MACARIUS'S LESSON.

BY BOB TERRY COOKE. The sunning lay along the sands. The fingers, level, shining hands. Into an open cell it shone. Where Macarius sat alone. And started as a shadow fell. Across the glitter in his cell.

DECORATION DAY.

"Manibus date lilia plebis." Mid the flower-wreathed tombs I stand Bearing lilies in my hand. Commend! in that soldier-grave. Is the bravest of the brave?

L. M. CRANE'S ORATION.

The following is the Address delivered by the Hon. I. M. Crane, of Eaton Rapids, on the occasion of the unveiling of the Soldiers' Monument in the Fifth Ward of the city of Ann Arbor, on Decoration Day, May 30th, 1874.

THE TWO LOVERS.

Two lovers by a moss green spring; They leaned soft cheeks together, Mingled the locks and sunny hair, And heard the wooing thrushes sing.

LOCOMOTIVE YARNS.

From Taylor's "Fast Life on the Modern Highway." Tom Potts a well-known locomotive engineer in the New England States is the self-accredited hero of this wonderful story of successes. I can give you I will narrate it as nearly as I can in my own words.

THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN.

From Harper's Weekly. The movement in favor of the voting of women has acquired a gravity which can not be disregarded. In the Senate of Massachusetts the proposition of submitting amendment to the people was lost the other day by a majority of five only, and in Michigan the question has been laid before the State by the Legislature, and excites very great interest.

Michigan Argus.

ANN ARBOR.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1874.

THE ADRIAN Press proposes the following "opposition" platform for the coming campaign in this State:

1. Uncompromising hostility to the proposed new Constitution.

2. Outspoken opposition to woman suffrage.

3. Determined efforts to prevent the re-election of Zach. Chandler to the United States Senate.

4. A demand for reform in all departments of public service and open denunciation of back-slashy steals, Republican custom house monkey schemes, Sanborn contracts and Presidential salary graft.

5. The opposition force the Republican party to an open issue on these points, which they have so long covertly sustained and advocated.

6. Let the currency system alone, and let the fall of the surest steps toward specie payments would be taken in the overthrow of the Republican party in this State.

7. A platform which "lets the currency system alone" and ignores free trade or a strictly revenue tariff, would be like the policy of Hamlet with Hamlet omitted.

To shut our eyes against the inflation of a depreciated currency and the immensurable evils to follow in its train, and conduct a campaign on the basis of personal opposition to ZACH CHANDLER, or to woman suffrage which is sure of defeat, would be to load a cannon with paper wads.

Besides, it is hardly worth while to commit the party of opposition—whether the Democratic party or a new organization—to the spending of much powder against the constitution. Too much like kicking at a dead lion. Not enough vitality in it to base a campaign issue on, and if ever so vital it is not a political issue and should not be made a plank in a platform.

It is a question outside of party politics and belongs solely to the individual voter to decide.

—We might add that even "Reformers" differ both as to woman suffrage and to the prohibitory liquor law.

We believe that Senator COOK, and at least one of his colleagues, whose name is attached with his to the call for a "Reform Convention," is a traitor to the cause of the woman suffrage amendment and opposed the submission of an alternative section under which a license law—none impossible—could be enacted.

And many of the leading "Reformers" who endorse the call and are expected to take part in organizing a new party at the Lansing convention are champions both of woman suffrage and prohibition. In favor of neither, we see the difficulty of organizing a party based on antagonizing those measures, or making opposition to them two of the five cardinal principles. We prefer no inflation, no protection, no centralization, State and individual rights, coupled with the fifth plank in our contemporary's creed.

IN THE HOUSE, on Monday, Mr. BUTLER moved to suspend the rules, take the Senate Civil Rights bill from the Speaker's table, and refer it to the Judiciary Committee, with the right to report at any time.

The motion was lost by a vote of yeas, 136; nays, 86.—not two-thirds voting for the motion. It is to be hoped that the bill will rest where it is until Congress adjourns.

Its provisions instead of guaranteeing and protecting the civil rights of the individual citizen are an infringement upon such rights. The clause requiring a mixture of races and colors in all public schools has been generally condemned throughout the country, even by leading Republican journals.

