

TO OUR PATRONS.

Having decided to adopt the Cash in Advance system, on and after January 1, 1875, we desire to largely increase the circulation of the ARGUS, we will receive subscriptions up to the end of the year 1874, at the rate of $1.00 per year; and present subscribers can receive the same for one year at the same price, if paid before the above date. To our new subscribers, taken since our accession to the Advance system, we will receive subscriptions up to the end of the year 1874, at the rate of $1.00 in advance, and also those who have already paid $2.00 in advance, we will send the ARGUS to the end of the year 1875. Let each of our subscribers immediately renew his subscription. No name will be entered on our lists without ADVANCE payment, and $2 a year will be exacted from all present subscribers who do not pay strictly in advance for 1875.

CARR & GOULET.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

A merry Christmas to all. - (A very Job printing done at the ARGUS office.) - Call at the ARGUS office for your New Year cards. - A valuable horse belonging to J. A. W. Cullen died on Monday. - Prof. D'Ooge is spending the vacation at his old home in Grand Rapids. - The new building at the County House has been completed and accepted. - Remember the pigeon-shoot at C. H. Manly's, in the Fifth Ward, to-day. - Large numbers of the students have returned to their homes to spend the holidays. - L. S. Lerch, druggist, has placed a new sign over his store door, of the word of Fred. Berg.

Mrs. J. A. Bayles, of Lee's Summit, Mo., sister of Mrs. E. B. Pond, of this city, died yesterday morning. - Company B propose to celebrate the advent of the new year with a grand ball at their armory on Thursday evening next. - H. Richmond, a miller at Delhi Mills, was in town on Wednesday last with a piece of lead extracted from one of his eyes. - Caleb Moore, of York, one of the oldest residents of this county, died at his residence in Montville on the 21st inst., aged 71 years. - Prof. D'Ooge, of the University, will preach next Sunday in the Unitarian Church, subject for evening, "Culture and Religion."

The annual Christmas seal and dinner to the members of the County House, by the members of St. Andrew's church, takes place to-day. - The first installment of taxes received by County Treasurer Fairchild, was paid by the Treasurer of the township of Dexter, on the 12th inst. - The postoffice of this city will be open on Christmas day from 10 to 11 o'clock, a. m., and from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m., for the accommodation of the public. - Rev. S. W. Duffield, late of this city, delivered his lecture on Martin Luther, before the Young Men's Literary Association, at La-Paro, on Friday evening last. - J. G. Leland was an object of persecution at the police court a few days since. Cause: fast driving on the bridge near Sinclair Mills in the Fifth Ward. - We are indebted to G. C. Noble, of Houston, Texas, and to A. Fitzmiller, of Virginia City, Nevada, two ARGUS subscribers, for late papers of their localities. - Our friend and former fellow-citizen, D. A. Kelly, of Ypsilanti, has determined on a removal to the South, probably to some point in Mississippi, and will soon take his departure from this city. - Prof. Taylor left on Thursday last for a visit to the East, and will be absent till the first of January. It is understood that he has several lecture engagements, which he will fill during his absence. - Some benevolent friend of our neighbor of the Courier left a supply of chickens on the doorstep of his office on Tuesday night. Some of them looked as if they had fallen from their nest several months since. - Another new time-table is announced for the Detroit and Toledo route, which will take effect on the 1st of January. The express will run over the main line only; the side-line to be used as a freight road. - The new marble shop building of Anton Beale, on Detroit street, has been completed for temporary use, and now occupied by his business. The building which he vacated is being fitted up by its new owner, F. Neble, for a saloon. - Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock an eastern bound freight train was entering the depot yard at the upper switch, the engine and the truck, carrying with it seven cars, causing considerable of a wreck, and delaying passenger trains for several hours. - Wm. M. Hathaway, a graduate of the Ann Arbor office, an "ink-blender" on the Grand Rapids Post since its commencement, about a year and a half since, has resigned his position as assistant editor of that paper. What his adventures has he got into his head? - We had a call from Mr. Y. Y. Came, traveling agent of the Chicago & Northwest-ern Railroad. This company has just issued a new railroad map of the United States and Canada, showing all the railroad connections, as well as many other important features. Any one sending to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, will receive a copy of the map by mail free. - A match game of chess was played by telegraph, on December 18th, between members of the Jackson club and the University Chess Association. After contesting the game for two hours and forty minutes the Jackson players resigned, leaving the victory with the University players, Charles C. Stewart, of the Law Department, and John F. Shaffroth, of the Literary Department. - Since Mr. Brown gave our citizens some interesting tests in mind-reading last summer, a trial in his profession on the City of Galena, has appeared upon the stage, and for the past two weeks has been delighting Ypsilanti and Detroit audiences with his wonderful powers in this art. An interesting account of a private entertainment given in the latter city a few days ago will be found elsewhere. - At the annual meeting of Sharon Grange, No. 7, the following officers were chosen: Master, David G. Rose; lecturer, Charles Felt; secretary, John J. Robinson; treasurer, Charles Rowe; steward, Geo. R. Spaulding; chaplain, Rev. S. P. March; Ceres, Mrs. J. J. Robinson; Flora, Mrs. Sam Cushman; Pomona, Mrs. N. Blackman; lady assistant steward, Miss Ella Rose; gate-keeper, Harvey Blackman. - On Monday evening the large barn of Geo. R. Williams, of Lima, was destroyed by fire. The barns were valued at about $10,000, and when built were considered the best in the State. There was an insurance of $5,000 on barns, and $1,000 on contents, in the Washburn Mutual. There is not the least doubt that it was the work of an incendiary. It will be remembered that an attempt was made to fire the same buildings a few weeks since. - Newspapers, books or merchandise in unsealed packages, and over four pounds in weight, can be sent by mail at the rate one cent for every ounce or fraction thereof, but any writing inside subjects the package to letter postage at the rate of three cents for each half ounce, and the sender is liable to pay a fine of $5 for each offense. Any writing on the outside of the wrapper of such package, except the sample address, subjects it to letter postage.

