BANQUET NOTES.

The crowd was a good looking one. The University boys filled one table and a half of another.

The speakers referred to Washington very kindly, but roasted the mugwumps and free traders without compunction.

The Washnet delegation and the students filled three long tables, and were given a fairly good location.

Every speaker save Finnerty and McKinley addressed three-fourths of their speech to the people on their left...

There were some democrats present, among whom we noticed the always pleasant face of Prof. M. E. Cooley.

The following gentlemen were present at the banquet at the Washnet tables: E. W. Scott, J. E. Sumner, J. B. Meekin, E. J. Adams...

THE LAKE OF THE WOODS. A Letter Descriptive of the Same and Its Surroundings.

[The following letter written to Mrs. Clarissa D. Prudden, of this city, we are permitted to copy through her kindness.

MAIDEN, Mo., Dec. 27, 1887. Yours of the 10th, inquiring about the Lake of the Woods, received. At the outset I must remind you that Minnesota covers an immense area.

Lake of the Woods is a great, shaggy expanse of fresh water, some seventy-five miles in extent, North and South, and nearly an equal distance East and West...

It has several long arms extending into the land, so that in some directions it will measure one hundred miles in extent.

Minnesota is distinguished for the number and beauty of its lakes, the entire number being estimated at ten thousand.

The English and Canadian governments have ordered the Canadian frontier forts put in good condition, and are arranging for the erection of extensive fortifications along the same.

The national democratic convention has been called to meet in St. Louis, on June 3d.

The mugwumps in New York are running down hill. Cleveland would like to do that job pretty well himself.

All of the "social clubs" in prohibition counties will have to pay the government tax. Many of them have already complied with the ruling.

How many of our democratic friends have had the candor to state while crowing over the recent election in the 11th district, that Mr. Breen is a Knight of Labor, and a notorious protectionist?

Besides prohibition, Coldwater has, according to Sunday Life, a society known as the "Bachelor's Defensive Union," formed for the purpose of protecting its bashful and virtuous old young men from the wiles of the deceitful and designing Coldwater maidens during the terrible leap year.

The city of Newark, N. J. relates her experience in tariff reduction. A few years ago 2,000 of her people were engaged in the manufacture of pearl buttons.

The Alger boom seems to be troubling our democratic friends very much. They don't appear to relish it so very much.
Rev. W. B. Millard, of St. Clair, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Anybody wanting to buy feet will find "about forty" of them for sale, by W. W. Whedon, according to a sign on E-Ann st.
Chas. M. Root, of this place, but now of Monmouth, Ill., was married on the 15th inst., to Miss Maggie Kennedy, of that place.

W. E. Walker, more familiarly known as Ed., will build a new residence upon his lot, cor. Washington and 12th sts., this spring.
The Washtenaw boys found Charlie Woodward at the Brunswick in Detroit, last week looking as good natured and well liked as of old.

There was a strife between the moon and the electric lights Sunday evening, but the moon came out ahead in point of brightness. Quite a luxury to have both.
David Henning, of this city and Chicago, has given $1,000 to the endowment of Akley college, Grand Haven. Bishop Gillespie has given $500 for the same purpose.

Prof. Hinsdale, successor to Prof. Payne, not only takes his place in college but also in the Presbyterian Bible class, held after the Sunday morning service. Walter Miller at the same hour has a class in the study of the Greek testament.

Notice has been received in the city, of the death of Mrs. Frances A. Hobart, at her home in Big Rapids, on Sunday, Feb. 26th, aged 65 years, 8 months. Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church, in that city yesterday. Mrs. Hobart was a former resident of this city, the mother of Scott Hobart, for 20 many years a clerk in Dean & Co.'s store.

There was some excitement at the 2d ward polls Monday, owing to a difference of opinion arising between some of the anti-loan option workers there and some of the students who went there to electioneer. Things looked pretty hot for a time, and we believe a few blows were exchanged, but the whole affair has been exaggerated largely. The crowd that gathered was a big one, and had it not been for the wise and energetic counsels of Sheriff Wash, Chief Siple, Herman Hutzel, ex-Mayor Kapp and a number of students whose names we did not learn, there might have been considerable of a battle. Such things are to be deplored, and would probably not occur very often.

