment of a heavy rental. Perhaps they think this is the way to retain prohibition votes in the republican party. The facts are: Mr. Frank E. Jones, the leading democrat of Saline, offered the resolution, and the entire debate upon the resolution was by prominent democrats. Will the Argus have the fairness to correct it?

100 Doses
One Dollar. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which this can be truly said; and it is an unanswerable argument as to the strength and positive efficacy of this great medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made of roots, herbs, barks, etc., long and favorably known for their power in purifying the blood; and in combination, proportion, and process, Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself.

One Dollar
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, salt rheum, all humors, boils, pimples, general debility, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney and liver complaints, and all affections caused by impure blood or low condition of the system. Try it. It was severely afflicted with scrofula, and for over a year had two running sores on my neck. I took five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself entirely cured." C. R. LOVINOX, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. My whole system has been built up and strengthened, my digestion improved, and my head relieved of the bad feeling. I consider it the best medicine I have ever used, and should not know how to do without it." MARY L. FEILZ, Salem, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists, $1; six for $5. Made only by D. H. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

The battle of the ballots now looms up clearly.

The W. C. T. U. meets on Tuesday evenings hereafter, at Crompton's hall.

Geo. Clarke is laying a stone sidewalk in front of his new store on Main st.

Dorothy Wenderover, of this city, died Sept. 29, '86, aged 83 years and 9 months.

It is said that the communion service held at the M. E. church last Sunday was the largest ever known in the society.

Hutzel & Co., have an Indian battle axe and other relics they found in digging the water works trench at Stratton Hill.

A new stone sidewalk in front of Cook's hotel is being prepared for, and one in front of Stein's market has just been laid.

For the first time this fall Jack Frost gave us a visit last Saturday morning. There have been other frosts but not to our damage.

Next week there will be a pastoral conference of the ministers of this district of United Evangelical synod, held at Bethlehem church.

The Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing to hear the Assyrian lady last Sunday evening, and her words were very entertaining.

Old Jack Frost has been of great service to the young lads who are gathering the large crop of hickory nuts that have grown this season.

Our hardware men are doing a tremendous business just now, almost impossible to get an order filled, so many orders ahead of yours.

Titus Hutzell tells us that the Beethoven society will pay upwards of $350 toward the expenses of the late saengerfest. Pretty dear music for them.

Dr. F. N. Wilder, of Chicago, son-in-law of Daniel B. Brown, brought the remains of a two-year old daughter to Ann Arbor for interment, last Saturday.

Saturday, Oct. 8th, the town board of Ann Arbor will receive all the woodchuck scraps the boys may have captured, at Town Clerk Davis' office in the court house.

The county pomological society will hold its October meeting next Saturday p. m. The exhibits of fruit at the state and county fairs, trappage, and fall work, will be the subjects for discussion.

Geo. Clarke we understand offers to give the city the right of way through his land if the city will condemn the Parker street for an alley. Capital idea. An alley is needed there so that free access can be had to the city market lots in the rear.

Died at her home, in Exeter, Monroe Co., on the 29th of Sept. 1886, of a third paralytic stroke, Mrs. A. C. Torrey, third daughter of the late William and Harriet Patton, of this city. Her remains were brought to Ann Arbor for interment, aged 59 years.

A missions-fest is to be held at Bethlehem Lutheran church next Sunday. Two ministers will assist the pastor, one of whom will be Rev. Robertus, of Chelsea. Morning service commences at 10 o'clock; afternoon service at 2:30 o'clock; and evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

By the Chicago papers it is noted that there has been incorporated the "Chicago Soap and Perfumery Co." capital stock $200,000, and that Dr. Weston B. Rose is one of three incorporators. This Dr. Rose manufactures a soap which the Dr. has made and which has shown such merit that a company was quickly formed to push it.

The Argus announces that it will remove to the north hall of Dufile's block on N. Main st., opposite the postoffice, during the coming week, having its business office on the ground floor. It will put in a new cylinder press, and fit up a complete office. The paper will also be changed to a quarto. We are pleased to have the Argus as a near neighbor.

Dr. Steele last Sunday delivered to a large audience a very eloquent and instructive discourse on the present condition of this country, its immense territory, its various nationalities, and the absolute necessity of a well developed Christianity to preserve and protect the great interests of our vast and growing republic.

