Catarrh to Consumption.

Catarrh in its destructive force stands next to and undoubtedly leads on to consumption. It is therefore singular that those afflicted with this fearful disease should not make it the object of their lives to rid themselves of it. Deceptive remedies concocted by ignorant pretenders to medical knowledge have weakened the confidence of the great majority of sufferers in all advertised remedies. They become resigned to a life of misery rather than torture themselves with doubtful palliatives.

But this will never do. Catarrh must be met at every stage and combatted with all our might. In many cases the disease has assumed dangerous symptoms. The bones and cartilage of the nose, the organs of hearing, of seeing and of tasting so affected as to be useless, the uvula so elongated, the throat so inflamed and irritated as to produce a constant and distressing cough.

SANDFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitution. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

Each package contains one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, with treatise; price, $1.00

GET THERE ELI.

BY SAMWELL WILKINS.

A funny old hermit once lived in a wood,
And cooked his own rations the best that he could.
He wandered afar to the village one day,
And all that belated old chronic could say
Was, "Get there Eli."

There came a young man who was starting in life,
Had just entered in earnest the uneven strife,
He wanted a motto by which to succeed,
The hermit advised him to take for his creed
Get there Eli.

A seedy old merchant with woe in his eyes
Had tried to make money and not advertise,
From his grandfathers teachings he never had swerved,
But even the fossilized hermit observed
Get there Eli.

Now, THE COURIER, from what it has seen of the fight
Believes that this funny old hermit was right,
And a paper that hopes to succeed in the race,
Must look all shenanigan square in the face,

PROCLAMATION!

Arbor Day. State of Michigan.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, April 7, 1887.

The forest fame of our peninsular State is fast vanishing before the wood man's ax. Our natural groves of maple, oak, and pine are being hurriedly chased over the hills and down the valleys by fields of sunshine and waving grain. The pioneer fathers yet with us can tell of more wonderful changes they have seen wrought in the face of our beautiful State than can the added generations to come. The fertile soil which longed for the warmth of sunshine when they came, to-day rejoices in the cooling shadows of a spared tree. We build our fortunes to decay, we plant our deeds to live and grow; he who plants a tree by the wayside may not himself rest beneath its shade, but thousands of weary travelers may stop to breathe a blessing on his deed. And it is with a thought for the days to come and for those who are to live after us, that the beautiful custom of annually proclaiming an Arbor Day is cheerfully followed by your humble servant. I therefore respectfully and earnestly recommend that by the cottage, the mansion, the church, the school-house, the street, in the cemetery, or in such other places as may be chosen, a tree may be planted on MONDAY, THE 25TH DAY OF APRIL, inst., by every person in our State with whom it is possible. And that it may be done with a more united purpose, I would suggest that each tree be dedicated to the memory of some friend, whose deeds of kindness or heroism you would keep green. And it is with confidence grown from the past that I sincerely hope a people, unsurpassed in intelligence, unexcelled in public spirit, loyal to friends and benefactors, and proud of the best heritage in the family of States, will, on that day, add living ornaments for the blessing of posterity that only the seasons can furnish for enjoyment.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have [L. S.] hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Michigan to be affixed at Lansing, the 7th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1887. C. G. LUCE.

By the Governor:
G. R. OSMUN, Secretary of State.

Stanton and the President.

We quote the following anecdote from "Recollections of Secretary Stanton," by a clerk of the War Department, in the Century: "When Mr. Stanley, of North Carolina, was appointed military governor of his state, the secretary of war caused to be filled out one of the blank forms used for notifying military nominees of their appointment to office by the President, and when he had signed it and caused the seal of the department of war to be attached to it, he concluded that it would be well to have the sign manual of the President affixed to the instrument. He sent the commission to the White House, with the request that the President would sign and return it immediately. Mr. Lincoln took the document and read it carefully, and then began turning and twisting it about, as though in search of something. At last he handed it to the bearer and said ironically:

"Did Mr. Stanton say where I was to put my signature?"

"'No, sir,' replied the astonished clerk.

"'Can you tell me,' asked the President, 'whereabouts on this paper I am to put my signature?' The clerk looked at the commission and saw the ample signature of Mr. Stanton immediately at the foot of the body of the instrument, with the counter-signature of the adjutant-general to the left. He also saw a neat, snug looking white space beneath the sign manual of the secretary of war which Mr. Lincoln might have occupied to advantage had he seen fit, but the clerk was politic and replied: 'I don't see any place provided for your signature, Mr. President,' and was proceeding to explain how the omission obviously came about, when the President interrupted him and said in a dignified tone: 'Take the paper back to the secretary of war, with my compliments, and say that the President will promptly sign any proper commission that may be sent to him for Governor Stanley or anybody else.'"

The Emigration of the World

Recent statistics show that 19,000,000 of people are residing in other than their native country. In England there 203,000 foreigners; in Russia, 344,000; France, 1,001,000; Switzerland, 211,035; Austria, 182,676; Belgium, 145,665; Holland, 69,971; Italy, 59,956; Scandinavia, 50,968; Spain, 41,703.

In North America there are 7,300,042 foreingers; in South America, 6,033,105; in Asia, 1,584,344, and in Africa, 140,383. England takes the lead in the number of people that leave her shores. At the present time 4,200,000 of her sons are scattered over the world. Germany comes next with a total of 2,601,000; strangely enough 82,000 of these are residing in France alone, while 2,000,000 are in the United States. The other nations rate in the following order: Italy, 1,000,000; Scandinavia, 795,070; Belgium, 497,000; France, 382,662; Spain, 453,400; Austria, 336,000; of whom 118,000 reside in Germany.

Correspondence of the Adrian Times.

Bad Roads and their Remedy.

Having been over the western part of Ohio and some of the eastern part of Indiana during the last week, I have been forcibly impressed with the difference between the highways as compared with those in our state. For the most part the country is as level as southern Michigan, and the soil no better for good roads naturally. But even with the immense rainfall during the month of February, I see teams coming into the towns with two or three tons of corn on the wagon, and no trouble or undue labor for the two horses attached. The consequences are, business in these states receives no check on account of "bad roads," that make the streets of our Michigan towns deserted and lonely.

