

Table with 4 columns: Length (line, square, column, page), and 4 rates (1 w, 2 w, 3 w, 6 m, 1 y).

Advertisements to the extent of a quarter column or less, will be inserted for the first insertion, and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Legal advertisements, first insertion 75 cents per line, and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Job printing, including cards, labels, bills, etc., at short notice.

Business Directory, listing various professionals and businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Job Printing, listing various printing services.

Business Directory, listing various businesses.

Vol. XXVIII.

ANN ARBOR, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1873.

No. 1444

AN OLD MAN'S DREAM. BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES. Oh, for an hour of youthful joy!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

Oh, for an hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring!

At the risk of my life; but how, in Heaven's name did she get here?

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

She presented me with a note without speaking a word.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

Paris-First Observations and Impressions-Through the Principal Boulevards.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

A few minutes now brings us to the Madeleine, one of the finest churches of Paris.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place.

upon one side, being at the Place du Concord about 400 yards wide, the most narrow place. The wide avenues referred to, with its parallel side paths, constitute the most fashionable drive and promenade of the city, and for the accommodation of those who wish to be seated to take notes or to listen to the music there are thousands of chairs to be rented at a few times each all about the most frequented and eligible places. Some of the trees here are a foot or more in diameter and the shade is complete. As all classes are to be seen about the various points of attraction in the city, it affords one of the best opportunities to observe Parisian life in its relaxation and ease and is one of those scenes which never ceases to interest the stranger.

THE COMMISSION AND UNIVERSITY. In the Constitutional Commission on Monday last, the educational article being under consideration, the power the Regents should have over the disposition of the interest fund and other funds appropriated in aid of the University, received due attention, as follows:

Mr. Withey moved an amendment to section 2, so as to give the Board of Regents control of all the state funds of the University, and all appropriations by the Legislature, except as otherwise provided by law.

Mr. Upson—Wouldn't you be stirring up a hornet's nest? Mr. Withey—Perhaps so, among the homeopaths. He contended, however, that it should be under the entire control of the corporation having it in charge.

Mr. Crane concurred in the object desired, but favored retaining the section as it stood. Mr. Withey withdrew his amendment.

MR. WITHEY WAS ON THE RIGHT TRACK, and we regret that he yielded to the fear of his colleagues and withdrew his amendment. We do not believe that the Constitution would be weakened by the insertion of the provision proposed by MR. WITHEY.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS shall have the general supervision of the University; the exclusive right and power to establish and fill such chairs or professorships as existing or authorized departments as they shall deem necessary, or for the good of the institution; and the direction and control of all expenditures from the University interest fund and of all funds appropriated in aid of the University, unless made for a specific purpose by the Legislature.

MR. POND SAID: The language of the section as it stood was subject to construction, and was the very language on which the Supreme Court decided in the homoeopathic case. It was proposed that the Legislature might attach conditions to appropriations when made, but it was not proper that the Legislature should dictate to the Regents about the management of the university.

MR. POND SAID: The language of the section as it stood was subject to construction, and was the very language on which the Supreme Court decided in the homoeopathic case. It was proposed that the Legislature might attach conditions to appropriations when made, but it was not proper that the Legislature should dictate to the Regents about the management of the university.

MR. WITHEY SAID: The language of the section as it stood was subject to construction, and was the very language on which the Supreme Court decided in the homoeopathic case. It was proposed that the Legislature might attach conditions to appropriations when made, but it was not proper that the Legislature should dictate to the Regents about the management of the university.

MR. WITHEY SAID: The language of the section as it stood was subject to construction, and was the very language on which the Supreme Court decided in the homoeopathic case. It was proposed that the Legislature might attach conditions to appropriations when made, but it was not proper that the Legislature should dictate to the Regents about the management of the university.

ALL SORTS OF PEN-SKETCHES.

THAT Trans-Atlantic balloon didn't go up. It burst before it was filled, the material of which it was constructed proving to be an inferior article and not strong enough for the purpose.

At a recent sale of blooded cattle—short horns—at Utica, N. Y., the herd of Hon. Samuel Campbell, 111 animals, brought $380,890. Ten cows and heifers of the Duchess family brought $219,250, an average of $21,700.

—In the Constitutional Commission the first petition was received on Monday, which petition was a remonstrance against omitting from the revised Constitution the words, "but no money shall be appropriated for the payment of any religious services in either House of the Legislature."

