Local and Other Briefs.

Remember the High School Junior Exhibition this evening.

Medical and Law Commencements are set down for next Wednesday.

—Easter Sunday is celebrated for March 25th, one week from Sunday next, and good Friday for the 27th—Friday next.

—Those "balmy airs of spring" which should begin to show themselves, don't show around these parts very much.

—The lecture by Professor on Tuesday evening was the very best of the season. His subject was WILLIAM WILSON FORBES, but brilliant pen portraits of Fox, Burke, Sheridan and other prominent contemporaries were grouped around the central figure.

—The "Escaped Nann" failed to put in her appearance at the Opera House on Friday evening last. Probably because our citizens did not bite at the sensation—projected as eagerly and numerously as was expected.

—The celebration of St. Patrick's day by our Irish fellow-citizens, on Monday last, was a success. We hear the eulogy pronounced by Bishop Borgosa, at St. Thomas Church, spoken of in high terms, and the school exhibition at the Opera House gave general satisfaction.

—A man was heard to remark the other day, that "should the citizens' ticket be successful, grass would grow in the streets of Ann Arbor before their term of office expires." Well, wouldn't it be better to grass to grow in the streets than for drunken men to line the gutters?

—Col. Geo. W. Goodhue reported himself at the Ann Arbor office a few days ago, and requested us to say that he and his son had closed a contract for clearing and grading the five miles of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northern Railroad lying between the Saline River, at Milan, and the Macon. They commenced work on Monday last. GOODHUE KNOWS HOW TO DO IT.

—Two calls have been posted for Republican City Conventions: one by the City Committee for next Thursday evening, the 29th; and one by the Chairman of the several Ward Committees for last evening, the 25th. We are unable to discover that either of the interest of the "Liberal Republican Convention" to be held at Cincinnati.

—On the 20th day of March, 1872, one hundred years ago last Wednesday, Thomas Jefferson planted "his last year of peas." It wasn't 65 or 70° warmer than Monticello that day than in our city a century later, Wednesday morning last, the peas wouldn't have thanked THOMAS JEFFERSON to plant them. Think of the misery, March 20th, marking from 4 to 7° below zero, with a keen northwest wind in the way with ice silvers as sharp as needles. When!

A LARGE Republican meeting was held in Hangsterfer's Hall on Wednesday evening, called to endorse the City Committee and condemn the action of the bolters or "irregulars" in calling a second convention to be held first. JAMES MARMON was called to the chair. The action of the City Committee having been stated by its chairman, R. A. BEAL, the meeting was addressed by Judge COOLEY, Hon. CHAS. TRUDE, President ANGELO, Rev. L. R. FISKE, Prof. TEN BROOK, and Prof. PALMER, who ignored all committees and endorsed the citizens' ticket. Messrs. CRAMER and DEAN justified their action in calling the "irregular" convention, and Mr. E. D. KINNE assigned his reasons as a member of the City Committee for joining in the call for a convention on the 28th. Some spicy things were said, and the tone of the meeting was decidedly opposed to a Republican ticket being nominated, and in favor of the Citizens' Ticket.

The "irregular" Republican caucuses were held on Wednesday evening, delegates elected to the "irregular" city convention, and the following ward candidates nominated:

The Aldermen.

1st Ward—A. A. Torry.
 2d "—G. F. Hauser.
 3d "—William Alaby.
 4th "—Edwin Vanlerwerker for full term; G. Paeth for vacancy.
 5th "—George H. Rhodes.
 6th "—W. D. Smith.

The Constables.

1st Ward—Chas. Boylan.
 2d "—John Field.
 3d "—Albert Scudder.
 4th "—Wm. Corleson.
 5th "—Nathan H. Pierce.
 6th "—Thos. L. Hewitt.

—Report says that the caucuses were thinly attended.

The Chairman of the last Democratic City Convention failed to announce the City Committee prior to adjournment. It is stated would be done, the names were not handed in for publication.

The Ward Committees, so far as published, are:

1st Ward—J. H. Morris, P. Marshall, J. E. Davis.
 2d Ward—Jno. N. Gott, Edward Clark, G. F. Lutz.
 3d Ward—P. Winagar, H. Paul, Edward Dugy.
 4th Ward—R. Beahan, L. Gerstner, S. Webster.

On motion of Ald. Gott the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was postponed. Ald. Mann having, as directed by the Council, obtained the bonds voted by the city in aid of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northern Railroad, from the State Treasurer, delivered the same to the Council.

