WHO TELLS THE LIE?
The Adrian Press says it is a lie, a dirty, low-lived, cowardly lie, etc., about Salisbury going into saloons here in Ann Arbor and drinking beer, etc., and intimates that he, Salisbury, is a complete and total abstainer from all that intoxicants. Sorry that the Press is not better posted in regard to its candidate.

Mr. Salisbury has been in saloons in Ann Arbor since his nomination.
As to his drinking, all we know about it is the statement of one of the most prominent democrats in the city, a democrat who was also prominent recently in the citizen's league movement here; a democrat upon whose shoulders rests the greater portion of the work of democratic conventions.

This democrat openly boasts that he has drunk whiskey with Mr. Salisbury in a saloon in Ann Arbor.
Of course, we don't know who lies, the Adrian Press or this prominent democrat and citizen's leaguer of Ann Arbor. Let others judge whether Mr. Salisbury is endeavoring to ride three horses in this campaign, viz., the democrat horse, the greenback nag and the prohibition pony, and in order to do so is he attempting to pose as a prohibitionist at home and the reverse away from home?

We are further informed by the very best of authority, that there is a scheme on foot in Washtenaw county to place Salisbury's name on Mr. Crozier's name on the prohibition ticket by a large number of prohibitionists who do not like Crozier. If any man's word is to be relied upon it is the prohibitionist's who told us this, and we only regret that he will not allow us to give our authority.

The assertion of our more or less esteemed republican contemporary that the proceedings of the recent republican county convention was a farce is a thing to be regretted, inasmuch as it was very far from being a farce, and the ticket put in nomination is one of the strongest and best ever placed before the people of this county for their suffrages. Such an article coming from a republican journal with any particular "intention" would have a depressing effect upon the whole ticket and a depressing effect upon the whole ticket. Any journal that will make such idle assertions without the least ground for them, ought to be side-tracked or nuzzled.

Great is the Boss! Poor Maybury, one of the best congressmen the 1st district ever had has been decapitated. Eldredge in this district is no more forever! The disconcerted Comstock was slaughtered like a lamb on the altar. Winans is buried deep, deep. The suave and powerful Carleton, who was the tower of strength in the glorious 7th, was crushed fine. Not a democratic congressman who protested against Don's collar is left to tell the story. Gone, all gone, to oblivion. And yet all is harmony and enthusiasm(?)

Shouldn't Lenawee county be satisfied to pass the congressional plum around just for once?

Washtenaw county, for the first time in 25 years, will have congressmen after March 3d next.

The greenbackers are in a democratic hole in this county, with nary a ray of recognition on the fusion ticket beaming down on them.

Without democratic auditors would prohibition meetings amount to? How many democrats will admit they will vote the prohibition ticket?

The prohibition party as a party has been in existence thirteen years! What progress has it made? What good has it ever done? What good can it ever do?

The official prohibition organ known as the Michigan Tribune, published at Flint, calls the republicans "imps of hell." That fellow must be an angelic sort of a rooster. Good argument, eh?

Claim everything, everybody! Get up and hurrah! Pass out the booze! Turn the state into a vast salvation army racket! But in all the noise, don't forget the legislators, boys. That we must have—Don M.

Eugene K. Frucauf for prosecuting attorney, is a tip-top nomination. Mr. F. is one of our most highly respected German citizens, and as a man and a lawyer commands the respect of everybody. We believe he will be elected.

Up in Genesee county they have fusion in earnest. The county ticket is composed of six democrats, two prohibitionists, and one greenbacker. And among the democrats we notice the name of one saloon keeper. Anything to beat Grant. But what a combination!

Matthew Seeger, the popular candidate for the legislature in the 3d district, went all through the war in the 20th Michigan Infantry. He served three years, was in 17 pitched battles and wounded five times. Pretty good record. He was born in Warthenburg, Germany, in 1839.

If Mr. Allmendinger is elected to the legislature he will go there as a representative of the great interests of this district. He will go there not as a professional politician seeking his own advancement, but as a practical business man, ready to advance the best interests of the people he represents.

