

with blood from the breast of his coat—
All will be over. Vive l'Empereur! Vive la France!

He reeled for an instant in his saddle, and then fell heavily into the arms of an officer who had sprung forward to support him. The Union Patriotist was a corpse.

"So young! so young! and so brave!
and to die for his first battle field!" exclaimed the Emperor, as he bent down to inspect over the body. "Do not lay him to rest!"

Then putting spur to his horse, he galloped off, as if unable to linger over so sad a spectacle.