On motion the report was accepted and adopted.

On motion of Ald. Gott the Recorder was directed to burn the bonds in the presence of this Council, which was done by the Recorder as directed.

Ald. Rhodes, of the Finance Committee, reported the following bill, which, on motion, was adopted:

799—C. B. Porter, $12.00.

On motion of Ald. Porter the Recorder was directed to have the proceedings of this meeting published in the city papers.

On motion the Council adjourned.

S. M. WEBSTER, Recorder.

Jobbery in Federal Buildings.
 The economy of the Grant administration, so admirably illustrated by an expenditure on the Congressional Globe of $167,869.09 for the first two years of Mr. Grant's term against $270,348.87 for the same purpose during the eight years of Lincoln and Johnson, is again demonstrated by the cost of public buildings from 1861 to 1871. From 1861 to 1868, both inclusive (excepting 1865, for which no figures are given) it officially appears that $1,859,412 were expended on the erection and furnishing of United States custom-houses, post-offices, and court-houses, and for the same purposes for the same purposes for 1869, 1870, and 1871 the sum of $7,513,207, or something over four times in three years of Mr. Grant the amount expended in eight years of Lincoln and Johnson. Of course it will be said that Lincoln's four years included the war time, when work of this kind virtually ceased; and we may therefore leave the expenditures of Mr. Lincoln's time, $2,043,004, out of the question. We have then a cost of $1,998,108 in the years of Mr. Johnson, no figures being given for 1865, against one of $7,513,207 in three years of Grant. Why this enormous increase of 500 per cent? Perhaps it may be said that on Mr. Grant's term fell the burden of rebuilding or repairing the ruined or injured custom-houses and post-offices of the South. It answers this to say that the only places South in which custom-houses, etc., have been built or repaired in 1869, 1870, and 1871 are New Orleans, Mobile, Charleston, Savannah, Petersburg, Knoxville, and Columbia, the entire output being but $846,000, or about one-twelfth of the total expenditures of the kind during Grant's administration. The fact remains without defence that the erection and furnishing of Federal buildings which cost but $1,600,000 under Johnson have called for $7,600,000 under Grant. Why the increase of $6,000,000? And why the astounding item of $6,000,000 in addition for the same purposes in the fiscal year? It is not patent that the military ring at Washington is jobbing the Federal buildings as Tammany jobbed the new Court-house.—N. Y. World.

Rail Road Stock Assessment.
 Office of Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern R. R. Co., Ann Arbor, March 13, A. D. 1872.

Notices is hereby given, that the Directors of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Railroad Company, having heretofore designated that part of said Company's Railroad which cost but $1,600,000 under Johnson have called for $7,600,000 under Grant. Why the increase of $6,000,000? And why the astounding item of $6,000,000 in addition for the same purposes in the fiscal year? It is not patent that the military ring at Washington is jobbing the Federal buildings as Tammany jobbed the new Court-house.—N. Y. World.

The Citizens' Ticket.

Pursuant to notice the citizens, irrespective of party, held a mass meeting on Friday evening last, to nominate candidates for city and district officers. The Court being in session the meeting organized by electing Hon. Tios. M. Cooley Chairman, and RICHARD BEAHAN, Esq., Secretary, and adjourned to Fireman's Hall, which was densely packed at the top of the bell, leaving a large number of anxious ones "out in the cold."

Business being resumed at the hall, a committee of four from each ward—twenty-four in all—was appointed to recommend candidates, which committee immediately retired for consultation.

During the absence of the committee the meeting was addressed by Rev. DR. COCKER, who strongly endorsed the efforts of the Council to regulate the traffic in liquor, etc., and called upon all lovers of law and order to rise above party for a brief period and unite in maintaining the authorities. Dr. COCKER was followed by J. AGRESTI SCOTT, Esq., Rev. L. R. FISKE, JAS. McMAHON, and J. G. LELAND, who took similar ground, President ANGELO was called out and expressed himself on the ground of being in a new comer.

In due time the committee returned and reported, recommending the nomination of candidates as follows:

For Mayor—SILAS H. DOUGLASS,*
For Recorder—STEPHEN M. WEBSTER,*
For Justice of the Peace—

Full term—RICHARD BEAHAN, vacancy—JAMES McMAHON.
For Supervisors—
 1st and 2d Wards—William A. Hatch.
 3d and 4th "—Alonso A. Gregory.
 5th and 6th "—J. Austin Scott.
For Collectors—
 1st and 2d Wards—John Keck.
 3d and 4th "—Nelson P. Hill.
 5th and 6th "—Eli Manly.