A stronger ticket, composed of better men, never has been placed before the people of Washtenaw county than the one for which the republicans ask your suffrages this fall. There is not a spot or blemish in the entire ticket, from sheriff to coroner. Can you not consistently give it your vote?

The laboring men of New York City have nominated Henry George for mayor. The capitalists have nominated J. Edwin Simmons, a democrat, and will send a handsome pile of their ballots to elect him. In New York as elsewhere, the friend of the laborer is found outside of the democratic party.

My Dear George: In some parts of the state our allies are making us trouble—feel a little sore over lack of democratic appreciation on the county and legislative tickets. There is only one way to do: Don't let any of the greenbackers suffer. Draw on me—or the fund—you know what I mean. Your deeply beloved, Don.

If the statement of the COURIER, that "it is as much as a man's life is worth, in one-half of this country to-day to run for office on the republican ticket" is not true, why doesn't the Argus deny it, and not try to dodge the question by cries of re-vamping old issues? This is not an old issue. It is a fact that exists to-day, and the Argus knows it.

The Brooklyn Magazine continued its voting for the ablest American paper up to the 20th of this month. Up to the 20th of last month 11,972 votes had been cast, the highest being St. Louis Republican 1,843, New York Tribune 511, Chicago Inter Ocean 503, New York Times 488, New York Herald 481, etc., down to 9 for the Detroit Free Press.

The Argus nearly had a fit last week for fear some one on the republican county ticket would be asked for an assessment. Republicans run on their merits, Bro. Argus, not on their boodle. Therein they differ from the democratic candidates you see, who have all paid from $50 to $100 each, we have been told, to help the democratic campaign boodle fund along.

Wm. A. Clark, for the office of county clerk is a man worthy the support of the people of this county. He is an old soldier and one who has never sought office, and is not a rich man. He hasn't a good farm, well stocked and well tilled to leave to others should he be elected, but the revenue of the office would be a great help to him. Give him your vote, he needs it.

Here is a specimen of democratic love for the laborer: "At Augusta, Me., a building is being erected whereon are employed twenty-three mechanics earning an aggregate of $40 per day, and these are 'bossed' by seven foremen whose aggregate pay is $30 per day. The new building belongs to the United States government, and all the foremen are good and faithful democrats."

Henry Chamberlain, the sage of Three Oaks, and considered pretty good democratic authority, said in a recent speech: "That he was a Patron of Humanity and knew Mr. Luce well, perhaps better than any person in the house; Mr. Luce was a gentleman and a good talker; that he paid his hired help well, was good to the poor and that he never bought a Doleman hat note in his life." In view of this strong democratic authority perhaps our friend of the Argus will note it.

This is what the Adrian Press says of Hon. Henry A. Robinson, the laboring man's candidate in the first congressional district: "He is the candidate of Socialists and Anarchists. They first named him. They are the ones who professed to have the naming of a candidate. They are no respecters of law and order. Robinson is no better." Again: "He should be shunned as much as a Chicago bomb thrower. Those men would all be howling for Robinson if they lived in Detroit." And again: "Robinson should be defeated by 10,000 majority in that district, and communism stamped out. You can't disguise the fact that it is a concession to one of the worst elements of social government to endorse Hank Robinson, and every man who has the honor of Wayne county at heart will labor to crush his candidacy." These words are said in face of the fact that upwards of 6,000 laboring men of Detroit signed a paper asking Mr. Robinson to become a candidate. That is a genuine specimen of democratic love for the laboring man.

Common Council Proceedings.

There was a special session of the common council Monday evening, at which the Mayor nearly a full attendance.

The Mayor announced that the business of the session would be to consider the street railway matter; the electric light matter; the spreading of taxes for city purposes, etc., etc.

The matter of granting a franchise for a street railway was taken from the table, and on motion of Ald. Swift was again laid upon the table until the next meeting of the council.

On motion of Ald. Poland, a committee of five, the mayor to be one, was appointed to investigate the matter of a street railway and report at the next meeting of the council. Garfield, and Aids. Poland, Martin, Allmendinger and Swift were appointed.