But this provision is no more arbitrary and unjust than the one prohibiting a hotel keeper from selecting his customers or class of customers. Heretofore we have heard of German, French or Italian hotels, etc., and there is no good reason why a man may not open a store, restaurant, saloon, hotel, or theater, for the exclusive patronage of one or another nationality or race, and exclude all others. The law that so ignores and violates personal privilege and rights, which undertakes to force an equality where no equality exists, and an equality for the existence of which there is no necessity, is wholly arbitrary and would be intolerable. We make no objection to the negro being protected in every necessary or legal right, but the law should no more force him upon the whites, in any social or business relation, than it should force the whites upon him.

IN VIEW of the fact that the Earl of Yarborough, was led out of his seat in the House of Lords on Tuesday last week by the deputy sergeant-at-arms, and deposited in an ante-room to sleep off a drunken fit, from which he escaped to haunts or parts unknown—even to the police, and to the great grief of his friends, the Detroit Post suggests: "Evidently a moderate and well regulated praying society would not be out of place in the House of Lords, though an enforcement of a rule which would expel in disgrace, and disfranchise from sitting in Parliament any lord who makes his appearance in a state of intoxication would be better."

Will the Post advocate the application of an equally stringent rule to the our "House of Lords" or "House of Commons" either? Let us pluck the mote out of our own eye before going to beat the beam in our neighbor's eye, even though certain distinguished Republican Senators and Representatives shall be retired in disgrace. Purification, like charity, should begin at home.

THE recent address of Senator John P. Cook, of Hillsdale, to his constituents, has so stirred up the Republicans that the organ of the State officers at Lansing will come out to-day with a lengthy review, the same having been furnished in advance to the Detroit "organs," and published therein on Wednesday.

—In the House, on Monday, under a suspension of the rules, a bill for the admission of Colorado as a State was passed by yeas, 170; nays, 5. A full House consists of 292 members. Another "rotten borough," though a little less odious and odorous than the New Mexico scheme.

—And Sawyer, too, has resigned: he who competed for the palm of ignorance and inefficiency with Richardson, and vied with him in signing papers in the "regular order of business"—without knowing their contents.

—The House bill for the admission of the rotten borough of New Mexico has not yet been called up in the Senate, and it is to be hoped that it "sleeps the sleep of death."

—Did the Chicago Post and Mail mean to carry double when it wrote, "Senator Chandler is against all water improvements."

ALL SORTS OF PEN-SCRATCHES.

"GATH" writes from Washington to the Chicago Tribune that, the official staff is demoralized.

Not one man whom the people delighted to hear address them keeps his popularity. Imagine Boutwell on the stump in North Carolina, Oglesby in New England, Logan in Ohio, Butler in New York. These were among the great stumpers of 1872.

The physical vigor of four of the most powerful men in the Republican party is gone. Henry Wilson, B. F. Butler, O. P. Morton, Zachariah Chandler. A long stress, unintermittent waste of nerve-force and temperance, have worn the personals of the Republican party out.

Butler, Chandler, and Morton in this demoralized condition! These apostles of temperance, continence, woman suffrage, and all noble reforms, "pegged out" both morally and physically. Sad to contemplate and our pencil refuses to pursue the subject!

—The Ypsilanti Sentinel hints that the female extravagance—in dress and living—causes more pauperism and crime than the use of alcoholic liquors, and that such extravagance is really the parent of a good deal of intemperance.

There is "something in it," no doubt, but, then, are the ladies wholly responsible? Don't they aim to dress to please the gentlemen of their acquaintance—fathers, husbands, brothers, etc.? Isn't the general extravagance chargeable more directly to the fact that the middle and poorer classes—men and women—try to rival in style of living the families of the wealthy? That is one of the failings of republicanism or democracy.

—A Republican Congressional caucus was held on Monday evening, Senator Chandler presiding. A motion was made providing for a Congressional Committee to supervise the coming elections, pending action on which, Lynch, colored, dismissed the Civil Rights bill and urged its passage, pledging the colored vote to the Republicans whether or no. An effort to introduce the financial situation caused the immediate adoption of the motion for a committee, and a speedy adjournment. "The wicked flee when no man pursueth."

—Bill Allen, of Ohio, the "relic" who made the dry bones of Republicanism rattle in that State in October last, is credited with this good one, Morton (that is the great inflation Senator) having intimated that he was senile: "Mr. Morton suggests that I am too old to be your Governor; that my time of life and loss of vitality unfit me. Can he speak to you, fellow-citizens, in a voice like this [bellowing loudly]? Am I withered from the hips down?" "Hitting the bull's eye," we should say.