Michigan boasts of her enterprise, and in some respects it is well, but the people are at least twenty-five years behind Ohio in the matter of highways. The cities and villages have long ago learned that they cannot afford to suffer the stagnation of their business so much of the year in consequence of muddy roads. They are alive for business, and under the laws of the state any important road may be made a "pike." By a petition of a few freeholders, the county commissioners view the route, and if, in their judgment it is desirable, they at once grade and gravel or stone the road, as far as necessary in their own county, and assess the cost in easy installments on the strip of country lying along the road, for two miles wide on each side.

All bridges are built by the county at large and their gravel or stone "pikes" are kept in repair by the county when once built. A very light highway tax is only necessary, and where parties are on cross-roads, or those not "pikes," the tax may be worked out as in our state.

Men in Michigan are lavish in the use of money for teams, carriages, horses, barns, and all the luxuries and comforts of life, except the road to drive on, and right there is shown the most short-sightedness penuriousness. It costs the farmers of Michigan for the wear and breakage of team, harness and vehicle, and the business men of the cities and villages for the loss of business, every year, in consequence of bad roads, three or four times the cost of "piking" the principal thoroughfares.

The farmer living in almost any direction from Adrian must market his wheat and all his heavy produce in the season of good roads, if at all, and then he cannot load with much more than one ton, because of the ruts and holes made during the bad roads, or because of the wisdom (?) of the pathmaster, who has plowed up patches along the road, and dumped the dirt in large heaps in the track; while in Ohio, the farmer who lives on or near a pike can, in the busy time, drive to the city, five to ten miles, in the evening for a few necessaries he may want, and back, with comfort and safety, and when the busy season is over he can market his grain in half the time and with half the expense we can do it.

There seems to be such a fear of doing or paying something for the public benefit—a foolish, blind selfishness existing among the people that they lose sight of the sensible fact that when a man benefits the public he benefits himself, and if all men are equally taxed the burden is not heavy. There never was a more unjust law or one more ruinous to the public at large than our Michigan law making our public highways and bridges a burden upon the townships in which they are situated. Why not subdivide still finer, and make the farm through which the creek or river runs, build and maintain the bridges. Who would care to own a river farm then? 'Tis no less wrong to oblige the township through which the river happens to run, to build all those expensive bridges.

The bridges and highways are public property, for public use, not only for one farm, or one township, but for everybody. Why not as well say that the township which has the court house, the jail, or the county poor-farm in it shall build those buildings, and maintain them? They are no more for the use of the county at large than are the highways and bridges. Why not as well oblige the property-owners of the ward in which one or two of the bridges are built to stand the entire expense of those bridges, instead of the whole city?

I hope the time is near when Michigan will feel ashamed of these old laws she has so long outgrown and for justice and humanity's sake come up to the standard of civilization. Make all these public benefits a public expense; not only her schools, court houses, etc., but her roads and bridges as well. Let there go up a demand for a change of those laws to our legislature, and let it go from city and country alike. S. B. M.

Rev. C. F. Brooks

says that his little girl is troubled with malaria very severely, and that since he gave her Sulphur Bitters, he never thinks of leaving New York for his summer resort without a few bottles, for they always cure his family, and are far superior to quinine.

Europe Seen from the Adirondacks.

"Wot do yew say as to whether the Rooshans 'll win their liberties or not? My husband an' I had a spat over that at breakfast t'other mornin'. I says to him, says I, 'John, I'm for the Rooshans, bekase the Turks have held 'em down long enough.' An' sez he, 'Sarah, your bewitched; the Turks ain't holden on 'em down, an' never was.'

"Then I showed him in Mitchell's geography that the Rooshans all b'longed to the Greek Church, an' axed him if that didn't make 'em all Greeks. He said in one sense it did. I told him in one sense was enuff if it waren't nonsense. Then I bro't out Marco Bozzaris in the Third Reader an' read that to him, an' that shows the Greeks are downtrodden and oppressed by the Turks. He see I had the dead wood on him, but he wouldn't own it. But I'm fur every nation that's strugglin' for its liberties, wherever it is." —Van Buren Denslow, in The American Magazine.

The Public Interested.

When manufacturers of an article are asking the public to consume their wares, it is indeed refreshing to know that they are reliably endorsed, as illustrated by the united endorsement of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic and Liver Pills by the druggists of St. Paul.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time afflicted with catarrh. This disagreeable disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

THE NIGHTINGALE AND THE LARK.

BALLADE.

When the fairies are all for their dances drest,
When day's discords in the distance fall,
When the robin and wren are asleep in the nest,
Then list to the note of the nightingale!
But when diamonds glint on the dewy swale,
When star fires are fading spark by spark,
And the little birds all the dawning hail,
O hark to the song of the merry lark!

When over the hills the silver crest
Is pouring enchantment on mere and vale,
And the world lies hushed in a dreamy rest,
Then list to the note of the nightingale!
But when the bright sun light in golden mail
Flames over the tree-tops in the park,
And the world goes again on its busy trail,
O hark to the song of the merry lark!

When the young heart flutters in Mabel's breast,
And Algernon's cheek for once only is pale,
As the secret, half guessed, is at last confessed,
Then list to the note of the nightingale,
But when Corydon hides in a turn o' the dale,
And Phillis is met where no one may mark,
And the sudden blush and the kiss tell the tale,
O hark to the song of the merry lark!

ENVOY.

If Il Penseroso's mood prevail,
Then list to the note of the nightingale!
But whenever L'Allegro woos, then hark,
O hark to the song of the merry lark!

—Ernest Whitney, in The American Magazine.

A Literary Club in Boston.

