Prof. WINCHELL of this city addressed the Legislature, in the hall of the House, on Thursday evening last, on the Geology of the State.

A number of our business men have been recently patronizing a "traveling Printing Shop," getting an inferior article of cards, bill-heads, &c., and paying more than we should have charged them for a first-class article.

We are indebted to the Publishers, R. FARMER & Co., Detroit, for a copy of a "Farmer's Railroad and Township map of Michigan."

The State News says that Lieut. W. W. BURCH, of Co. B, 26th Michigan Infantry, died of small pox, in the camp hospital we presume, on Friday, Feb. 6th.

We take pleasure in announcing to the business men of our city, and to our patrons generally, the appointment of Mr. T. O. WARD, of the Senior Law Class, as agent of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, of Newark, New Jersey.

Fairbanks' Scales - Weighed in the balance of a just criticism, all are obliged to admit that the scales of Fairbanks & Co. are, without exception, the best ever invented.

Resolved, That a copy of this expression of our feelings, be signed by the chairman and secretary, and presented to the family. Also, that a copy be sent to the county press for publication.

Resolved, That a Committee of three consisting of Col. A. D. Crane, Rev. R. I. Williams, and Dennis Warner, Esq., are hereby appointed to present the above resolutions to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That R. A. Beal, Esq. and Peter Tuite, Esq., be a committee to wait upon the ladies of the village and request them to close their places of business in accordance with the foregoing resolutions.