The Recorder presented the amounts necessary to be raised by tax the coming year, as follows:

For Court House aid bonds, due February, 1887, $ 2,000
For interest on same, do, 1887, " 230
For General purposes, general fund, 6,000
For General purposes, special fund, 2,000
For Tax ward street fund, 5,000
For 2d " " " " " 1,000
For 3d " " " " " 1,000
For 4th " " " " " 1,000
For 5th " " " " " 1,000
For 6th " " " " " 1,000
For 7th " " " " " 1,000
Total, $26,000

On motion of Ald. Allmendinger the sum of $5,000 for Pontiac street bridge was reduced to $3,500 and the Mayor and Recorder were authorized to certify the amounts to the various supervisors of the city.

On motion of Ald. Allmendinger the sum of $7.13 was placed upon the lot of F. L. Parker, No. 8 N. Main street, as a special assessment for extension of street lighting in taking down the condemned building thereon.

Ald. Poland wanted the Marshal instructed to prevent his posing on the new railroad bridge, but the majority of the council thought that the railroad was capable of caring for its own property.

The Recorder then read the report of the Business Men's committee and Street Lighting committee of the common council in reference to the feasibility of securing the electric system of street lighting, and the same was accepted and adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Aids. Allmendinger, Nettlemoor, Van Kester, Swift, Poland, Ward, Martin, Steere, Mayor and the Recorder.
Nays—Aids. Herz, and Kearns,
Yeas, 11; nays, 2.

The matter of making a contract with some company was then thoroughly discussed, Ald. Allmendinger offering a resolution authorizing the great estimate of expense by his present.

The discussion was taken part in by the Mayor, Ald. Swift, Allmendinger, Martin, and Poland, and by Hermon Hutzl, John F. Lawrence and A. I. Noble, from among the citizens present, all in favor except Mr. Lawrence, who opposed the scheme on the ground of economy and the inability of the city to afford it.

The Recorder moved that the matter of making a contract with an electric light company be referred to a committee of three to report at the next meeting of the council.

Who was carried, and Aids. Allmendinger, Swift and Kearns were appointed as such committee.

On motion of Ald. Allmendinger, Ald. Steere and the Mayor were authorized to ask the Regents of the University as to the desirability of the placing of some two or three lights in the campus to assist in the lighting thereof.

A petition for a city map was received and read on motion of Ald. Ward the matter was laid upon the table.

On motion of Ald. Allmendinger the sum of $100 was ordered returned to Christian Teufel who had gone in accordance with previous custom.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Reasons Why Ann Arbor Should Have a Public Market.

EDITOR COURIER—Allow me to submit the following reasons why Ann Arbor should have a public market:

1st. It would systematize the handling of the produce business by bringing the farmers, dealers and consumers together to do their dealing where market prices would be established and wholesale prices will soon engage in business at and around the market who will buy and ship every thing that comes to the market and not consume here, making a market which will draw farmers to our city who would not otherwise come and peddle around town and their chances of selling.

2d. The more farmers drawn to our city the more trading will be done, for they spend their money where they sell their goods, as a general thing.

3d. It would inaugurate a cash system of trading by the farmers, being able to make cash sales on the market they would have cash to buy their goods.

4th. Dealers would then have a chance to select their stock from many farmers instead of one.

5th. The market would give our city a metropolitan air that it could not get in any other manner by spending ten thousand dollars while this does not cost the city anything, but will bring the city considerable annual revenue.

6th. Other cities have started markets which have been successful and, as far as known, none have ever been given up.

Inasmuch as the market company are willing to try the experiment at their own risk and expense, and give the city 30 per cent of the revenue, it seems that the city council should have the ordinance asked for, especially as the citizens, including about all the business men have endorsed the matter, all signing a petition favoring it.

When a political party stands in a position to grant favors how numerous the applicants are. But when the party asks favors of its members, that's altogether different. There are few men of sufficient heroism to take a nomination in the face of an adverse majority, and when we do find such men we ought to support them with a hearty good will.

