In a cradle warm and cozy, Just a baby, soft and rosy— Just a baby, quiet lying, Sleeping, smiling, waking, crying. Dimpling, kissing, cooing, crowing, All a baby's sweetness showing.

* * * * • Grown to boyhood, laughing, playing, In the fields and woods a-straying; In the school-room, joking, turning All things into fun, yet learning; Rowing, boating, racing, Every kind of frolic chasing.

Boyhood grown to youth, he measures Life by very different treasures; Fond of flirting, dancing, singing, Love-like in joy upspringing; Still for some coy beauty dying. Wooing, dressing, rhyming, sighing.

Till at length his playtime over. Thought and labor please the rover; Bring him manhood's grave ambition, Disappointment and fruition; Wife and children, earnest striving, Till he sees old age arriving.

And sits well contented waiting, Better life antic pating; Still by earthly love surrounded, Full of hope in true faith founded; Then some morn, "the secret token," And the silver cord is broken; And his loved ones, softly weeping,
Whisper, "He is safely sleeping,
Give him to the Father's keeping?"

CHINESE RESTRICTION. May be sung to Bavaria or Nettleton.

Talking of Chinese restriction
Is a mode of catching doits,
But with free trade importation,
'Tis a special plea for votes;
For the difference is nearly
Tweedle-dum or tweedle-dee,
Whether goods are manufactured
Here, or sent from China free.

For the heathen in this country
Have to live and pay the cost,
But remove them hence to China
E'en these benefits are lost.
Hence we'd better have such labor
In our own beloved land,
Than to get their go'ds fro n China
At the prices they'd command.

As by revenue reduction Grover tain would open wide the democratic party?" "Mr. Beggs and my friends of the This question every voter should ask himself in all seriousness. The question every voter will help to answer, it matters not what ticket he may vote—or indeed, whether he votes at all. The American citizen holds in his hands the power of the sovereign-the power to give his fellow citizens good government or with-hold it from them, and is equally responsible for what he does and what he fails to do. The fact that he disagrees with both of the great parties or believes it would be better that some third party's special idea should prevail does not in any degree tend to relieve him from re sponsibility for the natural result. He knows very well that one of these parties will be given the power of the land—that one of these two forces will dominate the country during the next quadrennial. He may regard both as defective in some respects, but he must choose between them if he would have the future hold him blameless for the result. It is just as much a duty incumbent on the wise ruler to avoid the greater evil as it is to desire the greater good. Few patriots have ever been allowed to take exactly the course they preferred. Cromwell and Washington and Lincoln - the greatest names in Anglo-Saxon historyeach obtained pre-eminence in his day by a wise choice between what he deemed undesirable but unavoidable alternatives. The readiness of the American people to choose the better part is the real key to our marvelous success as a self governing Nation .- A. W. Tourgee in Inter Ocean. PRACTICAL POINTS.

The canker worm, anisopteryx vernata, and the elm leaf beetle, galernca xanthomelæna, are often so destructive to the foliage of too exclusive setting of this most graceful tree. The elm leaf beetle is not yet n Michigan, but it is in New York, and only needs time to reach us When it comes we must either fight it at great labor and expense or else give up our

Last but not least, the linder is a very valuable honey tree, as the honey from basswood is usually very plenteous and of most excellent quality as we should expect from the delicious fragrance of the beautiful flowers. When we plant a linden, then, we are adorning our street or grounds with a tree that will very likely live and thrive, a tree that will surprise us with its rapid growth development, and a tree that will bless the coming generation with the val-uable product which it so bountifully ields. I believe there is no native de duous tree that offers such inducements transplanting, as does the American

To conclude, I say then, either plant lindens or else all our desirable native species. If we must set maples then practice great care that we may resist the borers and save our trees.

(Great applause.) If you could forget Ireland, if you could be unmoved by her minstrelsy, untouched by the appeals of her splendid oratory, unsympathetic with her heroes and martyrs, I should fear that the bonds of your new citizenship would have no power over hearts. ship would have no power over hearts so cold and consciences as dead. (Cheering.) What if a sprig of green was found upon the bloody jacket of a Union soldier who lay dead on Missionary Ridge? The flag he died for was his flag, and the green was only a memory and an inspiration. We, native or Irish born, join with the republican convention in the hope that the cause of Irish home rule, progressing under the leadership of Gladstone and Parnell (cheers) upon peaceful and lawful lines, may yet se cure for Ireland that which, as Americans, we so much value—local home rule. (Continued cheering.) I am sure that you, who have in your own persons or in your worthy representatives given such convincing evidence of your devo-tion to the American Constitution and flag, and to American institutions, will not falter in this great civil contest which your spokesman has so fittingly described Wno, if not Irish-Americans, versed in the sad story of the commercial ruin of the island they love, should be instructed