—The Postmaster at St. Louis is threatened with removal by Postmaster-General Creswell because he assessed 5 per cent. upon the salaries of his assistants and employees. Having used it to dine and wine President Grant won't that dignitary be likely to respond to Creswell's demand, "Do you see anything green?"

—An engine, tender, baggage car and one coach were dethatched at Stony Creek on the Great Western Railroad on Tuesday evening, crushing the engineer and burning up the fireman. Cause an open switch. Supt. Muir immediately ordered the arrest of the brakemen responsible.

—An encouraging dispatch comes from Washington: a statement—and a statement ought to be more than a mere rumor—that a member of the Committee on Banking and Currency of the last Congress will at the coming session introduce and advocate a bill establishing a free banking system.

—The names of the killed are Wm. Deaman, of Williamson, and Calvin Winchell, of Lansing. The following are the names of the injured: Charles Steel, Williamson, thigh broken and badly injured internally; supposed to be in a dying condition.

—The names of the killed are Wm. Deaman, of Williamson, and Calvin Winchell, of Lansing. The following are the names of the injured: Charles Steel, Williamson, thigh broken and badly injured internally; supposed to be in a dying condition.

—The names of the killed are Wm. Deaman, of Williamson, and Calvin Winchell, of Lansing. The following are the names of the injured: Charles Steel, Williamson, thigh broken and badly injured internally; supposed to be in a dying condition.

—The names of the killed are Wm. Deaman, of Williamson, and Calvin Winchell, of Lansing. The following are the names of the injured: Charles Steel, Williamson, thigh broken and badly injured internally; supposed to be in a dying condition.

DETROIT PRODUCE MARKET.

WHEAT—white, $1.05; amber, $1.04; red, $1.03; soft, $1.02; per bushel. CORN—white, $0.75; yellow, $0.74; per bushel. POTATOES—$0.60; per bushel.

DETROIT LIVE STOCK MARKET. From the Detroit Free Press. MICHIGAN CENTRAL CATTLE YARDS Monday, Sept. 15.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

RECEIPTS FOR THE WEEK. CATTLE. Hogs. Sheep. Week ending September 8, 343 2,065 4,624. Week ending September 15, 456 1,708 5,570.

1873. SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE NATIONAL LIFE ASSOCIATION INSURANCE COMPANY.

Table with columns: STATIONS, GOING WEST, GOING EAST. Rows include Detroit, Ann Arbor, Jackson, etc.

Table with columns: STATIONS, GOING WEST, GOING EAST. Rows include Chicago, Kalamazoo, Jackson, etc.

THE ASSOCIATION INSURANCE COMPANY. OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Daily Opening OF FRESH Fall Dry Goods.

Greater variety than ever before! NO HOUSE IN THIS CITY Can also complete a stock of DRESS GOODS.

RECEIPTS: From Jan. 1 to July 1, 1873. ($10 months). Premiums—including receipts on reinsured policies, $700,120 47.

DISBURSEMENTS: From Jan. 1 to July 1, 1873. ($10 months). Death Claims and Annuities, $125,865 22. Cash and allowances for surrendered policies, 71,074 65.

LIABILITIES: Total present value of all policies in force, including all policies reinsured—being the amount requisite to reimburse all outstanding risks, $1,906,612 00.

Ratio of Assets to Liabilities 162 per cent. Total Assets, July 1st, 1873, $2,116,275 41. Total Liabilities, July 1st, 1873, $1,299,911 63.

Business College! Bank Book, Ann Arbor, - Michigan. Students can enter any time after Aug. 1st. Call and examine facilities for study at our very pleasant and newly furnished rooms.

Country Produce. Meffatt Block, Detroit, Mich. W. W. Whedon, Ag't, Ann Arbor. N. B. Cole has established his Cash Office at the store of J. B. Lippincott & Co., where all orders will be promptly attended to.

If you wish to have your Probate or other legal advertising done in the ARGUS, do not forget to call the Judge of Probate and Circuit Court Commissioners to make their orders accordingly. A request will be granted.

To Printers and Politicians.
The Printing Office of the MICHIGAN ARGUS is now offered for sale at a bargain. Possession given October 1st, or sooner if desired by the purchaser. For information address the publisher or call in person.

Local Briefs.