Andrew Campbell, of Pittsfield, came up like a hero, and accepted the nomination for senator with a majority of from 1,000 to 2,000 starting him in the race, and for that deed every republican in this district owes him their hearty good will, a debt they should pay at the polls, cheerfully.

In the first representative district is another instance. This district has a democratic majority of from 100 to 200. Frank Allmendinger, whom the republicans have nominated is as capable a man for the position as can be found in the district. He took this nomination, not from his own choice, but because his party desired he should take it, and the party owes him a hearty support therefor.

Mr. Allmendinger has a splendid university education and brains enough to apply that education to business. He is one of the most prompt and best business men in this city. As a member of the present city council he takes rank second to no member thereof, (our worthy mayor included) in the quick understanding of questions and the business-like method of expediting the matters that come before that body.

Honest to a penny, devoid of all petty dodges and prevarications, you will always find him on the side he believes to be right, no matter if the whole body is opposed to him. In short, he is honest, fearless, upright, and would make a most excellent legislator should he be fortunate enough to secure a majority of the votes on the 3d of November next. Give him your hearty and vote.

To speak of standard time in the board of supervisors is like putting a lighted match in a cargo of dynamite. It causes an explosion.

WEALTH.

The leading article in the Scientific Monthly for October is on the "Distribution of Wealth," and beyond its intrinsic value it is of especial interest to the people of Ann Arbor, because it is from the pen of one of our most promising young thinkers, Charles S. Ashley, son of the ex-Governor. His tastes in college were towards political economy, hence, to that end he became an omnivorous reader, a frequent debater and a close thinker upon that and kindred subjects.

The writer discusses his subject under three heads, viz.: 1. What has made possible the acquirement of the great fortunes of the present generation? 2. Will the favoring circumstances continue? 3. How should we regard the holding of millions by a single man and its inheritance by his family?

The first is illustrated, in brief, by the rapid changes in methods of transportation and the capability of the few keen minds so to adapt themselves to shifting circumstances as to seize upon the world's work.

With the second question are two heads: the one is the probability of new inventions again disturbing the balances—whence he doubts—and the other is concerning the duration of the present excitement over the development of steam and electricity. Here the thought is advanced that the crisis is passed and that an equilibrium is about to be restored.

The writer concludes his optimistic conclusion, we would like to entertain it, but we fear some important factors of wealth-getting have been overlooked. He fails to mention that the only agent by which shrewd financiers or even "Coal-Oil Johnnies" suddenly command Fortune. For there are still gold and silver mines to be opened; pine lands to be brought into market; oil, salt and natural gas wells to be struck.

These sudden bonanzas have been found by men in the East. Therefore they are more likely to be brought to light in the West for many years to come. The possibilities of the development of our great country are not yet compassed by the mind of man, and who shall say where lies its Ultima Thule?

In the third topic, as to inheritance, notice is made of the thought of rich men after the welfare of their property bequeathed. And concerning the leaving of large sums in perpetuo to charities, churches and educational institutions the high cost is taken into account, that it is not only a waste, as each generation can best know its own wants and care for them, but it is also a positive injury to trade and to the working people, in that large amounts of money tied up in endowments, or withdrawn from circulation.

Thus does this essay on Wealth run in thoughtful channels and its general tone is one of high regard for the best interests of the state. It evinces confidence in the wisdom of public opinion, and the style of argument it is compact and well arranged.

OUR NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF.

The republican convention placed in nomination for sheriff Frederick B. Braun, of Ann Arbor township. Mr. Braun is a German though born and raised in this vicinity. He has a good English and German education, and is eminently qualified in all other respects to discharge the duties of the office of sheriff. He has held the office of township clerk for two terms and also of township treasurer two terms and is now serving his fourth term as supervisor, in all of which responsible positions he has served the public with eminent satisfaction, as is seen in the large majorities given him at each election. He is a true and reliable republican, and though he is not what may be called a noisy politician, is always true to his convictions, conservative in all his movements, with a steady aim to do right in the discharge of all public trusts as well as in all personal relations. He is in all respects worthy of his election, which we most earnestly hope he will secure.

