Probable Murder. The earliest passer through our streets on Wednesday morning found the dead body of a man lying on the sidewalk of MAYNARD, STEBBINS & WILSON'S store.

The body was immediately recognized as that of JOHN LYNES, an Irishman well known to many of our citizens.

LYNES is generally spoken of as a quiet, peaceable, inoffensive man, without enemies, though one enemy, a bottle of whiskey, was found with him.

A jury was impaneled before Justice VINCENT, and the evidence developed some circumstances which may lead to a solution of the mystery.
