BY JANE E. BUTLER. 'Twas in old England, long ago,
And merry was the time;
The bells rang o'er the distant hills,
In many a pleasant chime;
The yule-log burned upon the hearth
And through the house were sounds of mirth. Psoriasis, or Scaly Skin.

The Squire was a mirthful man,
And yet at times. I ween,
A look of sadness, half subdued,
Upon his face was seen;
And often in his joyous mood
This shade of sadness would intrude, I. John J. Case, D. D. S., having practiced dentistry in this county for thirty-five years and being well-known to thousands hereabouts, with a view to help any who are afflicted as I have been for the past twelve years, testify that the Cuticura Remedies cared me of Psoriasis, or Scaly Skin, in eight days, after the doctors with whom I had consulted gave me no help or encouragement.

Newton, N. J., JOHN J. CASE, D. D. S. That night it was a Christmas night The guests were in the hall,
The holly with its berries fair
Was decking every Wall;
And music from the harp so sweet
Made pleasure's round of joy complete. What made the Squire turn so pale,
As on the Chris mas air
There rose without the manor halls
A voice so sweet and clear?
"Who sings without?" the Squire said;
"Not her, not her, for she is dead." Your Cuticura Remedies performed a wonder i cure last summer on one of our customers, at gentleman of seventy years of age, who suftered with a fearfully distressing eruption on hiead and face, and who had tried all remedies and

That quaint old song, he knew it well;
She sang it when a child—
That girl, sole daughter of his house
That girl, so wayward, wild!
Who disappeared one Christmas night
Forever from her father's sight. "Go, bring the singer in." he sa d,
"I fain would see her face."
The hall door opened, then a form,
Still wearing beauty's grace,
Walked slowly on, with drooping head.
"My child!" was all the Squire said.

"Forgive, forgive!" the singer wailed,
And knelt down at his feet;
The guests, amazed, all gathered round,
To bear her to a seat:
The Squire raised her, and in tears

The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice the mind—one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The polson it distributes throughout the system and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method apopted by Dr. Sandford in the preparation of his Radical Cure has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head cold, sneezing, smiffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

A Common Cold

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough. Last January I was attacked with a severe Cold, which, by neglect and frequent exposures, became worse, finally settling on my lungs. A terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was Speedily Cured. I am satisfied that this remedy saved my life. — Jno. Webster, Pawtucket, R. I. I contracted a severe cold, which sudand developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Progress Prairie Texas. ers Prairie, Texas. Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Cold which settled on my Lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it

Leading Republican Newspaper

IN THE NORTHWEST. THE INTER OCEAN has from the beginning been he defender of home institutions and American deas. It is the advocate of equal rights for all become the law, of protection to American labor, and if the idea that America is for Americans.--not necof the idea that America is for Americans-not necessarily Americans by birth, but true citizens of the Republic. It believes in the West and Western men, holds to the idea that the future seat of empire will be in the Mississippi Valley, and is bold and aggressive in its opposition to the unholy alliance between the money-changers of New York City and the States lately in rebellion.

THE INTER OCEAN is earnestly in favor of the Republican party because it believes the principles of that party are correct, and that, honestly carried out, they will best protect the rights and advance the interests of the whole people. It is not however, a blind follower, but is always ready to denounce Republican wrong-doing, either in high or low places.

DESTROY THE CAUSE.

James W. Sykes has been expelled from the Chicago board of trade for issuing fraudulent warehouse receipts,—Current item.

Now, if the governor of Illinois would expunge or wipe out the board of trade, he would be doing an act of humanity. Boards of trade are "bucket shops" on a grand scale; "bucket shops" are but tolerated gambling hells. The principle of all is the same: To get something for nothing; to beat some other man out of his money; to become rich without work; opulent without exertion. It is a thing that is reprehensible, even if it can be accomplished, which is very seldom. This species of gambling is all the more dangerous because it is considered respectable. Men of character indulge in it. Members of our churches, deacons in our churches, business men, bank directors, bank cashiers, bank presidents can all indulge in it, and lose none of their character or standing thereby, unless per chance one happens to get "caught short" as it is termed, is "squeezed dry," and to help himself out uses funds at his command not his own, even as a drowning man grasps at a straw in the hope of saving himself. Then the community are horrified! People talk over the affairs of the fallen one, and regret that so noble, so pure, so promising a person should be tempted, and a life which had such rare possibilities for the future should be wrecked-forever lost to his but make no move to destroy the cause. People whose blood would curdle at the thought of their son, or brother, or friends committing highway robbery will look on with interest at deals in a board of trade or "bucket shop" transaction, which is robbery just the same. That strong drink is a curse no one will deny. That gambling is as great a curse no one ought to deny, and polite gambling is no better than the genuine faro, chuck-aluck, or card room.

fellow man. We all deplore the results

A great furore was caused in this city recently by the establishment of a card room, where a few young men lost some of their money, but a "bucket shop" has operated here for months and no word of condemnation has been uttered against it though thousands upon thousands of dol-, lars have been taken from our citizens through its manipulations.

Recent disclosures have pulled the mask from off of some of the transactions here, and a general feeling of horror and regret has been expressed on every side. A feeling of righteous indignation has welled up in the hearts of people and could the same sentiment prevail all over the country that exists in Ann Arbor now, these great gambling institutions would be wiped out in short order.

