The closing exercises of the second term of the Ann Arbor Union School will take place next week.

Looking Up - Real estate in and around our city is rapidly changing hands, not at greatly advanced prices, but at terms that speak well for the growth of our city, and also make known the desire of capitalists to invest in real property.

Ann Arbor is bound to go ahead, that's the fact. We have had the pleasure of visiting the studio of Miss Jenison who is instructing a number of ladies of our city in painting.

Over $50,000 has been subscribed to the stock of a Bank in this city, which will soon go into operation under the United States Banking Law.

M. GUITERMAN, of the firm of GUITERMAN & Co., of this city, has taken up his abode in New York, leaving the business of the house here in charge of his partner, S. SONDRIM.

Those who wish to purchase city lots, houses and farms, are referred to the advertisement of W. S. MAYNARD, in the appropriate column.

We have the January number of the Westminster Review, with papers as follows: English Convicts, what should be done with them; The Literature of Bohemia; Bishop Colenso on the Pentateuch; Les Miserables, by Victor Hugo; Indian Annexations; British Treatment of Native Princes; The Microscope and its Revelations; Greece and the Greeks; M. Rattazi and his Administration; Contemporary Literature. L. Scott & Co., N. Y., American Publishers, whose advertisement see in another column.

The January number of the London Quarterly has the following papers: Peru, Institutions for Working Men, Constitutional Government in Russia, New Testament, The Ticket of Leave System, Life of John Wilson, The Stanhopes Miscellaneous, and Four Years of a Reforming Association.