Perhaps of all the clubs with literary objects the Papyrus has the most individuality. Originally it met in an English chop-house, and though it is still only a dining club without a house of its own, its entertainments are much more elaborate than they were in the beginning. A curious little book lies before me which was privately circulated among the members some time ago, and which is attributed to a former president of the club who is no less famous for his wit than for his beauty and his moral excellence. It is called "A Primer of the Papyrus," and, with some very clever illustrations by Mr. L. S. Ipson, it elucidates the club with much greater clearness than the constitution and by-laws. Indeed, its candor is not less fascinating than its humor. Thus there are two classes of members, literary and non-literary, and the question, "What is the difference between them," is answered in the "Primer" as follows: "Well, Sonny, a Literary Member fetches only ten dollars, while a Non-Literary Member fetches twenty-five dollars—unless the Man who proposes your Name is up to Snuff." Then there is a picture of an Egyptian palace, with a sphinx at the portals grasping a bottle of champagne, and this is accompanied by the following description: "Do you see this Magnificent castle? The front entrance is guarded by Sphinxes and Things and the Reed Immortal is cultivated in the Back Yard. It is the Papyrus Club House, and it is located in the Air. The Non-Literary members furnish the Building and the Literary members furnish the Air. The Art Gallery contains the Busts of all the Ex-Presidents of the Club. If you pay your Dues regularly and have the Custody of the Returns, You can go on a Bust some day Yourself." Article II of the Constitution reads as follows: "The object of this club shall be to promote good fellowship and literary and artistic tastes among its members," which is thus annotated in the audacious "Primer": "See this nice sentence. It is a Choice Extract from the Constitution of the Papyrus Club. Is it not a Beautiful paragraph? It was built to test the after-dinner Punch with. If the sentence can be Shouted with Ease then the Punch is Bad. But if the Sentence cannot be Shouted with Ease then the Punch is Good. Is it not a Great Invention? Let us all go and Shout!"—William H. Riding, in the American Magazine.

The great city of Chicago has performed a miracle. The citizens thereof have elected a republican mayor by an overwhelming majority, thus crushing out the socialists and anarchists who have sought to control the election there this spring. The name of the mayor is Roche.

New Books.

THE LATEST STUDIES ON INDIAN RESERVATIONS. By J. B. Harrison, author of "Certain Dangerous Tendencies in American Life," Etc. Philadelphia: Indian Rights Association.

This book consists of descriptive notes on the following reservations: The Rosebud and Pine Ridge, in Southern Dakota; Omaha, Winnebago and Santee, in Nebraska; Yankton, Lower Brule, Crow Creek, Cheyenne River and Standing Rock, in Dakota; the Crow Reservation, in Montana; Yakima, and Nisqually and Skokomish, in Washington Territory; and the Klamath Reservation, in Southern Oregon. The closing chapters are composed of opinions of the author upon what he saw. It is an interesting little volume.

ROMANISM THE DANGER AHEAD. The Reason why a Good Roman Catholic Cannot be a Good Citizen of this Republic. By A. J. Grover. Chicago: Craig & Barlow. Cloth, price, 75 cents.

This book appears to have been written "under a profound conviction that Romanism is the insidious enemy of liberty, and most serious menace to the republic. The free school system is in danger. Romanism has votes to be cast as a unit. These votes are necessary in national elections, and in most local elections, to party success; whichever party will promise to do the most for Romanism, will get them. Here lies the danger. Politicians have already silenced or subdized the Protestant pulpit and the partisan press. As in the days when slavery ruled everybody interested in the success of a party caters to Romanism. The national policy as to slavery almost cost the life of the republic. There is ten times the danger to our free institutions from Romanism now, that there was from slavery in 1851."

The author takes an extreme view of the case, however. In a free country a citizen has a right to worship God as his conscience may dictate, and it will take different argument from that advanced to convince the people generally that a good Roman Catholic cannot be a good citizen of this republic.

LITERARY NOTES.

A rare book, "Life Among the Germans," shortly by D. Lothrop Company.

"St. Margaret of New Orleans," the bread-giver, lives again in Successful Women, a series of notable papers by Mrs. Sarah K. Bolton in Wide Aweke.

Wide Awake prints next month a full-length portrait of Mrs. Carlyle and the pet dog, Nero, that figures so in the Carlyle correspondence. The photograph comes from Mrs. Alexander Carlyle.

Cap'n Bos'ard's Wife's School is the title of a string of anecdotes in the May Wide Awake relating to a famous dame-school of the Old Colony, which is a sort of ancestral institution to many a noted New England family.

A book of out-door musings by one who with pen in hand is artist, poet, philosopher; but he little suspects it. Fresh as the clover and free as the birds, he takes you into the cool silence of the summer woods or the vocal fields. There has not been the like of it since—we hardly like to put another beside it.—Prose Pastorals. By a Boston lawyer.

Some of the choice musical publications of the month are at hand, and are worthy of special notice. There is a pretty song entitled, "Crossing the Brook," by Edith Cooke, (35 cts.); a pretty ballad by Pontet, entitled, "The Biter Bit" (35 cts.); a song and chorus by Taylor entitled "My Own My Beautiful Louise," (30 cts.); and "Strolling on the Beach," a humorous song by Gardner, (35 cts.) The selections for the piano are unusually good, comprising pieces of different grades and suitable to various tastes, as for instance, the four little pieces by Behr, "Barcarolle," "Spinning Room," "American Song," and "Will o' the Wisp," price, each, 25 cts.; capital pieces for young beginners. An organ piece (for church organ) entitled, "Elevation," by Batiste, (40 cts.) is of interest to organists; and another little piano piece, called "Young Lark Waltz," by Mack, (25 cts.), completes this month's list of new music just received from Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston, Mass., and sent by them to any address on receipt of price.

Four Chelsea residents know what it is to be burglarized, although nothing of any great value was carried off.

R. W. Mills, of Saline has a three year old ram which dropped a fleece weighing 31¾ pounds, at the sheep shearing festival last Wednesday.

Frank Nelson and Miss Jennie Kaley, of Chelsea, are travelling along life's path together. Rev. J. A. Kaley pronounced the words which made them one last Wednesday.

The Milan Leader came out last week with a rooster and an announcement that the amendment was carried "notwithstanding the reports in the Detroit newspapers to the contrary." Bro. Smith, probably by this time wishes he had been less previous.

