

The Weekly Michigan Argus.

Vol. XVIII.

ANN ARBOR, FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1863.

No. 895.

The Michigan Argus.

Published every Friday morning, in the third story of the brick block, corner of Main and Huron streets, ANN ARBOR, Mich. Entrance on Huron Street, opposite the Franklin.

ELIHU B. POND, Editor and Publisher.

Terms, $1.50 a Year in Advance.

Advertising—One square (12 lines or less), one week, 50 cents; and 25 cents for every insertion thereafter, less than three months.

One square 3 mo. $3.00 Quarter col. 1 year $50
Two squares 1 year $50 Half column 1 year $25
Two squares 6 mo. $3.00 One column 6 mo. $25
Two squares 1 year $50 One column 1 year $25

Advertisements unaccompanied by written or verbal directions will be published until ordered out, and charged accordingly.

Job Printing—Pamphlets, Hand Bills, Circulars, Cards, Ball Tickets, Labels, Blanks, Bill Heads, and other varieties of Plain and Fancy Job Printing, executed with promptness, and in the best style.

Books—We have a large stock of new and second-hand books, and a large variety of the latest styles of Card type which enables us to print Cards of all kinds in the most perfect style and cheaper than any other house in the city. Business cards for men of all professions and professions, Ball, Wedding and Visiting Cards, printed on short notice. Call on us.

BOOK BINDING—Connected with the Office is a Book Binding Department, where all kinds of work is done in the best style, and in the most prompt manner. Books bound in cloth, leather, and other materials. Entrance to Bickery through the Argus Office.

Business Directory.

COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.

DEPOSITORY of Bibles and Testaments at the Sole Press at W. C. Voorhees's.

T. D. TOOKER.

PREMIUM PHOTOGRAPHER. Exchange Block, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

J. C. WATTS & BRO.

DEALERS in Clocks, Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware No. 22, New Block, Ann Arbor.

C. BLISS.

DEALER in Clocks, Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware No. 22, New Block, Ann Arbor.

C. H. MILLEN.

DEALER in Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, &c. No. 22, New Block, Ann Arbor.

BACH & GIERSON.

DEALERS in Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Boots & Shoes, &c., Main St., Ann Arbor.

O. COLLIER.

MANUFACTURER and Dealer in Boots and Shoes, one door north of the Post Office.

N. B. COLE.

DEALER in Boots & Shoes, Rubbers, &c., Franklin Block, Main Street, Ann Arbor.

RISDON & HENDERSON.

DEALERS in Hardware, Groceries, House Furnishing Goods, Tin Ware, &c., No. 22, New Block, Main St.

O. C. SPAFFORD.

MANUFACTURER of all kinds of Cooper Work, City Cooper Shop, Custom work done on short notice. Detroit Street, Ann Arbor.

A. J. SUTHERLAND.

AGENT for the New York Life Insurance Company. Office on Huron Street. Also has on hand a stock of the most approved sewing machines. 856 1/2

GEORGE FISCHER.

MEAT MARKET—Huron Street—General Dealer in Fresh and Salt Meats, Beef, Mutton, Pork, Hams, Poultry, Lard, Tallow, &c., &c.

SCHOFF & MILLER.

DEALERS in Miscellaneous, School and Blank Books, Stationery, Paper Hangings, &c., Main St., Franklin Block.

HIRAM J. BEAKES

ATTORNEY and Counselor at Law, and Solicitor in Chancery, Office in City Hall Block, over Webster's Book Store.

WM. LEWITT, M. D.

PHYSICIAN and Surgeon, Office at his residence, north side of Huron street, and second house west of Division street.

M. GUTERMAN & CO.

WHOLESALE and Retail Dealers and Manufacturers of Ready-Made Clothing, Importers of Cloths, Cassimeres, Doerings, &c., No. 5, Phoenix Block, Main St.

WM. WAGNER.

DEALER in Ready Made Clothing, Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Carpet Bags, &c., Phoenix Block, Main Street.

SLAWSON & GEER.

CROCKERS, Provision and Commission Merchants, and Dealers in Wine Liqueurs, Land Plaster, and Plaster of Paris, one door east of Cook's Hotel.

F. B. FREEMAN.

BARBER and Fashionable Hair Dresser, Main Street, Ann Arbor, Mich. Hair Frizzes and Curis kept constantly on hand.

