Chelsea's high school pupils set stars, to-morrow. Chelsea reports 15 foreign scholars in her schools. The Echo says the plug hat craze has struck Chelsea.

Patrick Smith and Margaret Keelan of Chelsea, were married Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Juliet Cooley, wife of John Cooley, of Lima, died April 18th, aged 63 years.

The village board of Chelsea gave the publishing of the proceedings of their doings to the Echo for $25, while the Herald wanted $40. And the Herald grows factions over the act and believes it the publication of these minutes is only to satisfy a form of law, without regard to the object of the law, then posting a copy of the minutes on the back door of the clerk's horseman might be made to answer every purpose, and the law should be so changed. It would probably cost the village nothing at all.

Burglars visited the residence of David Waite in Dexter village, on Monday evening of last week, taking that gentleman's watch, a pair of shoes, and getting about $5 for their trouble. E. E. Burnham, father of George W. Burnham, the manager of the Indianapolis team, met with an accident by which his knee cap was broken, by falling recently at his home in Milan.

Mr. Watson Snyder has purchased the building known as Crane's trannery, and will convert it to some good purpose. The upper part will be raised to a full story, and become a public hall.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

A new time table on the T. & A. R. R. is to be promulgated this week.

At least four saloons will not take out their papers for another year's business, finding it unprofitable.

There were eight persons baptized and received into membership of the Baptist church last Sunday evening.

"June 11! Oh, dear, its a awful long while yet, ain't it," was the exclamation of an enthusiastic youngster on the streets recently.

A floral festival is to be given at the Baptist church, Friday evening, May 6th. This is the annual flower sale given by the ladies of this society.

The peach buds are in prime condition, and if Jack Frost will stay up north where he belongs we shall have a big peach crop. Other fruit buds are in prime condition.

Last Saturday evening many of the young folks enjoyed themselves by hanging May baskets, filled with wild flowers upon the door knobs of their friends. It is a pretty custom.

Judge Campbell, of the supreme court, lectures in Hobart Hall, Thursday, May 5, at 8 p. m. on the "Relations of University and Religious Teaching." Seats free, and all invited.

Christian Mack, of this city, has been elected a director of the Citizens Savings Bank, of Detroit, and W. W. Hannan, formerly of this city, has had a like honor conferred upon him.

A cow with a ring in her nose, a long rope attached to the ring, and a model of the rope made a lively performance for a crowd of fifty or sixty persons on Liberty st., near Fourth st., Monday.

Among the lucky winners of prizes at the bazaar, given by the St. Mary's church, of Chelsea, we notice the name of Edward Duffy, of this city, who won an elegant easy chair, and a drinking cup.

For the first time in the history of Arbor Kent K. O. T. M., a death has occurred in the ranks of its membership, in that of Frank Hangsterfer, and the loss, we understand, was paid in full, $1,000 on Friday last. Pretty quick work.

Now, that the spring is fully upon us, the poets are awakening to a realizing sense of their duty to mankind, and are endeavoring to charm the inhabitants of this suburban sphere by singing of swells buds and mating birds.

Last Thursday Prof. Bur and wife celebrated their 30th marriage anniversary. The fact of their having seven children all healthy and happy and doing well in life is something to rejoice over. The couple were married in Germany.

There will be a meeting of the school board this evening, when it is understood that an effort will be made by certain parties to give the architects the contract for erecting the new building without their giving bonds that it shall come within the appropriation.

J. D. Baldwin has not lost faith in the fruit producing virtues of this climate, and is setting out 2,600 peach trees this spring. A large part of them is what is known as the "Hiscock piece," near the Catholic cemetery, and the balance near his home east of the city.

Up to this, Wednesday noon there had been paid into the county treasury as liquor taxes, the following amounts: Ann Arbor, $5,680; Chelsea, $1,200; Dexter, $1,700; Lima, $200; Lodi, $300; Manchester, $365; Milan, 600; Saline, $900; Seco, $200; Ypsilanti, $1,615.