The republicans and residents of the second legislative district of Washtenaw county have much reason to congratulate themselves over the result of the convention held at Saline, Friday last, which resulted in the nomination of Matthew Seeger, of Saline, for representative. Although a resident of one of the strong democratic townships, Mr. Seeger has been repeatedly elected to represent his town on the board of supervisors, and has always discharged the duties thereof intelligently and satisfactorily. Mr. Seeger is a representative of the best German element of Washtenaw county, one of whom his fellow-countrymen may well feel proud and glad to honor. He is also deserving of the hearty and cordial support of Americans, as well as of all who love our country and its institutions, as he proved his devotion and loyalty to both by taking part in the great struggle for their existence, being a member of the "Twenty-Michigan Infantry." He is a prominent member of the Adler Verein, of Saline, and is in hearty sympathy with all intelligent measures to elevate the laboring classes. Matthew Seeger should be elected by the voters of the second district.

HIS RECORD FACING HIM.

When Yapple spoke in St. Johns the following questions were handed him:

1. Why did you on Feb. 17, 1885, vote against the bill to place Gen. Grant on the retired list?
2. Why did you on March 3, 1885, vote to place Gen. Grant on the retired list when it was then known that he could not live a year?
3. Why did you vote to restore or allow the Pension Board to restore the pension to Porter to his position in the army and to allow the pension and consent to place him on the retired list?
4. Did you vote, while in congress, against the bill to grant $200,000 to the Morrill bill reducing by 25 per cent the present duty on wool?

To the first three questions he said not a word. He answered the last two by saying: "I did, and by the grace of God I will again if I get a chance."

Wonder if he would kindly explain them to his Ann Arbor audience to-morrow.

With good roads the average rapidity of travel with horses will increase. Much heavier loads will be hauled. Transportation will consume less of the farmer's labor and profits. * * * Farms will greatly increase in value; and their nearness to market will not be essential as it now is. The average life of working and road horses, and of wagons and carriages of all kinds will be much enhanced.—President Bates, in The Wheelman.

In gathering wild flowers, autumn leaves or plants in the woods, we are more or less exposed to danger from poisoning by ivy or other wild vines and shrubs. The poison is under certain circumstances readily absorbed by the blood, and painful swellings or eruptions are caused. Such affections Hood's Sarsaparilla readily cures, as it expels all impurities from the blood. Even in cases of poisoning by Paris green, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been remarkably successful. It should be kept constantly in the house for all blood disorders. Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., and is sold by all druggists. 100 doses $1.

The following description of a Washtenaw county journalist from the Detroit Evening Journal, is very pathetic and beautiful:

Charles Woodruff, the enthusiastic editor of the Ypsilanti Sentinel, was born on the Bermuda Islands during an extraordinary storm in the latter part of the last century. He displayed a zeal for dyspepsia in the states with the intention of becoming a great and unhappy man. After taking a thorough course in the study of the Greek and Latin languages, Mr. Woodruff came to Michigan when several red devils fell beneath his avenging sword. He went on from conquering to conquer, making the distance on foot in 14 days, arriving at Ypsilanti late on Saturday night, and camped at the leading hotel where he talked politics until the first engine was rolled out. Enjoying the warm reception tendered him, Woodruff determined to stay in the Green Bay and attain his ambition of becoming a great man. He has remained at his post ever since—a period of 26 years—never forsaking his editorial of the sitting risk season. Mr. Woodruff is a man of great energy and a staunch believer in the spoils system, a defender of Mormonism, and a hard-headed. He was to live to see the collapse of Ann Arbor as a city of learning and if that time comes he will be found like the late Nero, sitting a medley as the walls topple.