J. M. SCOTT.

AMBIOTYPE and Photograph Artist, in the rooms over Compton's Clothing Store, Phoenix Block. Perfect satisfaction given.

W. WEEKS.

SURVEYOR and Civil Engineer, continues to give immediate attention to all orders. Office at his residence at the corner of Catherine and Thayer sts. 850-1

C. B. PORTER.

SURGEON DENTIST, Office Corner of Main and Huron streets, over Bach & Parsons Store. All calls promptly attended to. April 1859

J. R. WEBSTER & CO.

DEALERS in Law and Medical Books, School Books, Blank Books, Miscellaneous Books, pens, ink, and every variety of Stationery, Huron St., City Hall Block.

C. B. THOMPSON.

DEALER in Dry Goods and Groceries, Boots and Shoes, &c. Provisions sold and sold, at the old stand of Thompson & Milten, Cor. Main and Washington sts.

MACK & SCHMID.

DEALERS in Foreign and Domestic Dry Good, Groceries, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Crockery, &c., Corner of Main & Liberty sts.

O. A. KELLEY.

PHOTOGRAPHER—Corner Fourth & Huron streets, 1 Ann Arbor. Gives frames and Photograph Albums constantly on hand, and at lower rates than can be found elsewhere.

ANDREW BELL.

DEALER in Groceries, Provisions, Flour, Produce, &c., &c., corner Main and Washington Streets, Ann Arbor. The highest market prices paid for country produce. 856

I. O. O. F.

WASHINGTON Lodge, No. 9, of the Independent Order of Old Fellows meet at their Lodge Room, every Friday Evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. P. B. Box, Secy S. S. S. 856

KINGSLEY & MORGAN.

ATTORNEYS, Counselors, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, have books and Plates showing titles of all lands in the County, and attend to conveying and collecting demands, and to paying taxes and school interest in any part of the State. Office east of the park.

D. DEFOREST.

WHOLESALE and Retail Dealer in Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Water Linn, Grand River Plaster, Plaster Paris, and Nails of all sizes. A full and perfect assortment of the above, and all other kinds of building materials constantly on hand at the Railroad Depot, on Detroit St., a few rods from the Patent Cement Works, also operating extensively in the Patent Cement Works.

THE MYSTERIES OF NEW-YORK.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Wars, national resources, political contests, religious conventions, amusements, the Central Park, its swans, gondolas, &c., have been discussed—this letter is the "Mysteries of New York." In the car, steamboat, saloon, parlor, at dinner, in the street, everywhere do I hear some story with relation, to or an inquiry as to the meaning of those mythical words, posted, printed and advertised wherever I go:

S. T.—1860.—X.

accompanied with a crescent and a shepherd's hook. A secession sympathizer said it was: "Satan Triumphed in 1860 in granting the Expectation of abolitionists;" while a Republican said it was: "Stamp-Tail Democrats of 1860, gone to Texas;" another, "To the State-Taxes of 1860 add ten (X) dollars;" another, that they were the watchwords of some secret society, like, "Sons of Tomochia are 1860 Strong;" or "Sward Trickers of 1860 Used Up," &c., &c. Well, your correspondent was ill—had been ill for a long time—a fact, his late supper had given him a horrid dyspepsia. He read the advertisements, and of course bought a bottle of Plantation Bitters; the Bitters cured him, and on the bottle appeared those same cabalistic letters. S. T.—1860.—X. I traveled straight for 202 Broadway, introduced myself to the celebrated Dr. Drake, and was shown the elephant-tusks, S. T. and all—a great institution it is. A six story building in Dey-Street, from cellar to garret, is occupied as a laboratory for producing this single medicine. Some forty persons are employed; several vats, holding six thousand gallons each are filled with water, herbs and material, and then soaked in roots, and the expression preserved in pure St. Croix Rum. I here saw the bags, boxes and bales of Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, and other material—and the original St. Croix Rum puncheons bearing the Custom house brand. It seems that medicine could here be turned out to supply a world of invalids—yet these gentlemen are unable to fill their orders for Plantation Bitters alone I was shown many certificates of extraordinary cures effected by these Bitters. The statistics of the medicine business as presented to the last Congress in the report of Mr. D. S. Barnes are enormous and startling, amounting to some six million dollars annually. The proprietors of these Bitters will pay Uncle Sam near fifty thousand dollars for stamps this year! With such individual resources government loans ought to stand at par, and Jefferson Davis might as well pack up and start for Jerusalem. * * * * *

MARCH.