The Argus intimates that the blows Stearns has received through the Courier emanated from Capt. Allen. We wish to set them right on that point inasmuch as Mr. Allen has not suggested any articles to the COURIER, nor has he even known about articles before the paper was printed and sent out. When W. Stearns contes before an Ann Arbor audience and accuses the proprietor of the Courier of uttering falsehoods we propose to spare no pains in punishing him, and if he has a dirty, cowardly war record so much the worse for him. We are ready to substantiate any thing we have said about Mr. Posterior, as we did last week in printing his record in the war department, great financial question is a sectional one, "It is a fight to the death," says Senator Vest of Missouri, between the southern idea of free trade and the northern idea of protection. We hope our northern people can realize this fact.

According to their own argument there isn't a stock of goods in this city but would depreciate from 10 to 25 per cent, by the success of the democratic party next November. Where will wages

The republicans asked Gov. Richardson, of South Carolina, for representation on the election boards, and he insolently replied: "The republican party has been dead so many years in this state, their non-recognition as a party is justifiable. No sectionalism down south.

The South Lyon Picket has been met-amorphosed into the Tri-County Picket, and comes over to the republican ranks, and is fighting a red hot fight for protection and the republican party. Bro. Old Mr. Edison, the inventor's father used to be such a good democrat that Thurman, when in Port Huron went to call on him. Soon afterwards he came out for Harrison and Protection. The "Old Roman" had better come to Michigan again and open some more demo

It is no wonder that Capt. Allen is such a grand good man," said a citizen the other day," for he had one of the best mothers that ever lived. When the war broke out she had five stalwart sons, and she called them all to her and bade them go to defend this country. They all went, and not one of them 'resigned for the good of the service.'" Mr. Guenther, the able German congressman of Wisconsin, worked for $7 a per month in Germany. He came here a poor young man but has worked and studied his way to the front, and now ranks with the best in the nation. As soon as he struck this terribly "tax rid-den country he hired out for $30 a month.

We make the assertion now, and can prove it by files of the Adrian Press, Willard Stearns' paper, that he has been of labor organizations of any editor in the state, with the possible exception of the Ypsilanti Sentinel. Two years since there was hardly an issue of either paper

"Laboring men let Allen feel the weight of your ballots. See if it won't make some diff-erence with him."—Argus. Yes, the laboring men of this county and district will be very apt to vote for a man like Stearns who classes them with 'Chicago bomb throwers," and calls them 'anarchists and communists." Mr. Allen will undoubtedly feel the weight of their ballots — but they will be for, not

This battle of the tariff is a fight for supremacy between the north and the south the same as in '61, and for the same reasons. The south was beaten then, and devastated. To-day if the south succeeds, the north will be devastated just the same as the south was in '61, though not by the sword, but by the destruction of her industrial system and ruin of her great workshops and idleness of her great farms, and the laborers therein and says:

In 1864, Gen. S. B. Brown of this city, then colonel of the 11th Mich. Cav., demanded the resignation of Lieut. Willard Stearns, of the same regiment, for the good of the service. As Stearns was given to understand that the colonel intended to follow the demand in case of refusal with something else, the resignation was tendered. This resignation for the good of the service was of course accepted and a discharge issued accordingly. Stearns is now the democrat congressional candidate in the second district but is certain to get left, as that district is too patriotic to dishonor itself by electing a man with such a record.

Had the article in reference to Mr. Allen's record on the Baker bill, in the last Argus possessed the essential element of truth, it would have been a most excel-lent point. But it is false in all the vital points, as we can prove to any man who cares enough about it to step in this office and examine the House Journal of 1877. Mr. Allen did not make a speech in favor of the bill, nor did he vote for it until it was amended in favor of the workingmen, by Mr. Allen himself, as we can also prove. What possible good does it do the Argus to deliberately misrepresent Mr. Allen?

We are told that Mr. Stearns said in one of his recent speeches: "I will yet lick Col, Brown," Col. Brown, it will be remembered is the 11th cavalry Colonel, who accepted his (Stearn's) resignation "for the good of the service." Mr. Stearns knows the Colonel's address, and has known it for years, but he never has had the courage to carry out his threats. Wouldn't it look better to go up to St. Clair and thresh him and then brag about it afterwards? Is it becoming in a would-be congressman to make such bully ing threats on the stump?

