ISABELLE'S TRIUMPH. BY LIZZIE TABER. "Jessie, I wish you would be a little more womanly—your childish actions annoy me exceedingly."

"Ah, Isabelle, would that she were more like you!" Herbert answered. "Then, indeed, I should be proud to call her wife, Isabelle, I love you. It is a sin, perhaps, but I cannot help it."

"Never mind, little one," he said, in a kinder tone. "I will not speak so harshly again; but I dreamed Isabelle's ridicule."

"I am glad for Jessie's sake, that you have returned, for she has pined for you terribly, poor child."

Strasburg Cathedral, Clock and Library. One of the most lamentable results of the siege of Strasburg, leaving out of view the loss of human life, is the injury which the bombardment has inflicted on the noble cathedral and its wonderful astronomical clock.

Prohibitory Tariffs. The tariff enters into the canvass of 1870. The fiscal treasury overflowing, and with a surplus of one hundred millions, needs high duties no longer.

A Funeral at Muckross Abbey. As we were approaching the old Muckross Abbey, our guide told us there was a funeral there, and perhaps the young lady would rather not go just then.

Extravagantly Dressed Children. One of the features of Long Branch is the number of extravagantly dressed children one sees on every hand.

The Beautiful Radical Tariff. Under its luxuries for the wealthy are taxed less than articles of necessity for the poor.