To-day the sky is dark with clouds, the air With mist is heavy, and the fitful breeze Sweeps with a dirge among the spectral trees; There is a gloom of sadness everywhere.

Patches of recent snow lie on the hills; The streets are full of turbid rivulets, That murmur to the gutter soft regrets, And ripple on to join with larger fills.

We looked, we longed, we fished for the spring, It came, but staid not; so we sit and sigh And call its early promise mockery, Cheating our hearts with selfish murmuring.

Cease, foolish heart! These constant rains And snows Nourish the young grass and springing flowers, And swell the brown buds on the trees; These hours Of sadness and of storm are friends—not foes.

THE COTTAGE HOME.

"The house is old, the trees are bare, Moonless above hangs the twilight's dome But what on earth is half so dear, So longed for as the hearth of home?"

"The mate bird sitting on the stone, The dank moss dripping from the wall, The thorn-trees gaunt, the walks o'ergrown—I love them—how I love them all!"

"A little, and a lone green lane, That opens on a common wide; A distant, dreary, dim-blue chain Of mountains circling every side."

"A heaven so clear, an earth so calm, So sweet, so soft, so hushed an air; And deepning still the dream-like charm, Wild-moor sheep feeding everywhere."

"That was the scene. I knew it well, I knew the turf pathway's sweep, That winding o'er each billowy swell, Marked out the tracks of wandering sheep."

THE NATIONAL FORCE ACT.

An act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes:

Whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas, no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government; and whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the constitution of the United States, the duty of the government to suppress ins

Democratic Nominations. For Justice of the Supreme Court, DAVID JOHNSON. For Regents of the University. At Large - OLIVER C. COMSTOCK, WILLIAM A. MOORE. 1st Dist - ZINA PITCHER. 2nd " NATHANIEL A. BALCH. 3rd " CHARLES H. RICHMOND. 4th " ADAM L. ROOF. 5th " ELIJAH F. BERT. 6th " JOSEPH COULTER. For Circuit Judge, LYMAN D. NORRIS.

The Conscription Bill. In to day's issue, by the rejection of much matter of interest, we give place to the National Force Law - more generally known as the Conscription Act - enacted by Congress just prior to its adjournment. The importance of this act to every citizen renders it unnecessary that we should give any excuse for the space it occupies. As a call will probably soon be made under it for "300,000 more" men or twice that number - say as soon as the Spring elections are over - all of our readers should make themselves thoroughly acquainted with its provisions. Give the act a careful reading, and then file away this paper for future use.

This bill has many good features, among them, the abolishing of so many class exemptions, or exemptions of United States officials, from tide waiters and custom house markers down to members of Congress. But with its other improvements it has improved wonderfully in ignoring the existence of States and State authorities, and goes a great way towards absolute centralization. It operates directly upon the people, and relies upon no State agencies to place the militia in the field, thus repudiating all the past practices of the Government, if not the provisions of the Constitution. We will not, however, discuss these features of the law at this time.

One very objectionable feature of the law we desire just now to point out. Section 13 provides that any drafted man may commute by furnishing an acceptable substitute or by paying into the treasury the sum of $300 or under, as the Secretary of War may determine. In this State such a hue and cry was made over the $100 exemption clause of the State militia law, that the Legislature has been compelled to strike it out, and leave every drafted man to go or furnish his substitute. But the Congress of the United States fixes the price of commutation at $300, indirectly establishes that sum as the price of substitutes, and thus compels the poor man to enter the army and permits the rich man to stay at home and get richer. This is acting fully up to the old federal maxim that the Government was made for the rich. Imperial France has a similar law, but it is hardly fitted for Republican America. Are the rich under no obligations to shed their blood to maintain the institutions which have enriched them? Or shall they shed only crocodile tears and treasury notes while the poor men go forth to save the country? War brings hardships, and hardships, we suppose, never will fall equally upon all classes, but it does seem to us that the burdens should be as nearly equally divided as possible, and that the Provost Marshal should not be set to draft with a net that catches the poor and provides a sure way of escape for the rich. Had not the Government better rely a little longer upon volunteers, and if it must draft compel every able-bodied drafted man to serve, or leave each to furnish his own substitute at the best terms he can obtain him. Our people are not educated to the standard of forced levies, and if levies must be forced great care should be taken that they neither discriminate in favor or against classes. What say our intelligent readers to the $300 exemption clause?