Post Master Duffy informs us that the men who are putting up mail boxes in the city are acting on their own hook, and are not authorized by the U. S. authorities as it is claimed has been represented. When the free delivery is adopted our own merchants will have these boxes for sale.

The Lake House at Whitmore Lake was struck by lightning Monday p. m., at about 1 1/2 o'clock, and damaged considerably. One young lady, a daughter of Carl Schlimmer was severely shocked, perhaps fatally. Alfred Stevens is the proprietor, and his loss will be considerable.

The old 4th Michigan Infantry, of which Co. D. was raised in this city, will hold its annual reunion here on the 23d of June next. This is the first reunion this regiment has ever held here, and the citizens ought to join together and give what few there remains of the boys a right royal welcome.

On Monday, May 9th occurs the twenty-first anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the Methodist Episcopal church of Ann Arbor, and the fifteenth of the building of the old church. It will be observed at that time with appropriate exercises, in the Lecture room of the church, commencing at 8 p. m. Admission free.

A sad "commentary upon facts" occurred on one of our streets Monday. A little boy evidently about three years of age, had become lost, and one of our business men was endeavoring to find out where child he was and where he lived. Finally he asked the boy: "What does your pa do?" "Oh, he gets drunk," was the reply in baby language.

The Old Mission Beach Association was formed at Lansing last Thursday, for the purpose of founding a new summer resort, under the new bill passed at this session for the incorporation of such societies. Major W. C. Ransom is the president and Evert H. Scott one of the trustees. Other members of the association here are Maj. Wm. C. Stevens, Dr. W. F. Braskey, Dr. V. C. Vaughan, Col. H. S. Dean and J. E. Beal.

The Dundee Reporter thus encourages the gas well enterprise of that place: "Dr. Louis Rominger, of Ann Arbor, son of Dr. Rominger, late State Geologist, and thoroughly conversant with the geology of Michigan by explorations and study with his father, was in town yesterday investigating the Nogar gas well. Had with him maps and charts showing that same gas and oil producing species rock of the Ohio fields extend under this portion of the State, and oil exists in large quantities underneath this region. The rock formations already drilled are in accord with his charts for this section. He was accompanied by E. K. Freunauf, also of Ann Arbor."

The Hobart Guild building is open days and evenings now.

Rev. S. W. Bird, of Whitmore Lake, was in the city yesterday.

Cheer up, book-agent! Remember that Luther James was once a book agent.

Ernest Lutz will be found behind the counter at Wines & Worden's hereafter.

J. T. Jacobs is bragging over twin Holstein calves down at Cherrysale farm.

Mrs. John Webber, who resided on W. Liberty st., 2nd ward, died yesterday noon.

We shall have a drinking fountain this season on the court house square for man, beast and dogs.

Friday of this week is the last day of the Domestic Sewing Machine exhibit, so Capt. Schuh tells us.

Why don't the Board of Health come around? plenty of water closets are sending out their malarial effluvia.

Ion. Wm. Ball, of Hamburg, shipped last week eleven sheep to South America, a distance of about 8,000 miles.

Mr. Hanson has commenced the erection of a handsome new residence upon the vacant lot on Fourth st., next north of Wm. McCree's.

A bushel of potatoes and a bushel of wheat just about balance each other in this market in a financial sense, with slight favor to the potatoes.

In the Bohemian note case of Wines & Stafford against F. C. Huseon in the circuit court yesterday, a verdict was rendered in favor of complainants.

The new street leading to the M. C. station house will be named after the venerable Peter Carey who has held forth so many years at the foot of Detroit st.

Prof. Chas. Lowrie, who went to Wyoming several months since, in search of better health, is improving rapidly. A fact his many friends here will be glad to learn.

Miss Mary Kuebler and Wm. Vogel are to be married to-morrow, by Rev. Belser. The couple will commence house-keeping at once at their new home in the 21st ward.