Romance of Old Age.

There was a somewhat venerable but very happy couple in the city Saturday on their wedding trip, though the casual observer would hardly have suspected the latter fact. They left on the Lansing train at 3 o'clock for their home in Washtenaw county. The incidents which led to the union of this couple are so full of interest and so full of romance, it seems that the old gentleman, Deacon Joseph "Dad," who is now upward of 70 years of age, took it into his head last fall to go on a short visit to the home of his children in the West. He had been married for 40 years, and his children had arrived at man's estate, and he had gone out from under his roof to seek their own fortunes in the world. It is not unlikely that the loneliness of his surroundings had something to do with the suggestion that he should break into the monotony of his humdrum country life with a little pleasurable change of scene. He had plenty of leisure on his hands, nothing was more natural. So, putting a change of clothing in his satchel, he set out for New England. As fortune would have it, before he had quite reached the place of his destination a slight accident happened to the train, by which he was delayed an hour or so. The deacon got out of the car and looked about, and the hills and rocks, which had been strangers to his eyes for so many years, almost renewed his youth. As the train was likely to be detained for some little time he wandered to a house near by. Judge of the old man's surprise to find that the lady of the house was one whom he knew in early life. Indeed, when both were young, they had felt a regard for each other, and they had long since, in regard which they felt for each other. But the fates, and the fates often do this cruel work, separated them, and they had long since lost trace, and almost recollection, of each other. However, recognition was mutual, and in this pretty little town of New England, the deacon and the lady who was glad to see the lady and that the lady was glad to see the deacon. Both had traveled a long way down life's journey since they had parted, and both had lost their comports. What more natural than that they should talk over old times. And speaking of those things the scenes and incidents of early life arose vividly before them and what more natural than that there should spring from this revival the old love, kindled anew, and that it should burn into a bright flame? Such was the case. All this did not transpire at the single visit, but the old man lingered in the neighborhood, and it soon became apparent that the lady was the strong attraction which drew him thither. The result was that before the deacon returned to his Michigan home, they plighted their faith anew, and the old man came back happy as a lark, and thanking Providence for the railroad accident, which gave him a new lease of life and life's joys. After a few months he went back to claim his bride, the happy event was consummated, and on Saturday the venerable couple passed through the city on their way home. Though well along in years the deacon is hale and vigorous, and walks four miles to Salem postoffice for his mail. He reads the papers and keeps his mind posted on affairs. He is intelligent and upright man, he enjoys the confidence and esteem of his neighbors, who all wish him joy in the consummation of a long-delayed dream, and many years of health and prosperity yet to enjoy.—Detroit Post.

Centaur Liniments.

Have cured more wonderful cases of rheumatism, aches, pains, swellings, frost-bites, calloused feet, burns, scalds, salt-rheum, &c., upon the human frame, and strains, sprains, galls, &c., upon animals, in one year, than all other pretended remedies have since the world began. Certificates of remarkable cures accompany each bottle, and will be sent gratis to any one. There is no pain which these Liniments will not relieve, no swelling which they will not subside, no lameness they will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. No family or stock-owner can afford to be without Centaur Liniments. White Wrapper for family use; the Yellow Wrapper for animals. Price, 60 cts.; large bottles, $1.00. J. B. Ross & Co. 53 Broadway, New York.

The New Church at Dexter.