Congress before adjourning reduced the duty on printing paper from 35 to 20 per cent. Not a dollar's worth of printing paper was imported under the old rate and probably will not be under the new - at least while exchange is so high. 20 per cent is as effectually prohibitory as was 35 per cent, and publishers and the reading public have reason to thank Congress for nothing.

We invite the attention of our fellow Democrats in the several Townships of this county, to the Constitution of the Ann Arbor Democratic Association, in our columns to-day. An important election is at hand, and thorough organization is necessary to give any hope of success. The Republicans are organizing secret associations all over the State, and these secret associations must be met by public ones. Let Democrats move in every town, and so move that every democratic voter will be at the polls on the 6th day of April next.

The United States Senate is still in executive session, acting upon numberless military and civil nominations. We omitted to say, in the proper

A Nice Candidate for Regent. We invite the attention of our readers to a Report in another column, made to the House by Hon JAMES A. SWEZEY, chairman of the committee on banks and incorporations. This report recommends the passage of "a bill making appropriations in aid of the State Agricultural College, and the Michigan School of Homeopathy and Surgery." Now, Mr. SWEZEY has an undoubted right to be a Homeopathist, a friend of the Agricultural College, or any thing else he pleases, but we submit that the disposition he shows to advance the interests of his "pets" at the expense of the University of Michigan, is evidence sufficient that, by reason of his prejudices, to say nothing of the ignorance he displays, he is an unfit man to be elected Regent of the University. To advocate the establishing of a "School of Homeopathy and Surgery" in the Agricultural College is an idea so Quixotic as to excite only a smile, if Mr. S. was not a candidate for a position that demands better sense and judgment. It is to be hoped that the friends of the University in all portions of the State, and the friends of the University are the real friends of our State educational interests, will hesitate long before they vote to confide that institution to the tender mercies of Mr. SWEZEY. His unfitness is too palpable to excuse any man for voting for him.

The Late Riot in Detroit. A disgraceful riot occurred in Detroit on Friday last, growing out of the arrest, trial, and conviction of a negro named Faulkner, for the commission of the crime of rape upon Mary Brown, a white girl aged about ten years. We have no space for the details, but may sum up as follows: After the conviction and sentence of Faulkner to State Prison for life, a large crowd followed him from the City Hall to the jail, with the evident design of taking him out of the hands of the officers, and punishing him with death. The officers of the law, aided by the Provost Guard from the barracks, succeeded in getting him safely to the jail, when unable to disperse the mob he sped as they desired, the Provost Guard, unwisely we think, fired into the crowd, killing one man and wounding several others. This maddened the mob, who vented their rage not upon the Guard, but upon innocent parties, assaulting, knocking down, stoning, and bruising every negro found in the street, gutting and burning their houses, and breaking their furniture to pieces. The result of this attempt to interfere with the course of the law is the killing of a respectable citizen, Chas. Langer, the serious wounding of several white men and negroes; the destruction of a large amount of household property; the burning of about thirty-five buildings; the turning upon the world, homeless, a large number of men, women, and children, innocent of any complicity with the crime of Faulkner; and the infliction of a dark stain upon the fair fame of Detroit.

Lynch law is dangerous law, inflicts greater injuries upon the public than it seeks to remedy, and should never be resorted to unless it is known that the executive officers of the law are conniving to let a criminal escape, and it may even then be better to let him escape than to resort to a mob. Where there are established communities, with laws and courts, the law should be permitted to take its course. Excited, unreasoning mobs, composed largely of not most law-abiding citizens, are bad administrators of justice, and in this case there is no palliation of their deeds. We may also say, in this connection, that it is a disgrace even to a low and vicious mob to inflict injuries upon innocent negroes because one of their race has committed an outrageous crime. A trite maxim says, "let every tub stand on its own bottom," and it applies in point to just such cases as the one under notice. While men have committed rape in our own city, and what mob would venture a general destruction of the property and life of our citizens for the crime of one wretch connected with them by blood and color? Why seek to punish all Yankees for the crimes of one Yankee? all Irishmen because one Irishman has forgotten his duty? all Germans because they are connected by the ties of race with some violator of law? or any other class or race for the crimes of individuals? To do this is certainly to establish a principle that saps the foundation of society, and anything looking to it should be condemned by every lover of good order.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have nothing to do with it, either as inciters, abettors, participants, or apologists, and the Republicans are welcome to all they can make out of it. We suppose, however, that if our Republican contemporaries have really become law and order men they will cease their railings over the suppression by mobs of democratic newspapers, and their threats of violence to democratic speakers. Or are they only half converted?