The Iowa State Register of Sept. 28th, has an article in reference to the lady from which the ovarian tumor was recently removed by Dr. A. L. Worden, stating that "she is now able to be about the house, and is recovering nicely." Dr. Ford and Palmer tell Dr. Worden's father, (Chas. H. Worden of this city) that it is one of the most remarkable cases on record.

A misguided young journalist in Washtenaw county, of the democratic persuasion, is reported to be meditating what he calls an attack on Capt. Allen's record as an Indian agent. We hope he will think better of this for his own sake, for we can assure him that weapon is loaded—Adrian Times. This can't refer to our own friend of the Argus? He is too shrewd to be caught in such a trap. Wonder who it can be?

The Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle will hold their first meeting of the year at the home of Miss Emma Haynes No. 34 Liberty st., on Friday evening Oct. 9th, '86. All who are interested in those who contemplate taking the course are invited to be present at this meeting. Information concerning the C. L. S. C. course and books used can be had by calling on Miss Haynes or the committee, Messrs. Andrews & Withers, No. 13 South Main St.

The following compliment to Ann Arbor comes from the Manchester Enterprise:

"Ann Arbor is getting to be a very progressive city and her improvements are being carried out rapidly. They are talking of lighting the city with electricity. We have heard that representatives of the council and business men's association to visit neighboring cities and investigate the different modes of electric lighting. Also, in making the selection they have taken into consideration some practical knowledge of the business. Among the number are Messrs. Keck, managers of the telephone exchange, and Frangley."

Frank Howard, of this city, who was operating in real estate at Detroit a year or more since, found an inventor of a stoveless flour barrel, who wanted a partner to invest in the enterprise. Mr. H. had a keen eye to business, took in the situation and accepted the proposal. The result has been a large factory employing 100 men and having more orders than can be filled. One firm has contracted for 10,000 barrels a day for three years. The body of the barrel is made in two pieces. The Central Mills are using them, and any one can see them put together by cooper in the old well tannery, Washington street west.

It's too bad! We understand that one of the democratic nominees for coroner doesn't understand anything about anatomy. He is a fine old gentleman; a good, clever fellow; collects church dues; but he never ought to be coroner without a thorough and complete comprehension of anatomy! "Spoin", for instance, there should be a case of sudden death from small pox, typhoid, or scarlet fever, or jaundice, how in the world could he ever render a verdict without being an anatomical expert? Why, the very thought it conceals the bovine in our arteries. Go thou and study dental surgery, and then we'll give thee coroner.

The Republicans asked for the court house in which to hold a public meeting, and were informed that they could not have it as the supervisors had refused to allow any political meetings to be held therein. But last evening the prohibitionists held a political meeting there just the same. We should like to ask the question why the prohibitionists are any better than any other than political democrats? Or are they so much purer and holier than the Republicans that they are thus favored? We think an explanation is in order.

PERSONALS.

The Art Club held their first meeting for the year yesterday p. m., at Randall's. Archie Smith of this city, advertiser for a red-headed wife, in the South Lyon Excelsior.

A man giving his name as John Schaeffer was arrested Friday for begging and pretending to be a deaf-mute.

The large audience who heard Mrs. Barakat contributed $65. Mrs. B. to establish her orphan asylum on Mt. Lebanon.

Henry D. Merrithew has been appointed deputy clerk in place of Seward Palmer, who enters the university, and cannot attend to both. Seward made an excellent Deputy, and caught on to a business quickly.

Seven members of the Detroit Bicycle Club passed through this city at 9:20 this morning and are making a hundred mile run. They go to Saline and return to Ann Arbor for dinner, returning to Detroit this p. m.

Since the COURIER spoke about Mr. Crozier hob-nobbing with the democratic politicians in this city, his presence among them has been less noticeable. His plans and other plans are identical however. It is their battle he is fighting.

Peter Gorman, of Lyndon, father of James Gorman, died last Friday from the effects of poison (paris green) administered by one of his hands. This makes the attempt he had made to poison himself. He was considered insane on the subject.

Geo. Brown and Chas. Arthur, two colored men arrested a short time since near Milan for burglary from a Pittsfield farmer, appeared before Judge Joslyn this forenoon, pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to two years each at hard labor in the penitentiary.

The prohibitionists, at their convention yesterday, placed in nomination the following ticket:

Sheriff—Alfred Miller, Saline.
County Clerk—H. W. Wilcox, Ann Arbor.
Treasurer—Chas. Fleming, Ypsilanti.
Prosecuting Attorney—D. Taylor, Sylvan.