A Terrible Case of Scrofula Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"In the winter of 1871 I was attacked with Scrofula in one of the most aggravating forms. At one time I had no less than thirteen large abscesses over and around my neck and throat, continually exuding an offensive mass of bloody matter disgusting to behold, and almost intolerable to endure. It is impossible to fully describe my sufferings, as the case was complicated with Chronic Catarrh. After three years of misery, having been treated by three physicians, I was worse than ever. Finally, on the recommendation of W. J. Huntley, druggist, of Lockport, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. And now, after having taken twelve bottles, within the last twelve months, the scrofulous eruptions have entirely ceased, and the abscesses have all disappeared, except the unsightly scars, which are daily becoming smaller by degrees, and beautifully less. I do not know what it may have done for my case, but I know that in my case, Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved an effective specific indeed. As an evidence of my cure, I send these facts unadorned, and I am ready to verify the authenticity of this cure. My personal correspondence with any one who doubts it." CHARLES A. ROBERTS, East Wilton, N. Y.

This statement is confirmed by W. J. Huntley, druggist, of Lockport, N. Y., who calls the cure a great victory for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Send for book giving statements of many cures.

Special meeting of the council Thursday to appoint boards of registration.

J. T. Jacobs and T. J. Keech have been elected directors of the School of Music.

J. T. Jacobs has purchased a fine new bicycle for his son Charlie, who will join the wheelmen now.

Hon. E. D. Kinnic has been chosen a director of the 1st National Bank vice J. J. Ellis deceased.

The Bethlehem church choir serenaded John Keck and family at their new house on S. Fourth st., last Sunday evening.

Miss Alta Calkins, of Dexter, of whose illness the COURIER gave an account two weeks ago, was buried yesterday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hobart Guild will be held in St. Andrew's Chapel, on Monday evening, October 18, at 7 o'clock.

The ladies of the Presbyterian society will give a social this evening at the church parlors, at half-past seven. All are invited.

N. D. Tower, of Ypsilanti, and Peter Thomas of Dexter, have been drawn as jurors for the U. S. district court at Detroit, for November.

If there is such a bonanza in a street railway it is singular that not one of all the shrewd persons in our city has ever jumped on to it before!

The supervisors will visit the county poor farm this afternoon. No dinner this time—a new man on the board made the motion. He will be able to catch on next time.

George Gilbert has bought the horse known as "Gen Lee," from Mr. Wells, of Mason, to match his horse "Frank D.," and now thinks he has got a pretty slick team.

G. Frank Robison has been renominated by the democrats of Wayne county for the office of prosecuting attorney which he has filled so acceptably for the past two years.

Egbert P. Harper has been re-nominated for representative in the legislature in the second district this year. But Mr. Sutton will not keep him company from the first district.

The City Street Railroad Company has organized with J. E. Beal, president; E. Duffy, vice-president; Z. P. King, secretary; T. J. Keech, superintendent and L. D. Taylor, treasurer.

Rev. Dr. George Wallace will fill Dr. Steel's pulpit next Sunday and in the evening will give the annual address before the Young People's society of the Presbyterian church.

When Goodyear was in Detroit last week he purchased 200 different varieties of combs—all the kinds that one of the largest Detroit houses have in stock. Nothing like enterprise.

Soft coal went up 50 cents Monday, on account of 35 cts. advance in freight and 15 cts. advance on the coal itself on cars to Ann Arbor. No advance amongst our local dealers yet, however.

The Ann Arbor Land League will hold its next meeting on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, for the first time in the new St. Thomas' school building. This league is in a very prosperous condition.

Dr. M. S. Terry, of the Biblical Institute at Evansston, will deliver an address before the Cocker League at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. He has a wide reputation as an author and scholar.

The city market scheme doesn't seem to meet with great favor. Nevertheless we believe the people would not do away with a market should they in any way have one. There are many things in its favor, first against it.

Next Friday evening there will be a reunion at the M. E. church for all students in the University and high school who attend the M. E. church, given by the members of the Cocker League of the Methodist society.

The Amphitryon Club C. L. S. C. elected the following officers for the ensuing year last Friday evening: President, Prof. L. D. Wines; vice-president, Miss E. V. Hill; treasurer, Miss E. Hayley; secretary, M. W. Blake.

