

A Special sale of Cloaks, Shawls and Dry Goods this month. Great reduction from regular prices. An exceptional opportunity for shoppers. We propose to make business hum during January. We will sell good, reliable goods as low as you can buy trash elsewhere. It is the custom of shopping people everywhere to delay making purchases at this season until the annual clearing out movement is in operation among the different Stores. Bargains! The word has peculiar power at such a time! Everyone is familiar with it and all prepare for it. That time is now at hand, and we present to-day the beginning of an eventful year, we think, for the ladies' an array of figures necessarily interesting and acceptable to all. Astrachan Wraps that were selling the first of the Season: No. 9628, $32, Going at $23.50

Jackson gets the next State fair. Twin girls at Fred Schlander's. The Arberter Verein holds its annual meeting next Monday. And now the people are prepared for the annual peach-bud freeze-up stories. Dressed pork is on the upgrade. Buyers are now paying $5.50 for choice lots. Paul Schall was quite seriously bitten Friday by a dog owned by Henry Laubengayer. At a meeting of the Michigan Furniture Co., last Wednesday evening, a dividend of seven per cent, was declared.

A. L. Noble is on the sick list once more. Chas. S. Fall expects to go on the road for a Boston clothing firm soon. Misses Emma and Maggie Bower visited Detroit a couple of days last week. Miss Nellie Latson, of Brighton visited her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Fall, during the week. Warren Walliams, of J. T. Jacobs & Co., now rejoices over a 22 lb. boy at his house. Louis D. Taylor goes to Chicago tomorrow to accept a position in the auditor's office of the Washish. Mr. S. H. Moore and family, and Mr. C. N. Webb and wife, of Saline, visited at Henry Bliton's last week. Ingalls st. Mrs. C. Y. Cook of Charlevoix, and Mrs. Sterling of Belleville, are visiting their sister, Mrs. E. J. Knowlton. Charlie Briggs, of Dexter, is in the Register of Deeds office helping Mr. Kearns during the time he has charge of the abstract books. Will A. Groom, formerly of the Courier force, called upon us yesterday, looking healthy and happy. He is now one of the proprietors of the Grand Advance, published at Ithaca, and is doing well. UNIVERSITY ITEMS. The junior laws take up the 31 book of Blackstone this week. Prof. Winchell is down for a lecture before the Chautauque Circle of Detroit, in the near future. The senior pharmacy took a trip through the capsule factory, located in the Couriers building, last Monday. Don A. Garwood, lit. '81, writes that he has been ordained high priest in the Jewish church, his home in Auburn, Ind. The Students' Christian Association is making arrangements to observe the week of prayer for colleges, commencing Jan. 20th. The Choral Union held a meeting last evening, and the riot act was read to its members. Since the death of Mrs. Gen. Hunt the great attraction seems to have faded away. Michael Brennan, of the firm of Brennan & Donnelly, Detroit, was in the city last Wednesday visiting the law department in company with Prof. Griffin, making the boys a pleasant little speech. The fourth lot of books, consisting of editions of Faust, for the Goethe library, has arrived; and the fifth and last lot, consisting of English translations of Goethe's works is expected in a few weeks. The Chicago Inter Ocean and several other papers about the country have been publishing alleged pictures of Judge Cooley that are clear cases of libel, and if the Judge felt so disposed he ought easily to obtain judgment against them therefor. On Thursday, Jan. 20th services in observance of the day of prayer for colleges and other schools will be held in the university as follows: At 3 p. m. local time, President Angell will give a discourse in the chapel. At 7 1/2 p. m. local time, there will be a meeting for conference and prayer in the same place. The University Society invites all persons interested in the study of Ralph Waldo Emerson to be present at their hall next Saturday evening. Music by Miss Buzzell. The Senate Committee on the University is composed of John C. Sharp, of Jackson; J. W. Babcock, of St. Clair; and Chas. W. Wisner, of East Saginaw. The House Committee is composed of Representatives N. McMillan, of Kent; E. Z. Perkins, of Emmet; J. A. Green, of Bay; F. H. Watson, of Shiawassee; and Byron A. Snow, of Saginaw. The University Musical Society is an organization that deserves the encouragement of our citizens. With the excellent musical entertainments it has brought to this city, and the advancement in musical lore it has been the means of promoting here, the Society deserves encouragement. It is doing a good work, if not for ourselves, individually, perhaps, most certainly for our children. It is difficult to make the older and uncultivated ears appreciate some of the heavy classical music, and if the society would mix in a little "Yankee Doodle" with its Wagner, and Beethoven and Mozart, it would find its entertainments better patronized, undoubtedly. Give the old folks some old fashioned, popular American songs, and let the youngsters monopolize the expert business they come to take over places. Give the audiences a little fun occasionally also. People like to be amused. HIGH SCHOOL ITEMS. The mock trial by Iyceum No. 1 was adjourned indefinitely. The freshmen have not held their election yet. Given it up likely. Lea, Kapp, class of '89, will give a social at his home on Main street, Friday night. A meeting for the election of the Omega board will be held by the class of '87 Friday afternoon. Term essays are due as follows: First year, Jan. 25th; second year, Feb. 1st; third year, Feb. 8th; fourth year, Feb. 15th. Prof. Perry will hold an examination in grammar to-morrow, and in U. S. history next week Thursday. Under the management of its new president, Mr. Calkin, the Christian association is making progress in growth in interest and membership. The class in first year English, which recited at 10 o'clock on Mondays, has been divided, one division now reciting on Tuesday. The senior class will be given a social by Arthur Covert, at his home in Superior, Friday night. Of course that means a sleigh ride. A social under the auspices of the Christian association will be given Saturday night at the residence of Miss Wade, 14 Monroe street. The result of the election of officers of the Iyceum was the choice of G. M. Hall, president; E. H. Edwards, vice president, and H. H. Walker, secretary. '89 had a class sleigh ride last Friday evening. A large number were present, and no end of fun. Mr. Waterman received the party on his farm a few miles south of the city. Refreshments were served, and the party returned home quite late. At their meeting last Friday p. m., the members of the senior class elected the following class-day officers, all of whom are well qualified for the positions: Orator, Harry E. Palmer, Imley City; poetess, Cecilia Brennan, Ann Arbor; historian, Mark Rockwell, Corey; essayist, Viola Williams, Ann Arbor. The roll-call from Josh Billings by Iyceum No. 1 last Friday evening furnished quite a variety of sentiment. A spelling match by the members, and some visitors proved that several such matches would do no harm. The program for this week consists of a short trial, a debate on "Resolved, That a lawyer is justifiable in defending a person whom he knows to be guilty," reading the Budget, etc.

AMUSEMENTS. TRAGEDIAN BOOTH AND COMEDIAN SCANLAN. The extraordinary business doing by Edwin Booth on his present tour is a subject of much comment. Not less remarkable is the success of the great tragedian W. J. Scanlan. He began his season September 16, at Poole's new theatre in New York in which he was the first star that has been played for five weeks to very large audiences, and he might have extended his run indefinitely had it not been for contracts previously made for him to appear in other cities. He has since been engaged to play at Poole's theatre in New York Mr. Scanlan's tour has been a triumphal progress through Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, and the theatres in which he played have been too small to accommodate his crowds. He has made a significant record in an entire advanced season in most of his cities. Hundreds of friends in Ann Arbor will rejoice to know of his good fortune.