Monthly meetings of the Pomological Society next Saturday p. m. Do not fail to remember it.
Eugene Helber, of Saline expects to go to England in a few months to purchase some blooded stock.
The extreme cold weather of Sunday prevented much electioneering on both sides of the question.
Our local fruit growers assert that fruit buds of all kinds have not been injured as yet. Good news.

This is the last month, last week, and last day in the week of winter. To-morrow is spring. Listen to the singing of the birds—in the cages.
The Ann Arbor school of Pedagogy is to hold its session in this city in August next, from the 4th to the 19th, when Prof. Payne will be present.
Mrs. Nathan Keith, an old resident of Dexter, died this morning of pneumonia. She was mother to Mrs. Eugene E. Beal, and sister to George H. and Miss Abbie Pond, of this city.
These sudden changes in the weather from quite mild to extremely cold is what kills the winter wheat, and unless it stops before long will ruin fruit buds also.
The Huron river was more than "full" after the rain last Saturday morning. It was quite a sight to see the angry waters "rushing." Better than a post-office rush by a long way.

Mr. Harry Wyeth, a lit. student, of the Psi U. persuasion, is to be married next Wednesday, March 7th, to Miss Daisy Richardson, of this city. It is understood that the couple will take up their residence in Florida.
Blitz & Langsdorf have opened a branch store in Alpena, where the former has gone to give it a start. Alpena is a flourishing city and it must be a good point for clothing houses, for it takes lots of clothes to keep one warm up there.

Volapuk for bride is jam. Now isn't that musical? Just think saying "Oh! thou sweet and lovely jam, come to my arms, that I may impress upon thy ruby lips a kiss?" and she in return "thou canst not noble Jim jam," which is supposed to be Volapuk for "bridgework." For a spell yet we shall cling to English.
The registration in this city shows a good healthy growth. The numbers added and stricken off in the various wards were as follows: 1st ward, 105 names added, 19 stricken off; 2d ward, 72 added, 25 stricken off; 3d ward, 77 added, 32 stricken off; 4th ward, 94 added, 107 stricken off; 5th ward 31 added, 34 stricken off.

A. L. Noble is to extend his store back 30 feet. Seven feet of the new extension will be added to the hat and cap department and 23 feet will be devoted to boys' and children's clothing, and the second story will be used for packing and opening goods. Mr. Henry Bilton has the contract for building this addition, and the work will proceed as soon as the weather will permit.

Judge Patman speaking of the reading of books says: "It is the books we read before middle life that do most to mould our characters and influence our lives; the books that ate with us in the leisure of youth, that we love for a time not only with the enthusiasm but with something of the exclusiveness of a first love, are those that enter in as factors forever our mental life."
John Widman, who lives about two miles south of this city was seriously injured Saturday by a man named Jacob Waidlich. It seems that the two knew each other in the old country, and that Waidlich had called and asked to stay all night, which Widman refused and drove him out of the yard. Waidlich then turned upon Widman with a knife and stabbed him. He is now in jail awaiting the result of his victim's injuries.

Jacob Jedele, of Scio township, died Tuesday last week, in the 60th year of his age. He came to this country 52 years ago, when but 8 years of age, and with his parents settled on the farm where he died. The funeral services were held in the Scio Lutheran church, Thursday, and were attended by a very large concourse of friends. He was one of the most highly respected German citizens in the city.
The members of Welch Post G. A. R. of Ann Arbor, desire to express to their friends their hearty thanks for the generous assistance so cheerfully rendered, by which they have been enabled to furnish, and render attractive their new hall, South-east corner of Main and Washington sts., third floor, that their friends may see for themselves what has been done, and how comfortable the Post is now located. Welch Post will have open doors, and hold an informal reception at the above named place, over the store of Joe T. Jacobs & Co., on Friday, March 2d, from 2 to 6 p. m., and from 7 to 9 p. m., at which times every one, ladies and gentlemen, will be cordially welcome. By request of Welch Post, No. 137, Dept. of Mich. G. A. R.
The church door women beggars that appeared at some of our churches last Sunday with babes in their arms, asking alms, were found to be a gang of professionals. There were three women and the same number of men in the party, and they seemed to be quite successful in finding people foolish enough to give them. At one place one of the women gathered in about $3.00 from the household and roomers there. It is charity thrown away to give to these beggars. They are dead-bats and thieves in nearly every instance. If there are deserving poor, who need assistance there are legitimate ways of procuring such assistance. No one need beg or starve in this city as no one deserving of aid has been or will be refused it. It is a notable fact that the people who are destitute are the last ones who will go about seeking alms. They are often too diffident or too proud to let their wants be known, and their necessities have to be sought by charitable people. We have several ladies engaged in this most commendable work, who are assisting Christians and noble, self-sacrificing souls. If our citizens could find it in their hearts to send the street beggars from their doors they would be doing an act of practical good service for in giving to such people they are simply placing a premium on mendacity.