L. E. Chapin, '82, of Toledo, Ohio, and Miss Lizzie Hadley, of this city, are to be married this p. m., and go directly to their home already prepared for their reception at Toledo, where Mr. Chapin occupies the position of city engineer.

Some of the supervisors have been endeavoring to break up the old practice of the entire board spending a whole day visiting the county house, but the job appears to be as difficult as it is for the board to adopt standard or the legal time of the state and its courts.

Among the speeches apportioned to the county were: Rev. F. A. Blades, of Detroit, at Milan, Oct. 21, and at Chelsea, Oct. 22; Gilles B. Stebbins at Waldron, Oct. 11, Pittsfield, Oct. 13, Lyndon Town Hall, Oct. 14, Sylvan Center, Oct. 15, Sharon Town Hall, Oct. 16.

The Lower Town Sunday School is doing good work in that part of the city, and it is best to encourage it. There will be an opportunity of doing so next week Wednesday evening when a social is to be given with singing, recitations, refreshments and a talk from Dr. Ramsay.

Station Agent Phillips tells us that he thinks through trains will be put on the road next week from Toledo to Mt. Pleasant. The only drawback is a couple of engine holes that are making trouble. One near Ireland and another at Montpelier. We shall all be glad to see the through cars on this road.

Evart Scott gave an interesting report to the Pomological society last Saturday, of the fruit department of the State fair, of which he was superintendent. Of 4,000 plates of fruit on exhibition last fifty were wormy, a great improvement on former years. One man had 79 varieties of tomatoes. The fruit department never had a better display.

Ann Arbor Commandery, K. T., through its social club proposes giving a series of eight parties at Masonic Temple, on Friday evenings, commencing October 23d, (next week Friday). Season tickets are placed at the reasonable sum of $5.00, and single tickets, $1.00. These parties will be very enjoyable this year, and we have every reason to believe will be equal if not superior.

Nut, stove and mixed coal is now worth $6. No. 4 $6.25 per ton. Egg and grate $5.75.

That stone walk in front of Clarken's new building ought to be continued now to the end of the block north.

Chas. H. Richmond, of this city, has been drawn as a grand juror for the November term of the U. S. circuit court.

A correspondent gives some excellent reasons in another column why a market would be a good thing for Ann Arbor.

Conrad Noll and several other members of the old 20th Michigan Infantry, are attending the regimental reunion at Lansing to-day.

Tom O'Connor, for playing dead and dumb and asking alms on the street, has been sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Justice Frauent.

Up in Chicago they are quick to "catch on." One firm writes our city recorder to learn all the particulars about the "elevated railway" Ann Arbor proposes to build.

In the circuit court last Monday in the case of S. E. Engle for the use of N. E. Crittenden vs. H. W. Druse, judgment for plaintiff was rendered, damages being fixed at $346.81.

The Ypsilanti Sentinel found a mistake in the COURIER and proceeds to make fun of it. All right, we will see how long it will be before the Sentinel will fall into the same rut.

Last Friday, James M. Ashley, Jr., was fined $50 and costs in the U. S. court, at Detroit, on a charge of obstructing the mail, in the railroad ward had last winter with the Detroit, Lansing and Northern R. R. Co.

If every reader of the COURIER would take time to read the speech of Hon. B. M. Cutcheon on the 1st page, we feel sure that they would be well repaid for the time spent. It is an excellent appeal for those who braved death to serve their country.

John Pfisterer bought the last lot of the old Well property yesterday of Geo. Clarken, and he will build thereon soon. Mr. Clarken deserves the commendation of the public for his enterprise in putting this piece of dead property into the market.

The annual meeting of the Citizens' League, of Ann Arbor, will be held on Friday, Oct. 15, 1886, at 9 o'clock p. m. (local time) in the lecture room of the Congregational church. All friends of the enforcement of law are cordially invited to be present.