Federal Reverse in Tennessee. Special Dispatch to the Detroit Free Press. FRANKLIN, TENN., MARCH 8. Specials have given you no general idea of the fight and disaster at Thompson Station. There is no evidence that our forces were taken by surprise. Van Dorn was known to be in free head, and our brigade was steadily advancing, constantly skirmishing, when the rebels appeared in overwhelming numbers. They admit having a force of from fifteen to twenty thousand, belonging to Van Dorn's division. They say they had an actual force of twelve thousand engaged. The Nineteenth Michigan lost 454 privates and commissioned officers Col. Oliver Gilbert, Major Shaffer, Captains Smith, Lincoln, Baker, Thompson, Bigelow, Duffy, Lieutenants Shaffer, Wing Hubbard, Eason, Clark, Stafford, Tompkins, Orson, Brown, and C. Lauer. Look out for stirring dispatches if the rebels stand their ground in a few days. A division of cavalry, under Brigadier General Mills, attacked Russett's cavalry at Unionville, some ten miles southeast, yesterday. They captured twenty-one wagons, twenty-five tents, twenty-five mules, fifty horses, all the camp equipment, a Captain three Lieutenants, and fifty-three privates. Two Federals were slightly wounded. The rebels lost fifty killed and 180 wounded all by sabre strokes. The Seventh Pennsylvania and Fourth Michigan did the work. Dispatch to the Associated Press. Nashville, March 8. The latest from Franklin states that our troops fought valiantly until their ammunition was exhausted. Our loss in killed and wounded was about 300, and about one thousand taken prisoners. No officers were killed. The report about negro rebel regiments proves false. The rebel loss, according to their statement, was double ours.

By a foolish division of the New Hampshire Democrats an election of Governor by the people was prevented. Each of the Democratic candidates received a larger vote than the Republican candidate. The Legislature is Republican. Gen. CURTIS has been removed from command of the department of the West, and Gen. SUMNER appointed his successor. The Republican Judicial Convention was held at Jackson on Monday, and Judge LAWRENCE nominated for re-election. The Republicans are making great efforts to get up a division in the democratic party, and prate continually about "War Democrats" and "Peace Democrats." They tried the game in New Hampshire with some success, and will try it in all the other States where any elections are to take place. The distinction they make is without a difference. The Democrats are all "War Democrats" and all "Peace Democrats." They are for war until the rebels and the rebel States are willing to return to their allegiance to the Constitution and the Union, and no longer; and for peace when the Union is restored in fact, the majesty of the Constitution and the laws vindicated, and not before. And that's all there is of it. They seek no compromise that compromises the Union, and are for no settlement on a disunion basis. Can the radical leaders of the Republican party say as much?

The Senate resolution providing for an adjournment of the Legislature on the 19th has been amended by the House, fixing it for the 23rd and the Senate concurring an adjournment may be looked for at the latter date. The Committee on Elections of the House has made a strong report against the bill providing for taking the vote of soldiers in service out of the State. They say it would violate the constitution, and referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, effectually expose his sophistry. The recent city and town elections in the State of New York have resulted in great democratic gains and victories. Rochester, Troy, Auburn, Geneva, and other cities have gone largely democratic, some of them for the first time in thirty years; and in almost every section there is a gain over the vote for SEYMOUR last November. The House has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the next two years to the Agricultural College. The Senate has defeated a bill appropriating $9,000 a year to the same institution. The Republican journals of the State expend a vast deal of holy horror over the late riot in Detroit, and leave no stone unturned to fix the responsibility for it upon the democratic party and make Republican capital. But the democrats have

THE MARKETS.

Table listing market prices for various commodities such as Wheat, Corn, and Flour.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES

DR. CHEESEMAN'S 'PILLS' FOR FEMALES. THE HEALTH AND LIFE OF WOMAN. Incontinently in our life we are made enough to neglect or neglect these sexual irregularities...