The Saline sheep breeders' and wool growers' association annual shearing festival held in this village, on Wednesday, was largely attended by the sheep fanciers of this vicinity, besides many being in attendance from abroad. There were about 75 sheep on the grounds, of which number only about two-thirds were sheared. It was a handsome and valuable flock of sheep, several of the best specimens being valued at over $1,000, while the total valuation must have aggregated a large sum.

Nearly everybody now-a-days is educated with a view to making a livelihood and indeed accumalating riches, by easy methods. Hard work is shunned and dispised: as a consequence there is a rush for the professions, for clerkships, salesman's situations, and every kind of light labor, whether skilled or unskilled. The great demand in these days is for what the "boys" denominate "soft snaps." The result is that that the fellows who buckle in real work who become what the foolish call "plodders," accumulate, by slow degrees, property, and grow to independence.—Ovid Union.

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

Dexter still jogs along without the signal service flags.

The German school in Dexter has closed for the present.

The Ypsilanti creamery resumed operations again last week.

A horse dentist has been at work at the molars of Milan horses.

The village carpenter of Dexter appears to have a good Leader.

The boatmen are preparing their boats and oars for the coming season.

The vote in Augusta last week was the largest ever polled in that township.

Two new members of the G. A. R. have donned badges in Manchester.

Chas. Donaldson will move to Dexter soon, occupying the Hicks property.

Miss Myrtie Baird teaches the school in the Nordman district, Lima, this term.

The Leader says the democrats registered 60 new voters in Scio township at the last election.

Ypsilanti has had the singing pilgrims. That's nothing, we have the stinging pilgrims on hand now.

It is estimated that about 20 per cent of the old wheat crop is in the hands of the farmers.—Dexter Leader.

Miss Belle Van Riper, formerly of Dexter, was married in Chicago, March 27th to Mr. E. J. Dake, of that city.

York township will not have a new town hall. It was so decreed at the election last week, when 122 voters voted for a new hall and 234 against it.

John Condon, Jr., left for Detroit last Saturday, to accept a position in the Michigan Central freight depot in that city.—Dexter Leader.

Prof, Loomis, a young graduate of the Albion college, has been hired as principal of the Chelsea Union school, in place of P. M. Parker.—Echo.

Mrs. W. W. Fairfield, of Ypsilanti, read a very interesting paper before the meeting of the Womans Board of Missions of of the Interior, entitled "a story with a moral."

Thomas Mosher, of Milan, visited the Masonic lodge one night last week and fell down stairs in coming out, cutting a gash over his left eye and sustaining numerous bruises.

The Pentecost boys did some good in Milan one day recently. Entering a house, they found the parlor carpet on fire and extinguished it before under Marshal Shortridge, returned.

Eddie Bradley, the Ypsilanti boy arrested for train wrecking at Eau Claire, Wis., really saved the lives of many people by notifying the railroad employes of the obtructions on the track.

The first annual masquerade, promenade and military ball of Carpenter Post, G. A. R., and Pierce Camp, No. 61, will be held at the Town Hall, Friday evening April 14th.—Chelsea Echo.

The need of a reservoir in the eastern part of Manchester was demonstrated last week, when the fire department were unable to use their engines to extinguish a fire which came near destroying Jacob Filber's house.

The election of Hon. E. D. Kinne, republican candidate for circuit judge, in the twenty-second circuit—Monroe and Washtenaw counties—is a triumph, and a compliment of which he may well be proud.—Adrian Times.

The Washtenaw county sheep shearing festival held Wednesday at Saline, was well attended and 75 sheep were brought in. A 2-year old ram owned by R. W. Mills, sheared 31 pounds 9 ounces, the heaviest fleece of the lot.

Stone are being hauled to the place and the old rubbish is being cleaned away from where Teeple & Cadwell's store was burned, and as soon as the weather will permit a beautiful brick block will be erected thereon.—Pinckney Dispatch.

The Universalists of Manchester were instructed by their pastor last Sunday evening on "The Art of Enjoyment." If they really wished to enjoy themselves they should heave attended the Catholic entertainment in Goodyear hall of that village last evening.

The beautiful evergreens which have been for many years an ornament to our school yard, but are now in the way of the workmen, are being removed and converted into fire wood.—Dexter Leader. The craze to destroy the evergreen trees in our yards and streets is to be regretted.

The township board of Scio has passed a resolution requiring the amount expended for the poor to be published by the supervisor quarterly, giving the names of the families or persons relieved. This may prevent a few unworthy ones from receiving aid, but will humilate those who are worthy. In a township like Scio, where it is not difficult to accertain the true condition of people, this harsh course would hardly seem warranted.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court relative to the celebrated whipsocket case, in which the Worden Bros. were plaintiffs and Anson Searle defendent, was rendered March 28, and, as was expected by those familiar with the case up to the time it entered the highest court, it was decided in favor of the plaintiffs. The decisions rendered against the Worden Bro. in the lower courts, March 6, 1882, and October 9, 1882, were reversed with costs. Messrs. Alvah and John Worden are much pleased over the final fortunate result of their long litigation, and they have much reason to be, as it will restore to them property valued at many thousand dollars, as well as do them justice in the actual merits of the case.—Ypsilanti.

The Chelsea Herald's North Lake correspondent says: "Nearly everybody feels glad of the election of E. D. Kinne, judge of this district." Well, we should say so. Nearly everybody voted for him.

Greatly Excited.

Not a few of the citizens of Ann Arbor have recently become greatly excited over the astounding facts that several of their friends who had been pronounced by their physicians as incurable and beyond all hope—suffering with that dreaded monster Consumption—have been completely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the only remedy that does positively cure all throat and lung diseases, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and Bronchitis. Trial bottle free at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store, large bottles $1.

"The line must be drawn somewhere," remarked the wife as she stretched the clothes-line across the path. Just after dark her husband made some remarks in this connection.—Ex.

