played by T. W. Root, Esq., upon his Abstract Books, which has made him familiar with the records of the office to be placed in charge. He is a worthy young man and will make a good officer.

His nomination over such opponents as entered the list against him is an endorsement to be proud of.

EDWIN F. UHL, of Ypsilanti, was unanimously nominated for Prosecuting Attorney. Mr. UHL is a graduate of the University, a young lawyer of prominence, a member of the firm of NORRIS & UHL. The Democracy have heard him on the stump and know his qualities as a speaker. Of Democratic stock he has been brought up in the right way. We can safely promise that if elected he will make a capital officer, administering the difficult and onerous duties devolving upon him in the interest of justice alone.

The candidates for Circuit Court Commissioner are RICHARD DEARAN, of this city, and J. WILLARD BARRETT, of Ypsilanti. Both are competent in every respect, and both were candidates two years ago, at which time Mr. BARRETT was elected, and Mr. DEARAN defeated without good cause. We trust that both will be elected, and we can guarantee two good Commissioners.

For Coroners, Alderman PECK, of this city, and PHILEMON C. MURRAY, of Salem, were nominated. Both are old settlers, and either would delight to hold a political inquest over a politically deaf opponent.

Mr. CAPWELL, of Ypsilanti, the candidate for Surveyor, is the present Surveyor, and no better man for the place can be found in the county.

Such, fellow Democrats, is the ticket presented for your support. It is well distributed, no locality has gobbled the lion's share, and there is no reason for any dissatisfaction. Let it receive every Democratic vote. Union with defeat is better than division and the success of part of the ticket.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Republican County Convention was held at the Court House on Saturday last, October 8th, and the following ticket nominated:

Register—CLINTON SPENCER, of Ypsilanti.

Treasurer—STEPHEN FAIRCHILD, of Sharon.

For Prosecuting Attorney—ANDREW J. SANMYER, of Chelsea.

For Circuit Court Commissioners—SIDNEY G. TAYLOR, of Ann Arbor, and C. H. VANCE, of Ypsilanti.

The County Fair—theatries.

We spent Friday on the air grounds, and took a general survey of everything on exhibition. The show of cattle was large and excellent...

The show of sheep was fine, both in Fine and Long Wool. The pens of Long Wool were just brought in from Canada...

The show of horses was good, though not superior as that in Cattle. The entries were: 1. Class 1, Thoroughbred, 2. For all work, 3. Carriage Horses, 4. Hackneys, 5. Draught Horses, 6. Saddle, 7. Jacks and Mules.

The show of fruit was confined mostly to Apples and Grapes, though we noticed some of extra fine Quinces. The Vegetables show was good though not large.

The receipts amounted to $2,000. The Premium list will be found in another column.
