ROCK ME TO SLEEP. BY FLORENCE FLEET.

Backward, turn back, oh Time, in your flight, Make me a child again, just fleet to night, Show me once back again the echoes shore, Take me again to your heart as of yore—

Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue, Mosher, oh Mosher, my heart calls for you, Blossomed and faded, our faces between, Yet with young yearnings and passionate pain.

Long I to-night for your presence again; Come from the silence so long and so deep; Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Over my heart in the days that are flown, No love like mother love ever has shone— No other worship abides and endures, Faithful unflinching and patient like yours—

LETTER FROM AMOS KENDALL. The Old Jackson Spirit. WASHINGTON, October, 1860. To the Editor of the Constitution:

Your paper a few days past has forcibly reminded me of the days of President Jackson, when Amos Kendall was the author of a theoretical and practical treatise on the subject of the Old Hero and his administration, now by the organ of an administration which claims to be his friends.

It is not to be denied, however, in personal denunciations of eminent democrats, in attempting to force on the democratic party new and useless issues, or in threats of disunion. Let all this cease, now and forever.

Extinguished. The subjoined letter from Gov. Barry extinguishes a very weak invention of the enemy. But the denial was hardly necessary, for it is not probable that one person in the State has been deceived by the slander.

Mr. Fleischnen desired to obtain an act of incorporation for a land company, to which I refused encouragement. He desired to purchase all facilities in my power, as Governor of the State, for the immigration he proposed to introduce.

SALE OF A ROYAL CARRIAGE. The splendid carriage in which Baron Rensford rode during his stay in New York city was sold at auction on Saturday afternoon.

SNOW IN THE SOUTH. The Charleston Courier is informed by one of the conductors of the South Carolina Railroad that on Sunday of last week there was a light fall of snow on the line between Aiken and Augusta.