A GREAT MISTAKE
has heretofore been made in the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, and nervous or sick headache. This is evidenced by the failure on the part of thousands of sufferers to find relief, even though they have exhausted the skill of various physicians and tried numerous so-called remedies. To such Athlophoros is offered as a safe, sure, and quick cure. Its success has been phenomenal, and yet it is not surprising because it will do all that is claimed for it. The Athlophoros Co. will gladly refer any who desire to make an investigation to reliable parties who have been cured by it.

Mrs. D. C. Pickett, Columbus, Wis., says: "It is a little over a year ago since I was so badly afflicted. The disease was in every nerve and muscle of my body; I was completely prostrated and helpless for four weeks; I could not bear to be touched, as even the weight of a finger would cause the greatest pain, and I was in constant dread of its getting into the heart, in fact it bordered very close to it, and the doctor had very grave doubts as to my getting well. I had taken many different kinds of medicines, but was recommended to try Athlophoros, was positive it would help me. Oh, how sick it made me, and had it not been for the persistent efforts of my husband I don't think I should have continued taking it; but he insisted so strongly that I kept on with it. In about five days I began to improve, and when I had finished taking the botttle I was well. I only took a small dose as the medicine was so strong."

Madison, Wisconsin.
I have used Athlophoros for rheumatism and I can cheerfully say with the most satisfactory results. GEO. W. HUNTLEY,

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled. 7

The First Sign

Of failing health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored.—Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 383 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Returns from fifty-one counties out of the eighty-three in the state show a majority of 4,600 against the prohibitory amendment. The gains and losses in the other counties will probably balance each other.

The operation of the inter-state commerce law has already commenced its beneficial results in this section. A shipper showed us a freight bill yesterday that was $40 less on a car than he had ever before paid, the freight sent going to Maine. This law will operate in favor of shippers of this section, to the detriment of the westerners. Heretofore, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, etc., have had rates that have almost paralyzed our manufactures. Now, it will be different, and our people will have as good rates as any can obtain. In the line of milling our industries must be materially benefited. The millers of Indianapolis, for instance have heretofore reeived at 15½ cents per cwt., while never less than 28½ cents per cwt. has been charged our millers for freight to the same points. Corresponding low rates have been given Minneapolis millers, and when it is considered the price they pay for wheat, from 40c. to 60c. per bushel only, it can be readily seen how competition here was useless. While the action of this law may work against our business men in a few instances, it will greatly benefit in most cases, reducing rates to the seaboard about $20 per car. These better freight rates will allow our millers to pay better prices for grain, and so really benefits the farmers.

The saloon men have no one to blame but themselves for the intense public feeling against them by fully one-half the people of the state. Had they obeyed the present law; had they all closed up their places of business, without any exceptions, on Sundays and on legal holidays; had they not abused men for attempting to carry out the laws (which are not oppressive); had they not been so greedy and grasping as to defy demands for law and order, the prohibitory amendment would have been buried by an overwhelming majority. It has been the lawlessness of a portion—not all—of the saloons that has aroused the people, and the sooner they recognize this and come up promptly and obey the laws, the better for themselves. This vote is a warning note in which there is no uncertain sound. Will it be heeded?

The vote on the prohibitory amendment proves one thing, that local option is the only true method of dealing with the liquor traffic, by state legislation. Strong prohibition communities should be privileged to deal with the traffic as it seems best for them, and large cities and shore counties, where they do not want or for various reasons cannot enforce prohibition, should be given the same privilege, and allowed to control it by taxation and restrictive laws. Take the vote upon the amendment and analyze it by counties. By so doing you will find out where the communities are that can enforce rigid temperance measures.

The Ypsilanti Sentinel reads its party the following chapter on politics: Any Washtenaw man who wants to run for congress next time had better get himself naturalized in some other district. We hold it to be the religious duty of every democrat in this district, not of Monroe only, to visit condign punishment, on the wholesale treason of Washtenaw, to the democratic judicial candidate last Monday. If the result was brought about by the friends of any man, or men, who imagined a grievance, they have simply brought down ruin on the heads they would avenge. It would be folly to put any man to whom the result of the election can be imputed, in nomination."

Since a large number of counties in the lower part of the state have shown by strong votes that they desired prohibition, would it not be well to let them try it by local option in those counties? The counties having large cities could not enforce prohibition because of adverse prohibition sentiment therein, therefore let them have a high license, say $1,000. Thus the traffic can in a great measure be suppressed, and a much better result gained for true temperance than by a wholesale law made to be laughed at by half the population.

Arbor Day has come to be one of the fixtures of this State as much as is Thanksgiving and the 4th of July. Gov. Luce has issued his proclamation fixing upon Monday, the 25th day of April, as Arbor Day, and suggests that each citizen plant a tree in memory of some departed friend as a means of making the ceremony more interesting.

Our circuit judge will still remain a resident of this county.

Death of Mrs. Geo. H. Pond.

Nellie J. Pond, wife of City Recorder Geo. H. Pond, local editor of the COURIER, died at her home on N. Ingalls st., Friday night of consumption. The disease was rapid in its course, and relatives from Flint hardly had time to arrive before her death. She was 35 years and 11 months of age, and had been married 15 years. By her untimely departure four young children are left motherless, two of whom are now sick with measles. The funeral service conducted by Dr. Ramsay at the house Monday morning was attended by the Mayor and Common Council in a body. Beautiful flowers were brought by the Council, the press, the Register office, the COURIER office and others. After the service the procession went to the depot, where the funeral party took the train for Flint, her former home. Thus ends another sweet, modest, quiet and faithful life which will be wonderfully missed by the sorrowing family to whom the warmest sympathies of all are extended.

The Republican State ticket was elected by over 30,000. This does not appear as though the Germans had been seduced into voting the Democratic ticket to any great extent. Our friends, the enemy, will find that something besides cheap sophistry is necessary to fool our level-headed German citizens.

The cause of Ireland is constantly gaining ground under the wise leadership of Parnell who is seconded by Gladstone in nearly every position he takes. The fierceness of the opposition, with their coercive measures will also operate in Ireland's behalf. Great Britan, with the Irish given justice will be second to no nation on earth.

