BISHOP MERRILL'S IDEAS.

In a recent letter of the able Bishop to The Western Christian Advocate in reply to Dr. Leonard, an Ohio prohibitionist...

Practical men often ask: "If prohibition cannot be had, then what is the best thing that can be had?"

INTELLIGENCE FROM ALL PARTS.
CONGRESSIONAL.
Second Session.
The second and last session of the Forty-ninth Congress was held at the Capitol building in Washington, D. C., on the 10th of August. In the Senate Mr. Sherman called the members to order, prayer was offered by the chaplain, and a resolution was adopted fixing the hour of daily meeting at ten. The House was informed by a committee of the Senate that the House was ready to proceed to business, and at two o'clock the President's message was read and the death of Senator Sherman was announced. At 3:25 p. m. Speaker Carlisle called the House to order, prayer was offered by the chaplain the roll was called, 31 members responding to their names. The Senate was then informed that the House was ready to proceed to business. Several new members qualified, after which the message of the President was read and the death of Senator Sherman was announced. At 3:25 p. m.
