PERSONALS.

The peanut stands must be removed from the street corners, the fish mongers should be bunched also.
The case of Gustave Roehm, for keeping his saloon open on Sunday was adjourned for two weeks, last Monday morning.

At University hall, on Friday evening Dec. 3d, Mr. Alfred P. Burbank will give an entertainment of delightful readings. He undoubtedly stands at the head in his class, and possessing as he does a voice strong and clear, a fine talent for dialect, and a countenance of great nobility, which he controls with excellent effect, he puts his audience in good humor and entertains them in a manner that is quite wonderful.

That our great sale of elegant wraps and cloaks was appreciated the past week is shown by our sales. We never sold so many garments in one week before. Ladies would every garment sold at the low price advertised. We will continue the sale to Dec. 10th. There is no time like the present for buying Ladies or Childrens Garments.

AMUSEMENTS.

The well-known and popular Schubert Male Quartet of Chicago, will appear in University Hall, December 10th. The quartet ranks equal to the famous Temple Quartet and is still rising in favor.

The Beethoven Gesang Verein are practicing with the intention of giving a grand concert in the near future.
Those that are fond of good singing cannot afford to miss the Schubert Quartet, December 10th, in University Hall.

BACH & ABEL'S COLUMN.

To-morrow, Thursday, being the time honored and now materialized "Thanksgiving Day" according to our custom this store will be closed.

Amid the wrangle and jangle about the benefit of those who live at a distance that we are the cloak house of the city and the place where the cloak business of the city is done.

As we long ago predicted Seal Plush Garments are more in demand this season than ever before. This is due to the fact that they are offered in more shapes than heretofore. One of the most popular garments among our large assortment of Plushes is a short Wrap, just long enough in the back to sit gracefully over the shoulders of the skirt and just enough longer in front to allow of a beautiful curve over the hips.

For Misses the light, single-breasted Newmarket seems to be the top coat of the season. Plenty of variety, however, in this one garment. Capes, short and long, hooded and square. Notwithstanding the cold weather, we are getting one hundred per cent for the use of their money.