The Dexter correspondent of the Detroit Post gives the following description of the new Catholic church at Dexter: "The new Catholic church is now nearly completed, and will be dedicated on Jan. 5, 1875. A grand festival and supper will be held for the benefit of the society on the 30th inst., when the Rev. Mr. Ferguson, President of Trinity College, Sandwich, will deliver the address. The work on the interior of the church is very elaborate, and is being conducted by H. Hague & Son, of Jackson, in the highest style of art. The walls are ornamented with elegant Doric columns supporting a ceiling handsomely decorated with panels. The roofs and arches about the altar are laid with mosaic effect. The windows are lofty and composed of stained glass, while two windows in the chancel are adorned with figures, life size, representing the Virgin and Child. The altar, the wainscoting, and the singers gallery, are all in good taste. The house is heated by a furnace, underground, and every thing pertaining to the building is of first class style. The edifice is the crowning ornament of Dexter, and will cost the society, when fully completed, $25,000. At a meeting of Ann Arbor Encampment, No. 7, I. O. O. F., held on Friday evening last, the following officers were elected: C. P.—Chas. J. Gardner. H. P.—Andrew R. Schmid. S. W.—John G. Lutz. W. G.—C. George. Treas.—D. Almandinger. J. W.—Geo. W. Hartley. Representatives to Grand Encampment—D. Almandinger and H. Krapp.

At a regular convocation of Washtenaw Chapter, No. 6, E. A. M., held on Monday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

H. P.—James Boyd. King—Fred. Sore. Secretary—Chas. J. Kintner. C. H.—Lester Soule. P. S.—Chas. M. Jones. R. A. C.—H. A. Nichols. 3d. V.—I. C. Hussey. 2d. V.—W. S. Corvally. T. W.—J. J. Johnson. The Gen. Agent for Tiff's Portable Revolving Clothes Dryer, is now canvassing the city. This Clothes Dryer is meeting with rapid sales wherever introduced. Its capacity is from 9 to 120 feet of cord, and can be put up in the yard, that a lady is saved from going on wet ground in hanging out clothes; and is easily removed when not in use. Please examine it for yourself. - IN -

Undersigned would most respectfully call the attention of his many friends and patrons throughout the county to the contemplated change in his business, to take effect January 1st, 1875.

I have concluded to dispense with the credit system and establish in its stead a cash system, on the first of the New Year. I will open an entire new clean, and fresh stock of goods, bought from first hands for cash, consisting of a full line of Groceries and Provisions, Boots, Shoes, and India Rubber Goods, Hosiery and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, together with a full line of Wooden, Willow, and Stone Ware, which will be sold for CASH, AND CASH ONLY, at from ten to fifteen per cent lower than any house in Washtenaw county can sell them for on the Credit System. An inspection and comparison of goods and prices under the new mode is solicited and I will insure satisfaction. Respectfully yours, &c., EDWARD DUFFY.

Card to Merchants.

The undersigned would respectfully give notice to the merchants of Ann Arbor, whom he has faithfully served as night-watch for a number of years, that unless there is an increase in the commission paid, and some means taken whereby it can be collected without the great trouble of visiting each one personally every month, he will be compelled to quit the business. With many thanks to my numerous friends for their kindness in the past, I am Respectfully, EDW. STILLING.

Notice.

The Stockholders of the Ann Arbor Trading Association are hereby requested to meet at their office, No. 18 South Main St., on Thursday, Jan. 7th, 1875, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before it. GEO. SUTTON, President. C. T. WILSON, Secy. 1510m2

NEWS SUMMARY

The East.

The question of the abduction of the boy Charles Rose from Philadelphia is a fair way of being solved, but in a somewhat tragic manner. The secret of the kidnapping is about to be brought to light by the death of the notorious New York burglar, who was killed near the house of Judge Van Brunt. One of them made a verbal confession to the effect that he was the veritable abductor, but failed to reveal the hiding-place of the boy. Boston has been held by two disastrous conflagrations on the 15th inst., destroying property to the amount of over a million dollars. On the same day a fire in Charleston, Mass., consumed $125,000 worth of property, and another at San Pablo, Cal., destroyed a rolling-mill, involving a loss of $125,000. The public, the new York Herald, who was started in New York a few weeks ago in opposition to the Times, has suspended.

A hotel and nine stores in Bangor, Me., were burned on the 16th inst. A large portion of the town of Forest City, Ark., has been destroyed by fire. The losses of the Boston fire are set down at $500,000; insurance about $150,000.

MAYOR SPOKELY and other officials of Philadelphia have received anonymous letters from unemployed workmen threatening assassination unless their demands for work and pay are complied with. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Holmes of Philadelphia, who for some months have been exhibiting a material spirit, purporting to be that of "Katie King," who lived in London over 200 years ago, have been exposed as frauds and swindlers, and Robert Dale Owen and Dr. Childs, two leading Spiritualists of Philadelphia, have united in denouncing them.

COMMANDER WILLIAM B. CHESBRO, removed a few days ago to the Government Insane Hospital, is dead. He was a native of Chautauque county, N. Y., and was appointed to the navy in 1857.