In the county of Wayne the Detroit papers—all but the Free Press—openly charge that the democratic county nominees, not only bought their nomination from a "syndicate" of saloonists and gamblers, but they even go so far as to name the amount each man paid for their nom-ination. And no one seems to deny it. After buying up enough delegates at $100 a piece to secure the nominations promised, this famous syndicate is alleged to have made $6,000 clear off the deal. How Washtenaw county one of the best | proud the leaders of the party must feel over that grand affair! What a thrill of manly pride must tingle through their frame as they go to the polis and vote for the men so shamelessly placed on their

It may not be generally known that there is a direct tax levied in Great Britain on religion. In order to obtain a license to be a lecturer, an Englishman must pay $2.50; a license for a building for the performance of divine service, and any chapel for solemnizing marriages, costs the same; other licenses for preaching and holding divine service cost $10 each. A faculty or dispensation to omit one ecclesiastical duty costs in England $150, and Scotland or Ireland $100 in some cases and $125 in others. Is equivalent to an election, it is a danger-ous thing, and the sooner it is broken up rect tax on religion to customs duties? the better for everybody. All parties should be given to understand that only things, but they are truths our people ought to know, just the same.

Two years ago Henry A. Robinson was nominated for Congress in the 1st district of this state by the Knights of Labor and other laboring men, some 6,000 of

"He is the candidate of Socialists and Anarchists. They first named him. They are the ones who professed to have the naming of a candidate. They are no respecters of law and order. Robinson is no better."

"He should be shunned as much as a Chicago bomb throw-

"Robinson should be defeated by 10,000 majority in that district, and communism stamped out. You can't disguise the fact that it is a concession to one of the worst elements of social government to endorse Hank Robinson, and every man who has the honor of Wayne county at heart will labor to crush his candidacy."

Has Mr. Stearns experienced a change of heart since then? Is he the friend of rganized labor any more to-day than he was two years ago? Entertaining such oitter opinions, can he consistently ask aboring men to vote for him?

Hardly a paper is picked up by us but tells of some one from Florida, or Texas, or some of the southern states, speaking in behalf of the democracy and free trade. But we don't hear of any of them getting rotten egged as U. S. Senator Blair, of New Hampshire was, down in

The Central Michigan Knitting Mills, Centreville, St. Joseph Co., employg 90 hands, shut down last Saturday The manager said that business would not be resumed until the tariff question was settled by the election. "If free trade wins," said he, "we cannot make it pay to run our mills," Such is the condition all over the country. Mr. Texas Mills is getting in his work on our northern mills in great shape.

Eight years ago a large part of the nickel used in this country was made at Phœnixville, Pa., by Joseph Wharton. The duty at that time was $2 a pound. and Mr. Wharton could produce it at $3 a pound, and sell it for $4 a pound. Nickel was put on the free list, and as Germany could manufacture it at $2 a pound, Mr. Wharton had to shut down. Nickel immediately rose to $4 a pound, the price it had been before the duty was taken off, and as it continued at that figure. Mr. Wharton again commenced manufacturing. Nickel at once dropped down to a price that he could not reach, and again he had to close down. This little game would have continued indefin itely, probably, if Mr. Wharton had continued, but as he was bound to lose, he withdrew. What are the results? Nickel costs as much as it did before the duty was taken off, Mr. Wharton's works are closed, and his 500 workmen forced to eek other employment, Phoenxville no onger flourishes, and all to support a oreign industry that makes an enormous rofit out of the metal they sell us, be ause we are such simpletons as to give hem an opportunity.

Mr. Rogers leaves a wife and daughter, the latter being Miss Katie Rogers, the artist. The famous sculptor, Randolph Rogers, of Rome, Italy, is a brother. One sister Mrs. Mary West, of Quincy, is still living, they being the only ones now left of eight children.

He was very kind hearted and too gen erous for his own good. An appeal to him was seldom ever made in vain, and his desire to help others has worked to his own financial injury many times. While very sympathetic he was firm in his convictions. A story is related of him that shows the stuff of which he was made. In the days when Wm. Lloyd Garrison was preaching abolitionism he was a warm supporter of that doctrine Somewhere along in '59 an abo'ition meeting was held at a little church loeated on N. State st., by Giles B. Steb bins, and a mob broke it up, smashing windows, and doing many other acts of outrage. The next day Mr. Rogers told the abolitionists they could have agricultural hall, and he would see that they were not molested. So when nigh ame, he with one or two trusty abolition friends posted himself at the door with a club. When the roughs came they were ordered away with the information that if they attempted to enter that hall he would brain them. They didn't go in, and the meeting was held in peace, and Mr. Stebbins preached all the abolitionism he desired to. Funeral services this p. m., at 2 o'clock from residence.