- CARDS.
- Circulars.
- Bill-Heads.
- Letter-Heads.
- Shipping Tags.
- Printed at the ARGUS office.
- In the best style and cheap.
- Don't order elsewhere before calling.
- Satisfaction guaranteed in every respect.
- The philosopher's stone: Advertise—in the ARGUS.
- A Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry has been organized at Saline.
- A new sidewalk has been built in front of the First ward school house.
- The County Fair is to be held next week, commencing on Wednesday.
- Richard Burke was admitted to citizenship by the Circuit Court on Friday last.
- Joanna O'Neil has obtained a verdict of $100 against a city for tearing down old building in Fifth ward.
- Examinations for admission to the University commenced yesterday. A large Freshman class is indicated.
- Johnson sold two of his houses at auction on Saturday last, and was offering the other three yesterday afternoon.
- Rev. Dr. Gillespie having out his vacation short services at St. Andrew's Church will be resumed on Sunday next.
- We would remind the Common Council that a good deal of sidewalk needs repairing or rebuilding before cold weather.
- Dr. Pomeroy of this city is not the Pomeroy who has joined with Dr. Woodruff in a raid on the Regents of the University.
- The attention of all interested in life insurance is invited to the advertisement of the National Life Insurance Company in another column.
- J. S. Henderson has purchased the farm of the late Wm. R. Martin, just south of this city, of acres, about half in Pittsfield and the other half in Ann Arbor town, paying $5,500 cash. Cheap property.
- Don't fail to read the address of Geo. W. Hays, of the Farmers Store, or to remember our oft repeated advice to buy of those who know what to buy and how to sell.

The criminal business in the Circuit Court has been disposed of as follows:

The Brechenbach murder case continued because of the sickness of the principal witness for prosecution. Defendants at large on bail except Walter Metcalf, whose bail has been fixed at $4,000.

Robert O'Brien, convicted of larceny, Sates Prison 3 years.

William Durand, returned from Reform School because incorrigible, sent to House of Correction for 4 years.

The Court is now at work on civil calendar.

Merchants doing business at Manchester get their goods at 33 cents per hundred; Ann Arbor merchants pay 50. This fact we learn from one of our citizens doing business both in our city and Manchester. The village on the Raisin has two railroads and the competition brings down freight 17 cents per hundred. We could make a strong argument in favor of the immediate completion of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northern Railroad. Let the Directors resolve upon a narrow gauge, negotiate their bonds, and push the work forward. The rolling stock can be had to start with—the "United Rolling Stock Company."

The trial of Myron Brown, charged with firing the M. E. Church at Ypsilanti, was concluded in the Circuit Court on Saturday afternoon last, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Brown was immediately arrested on a warrant issued by Justice McMahon, the complaint being for the burglary and robbery of the office of Justice Crane and City Clerk Woodruff, and was held for trial in the sum of $2,000 bail. The sureties were furnished, and Brown is presently "plying his vocation" at our neighboring city down the Huron.

In the earlier days of our journalistic career, perhaps when we were only a "prentice, or may be but a "printer's devil," a paper was established in New York called The Beacon, which was frankly displayed at its mast-head the following motto:

"We'll take for and aft every lubberly craft That comes in our way, without fear, For to chase and to slay, and take what may, Is the trade of the bold Buccaneer."

And now, judging by the raid made on the Ann Arbor columns, and without as much as a "thank you" or "by your leave," we are safe in saying that the Detroit Evening News has inherited the piratical proclivities of the defunct Buccaner, but without a tithe of its frankness. To office attaché or "local" we commend the light beginning "while the lamp holds out to him."

We have on our table, bearing the imprint of Leopold & Baer, Leipzig, a 48 page pamphlet with the following title: "On the use of the Sulfides top, tip, tin in Homer; a Philologist's Dissertation written to procure the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Leipzig, by Martin Luther D'Ooge, of Michigan." As the object of the dissertation was accomplished, we will take it for granted that it is "tip top" without a reading; that is if Dr. D'Ooge will excuse us. However we congratulate Prof. D. on his success.

The Liguards are coming again, and on Thursday evening next, Hill's Opera House, will present "The New Magician," by Wilkie Collins, dramatised by him from his great novel, with Alice Dunning as "Merry Merrick," supported by a first-class comedy company. Wm. Horace Liguard will give, after the comedy, twenty new impersonations, and his former success in this line guarantees something rich and unique. It is some time since our citizens have been favored with an evening's entertainment, and the Liguards will meet a hearty welcome.