Circuit Court Commissioner—Chas. Salyer, Ypsilanti; W. H. Bishop, Augusta.
Coroner—A. B. Smith, Milan, Flavius Connors, Saline.
Representative, 1st district—R. C. Reeves, Shiloh.
Representative, 2d district—C. M. Fellows, Shiloh.

Our Schools.
The schools of Ann Arbor are in a very flourishing condition, with a larger attendance than perhaps ever before. The name of our high school makes it sought by students from all parts of the country, and the classes are all filled to overflowing.

The following statistics of attendance have been given us by Prof. Perry. The actual enrollment is larger considerably than the figures given, for a rule has been adopted that when a pupil is absent for three days for any cause, his or her name is dropped from the list. The following is the enrollment:

Prof. Patterson's room	108
Miss Porter's room	110
Prof. Chute's room	59
Miss Chittenden's room	104
Total	433

There are ten teachers in the high school the above five only keep rolls, the others being session teachers. The average to each room would be 43 pupils, fully as many as any one teacher can care for.

There are also two grammar grades in the high school building:

Miss Pond's room	62
Miss Ladd's room	51
Total	113

Please take a confiding public how these two teachers can do justice by individual pupils each having 60 of them to teach and care for?

The enrollment in the various wards is given as follows:

FIRST WARD.
Mrs. Plympton's room	40
Miss Edrigger's room	25
Miss Robinson's room	29
Miss Millard's room	29
Miss Spoor's room	47
Miss McDevitt's room	22
Total	232

SECOND WARD.

Miss Muthollands room	28
Miss Mozer's room	40
Miss Howard's room	49
Miss Gaudier's room	49
Miss Taylor's room	32
Miss Lutz's room	48
Total	286

THIRD WARD.

Miss Boyd's room	47
Miss Banfield's room	49
Miss White's room	38
Miss Armstrong's room	39
Total	173

FOURTH WARD.

Dr. Sutton's room	59
Miss Sabini's room	49
Mrs. Corneil's room	49
Mrs. Edison's room	42
Miss Cole's room	37
Total	237

FIFTH WARD.

Miss Goodale's room	23
Miss Biode's room	39
Miss Leonard's room	29
Total	91

In this ward are 208 scholars, 156 hours per day, one section of the smaller children being excused after the first hour in the afternoon.

SIXTH WARD.

Miss Jewell's room	44
Miss Wright's room	31
Miss Cullen's room	41
Total	120

This makes a grand total of 1,633 pupils in actual attendance upon our schools. The enrollment would show probably 100 more names that have been dropped because of the three days' absence rule, many of whom will return and be re-enrolled this showing is one to be proud of.

The Electric Light Coming.
The Business Men's Association held a meeting last evening at the council room, on the call of the president, A. L. Nobles, as chairman, of the committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of lighting the city with electricity, made an extensive report. The committee then visited other cities, reported what they had found and seen.

At Kalamazoo the low lights, as employed in Ann Arbor, were in use and did excellent service.

Three bids were received, one from the Brush Electric Light Company, at the rate of 65 cents per light per night. One from the Ft. Wayne Electric Light Company, for 40 or more of their arc lights, 205 nights in the year, to be extinguished at midnight, for $100 per year, per light, additional $100 per light.

From the Van Dope Electric Light Company, for 60 or more lights of the Thompson-Huston system for 300 nights during the year, and midnight, for 40 cents per night for each lamp.

The committee closed their report with the following recommendations:

1st. That the City of Ann Arbor be lighted by electricity.

2d. That 60 lights be used.

3d. That these lights be of lights of the nominal, or trade value, of 2,000 candle power and hung on the low light system.

4th. That a contract be entered into by the city with an electric lighting company by which such contracts be made by the city, and to light these lights at a rate of one-third annual rate, extending over a period of five years.

5th. That if the expense of the rentals to the city is the same or nearly the same, for the Jenney Electric Light Company, or the Thompson-Huston Co., on account of the superior character of their light.

6th. That on or before the introduction of these lights, care be taken in the streets to be trimmed clear of small branches to a height of 12 feet from the ground.

Remarks were made upon the report by Sedgewick Dean and H. J. Brown against its adoption, and by A. L. Nobles, Prof. J. W. Langley, Herman Noble, Zina P. King and Mayor Robinson in its favor. The report was adopted.