—Last week we extracted from the Nation an argument against woman suffrage. Disposed to give the women suffragists fair play, we this week copy a reply to the same from Harper's Weekly. The writer is George W. Curtis, and if he does not succeed better as a woman suffrage advocate than he has as "civil service reformer" he won't help the cause much. He is a sentimentalist and visionary.

—The Jackson Citizen says, in an article discussing the proposed admission of New Mexico and Colorado: "New Mexico is made up largely of bastard Spanish, half Indian, large, scabby, greasy, venal, immoral, superstitious, ignorant, and only fit to figure in a census. And yet the House has passed a bill to make New Mexico a State, and give her 'grassers' two Senators. What next?"

—The Republican State Central Committee met at Jackson on Tuesday, and decided to call the nominating convention to be held at Lansing on the 26th of August. The convention will be larger than heretofore, the committee increasing the representation from two from each Representative district to four, with two from each organized county being but a fraction of a district. The Democratic State Committee should follow this example.

—The Assyrins came down like the wolf on the fold, their cohorts all gleaming with purple and gold: a forewarning of the fate that Michigan is to suffer from the woman suffragists of other States. They are coming in swarms, men and women, long-haired and short-haired, to instruct the men of Michigan how to vote. Well, let 'em come.

—It now turns out that the report of the House Judiciary Committee in favor of remitting the fine imposed upon Susan B. Anthony and censuring Judge Hunt, was the sole work of Gen. Butler, and that it had not been seen or approved by any other member of the committee. As sharp practice as that of Mrs. Stanton in taking votes at her meetings.

—The Detroit Evening News is exceedingly disgusted because the new Insane Asylum has been lost to Detroit, and denounces the successful Pontiac as the dullest, dearest town in the State; while the Tribune derives consolation from the fact that Detroit was not beaten by "Utica, or Inkster, or Royal Oak, or Ecorse."

—The Pomeroy bribery case (ex-Senator Pomeroy of Kansas) has been adjourned to July 27th, to accommodate the attorneys for the defense. Petitions were presented, signed by York, Simpson, Johnson, and Horton, who "put up the job" on Pomeroy, praying a nolo prosequi, but Judge Morton refused to order such an entry.

—The recent address of Senator John P. Cook, of Hillsdale, to his constituents, has so stirred up the Republicans that the organ of the State officers at Lansing will come out to-day with a lengthy review, the same having been furnished in advance to the Detroit "organs," and published therein on Wednesday.

—In the House, on Monday, under a suspension of the rules, a bill for the admission of Colorado as a State was passed by yeas, 170; nays, 5. A full House consists of 292 members. Another "rotten borough," though a little less odious and odorous than the New Mexico scheme.

—And Sawyer, too, has resigned: he who competed for the palm of ignorance and inefficiency with Richardson, and vied with him in signing papers in the "regular order of business"—without knowing their contents.

—The House bill for the admission of the rotten borough of New Mexico has not yet been called up in the Senate, and it is to be hoped that it "sleeps the sleep of death."

—Did the Chicago Post and Mail mean to carry double when it wrote, "Senator Chandler is against all water improvements."

—It was women who assaulted and threw beer in the faces of crusading ladies at Manistee; it was a woman who looked up the Adrian crusaders last week and kept them in durandio seven or eight hours; it was a woman who assaulted a witness and an officer at Adrian two or three days ago. And yet woman suffrage is to promote the spread of temperance and all moral reforms. Perhaps!

—The storm of Friday afternoon and evening last was very destructive in Detroit, filling up sewers, backing water into cellars, destroying stocks of dry goods, groceries, etc. The damages are variously estimated at from $100,000 to $200,000.

—A Rochester man named Lewis Swift is credited with the discovery of a new planet. "It is quite bright and has a tail about half a degree in length." It must be a sort of celestial "connecting link." And now for the lost man with a tail.

—The "late lamented" Artemus Ward proposed to dispose of the national debt by paying it off in greenbacks and letting the greenbacks wear out. Fully as sensible as the inflation schemes of Morton, Ferry, Logan, Butler, Field, Conger & Co.