NEW BOOT & SHOE STORE

N. B. COLE, (Successor to Moore & Loomis) has opened a store in the FRANKLIN BUILDINGS, Main street, Ann Arbor, and has on hand a large assortment of...

THE REBELLION

ON HIGH PRICES FOR CLOTHING. HAS COMMENCED AT THE OLD & RELIABLE CLOTHING EMPORIUM! No. 3 PHENIX BLOCK, MAIN ST.

RISDON & HENDERSON

Have the BUCKEYE GRAIN DRILL, and Grass Seed Sower. Manufactured at Springfield, Ohio.

S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 37 Park Row, New York, & 6 State St. Boston. are our Agents for the Agents in these cities...

Postoffice Notice. Mails leaving Ann Arbor for the East and West, close as follows: Going West, at 9 A. M. Going East, at 5:40 P. M.

The City Schools. The Winter term of the public schools of this city closes to-day. Examinations commenced yesterday and close this afternoon...

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN, of London train railway notoriety, is to lecture in Hangster's Hall on Monday evening next, and our citizens may expect a rich treat.

The stockholders of the Ann Arbor City Bank have effected an organization by electing the following Directors: Volney Chapin, Dr. E. Wells, C. H. Miller, P. Bach, Jas. Clements, D. Henning, Hiram Arnold, W. McCreery, and R. S. Smith.

We have a letter from 'Commissary' too late for this issue. For the Army. I shall start for Newport News to visit the 9th Army Corps about the 27th inst.

Dr. TAPPAN delivered an address on educational matters, in the hall of the House, Lansing, on Tuesday evening last, by invitation of the House. We are confident that if the members of the Senate and House listened carefully and candidly, they got some ideas of our educational system and institutions which will enable them to legislate more intelligently than some of them have seemed disposed to do.

We have an abundance of rumors, but no news of any real transactions either in the Southwest, Southeast, or any where else. We have confidence that something is brewing, and therefore wait patiently.

The President has issued a proclamation calling upon all deserters to return to duty by the first of April. Peterson's Magazine for April comes early, with spring fashions, and a readable list of articles. $2 a year; three copies $5. Address CHAS. J. PATERSON, 306 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

We have received the Spring number of Mrs. Demorest's Mirror of Fashion, emphatically the fashion journal of the day. A lady who reads it will be sure to dress with good taste. The plates and pattern sheets are so numerous. $1 a year, in quarterly numbers. Address Mrs. DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

ALWAYS GET THE BEST.—Especially in getting Saleratus—as the best costs but a trifle for a year's supply, and the good costs but a little more than the poor.—The best goes farther than the poor, and is much more healthy. We can recommend the Chemical Saleratus to be the best.

The House has passed a bill for a Geological survey of the Salt regions, and appropriating $1,500 for that purpose. A country person had a singular peculiarity of expression, always using the phrase, "I flatter myself," instead of "I believe." Having had occasion to exhort his congregation during a revival, "he flattered himself that more than one-half of them would be damned."

Detroit Market. Flour, 100 lbs. $1.75. Corn, 100 lbs. $1.25. Wheat, 100 lbs. $1.50.

Special Notices.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD. Passenger trains now leave Detroit and the several stations in this County as follows: GOING WEST.

GOING EAST. Leave, Night Ex. Jack. Ac. N. Y. Ex. Mail. Chicago, 6:45 P. M. 5:30 A. M. 5:30 P. M.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. The combination of ingredients in Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills for Females are perfectly harmless. They have been used in the private practice of Dr. Duponco over 20 years, and thousands of ladies can testify to their great and never failing success in almost every case in correcting irregularities, relieving painful and distressing menstruation, particularly at the change of life.

LYON'S KATHARON. Katharon is from the Greek word, 'Kathro,' or 'Kathar,' signifying to cleanse, purify, and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For example, restoring and beautifying the human hair is the most remarkable preparation in the world.

HEIMSTREET'S Inimitable Hair Restorative. It is NOT A DYE. But restores gray hair to its original color by supplying the capillary tubes with natural substance, impaired by age or disease. All restoratives dye are composed of lead, arsenic, mercury, and other poisonous ingredients.

The Great French Remedy! MADAM BOVIN'S CELEBRATED SILVER-COATED FEMALE PILLS. The only certain and Safe Remedy for all Uterine Obstructions, Monthly Difficulties, Irregularities, and all the other diseases to which the Woman, Wife and Mother is peculiarly liable.