A. R. Schmidt, who lives on Fifth st., has owned for some time a large 75 lb. bull dog, with a bad eye and handsome teeth, which has been the terror of loafers and prowlers about that neighborhood. Well, the other night some person broke into his house and stole that dog!

The treasurer of Washtenaw County Agricultural and Horticultural Society, requests us to say that he will be in the society's rooms in the basement of the court house for the next three Saturdays for the purpose of paying the awarded premiums, and also that the receipts at his office during the fair was $1,759.38.

A man by the name of W. J. Sheldon was arrested in Detroit last Friday, and Sheriff Walsh brought him to Ann Arbor, together with a gold watch, double barreled shot-gun, revolver, and a coat stolen from Wm. Denman's residence on Liberty st., on the night of Sept. 24. He was brought before Judge Joslyn Tuesday and bound over to await trial on a charge of grand larceny.

If you wish to see a beautiful landscape, make a visit to the rear veranda of Cornwell's house, now being built on the high bluff of the Huron river, east of Prof. Pattengill's. There gold and crimson autumn tints which bedeck the foliage far up and down the winding valley of the Huron surpass all the beauties the artists can display on his canvass.

An instance of long continued service is chronicled in this office such as is not of frequent occurrence in this country where constant change is the custom of the people. Miss Sarah Giles has completed her 21st year in the COURIER office, and in all that time has been a faithful and trusted employe, commanding the confidence and esteem of every person about the establishment. The above is also just as applicable to her sister, Miss Lou Giles, who came to this office a few months later.

The business people of the city were surprised and pained to learn of the assignment last Monday morning of C. C. Warner, the Ann St. grocer, to Nelson Sutherland of this city. Mr. Warner has been a pleasant man to do business with and is generally liked. The liabilities amount to about $1,800, with assets at $1,000. There are preferred creditors to the amount of about $1,000. Mr. Warner has been ill for some time being confined to the house, which had a great influence on the failure.

The Pomological society had a new feature in its display of fruits last Saturday. Mrs. Spence on S. Division street, put on exhibition some California grapes which a friend had sent her from Los Angeles, California. One variety called the Maracato Tokay weighed 3 pounds and was greatly admired by the society. John Alnan had some branches of the Cuthbert raspberry loaded with ripe berries of the second crop. John says he will have some on the market for sale in a few days if the warm weather continues.

The scheme for a street railway in this city will undoubtedly fall through, as those who have interested themselves in the matter do not feel that the investment is of sufficient importance to make any fight for obtaining a franchise. These men thought they could see a way to build up and benefit our city, and perhaps in the course of a number of years make their investment a paying one. But the chances are so doubtful that they are very far from desiring to force the enterprise upon the city. There are always some dogs in the manger who will neither do anything themselves or let anyone else do anything. And this class of people have been a curse to Ann Arbor for generations, retarding its growth and belittling its importance and abilities. If this scheme for improvement and advancement does fall through for these reasons, the "kicker" are the ones to thank. No outside capitalist can ever be induced to come here and invest money in a street railway; the thing has been tried many times, but the prospects are not sufficiently bright to induce them. And then, too, Ann Arbor people rather walk, anyway, its so much easier you know.

BACH & ABEL'S COLUMN.

A week later will be ample time to consider where things are cheapest when the store is in order.

What you are thinking of now is where you shall go to see the new things. Are they what you want? Are they as cheap as they can be? You shall judge.

We are sure of one thing; you will search the city in vain for such a collection to select from. Why do we say what you know already from former years?

It is difficult yet to make any careful statements about the new dress goods. The counters are full. They can't be looked at. This we are sure of. Take the whole of them, bottom to top, from the poorest to the best, you will find the most carefully chosen collection here; as, of course, you will find the largest variety there, whatever quality you look for. We will venture a word about a few styles.

Hair line stripe suitings, all-wool, 42-inch, price, 90c.

Silk and woolen mixture, in all colors, 38-inch, price, 60 to 65c.

All-wool suitings, checks, 42 to 44-inch, six different patterns, price $1.

Fancy cable suitings, 42-inch, in a variety of combinations, price $1.50 per yard.