HAYDEN, Gen. & Co.'s new dam at Hayden, Mass., was over a morning last week, and the water dammed every object in its course. The ice was covered with skating, and it is not known that any lives were lost.

The West. Des Moines, the capital city of Iowa, has been destroyed by a case of Lynch-law. At 2 o'clock on the morning of the 15th inst., a mob of 150 men forced their way into the jail, and, taking out one Charles Howard, a poor character, who, a few hours previously had been tried and convicted of murdering John Johnson, an equally poor character, in a brothel, hanged him to a lamp-post. Howard had been sentenced to imprisonment for life. The amount of grain in store in Chicago on the 15th inst. was 1,872,244 bushels of wheat, 85,822 bushels of corn, 302,130 bushels of oats, 22,777 bushels of rye, and 808,553 bushels of barley, making a grand total of 3,107,681 bushels, against 2,728,728 bushels at the same time the previous week.

According to the Cincinnati Price Current—good commercial authority—the total number of hogs packed at 279 interior points in the West, up to the 16th of December, was 1,160,000 head, against 1,697,000 last year. The average weight per head is 215 lbs., against 21 pounds per head last season. The packing at the six principal cities is given at 2,010,000 to date, against 2,070,000 last year. The Price Current estimates that the total packing this season will aggregate 3,400,000 head, against 3,290,000 last season. Hon. J. B. Rice, Representative in Congress from the First Illinois district, died at Norfolk, Va., last week.

The Governor of Kansas telegraphs to the Chicago Tribune that 20,000 people in the Western counties of the State will need aid this winter.

Express men were killed and a number of others wounded at a battle on the 21st inst., by a boiler explosion at the factory of Laird & Co., The Unions of about 500 men are up in their Chief, "Rain in the Face," now in irons at Fort Lincoln for the murder of the Yellowstone expedition of 1873, is not released.

The South. The Champion cotton press in Charleston, S. C., was recently destroyed by fire. Loss, $230,000.

The Mississippi Legislature met in extra session on the 17th inst. Gov. Ames sent a message claiming that the disturbed condition of affairs was about to become a menace to the peace of the State, and that the colored pupils, threatening to return to school, were a source of much discord in New Orleans. The students of one of the boys' high schools marched in a body, the other day, to one of the girls' high schools, and demanded admittance therefrom on the ground of colored pupils, threatening to return to school. The colored girls promptly and quietly left the building, and the boys returned to their own school. The same day a serious row occurred at another school between white and black pupils, resulting in several bruises and scratched faces.

Washington. The Postoffice Commission has agreed to recommend the passage of a bill fixing the salary of the Postmaster at New York at $8,000; Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia, $6,000 each; Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Baltimore and San Francisco, $5,000 each.

The report of the commissioners appointed to liquidate the affairs of the First National Bank exhibits some amazing revelations. Its assets were worthless loans, on worthless securities, and the depositors have very little hope. The Venetian mission has been suspended. The Senator Morgan, of New York, has introduced a bill, as amended and revised, for the relief of the District of Columbia, which gives equal rights in cemeteries or in public schools where no good provision can be made for them separately. Gen. Butler will urge its passage at an early day. It can be reported at any time and passed through by a majority vote, which it is thought it can receive.

The House Railway Committee has agreed to report in favor of Gen. Hubert's bill to aid in the construction of a narrow-gauge railroad between the East and West. King Kalakaua was formally recognized by both houses of Congress on the 16th inst., and attended a reception in the evening at the Monument in Washington. The House Committee on Railroads has agreed to recommend the passage of a bill authorizing the construction of the Memphis-to-Chicago canal, to extend from Chicago to the Mississippi river. It is proposed that the canal shall cost $4,000,000, and the committee recommended that $1,000,000 be appropriated by Congress for the work at this session.

1878, the man who discovered the Pacific Mail corruption plan in 1872, has acknowledged that he spent $75,000 in securing the subsidy, but refused to give the names of the persons who received it. Jefferson Rice, one of the proprietors of the Congressional Globe, died suddenly, of apoplexy, on the 20th of December.

The President and Mrs. Grant gave a state dinner to King Kalakaua on Tuesday last. The King and his suite had a large number of distinguished judges and gentlemen were in attendance. The Mint Director estimates the stock of specie in the country at $160,000,000, and the annual production at $70,000,000.

Political. C. S. Condit has been re-elected Mayor of Boston by 18,000 majority. Mr. Jewell has been confirmed Postmaster-General by the Senate with little opposition. The President has reappointed James W. Marshall First Assistant Postmaster-General. He has also nominated S. B. Austin to be Governor of Utah.

The announcement comes from Washington that the long-contemplated reorganization of the Federal offices in the South is about to be carried into effect.