TOBACCO.—You can buy the best grades of FINE CHEWING TOBACCO at from 50 cents to One Dollar. SMOKING from fourteen to twenty cents at M. DEVANY'S TOBACCO AND CIGAR STORE.

AD GOOD TREE IS KNOWN BY ITS FRUIT. THE GREAT AND CELEBRATED PHYSICIAN OF THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST. Known all over the country; as the Celebrated INDIAN HERB DOCTOR!

FOR SALE. 80 ACRES of excellent timber land, situate in the County of Ingham, in a good neighborhood, about four miles from Dewitt and near Lansing. For terms inquire at or address. ARGUS OFFICE.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral. A country person had a singular peculiarity of expression, always using the phrase, "I flatter myself," instead of "I believe."

A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. Infallible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions in the system, and always successful as a preventive.

THE PERFECTION OF MECHANISM! THE MAGIC TIME OBSERVER. BEING A HYPER-SENSITIVE AND OPEN FACT, OR LEVER OF THE UNIFORMITY OF TIME.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

WARRANTED BOOTS & SHOES. Men's Fine French Calf Boots Pegged and Sewed. Give me a call before purchasing elsewhere. I will sell my goods cheap for cash.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN! Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price Six Cents. A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Gonorrhoea or Venereal Disease.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

Ready-Made Clothing, WM. WAGNER, who has just returned from the East, with a large assortment of...

EMPORIUM OF FASHION, THE GREAT AND CELEBRATED PHYSICIAN OF THE THROAT, LUNGS, HEART, LIVER, AND THE BLOOD.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

THE REBELLION RECORD. A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN EVENTS. Edited by FRANK MOORE. Published in parts, at 10 cents, each part illustrated with two portraits of the actors.

It is neatly and substantially made. There is hardly a Drill offered in the market but can boast of more or less "FIRST PREMIUMS"

TESTIMONIALS: We give the following names of a few Farmers in this vicinity who have bought and used the Buckeye Drill:

Ohio Reaper & Mower, acknowledged to be the very best in use.

We are just in receipt of 100 Grain Cradles which we will sell cheap.

Grass Scythes. And the largest and best selected stock of BENT STUFF

STOCK OF HARDWARE. NAILS, GLASS, PUTTY, PAINT, and LIMESEED OIL.

STOVES, TINWARE, AND EAVE TROUGHS always on hand and put up at the shortest notice.

C. BLISS. Would take this method of informing his old friends and patrons and all others who may favor him with their patronage.

AMERICAN AND OTHER Watches! The Celebrated SETH THOMAS

CLOCKS! Fine Jewelry Sets GOLD CHAINS, TABLE AND POCKET CUTLERY!

Gold Pens, Steel Pens, Pencils, PAPER AND ENVELOPES, Musical Instruments, Strings & Bows for Instruments.

PERISCOPE GLASS, a superior article. Persons having difficult watches to set with glasses can be accommodated, as my stock is large and complete.

FAIRBANKS' Scales! OF ALL KINDS. Fairbanks, Greenleaf & Co., 172 Lake Street, Chicago.

PAIN CURED! RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. It is the most infallible medicinal remedy for the relief of all kinds of pain.

BE WISE IN TIME. Guard against sickness on the first indication of cold or fever.

WEALTH FOR THE POOR. RADIWAY'S READY RELIEF. It is the most infallible medicinal remedy for the relief of all kinds of pain.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS. And other leading agricultural papers, where it is published, and is the only one of the kind.

ACUTE CHRONIC RHEUMATISM. The following is written by a well known correspondent of the New York Herald, London Times (Lond.) and other leading papers.

NEURALGIA. (EXQUISITE PAIN). PERSONS suffering with Neuralgia experience the acute excruciating pain.

HOW TO CURE A BAD COLD. Between the throat and the lungs.

NOT READY RELIEF SLING. With a sling to hold the head, it is a most useful and comfortable article.

FEVER AND AGUE. A table-spoonful of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, in a tumbler of water, will relieve the fever and ague.

FOR SALE BY STEBBINS & WILSON. Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR SALE BY STEBBINS & WILSON. Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR SALE BY STEBBINS & WILSON. Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

FOR SALE BY STEBBINS & WILSON. Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