PERSONALS.
Miss May Whedon was home from her St. Clair seminary Sunday.
Wm. Kline of the Amsterdam Democrat, N. Y., made us a call yesterday. He was the guest of Eugene Able.
Last Saturday evening Mrs. John Burg, gave a party to forty-five of the companions of her son Johnnie, whose sad death last summer our citizens so well remember.
Mrs. Carrie Hoyt, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. A. E. Gregg and family. Mrs. Hoyt is on her way home to Hartford, Conn., after a two months' stay in Europe and an extended visit with friends in the East.

UNIVERSITY ITEMS.
Gibson takes the senior law prizes.
The course in oratory is said to be no snare this year.
The Argus office will print the Oracle this year.
The Jeffersonian society is to renovate and refit its hall.
Prof. Rogers' lectures on Roman Law are very popular.
Lots of plucked ones this year in German, French and Latin.
Base ballists should be at the rink Saturday at 9 o'clock a. m.
The Junior hoc committee have a set up at Hanks, Friday evening.
The senior engineers are getting some practical work in Toledo this week.
There were 14 of the laws who went down to the republican club banquet.
President C. K. Adams of Cornell has been in the city during the past week.
The Chronicle thinks that the base ball team this year will be a very strong one.
One day's proceeds of W. W. Bliss's billiard hall for the gym. amounted to $10.
The Owosso Times pronounces the entertainment given by the Glee Club as a fine one.
A collection of 6,000 volumes of American poetry has been presented to Brown University.
F. E. Baker, lit. '82, was married last week Tuesday at his home in Goshen, Indiana, to May I. W. D.

The gym. is again on the upgrade. Put it down in your memorandum book that she is going to get there.
The Glee Club are getting in excellent shape for their coming trip, which they hope to make very successful.
The description by Prof. Carhart of his new laboratory in another column will be found of much interest.
Prof. Rogers takes Prof. Winchell's place as trustee of the S. C. A., and Prof. Demmon the place of Prof. Payne.
Prof. Scheerle will not leave the University this semester, but remains here during the year. Which is good news.
E. E. Hubbard has been chosen to take the editorial chair on the Bulletin made vacant by the resignation of J. N. McBride.
The next Chamber concert will occur on Friday evening in the law lecture hall, instead of Hobart Hall. Please remember the change.

The subscribers to the gym. fund since our last list, are: Senators Stockbridge, and Palmer, Gov. Luce and Col. John A. Kirkson, each $100.
In the prohibition parade last Saturday afternoon there were just 203 students by actual count, or one-eighth of those in attendance upon the University. They made a very respectable showing.
Prof. Dewey has accepted the Chair of Philosophy in the University of Minnesota. There are others in the faculty that could be better spared than Prof. Dewey, who, though young in years, has made a name for himself as a good teacher in his special line of study.

C. A. Read, of the University Republican Club, was made assistant secretary of the League Convention at Detroit last Wednesday, and H. B. Dewey vice-president for the state league. D. K. Cochran was chairman of the delegation. The boys were so scattered at the banquet tables in the evening that the U. of M. fell out of materialize.
Of all other things the scheme to build a gymnasium should not fail. When we think of the number of alumni, and the number who are directly interested it seems like child's play to raise the modest sum of $10,000 with which to erect a building to be used as a gymnasium. Every student now in attendance upon the university should drop a dollar into the fund to help it along, that alone would make over $1,000, or one-sixth of all that it is proposed to raise. Then the alumni should interest themselves in their alma mater. There are some of them who could give several hundred of dollars and never feel the gift. It should not drag along over two or three years, but be closed up by the next commencement, and knowing what we do about it, it is our firm opinion that it will be.