The republican committees are hard up for funds, and the Free Press advises them: "To set up a 'poor box' on the corners with the legend 'drop a nickel in the slot,' etc. Well, Mr. P. But the method the democratic committees have taken of compelling all employes to give a certain per cent. of their hard earned wages, as

MR. EDITOR:-Mr. Thurman is quoted as saying in a speech that upward of 2,000,000 democratic soldiers were in the army. But he did not state in which army Any person who is now in the neighborhood of 50 years of age, on reflection, will remember which army they were in. The old soldier especially remembers the scarcity of democratic votes in the regiments in the field, when a test vote was taken. The writer of this item very distinctly remembers the vote that was taken in the Florence (rebel prison pen) under the direction of the "Confeds" in charge when the white bean was for Lincoln, and the spotted ones for McClellan. The result was the white ones were soon ex-.. 673 46 hausted, while most of the spotted ones remained. More white beans were called for but the rebels were satisfied what the result would be (as we think the democrats will be next month, i. e., that northern men cannot be controlled by sectional ideas), and simply cursed us as "Lincoln hirelings," saying we ought to starve, and refused to issue us anything to eat for the next 48 or 72 hours, (I do not remember which at this writing,) as the total lack of food for two or three days was the common punishment for any grievance (real or imaginary) such as missing a shovel, an ax or rope.

20th Michigan Reunion.

The 20th Michigan Inft. held its 23d annual reunion in Ypsilanti on Thursday last, and it was one of the largest and most successful, every way, ever held by that organization. The oration, on man-hood, by Rev. R. E. Manning of Detroit, (better known by members of the regiment as Sargeant Manning) was a fine one; well delivered. The old 20th drum DURING THE MONTH OF OCTOBER corps was on hand, and the music, both vocal and instrumental was rendered, un der the direction of John W. Wise, Co B, by the sons and daughters of members of the regiment. Rev. (Capt.) C. T. Allen offered prayer and it was one to which all the old vets. could say amen. The ban-quet at Light Gaurd Hall, was a credit to the regiment, to Ypsilanti, and last, and by far the greater part to the ladies who got it up. The tables were loaded to overflowing, and notwithstanding the fact that 163 mambers paid their dues, which in almost every case necessitated the purchase of two tickets to the ban-quet, the better half being also there, and a number were situated as a member expressed it, who had "multiplied by six, and therefore needed six times the usual space on this occasion." The New York Herald, June 10, 1884 An audience that packed Tony Pastor's theatre to the doors last night laughed itself into a high state of perspiration over the fun and whimsicalities of "The Corner Grocery." The play is essentially farcical in its nature, but its absurdities are so mitth providing and its action is are so mirth-provoking, and its action is so rapid, that criticism is swept away by the resistless flood of merriment, and yields to the unflagging jollity of the performance. With few exceptions the oles are all character parts, and the entire company acquitted themselves satis-

The Corner Grocery has made the biggest kind of a hit at Touy Pastor's thea-tre. The best evidence of the hit is in the fact that hundreds of persons wer turned away from the doors of the theatre every evening last week. Salt Rheum

The agonies of those who suffer from severe salt rheum are indescribable. The cleansing, healing, purifying influences of Hood's Sarsa parilla are unequalled by any other medicine "I take pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it has done wonders for me. I had salt rheum very severely, affecting me over nearly my entire body. Only those who have suffered from this disease in its worst form can imagine the extent of my affliction. I tried many medicines, but failed to receive benefit until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla

Then the disease began to subside, the Agonizing Itch and Pain disappeared, and now I am entirely free from the disease. My blood seems to be thoroughly purified, and my general health is greatly benefited." LYMAN ALLEN, Sexton N. E. Church, North Chicago, Ill. "My son had salt rheum on his hands and Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La. "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lnugs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Blufts, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

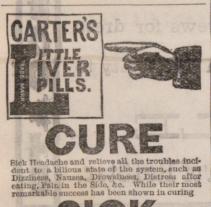

Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, III.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."

A Graveyard Cough.

The short, dry, hacking cough, which announces the approach of consumption, has been aptly termed a graveyard cough. The peril is great, and near at hand, but it can be surely averted with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a botanic remedy, without a peer for pulmonary, throat and liver affections, and for all ailments which, like consumption, have a scrofulous origin, and also for eruptions and sores, indicating impurity of the blood. Druggists all sell it.

Horace Greeley told this story of himself. Soon after he went to learn the printing business he went to see a preacher's daughter. The next time he attended neeting he was considerably astonished at hearing the minister announce as his text: "My daughter is grievously tormented with a devil." — Indianapolis