The officers of the First National Bank of this city publish "A Card" in another column which will be found of special interest to the Ann Arbor readers and the public at large. It includes a statement of the bank, which gives assurance to business men that deposits entrusted to its care are as safe and secure as they can be in the results of any banking institution, and that one may sleep soundly at night with First National drafts or certificates of deposit in his pocket.

We have received from S. E. Slutes, publisher of Woods' Household Magazine, a beautiful oil chromo at the Yosemite, embracing El Capitan, North Dome, South Dome, Clouds' Best, the Merced River, Bridal Veil, &c. This choice picture is given as a premium for two yearly subscribers to the magazine named at $1.00 each, or to a single subscriber for two years in advance, at $1 a year. Address publisher at Newburgh, N. Y.

J. R. Webster & Co. have removed to the store lately occupied by John Moore, and Gregory Block, where they will be glad to see and wait upon all "friends or foes" wanting books, stationery or anything else in their line. Their stock is full and complete.

HEAVY FAILURE.—The usual quiet in business and financial circles in our city was seriously disturbed by the report on Saturday last, at about 4 o'clock P. M., that Miller & Webster, Bankers, had closed their doors and made an assignment to C. B. Grant, Esq., which report proved true. The firm was an old one and had enjoyed the confidence of the public, not because of the known sagacity of the members but on account of the popularity of the managing man of the firm, S. M. Webster.

On Monday and Tuesday Messrs. Bach and Moore assisted the assignee in going through the books and papers, and we learn that the liabilities to depositors will exceed $50,000 while the valuable assets will fall below $100,000. To go into detail will confer no good upon the public so that we will not enlarge.

The general opinion seems to be that the firm must have lived on their depositors for several years, as no losing speculations are known.

A committee of creditors reported yesterday in favor of throwing the firm into bankruptcy, the preliminary steps will, we presume, be immediately taken. The committee in question seem determined to contest the legality of payments made to certain seemingly "preferred creditors," who were so fortunate as to remove their deposits on the day of the assignment. And if half the reports are true they will clearly be justified in so doing.

No one is glad to know that the failure has not shaken public confidence in the other banks in the city.

A sworn statement of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank will be found in another column, showing a financial condition which will, no doubt, confirm that institution in the confidence of the business public—and confidence is what is wanted in times of panic and reverse more than when all is free and easy.

The Music Store of J. R. Sage & Son has been removed to the Gregory Block, two doors East of the postoffice, where they will be pleased to see all wanting pianos or other musical instruments, sheet music, &c.

WE ARE advised by Mr. BOWEN, Secretary of the New Capitol Corner-Stone Committee of Arrangements, that the railroads will run special trains and carry passengers at half fare. The corner-stone is to be laid on Thursday, October 24, and the ceremonies are expected to be very imposing.

THE STATE FAIR is now in progress at Grand Rapids, with an unusually large, fine, and attractive display in the several departments. The attendance up to yesterday had not been as large as anticipated, because of unfavorable weather. Yesterday was probably the big day though to-day, weather permitting, will nearly equal it.

Loss of the Propeller Ironsides. GRAND HAVEN, September 15.—The propeller Ironsides, of the Engelmans line, connecting with the Detroit & Milwaukee Railroad, and one of the largest steamers on the lake, foundered and sank seven miles off this port, at noon to-day. Her signal of distress was hoisted at 9 this morning, but so terrible was the sea and heavy wind that no assistance could reach her. She labored in the trough of the sea from 8:30 A. M. to the time she sunk. The passengers and crew prepared the boats to leave her at about 10:30 A. M., and the last boat left her at 11:50 A. M. There were 19 passengers and 32 of the boat's crew. With the last boat had departed about a quarter of a mile from her she went down.

EFFORTS AT RESCUE. The Ironsides was in plain sight of the harbor until she went to the bottom. Senator Ferry was one of the first to discover her signal of distress, about 10 o'clock, but it was too late, and even then there was no boat here which could ride the terrible sea to carry relief. The propeller Lake Breeze bravely undertook the terrible task, but was herself disabled before she got half a mile out of the harbor.

RELIEVING THE SAVED. There has been great excitement here all the afternoon. Hundreds of people thronged the beach and aided in rescuing several of the passengers, providing them with clothing, brandy, and other comforts.