Geo. S. Wheeler has been appointed supervisor of Salem, in place of Thos. D. Lane, who is unable to perform the work because of his enfeebled condition arising from a recent accident.

A team of horses attached to a democrat wagon, the property of G. W. McCormick, of Northfield, were taken from in front of Keck's store on Liberty st. yesterday forenoon at about 11 o'clock. The sheriff is after him.

The north end of State street will be graded, the gutters tiled, and a six foot walk laid to Fuller st., meeting the stone walk of the M. C. R. R. That's an improvement which will be appreciated by the public in general.

It is quite evident that David Henning has not lost all love for his old home, for it has been largely through his influence and aid that the city has been enabled to complete the arrangement to open the new street from Detroit st. to the new M. C. R. R. station house.

Last Easter eve the Congregational church at Salem was tastefully trimmed and over 800 had assembled to listen to an essay by Miss Flora Goodale, of Ann Arbor, entitled "Easter," it was written in good style, and was well received. The crowd departed feeling that it was good to have been there.

Chairman Swift, of the Finance Committee of the Council requests us to announce that during the coming year all bills against the city not in the hands of the committee on the last Friday of each month will not be allowed until the next month. Also that all bills presented must be certified to by the parties ordering the goods or the bills will not be audited.

"That republican council," is a favorite fling of the Argus. Well, "that republican council" elected a democratic city marshal and elected a democratic patrolman, and they are classed as foreigners, too. While the city treasurer is proud of being a German though born in this country. Hadn't you better ride some other hobby for a few minutes Bro. Argus?

Dr. W. W. Ramsay lectured last evening at Adrian before the Sunday School Institute, and Dr. S. H. Adams lectures there this evening. Next Sunday Dr. Ramsay addresses the people of the Cass Ave. M. E. church in Detroit, at a Memorial service to David Preston. His pulpit in this city will be supplied by Rev. J. F. Berry, editor of the Christian Advocate.

The pamphlet committee of the Business Men's Association held a meeting last evening, and reported that cuts of nearly or quite all the public buildings, churches, university buildings, schools, depots, etc., had been secured for the proposed pamphlet which it was hoped could be issued in time for the semi-centennial of the meeting of the M. C. R. R. T. & A. R. R.'s were to furnish several views along their tracks near the city, also.

In 1830 Amasa Gillett, the father of Mrs. John J. Robison, bought a lot of standing walnut and whitewood trees in Sharon, giving a bushel of wheat for each tree. He cut the trees and ratted the logs on the Raisin river to Clinton to be sawed. Some of the walnut logs sank in the water and remained therein for about fifty years, when they were taken out and found to be solid as the day they were cut. The logs were then sawed up and Mr. Robison is now having an office desk made out of some of the lumber. This walnut is no chestnut.

During the visit of the Inter State Commerce Commission at Atlanta Ga. last week "The Constitution" had the following comments about our fellow citizens: "Judge Cooley, albeit a keenly intellectual looking man, is not unlike a Methodist preacher in appearance. He is not only a ripe scholar but an eloquent orator and trenchant writer. His works on "Statutory Limitations" and "Torts" are standard text books and are esteemed as second to none in the English language. Judge Cooley possesses an equable temper, is amiable, courteous, but resolute and spirited. He is held in the warmest esteem by his associates."

Last Sunday, May 1st, was the anniversary of Rev. Mr. Ryder's connection with the Congregational church, behaving now as pastor of the church for ten years. During the first five years of this time some $11,000 were raised to pay off interest at the balance of debt on the church. The contributions for benevolent purposes outside the church during this time were $3,000. During the second five years as large as when the debt was being raised, $10,000 being given for benevolent work without the church during the second period, making a total of $13,000 for such work during the ten years. The total amount raised for all purposes by the church during the ten years has been a little more than $57,000. The resident membership of the church ten years ago numbered 1,100. Since then 37 have been received, and 114 were received on confession; if total membership now is 346.