In one season Jackson has lost $100,000 by its "bucket shop." In a similar time $1,000,000 has found its way from Indianapolis to the coffers of Chicago's gamblers at the board of trade, not one dollar of which ever returned. Coldwater's "bucket shop" closed up last week, its manager leaving town in haste, and also leaving the town poorer by thous-

The spirit of speculation is on the prevalent only since 1879, except in Chithan in the two years ending in 1879. Every little city like Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, even villages like Chelsea, must have a "bucket shop." Fools watch the market and fancy they can foretell what the price of grain will be to-morrow. They buy or sell accordingly and have their calculations upset by a set of men, or by one man, like Hill of Chicago, who sold 50,000,000 bushels of wheat, which he proposed to manipulate with a capital of $5,000-all he had. Who can count on such an influence as this apart from every legitimate influence or cause affecting the market? No-one and noone should try. Monday, about dinner time, as two "rigs" met each other on the new rail road bridge, the third, a dray, came rushing up, and notwithstanding the fact that both of the aforesaid "rigs" gave way to allow the impetuous driver all the room possible, and the driver of the cutter pulling his horse up short, in order to avert a collision, the dray collided with the farmer's wagon, throwing its driver out full length on the ground, breaking both thills, demolishing the harness and nearly turning the dray upside down.

Monroe Bros. & Co,, extensive lumber dealers of Cleveland, made an assign ment last Monday. They had a branch yard in this city, of which Ald. A. F. Martin, of the 6th ward, has been the manager, known as the Ann Arbor Lumber Co. Mr. Martin is one of the most respected business men in our city, and the failure of the firm is to be regretted. It is thought that arrangements may be ide to continue the business. Martin loses nothing personally by the failure, nor are there any creditors of the firm in the city.

One of the readers of the Courier lately visited New York and had the pleasure of riding over the world renowned $13,000,000 Brooklya bridge. It commences opposite the City Hall park, runs quite a distance far above the buildings, then by a single span it is suspende over the East river 200 feet from the water. A train of cable cars passes over the bridge every two minutes during the day-fare five cents-foot passengers one cent. The receipts of the bridge are daily $2,500, and the traffic is so great that another bridge is already talked of.

The young people's society of the Presbyterian Church, last Sunday evening were very much entertained by K. Kimura and Koh Jehi Takasarei, two Japanese students of our university. They discussed in glowing terms of the wonderful advancement Japan has made "bobbs" for a time, but the latter will since the introduction of Christianity into that country. It now has 150 Protestant Churches, and sustains 5 missionaries in Corea and 3 in China and they give America the entire credit for this glorious impulse to civilization. The government itself although reaping the benefits of a thorough reorganization will be effected, christianity is not yet willing to have its principles taught in its great university at Tokio whose professors are mostly Ger-which to work. Success to him. The funeral services of Mrs. John Harrison were held at the M. E. Church, Dixboro, on Tuesday last. After a severe illness of nearly four weeks, she died and was at rest. Mrs. Harrison was born in London, England, in 1818, and leaving her native land in 1843 came directly to Ann Arbor near which she has since lived. In the sketch of her life read at the church occurred these words: "Mrs. Harrison was a woman of noble character, quiet yet always exerting an influence for good. Friends she had many, enemies none. Patiently has she borne the ills and hardships of life: and the legacy she leaves her husband and children is a pure life, a wife's and mother's love. Her children rise up and call her blessed. > THE JUDGE'S CASH PUZZLE In behalf of Use Your Brains and Make Money.

MEN, WOMEN, CHILDREN, EVERYBODY.

The Judge proposes to assist the Grant Monument Fund by organizing a grand competition on word-building (making the largest number of English words from a given sentence by transposing and using letters to suit the purpose), using for the theme the sentence "Who will be our next President?" and offering Cash prizes to successful competitors, each of who will have to pay Fifty (50) cents on presentation of his competitive paper. The money received will be applied as follows:

Twenty-five cents is at once credited to the Grant Fund.

The remaining iwenty-five cents, after deducting the legitimate expenses of advertising names with their respective answers, etc., etc., will be placed in a common fund to be equally divided among the the six successful competitors, i.e., the six persons sending in the largest lists of English words (proper nouns included) made from the sentence ("Who will be our next President?"

The magnitude of the prize will depend on the amount or money received, or in other words on the number of competitors. Communications open until F. bruary 15, 1887, 12 o'clock.

This is not a new thing. In England large sums of money have been raised for Charlty by this method and those who have participated and incidentally eleped a worthy object have won a prize as high as $10,000 as a reward for mental activity. The names of competitors will be published from week to week in Judge as they may come in. This will not only serve as an acknowledgement of the receipt of the money, etc., but will also serve to show the weekly progress of the fund. Governing rules in this week's Judge. row evening, the New York Tribune says:

The best of all comedies and the crowning success of Augustin Daly's adaptations. Bub bling over with fun; scintilating with wit; replete with comical situations. "Nancy & Co," is the funniest of all the comedies which have made Daly's New York Theatre synonymous with success and have given it international fame. Though Daly's plays in late years have met with phenomenal receipts, those of "Nancy & Co." stand at the head and show the largest profits, than which there could be no better evidence of merit. Daly's audiences during "Nancy & Co., were larger, merrier and more enthusiastic than his theatre had ever known. The company is the best, that could be brought together, and will be rehearsed and directed under Mr. Daly personal supervision.
