

S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 37 Park Row, New York, & 6 State St Boston. are our Agents for the Argus in these cities...

Postoffice Notice. Mails leaving Ann Arbor for the East and West, close as follows: Going West, at 7 A. M. Going East, at 3.30 P. M.

Providence permitting, a camp-meeting will be held at North Lake eight miles north-west from Dexter and five miles north-east of Chelsea, on North Lake circuit, Ann Arbor district, Detroit Conference. The meeting will commence on Monday June 16th, and will close on Saturday 20th.

The Detroit Board of Trade has appointed a list of delegates to the great Canal Convention to be held in Chicago, June 2d, Tuesday next. Among the names we notice the name of SMITH BORSBORN, of Ann Arbor Town.

No BETTER PROOF REQUIRED.—It has not yet been publicly denied that the Chemical Saleratus made by D. B. De Land & Co. is all that its friends have claimed—that it is a pure and wholesome article.

The May number of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine has the following papers: Wilson's Prehistoric Man, Caxtoniana, The Life of Gen. Sir Howard Douglas, Italian Brigandage, Ludwig Whig, My Investment in the Far West, The Landscape of Ancient Italy, as delineated in the Pompeian Paintings, American State Papers, The Budget.

Petit Jurors.—The following Petit Jurors have been drawn for the term of the Circuit Court to commence June 9th: Orson A. Sobor, Superior. Norman K. Town, Ypsilanti City. Philemon C. Murray, Salem. Thomas Richards, York. John B. Lewis, Saline. Amos Ball, Webster. Rufus Shepard, Sylvan. Lyman Mills, Saline. Lewis Haner, Augusta. Delos F. Smith, Northfield. Samuel R. Doty, Ann Arbor Town. John M. Congdon, Sylvan. David Camp, Ann Arbor Town. John Ryan, Northfield. Bradford Skiff, Ypsilanti City. Geo. W. Hall, Saline. Homan Backus, Dexter. Watson Barr, Augusta. W. H. Glenn, Dexter. Collins B. Cook, Ann Arbor Town. Joseph Seekinger, Freedom. Solomon Weil, Ann Arbor City. Seth Thompson, " " L. Westfall, Sharon.

We are indebted to GEO. A. RANDALL, of Nevada City, Cal., years ago one of our "Boys," for a package of California papers and magazines. We understand that NELSON LINS, of this city, a Sergeant in the Chicago Board of Trade Battery, died on the 18th inst., of typhoid fever. His remains are to be sent home for interment.

Dr. GRISON has received a dispatch announcing the death of Capt. J. C. CULVER, of the 26th Michigan Infantry, who, we believe of wounds received in one of the recent engagements near Suffolk.

Fairbanks Scales. In a recent number of the Boston Daily Evening Traveler, is the following report of a case tried in the Superior Court of that City: The Plaintiff's claimed $90.00 balance due for a platform Scale sold defendant. The defence was that the Scale was to be equal to a sample of Fairbanks' make. He claimed that it was inferior, and therefore demanded a deduction from the price. Evidence was introduced to show that the Scale supplied was not of more than half the strength of the Fairbanks' Scale, with which it was to be equal in every respect. Verdict for plaintiff, $64.00.

Special Notices.

Wheat sold in Detroit, on Wednesday, No. 1 white at $1.48; No. 1 red $1.30; No. 2 white $1.40.—Corn 57. Oats in streets at 53.

Episcopal Convention. The Annual Convention of the Diocese of Michigan will meet in St. Andrew's Church, on Wednesday, June 3d, 1863. Divine service on Wednesday morning at 10 1/2 o'clock, with the convention sermon, and the holy communion. A missionary meeting on the evening of Wednesday at 7 o'clock.

By reference to condensed proceedings of Board of Supervisors in another column, it will be seen that Robert McColl, Republican, was elected Chairman. This was really done on the first ballot, Robert McColl having 12 votes, McColl I, and James H. Morris II, but both Republicans and Democrats being taken by surprise, and thinking somebody had made a mistake, another ballot was ordered, on which McColl received 12 votes, and Morris II, and one man didn't vote.—McColl was, of course, declared elected.

We do not know who sold out, or what price was paid, and if we did might not tell now; but it would have looked much better for this last edition of a "compromiser" to have voted a few times for the Democratic caucus candidate—or at least once—and allowed his fellow Democrats to aid him in judging when a "compromise" was necessary. It had a bad look to go over to the Republicans "body and breeches" at so early an hour, and, perhaps, the constituents of the skeedaddler may not relish the joke, and may reserve a "spot" for the man when they can identify him.

Death of Corporal Cornelius G. Lyons. Killed May 9th, 1863, at the Battle of the Narrows, Corporal CORNELIUS G. LYONS, Co. H, 20th Mich. Infy. HEADQUARTERS Co. H, 20th Reg. Mich. Infy. May 19th, 1863. The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted by Co. H, 20th Mich. Infy. WHEREAS, Providence has taken from our number, while engaged in the late battle, Corporal Cornelius G. Lyons, therefore, Resolved, That what we submit to that will which "ordereth all things well," we have lost one whom we not only honored as a patriot and a soldier, but one too, whom we respected and loved, loved as one in whose conduct and bearing towards his fellow-soldiers, was always recognized the genuine characteristics of a brave and noble manhood.

A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. Infalible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventive.

WHAT A FEW PRIVATERS CAN DO.—Since the commencement of hostilities, one hundred and six merchant vessels belonging to the Northern States, have been captured by the rebel privateers.—The amount of damage done by the Alabama and Florida alone, it is stated, amounts, up to the present time, to about eight millions of dollars, including vessels and cargoes. This is the work altogether, of about five privaters—mostly the work of two, in operation at the same time.

Pear Trees. The well trained dwarf is a creation of human skill, as much so as any work of the architect. If a man does not know how to build, or cannot take time to learn, let him eschew dwarfs as too small business for him.

The Potato Rot. To prevent potatoes from the disease or rot, put a spoonful of salt into each hill, so as to have it dissolve and go down to the roots.

Beating Floors. As houses are now built, floors are apt to be very noisy annoyances. The timbers are so strained up that the floors become resonant like a drum.

Wells in Deserts. The French are acquiring great influence among the desert tribes of Algeria by the introduction of European arts, especially that of boring for water.