Now the question will come before the council with the sanction and approval of the Business Men's Association, and it will without doubt be passed by that body. So the people of Ann Arbor, in the course of a few months will have more light dark nights, it is hoped.

Dr. Dunster and family have arrived home from the east.

Fred Gakle is now smiling on customers at the residence of Dr. Dunster.

Mrs. Dr. Marston, of Jeffersonville, Ohio, is visiting relatives in this city.

Moses Seabolt and daughter returned from their visit to Iowa on Saturday night last.

Miss Dolly Steinfeld who has been visiting at S. S. Bliz, has returned home to Detroit.

Harry W. Hawley of Minneapolis, is in the city for a couple of weeks' vacation from business.

Chas. J. Kintner, of Washington, D. C., is expected in the city Friday, for a stay of three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bliz who have been spending the summer here have returned home to Detroit.

Mrs. Dr. Hartley and daughter, Miss Louise Meinderman arrived home from Europe Thursday last.

John Roser, of Esslingen, Wurtemberg, Germany, was the guest of Emanuel Mann during the week past.

Dr. V. C. Vaughan went to Toronto, Canada, yesterday to attend a meeting of the American board of Health.

Dr. Frothingham has been convalescing for a few days and is now seriously ill for a short time since near Milan for burglary from a Pittsfield farmer, appeared before Judge Joslyn this forenoon, pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to two years each at hard labor in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Dr. Carpenter and Mrs. Teichert, of Adrian, are visiting the former's brother, Jonathan Sprague, of the 5th ward.

Miss Lewella Hoag, and Miss Inez Taylor left Monday morning for a visit among friends at Stockbridge and Jackson.

Keel Henon has sold his 2-4 horse, and now the distance between his residence and place of business has fully tripled.

H. M. Sprout and wife of Wareham, Mass., returned west H. Randall and wife from the east and are now their old home at Pittsfield. A better selection could not have been made, and if the people of Washtenaw county would do a good thing, they would see to it that they were represented in the upper house of our state legislature, by a man with the common sense, the sturdy integrity, and the ability of Andrew Campbell.

In the democratic representative convention it is stated on good authority that the delegates from Lyndon, Sylvan, etc., agreed to vote for John V. N. Gregory for representative in the convention of the S. and L. delegates turning in for Howlett for clerk. Well, the Lina and Selo men kept their part of the agreement and Howlett was nominated. But as the representative convention met the Howlett delegates who had carried their little legged out in the cold, and turned in for Mandy. What cared they as long as "Howlett's" nomination was equivalent to an election?

Amusements.
The prices of all fun makers is Tony Denier's Empty Dumpty, with good acting, means. Hear it by all means. Take your wife and children for they will enjoy it even better than you.

The popular Amy Gordon Opera Co. commences a three night's engagement at the grand opera house next Monday evening. They are excellent.

Tony Denier's pantomime company will draw a crowded house at the grand opera house to-night. The general character of a lumpy country opera, is so well known, that any detail in description of what can be seen at its performance seems quite unnecessary. Denier is always correct and consistent, and they who enjoy a "show" of this kind are desirous to be thoroughly satisfied.

A man with a particle of humor in his soul can not fail to appreciate that old and ever popular pantomime of Humpty Dumpty. Of the only Tony Denier's Star Line Republics.

The name of Humpty Dumpty has become a synonym of pantomime, and the pantomime has been named in the way from which Humpty Dumpty got a fall? Tony Denier's pantomime company performed a season of Humpty Dumpty at the Standard Theater, a lumpy country opera, is so well known, that any detail in description of what can be seen at its performance seems quite unnecessary. The first meeting of the Choral Union occurred yesterday, with good singing and some beautiful music. The choir of the Choral Union has been organized and will give a concert on the 11th inst. at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Members of the sophomore class held a prayer meeting Monday evening in the Students' Christian Association rooms.

Woods Hutchison, '84, is visiting his alma mater, and hosts of friends. He is doing a good business at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Prof. Stowell returned from their summer stay at Petoskey, both very much improved in health, we are happy to state.

Dexter sends four students to the university this year: Will M. Warren school of pharmacy; R. S. Copeland, homeopathic college; Gordon Stannard and Elmer Mains, both to the literary department. The boys all leave for Ann Arbor to-morrow- Leader.

