

Senator Thurman's Speech at Columbus.

By the Hon. S. P. Thurman, U. S. Senator from Ohio.

It has been understood that the reports of Senator Thurman's speech, covering the late session of the Senate, were imperfect, a revised report has been furnished the Ohio Statesman.

On the new departure he said: Now, my friends, it has been common for the Republican party of this country to say that the Democrats are the new departure, and that new departure, they allege, consists in saying that we have been wrong and the Republicans have been right.

This Chicago Tribune thinks, and our readers will agree with it, that it will be still more difficult for the Secretary of the State to obtain a clear and positive view of the general understanding that he has permitted his "syndicates" to borrow the gold in the Treasury by the new bonds.

How Protection Hurts the Protected. An import duty of ten per cent. in gold is levied on foreign hides, to protect the domestic industry.

ANN ARBOR. FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1871.

"The Ann Arbor (Mich.) Argus, a professed Democratic paper, assails in sharp terms the Democratic platform of Ohio on the financial and public debt questions. It wants the 'greenback and public debt questions left alone.'"

Who asks for the bondholders made a "privileged class"? If a contract has been made, however, for which we are not responsible, to pay them either principal or interest in gold, is it a mark of financial wisdom or national integrity to repudiate such contract, and set innumerable shipmaster mills running, to grind out greenbacks to pay the debt, while making greenbacks worthless to the common people who don't hold bonds?

Every Saturday says of Loring and Butler, two Republican candidates for the Massachusetts gubernatorial nomination: "One is a mere boneless and nerveless party hack, who wanders up and down the State with eyes greedy for office. The other is a turbulent and sensational disorganizer, traveling hither and thither in quest of an indorsement that shall feed his selfish ambition, and thinks that the woman suffragists are committing suicide in favoring either."

THE LOIL EVANS, Pennsylvania's agent to collect the war claims of that State against the United States, and who retained the handsome little sum $291,000 as commission or fee, for which little transaction he is now being prosecuted or persecuted, claims that his only offense consists in not dividing with the members of a certain political ring in Hamburg, composed, of course, of good men and true "lollists" all. He refers to play that old game boys and girls a score or more years ago were familiar with, "hold fast to you get," to giving the lion's share to his associates, and so the State of Pennsylvania and his old haunts "know him no more."

Prince de Joinville considered himself incompetent to discharge the duties of President of France, but thought he should know how to govern as king. That was as easy as falling off a log, only two rules of action being necessary: 1st. "Every Frenchman should be a functionary." 2d. "Every Frenchman, on reaching the age of five, should be decorated."

THE CHICAGO BOARD OF EDUCATION has taken an advanced position, declared that "compensation should be graded according to the work, rather than by the sex of the teacher or principal," and has fixed the salaries of two lady principals of grammar schools at the same paid male teachers of the same grade. And women don't vote in Chicago, either.

OUR READERS will remember that the Union Fair or Exposition—new words are catching like the yellow fever—of the Northern Michigan Agricultural and Western Michigan Pomological Societies takes place at Grand Rapids on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next.

THE WARMING DELEGATION got an interview with President GRANT, at Long Branch, on Tuesday. He disclaimed giving any order for the use of troops to go over and control the convention, and that was ignorant of their use until he was informed by the papers. He promised investigation. The committee assured him that "unless the offending officers were removed the State of Louisiana was irrevocably lost to the party;" but as they declined to commit themselves to his renunciation, he will probably not make the required removals, but let the State go to the dogs.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The location of the Soldiers' Monument, which Randolph Rogers is now superintending the erection of, in Detroit, has been changed from the east Grand Circus Park to the Campus Martius. And so the laying-of-the-corner-stone exercises are so much wasted ceremony.

A citizens' meeting was held at Cooper Institute, N. Y., on Monday evening last, and the corruptness of Tammany and the city officials denounced in a number of speeches and twelve resolutions. If "the Ring" can stand that it must be bomb-proof.

A Homeopathic College has been established at Lansing, with A. N. Hart, President; A. F. Weller, Secretary, and Treasurer; Prof. E. D. Burr, Dean, and a full faculty. The first session is to open November 1st.

The New York Evening Post says that the naval attack, by Com. Rodgers, upon the Coraens proves to have been an act of injustice, and that it was a national disgrace. Plain talk.

St. Thomas has again been destroyed by an earthquake. No wonder the King of Denmark wished to sell his real estate in that region to Mr. Seward.

THE ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING.

Pursuant to the requirements of law, the annual school meeting of the district comprising this city and territory adjoining in the town of Ann Arbor, was held on Monday last.

The business meeting was held immediately after the close of the polls, J. M. WHEELER, President of the Board of Trustees, in the chair, and JAS. B. GOTT, Secretary of the Board, officiating in that capacity.

The annual report of the Board was presented and read as follows: ANNUAL REPORT. The Board of Trustees of School District No. 1, City of Ann Arbor, submit the following report for the school year ending September 4th, 1871:

The returns made to the Board, from a census just made, show the number of persons in the district between the ages of five and twenty years, to be 2,502, which is 174 more than last year.

The National Democratic Executive Resident Committee—to-day held a meeting, at which the following statement was authorized: This committee have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the Circular, titled, "Concession, or how the Lost Cause may be Regained and the Independence of the South Secured," now being circulated over the States, as though emanating from a Democratic source.

The Board believing that instruction in music would prove beneficial to the schools at large, yet knowing that some difference of opinion exists as to how far appropriations for that purpose should be made, have directed that the question be submitted to the present annual meeting in the form of a resolution, and with recommendation that the same be adopted.

Resolved, That an appropriation of $500 be made to secure instruction in vocal music in the various departments of our schools as soon as practicable, and that the same be made a part of the regular course of study.

Your action upon this resolution will govern the action of the Board. For particular details in regard to the operation of the schools during the year and the present condition of the same, your careful attention is desired to the able report of the Superintendent to the Board.

Schedule A, made a part of this report, is an exhibit of salaries of teachers for the coming year. Schedule B, also made a part of this report, is an estimate of the probable receipts and expenditures of the coming year.

"Did you ever think of the amount of thought required to plan three months of food for three hundred and sixty-five days in succession? A Washington correspondent says: "The total number of physicians who paid taxes to the Government for the year ending April 30, 1871, was 49,708. Of these 20,000 were regular, 13,000 were homoeopathic, 9,000 were eclectic, 13,000 were miscellaneous, or not classified, 4,770. These figures show that the number engaged in the profession has been over-estimated. The total guess at the number of homoeopaths has been 10,000. It is believed that the government list is very full and accurate."