For Aldermen—
 1st Ward—Joshua G. Leland.*
 2d "—Henry Krause.
 3d "—William W. Whedon.
 4th "—Moses Rogers for full term; Elijah W. Morgan for vacancy.
 5th Ward—Moses Seabolt.
 6th "—Wellington D. Smith.*

For Constables—
 1st Ward—Charles Boylan.
 2d "—Joseph J. Ellis.
 3d "—Jorth Forbes.
 4th "—William Corleson.
 5th "—Newton Felch.
 6th "—Maquie D. Miller.

The four candidates marked with * are now holding the same offices for which they are named, and were renominated as a direct endorsement of the position they have occupied during the stormy year just drawing to a close.

The report of the committee was accepted, and the several candidates named nominated unanimously.

Mayor DOUGLASS was then called out and in a pointed speech reviewed his action for the past year, and gave his fellow citizens to understand that if re-elected the same policy would be pursued until a better one could be devised, and that nothing would be left undone to establish and maintain the reputation of our city as a law and order community.

The meeting was also addressed by Judge COOLEY, after which it adjourned.

Ye Reporter was especially fortunate in having the pleasure of attending the festival given by the Good Templars, on Thursday evening last. It was, indeed, of a verily, a time and place where the full latent and purpose of "a feast of reason and a feast of soul" was had. The number of guests present—although no special effort had been made in the way of public notice—was nearly two hundred, and, among the largely represented, were that better portion of the human family—the ladies; and, of course, always opportunely, where they are wanting there will be very little of that commodity known as the flow of soul! For, indeed, in the opinion of your modest, retiring, retired reporter, they are to the stoical, cold and indifferent hege lords of earth what the locomotive is to the railroad train—a positive, yet passive piece of machinery—all powerful to move and draw all who fall within their wake! Of the representatives of the different palpit in our city, we were pleased to notice, Revs. Habbell, Fisk, Haskell, and Dunfield, who respectively made extended and appropriate, as well as telling remarks, setting the great subject of temperance before their audience in an entire new dress,—quite acceptable to even those fastidious literary gossips who have long since denounced the subject as threadbare, the cause a failure, and its lecturers all advocates of bad bones. After the remarks of the Rev. gentlemen, the chair man announced an original poem, by J. Q. Wing, Esq., entitled "Pandemonium."

After this exercises, supper was announced, and the appetites, as they had been sharpened by delay and the intellectual repast given the mental man, went to work to regale the inner man, and the biva'ves, which were held in great abundance and prepared in a style in which epicures do most relish, together with coffee, cake, etc., put away with a gusto that hungry mortals know how to assume. Music was furnished by the ladies during the evening, which was very good, and which lent additional interest to the occasion. Great credit is due the ladies of the committee, to whom was entrusted the getting up—as well as management—of the entire entertainment, which, by common consent was declared a perfect success, and a happy time to be remembered by all who were present.

The trial of HENRY WAGNER, charged with the murder of his wife, was completed on Friday last. The case was given to the jury by Judge HIBBY at 9½ o'clock A. M., in a charge conceded to be clear and fair. The jury was out just two hours, and then came into Court and rendered a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree." Saturday morning he was sentenced to solitary confinement and hard labor for life, and was taken up to Jackson on Monday.

In the case of PHILIP JHOSS, convicted of burning machines to defraud the insurer, a motion for a new trial was denied, and he was sentenced to the State Prison for 3½ years.

GEO. M. MCCOY was convicted of larceny and sent to prison for six months.

Two or three judgments were rendered on default, and on GARDNER WEBB and MATTHEW ALDEN admitted to citizenship.

—The Court adjourned on Saturday to May 7th.

In the appropriate place will be found a call for a Democratic City Convention, to be held at the Court House on Thursday evening, March 28th; and also for Ward Caucuses to be held the preceding evening, March 27th. These caucuses should be largely attended.

Mrs. SYDNEY LAWRENCE, wife of Judge LAWRENCE, and one of the most estimable women of this city, died on Wednesday forenoon, of consumption, having been long a patient sufferer. Her funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Her age was 93 years.