Fred W. Stevens, lit. of '86, and one of the most popular and pleasant gentlemen of his class, has been a visitor in the city during the week. Fred is doing excellent work on the Eaton Rapids Journal - present, and has entered upon the active duties of life with a right good will.

Bro. Holmes, of the Chelsea Herald, has a rare old Greek Lexicon, with Latin definitions, published at Basel, Switzerland in 1665. Every page contains more or less annotations, showing that some one gave thought through the book at its printing. Mr. Holmes bought the book for a trifle some 30 years ago, and at Rome, and says that did he know its history he would present it to the university. Allow us to suggest that perhaps the book might throw some light on its history. At any rate it would be a prize that would no doubt be appreciated.

The books of Secretary Wade showed a fine array of names up to last night, in fact 129 in advance of last year's entries though the literary and pharmacy departments are one week later in coming than last year. The figures for the various departments are:

Literary department	525
Pharmacy	28
Medical	27
Homeopathic	27
Pharmacy	27
Total	594

At this rate it is confidently expected that the record of 1,335 reached in '84-'85 and '86-'87 will be surpassed. The older literary classes not being obliged to register before next Monday, they have been slow to matriculate. But the freshman class with its 294 looms up grandly.

The Ypsilanti Sentinel, after stating that a new chapter house, to cost $30,000 is to be erected at Ann Arbor, proceeds to growl viciously over the fact, and deduces the conclusion that the university is only a rich man's plaything.

As usual Bro. Woodruff is way off. There are hundreds of young men attending the university every year who work their way through, and they are thought as much of and treated as well by the faculty and by the citizens as those who have wealth, procure the luxuries which wealth can secure. The Sentinel deduces wrong conclusions from his reasoning, and misrepresents the facts.

There is no more aristocracy about this university than about the state normal school, and in proportion there are probably no more wealthy students in attendance. These Chapter Houses, which are built not to attract our brother's green glass, but by individuals. Capitalists who are seeking investment for their money build these houses and rent them to the various societies, thus securing a fair rate of interest on their investment. Is there anything out of the way about it? Bro. The O. C. Social club give another of their popular hops at the K. of L. assembly rooms on Friday evening, Oct. 8.

Senator H. W. Blair, of New Hampshire, spoke to a good sized audience at the rink yesterday afternoon, and ably presented the issues of the campaign.

The calendar of the circuit court which convened yesterday contains 72 cases, of which 8 are criminal, 36 civil jury cases, 3 foreclosure, 12 divorces and 6 miscellaneous.

Two new two-story brick stores are being built on Fourth street adjoining the block of Alvin Wiley to the north. One by Mr. Wiley the other by A. V. Robison. These will make a fine addition to this part of the town.

The Washtenaw County Convention of W. C. T. U. workers occurs at Salem Station, October 13 and 14. Mrs. A. S. Benjamin represents the address thereon of the 14th. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of temperance to be present.

The following tribute to Hon. Andrew Campbell, is from the Adrian Times: "The Washtenaw republicans have nominated for senator in the state legislature, that sterling and tried republican and colored man, Andrew Campbell, of Pittsfield. A better selection could not have been made, and if the people of Washtenaw county would do a good thing, they would see to it that they were represented in the upper house of our state legislature, by a man with the common sense, the sturdy integrity, and the ability of Andrew Campbell."

"I have taken, within the past year, several bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and find it admirably adapted to the needs of an impoverished system. I am convinced that this preparation, as a blood purifier, is unequalled."—D. D. Dame, Pastor Congregational church, Andover, Me.

Lyndon captures two nominations from the democrats, senator and county clerk. Hearing honors upon Lyndon tick, especially as Superior never had a representative on that ticket.

GIOVANNI DUPRE.
The story of a Florentine Sculptor, by Henry Simmons Price, Professor in the University of Michigan, London: Sampson Low, Storey, Seale, and Rivington, New York: Scribner and Welford.

The story is told in simple language; the author has with great skill and delicate brought out the leading traits of Dupre's character.—London Illustrated News, August 1886.

"We have rarely read a more delightful book upon the life and aims of an artist than 'Giovanni Dupre', a biography which has just appeared from the pen of Mr. Henry Simmons Price. The book has all the fascination of a well told story, so that from the beginning to the end readers will follow the fortunes of the great Florentine Sculptor with unwavering interest."—(London) Publishers' Circular, July 14, 1886.