The joint program of the Alpha Nu and Jeffersonian societies occurs at the U. of M. hall on the evening of March 3d Friday. Prof. H. W. Rogers will preside and the Chequamegon furnish the music. The program is as follows:
Musio, Orchestra.
Glee, J. N. McBride, Alpha Nu.
Recitation, O. E. Meijziussen, Jeffersonian.
Instrumental Solo, Miss Julia Carruthers.
Oratorio, W. C. H. Koenig, Jeffersonian.
Musio, Orchestra.
Vocal Solo.
Lions, N. C. Robinson, that co-operation is a satisfactory solution of the labor problem? Affirmative, E. S. Shaw, A. N.; Negative, A. E. Johnson, Jeffersonian.
The Chronicle has new a new force at the helm, who propose to make things boom. The new board is composed as follows: Managing Editor, H. K. White; Assistant Managing Editor, Various Topics, W. R. Parker; Various Topics, W. J. Beckley; General Literature, Jas. Chalmers; Things Chronicked, H. H. Brown, J. B. Burt, A. E. Rowley; Personals, G. H. Kiefer; Exchanges, Lincoln MacMillan; Literary Notes, H. B. Bracewell; Business Manager, Chas. Hyde; Department Reporters—Medical, Frank Chaffer; Law, Chas. Alling, Jr.; Pharmacy, F. D. Wiseman; Homoeopathy, G. D. Arndt.

Gov. Luce, in giving $100 to the gymnasium fund sets a good example to our farmer friends. This gift shows that a governor understands what so few farmers will admit, that it is the sons and daughters of the farmers who need this gymnasium more than any other class. They come here with strong, healthy bodies, made so by out door exercise and contact with the pure open air. They go into rooms, give up almost entirely physical exercise and work with the brain is substituted for work with the hands. Any one who knows anything about the human system knows that this is debilitating and will soon wear out the strongest constitution. A gymnasium will furnish for these very students what they so much need, and what they cannot now obtain, viz: good exercise and plenty of it. The gymnasium is not intended to take the place of study in any degree, but to give strength and vigor to the body that the brain may have more healthy action. Gov. Luce evidently understands this thoroughly and by giving his money to aid in the construction of a gymnasium, gives just so much to the good health, vigor and strength of the young men and young ladies who come here from the farm. Which class comprise nearly two-thirds of all those in the university.

Among the books which he prizes highly the local editor of the COURIER has two volumes made up of programs, etc., of both the university and high school, and of other things that happened in this city in the days when he was a boy. Among these is Vol. I, No. 1, of

The University Independent, dated November, 1861. It is a magazine of some 36 pages, and contains a number of excellent articles, quite up to the standard of the average college publication of to-day. What might also be of interest in student circles is the program of the "Burning of Mechanics, by the Class of '61," also the program for the "Public Execution of Mechanics, by the Class of '63," and the "Suspension of the Physical Corby by the Class of '65." These programs are gotten up in a humorous vein, and are even now quite a curiosity to the average college student. Those were "wild nights," we very well remember, but were crushed out by the faculty with the last mentioned program. In these volumes is also the "Address by Hon. Thomas M. Cooley, and Poem by D. Bethune Duffield, Esq., on the Dedication of the Law Lecture Hall," Oct. 1st, 1863. There is also a copy of the second Palladium. It was issued in 1860 and contains 24 pages. There are also several programs for "Junior Exhibitions,"—long since done away with,—and also several "Commencement Exercises" programs for the different departments. "A General Catalogue of the Officers and Graduates from 1857 to 1864" is also to be found, as well as many other pamphlets and papers which the owner values very much. Among the high school papers is a catalogue containing the name of the assassin Guitau among the pupils.