Rev. Dr. McGlynn has again been ordered by the pope to enter his appearance at Rome. When a boy the writer of this article used to enjoy "going to Rome" very much, especially if there were plenty of handsome girls in the room, but some way Dr. McGlynn hesitates. Perhaps the Pope's toe is not as inviting.

Of the 44 counties bordering on the lake shores of the two beautiful peninsulas of Michigan, only 11 gave majorities for the prohibitory amendment. While of the inland counties, only three, Kent, Oakland and Washtenaw gave majorities against.

The German republicans generally voted the democratic state ticket in this city, which was quite disappointing to many of the party who believe there was little excuse for such actions.

The falling off in the vote this year is 2.17 per cent. Of this the republicans lose 1.13 per cent., the democrats 18.49 per cent., and the prohibitionists 25 31.

THE OLD COUNCIL.

Meeting held Friday Evening to Close the Business of the Old Council.

The common council met on Friday evening. Present, a full board with the exception of the recorder. In the absence of Recorder Pond, Ald. Almendinger was elected recorder pro tem. Minutes read and approved.

A petition was presented signed by eighteen property owners asking for an electric light at the corner of Catherine and Division streets. Referred to the street lighting committee.

Also one signed by sixteen persons asking for an electric light at the corner of Lawrence and Thayer street. Referred as above.

The claim of Mrs. Vaughn, for clothing alleged to have lost in consequence of taking care of diphtheria patients, came up again, and was declared out of order, as it had been settled at the last meeting, by disallowing it.

The finance committee made the following report for the month of March:

3d "	7 51
6th "	2 25

General fund	577 40
Contingent fund	556 25
Total	$1,214 09

The street lighting committee reported that the matter of placing new electric lights be referred to the new council. They were of the opinion, however, that the light near the corner of Huron and Jewett streets be removed to the corner of Huron and Main streets, and that the light near the city mills be raised ten feet or more so as to throw the light over the Toledo railroad bridge.

The committee to whom was referred claim of Mrs. Gilbert, for $500, for damages sustained by falling through a defective sidewalk reported in favor of allowing her $50. The yeas and nays being called the report was accepted.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of placing a drinking fountain on the court-house square reported that a suitable fountain could be purchased for $128, and that it would cost the city $75 for water. Accepted.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of transferring the old cemetery into a park, reported that they deemed it advisable, and that a sufficient length of time be given to those who had relatives or friends burried there to remove them. In case they were not removed the graves be leveled down. The report was accepted.

The matter of opening up Detroit street to the new depot came up and receive its usual amount of discussion, but nothing definite was done.

The marshal reported the following amounts expended from the poor fund, for the month of March which was accepted and adopted:

1st ward	$ 22 95
2d "	10 25
3d "	49 55
4th "	84 82
5th "	91 48
6th "	14 65
Total	$ 273 78

The board of health was allowed the sum of $25 a piece for the year's services.

Moved by Ald. Kearns that a gold dollar be procured and have it initially engraved and presented to the mayor for his year's services. Unanimously carried.

The election returns were canvassed and found as printed in THE COURIER last week.

By Ald. Kearns: Resolved, "That we tender His Honor, the Mayor, a vote of thanks for the impartial manner in which he has presided over our deliberations." Unanimously adopted.

The mayor then arose and in a few words thanked the aldermen for the courteous treatment he had received at their hands during his administration. He recommended that the council amend the charter so as to pay the mayor $300 per year and the aldermen $2.00 a session

Council then adjourned.

The Ypsilantian pays our new depot the following compliment: "The new depot at Ann Arbor is truly a thing of beauty and it will be a joy to the University town for a long time. The abrupt change from the poorest shed on the road to the splendid and elegant structure now provided was a fitting ecognition on the part of the Michigan Central manangement of the patience and long-waiting exercised by its Ann Arbor patrons."

Annual Report of the Superintendent of Sewing School.

March closes the second year of our sewing school and the superintendent and teachers wish very much to enlist the the attention of the friends of Ann Arbor to our work. We began the year '86 with sixteen cents in the treasury. At At a meeting of the Ladies Charitable Union in January '86, it was voted the union buy the clothing made in the school and distribute among the poor of the several wards. This has been a great help to us in our school. We have been able to provide many children with new garments beside giving them instruction in sewing which they would find difficult to receive at home. There are at present ten ladies assisting in teaching the children. We meet every Saturday afternoon in Cropsey's Hall, to cut garments and instruct the children in their work. The girls are not the only ones interested. We have a class of boys who are given instruction in drawing. This branch was introduced two years ago, but the teacher left the city and it was discontinued. Recently Miss Mahan has kindly offered to assist us and now the boys have a special invitation to come to our school.

We must again call on our friends to help us either with money to buy our material or furnish us with the material. If our friends will visit us at the school they will see for themselves our needs. The school cannot support itself. During the past year we have received financial aid from Mrs. Beal, Cheever, Cady, Childs, Falkner, Frothingham, Harvey, Noble, Rathbone, Tripp, Wheeler, Walker, Washburne, Worden, Page, Royer and Root. The largest donations received are from the Congregational Sunday School, ten dollars, and from Mrs. C. B. Andrews, five dollars. We have received from the Ladies Charitable Union, for garments made, $11 50, making in all $37.46. Disbursements, $36 91. Leaving in the treasury 55 cents.

A former teacher, Miss Flora Seymour, now of York State, has given us a sewing machine which we value very much. Mr. Toms has sent us several dollars worth of literature. Gentlemen are not excluded from helpiug us. We have received liberal reductions on the material bought from our merchants, but no money has been handed us. May our appeal for help not be in vain. We need it immediately. Will not other churches send us a donation?

The funeral takes place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock

Dr. Daniel Hall.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Washtenaw County Medical Society, at its regular meeting, March 28th, 1887:

This society learns with sincere sorrow of the death of Dr. Daniel Hall, of Saline; one of its original members, who for more than a quarter of a century has attended its meetings.

In his death the society has lost a valued member, and medicine an earnest conscientious practitioner, faithful in duty to patients, and to professional obligations.