STATEMENT OF THE CLERK. The following is the statement of Mr. N. G. Watkins, of this city, clerk of the Ironsides: "We left Milwaukee at 9:40 last night, with 19 passengers and a crew of 30 men, and were due in Grand Haven between 5 and 6 this morning. The cargo consisted of 13,000 bushels of wheat, 500 barrels of flour, 125 barrels of pork, and some miscellaneous articles, which was a very light cargo, as the boat could carry eleven hundred tons. Moderate breeze was blowing from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men working at the pumps. Water had already put out the fires, and the engines were useless. I then went to the office, got the passenger register, money and manifests, and went on the hurricane deck, where I found Captain Stewart, who was getting the forecastle hoisted. I do not know how long we were there, but we were blown from the southwest, which constantly increased until it became a terrific gale before daylight. I did not get up until 9 o'clock, when the boat was rolling fearfully. I immediately went below and found the men

The Michigan Argus

THE MARCH OF THE YEARS.

BY R. L. CARBY, JR.
Trump, tramp, tramp,
How the deep, low tones of the years;

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

Revenue and Protection.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

When protectionists drop the mask of knavery they show the face of folly. One needs with which they try to keep the tariff chains on the people, is that we have to provide a large revenue for our necessities and that a reduction of duties would leave our Treasury empty.

CONDENSED RECORDS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY.

OUR ABSTRACT BOOKS!
As printed indicated above, are now posted to date. They are complete and correct, and contain all the original claims and all new claims of title. Instance, such as:

AUDITOR GENERAL'S DEEDS.
Known as Tax-Titles, which are very numerous in this County.

Decrees, Contracts, Deeds!
WILLS, & C.

Also now as well as all the old undischarged mortgages as far back as 1821, which are legions. Persons taking title or mortgages and liens will remember that Tax-Titles and other collateral matters are not found in the usual mode of search by Indexes at the Register's office.

DERBYSON'S HIVE SYRUP AND TOLU
Dr. Ransom's HIVE SYRUP has been known and used by the medical profession over 100 years.

MAGNETIC BALM
This medicine may with propriety be called an "Universal Remedy," as it is fast superseding all others as a general family medicine.

ROSBADALIS
THE GREAT ALTERNATIVE AND BLOOD PURIFIER.
It is not a quack nostrum. Its ingredients are published on each bottle.

SCROFULA
And kindred diseases, EPIHEMATISM, WHITE SWELLING, GOUT, GONORRHOEA, LEUCORRHOEA, INCONTINENT CONSUMPTION, AND ALL DISSEASURES arising from a depraved condition of the blood.

STEARNS' COCO-OLEINE
A perfect hair dressing—not a dye, nor a restorative, but a dressing, elegant and economical.

HURRY UP!
PARTIES wishing Wall Paper, Cloth and Paper Shades, Holdings, Window Pictures, Cords, Tassels, &c., all New Styles, all the latest styles, by J. Walker, Prop'r. R. H. McDONALD & CO., 101 N. Second St., Buffalo, N. Y.

ARGUS BULLETIN!

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

WANTED
More Merchants and Business men, who knowing their own interests will advertise in the ARGUS.

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS James E. Settle and Eliza Ann Settle, Washington, and State of Michigan, county of Washington, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, and notary public in and for the State of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS James E. Settle and Eliza Ann Settle, Washington, and State of Michigan, county of Washington, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, and notary public in and for the State of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS James E. Settle and Eliza Ann Settle, Washington, and State of Michigan, county of Washington, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, and notary public in and for the State of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

WHEREAS John Clair and Eliza Clark, of the State of Michigan, on the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, executed and acknowledged before Charles J. Howell, of the city of New York, a certain mortgage...

Advertisement for 'The Michigan Argus' newspaper, including subscription information and contact details for the publisher.

Advertisement for 'Fountain Nasal Injector' and 'DR. PIERCE'S CATARRH REMEDY', detailing their medical benefits and usage.

Advertisement for 'CONDENSED RECORDS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY' and 'OUR ABSTRACT BOOKS', providing information on legal records and abstracts.

Advertisement for 'DERBYSON'S HIVE SYRUP AND TOLU' and 'MAGNETIC BALM', describing their medicinal properties.

Advertisement for 'ROSBADALIS' and 'SCROFULA', highlighting their effectiveness in treating various ailments.

Advertisement for 'STEARNS' COCO-OLEINE', a hair dressing product, and 'HURRY UP!' for various household goods.

Advertisement for 'THE ARGUS OFFICE' and 'THE BABCOCK', offering services and products related to the newspaper and printing.