W. J. Acker, living over the postoffice, is the happiest man in town. Cause, the arrival of a ten pound girl on Feb. 27th. Dr. Mead, of Dundee, reports mother and baby doing well.
Last Saturday was the 47th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pack, of the third ward, and their relatives and friends gave them a surprise in the evening. There were a number of fine presents and a general good time.
A fishing party consisting of A. J. Sawyer, J. E. Sumner, Peter Cook of Urania, and Dr. Armstrong of Chelsea returned yesterday from Lake George on the upper T. A. A. & N. M. road. They had 500 minnows, caught weather, lots of fun and some fish.
In three precincts of this city the return blank which was to have been sent to the city clerk was placed in the box and sealed up with the ballots, and if the clerk goes into that box after them he is liable to be sent to state's prison. Election returns that can't be got at are not very valuable.

ENTERTAINMENTS.
Remember the chamber concert at the law lecture hall next Friday.
The Naiad Queen is drawing big crowds at the opera house, and is a good entertainment.
Miss Maddern will not appear here again very soon probably, as she expects to go to Europe next season and capture the old world including the Prince of Wales.
Uncle Tom's Cabin drew two full houses Saturday p. m. and evening. Uncle Tom never fails to draw. Although this play is a chestnut, it is one of the sweet kind whose flavor lingers long after being masticated.
If there is anything that is right down pleasing (?) to a person at an entertainment, it is to get seated in front of some fellow who has a bag full of peanuts and sets and "crunches" them during the play. Somewhat hogish, but then, it is pleasant (?).
Miss Maddern's present season has been one continual tour of success, both financially and socially. During her engagement in Brooklyn the Lincoln Club entertained her at their beautiful club rooms on Putnam avenue. At Philadelphia she was the recipient of a grand reception held on the stage of the Walnut st. Theatre after the performance, at which Gov. Roby, of Maine, and Governor Luce, of Michigan, were present, and complimented her as the future successful actress of America. At Washington the Light Infantry attended in a body and showered the young actress with floral tributes and compliments. In fact the present season of Miss Maddern is verifying the predictions of many critics, who have long said that the stage must have new methods and stars, those who treasure and adore her so long are getting her reward in new methods that entertain the present generation.

BACH & ABEL

Following is a sketch of the program: Beevoque quartet; adagio and finale from Hayden, quartet; Duo for violin and viola by vieux temps; "Music of the Spheres," by Rubenstein; Conzetto by Mendelssohn. These will be given by the Philharmonic club. Mr. Slocum will sing songs by Mendelssohn, Brahms, Buck or Bohn. Don't forget that the concert is to be in the Law Lecture Room, instead of Hobart Hall, on account of the Lenten season.

MISS MADDERN COMING.
To the delight of all that charming and unanimously admired favorite Minnie Maddern is announced to appear at the Grand Opera House on next Tuesday evening the 6th. She will present Taylor's "Caprice" a play in which she has become famous and achieved two separate and distinct runs in New York. Her company is everywhere acknowledged as the best traveling, and the star herself is undoubtedly one of Ann Arbor's most highly admired actresses, and never fails to pack the house to its utmost. In this play critics pronounce her as having an opportunity for full play of her many peculiarities as will be seen by a recent comment of the "Boston Journal." "A full house greeted her, laughed with her—but several cried with her—and gloried in her. Are these phrases strong? Yes, rather, but they are strictly true. Miss Maddern has no well defined position in histrionic art. She is neither soubrette, comedienne, nor protean artist purely, but is a happy blending of all three and very clever. She is polite, graceful, quick in word and action, and exceedingly attractive in dialogue and stage business. She appeared in "Caprice." This play is the story of an ignorant country girl, with whom a rich young man falls in love, and marries, despite the warnings and protests of his relatives and friends, who afterwards cast him off. His dream of love in a cottage is brightly fulfilled at first, but the constant solicitations of his "rough diamond" pal upon him at last, and he grows petulant and regretful. His girl-wife overhears him tell a friend that he is weary of such a life. The child's anguish may be imagined. She leaves home, goes to school, remains eight years, emerges a polished woman, and in the usual way is reunited to her husband. As the country girl, as the child-wife striving hard to learn, and as the cultivated lady, Miss Maddern took her audience by storm. She fairly won the praises heaped upon her and gracefully wore them."

The Star Clothing House has the exclusive sale of Dunlap hats in town, which opens Saturday.