We admire the heroic courage with which he submitted to the inevitable encroachment of an incurable disease, and commend his devotion to medical science, shown not only while he lived, but continuing after his death, and contributing to the interest in pathological study, and to the disabuse of popular prejudice against post mortem examination, by requesting a necropsy of his own body.

We tender to his family our most respectful and earnest sympathy in their great bereavement.

Resolved, That the secretary be instructed to send a copy of these Resolutions to the family of our late fellow-member and to the county papers.

D. F. SCHAIRER.

The Reading, Pa., Daily Herald says: "An audience that filled the house in every part witnessed, last evening, the old but ever popular drama, 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' Not the least noticeable pleasing feature of the performance was the remarkable acting of three monster Mt. St. Bernard dogs, the finest specimens extant. These dogs are certainly marvelous and were highly admired by the audience. We cannot but vote the S. Draper company a good one, which will always be welcomed back to our city.

Jim Murphy, the athlete, trainer of Cardiff on whom Sullivan broke his wrist, and who also backed Jake Kilrain in his fight with Joe Lannon, is at present stopping in this city, and will train here, we understand, for a fight with Ike Weir to the finish, with three ounce gloves, for $2,500 and the featherweight championship of the world. The fight will take place near Boston. Murphy is a short, stocky built, a good natured looking gentleman, evidently about 40 years old, and he appears as mild and pleasant as a successful candidate for office. The last man in the world you would take for a pugilist.

Uncle Tom's Cabin was well played last night. The Topsy was good, also the jubilee singers. The other parts were well taken, and all the actor's acquitted themselves with ability, which was fully attested by the frequent and loud applause of the audience. A prominent feature of the play was the performance of the two Mount St. Bernard dogs, Sultan and Caesar and a monster Siberian bloodhound. These dogs are magnificent specimens of the canine race, while their superb acting always comes in for a large share of applause.—Cumberland, Md., Daily News.

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

IF a new merchant enter into business in your city and invite every one to come in and get acquainted and learn his business methods, IS it not FAIR to give him a call.

If Not, Why Not?

IF this merchant sells you as good goods for as little money, and uses you as well as dealers away from home, IS it JUST to give him a trial?

If Not, Why Not?

IF other dealers offer you goods which your home merchants can furnish, and maybe cheaper, or else make the outsider sell cheaper, IS it not POLICY to get your home dealer's prices and terms before buying?

If Not, Why Not?

IF a dealer is established in your own city, where you can always find him to have errors corrected and differences adjusted and who is reliable and responsible, IS it not BEST to buy of him where you can know everything will be as represented?

If Not, Why Not?

IF a man works to merit the confidence of the people, does everything on the square tells things as the are, uses you honestly and well, IS it not RIGHT to give him your trade?

If Not, Why Not?

He cut out a pane of glass, entered and stole about $6.00 and a bottle of whisky. He was seen by Mr. Gibney, who notified the officers and they arrested him, Patterson acknowledging the theft. If the young men from Ann Arbor who visit this city in carriages on Sundays, do not wish to be regarded and treated as roughs and law-breakers, they will need to conduct themselves with more decency and propriety than they have been credited with heretofore. The forbearance of our officers is finally exhausted and the youth and evident ignorance of the young men will excuse them no longer. Ann Arbor papers please copy.—Ypsilantian.

The University Calendar has just been issued and shows the university to be in a more prosperous condition than at any previous time during its existance. There are 1572 students enrolled as follows:—Literary 693; medical 321; law 338; pharmacy 67; homœopathic 62; dental 91. Besides these there are two entered in the university too late for the calendar, making a total of 1574.

The University boys seem to be coming to the front in good style as judges. For instance, E. D. Kinne, '64, was elected in this Circuit by 2,500 majority, when there is about that majority on the Democratic side,—an unparallelled run. Robert J. Kelly, '68, in the 26th district overcame a 200 adverse majority and had 300 majority. Joseph H. Steere, '76, in a Democratic District was re-elected without opposition. Verily a college education pays.

Of the students enrolled in the university, the different states and countries are represented as follows: Michigan, 791; Illinois, 138; Ohio, 119; Indiana, 72; New York, 66; Pennsylvania, 55; Iowa, 40; Minnesota, 35; Wisconsin, 24; Kansas, 20; Missouri, 20; California, 19; Kentucky, 14; Dakota, 8; Massachusetts, 8; Nebraska, 8; Oregon, 8; Colorado, 7; Utah, 7; Maine, 5; Montana, 5; Maryland, 4; Arkansas, 3; Connecticut, 3; Idaho, 3; New Jersey, 3; Texas, 3; Alabama, 2; Delaware, 2; New Hampshire, 2; Rhode Island, 2; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 2; District of Columbia, 1; North Carolina, 1; West Virginia, 1; Wyoming, 1; Ontario, 29; Japan, 9; New Brunswick, 6; England, 5; Nova Scotia, 5; Hawaiian Islands, 3; Italy, 2; Manitoba, 2; Turkey, 2; Costa Rica, 1; Guatemlra, 1; Province of Quebec, 1; Russia, 1; United States of Columbia, 1.

On Friday morning, the junior and freshmen medical students and the dental students jointly presented to the university a life size portrait of Prof. C. L. Ford, as a token of the esteem in which the professor is held by the students. The presentation speeches were made by Douglass Sewell, of the medical department and Wm. Saunders of the dental department. President Angell responded in behalf of the university, accepting the portrait, and thanking the students for the interest and love taken in Prof. Ford, who by thirty-three years of hard labor haas made the medical department what it is. He was followed by Prof. A. B. Palmer and Prof. C. L. Ford. The portrait is an excellent likeness, representing Prof. Ford in his usual position while lecturing, with a skull in one hand and a pointer in the other. A. O. Revenaugh, of Jackson, was the artist, and the picture is valued at $500. It has been placed in the art gallery.

AMUSEMENTS.

Don't fail to hear the U. of M. Glee Club at University Hall Thursday April 14.

Sig. Ronconi filled the part of Don Basilio (Il Barbiere) and his acting was remarkably effective, and his vocalization was good. He sang in fine voice the grand air La Calunnia. —Colombo. April 22d at University Hall.