—A "Butter Convention" is to be held at Indianapolis on the 27th inst., Wednesday next, at which $1,000 are to be awarded as premiums for eleven essays on butter-making. There is need of improvement and reform in that branch of business.

—Schuyler Colfax (the great retired) is to deliver the annual address before the United Literary Societies of Olivet College, the evening before the coming Commencement, or June 17th.

—The Lansing Republican persists in being unreconciled to Elizabeth Cady Stanton: to the great grief of the woman suffragists of the State, who see defeat in divided councils.

—The Lawrence House at Adrian was struck by lightning on Tuesday afternoon, creating great consternation among the inmates, but doing no great damage.

—Gold closed in Wall street Wednesday at 111.

—The Detroit Post goes for one of Mr. Stanton's stock arguments (?) in favor of woman suffrage in this wise:

"One other bumping is common among lecturers on this subject. It is that women are classed with idiots, lunatics, children, and convicts, because all these do not vote. This is absurd. If true, then gentlemen who vote are classed with paupers, drunkards, thieves, rascals of all kinds, ignoramuses, demagogues, paraded traitors, semi-alcoholics, Sanborn, Tweed, and others of that sort, because they all vote. The population of Sharon, as reported by Supervisor Annals, is 1,026, or 61 less than shown by the census of 1870. The males number 541, and the females, 485. There are 285 males 21 years old. The Enterprise (Manchester) gives the following statistics:

St. Louis on "Mixed" Schools. ST. LOUIS, June 9.—At a meeting of the Public School Board this evening a resolution was adopted by a vote of 20 to 2, providing that a memorial to Congress be prepared urging members of that body to amend the civil rights bill now pending in the House so that it shall relieve all schools from the necessity of admitting children of both races to the school rooms and classes wherever equal provision has been made for the education of each in separate schools; also, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the School Boards of neighboring cities threatened with a like danger as St. Louis, and an invitation be extended to them to co-operate with this board with a similar memorial. The preamble sets forth that provisions of the Civil Rights bill would, if carried out, work irreparable injury, if not total destruction, to the public school system in St. Louis, as well as in other cities in our section and throughout the South, by causing the withdrawal of a large number of white children from the public schools, and by strengthening the adversities of the public schools to such an extent as to secure the repeal of the public law by which said schools are supported.

Miner's Lung Disease

Gravel, tearing plume of glowing gold,
Leaning upward, lovely to behold,
Clinging to the high cliffs rugged edge:
Burning in the pure September sky...

How much of life's rapture is your right?
In the joy that may your portion be?
Recked by the sun, the moon, the light,
Feet by breeze, and sung to by the air...

Caricature in Controversy caricature is a legitimate weapon of controversy...

Singers and Their Throats.
In some entertaining gossip about singers,
Olive Logan gives this lamentable report on the condition of their throats:
"A fact little known to the public regarding the singing voices, is, that nearly all of them are in a state of inflammation...

WE ARE TOLD THAT "the young girls of Rome, after they have been prostrated in marriage, are seen by their lovers for the first time in public in the rotunda there by a single opening in the roof, and the light above is most favorable to beauty."

A Young Postmaster's Honesty.
Abraham Lincoln was once postmaster
in the small village of New Salem, "out West." He then went to Springfield to study law, and for four years had been a friend of "poor Abe," happened to fall in with the agent, and was sure that he had nothing in his pocket to pay it with.
He went, therefore, to the office in order to obtain his money, or rather to lend it.

The Rate of a Liar's Pulse.
From the Utica Herald.
Multitudinous are the ways on record for detecting a thief, but there is one species of sinner that often defies detection.
A light finger may be crippled, but a light tongue is hard to stop. The blush of conscientious guilt does not always follow a lie, and of all self-possessed men the professional liar is the calmest. The fact of successful concealment is often characteristic of the youngest falsifier, and his precocious depravity is often a blank study to the keenest moralist or physiognomist. It has been learned by the genius of the physician, however, a sure way of detecting at least a juvenile pre-varicator. The discoverer of this method is a member of the medical profession in Greene, Chenango county, and his name is Dr. Williams.

APPLETON'S American Cyclopaedia.

THE work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPAEDIA was completed in 1858, and which time with its circulation which has been attended in all parts of the United States, and the branch of science, literature, and art, has induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOPAEDIA.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the low ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol.
The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of
