Who could have thought the world would be awake in such short space... I therefore left the windows open...

A SAFE INVESTMENT.

In the second year of the late civil war I was married, and went to live with my husband in a small village on the Hudson...

THE MINISTERIAL MIS.

Did you know that the first time that ever I fired a gun, it was at a "chippy"...

OLD JOE D.—

Old Joe D.—was a quiet old man, but somewhat too fond of the bottle...

THE KING.

"Ruler of the world," the counselor answered, "you have sentenced my friend the physician to death because he only discovered a girl's face by a stain which could be washed off easily..."

WAITING.

Wait, little one, wait: The cross comes in its purple gown, The marginal soon wears its golden crown...

ADVISE GRATE.

A good many women are, in these days, trying to earn their own living without any, or with very slight, preliminary preparation for the task...

THE KING.

"Ruler of the world," he said, "your physician, seeing that my daughter surpasses the moon in glory, has in a fit of jealousy, deformed my child by throwing a caustic fluid over her face..."

THE KING.

"What is this?" asked the King. "Ruler of the world," the counselor answered, "you have sentenced my friend the physician to death because he only discovered a girl's face by a stain which could be washed off easily..."

A Narrow Gauge Railroad.

It is quite encouraging to the new settlements of this country, which are languishing for railroad facilities, that a cheap "narrow gauge" line has been successful in Great Britain.

The Little Wonder.

The Little Wonder is an eight-wheeled double bogie engine of war cylinders 8-10 inches in diameter, with a stroke of 13 inches.

A Lesson for a King.

An ancient Persian fabulist tells the story of a king, who, having hanged his general because he had lost a battle, resolved, in his rage, to kill the widow and children of the unfortunate officer also.