An audience that would have been a credit to the foremost actors of the day was present at the opera house on Friday evening to hear the Michigan University Glee Club in their college songs and nonsense. The programme was varied, just such a musical melange as college students are capable of. The selections were inclined toward the humorous, which indeed, the audience heartily enjoyed, but the ballads were all sung with charming effect, precision and perfect harmony being observed in every selection. The warbling of Mr. Pittman and the flute-toned whistling of Mr. Clark were received with prolonged applause. The chair drill was something unique, and took the house by storm. The club, during their stay in Ottawa were handsomely entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Taylor. They proved themselves gentlemen, every one of them. They are warmly welcomed wherever they appear, and the Journal wishes them much success and unbounded fun wherever they appear.—Ottawa, Ill., Journal.

Go and hear M. H. Clark, the whistler, in the Glee Club concert, University Hall, Thursday April 14th.

The Hungarian Rhapsodie (No. 14) of Liszt, played by the Listemann Company, was given with great smoothness and unity of attach. As a whole, the Listemann Concert was extremely interesting and enjoyable, and the excellence of the performance rendered the frequent encores less monotonous than usual.—Chicago Times. April 22d in University Hall.

On April 18th the Unity Club are to have a very interesting program. The entertainment consists of the dramatization of an old English ballad, entitled, "The Blind Beggar of Bethnal Greene." The ballad is one of the most popular ever written in England. Its plot or story is briefly this: Simon de Montfort, the great Earl of Leicester, was killed in the battle of Evesham, Aug. 4, 1265 at the head of the revolted barons. His eldest son, Henry, was reported as slain but was according to the ballad, saved by a princess who finaly married him. Fearing he would be executed for his part in the uprising, he lived for many years as the blind beggar of Bethnal Green. Bessie, his daughter, sets forth to seek her fortune. She has many suitors but they all turn from her upon learning that she is the daughter of a blind beggar, except a young knight. He determines to marry her despite the protestations of his relatives and friends. At the marriage feast Bessies father appears as a minstrel and sings the romance of his life to the astonished company. The ballad will be read by the talented elocutionist, Miss Scrafford. Mrs. Higgins and Mr. Boyle have the management. A great amount of time has been spent on the acting and upon the costumes of the time. It will probably be the most unique thing given in Ann Arbor in a long time.

Oroveso, the chief of the Druids (Norma) was represented by Sig. Ronconi whose magnificent bass voice was employed with great power and effect.—Alexandria, April 22d in University Hall.

THE KIRMES.

The order now is for a "quick step" in the Kirmes, as in about two weeks it will be produced. Every class should be full —every member in place— and each doing his or her utmost to contribute to the success of this charming entertainment. The scene of preparation is in a room the Court House—which is made festive with the sounds of music— a piano, castenet, and "light fantastic toes" echo through its halls. But all this preliminary practice gives only a slight foretaste of what the final result will be when each class is in costume and perfect training to illustrate "the poetry of motion" in the National Dances. The second evening of the Kirmes, Friday the 29th of April, ends with a "Soirée Dansante," for which the performers and audience will adjourn to the rink, where music and refreshments will await them.

Dramatic Club.

The University Dramatic club will appear April 15, in Leganvé's comedy, The Ladies' Battle. The cast of characters is as follows:

LeBaron de Montrichard.....Geo. W. Whyte
Henry de Flavigneul.....F. W. Mehlhop
Gustave de Grignon.....J. D. Lee
The Countess d'Autreval,
.....Miss Ida Belle Winchell
Leonie de la Villegontiel, Miss Annie Wilsnn

DON'T USE BIG WORDS!

In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified conciseness, compacted comprehensibleness, coalescent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and asinine affectations. In trying to impress upon others the superiority, reliability, and purity of all medicines and chemicals at Goodyear's Drug Store it is not necessary to use jawbreakers. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhodomontade or thrasonical bombast. Sedulously avoid all pollysyllabic profundity psittaceous vacuity, ventriloqual verbosity vandiloquent vapidity; shun double entendres, prurient jocosity and pestiferous profanity obscurent or apparent. In other words, talk plainly, naturally, sensibly, and truthfully, say, that Goodyear's Drug Store is really the best place in Washtenaw County to buy pure drugs, etc., at low prices; also that especial attention is given to the careful preparation of prescriptions and family medicines.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Colds, Coughs, and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.

He said he had to get out of his dark cell.

A Great Battle

is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

Chronic Coughs and Colds,

And all diseases of the throat and Lungs, can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in their fullest form. Is a beautiful creamy Emulsion, palatable as milk, easily digested, and can be taken by the most delicate. Please read: "I consider Scott's Emulsion the remedy par-excellence in Tuberculous and Strumous Affections, to say nothing of ordinary colds and throat troubles."—W. R. S. Connell, M. D., Manchester, O.

"Mother don't the angels wear any clothes?" asked a San Antonio, Texas girl of her mother. "No, my daughter." "None at all, mother?" "None at all." There was a pause, and the little cherub asked: "Where do the angels put their pocket handkerchiefs?"—Texas Siftings.

YOUNG'S COUGH SYRUP

Dansville, Mich., Aug. 15, 1874.—I was attacked with a severe cold and threatened with lung fever while on a visit to Hudson, Mich., about a month ago, so much so that I was unable to fill an appointment to preach on account of my severe coughing, but managed to get home and immediately took some of Dr. E. A. Young's Cough & Lung Syrup I had in the house, and my cough left me as soon as I commenced taking it, and I find permanent relief when I am attacked by cough or lung complaint.
REV. ROBT. COPE.

Howell, Mich., Oct. 26, 1874.—I have tried Dr. E. A. Young's Cough and Lung Syrup for more than a year, as I had occasion, as a remedy for Colds and Coughs, and found it a reliable medicine. I have used his Ague and Liver Syrup in my family with the best of success, curing my mother (whose age was over seventy years) of one of the hardest attacks of Fever and Ague, after the second chill and fever. I take pleasure in recommending the above remedies to all who need them.
